*“Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.”
– Matthew 22:9-11*

I have asked myself for over 20 years why does the American church sends missionaries to foreign countries to preach what they call the Gospel overseas (Galatians 1:8), and at the same time, they fail to preach the Gospel to the people here. After all, the greatest mission field in America is the schools that are completely being overlooked.

Christian annual income is 12.3 trillion dollars (The Traveling Team Baxter).

About 11.4 billion is given to foreign missions, 87% of which goes to work being done among the already Christian population.

How does this make sense? It doesn't.

That is like going to Haiti and teaching them Haitian Creole and/or the French language.

Now, if it is really about missions and reaching the lost

(Luke 19:10), then the church can now save its money because the Hattians are now coming to America's front doors (Deuteronomy 28:43).
