

A Message Of Glorious Hope From The Mom's March For Our Children And America

My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her.

–George Washington

My sweet momma read the Bible to me, along with all the wonderful childhood books, as well as the once conservative Chicago Tribune. I learned to love, to cry, and to watch politics, all because of what my mother taught me through books. She was a mom who would be in this gathering of mothers.

Now those same kinds of wonderful mothers are bringing us back to the glory roots of American society and culture. Sarah Palin, Candy Carson (wife of Dr. Ben Carson) and Missy Robertson (Duck Dynasty) join the list of power moms speaking at the Mom's March, a national gathering of mothers on September 23rd in the Heartland of America, Omaha, Nebraska, and broadcast live across the nation. Thousands of mothers in every state in America have signed up to join the march in person or online. Public gatherings to view the march are being organized in several states.

I was fortunate to hear Candy Carson last year at Phyllis Schlafly's Eagle Forum Council meeting, and she is an amazing speaker, and an absolutely delightful Christian woman.

Sign the Declaration of Mothers

The Declaration of Mothers is the standard and foundation for the march, and at the top of that list is, "Our Rights Come from God." Please join the thousands of moms in more than 3,000 cities in every state in America who have signed the Declaration proclaiming truth is self-evident, families matter, and freedom is worth fighting for.

A National Map of Light keeps track of how many mothers have signed the Declaration and are joining the march in heart and spirit. These women recognize the powerful influence of mothers and stand united for truth, family, freedom and the U.S. Constitution which protects the divine, inherent rights of mothers.

Mom's March for America isn't a physical march walking down the street, shouting, and carrying signs. It is a cultural march toward a higher standard of decency, civility, and liberty.

"The Mom's March isn't about politics, parties, or presidents," says Kimberly Fletcher, "it's about standing for, and promoting, the principles and values America was founded on—the principles and values that made us the freest, most prosperous nation on earth. Mom's March for America is a movement, uniting mothers across the nation to stand for truth, family and freedom."

This event is for the women of America who are frustrated with the decline in our culture and are seeking a voice for their values. Listen to the minute and a half video by Kimberly Fletcher, Founder and President of Homemakers for America Inc.

Countering the Evil

The Mom's March for America doesn't mention other marches, but what it really does is show America that civility, decency, love of country, and hope for our future still exists in the heartland of our country.

So, in effect, they are countering the evil and darkness of the women's march promoted by Islamist Linda Sarsour. Remember the spewed filth from Ashley Judd, filth that should never be uttered by a lady, which she proved she was not. And there was Madonna telling us she wanted to blow up the White House. All of these foolish women donned "pussy" hats to prove they were women who were for murdering their unborn babies and hating the President elected by the people. They called themselves nasty women and that was an understatement.

This is why we all need to sign the Declaration and turn on the light, and wipe out the evil in our culture with mothers who love God, who stand for truth, who reverence the family and who cherish freedom.

How to Help

For event details, go here. Check out their press release, and please help by donating what you can. A good portion of the funds needed to cover costs have been met, but they are still relying on America's mothers to help hit the target. It's up to us to help fund this wonderful gathering from our own pockets, no George Soros help with this one!

Check out their media kit and send it far and wide to radio stations, local newspapers, talk show hosts and Fox News.

Show up in Omaha! This is our chance to shout out that America still has the values our parents and grandparents were raised with, the very same culture and values that made America great. Stand up for the Moms of America.
