

Anchor baby, Marco Rubio armed Benghazi rebels

Senator Jacob Howard, who introduced the 14th Amendment's citizenship clause, said its grant of citizenship would not include persons born in the United States who are foreigners or aliens.

Marco Rubio was born to parents who were both Cuban citizens. As such, he is not considered a natural born citizen. If you want the truth from a Constitutional scholar, watch this short video. Thus, just like Cruz, he is ineligible to hold the position of president or vice-president. Unfortunately, we're living in the age where laws and the Constitution are trampled, and few people truly understand the original law set down by our founders. Both Cruz and Rubio are lawyers, and they certainly know the truth, but disregard the law.

Marco Rubio is another globalist who wants to be an elitist. He is not fit to be president, and lied to the people of Florida to get elected. Let's look at his record.

The Record Rubio Wants Forgotten

Arming Libyan Rebels

Back in 2005 Libyan dictator Muammar Gaddafi had dismantled his WMD program and was lauded by the international community. Thus relations between Libya and the US were improving. However, in 2011, Rubio hoped to polish his foreign policy credentials for an eventual president campaign, and so he thoroughly backed Hillary Clinton's War on Libya. Following the murder of Gaddafi, Rubio, McCain and Graham celebrated with the rebels they helped to arm, just a year before these rebels attacked the embassy in Benghazi. We know the rest of the story.

Rubio and H-1B Visas

Dena Moore, a constituent of Marco Rubio, is endorsing Donald Trump for President. Who is Dena Moore? She is the woman who has filed a discrimination lawsuit against Disney, stating that, "You can't let a bully continue to be a bully." She was one of the Disney workers who was laid off after being forced to train her low wage foreign H-1B replacement. [Link] Moore says Trump is the only one who is standing up to bullies. Dena Moore never realized the laws which were being passed bringing in low wage foreigners to replace American's jobs.

In 2015, Rubio introduced a bill to triple the number of H-1B visas. This bill—known as the I-Squared bill— was endorsed by Disney CEO, Bob Iger, via his immigration lobbying firm. Disney is also one of Sen. Rubio's biggest financial boosters—having donated more than $2 million according to Open Secrets.

Donald Trump has taken the opposite stand, exposing what Rubio has done to American workers and calling on Disney to rehire the Americans.

Like Marco Rubio, Sen. Ted Cruz similarly came under fire for pushing to quintuple the issuances of H-1Bs in 2013, before Cruz eventually introduced a bill to crackdown on the program just a few months ago...an obvious flip-flop once he was running for President.

Rubio Loves Amnesty

To win in the 2010 Tea Party Wave, Rubio ran as the anti-amnesty candidate despite an aggressive pro-amnesty record. Politico reports:

"Arturo Vargas, the executive director for the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials, said Rubio, the son of Cuban exiles born in Miami, blocked 'scorched-earth' legislation that sought to clamp down on illegal immigration. 'He, as speaker, kept many of those from coming up to a vote,' Vargas said. 'We were very proud of his work as speaker of the House.' "

"In 2006, Rubio even voted for a bill that would have allowed the children of illegal immigrants to pay the same tuition rates at Florida colleges as residents. Vargas now says Rubio, the candidate, takes a more pointed, less nuanced tone as he stresses border enforcement and his opposition to amnesty. 'He's become your typical candidate in terms of playing to his primary election base...'"

Rubio is well known as the champion of Amnesty, something he was allegedly "against" when campaigning to become Florida's Senator. However, once elected he rushed into Chuckie Schumer's arms and co-authored the "Gang of Eight" bill which was amnesty on steroids. It wasn't surprising, and every single Democrat and liberal in Congress voted for it. However, if the Florida voters had been listening closely prior to electing Marco, they'd have heard him slamming Arizona's SB 1070 anti-amnesty bill of 2010. Rubio actually likened the bill to creating a "police state."

☒ Marco also went on Univision in Spanish, and said he would not rescind President Obama's illegal executive amnesty on his first day in office. He had actually told Univision that Obama's DACA [Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals] is important. He added "At some point it's going to have to end," but then spelled out when and why: "it's going to end because immigration reform is going to pass." In other words, Obama's illegal executive action would stay in place into an indefinite future time when legislation enacts a legal version of it anyway.

Doesn't this just thrill you? Here is an anchor baby, not a natural born citizen of the United States, who is now running for president, who in 2010 wanted to throw the doors open to every foreigner crossing our borders. Rubio is a lawyer, he knows the laws, but disregards them.

Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

I'm of the belief that we need far more border agents than we have today. Several years back, I read where the southern agents were cut in half. I wrote to both my senators, not receiving a reasonable answer from either of them. So I wrote again. And guess what kind of a response I got from leftist Republican Senator Lamar Alexander? He said he would forward my letters to the DHS..(scare tactic), so every time I write to him now, I tell him I've yet to hear from the DHS. He doesn't respond.

Chris Crane is ICE Council President, he is a former Marine, and has served with ICE for 13 years. In a recent Breitbart article, Crane tells of his dealings with Gang of Eight, Rubio. Crane was actually ejected from a Gang of Eight press conference, where he tried to ask questions.

He was integral in stopping this legislation from passing, and Sen. Jeff Sessions says it was a near miss.

The Gang of Eight reached out to big business and amnesty lobbyists in writing this horrendous bill, but never reached out to law enforcement. Crane said he never called on law enforcement personnel to tell what is needed and what they go through day after day.

Finally Crane was allowed to meet with Rubio and told him the changes which needed to be made, and Rubio stated he would make those changes. Not one of the changes suggested by law enforcement made it into the bill before Rubio introduced it.

Much more happened when Officer Crane tried to ask questions of the Gang of Eight, at a press conference, and was booed down by pro-amnesty people and ushered out by law enforcement with nary a word from Rubio or any of the other politicians.

In the article, here's what Officer Crane stated:

“Sen. Rubio has never done anything to help ICE officers do their jobs. With less than 5,000 officers in the United States, Guam, Puerto Rico, Saipan and the U.S. Virgin Islands, Senator Rubio’s Gang of Eight bill provided zero additional ICE officers and zero new resources for ICE officers to enforce U.S. immigration law on the interior of the U.S. This as almost half of all immigration violators entered the U.S. legally and overstayed their visas, so they would have never come in contact with the Border Patrol. So with a force half the size of the Los Angeles Police Department, ICE is tasked with apprehending and deporting over 11 million illegal aliens spread across the entire U.S.

*But Sen. Rubio and the Gang of Eight gave ICE no additional resources. Why? Because they don’t want interior enforcement. Or I should say the Chamber of Commerce and other special interests involved in writing Sen. Rubio’s bill don’t want interior enforcement.

Last year, ICE was ranked 314th—or dead last—in morale among 314 federal agencies surveyed by the Office of Personnel Management. Survey data for this year indicates morale at ICE continued to drop this year, even though ICE ranked 318 out of 320 agencies surveyed.

ICE is literally crumbling from within, but efforts by Sen. Rubio and the Gang of Eight were clearly more focused on legalizing criminals than assisting this agency in turmoil.

Crane goes on to say that Rubio has never apologized, and refuses to acknowledge ICE officers and what they go through day to day on the border. Instead, he and his political colleagues and the Chamber of Commerce continue the effort to open our borders even wider. Crane says, "I think that if elected President, Sen. Rubio's Gang of Eight bill will be reintroduced and this time it will pass. Voters beware."

Conclusion

There is far more to report on Rubio and Cruz and their involvement in other activities I consider traitorous. More to come...stay tuned!
