"Accuse the other side of that which you are guilty." -Joseph Goebbels, Adolph Hitler's Propaganda Minister

Today's "useful idiots," as they were called by Vladimir Lenin, have no shame (Jeremiah 6:15).

Say it and promulgate it, regardless if it is true or not, is what they do (Micah 6:16).

The last things these useful idiots do should be the first things that they do and yet, they do neither and that is to actually have a conversation with the person that you are reporting on. Therefore, as we all the while know, journalism is a thing of the past in this country.

They continuously spew out the Saul Alinsky tactic of "Pick the target, freeze it, personalize it, polarize it. Don't try to attack abstract corporations or bureaucracies. Identify a responsible individual."

Most recently, The Daily Kos propaganda outlet, under the guise of republic insanity, headlined Fanatical Republican Extremist of the Day: Tom Emmer- 2023 Update

This, of course, was aimed at “Fanatical Republican Extremist of the Day” published profiles of the U.S. House Representative from Minnesota’s 6th Congressional District, Tom Emmer...”

In the process of this hit piece, in taking the law hoping to interpret it like the bad little communists do, these propagandists decided to throw me in the mix “it” wrote

“...and has frequently been seen in the company of Bradlee Dean, the head of the “You Can Run But You Can’t Hide” Ministry, which has been classified as an anti-gay hate group for its stance that murdering gay people is “moral”. [Admin note: Dean sued Rachel Maddow (among others) for defamation for their reporting of these issues, and Dean lost.]

Though this has been debunked over and over again, they continuously keep it out there as if this were true (Isaiah 5:20)

We lost nothing, nor did we have to pay MSNBC $24,000. They spread these lies through the controlled media in hopes of you believing that everyone is as corrupt as themselves.

On September 26, 2023, another propagandist did the same thing. Quoting the Southern Poverty Law Center, as Christopher Ingraham’s source of disinformation...

“Sometimes the press will describe us as monitoring hate crimes and so on...I want to say plainly that our aim in life is to destroy these groups, to completely destroy them.” –Mark Potok, director of intelligence at Southern Poverty Law Center.

When I sent an invitation to this propagandist to appear on our show to share with everyone just how bad it is that we are, there was no response. This is how they operate.

Mockingbird media attempts to defame Bradlee Dean again again and again

This post is merely given and laid to the reader's candor for the purposes of showing you what it is that they are responsible for knowingly and willfully doing when misrepresenting this ministry.

For the record, this goes way beyond them going after me being a public person. This is clear defamation with malicious intent and, in the end, they are hoping to put an X (Hit piece) on the back of this ministry. We have had bomb threats, our home put up online while endangering the family, death threats and the list goes on. This is, without a doubt, a purposed and dangerous coordinated effort on their part in ousting their opposition.

One man used SPLC's hit list in order to murder numerous innocent people.

Floyd Corkins, a homosexual activist, walked into the lobby of the Family Research Council in August 2012 with a semi-automatic pistol and a backpack filled with 100 rounds of ammunition and 15 Chick-fil-A sandwiches. Corkins shot the Family Research Council's security guard, Leo Johnson, who then successfully subdued him before he was taken into custody.

During an FBI interrogation, Corkins stated that he intended to "kill as many as possible and smear the Chick-fil-A sandwiches in victims' faces."

Prosecutors said that Corkins planned to leave FRC after the attack and go to another conservative group to continue the reign of terror. A handwritten list of three other groups was found with Corkins' belongings. An investigation of Corkins' computer found that he identified his targets on the Southern Poverty Law Center's website.

Even after the shooting at the FRC, the SPLC went so far as to put an article on the front page of their website in an attempt to heighten the FRC's label as a hate group.

This is NOT free speech! This is criminal!
