

Sanctuary State-City: Another Police Officer Murdered by Illegal Immigrant

Law States, Governor, Mayor and Legislators Are Legally Responsible

"Where did these representatives get delegated authority to hand your country over to illegal immigrants?" –Bradlee Dean

Recently, a friend of mine, who is a police officer from California, texted me after the killing of police officer Ronil Singh by an illegal immigrant in his state.

"Can you believe it.???? A policy that allows illegal aliens, criminals who rape, pillage and plunder to continue prey upon the common citizens of our communities... The criminal illegals, who are known criminals and prey on the innocent, to let them out of jail on bail and not allow ICE to know is insane," he wrote.

He went on to write:

"THOSE WHO MAKE THESE POLICIES ARE INSULATED FROM THE CONSEQUENCES, LIVING IN GATED COMMUNITIES AND MAKING TRIPLE INCOME FIGURES."

[Facebook-video]

Think about what he just said.

This is the said representatives in this country who are doing this to the American people. Friends, there is no such thing as a "Sanctuary City" or a "Sanctuary State" (Psalm 94:20)! How ridiculous to suggest it to be so. Go to Mexico illegally and you will be arrested, deported or jailed.

His text said that these representatives are “living in gated communities and making triple incomes.” This may be, but I am here to tell you they are not insulated from the consequences of the law if Americans awaken to the laws.

Who delegated authority to these representatives to enact that which is unlawful and clearly unconstitutional? Do they work for the illegal immigrants in handing your country over to them or do they work for American people (Deuteronomy 28:343) in magnifying the laws against the illegal aliens? The proof is in the fruit that they produce, as they say (Matthew 7:16), and what these representatives are doing is criminal.

Americans need to ask such questions as to where they are receiving from the “We The People” delegated authority to allure illegals into this country with American tax-payer money, providing homes, giving them food stamps and cash welfare to further endanger the people of this country by offering a place of refuge.

Who gave these representatives the green light to give your country over to a people that mean to kill, steal and to destroy (John 10:10)? We are talking here of the illegal immigrants.

The people didn’t do that! Then why are the American people allowing this to happen?

Are these representatives above the laws that they are to magnify? Absolutely not! Are they serving to enable illegal immigrants to commit crimes against the American people? this is what is happening.

When are the American people going to figure out that these said representatives of the people are, in fact, working for an international order by handing over American sovereignty to foreigners that mean to conquer and destroy (Psalm 9:17).

[YouTube Video]

To add fuel to the fire when looking to find a public reaction or condolences by these said lawmakers to that of murdered police officer Ronil Singh by an illegal immigrant in California, none could be found.

When Twitter accounts of Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi, Congresswoman Jackie Speier, Congressman Eric Swalwell, Senator Diane Feinstein and Senator Kamala Harris were examined, we found that not a one of them expressed any sympathy whatsoever even though they have been active on Twitter since December 26, 2018. Keep in mind that if they did, it would be an admission on their part that they are responsible for the crime. Well, friends, they are. They are aiding and abetting illegals right before your faces.

8 U.S. Code § 1324 – Bringing in and harboring certain aliens

(i) knowing that a person is an alien, brings to or attempts to bring to the United States in any manner whatsoever such person at a place other than a designated port of entry or place other than as designated by the Commissioner, regardless of whether such alien has received prior official authorization to come to, enter, or reside in the United States and regardless of any future official action which may be taken with respect to such alien;

(ii)

knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that an alien has come to, entered, or remains in the United States in violation of law, transports, or moves or attempts to transport or move such alien within the United States by means of transportation or otherwise, in furtherance of such violation of law;

(iii)

knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that an alien has come to, entered, or remains in the United States in violation of law, conceals, harbors, or shields from detection, or attempts to conceal, harbor, or shield from detection, such alien in any place, including any building or any means of transportation;

(iv)

encourages or induces an alien to come to, enter, or reside in the United States, knowing or in reckless disregard of the fact that such coming to, entry, or residence is or will be in violation of law; or aids or abets the commission of any of the preceding acts, shall be punished as provided in subparagraph (B).

(B)A person who violates subparagraph (A) shall, for each alien in respect to whom such a violation occurs— in the case of a violation of subparagraph (A)(i) or (v)(I) or in the case of a violation of subparagraph (A)(ii), (iii), or (iv) in which the offense was done for the purpose of commercial advantage or private financial gain, be fined under title 18, imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both; in the case of a violation of subparagraph (A)(ii), (iii), (iv), or (v)(II), be fined under title 18, imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both; in the case of a violation of subparagraph (A)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), or (v) resulting in the death of any person, be punished by death or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, fined under title 18, or both.

(ii)

Instead of Americans having continuous conversations of the innocent people in this country who are being murdered by illegal immigrants because of the responsible parties, namely corrupt politicians, how about having conversations of how the people in this country are magnifying the laws against corruption within their ranks so that we don't have to worry about illegal immigrants and their crimes any longer (Deuteronomy 25:1; 1 Peter 4:17)?

Sounds good to me (Article 2, Section 4, The United States Constitution).

Who Gave Congress Delegated Authority to Subversive Organizations to Operate in America?

The Declaration of Independence says, "Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." This means that government gets all its power from the people and the people's rights from God.

"Every law consistent with the Constitution will have been made in pursuance of the powers granted by it. Every usurpation or law repugnant to it cannot have been made in pursuance of its powers. The latter will be nugatory and void." (Thomas Jefferson, Elliot, p. 4:187-88.

I cannot tell you how many conversations with the modern-day constitutional attorneys (James 2:14-26) that I have had over the last couple of years in which I asked legal questions concerning groups in this country that are blatantly subversive to American government only to receive equally subversive answers (Psalm 94:20), which, in many cases, have given way to lawless organizations within this country.

Remember:

"Liberty is the right to do what the law permits." –Charles DeMontisque

"Where the Law ends tyranny begins." –John Locke

"No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the law of God." – Judge William Blackstone

[YouTube Video]

In many cases, asking these attorneys why it is that they have the people in this country on the defensive when they are not breaking the law rather than on the lawful offensive by dealing with the lawbreakers, they are dumbfounded (Psalm 78:8-9). But then again, this is how many of these unjust attorneys make a living. Well, how did Jesus respond?

Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. -Luke 11:52

If you are still not convinced, let's look to the fruit (Matthew 7:16) of these organizations that are illegally attacking that which is legal by using the law against the law, which is a Communist tactic.

[YouTube Video]

These organizations, and the useful idiots that operate within them, continue as if to suggest that this is somehow a game to be played when it comes to America's blood-bought freedoms (Revelations 1:5), freedoms which were paid for through the men that sacrificed themselves to give them the freedoms that they now mean to trample underfoot.

Right Wing Watch

This is an organization that continually puts words into my mouth by attempting to get their readers to believe that I am spewing out an unlawful conversation by what I say and by what I do.

They attempt to advocate and defend the indefensible. This organization clearly advocates that which Gods moral law (American Constitutional law) clearly condemns (Deuteronomy 25:1).

As a matter of fact, one of their own media/fact checker outlets identified the organization and their outlets to a T.

This outlet said of Right Wing Watch:

These media sources are moderately to strongly biased toward liberal causes through story selection and/or political affiliation. They may utilize strong loaded words (wording that attempts to influence an audience by using appeal to emotion or stereotypes), publish misleading reports and omit reporting of information that may damage liberal causes. Some sources in this category may be untrustworthy.

Notes: Right Wing Watch keeps track of a variety of organizations, but the groups they track do tend to be conservative extremists in one regard or another. All reporting is one sided favoring the left, while attempting to report the right negatively.

Right Wing Watch does occasionally take statements out of context and they sometimes source to far left sources. Overall, this is a left biased website that is mixed for factual reporting. (5/15/2016) Update (6/22/2017)

Southern Poverty Law Center

Morris Dees is the founder and chief trial lawyer of the hateful, bigoted, anti-American, anti-Christian Southern Poverty Law Center.

Dees, who was raised as a Southern Baptist, says he “learned everything I know about hustling” from his early experiences in church: “Spending Sundays on those hard benches listening to the preacher pitch salvation—why, it was like getting a Ph.D. in selling.” Fuller, for his part, recalls that he and Dees “shared the overriding purpose of making a pile of money” and becoming “independently rich,” though “we were not particular about how we did it.” The veracity of that acknowledgment was evidenced in 1961, when Dees and Fuller, serving as defense attorneys for a white racist who had viciously beaten a journalist covering Freedom Riders in the South, had their legal fees paid by the Ku Klux Klan.

But that’s not all. In 1975, Dees was “arrested and removed from court for attempting to suborn perjury (by means of a bribe) on behalf of the defendant in a North Carolina murder trial. Though the felony charge against Dees was subsequently dropped, the presiding judge refused to re-admit him to the case; that refusal was upheld on appeal.”

Morris Dees and his Director of Intelligence, Mark Potok, declared at an event in Michigan in 2007:

“Sometimes the press will describe us as monitoring hate groups, I want to say plainly that our aim in life is to destroy these groups, completely destroy them.”

The American Civil Liberties Union

Without belaboring the obvious, I will leave it with what the founder had said of what his objective truly was:

“I am for socialism, disarmament, and, ultimately, for abolishing the state itself... I seek the social ownership of property, the abolition of the propertied class, and the sole control of those who produce wealth. Communism is the goal.” - Roger Nash Baldwin

The murderous (Proverbs 6:17) Planned Parenthood

Founder Margret Sanger believed that large families were detrimental to society. She said:

“The most serious evil of our times is that of encouraging the bringing into the world of large families. The most immoral practice of the day is breeding too many children.”

“The most merciful thing that the large family does to one of its infant members is to kill it,” she continued. –“Woman and the New Race,” 1920, Chapter 5: The Wickedness of Creating Large Families

Terror-tied Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR)

“Islam isn’t in America to be equal with any other faith, but to become dominant. The Koran, the Muslim book of scripture, should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion in the world.” –Founder Omar Ahmad

[YouTube Video]

Finally, the notorious international criminal George Soros and his 206 organizations that are aiming to upend American sovereignty. Banished from other countries because of his crimes, somehow or another, he has been given a free hand here in America to attack at will (Leviticus 26:14-17) George said:

“The main obstacle to a stable and just world order is the United States.”

George Soros Admits He Confiscated Property From Jews

[YouTube Video]

Now, knowing all of this, one has to ask as to who has given these organizations standing in this country to operate while all the while knowing their destructive ends to America as we know it?

The Lord creates a world for us to live in and these ungodly and un-American organizations try to create a world without Him (John 1:11). How does that work? It doesn't (Psalm 9:17)! That is unless a nation being turned into hell is a good alternative.

Looking to our forefathers will help us understand the scope of authority and operation with those who are to represent "We the People."

All laws which are repugnant to the Constitution are null and void." (Marbury vs. Madison, 1803.)

"...the laws of Congress are restricted to a certain sphere, and when they depart from this sphere, they are no longer supreme or binding. In the same manner, the states have certain independent power, in which their laws are supreme." (Alexander Hamilton, Elliot, 2:362.)

"This Constitution, as to the powers therein granted, is constantly to be the supreme law of the land.... It is not the supreme law in the exercise of a power not granted." (William Davie, Pennsylvania, p. 277

"It will not, I presume, have escaped observation that it expressly confines the supremacy to laws made pursuant to the Constitution" (Alexander Hamilton, concerning the supremacy clause The Federalist Papers, #33.)

"There is no position which depends on clearer principles than that every act of a delegated authority, contrary to the commission under which it is exercised, is void. No legislative act, therefore, contrary to the Constitution, can be valid." (Alexander Hamilton, The Federalist Papers, #78.)

Again, I ask, who gave Congress delegated authority to allow these subversive (Entire overthrow; an overthrow of the foundation; utter ruin; as the subversion of a government or state) organizations to operate in America?

Standing With Good Government In Striking Down The Corrupt Tree: Obamacare

“That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed...” –Declaration of Independence

On a daily basis in this country, we are inundated with corruption within the walls of American government regardless of the office held. Whether it be the president, a senator, a congressman, a representative, a judge, a police officer etc., corruption is exposed daily (Luke 12:2) and it is very disheartening, to say the least.

What most do not realize is that the unconstitutional policies in which they attempt to throw on the American people are incredibly criminal on their behalf. This is not being done ignorantly and unknowingly, it is being done with willful purpose in transgressing the constitution.

Former Sen. John Glenn stated, “Why, if we had to do that (follow the rule of our Constitution), we could not pass most of the laws we enact around here.”

And when it comes to the topic of this article, in particular the unconstitutional and illegal “Obamacare” (Article 1, Section 8, US Constitution), all one has to do to understand is that corrupt politicians are willfully deceiving the American people in hopes of baiting them into accepting illegal "Obamacare." It is of interest as well to take note Americans that these same criminals have exempted themselves from what they have meant to put upon them that they work for, and that is, you and me.

Just ask the Architect Jonathan Gruber.

"Exploiting the stupidity of the American voter is fun and easy: kinda like squeezing a lemon." –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"Lack of transparency is a huge political advantage. Call it the stupidity of the American voter or whatever, but basically, that was really, really critical for the thing to pass." –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"When we're done with employer-based health insurance, it will have s much life in it as Jimmy Hoffa." -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

P.T. Barnum said a sucker is born every minute, but his estimate was laughably low. -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

[YouTube Video]

However, every once in a while, you will see a good report concerning one that sets in a representative government position (Entrusted by the people through delegated authority) who understands what they swore to uphold, with their right hand on the Bible, when it comes to magnifying the enumerated laws found in the Constitution.

Remember, "Against all enemies both foreign and domestic."

Marc Slavo reports on The Sons of Liberty Media:

A federal judge has finally declared what any freedom-loving human has known for over eight years now: Obamacare is unconstitutional. This decision by a Texas judge sets the stage for another Supreme Court visit with the controversial law.

In his ruling, Judge Reed O'Connor of the Federal District Court in Fort Worth said that the individual mandate requiring people to have health insurance “can no longer be sustained as an exercise of Congress’s tax power.”

Accordingly, Judge O'Connor, a George W. Bush appointee, said that “the individual mandate is unconstitutional” and the remaining provisions of the Affordable Care Act are invalid.
—New York Times

Rather this particular judge was like that of the unjust judge that was righting the wrongs because of the importunity of the righteous (Luke 18:6), or this particular judge walks breathes and lives in the fear of the Lord (2 Samuel 23:3; Proverbs 16:6). This particular judge is doing his job by deterring lawlessness and striking at the root of the corrupt tree (Luke 3:9). For this, I stand 100% with him in every righteous step that he and others in government take in their righteous and lawful decisions. Good job!

Modern Day Professed Christian Singer Lauren Daigle Couldn't Answer the Questions! Where is Christ?

"And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane." –Ezekiel 44:23

Recently, American Christian representative and singer Lauren Daigle was asked whether or not homosexuality was a sin. She replied with "I can't honestly answer on that. In a sense, I have too many people that I love that they are homosexual. I don't know. I actually had a conversation with someone last night about it. I can't say one way or the other. I'm not God. So when people ask questions like that...that's what my go to is. I just say read the Bible and find out for yourself. And when you find out let me know, because I'm learning too."

What a shameful reflection of the modern American Church which she claims to represent today. The Biblical illiteracy in this country is second to none (Hosea 4:6). No wonder why people are lost and confused today. The professed Christian's claim that they have been given the answers from God that they cannot give is deceptive as well as fraudulent (Matthew 10:8).

Is this the best the Church in America has to represent them? Apparently so. Lauren Daigle has been given the platform to preach the Word, the Word which she just does not know.

"To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Isaiah 8:20

[YouTube Video]

I can already hear and answer someone who is hot under the collar for me putting a question mark by that of professed Christian singer like Lauren Daigle saying, "Bradlee Dean, who are you to judge Lauren?"

In response, let me give you the Judge's Word and where it applies. The Bible is clear when it tells us that we are all to:

"Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?" -2 Corinthians 13:5

The Bible teaches to make distinctions.

There is wheat and there are the tares (Matthew 13:24-30).

They are sheep and there are goats (Matthew 25:31-46).

So, in other words, just because someone calls themselves a Christian, does not make it so.

Judas was called a disciple as well (Matthew 10:4). Was he a Christian?

Lauren Daigle was asked whether or not homosexuality was a sin. She replied, "I can't honestly answer on that."

Friends, I have spoken over 2,000 times publically across this country. When I ask professed Christians what sin is, they are bewildered. They have no idea. If there is a response, they reply with what they have been told by their reprobate overseers that it means to miss the mark. No, it does not! Scripture tells us that sin is the transgression of the law (1 John 3:4). And how are you to know what sin is if you do not know what the law declares, the law that is to drive men to Christ (Galatians 3:24) and do no more? (Exodus 20; Romans 3:20; 1 Timothy 1:9)

Did Jesus mandate that if we were to be His followers (John

1:13), then we are first to know the doctrine?

"If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." -John 7:17

Does not the Bible teach that we are to study to show ourselves approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15)?

Yes, it does.

What of 1 John 2:5?

"But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him."

How about John 14:21? We are told,

"He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him."

Surely I cannot love my brothers if I do not have the love of God (Jeremiah 29:11-13) and yet, how many of these self-professed Christians declare their love for God when they do not even know His doctrine (John 15:10)?

"By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous." -1 John 5:2-3

No wonder why the lost in this world are confused about the Church in America. Christians are to bring about the answers to the world and yet we see with answers like that of Lauren's we see that they are a part of the problem (Daniel 9:7). This is a lack of Christianity. This is, and these are, counterfeits in the Church of Jesus Christ today (Matthew

Maybe Lauren and those that she represents should read their Bibles before making such a claim, so that they know the Scriptures and what they teach before claiming that she is something that she is clearly not. Furthermore, Christians are to be ambassadors and written epistles for all men to read. Christians are called to preach the Word (2 Corinthians 3:2; 2 Timothy 4:2) the Word, which many today do not know.

“Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ’s stead, be ye reconciled to God.” -2 Corinthians 5:20

Daigle responded, “In a sense, I have too many people that I love that they are homosexual. I don’t know. I actually had a conversation with someone last night about it. I can’t say one way or the other. I’m not God.”

If Lauren loves her homosexual friends, where is the love that warns of the impending judgment (Psalm 19:11; Hebrews 9:27)? Lauren should be telling her friends what the Word has declared, namely “Repent!” (Matthew 3:2).

Let me tell the homosexuals what Lauren, who is unknowledgeable (Hosea 4:6), fails to tell you: Yes, homosexuality is an abomination.

“You shall not lie with a male as with a woman; it is an abomination.” -Leviticus 18:22, 20:13

“Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

“Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;" -Romans 1:22-28

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God." -1 Corinthians 6:9

"Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire." -Jude 1:7

Love tells the truth. It does not withhold the truth, for God is love (1 John 4:8). Love is without dissimulation, a hiding under a false appearance (Romans 12:9).

Lauren Daigle gave a gross display of her lack of love through her biblical ignorance and dereliction of duty when appearing on the Ellen DeGeneres Show in NOT preaching the Word to a world of sinners and seizing the opportunity (Matthew 3:2; Amos 3:3; James 4:4).

Maybe this explains why we have had several self-professing Christian artists, “homosexuals and lesbians,” who have come out of the closet such as Jennifer Knapp, Dan Haseltine, Vicky Beeching, Marsha Stevens, Ray Boltz, etc. deceiving Christian audiences because self-professed Christians just don’t know the difference. What a display and exhibition of that which is not being preached from the pulpits in America today (Luke 7:35)!

Christians should, and are commanded to, know the difference.

This is the fruit of reprobates, not Christians (Titus 1:16).

“And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.” -Ezekiel 44:23-24

[YouTube Video]

Lauren Daigle in her scriptural ignorance continues,

“So when people ask questions like that...that’s what my go to is. I just say read the Bible and find out for yourself. And when you find out let me know, because I’m learning too.”

It has been said that the biggest reason for large numbers of unbelievers is the hypocrisies of the self-proclaimed believers (Matthew 23). Lauren Daigle is a mere representation of the mass professors in America.

How many times did Jesus warn his followers of those who would come in His name and deceive many (Matthew 24:5-8; Mark 13:6; Luke 21:8)? Over and over again, we see that when one claims to be a Christian that people stand back and take them for their word rather than their action or rather their inactions (Matthew 7:16).

Instead of Christians keeping their eyes fixed on the author and finisher of their faith (Hebrews 12:2), Jesus Christ, as our example (So they can detect the counterfeits), they simply deceive themselves that somehow or another, everything is just going to be OK because the “gay friendly” churches and hirelings told them so (John 10:12).

So, when Lauren or anyone that claims to be a Christian say's things like, “I can't say one way or the other. I'm not God,” rest assured it is because they do not know God (1 John 2:3). Know that you are dealing with someone who has claimed to be something that they clearly are not.

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. -Mark 16:15

“Christians are to grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.” -2 Peter 3:18

Yes, we are all growing in grace as long as we are feeding on the Word, which Christians are required and commanded to know.

This Message Changes? When The Lord Does And That Just

Isn't Going To Happen

"I Like your message, very articulate, well researched but... always very negative, all negative all the time, wears on an optimistic law abiding, God fearing citizen. Would be great to share a positive, uplifting message occasionally." –Anonymous

Mmm... Law abiding...? Mmm... God fearing...? Mmm... Negative...? Mmm... Would be great to share a positive, uplifting message occasionally (Romans 8:7)?

The quote above was an email sent to me from a radio show listener just this last week.

Before we begin, let me put this quote by Leonard Ravenhill in "contrast" to the email above to contrast the goodness of God with our rebellion.

"The early church was married to poverty, prisons, and persecutions. Today "The Church is married to prosperity, personality and popularity."

Webster's 1828 definition of "contrast":

To set in opposition two or more figures of a like kind, with a view to show the difference or dissimilitude, and to manifest the superior excellence of the one by the inferiority of the other, or to exhibit the excellence of the one and the defects of the other in a more striking view; as, to contrast two picture or statues.

So here we have it, Christianity in contrast to a lack thereof – namely, enemies of the cross (1 Timothy 4:1; Philippians 3:18-19).

I know that a "soft answer turneth away wrath" (Proverbs 15:1) and that the "wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God." So, I will do my best to answer the email above in this manner (James 1:20).

First off, I want to state that I am not offended in the least by what he wrote, well maybe a little bit, and yes, I do understand what he is saying, but that of a carnal man (Romans 7:14). What do you mean, Bradlee? I mean there is always a different perspective when it comes to seeing through the eyes of a man, and seeing through the eyes of God, and the way to see through the eyes of God is looking to His Word, and that by the operations and inspiration of the Holy Ghost (John 21:18).

The “doers of the Word,” have an understanding, and not the “hearers only” because they are “deceiving themselves” (Psalm 119:100; James 1:22-25), There’s a big difference between the two.

[YouTube Video]

It has always amazed me as to how people view the battle that we are in today. It is not always a positive experience wondering if you are going to get shot at the next high school assembly program at which you are going to speak. It is surreal-dreamlike to them that are without the battle, but very real-tangible to those who are in the battle (Ephesians 6:12).

Today, most Americans want to act as if what is happening in America is not applicable to each and every one of us when it comes to our personal responsibility, as if to suggest that it is someone else’s responsibility. However, if it is our responsibility they assume that there is a certain way of niceties in the way the job needs to be done. Friends, we are not talking about a third world country here, and we must adhere to the Word of God and in yielding over to Him who has empowered us to get that job done regardless if one sees it as positive or negative (John 16:8).

As you well know, if the things that are taking place in our backyard were happening in a third world country, most people in this country would demand our government take military action in that third world country to set the record straight and at the end of the day, see it as a positive thing. However, when it comes to our own country (1 Corinthians 11:31), and how we need to correct ourselves, somehow, it becomes a negative (Matthew 13:15-17, 16:2-4).

The Lord has gone through the trouble to go through the thick and thin by reaching down to save me from my sins (Matthew 1:21), understand His process (Isaiah 66:2; Psalm 34:18, 51:17) and build me up in His Son (Colossians 2:7). Then, in response, I do the same, as an ambassador, on His behalf.

The message is "Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand" (Matthew 3:2).

Offensive and negative to a fallen world though it may be yet, if men would look at it through spiritual eyes that God sent His Son (John 3:16) to die for our sins as the sacrifice and propitiation for them (1 John 2:2), they would see love in action (John 3:19) and purpose in driving men to the foot of the cross (Psalm 19:7; Mark 10:17-22).

Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. -Galatians 3:24

Using God's moral law, which "detects" sin (Romans 3:20), drives men to Christ to receive the grace (John 1:7) which "conquers."

This is a positive, not a negative.

Read slowly and carefully Romans 7:12-13:

"Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good. Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful."

It may be negative, or not so good news, for a sick man to discover his disease. The knowledge of his disease drives him to the doctor, but after he is healed by the Great Physician (Jesus), he will then be glad that someone loved him enough to drive him to the doctor's feet whereby he may be healed.

The message of love drives him/her to the Great Physician or else he will die (John 8:24). Love does this as a spiritual positive, not hate as a carnal negative.

And Jesus answering said unto them, they that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. -Luke 5:31-32

Once a man or a woman is born again (John 3:3) through godly repentance (2 Corinthians 7:10), rest assured, they are then to take up their cross and do as Christ did, "As My Father sent Me, even so I send you" (John 20:21).

Understanding that 'These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world" (John 16:33).

Here enters the joy, "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12:2).

[YouTube Video]

Until we live in a world free from sin (1 John 3:4), murder, corruption, immorality etc., it is going to continue to be the same message to the same fallen world.

"Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand." -Matthew 3:2

To stand back and suggest that somehow it is love to pull down the warning signs (Psalms 19:11) and allow the masses to go to Hell without warning is hate, and it clearly runs in direct contrast to plain Scriptural teachings.

“Knowing the terror of The Lord, we persuade men.” -2 Corinthians 5:11

Look at what John the Baptist said of the religious hypocrites of the day.

“Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?” -Luke 3:7

To help put this into perspective, look to what Matthew Henry said of the Scripture reference:

“This was the purport of his preaching to all that came to him, and he did not alter it in compliment to the Pharisees and Sadducees, when they came, but dealt as plainly with them as with any other of his hearers. And as he did not flatter the great, so neither did he compliment the many, or make his court to them, but gave the same reproofs of sin and warnings of wrath to the multitude that he did to the Sadducees and Pharisees; for, if they had not the same faults, they had others as bad.

Now observe here, That the guilty corrupted race of mankind is become a generation of vipers; not only poisoned, but poisonous; hateful to God, hating one another.”

Matthew Henry said they were hateful to God by disobeying His commands and hating one by withholding the Gospel message from them (Matthew 24:12).

Furthermore, Christians are called to be the repairers of the breach. In other words, this spells out work and the work of the ministry (2 Timothy 4:5) for those who are ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20) for the Living God (Luke 20:38).

Often, the Christians that do the works are a reproof to the professors that do not the works (Titus 2:14) and are scorned by them. The works are a positive to mankind and a blessing to others, not a negative (Matthew 25:14-30).

“And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.” Isaiah 58:12

And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations. -Isaiah 61:4

Friends, you cannot build up until you first have been torn down. This is a positive, not a negative.

With that said, I suppose this does not look or sound positive when commanded to “tear down your fathers altars” (Deuteronomy 32:39; 1 Samuel 2:6; Judges 6:25). Yet, it is to the Lord. After all, these are His commandments.

There is nothing on this side of Heaven that satisfies me (Matthew 5:6) more than constantly feeding (John 7:17) on the “Bread of Life” (John 6:35), and to suggest that we are to find a “positive” experience outside of Christ is not “Uplifting” to me whatsoever.

We need to identify what Christians are, and what they are not (Matthew 7:21-23), and what their duty is (2 Corinthians 2:17), and what it is not (2 Timothy 2:3-5), for we should all have the same objective (1 Corinthians 1:10) the souls of men (Luke 19:10).

Martin Luther King Jr. was right when he said: “If today’s church does not recapture the sacrificial spirit of the early church, it will lose its authenticity, forfeit the loyalty of millions, and be dismissed as an irrelevant social club with no meaning for the twentieth century.”

[YouTube Video]

Instead of criticizing or questioning those who are waking the church up (The preaching of the cross is as foreign to professed Christians in America today as the US Constitution is to corrupt politicians), the questions and criticisms should fall to those who are entertainingly putting the church back to sleep (Jeremiah 23:29) through the friendly seeker, anti-Christ, humanistic messages that have been taught from the pulpits over the last 60 years ,which runs counter to preaching what is commanded by God (Matthew 28:19-20).

“The Christian church is in a deep sleep; nothing but a loud shout can awaken them out of it.” -George Whitfield

Remember, it is the church's obligation to revenge all disobedience,

“And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.” -2 Corinthians 10:6

From what I read in this email that was sent to me, that just may not be a positive message for a rebellious country (Jeremiah 5:23), but then again, we are not asking for permission from the devil to obey our God now, are we?

ABC Uses 11-Year-Old “Drag”

To Test Response

America, Are You Going to Stand Down on This One Too? It Has Always Been About The Kids

"Sex before 8 before it's too late!" -North American Man-Boy Love Association Slogan Shouted out during Gay Pride Parades

I have to say that for what I have been through concerning the sodomite agenda over the last 13 years of my life, from putting my house up online and affixing my address to it, which endangered my family, to broadcasting a fabricated hit piece on me by MSNBC to sending bomb threats to my ministry offices, to death threats on my life, it has been an exhibition of what has and is going on in this country concerning those who mean to legalize that which is illegal. All of this leveled at my ministry for protecting them who have been subjected to everything and protected from nothing, namely, America's posterity.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

We are told through the mainstream media that the sodomite communities are the victims of bullying and "Hate crimes" and all the while we see that they are, in fact, the ones responsible for perpetuating the crimes.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Once they are discovered for committing the crimes, which shows forth their intents (Matthew 7:16), they then revert to calling their "Gay Manifesto" a "Satire" in hopes that you will believe that it is just all made up. The truth of the matter is that they can say all they want that it is satire, the fact of the matter it is that it is transpiring right before our eye's on a daily basis as to what this is all about, and the kids are their clear objective.

Homosexual Manifesto Reprinted from the US Congressional Record Homosexual Activist Outlines Goals of Homosexual Movement By Michael Swift.

“Gay Revolutionary” (from the Gay Community News, Feb. 15-21, 1987, reprinted from The Congressional Record) “We shall sodomize your sons, emblems of your feeble masculinity, of your shallow dreams and vulgar lies. We shall seduce them in your schools, in your dormitories, in your gymnasiums, in your locker rooms, in your sports arenas, in your seminaries, in your youth groups, in your movie theater bathrooms, in your army bunkhouses, in your truck stops, in your all male clubs, in your houses of Congress, wherever men are with men together. Your sons shall become our minions and do our bidding. They will be recast in our image. They will come to crave and adore us. Women, you cry for freedom. You say you are no longer satisfied with men; they make you unhappy.

We, connoisseurs of the masculine face, the masculine physique, shall take your men from you then. We will amuse them; we will instruct them; we will embrace them when they weep. Women you say you wish to live with each other instead of with men. Then go and be with each other. We shall give your men pleasures they have never known because we are foremost men too, and only one man knows how to truly please another man; only one man can understand the depth and feeling, the mind and body of another man. All laws banning homosexual activity will be revoked. Instead, legislation shall be passed which engenders love between men. All homosexuals must stand together as brothers; we must be united artistically, philosophically, socially, politically and financially. We will triumph only when we present a common face to the vicious heterosexual enemy. If you dare to cry faggot, fairy, queer, at us, we will stab you in your cowardly hearts and defile your dead, puny bodies.

We shall write poems of the love between men; we shall stage plays in which man openly caresses man; we shall make films about the love between heroic men which will replace the cheap, superficial, sentimental, insipid, juvenile, heterosexual infatuations presently dominating your cinema screens. We shall sculpt statues of beautiful young men, of bold athletes which will be placed in your parks, your squares, your plazas. The museums of the world will be filled only with paintings of graceful, naked lads. Our writers and artists will make love between men fashionable and de rigueur, and we will succeed because we are adept at setting styles. We will eliminate heterosexual liaisons through usage of the devices of wit and ridicule, devices which we are skilled in employing. We will unmask the powerful homosexuals who masquerade as heterosexuals. You will be shocked and frightened when you find that your presidents and their sons, your industrialists, your senators, your mayors, your generals, your athletes, your film stars, your television personalities, your civic leaders, your priests are not the safe, familiar, bourgeois, heterosexual figures you assumed them to be.

We are everywhere; we have infiltrated your ranks. Be careful when you speak of homosexuals because we are always among you; we may be sitting across the desk from you; we may be sleeping in the same bed with you. There will be no compromises. We are not middle-class weaklings. Highly intelligent, we are the natural aristocrats of the human race, and steely-minded aristocrats never settle for less. Those who oppose us will be exiled. We shall raise vast private armies, as Mishima did, to defeat you. We shall conquer the world because warriors inspired by and banded together by homosexual love and honor are invincible as were the ancient Greek soldiers. The family unit-spawning ground of lies, betrayals, mediocrity, hypocrisy and violence – will be abolished. The family unit, which only dampens imagination and curbs free will, must be eliminated. Perfect boys will be conceived and grown in the genetic laboratory.

They will be bonded together in communal setting, under the control and instruction of homosexual savants.

All churches who condemn us will be closed. Our only gods are handsome young men. We adhere to a cult of beauty, moral and esthetic. All that is ugly and vulgar and banal will be annihilated. Since we are alienated from middle-class heterosexual conventions, we are free to live our lives according to the dictates of the pure imagination. For us too much is not enough. The exquisite society to emerge will be governed by an elite comprised of gay poets. One of the major requirements for a position of power in the new society of homoeroticism will be indulgence in the Greek passion. Any man contaminated with heterosexual lust will be automatically barred from a position of influence. All males who insist on remaining stupidly heterosexual will be tried in homosexual courts of justice and will become invisible men.

We shall rewrite history, history filled and debased with your heterosexual lies and distortions. We shall portray the homosexuality of the great leaders and thinkers who have shaped the world. We will demonstrate that homosexuality and intelligence and imagination are inextricably linked, and that homosexuality is a requirement for true nobility, true beauty in a man. We shall be victorious because we are fueled with the ferocious bitterness of the oppressed, who have been forced to play seemingly bit parts in your dumb, heterosexual shows throughout the ages. We too are capable of firing guns and manning the barricades of the ultimate revolution. Tremble, heterosexual swine, when we appear before you without our masks."

This demands the people's full attention. What an exhibition

(They crossed the lines in 1973) of this abominable lifestyle that the networks are illegally pushing on the airwaves today (Leviticus 18:22-20:13; Jude 1:7, Romans 1:24). In retaliation to the “Hetro swine (The Law abiding citizens),” the sodomites push forward and advocate all the more their blatant “crimes against nature” with the use of America’s children.

ABC’s “Good Morning America” is daring the justice of God by promoting the 11-year-old “trailblazing drag” kid ‘Desmond’ as they celebrate how amazing this is with the full approval of them that stand back and play the accomplice. Advertised as the “GMA Day” with three fierce drag queens and some amazing gifts.

These networks, along with these parents should be held lawfully accountable for child abuse (Matthew 18:6) and the advocacy of that which is clearly illegal (Felony activities) in this country. Americans must demand prosecution in protecting our posterity (Proverbs 16:6).

The Forerunners Of The American Revolution: The Black Robed Regiment

“Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it. ...and whether we defeat the enemy in one battle, or by degree's, the consequence will be the same.” -Thomas Paine, author, and founder, 1777

I remember when I first got into ministry, I was approached and asked to attend a youth group to give my testimony, and of course, I obliged.

I also remember after giving my testimony that week that I began to hear over and over again by the youth pastor as to what they were going to do in reaching the up and coming generation. Yet, week after week it was the same thing, just sensationalized preaching with little to no action outside of the church building (1 John 3:18).

It then dragged month after month, at which point, I had enough. Here am I preparing (Colossians 2:7-18) to bring about the answers (Isaiah 6:8) to this world (John 4:35) and this guy is talk, talk, talk, and even more talk. I am not built to sit around in a church building and pacify and deceive myself by merely talking about what needs to be done (Proverbs 6:9; James 2:14-26).

How was I to sit around and merely talk about what Christ commanded us to do (Luke 19:10). Just think of it this way, I would not have been at the church in the first place if there had not been someone who reached out to me (2 Corinthians 5:20).

As a side note, after every church service, I was in the church library studying the likes of Charles Spurgeon, John Knox, Martin Luther, Charles Finney, John Wesley, Jonathan Edwards, John Calvin, Smith Wigglesworth, John Alexander Dowie, William and Catharine Booth, etc. These were giants in the faith that obtained a good report and I wanted to know the God that they served (Hebrews 11:2). There is a definite difference between the church in America from the founding era to the present.

How was I going to spend the rest of my life reading about the history of the men that proved the God of Israel, and have been partakers of signs and wonders (Mark 16:20) and not do the same, especially knowing that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8)?

It was Jesus who said:

“Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.” -John 14:12

And if He is not a respecter of persons, then I have the same access into the Holy of Holies (Hebrews 10:19-22) to commune with the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob as our forefathers did (Acts 10:34).

Friends, I cannot sit in a circle and pretend (Matthew 23:3), I will not preach without His witness (Acts 5:32), I will not have any part of playing church without the practice of what I preach, for this is the widespread problem that we are having in this country today.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Furthermore, my spirit hungers (Matthew 5:6) and strives for connection with the God of David (Romans 8:14-16), through Jesus Christ, to see Him do for my generation that which He did for David's. Scripture is clear, you do not find the Lord by just talking about His promises. You must act.

“O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come. Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee!" -Psalm 71:18-19

Friends, is it enough to talk about what needs to be done? Is it enough to talk about great men of the past that proved the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob? No, it is not! Talking alone does not get the job done. Faith that worketh by love does (Galatians 5:6). Action speaks much louder than words.

"For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake." -1 Thessalonians 1:5

Bringing it closer to the present time from that of the biblical patriarchs is our founding fathers, who sacrificed themselves in order that their posterity might have freedom (2 Corinthians 3:17). I'm speaking namely of the Black Robed Regiment.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

I recently watched an A+ documentary-movie on the history of the Black Robed Regiment. These were the apostolic and prophetic preachers of their day (1 Corinthians 12:28) and the forerunners (Micah 2:13) who had the courage to act on our behalf over 242 years ago. They did not just preach out against the sins of the tyrants, they fought against him and his armies by resisting and throwing off his ungodly rule.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

"Resistance to tyranny is obedience to God." -President Thomas Jefferson

Roger Sherman, Architect and Signer of The Declaration of Independence said:

"Sad will be the day when the American people forget their traditions and their history, and no longer remember that the country they love, the institutions they cherish, and the freedom they hope to preserve, were born from the throes of armed resistance to tyranny, and nursed in the rugged arms of fearless men.”

How do Roger Sherman’s words line up with what you are seeing in America today? Today, we have nothing but a bunch of effeminate and godless hirelings who are afraid of their own shadows (Revelation 21:8), sitting in another one of their board meetings like a bunch of clowns in a circus trying to figure out how they can entertain and introduce the sheep-goats to the wolves (Matthew 25:31-46; 1 John 2:15-17).

“A time will come when instead of shepherds feeding the sheep, the church will have clowns entertaining the goats!” –Charles H. Spurgeon

“But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.” -John 10:12

Think of this, a bunch of professors who claim to have the answers that the world needs and yet, they are unwilling to bring them answers in power so that they might be set free (John 8:36).

Again, Charles H. Spurgeon comes to my aid when he said,

“Have you no wish for others to be saved? Then you’re not saved yourself, be sure of that!”

After all, you cannot give what you do not have (Matthew 10:5-8; Jude 1:12)! But what of those who have brought the answers to this world?

Let’s light the candle and see how our forefathers led the way. Looking now to the example of the Black Robed Regiment and what was recorded on their behalf (Malachi 3:16), those who have gone before us in the faith (Hebrews 11), and see how they trusted in the living God (Proverbs 3:5), and how the Lord answered on their behalf.

"No class of men contributed more to carry forward the Revolution and to achieve our independence than did the ministers." -B. F. Morris, historian, 1864

"The preachers of the Revolution did not hesitate to attack the great political and social evils of their day..." Frank Moore, historian, 1862

"To the pulpit we owe the moral force which was our independence. They prepared for the struggle, and went into battle, not as soldiers of fortune, but with The Word of God in their hearts and trusting in Him."

"England sent her armies to compel submission and the colonists appealed to Heaven? -John Wingate Thornton, historian, 1860

"This righteous rebellion began in the churches before spilling out into the streets of Boston and the rural regions of the colonies. In 1776 mixing politics and religion was as common as drinking smuggled tea."

"The colonial clergy created the religious climate that made it possible for the American Revolution to take place." James L. Adams, author and journalist, 1989

"The Christian "ministers of war" had done their job well, in fusing their congregants with the feeling they were first and foremost Christian soldiers..."

"The poorly armed, ragtag American recruits set forth to do battle. ...in the process they would turn the world upside down." James Adams

"Since we are compelled to take up the sword, in the necessary defense of our liberties, let us gird on the harness with firm defiance and with fixed purpose, to part with our liberty only with our lives..." Moses Mather, pastor, 1775

"It must never be forgotten that religion gave birth to Anglo-American society. In the United States, religion is therefore mingled with all the habits of the nation and all the feeling of patriotism, whence it derives a peculiar force."

"We are not fighting against the name of a king, but the tyranny; and if we sailer that tyranny under another name, we only change our master without getting rid of slavery." William Gordon, 1777

"Expense is not to be regarded in a contest of such magnitude. What can possibly be a compensation for our liberties? It is better to be free among the dead, than slaves among the living." Zabdiel Adams, pastor, 1782

"We know that our civil and religious rights are linked together in one indissoluble bond. Religion and liberty must flourish or fall together in America. We pray that both may be perpetual." William Smith, pastor, 1775

Outside of the fact that this Black Robed Regiment documentary-movie was outstanding, what begs the question is where are the men in number to do the same things today? It is not God that has changed (Malachi 3:6)!

Below is a quote by D. H. Lawrence which serves as a warning to anyone that believes that inaction brings anything but slavery.

"Men fight for liberty and win it with hard knocks. Their children, brought up easy, let it slip away again, poor fools. And their grandchildren are once more slaves."

If I Can Demoralize You, I Can Control You! Pornography: The Break Down Of America's Virtue

"While the people are virtuous they cannot be subdued; but when once they lose their Virtue they will be ready to surrender their Liberties to the first external or internal invader..." -Samuel Adams

Today, Americans are being told that they must embrace diversity, to accept that which God forbids, in order to bring about unity among the nations. We also are being told that we must think of the whole world's good rather than just the United States and our sovereignty (Revelations 17:17). Of course, that comes by taking on their world agenda and then we are led to believe that somehow it will unify us, the opposite is true.

One of the major propaganda pushes being used by the masters and players is to push immorality through advocating sexual promiscuity and pornography.

What unifies us (Galatians 2:20; Ephesians 4:3) as Americans is "that we are 'rooted and built up in Him,'" not to be spoiled "through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ" (Colossians 2:7-8).

What unifies us is that we are "one nation under God." We are not to adhere to the nations by subjecting ourselves to the spirit of disobedience toward God (Ephesians 2:2, 6:12) by adhering to that which God condemns, which are the immoralities that separate us from our God, rather than adherence to the Word which is our strength, not our weakness.

[Link]

Pornography (porn) defined is the portrayal of sexual subject matter for the exclusive purpose of sexual arousal.

Greek Lexicon- 1. to prostitute one's body to the lust of another 2. To give one's self to unlawful sexual intercourse 3. To be given to idolatry, to worship idols a. to permit one's self to be drawn into Onsite said that Pornography in the United States has Advanced by technological development, it has gone from a hard to find "back alley" item, beginning in 1968 with the Golden Age of Porn (1969–1984), to being more available in the country and later, starting in the 1990s, readily accessible to nearly anyone with a computer or other device connected to the Internet. The U.S. has no current plans to block explicit content from minors, which is obviously their end aim (Matthew 18:6).

This is the Supreme Court's version of freedom of speech, which advocates the crimes that they are appointed to prevent.

"Liberty is the right to do what the Law permits." -Charles DeMontisquie

Hollywood, along with the media and corrupt representation, help promote sexual promiscuity, the children learn the lesson (Proverbs 22:6), they are then impregnated and taught by the same courts and media to eradicate the fruit of the womb under the guise of choice (Proverbs 6:17).

The very things that Scripture warns us to stay away from are the very things that the corrupt in the world governments are promoting.

"I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time."
-1 John 2:14-18

If one would like to test the accuracy of Scripture and would like to know the truth of the matter, that is all you have to do is look to what happens when men fail to take heed to the Word of God (Psalm 18:21).

- David and Bathsheba (2 Samuel 11)
- Solomon and his lust for foreign woman (I Kings 11)
- Samson and Delilah (Judges 16:1-20)
- The Sodomites (1 Peter 2:6)
- Bestiality (Exodus 22:19)
- Incest (Deuteronomy 27:22)

Yet, in America today, no matter where you go, whether it be in your health books in high schools or stories told to children in pre-school , movie trailers or a movie, if it be a commercial, a radio ad, a billboard on the side of the road or a billboard on a bus or in a magazine on the rack, when going to the grocery store check-out or even going into a restroom, there it is, right in front of your face: sexually suggestive content. It is not hard to find, it is hard to ignore (Psalm 101:3; Matthew 6:22; Romans 12:2; 2 Corinthians 10:5; Hebrews 12:2; 1 John 5:4).

When you go to your computer and go online, there it is: ads popping up with suggestive content, content that you have to check off and rate so that their ads do not return on the same page (and this is often found, in many cases, on G-rated sites), content pops up that you cannot ignore. It is literally coming at you from every direction. All of this is by design to further wield power over a people by first demoralizing them, and in the end, enslaving them (John 8:34).

Piggybacking on this are the big tech companies who are also promoting that which is subversive to American government such as Twitter, Google, and Facebook. [Link]

I have found Twitter to be the absolute worst as I would scroll through their live feeds and having pops ups come out of nowhere from semi-porn sites to blatant pornography sites. You then go to block the image only to find that Twitter then saves it. You then look to the source of the images or film only to delete pages that have sexually explicit content on them while new ones at the same time pop up and adhere to your feed, which only leads you back to what you similarly just deleted.

I personally had to delete 37,000 friends so I would not have to see their feeds any longer.

You may even want to check out what sort of movie content that you may have in your homes. Many actors and actresses you will find have compromised themselves in selling their souls for the world that they desire to have through advocating sexual promiscuity.

“And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.”

And what did Jesus answer?

Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." Luke 4:5-8

How destructive is the choice \(Deuteronomy 30:19\) of pornography?

Every Second:

- 28,258 users are watching pornography on the internet.
- $3,075.64 is being spent on pornography on the internet.
- 372 people are typing the word "adult" into a search engine.

Every Day:

- 37 pornographic videos are created in the United States.
- 2.5 billion emails containing porn are sent or received.
- 68 million search queries related to pornography- 25% of total searches- are generated.
- 116,000 queries related to child pornography are received.

How Online Pornography Affects Americans

- About 200,000 Americans are classified as "porn addicts."
- 40 million American people regularly visit porn sites.
- 35% of all internet downloads are related to pornography.
- 34% (?) of internet users have experienced unwanted exposure to pornographic content through ads, pop up ads, misdirected links or emails.
- One-third of porn viewers are women.

Family/Marital Pornography Stats

The negative effects of pornography do not end after development. They can be just as harmful to families and marriages.

- According to National Coalition for the Protection of Children & Families, 2010, 47% of families in the United States reported that pornography is a problem in their home.
- Pornography use increases the marital infidelity rate by more than 300%.
- 40 percent of people identified as “sex addicts” lose their spouses, 58 percent suffer considerable financial losses, and about 33% lose their jobs.
- 68% of divorce cases involve one party meeting a new paramour over the internet while 56% involve one party having an “obsessive interest” in pornographic websites.

Pornography is the fuel to the fire concerning rape, sodomy, pedophilia, sex trafficking etc... And yet it is promoted around the clock. [Link]

Maybe this explains why pornography was illegal in America, and according to law, it still is (Deuteronomy 22:22; Exodus 20:14; Matthew 5:28; 1 Corinthians 6:9; Revelations 21:8).

Denmark was the first country to legalize pornography in 1967. The following year, the United States Supreme Court , acting outside of their scope of authority (Article 3, Section 1, US Constitution; Jeremiah 5:31), held that people could view whatever they wished in the privacy of their own homes.

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

What is even more diabolical about all of this is when pornography was becoming normalized, with the help of the likes of Alfred Kinsey and friends, the federal government was setting up the people for crimes that they fueled through the use of pornography they just legalized. Interesting how that works. [Link]

[YouTube Video]

Scripture tells us that “Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant” (Proverbs 9:17).

Matthew Henry explains, “How diligent the tempter is to seduce unwary souls into sin! Carnal, sensual pleasure, stupefies conscience, and puts out the sparks of conviction. This tempter has no solid reason to offer; and where she gets dominion in a soul, all knowledge of holy things is lost and forgotten.”

God’s moral law states:

“Thou shalt not commit adultery” (Exodus 20:14)!

“The soul that sinneth shall die” (Ezekiel 18:20)

Jesus said in the New Testament:

“Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.” -Matthew 5:27-29

The consequence of unrepented (Acts 20:21; 2 Corinthians 7:10) sin before God is death and Hell (1 Corinthians 6:9).

Pornography is designed to break down unity between man and his Maker (Isaiah 59:2), to break down the family, leaving it to be open easy prey to those who are wielding power in hopes of absolute control over their lives (John 10:10), to give power to the nanny state and in the end, to destroy the soul (Romans 6:23) and the country.

“Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness.” -Leviticus 19:29

Yet, we find that 68% of professed Christians watch porn in America. This is a lack of Christianity (Hebrews 4:15; James 1:12-16).

To unite with Christ (Galatians 3:24) is to depart from sin.

Jesus came to deliver His people from their sins (Matthew 1:21) and to manifest Himself in destroying the works of the devil (1 John 3:8).

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.” -Revelation 12:11

“Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.” -1 John 4:4

“Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.” -Galatians 5:1

“And they that are Christ’s have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.” -Galatians 5:24-25

“Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.” -Romans 8:37

Minnesota's CAIR 's Jaylani Hussein Tries To Link White Christian Protestants To The KKK

These people are willing to take it to any length. and adhere to anyone that can help them put themselves into the victim position. What are they the victims of you may ask? American Laws. They are not under attack, they are attacking!

Jaylani Hussein Executive director from CAIR Minnesota (Council on American-Islamic Relations) and Linda Gordon author of "The Second Coming of the KKK" join up at St. Cloud State University November 2, 2018, in hopes of playing the sympathies of the ignorant, about 30 people showed up.

First, I must point out, that you were to register before you could even walk through the front doors, and second, no one was allowed to film, or record a word of what was being shown or said (John 18:20).

I have personally spoken on thousands of occasions and that publically without worrying about anything that I have shown or what I may have said, and why? Because I am there to uphold and to maintain America's Laws and values, I am not there not to tear them down (Exodus 20, Isaiah 42:21, Hebrews 10:9).

First up, Linda Gordon. After drudging through Linda Gordon's broken sentences, confusion and misinformation where she did her very best to lay at the feet of White Protestant Christians as the culprits behind the said crimes of the KKK (An arm of the Democratic party) against the blacks I decided that I wanted that portion of my life back.

One must pause here and scripturally reflect that many come in the name of being Christians, and yet it was Jesus who warned over and over again, that we are not to be deceived of such men (Matthew 24:5, Luke 21:8).

Furthermore, 2 Corinthians 11:14-15 tells us clearly:

“And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

Outside of the reoccurring theme that white Christian Protestants are the problem, Linda Gordon then adds the hate group list produced by The Southern Poverty Law Center to her presentation, the group that has openly declared that they want to destroy the groups that expose (Luke 12:2), and stand against their totalitarian methods, Mark Potok, director of intelligence at Southern Poverty Law Center said,

“Sometimes the press will describe us as monitoring hate crimes and so on ... I want to say plainly that our aim in life is to destroy these groups, to completely destroy them.”

[YouTube Video]

A little homework into the Southern Poverty Law Center clarified its true mission: Make money while working hand in glove with the mainstream media to attack America's foundation using a Communist/Marxist agenda.

SPLC's founder is lawyer Morris Dees who in 1961 earned money by doing legal work for the Ku Klux Klan. That information alone brings enough red flags to expose SPLC as an illegitimate and anti-American organization.

Dees founded SPLC in 1971 after the civil rights battle had been won and there was no more money left in representing groups like the KKK. He then jumped to the other side of the fence, masquerading as a “civil rights organization dedicating to fighting hate and bigotry, and seeking justice for the most vulnerable members of society.” Interesting, because in 1986 SPLC’s entire staff quit in protest of Dees’ refusal to “address issues such as homelessness, voter registration and affirmative action – that they considered far more pertinent to poor minorities ...” (Harper’s Magazine).

In the mid-1990’s, the SPLC ventured beyond beating the twice-dead horse of chasing KKK members, obviously because Americans no longer viewed them as a threat. They no longer raised enough support to rake in on the racial issue, so they now found a new focus: organizations that stand for America’s moral values. Today, as this administration attempts to trample the Constitution underfoot, the SPLC has decided to create new “victims” to cash in on.

The SPLC even goes so far as to repeatedly align with a variety of hate-driven, anti-American political groups, including communists and communist-friendly individuals and organizations.

[YouTube Video]

Then we have CAIR’s director Jaylani Hussein’s turn to take to the bully pulpit. As expected, Jaylani immediately puts the Muslims into the position of the victims all the while accusing those same people that Linda Gordon was accusing, namely them white protestant Americans (86%) that are guilty of aiding the Muslim migrants in having a better life here in America (Deuteronomy 29:43).

Jaylani went so far as to link his conversation to that of the SPLC hate list as well, while in his confusion inadvertently telling on himself. Jaylani states that there are organizations in the US that are calling out terror-tied Muslims by even posting their physical address to make people aware of their intents against Americans. Of course in a lawful sense, and on the other hand and in an unlawful since the SPLC has a history of this, do you remember twenty-eight-year-old Floyd Lee Corkins II, the man who attempted to murder members of the Family Research Council in Washington, D. C. back in August of 2012? He pleaded guilty to three out of ten charges, including committing an act of terrorism. He didn't plead guilty to a "hate crime."

However, according to an interview with the Federal Bureau of Investigation following the shooting, Corkins wanted to kill as many people as possible, then smear their faces with Chick-Fil-A sandwiches, and kill the guard. He had also taken substantial steps in the preceding week to carry out other crimes. His use of the sandwiches was to "make a statement against the people who work in that building ... and with their stance against gay rights and Chick-fil-A."

His Statement of Offense also read, "He committed the shooting for political reasons. He had identified the FRC as an anti-gay organization on the Southern Poverty Law Center Website."

"Consistent with his statement to the FBI," the Statement of Offense continued, "a subsequent search of Corkins' family computer revealed that on the afternoon of Sunday, August 12, Corkins used the computer to visit the Southern Poverty Law Center's website, as well as the websites for the FRC and the second organization on his handwritten list."

Regardless of the facts, Jaylani throughout his meeting continued to push bias and misinformation to make out that white Christian Protestants were and are the problem.

These people are willing to take it to any length. and adhere to anyone that can help them put themselves into the victim position. What are they the victims of you may ask? American Laws! They do not have the shield they have the spear. They are not under attack, they are attacking.

Maybe Jaylani has forgotten about who the responsible party is and what the American people have been inundated with over the last 17 years after 911 through the CIA-controlled media?

[YouTube Video]

Or maybe he has forgotten about how just recently there were over 100 Somalia teens and adults' assaulted families and children at a local park in Minnesota?

<https://sonsoflibertymedia.com/the-media-covering-up-100-somali-teens-adults-assaulting-families-children-at-amusement-park/>

Or maybe Jaylani has forgotten the breakout of Somalia's at the Mall of America?

Or maybe he just happened to overlook the mass stabbing on September 17, 2016, where terrorist Dahir A. Adan went on a spree at Crossroads Center shopping mall in St. Cloud, Minnesota. Ten people were injured, and the attacker was shot dead inside the mall by an off-duty law enforcement officer.

[YouTube Video]

Or maybe Jaylani wants you to forget that CAIR officials or former officials have been arrested on charges related to terrorism, yet all it offers is silence and stonewalling in discussing what are it's real motives.

[YouTube Video]

Jaylani is like that of Southern Poverty Law Center and the LGBT communities.

[YouTube Video]

CAIR has now joined in the alliance (Isaiah 28:18) with attempting to pull down American sovereignty step by step through subversive acts like that of their predecessors. Jaylani may have forgotten (I am not playing the fool) as to what he is doing here, and what it is that he wants Americans to forget, but I have not!

America, Did You Forget About The Created “Fake News” Legalization from 2016

“For some time I have been disturbed by the way the CIA has been diverted from its original assignment. It has become an operational and at times a policy-making arm of the government.” –Harry S. Truman

President Harry S. Truman said of the Central Intelligence Agency that he would have never have agreed to the formulation of the CIA back in 1947, if he had known it would become the American Gestapo.

Just think of this, he compared the CIA to the American Gestapo (Hitler’s SS).

The Gestapo was a secret state police of Nazi Germany. They were given authority to investigate cases of their definition of treason, espionage, sabotage and criminal attacks on the Nazi Party and Germany, which history teaches us were self-inflicted.

He then went on to say:

“For some time I have been disturbed by the way the CIA has been diverted from its original assignment. It has become an operational and at times a policy-making arm of the government.”

A policy making arm of the government? In other words, we now have the government working and representing the government and its interests in spite of the people that they are to serve.

Policies, in fact, circumvent and undermine constitutional law, they are not law. Remember, policy follows law, law does not follow policy.

[YouTube Video]

An article was written at Common Dreams on Monday, December 26, 2016, called “Under Cover of Christmas, Obama Establishes Controversial Anti-Propaganda Agency.” I’d like to quote from the article and comment on it.

“It owns all these not-at-all-important laws are smuggled into NDAA that are signed on Christmas Eve with basically no public debate,” wrote media critic Adam Johnson.

Notice that it was signed on Christmas Eve while everyone was enjoying the Christmas holidays in taking a much-needed break from the “circus of politics” and the agents of their particular “special interest” groups.

[YouTube Video]

Notice also that there was “no public debate” because they did not want the people to know what it was that they were enacting upon them.

“In the final hours before the Christmas holiday weekend, U.S. President Barack Obama on Friday quietly signed the 2017

National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA) into law—and buried within the \$619 billion military budget a controversial provision that establishes a national anti-propaganda center that critics warn could be dangerous for press freedoms.”

Notice the acronym NDAA stands for the “National Defense Authorization Act.” They did not want to raise eyebrows, and furthermore, they create names like this because they know all the while that no one would dare talk down a bill with a name like “National Defense.”

Also, take note that it was “buried within the \$619 billion military budget.”

We were warned from President Eisenhower of the Military Industrial complex on Jan. 17, 1961.

This bill was not out in the open. It had to be hidden, tax dollars being illegally dispersed and allocated to programs that suppress the very laws that they have been entrusted to uphold, namely the First Amendment of the Bill of Rights.

Still, it was sold to the American people as “anti-propaganda” when, in fact, it was written and funded to promote propaganda.

This is much like the “PATRIOT Act” which was implemented at 3:30 in the morning without giving adequate time for any one representative to read before voting on it after September 11, 2001. That act undermines the United States Constitution while setting up agencies which target the government’s political opposition, namely Christians (Acts 11:26), constitutionalists, patriots and conservatives.

Remember, the Gestapo did the same things after Hitler attacked his own Reichstag. They created various security police forces only to combine them on a later date into one force (Homeland security, TSA, CIA, FBI, etc...)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The Countering Disinformation and Propaganda Act, introduced by Republican Sen. Rob Portman of Ohio, establishes the Global Engagement Center under the State Department which coordinates efforts to “recognize, understand, expose, and counter foreign state and non-state propaganda and disinformation efforts aimed at undermining United States national security interests.”

Further, the law authorizes grants to non-governmental agencies to help “collect and store examples in print, online, and social media, disinformation, misinformation, and propaganda” directed at the U.S. and its allies, as well as “counter efforts by foreign entities to use disinformation, misinformation, and propaganda to influence the policies and social and political stability” of the U.S. and allied nations.

“The law authorizes grants to non-governmental agencies.”
Really?

What constituent has delegated authority to his representatives to allocate funds to non-governmental agencies?

Government is merely securing their position against the American people, which is the opposite of their purpose. This is tyranny. It also is to further indemnify themselves from the consequences of what they are responsible for in creating in these types of bills.

The head of the center will be appointed by the president, which likely means the first director will be chosen by President-elect Donald Trump.

The new law comes weeks before the New York billionaire assumes the presidency, amid national outrage over the spread of fake news and what many say is foreign interference in the election, both which are accused of enabling Trump's victory.

Friends, here you have the CIA-controlled media creating "fake news" and then turning on the free press and accusing them of "fake news," only to further garner more control over the internet and media resources abroad.

They want control. They want no opposition to their propaganda. They want it one-sided, and they want it biased in which you will always see it their way (John 8:44).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Look to Facebook, Twitter, Google and their latest stunt of censoring and shadow banning much of the government's political opposition, which proves the point of what it is that they are involved with here.

Look to local media paper outlets who are all feeding from the same source. They want controlled talking points and controlled dialogue where nothing else is permissible but what they release.

They have even gone so far to set up their own version of "fact checkers," which are funded through the CIA, such as Snopes.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Those combined forces have already contributed to the overt policing of media critical of U.S. foreign policy, such as the problematic "fake news blacklist" recently disseminated by the Washington Post.

Look to who released the "fake news blacklist." It was the Washington Post. Who then fueled the fire? The same media that 94% of Americans say they do not believe in, and rightly so. They want to knock everyone over by force while they are left standing. Who then gains from all of this?

And for those paying attention over the holiday weekend, the creation of the new information agency under the Propaganda Act appears to be another worrisome development.

If only people would learn (Psalm 9:17, Hosea 4:6).

Created Opposition Will Be Blamed – But They Are The Ones Doing The Attacking

“I will tolerate no opposition!”-Adolph Hitler

The propagandists are telling us today through a headline from CNN: “Act of Terror; Bombs sent to CNN, Clintons, Obamas, Holder, and others such as Maxine Waters and John Brennan” (1 Kings 13:33).

“Act of terror?” Really?

Americans, how many Muslim crimes have been committed against the people in this country since 9/11 and yet, when they are found out for their crimes, they are then labeled by the CIA-controlled media “allegations,” “workplace violence,” or “domestic abuse,” etc.? Of course, the media is doing their absolute best to avoid the use of the word “terror” until it is convenient in naming their political opposition “Terrorists.”

Remember, “terror” is defined in the original Oxford English Dictionary as “Government by intimidation.”

In response to these headlines, point-man Donald Trump takes the stage and says, “No resources will be spared! The full weight of our government is being deployed to conduct this investigation. We will spare no expense in this effort.”

You would have thought that these were the first initiatives of Donald Trump right after his presidential victory concerning his intentions to prosecute these same people for their acts of terror towards the American people. Boy, was I wrong!

Friends, consider the source concerning each and every one of these said criminals that allegedly had a package sent to their locations. Every one of them is guilty of dismantling our republican form of government in an attempt to destroy the America that we all know (John 10:10), and that by any means necessary (Matthew 7:16; 2 Corinthians 11:14-15). In their words, it is about the revolution.

Look at the international criminal George Soros and the organizations that he is funding, which runs in clear contrast to our form of government.

And don’t forget the Clintons and their crimes towards “We the people,” which include drug dealing, treason (Russia and China), murder, etc. (Article 3, Section 3, US Constitution).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Also, remember Barack Hussein Obama (Luke 22:48), who transgressed the United States Constitution over 1,180 times.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

What of the crimes of former Attorney General Eric Holder he committed during his tenure as Attorney General such as “Fast and Furious,” foreign terrorists have rights, no investigation into the Department of Defense and child pornography, etc.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

You would have thought that is where President Donald Trump's efforts were going to be made when he stated, "No resources will be spared!" and that "the full weight of our government is being deployed to conduct this investigation. We will spare no expense in this effort."

Apparently not.

Also, consider that the false flags that have been laid at this government's feet when it comes to these types of allegations, how many times has the FBI and the CIA been found playing part in the crimes of which another has been accused? This will, in short, be reported and laid at the feet of their created opposition, namely, the "right wingers," Christians, conservatives, and patriots.

Shortly after, it will be found to be a "false flag," or a "hoax!" Then, it will fade to black only to be forgotten until they again need to remind the people in this country that they are the victims of those who tell the truth and expose them for who they are and for what it is that they are responsible (Luke 12:2).

This is an all-out attempt to further strengthen themselves against created opposition by playing the victims of a crime for which they are responsible. This is the fruit of a totalitarian system. Just think, all of this occurs just 2 weeks before the midterm elections. Pretty telling, is it not?

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

It is interesting to take note that you did not get a response like this from Donald Trump when it came to the compound that was discovered in New Mexico, where the two heavily armed Muslims were training 13 young boys to commit jihad in public schools and toward our law enforcement agencies, did you? Sure didn't! Once it was discovered, what the American people did get was the FBI going in and destroying all the evidence.

Personally, I remember the constant media harassment, the bomb threats to my ministry and street teams, the pictures of my house and my address being put up online by the minuscule homosexual lobby that endangered my family, death threats week after week, month after month, year after year and yet, when the FBI was called into action to apprehend the perpetrators, we saw nothing but inaction.

However, the president said that it is his "highest priority" for the FBI to engage, that is, when it comes to protecting and covering for themselves.

What many of the enemies of righteousness (Acts 13:10) seem to forget is that in this day and age, history is so readily available to us so that we might learn from it. It has been said that the best way to predict the future is to know your past, and in America, we do not lack the resources in having the knowledge of knowing either one of them.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

P.S. The Geneva Bible has footnotes throughout out in how to deal with tyrants and their scheming ways.

What we are seeing today is nothing short of the full force of totalitarianism. These people are creating political enemies, and in this case, it's "right wingers" who expose corruption for what it is (Psalm 94:16), by first painting into the minds of the people to shut down their political opposition. Like a dictator of the past said, "I will tolerate no opposition." Well, guess how he rid himself of it? These people are attempting to put a stop to all opposition; and friends and American patriots are their stumbling blocks (1 Peter 2:8). This will also be another excuse to fortify themselves against the very people that they are to serve, but this shows who they are really serving.

Case in point: Look at the illegal censorship by big tech companies such as Facebook, Twitter, Google, etc. They wage war against their political opposition in shutting down through censoring and shadow-banning Christians and conservative sites that oppose their puppet masters' every illegal and subversive act.

By the way, isn't this the same CIA-controlled media in America today that are suppressing the new movie "Gosnell" while protecting those who are personally sanctioning and advocating for the murder of the innocent in the womb (Proverbs 6:17; Isaiah 5:20)? Why, yes, it is!

[YouTube Video]

Dictators of the past and present have taught, and are teaching (John 8:44) through their devilish examples just this: They create their enemies and turn the mob on their created enemies in order to conquer them. This all first took place by silencing their opposition and then accusing them to death, literally.

Again, these people are not under attack, they are attacking. Wake-up America (Ephesians 5:11).

Bradlee, Censorship Sounds a Little Conspiratorial! It Sure Does

"Conspiracy theory is the ultimate refuge of the apathetic. If you cannot change your own country, it must be that some greater force controls the world and there is nothing that you can do about it. This is exactly what conspirators would have you believe. The truth of the matter is, you do not want to make the effort to deal with it."

As we all know, the big tech companies are crossing major constitutional lines when it come to the censoring of Christian conservative and patriotic websites. As if to suggest that they can lawfully shutdown lawful speech because it is an offense to their subversive positions, they cannot.

Facebook, Twitter, Google etc. are subversive to American government. With that said, around 5 years ago when we first put up the media website www.sonsoflibertymedia.com, we were doing really well. After 3 months, we were breaking into about million views a month and we were ranked 14,000 in the United States. Not bad. Then the fourth month came around and it was as if someone pulled the rug from underneath us. What just happened? I knew immediately that Facebook, Twitter, Google and other big tech companies were doing something mischievous and illegal (1 John 3:4) behind the scenes.

After I saw these numbers drop drastically, I called up the people that know best concerning how all of these media sites work. When I did so, I shared my thoughts as to what was going on over at my site. Their response was, "Bradlee, that sounds a little conspiratorial."

It is interesting how much the Bible speaks of conspiracy (1 and 2 Kings; Psalm 2:2; Isaiah 28:18; Jeremiah 11:9; etc...), and yet, people act as if it is a thing of the past. I am here to tell you that it is being played out over and over in the present, day-by-day, week-by-week, month-by-month and year-by-year.

Here we are 5 years later, and big tech companies are openly censoring and banning at will without any legal recourse (at least temporarily) and guess who it hit the hardest? It just happened to hit the man that told me that I shouldn't be conspiratorial.

[YouTube Video]

I talked with him the other day and told him, "I remember telling you what Facebook was doing 3 months after I started my site. You said, 'Let's not get conspiratorial.'"

I went on and told him that there is an alliance of conspiracy and monopolizing (banning-targeting the same people at the same time). This is all an effort to shut down their opposition. The CIA-controlled media has been doing this far too long in this country and now it's hitting home.

[YouTube Video]

He has now had several of his sites shut down with no explanation whatsoever. One site had 3.5 million followers, as well as an investment of over $350,000 dollars.

Another site had 2 million followers with a $300,000 dollar investment.

I have another friend who had over 20 million followers shut down by the big tech companies without any explanations whatsoever.

Furthermore, he went on and said that he was simply trying to play by the rules, and I reminded him that big tech companies are not, because they do not believe that they have any rules, that is until the people in this country remind the big tech companies that they are subject to the same laws the rest of us are.

The good news is that he owned up to his fault, and said that he was wrong. It brought him a little closer to reality that Americans are no longer talking of how this is happening to someone else in a foreign country.

America you still have the law, and that law applies to them just as much as it does to us, but you have to enforce it (Isaiah 51:4).

Facebook, Twitter, Google Etc. Are Subversive To American Government

Subversive-Tending to subvert; having a tendency to overthrow and ruin. Public corruption of morals is subversive of public happiness.

Subversion-Entire overthrow; an overthrow of the foundation; utter ruin; as the subversion of a government or state. The subversion of the constitution or laws. Webster's 1828 Dictionary

What if I told you that Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Google and other big tech companies are subversive to American government; and what they are advocating is completely illegal in this country?

Facebook sells itself as an American online social networking service company. Apparently, it is only for those who are willing to socialize in pushing the same illegal propaganda.

For example, they advance homosexuality and sodomy (Jude 1:7). For those who have not taken the time to peruse the United States Constitution and its enumerated laws you may want to do so, that is if you would like to remain a free people (2 Corinthians 3:17). In every state in our Union, homosexuality and sodomy is a felony. Yet, these big tech companies are banning and censoring people who are making reference to our constitutional laws (Romans 3:20) in exposing the crimes of those who are guilty as charged. With the use of the revisionists, they now call it "hate speech."

Take note, that whenever lawless people make reference to the word "hate" (Isaiah 5:20), it is always leveled at the law that exposes them for that of which they are guilty (Psalm 109:4; John 7:7; 15:17-19, 22).

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

Or look to the advocacy that Facebook gives to organizations that murder innocent babies (Proverbs 6:17). They stand strong with the murderous likes of Planned Parenthood in giving them charity funding to the tune of \$992 million.

[YouTube Video]

Maybe that explains why Facebook illegally censors pro-life Facebook pages.

Killing is illegal in this country (Exodus 20:13), but again, they advocate that which God clearly condemns.

Outside of the fact that the American Constitution already prohibits abortion, the late Supreme Court justice Anthony Scalia stated:

"The Constitution contains no right to abortion."

I can say with absolute certainty that 58 million murdered babies prayed for the American people to obey God (1 John 2:6) to preserve, that which has been terminated, namely their lives.

Sodomy is illegal, abortion is illegal and yet, these big tech companies make themselves the law when silencing-censoring-banning those who are on the side of the law.

What of the Muslims that are attempting to infiltrate America to conquer? I'm talking about groups like the Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR), who have declared out of their own mouths to overthrow the United States as we know it. This is treason committed by these companies that are giving cover to who mean to destroy the USA (Article 3, Section 3, US Constitution). Are these companies above the law? Does the law apply only to us peasants? The law is there to protect the weak from the strong, we are seeing just the opposite today.

[YouTube Video]

Yet, when you expose the crimes of those who are coming into America, not to assimilate but rather to conquer, somehow, according to these big tech companies, this is a violation to their said terms. Furthermore, they browbeat and censor the freedom of speech, which is aligned with our laws, which in turn exposes their crimes.

"When the debate is lost, slander becomes the tool of the loser." -Socrates

They make up words like Islamophobia and call those opposed to Islam Islamophobes. It is not Islamophobia, it is common sense to enforce the law against those who have such a long history of doing harm to the innocent. It is common sense to protect ourselves from such a vicious and violent people.

Look at Twitter and the filth that they spew on a daily basis, busy trying to demoralize the people by advocating unlawful content and activity. Then, they sit back and shadow ban and censor other people's content because it does not fall into the same filthy, reprobate state as their own (Jeremiah 6:30).

How telling! How Un-American and obviously illegal! They get away with it because the people think that they have lawful stance to do so.

I can hear someone say that this is free market capitalism! After all, they can do what they want to do because it is their platform! Really? To use the law against the law, in declaring that which is illegal, is now somehow legal? By illegally monopolizing, banning, censoring and adhering to the same policies that are un-American and un-Constitutional is free market capitalism? There is nothing free about it.

Still not convinced? What do you think of the banks that refuse to give credit in purchasing guns or ammo in circumventing the Constitution and federal laws? "We the People" have the right to bear arms. Yet, banks are now saying we will no longer extend credit to those who have a God-given right to do so. This is dictatorial, totalitarian and tyrannical in every way.

What happens when the electric company no longer agrees with what I lawfully say? Are they are going to shut off my electricity and say that they did it lawfully?

Or what of my telephone? If they don't like my lawful speech, which exposes their conspiratorial alliance (Isaiah 28:18) with the state having control over my life by now calling it "hate speech," will they decide to shut my service off? Is that capitalism or tyranny?

It has been rightly said that those that mean to rule over you, mean to silence you. Is that what is happening today? Of course, it is! All of it is being done under the guise of being done legally because big money tech companies and corrupt politicians have said so.

What happens if Americans let this continue in the direction that it is going?

The first president of the United States, George Washington, said that "If the freedom of speech is taken away, then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter."

The greatest danger to American freedom is a government that ignores the Constitution. The problem that we are experiencing today is that the American people do not realize that they are the government, standing down and allowing a people that claim that they know better than we do.

Friends, they are the problem. Furthermore, they are the ones that helped create the problems, as well as are responsible to continue to give cover to the problems that they have created because it adds strength to tyranny and it gives the state more control over your lives.

If an average business was to do even an inkling of what these big tech companies have done, that business would have been sued within the first month.

What are you doing with the freedom that God has given to you?

It is time for Americans to not only resist this tyranny, but lawfully deal with it as well. After all, our forefathers left us an example to emulate (1 Timothy 6:12).

If Politicians Go Outside Their Script Their Agenda Would Fall Apart

"Political language... is designed to make lies sound truthful... and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind."
—George Orwell

Corey Booker, Nancy Pelosi, Al Franken, Keith Ellison and the list goes on concerning those who have refused to be on the Sons of Liberty Radio show. Some will take shots at my national platform through the corporate-owned media, but will not confront me on LIVE radio. Why is that? They do not want to be exposed for who they really are (Luke 12:2) nor do they desire to subject themselves to that which is foreign to their Communistic, totalitarian agenda, namely, the Constitution and its enumerated laws.

The Constitution is as foreign to these Redcoats and Torys (Luke 22:48) that have sold the American people out to a power as foreign to them as the tyrant across the pond named King George was to our Forefathers and the 13 colonies while establishing our move to establish Independence.

[YouTube Video]

How many times have you heard these politicians claim that Americans complain about making reference to constitutional law while debating away the American people's rights? Never.

One must remember that while appearing on one of the media networks (NBC, FOX, MSNBC, CNN, ABC), that it is safe for them to appear there. They know that the questions will be tame and within the confines of their scripted political talking points while keeping them safely in their agenda's parameters.

They do not want to talk about the US Constitution because they do not know the US Constitution. They want to talk in the deceptive language that they have created, which the American people have at length accepted.

Their talking points must be predicated upon usurping God's moral law (Exodus 20), unconstitutional democracy (what the people want), unconstitutional debate and premised on an unconstitutional diplomacy (seduction in another guise), fair play, sportsmanlike conduct (fraternizing with the enemy) and conversation while tearing down American law and putting unconstitutional un-American policies in its place. They do this all while further enslaving the American people (Hosea 4:6).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

How foreign is the US Constitution to these paid actors in the service to their perspective special interest groups in the political world of the "Circus of Politics" in the guise of representing the American people?

Let Me Show You...

Maryland Representative Roscoe Bartlett from the 6th district once told me that while on the federal floor in Washington D.C. he quoted the US Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, which he always carries with him in his shirt pocket. When he was finished, he turned and began to exit the building and the floor recorder asked the question, "What was that that you were quoting?"

Friends, the US Constitution is as foreign to these said US representatives as Scripture is recited and exhibited by the devil himself (2 Corinthians 11:14). No wonder why this country is being turned into a living hell Proverbs 9:17).

The American Empire: 737 Military Bases In 148 Countries

"We have a good military and we can take down government..."
–General Wesley Clark

Throughout the book of 1 and 2 Kings, conspiracy after conspiracy took place to overthrow the powers of that time. It is, in fact, a biblical truth no one can deny (Jeremiah 11:9).

In America today, to talk of conspiracy always seems to fall on deaf ears, as if it were just a theory. And, of course, it is only a theory until it comes to pass, then it's a fact! Then those who cried "conspiracy theorists" sit back and try to figure out why no one told them. Yet, most have learned this deceptive lesson by listening to the lying CIA-media that they denounce as a bunch of corporate liars (John 8:44). How this works I do not know, it is simply the reflection of hypocrisy concerning that of the people in this country and that on a massive scale (Romans 1:18).

Little by little, the people in this country are discovering that conspiracy theories are simply conspiracies (Jeremiah 11:9), as they are also discovering that the CIA-controlled media has a history of giving cover for the conspirators themselves.

[YouTube Video]

One such case is the new world order (Revelation 17:17) in which no can any longer cast off as some sort of theory in the way that Americans have done for decades in the past.

[YouTube Video]

Incrementally, and through political and media deception, conspirators are hard at work creating the American empire by conquering nation after nation under the guise of “we are being threatened again, and we must deal with them or else.” And this all at the expense of the blood of your sons and daughters.

Did you know that America has over 737 military bases in 148 countries? Can someone please show me where Americans have delegated authority to representatives to plunder and conquer other nations on the biddings of the military industrial complex, only then to put American military presence in their place?

If that is not enough evidence of what corruption in American government has been busy doing on a global scale, I have to say, that I do not know how to help you understand.

Just think, Americans are complaining of the 3000 Islamic Mosques (Foreign Military Bases) on American soil (Galatians 6:7).

[YouTube Video]

America, what is happening right before your eyes is treason (Luke 22:48). It is treason against Americans, as well as unlawful invasions into foreign countries (Article 3, Section 3, US Constitution).

How many times the American government and the media have convinced Americans of some monstrous dictator in a third world country that needs be dealt with or else, because they are some sort of threat, only to find that they were the ones responsible for creating and inciting the wars from the very offset (Psalm 94:20).

Donald Trump Talking Pen. It's hilarious. [Order today.]

Again, at length, those particular countries are then plundered of their resources while American military presence is left in control. It is called totalitarianism. Wake up!

One thing you might want to ask yourselves next time you hear the "we need to deal with them or else" you might want to ask the question, who is doing the attacking?

If Only Americans Understood The Price Of Their Freedoms?

"Was is it on a football field or in a boxing ring that you're God-given rights were won? Or was it on a battlefield where men sacrificed themselves to give it?"

Americans can attempt to deceive themselves into believing, with the use of sophistries by the corporate-owned and operated media, that they are given correct and right information. Most of you know that they are not telling you the truth concerning any matter, if, in fact, the topic even matters. Unless, of course, it works to their own ends (Psalm 101:3).

You are taught that if you question their narrative, somehow, that you are just conspiratorial (Romans 1:18).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

You can send your children to schools where you know the indoctrinators are the “proselytizers of a new faith,” where their books have been revised and fabricated with intentional propaganda (Article 10 of the Bill of Rights; Hosea 4:6).

Yet, you are taught that everyone else is doing it, and you do not want to be ostracized for raising up your own children (Proverbs 22:6), but happily submit to bring them to an agent of the state who is illegally indoctrinating them.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

We’re in an ever-changing con-game (circus of politics) that is being played out through the mouths of corrupt politicians (Luke 22:48) in hopes of incrementally and unconstitutionally creating a new world which looks and runs contrary to the original God-ordained model and purpose.

Yet again, you have been taught that if you dare take a stand against corruption you might look like you are an anarchist, or anti-government (1 Kings 18:17-18).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Most Americans have been good, little subjects when it comes to their masters’ directives.

Americans have even gone so far as to believe the “fictitious” when it comes to Hollywood and their productions in an attempt to create a world in which they want to live in by ignoring reality (Jeremiah 8:5).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The truth of the matter is that the Lord God is bringing a reality to your front door, like it or not, and the issues at hand must be dealt with lawfully (Isaiah 51:4).

I know that to some, the truth is stranger than fiction. Yet, it matters not (Amos 7:8), no more than one has to believe in trucks. If you stand in front of a moving one, the rest will take its course, believing in trucks or not.

You cannot do the wrong thing and expect the right results (Galatians 6:7). You can never be doing the right thing by attempting to change God's reality and fighting against His spiritual truths (Exodus 20; Romans 7:12).

You must submit and adhere to His model, and that model is Jesus Christ (John 14:6), and Christ is for us to emulate (John 14:21).

I remember, in passing, I noticed a news anchor on a television broadcast addressing politicians that just violated constitutional law, and in response, he said that it was "nothing personal." When I heard that and understood the offense (scandals, lies, illegal and unconstitutional bills passed etc...), I said it is "totally offensive." Does he not understand the price paid for American freedoms too flippantly give a pass to these criminals!?

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

When a game is played (football, hockey, baseball, soccer boxing etc...) and an offense occurs according to the said rules, often times you will see the two players shake hands, pat each other on the back and continue on as if it never happened.

Yet, when it comes to laws and transgression of constitutional laws, we must keep in mind that these laws are to be magnified against crimes. They are there to ensure our God-given rights; rights in which are blood bought, for “justice is the guardian of liberty” (Psalm 9:16).

As a matter of fact, to show you how this is played out in politics, I remember our trip to the federal floor in Washington D.C. Our guide said that around here, you just go along to get along. Apparently, these politicians have forgotten the awful price paid to give them the opportunity to serve!

Do Americans have any idea as to how many unconstitutional bills have been passed in such a fashion? Go along to get along?

I wonder, did our veterans compromise to go along to get along when many were maimed, shot or killed on the battlefield ratifying the Constitution against an enemy to the United States?

Were our veterans fighting for their favorite unconstitutional party line, the Democrats or the Republicans?

Did our veterans, when fighting for our God-given rights, play diplomatic games with the enemies of our country when being shot at? And to think, many of our veterans that came home after fighting for the corrupt politicians and their unconstitutional wars were being protested by their own people at the airports while the compromised politicians that sent them did nothing to stop it. Apparently, they were too busy diplomatically fraternizing with America's enemies within. After all, they have to go along to get along.

The price of freedom is always a sacrifice of heroic souls on the behalf of their people (John 15:13). The price is always been blood (Hebrews 9:22).

If you look to Calvary, where the Son of Man took to the battlefield in defeating sin on the behalf of man (1 Peter 3:18), you can see that He was crucified and set forth as the propitiation of the sins of the world (1 John 2:2) as the Lamb of God (John 1:29).

Take heed concerning the cost of redemption and spiritual freedom, which is always a great expense of blood. The lesson is to be learned in the natural (1 Corinthians 2:14).

Next time someone wants to use sophistries or tries to teach you a lesson of “sportsmanlike conduct” in an attempt to add strength to tyranny, consider the severity of the price paid for your freedoms (John 3:16).

NBC's Transgender Attacks Bradlee Dean And Alex Jones By Playing The Victim

“Let me control the media and I will turn any nation into a herd of pigs.” –Joseph Goebbels, Nazi Propaganda minister

Recently, I came across an article by NBC News calling out Alex Jones for having a long history of inflammatory, anti-LGBTQ speech, and sure enough, they had me in the mix of their propaganda-hit piece. When I first saw the article, I knew exactly what I was dealing with. The propaganda was written by none other than transgender and “useful idiot” Alexander Kacala (John 8:44).

Not that the corporate owned media has any credibility, but you would think that they would know when enough is enough. Apparently not.

[YouTube Video]

Alexander’s Kacala’s profile reads “Writer by day. Hairy chested drag queen at night. Deputy editor @ outmagazine.”

Andrew Kacala also has several links to transgender sites, as well as pictures posted with two men and a baby, sodomite teen links, sodomite porn, and pictures of transgenders putting make-up on children.

Somehow, this is permissible in this man’s (Along with NBC’s propaganda) reprobate mind (Romans 1:24-32). Yet, the law in America says otherwise (Leviticus 18:22, 20:13; Jude1:7)

[YouTube Video]

Alexander might lean to corruption in the courts and say, it is no longer the law! I ask Mr. Kacala, who said that? The Supreme Court did!

Do you mean the same Supreme Court that has been attempting to tear down America's Christian heritage for the last 60 years through un-constitutional and illegal oligarchies? Slaves are made in such ways (John 8:34).

Many of the injustices should have been removed and indicted long ago for operating outside of their scope of authority (Article 3 & Article 2, Section 4, U.S. Constitution).

"No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the law of God." – Judge William Blackstone.

As a matter of fact, in every state preamble, it starts off acknowledging the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, who gave the law and His law clearly condemns what these people advocate (Exodus 20).

Furthermore, if Mr. Kacala is referring to the likes of Elena Kagan, who was merely placed as a Supreme Court justice for one reason and one reason only: to advocate on the behalf of other sodomites that are being used as political battering rams to upend America's godly Constitution to give way to Sharia law, well then, by all means, let's tell Americans a little history of Elena Kagan.

Elena Kagan is the former dean of students at Harvard. Contrary to Harvard's founding mottos, "For Christ and the Church" and "For the glory of Christ," Kagan is known for

During her tenure, she did the following:

- Kagan hired former ACLU lawyer William Rubenstein to teach “queer” legal theory, in which he taught courses on taking up new identities such as bisexuality, transgender fk, involving polygamy, sadomasochism, and the sexuality of minors.
- Kagan also hired other radicals (a lesbian and a transsexual) to teach transgender law courses, as well as Cass Sunstein who has written in support of polygamy and free-for-all marriage relationships.
- Kagan viciously attacked our military in opposition to “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell,” even banning military recruiters from coming on campus. Kagan’s attempt to ban the recruiters was unsuccessful, and even after losing her legal campaign, she encouraged students to continue protesting them.
- Kagan’s radical activism on campus was so toxic that there was even a campaign to make the entire university trans-inclusive, using Harvard’s “gender identity” non-discrimination policy to spew gender confusion among students on campus.

Elena Kagan has never judged a case a day in her life, yet Obama, unqualified for office himself, saw fit to “qualify” her on the Supreme Court bench...just in time for the Court to review homosexual “marriage.”

[YouTube Video]

Just think, NBC’s transgender and propagandist Andrew Kacala, who is on the wrong side of the law, wants to tell you who is persecuting them by acting out in an illegal and inflammatory fashion (Deut 22:5) by playing the victim. However, the fact is that he, along with NBC, is transgressing American law (Psalm 94:20).

According to Adolph Hitler's propagandist Joseph Goebbels, if he had control of the media, he would turn any nation into a herd of pigs. It is true that pigs beget other pigs as they unify in filling up on the mire. Yet, they need to come to the realization that not everyone is filling up with their media-fed mire.

Nike Betrays The People By Crowning The Traitor

Some people aren't loyal to you...They are loyal to their own need of you...Once their needs change, so does their loyalty!

Back in 2012, I remember walking up and down radio row doing radio interview after interview, doing my best to awaken those who have been dumbed down and desensitized by the corporate media that they once again declare that they do not believe (Roman 1:18).

I was telling those conservatives, yesterday's liberals, that Barack Hussein Obama is emulating Mao tse Tung.

Mao tse Tung was the responsible devil (John 10:10) that knew well enough to go reach out to the younger generation by teaching them that they were a democracy in hopes of overthrowing the older generation in the Republic of China. He easily succeeded because the older generation allowed their children to be indoctrinated by those who were overthrowing them (Hosea 4:6).

The same thing is happening in America today.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

While I was doing interviews there at the Republican National Convention, I had one individual come up to me and tell me that Barack Hussein Obama had no chance of winning a second term because of all the welfare recipients that he had created.

I responded with that is why he will win. You do not understand that he is creating dependents: dependents on the government for free money, food stamps, housing etc... In all fairness, Barack Hussein Obama would have never won without the aid of voter fraud. Yet, the point remains.

Notice how this works and who it is that they use (1 Kings 13:33). Priests, Presidents, politicians, news anchors, actors, musicians and even sports figures. Not to raise the bar, but to lower the bar, to dummy down the people, to demoralize the people, and in turn, unbeknownst to the people, giving corruption the upper hand.

The same agenda is at work today through those who have made an alliance, like Nike. Nike's new pick for their 30th Anniversary model and spokesperson is the disgraceful Colin Kaepernick.

Colin stated, "I am not going to stand up to show pride in a flag for a country that oppresses Black people and people of color."

If you remember, the controversy started when Colin Kaepernick, who rejected reality while giving himself over to the propaganda, refused to stand for the national anthem during a pre-season National Football League game. At the same time, Colin was protesting "racism" while supporting all 5 members of the race-baiting, hate group "Black Lives Matter."

Don't forget, Colin was adopted by white parents.

Telling NFL.com:

"I am not going to stand up to show pride in a flag for a country that oppresses Black people and people of color."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defines "oppressed": Burdened with unreasonable impositions; overburdened; depressed.

Oppressed, really? Colin's life proves the opposite. In fact, he signed a $114 million contract with the NFL.

Apparently, Colin has failed to remember that those he calls "oppressed" live in America where they have the opportunity to become what they work to become (2 Thessalonians 3:10).

As a matter of fact, take a quick look at others that are oppressed as the "victim of circumstance," Colin Kaepernick.

- The National Football League has 68% black, 0.7 Latinos, 1.1 Asian and 28% white.
- The National Basketball Association has 74.4 % black, 23.3 % white, 1.8 % Latinos and 0.2 % Asian players.

Oppressed? I think not!

Colin also might want to take the time to take note of the fact that those who followed his lead in disrespecting the American flag just happen to be criminals.

[YouTube Video]

Colin went on to say, "To me, this is bigger than football, and it would be selfish on my part to look the other way. There are bodies in the street and people getting paid leave and getting away with murder..."

That would be admirable if Colin had his facts straight.

According to the USA Crime Statistics (Crime Statistics Bureau- San Francisco):

- Blacks killed by whites- 2%
- Blacks killed by police- 1%
- Whites killed by police-3%
- Whites killed by blacks- 81%
- Blacks killed by blacks- 97%

During a press conference, where the “useful idiots” in the media were eager to make him a fellow propagandist, Colin added insult to injury to his own message by wearing a shirt which had photographs of the 1960 meeting of former Cuban dictator Fidel Castro and Malcolm X that read, “Like Minds Think Alike.”

And to think that Olympian John Carlos would look to Colin Kaepernick to be this generation’s civil rights leader. How irresponsible and reckless can one be? (Matthew 15:14; Hosea 4:6)

Friends, you cannot make this up.

Maybe next time Nike should consider the men and women that have fought, bled and died to give them the freedoms that they now enjoy today. They should do their homework and understand that freedom is given not to do what you ought to do and this isn’t it.

No longer supporting Nike.

McCain A Hero? POWs And Veterans Are Painting A Different Picture

"Establishment politicians and the media in this country are bent set on telling the American people the opposite of what the truth is!"

Boy o' boy does the establishment and corporate media love to honor their own. John McCain a war hero? According to what they are reporting then I guess Benedict Arnold was a hero as well.

This is like Barrack Hussein Obama winning the Noble Peace Prize for being the conduit of peace or like that of the streets across the country and the museums being put in honor of the presidents that have dishonored their oaths in upholding the US Constitution to preserve the rights of the American citizens etc... DISGRACEFUL.

Who do these conmen think that they are kidding? John McCain a war hero? The opposite is true, and most people that have their eyes and ears open over the last 6 decades know that the only ones honoring this "Judas" (Luke 22:48) are the same ones that have been guilty of committing the same crimes towards the American people (Proverbs 26:8).

"For that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God." True, no doubt! However, one has to ask, who told you that John McCain was, in any sense of the word, "highly esteemed" (Luke 16:15)? He has always been, to my knowledge, an abomination in the eyes of the American people. Furthermore, you couldn't believe a word that came out of his lying mouth (John 8:44). It is interesting to me that the world will take these "baser sorts" and attempt to put them up as to be emulated in place of the Christ (Acts 12:22).

Propagandists at work in distorted harmony...

Right on Cue, the CIA-controlled media enters and lies to your face about the truth of John McCain.

All together, and in concert, these “useful idiots” spew out the same lies and propaganda at the same given time. Look at these headlines from the corporate owned media...

The New York Times

“John McCain, War Hero, Senator, Presidential Contender Dies at 81”

ABC News

“John McCain, Arizona senator and Vietnam war hero, dies at 81”

CNBC

“Sen. John McCain, hero POW maverick Republican, dies at...”

Boston Globe

“John McCain war hero, senator, presidential candidate, dies at 81”

They are fomenting to their own shame and that, unabashedly.

One question I have for the reader, why are the veterans and POWs from Vietnam, who have exposed him as a liar and a fraud been largely ignored?

The short video below will expose the media (Luke 12:2) for who they are, and will help set the record straight for those who still may have any questions when it comes to the likes of John McCain.

God Judged Sodom And Gomorrah Because Men Refused To Keep His Commandments Dealing With The Wicked

Sodom and Gomorrah was Judged by God Because Men Refused to Keep His Commandments in Dealing with the Wicked!

"How ridiculous to overlook judgment because of kindness then love wounds itself by killing justice!" -Charles Haddon Spurgeon

How often I see and hear the professors of Christianity today walking contrary to the word and spirit of the Living Christ (2 Corinthians 3:6).

How willing they are to overlook judgment when it comes to the criminals that run rampant in this country, and on the other hand how willing they are to show compassion to the criminals while overlooking the victims. Why? "Evil men understand not judgment" (Proverbs 28:5). If you read the preceding verse, you will see that Scripture tells us "they that forsake the law praise the wicked."

This is exactly the Scriptural point that I want to make.

From the pulpits in America today we here the events unfold of Sodom and Gomorra and how Abraham should have prayed longer in hopes that God would have spared them rather than the righteous people in Sodom and Gomorra doing what God had commanded. And of course, not a second thought on man's behalf is given concerning the victims in these two cities.

Here is Abraham's account...

"And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way. And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him? For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know. And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord. And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked? Peradventure there be fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein? That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be far from thee: Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right? And the Lord said, If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes: Peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I find there forty and five, I will not destroy it. And he spake unto him yet again, and said, Peradventure there shall be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

And he said unto him, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak: Peradventure there shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there. And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: Peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake. And he said, Oh let not the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: Peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake. And the Lord went his way, as soon as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place." -Genesis 18:16-33

Got questions.org explains very well...

Genesis chapter 19 records the two angels, disguised as human men, visiting Sodom and Gomorrah. Lot met the angels in the city square and urged them to stay at his house. The angels agreed. The Bible then informs us, "Before they had gone to bed, all the men from every part of the city of Sodom – both young and old – surrounded the house. They called to Lot, 'Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them. Genesis 19:4-5 The angels then proceed to blind all the men of Sodom and Gomorrah and urge Lot and his family to flee from the cities to escape the wrath that God was about to deliver. Lot and his family flee the city, and then "the LORD rained down burning sulfur on Sodom and Gomorrah – from the LORD out of the heavens. Thus he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all those living in the cities..." (Genesis 19:24).

In light of the passage, the most common response to the question, "What was the sin of Sodom and Gomorrah?" is that it was homosexuality. That is how the term "sodomy" came to be used to refer to anal sex between two men, whether consensual or forced. Clearly, homosexuality was part of the reason God destroyed the two cities. The men of Sodom and Gomorrah wanted to perform homosexual gang rape on the two angels, who were disguised as men. At the same time, it is not biblical to say that homosexuality was the exclusive reason why God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. The cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were definitely not exclusive in terms of the sins in which they indulged.

Ezekiel 16:49-50 declares, "Now this was the sin of your sister Sodom: She and her daughters were arrogant, overfed and unconcerned; they did not help the poor and needy. They were haughty and did detestable things before me..." The Hebrew word translated "detestable" refers to something that is morally disgusting and is the exact same word used in Leviticus 18:22 that refers to homosexuality as an "abomination." Similarly, Jude 7 declares, "...Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding towns gave themselves up to sexual immorality and perversion." So, again, while homosexuality was not the only sin in which the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah indulged, it does appear to be the primary reason for the destruction of the cities.

Those who attempt to explain away the biblical condemnations of homosexuality claim that the sin of Sodom and Gomorrah was inhospitality. The men of Sodom and Gomorrah were certainly being inhospitable. There is probably nothing more inhospitable than homosexual gang rape. But to say God completely destroyed two cities and all their inhabitants for being inhospitable clearly misses the point.

While Sodom and Gomorrah were guilty of many other horrendous sins, homosexuality was the reason God poured fiery sulfur on the cities, completely destroying them and all of their inhabitants. To this day, the area where Sodom and Gomorrah were located remains a desolate wasteland. Sodom and Gomorrah serve as a powerful example of how God feels about sin in general, and homosexuality specifically.

The point is that there were no righteous to be spared and the Lord did what man failed to do when they had the time to do it.

Question: How do you show mercy to a people who observe lying vanities (Jonah 2:4) and refuse to return to the Lord (Jeremiah 6:16) on His terms? (Jeremiah 22:3) God must be true and judgment must commence.

Men today, like those of Sodom and Gomorrah, are not valiant for the truth. They are valiant to proceed from evil to evil (Jeremiah 5).

They care more about the pleasures of sin for a season, than they are grieved for the afflictions of Joseph (Amos 6:6; Hebrews 11:25).

Men today care more of compromise (where two men both agree on what they both know is wrong) and diplomacy (seduction in another guise) in promoting anarchy through "antinomianism" than they do the Law of God against the sins unto judgment that enslave men (John 8:34).

Instead of establishing judgment within the gate and hating the evil and loving the good (Amos 5:15) in hopes that the Lord may be gracious to their repentance (2 Corinthians 7:10), they reject the counsel of God against them by hating the good and loving the evil, and that to their own damnation.

They care more about the approbation and favor of men than they do that of the Living God and what His Word declares (Galatians 1:10), not knowing that which is highly favored among men is an abomination unto the Lord (Luke 16:15).

They wear the cross. Yet, they have no testimony of the power of God unto salvation by the cross because they do not practice what Christ required: "Deny yourselves and take up your cross and follow Me" (Matthew 16:24; Romans 1:16; 2 Corinthians 5:15, 13:4-5; Galatians 2:21).

Professed Christians in America today talk much of love through inaction, and yet know nothing of it (1 John 3:18). They read what to do, but do it not! In fact, they declare and proclaim how much they love God, and yet if you were to have them read His moral law and look to their own lives, they would find how much they actually hate God through their actions (Matthew 15:8).

Then again, these were the same types of people in Jerusalem crying out “Crucify him! Crucify him! We have no king but Caesar” (John 19:15). And these are the same people today persecuting living Christians while praising the dead ones (Matthew 5:10).

They continuously preach of the heroism of Abraham, Moses, Joshua, David, Gideon, Samson and others from the pulpit and fail to understand what these men were doing when serving their generations (Psalm 71:18-19; Isaiah 51:4). Today, instead of doing the same, they simply hide under a false grace (Isaiah 30) and give themselves over to a man, the president, and declare end times. They declare we’re in the end times because they have failed to stand up and fight for their posterity in keeping the Lord’s commandments and His judgments (Psalm 78:1-11).

Ungrateful reprobates, pretenders, counterfeits and hypocrites are what they are (Matthew 23:3).

Instead of reaching out to the greatest demographic here in America, public high schools, they send missionaries to foreign lands to do there what they fail to do for their own here. Instead of fighting for their posterity and shutting down the illegalities of sodomy in all 50 states, they teach them to just do their best to understand that they cannot help themselves while God say’s the opposite (Leviticus 20:18).

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

Instead of fighting on their behalf against the federal government that is illegally indoctrinating them, they simply give their kids over to them to be dumbed down.

[YouTube Video]

And instead of protesting the murder of 58 million innocent babies (Proverbs 6:17), they merely pass it off as a “choice,” that being the lessons that they learned from the media that they say that they do not believe (Romans 1:18).

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

The American Church, instead of protesting corruption in government through the example of the Biblical patriarchs and our American forefathers (Matthew 5:17-18), teach to submit to tyranny as if to suggest that it is somehow obedience to God (Romans 12:21).

[YouTube Video]

The Church in America has failed to keep the Commandments of the God of Israel.

Instead of preaching out against sin, they advocate for that which God clearly condemns, thereby making war against God (Micah 3:5), which at length destroys our government, our country and our families.

Look to their feigned strength that they profess to possess. It is gauged by simply looking to the prevailing immoralities and debauchers of society. They are weak and pathetic and they have no excuses as to why America is where we is today!

Why did God judge Sodom and Gomorrah? It's the same reason that he is judging America today (Amos 4:12), He cannot find the righteous in order to spare her (Jeremiah 22:3).

Defining the Wicked...

Wicked men in the sight of God are those who have the knowledge of what to do when it comes to the right, but over and over again, they turn their shoulders and choose the wrong, through tolerance and apathy Americans are bringing upon themselves destruction (Deuteronomy 30:19) that will not be reversed, which leaves no alternative as to why God judges and is judging America today (Deuteronomy 28:63).

While The American People Sleep, The Muslims Are Making Their Move For Government Positions

“As long as you remember that if you get involved in politics, you have to be very careful that your leader is for Allah. You don’t get involved in politics because it’s the American thing to do. You get involved in politics because politics are a weapon to use in the cause of Islam. –Siraj Wahhaj

It has been said that “Either you are going to do politics, or politics is going to do you!”

How true this statement is, and how many people in this country live their own little selfish lives (Luke 17:33) deceiving themselves into believing that politics plays no part in America (Exodus 18:21).

While most Americans are still sleeping under this new shill administration (Matthew 13:25), there are a record number of Muslims running for governmental positions in this country.

And most do not realize that they mean to implement Sharia Law in place of The U.S. Constitution, which runs antithetical (in direct contrast) to American government. In other words, Muslims mean to overthrow your form of government.

"I wouldn't want to create the impression that I wouldn't like the government of the United States to be Islamic."
—Ibrahim Hooper

Moving on to the headlines from the propagandists at the Minneapolis Star and Tribune, "Tim Walz, Jeff Johnson to face off in Minnesota governor race."

After seeing this headline, the first thing that went through my experienced mind was, where are the results for the Muslims that mean to take office in Minnesota?

Of course, I knew that the CIA-controlled media did not want the people in an upheaval with the knowledge that 3 Muslim candidates just won the primaries in their local government, and another one of them being the 4th, Hakim Muhammad otherwise known as Keith Ellison, who has now been accused of abuse by several ex-girlfriends.

It is my understanding that Representative Keith Ellison has been making comments about me (The Daily Beast), saying to the American people that they "may not know quite how extreme this guy (Bradlee Dean) is." Interesting. Can you say Keith is straining at a gnat while he swallows the BIG camel? I may be radical for the truth (Matthew 11:12), but I am not guilty of beating of my spouse.

That aside, and first in line is CAIR-linked, Ilhan Omar. She won the primary to replace (domestic abuser) Hakim Muhammad-Keith Ellison in Congress.

WND reported Ilhan Omar, the 34-year-old community organizer who came to America as a refugee from Somalia, was touted by Democrats as a model success story.

“From a refugee camp to the State Capitol with intelligence and insight,” beamed former Minneapolis Mayor R.T. Rybak, who endorsed Omar. “This is a wonderful story to tell as Americans, and a great source of pride for the state of Minnesota’s open arms.”

But on Thursday, Omar made her mark in another way.

She was one of only two members of the Minnesota State House to vote against a bill that would allow life insurance companies to deny payouts to the beneficiaries of terrorists who die in violent attacks on Americans.

Ilhan Omar also has ties to CAIR which is tied to Hamas as well as the Muslim Brotherhood.

“Islam isn’t in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Koran, the Muslim book of scripture, should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion on earth.” -Omar Ahmad Founder of the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR)

Second up, Sharia-compliant Hodan Hassan won the Democrat primary race for Minneapolis House District 62A, becoming 2nd Somali female, after Anti-Semite, Ilhan Omar, to be elected to a state legislature

Third up was Mohamud Noor who won the Democratic primary race for Pro-Sharia Ilhan Omar’s seat in Minnesota legislature. He’ll become the first Somali man to be elected to a state house if he wins.

Remember, the goal of the Muslim Brotherhood is to infiltrate our Government and implement Sharia and destroy us from within! [Twitter Video]

There is only one way to correctly end this column: get busy, your present and future state depend upon it (Leviticus 26:15-21).

Why Is The Media Diverting Your Attention From The 35 Known Jihadi Camps In America?

It was reported last week on The Sons of Liberty Media by Mac Slavo:

“Eleven children were rescued from a compound in New Mexico, which was being run by armed Muslim extremists. Authorities found all the children living in deplorable living conditions after raiding the property looking specifically for a three-year-old boy. It is also being reported that they were training children up for school shootings.”

A Muslim military camp heavily armed in New Mexico? Training up children to go into schools and shoot them up? Yes, you heard that right, in America (Deuteronomy 28:50).

They are bringing their culture with them into this country. These Muslims are not looking for help. They are here to terrorize, and they are looking to conquer.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

But what are you being told by the media? You are being told that they are contributing to society. Really? Let's take a look at Muslims from the east who are plundering countries that they are entering.

- Denmark: 450% more crimes committed by Muslims than non-Muslims.
- Germany: Muslim migrants committed 142, 500 crimes in 6 months. This is 780 every day.
- Sweden: 480,000 sexual assaults in one year. 77% of all rapes by less than 2% Muslim.
- England & Wales: Over 56% of Syrian refugees committed severe crimes in less than 1 year etc.
- Belgium: 35% of prison population is Muslim who make up only 6% of the population.
- UK: Muslims fill 44% of high security prisons, out of a 5% population.
- USA: 91.4 % Muslim refugees are on food stamps, 68.3 % on cash welfare.

Muslim migration has doubled in the decade since 9/11 and 60% of migrants to America favor Sharia law (Deuteronomy 28:15-68).

All that one has to do is look to Germany, Sweden, France, or to the U.K. to see what is happening concerning the Muslim invasions and overthrow of these countries. Again, these Muslims are not coming into these countries to assimilate, they are there to conquer, and it is exactly what they are doing (Matthew 7:16). This is happening incrementally and Scripturally, it is called a siege.

Do remember that this is happening with the help of the silent churches, the apathetic congregants that refuse to obey God, corrupt politicians, and the CIA-controlled media worldwide (Deuteronomy 28:43).

“And it shall come to pass, that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the LORD will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it.” (Deuteronomy 28:63)

Now, I have to say America, that while most of you are beating up on the Democrats (As if to suggest that there is any difference between them and the Republicans) as being a bunch of idiots, I would have you know that the idiots are those that let them do the things that they are unlawfully doing, and that on a daily basis (Psalm 94:20). They know the crimes that they are committing, so do not play their fools. Your representatives are the ones responsible for alluring these Muslims into America and all on the taxpayer's dime. And it is the media that is using fear tactics by magnifying the crimes of ISIS and ISIL to paralyze you.

[YouTube Video]

To further prove all of this, let's look to the 35 jihadi training camps right here in America that are all being ignored.

[YouTube Video]

While most are asleep (Matthew 13:25) and diverted, Americans are taking their time and energy to lavish praises upon the current president, who has done nothing in opposition to the immigration as to what is being highlighted here. In other words, the agenda goes forward regardless of who occupies the people's White House.

Take a look.

[YouTube Video]

Back in 2009, post 9/11, the above report on the jihadi training camps and the one below came out. However, I am not hearing anyone in the corporate-run media raising any flags on this. Why? Only you can answer that.

Barack Hussein Obama: Con Man And Criminal Admits He Is Foreign-Born

“Three years ago, I visited Kenya as The first sitting president to come from Kenya.” -Barack Hussein Obama

While many Americans are still waiting on indictments and prosecution of the Clintons, and rightfully so, don't forget about the crimes of Barrack Hussein Obama who has yet to be lawfully dealt with as well.

This criminal not only was given a free hand by the American people to transgress the United States Constitution 1,180 times, but he had the audacity to play it down by lying (John 8:44) over and over again that he was not a foreign-born citizen.

As a matter of fact anyone who dared point out that he was a foreigner (I was one of them) and ineligible for the presidency of the United States (Article 2, Clause 5) was called by the CIA-controlled media, today's conservatives (yesterday's lawless liberals) and the professed Christians, a conspiracy theorist or a “birther.” Names, of course, were used to demean and discredit anyone and everyone that dared call out the obvious when it came to Barack Hussein Obama because they were unwilling to deal with him themselves.

[YouTube Video]

I guess that when the foreign criminal served 143 days in the Illinois Senate, and mysteriously becomes the United States President, then takes a break after his “57 state U.S. Tour”, you would think that was enough to tell on himself, and the American people would then lawfully respond.

Apparently not!

Instead of putting a stop to his campaign run, the American people simply laughed it off so they themselves did not have to lift a finger to put a stop to this criminal (Jeremiah 5:19).

[YouTube Video]

Even when his wife \(?\) blurted out the truth in her confusion, that was not good enough for Americans. They still ignored his ineligibility.

[YouTube Video]

Think of this, even with all of the information concerning Barack’s falsified birth certificate, his falsified social security numbers, and his falsified college records all filed away, literally every conservative radio talking head or otherwise avoided to confront and address the issue concerning this criminal’s eligibility. They literally stayed as far away from the topic as they possibly could. Cowards!

Even when Sheriff Joe Arpaio’s team clearly exposed the fraudulent document for what it was, and is, the conservatives were found to be derelict of duty when it came to taking a stand against the crimes of Barrack Hussein Obama’s criminal administration, even while all the well knowing that Barack’s effeminate and criminal czars were entertaining America's sworn enemies within the people's White House (Jeremiah 5:31).

[YouTube Video]

And of course, now that Barack Hussein Obama finally admits to the truth that he is foreign-born, you can rest assured that today's conservatives will remain silent, hoping that you just forget that they are just as treasonous to you and your country as Barack Hussein Obama (Luke 22:48).

Those Attacking Donald Trump Are Not Being Prosecuted – They Are Being Rewarded

[DISCLAIMER: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not necessarily the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

"When you are dealing with frauds and liars, listen more to what they don't say than what they do." –Dr. DaShanne Stokes

One thing that I have found during my time as a Christian is that no matter how many times you share the truth with the people in this country and the things that demand their attention, they will not listen until after the damage is done.

Many people in this country act as if they do not live politics, yet, "Life is politics, you do it or it does you."

Friends, there is no in-between (Revelation 3:16).

Just this morning I woke up to see a brand new post about a book titled "The Russia Hoax, The Illicit Scheme to Clear Hillary Clinton and Frame Donald Trump."

Another post on the same feed showed that Donald Trump's approval ratings are at 88%.

I still cannot believe how ignorant the American people have become, or should I say, willfully blind and ignorant (a deliberate finger on their eyeballs) to what is right in front of their faces (Jeremiah 5:21; Hosea 4:6)

[YouTube Video]

Let me explain.

Through divisive measures, the CIA-controlled media would have all eyes on Hillary Clinton attacking and accusing President Donald Trump at will (vice versa-Trump attacking her, as well (Mark 3:25) as a "racist" to a "sexual assaulter" to "surrendering to the Russians" to "collusion" etc..., while she is found selling uranium ore to the Russians without fear of consequence. Why is she so emboldened? Friends, Hillary has been given a free hand to commit scandal after scandal and crime after crime for decades in this country and that without lawful consequence.

Is she being investigated by Donald Trump's Department of Justice? Donald claimed he can do whatever he wants with it. Donald promised that he was going to bring forth that special prosecutor on the campaign trail. Has he to date? Not at all. The circus of politics goes on (Psalm 9:17). But worry not,

President Donald Trump is tweeting Hillary Clinton's video advocating for "strong, prosperous Russia."

Maybe Donald Trump should look up what the purpose of government entails. Like that of restraining men from sin." 1 John 3:4 Leaving off justice encourages and strengthens criminal activities America, it does not suppress them. (Proverbs 17:15).

[YouTube Video]

Remember, Donald Trump told the American people that we all owe Hillary Clinton a major debt of gratitude during his presidential campaign victory speech. The exact opposite of what he said he was going to do on the campaign trail.

Furthermore, Hillary is not being investigated or indicted for any of her crimes or scandals against "We the People." She is being rewarded while "We the people" are being violated and preyed upon.

To prove the point, Hillary Clinton signed two book deals with Simon & Schuster with a record advance of \$8 million, which is just behind the Pope's $8.5 million deal.

What about Barack Hussein Obama? Somehow or another, Barry Soetoro still feels that he is the sitting president, though Americans should remind him that he is not. Barack, like Hillary, has a free hand to attack Donald Trump, and of course, like the Clintons, there are no consequences. All of it is created warfare.

"Obama accuses Trump of wanting war with Iran," "Intel chiefs gave Russia a pass, and now blame Donald Trump" and, of course, Donald Trump Blames Obama. All this is in the daily playbook of politics, which is designed to divert Americans from what special interest groups behind the corrupt are really doing behind closed doors in handing this country over to those who mean to destroy her.

Obama signed a Netflix deal to produce series and films, and his book deal biddings have reached \$60 million dollars.

Keep in mind, America, that this is all a show in an attempt to deceive you into believing that the Obama's have the approbation of the American people. They clearly do not!

Other criminal administrations in recent history that have been rewarded for their crimes are Bill Clinton and George W. Bush. The rights to their books, as if to suggest anyone will actually read them, sold for $10-15 million.

Lest you thought the book deals (rewards) fell only to those who have been called presidents, or First Ladies, let's take a quick look at those around the administrations.

Former FBI Director James Comey is being called out for "his high crimes and misdemeanors," and instead of him being charged for his "high crimes," he is cashing in on a \$10 million book deal.

Valerie Jarrett, Eric Holder, Former DNC chair Donna Brazile, who got a book deal after helping Hillary Clinton rig the primaries, have all been rewarded, and the list goes on (Luke 16:15).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Is this how you make America great again, Americans? Leave off justice which guards our liberties? (Isaiah 51:4)

Does this sound and act like an administration that loves this country and it's people? (Matthew 7:16)

The Atlantic reported:

"There is no campaign promise that Donald Trump has failed to honor more flagrantly than his oft repeated pledge to "drain the swamp" in Washington, D.C. He has violated the letter of his promise and trampled all over its spirit. His supporters ought to be furious. But few perceive the scale of his betrayal or its brazenness.”

Americans need to look beyond the facade of President Donald Trumps administration. What he is saying and what is actually happening are two different stories. America is under attack like never before, and a good number of people in this country have fallen asleep (all by design). Matthew 13:25 Now is not the time to go to sleep, but rather, it is time to raise your Gadsden flags and declare in unison “Don’t Tread on Me!.”

We know that Scripture tells us there is a covenant of Hell and death leveled at people by whom they mean to rule. Isaiah 28:18 We know what it means when Scripture tells us:

“The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.”

Yet, these forget the reply that the Lord gives on our behalf.

“He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.” -Psalm 2:2-5

[YouTube Video]

You can fool all of the people some of the time, and some of the people all of the time, but you can fool God at no time! Amen.

Biblical Illiterates Reverse Romans 13: Teach Submit To Tyranny

Caesar had his Brutus, Charles the first his Cromwell; And George the third- Treason! Cried the speaker- May profit by their example. If this be treason, make the most of it.
—Patrick Henry

Recently, I received a newspaper article from a confused, biblically illiterate friend asking me what my take was on an article titled, "Scripture teaches to submit to authorities" with reference to Romans Chapter 13. In this article, the author was calling out a Christian for protesting a corrupt representative in government, even going so far as to suggest this protestant ought to have stayed home to read their Bible rather than to protest corruption in government. He went onto say that we are commanded by Scripture to submit to the authorities that have been elected.

To start off, maybe this individual should take the time to know a little bit of his own history! There is nothing worse than when a person who doesn't know what they are talking about tries to tell you what the truth is.

Maybe he should have taken the time to look to the founding forefathers and that document which they drew up called "The Declaration of Independence." That document alone is 75% of the usurpations that the Tyrant King George committed against our forefathers and what it is that our forefathers would not put up with. Our American history found in that document teaches that our forefathers threw off the tyrant that would not be ruled by God and declared "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God!"

[YouTube Video]

Furthermore, the motto of the American Revolution was "No King but King Jesus." America's original national seal was "REBELLION TO TYRANTS IS OBEDIENCE TO GOD" with a picture on the inside of the seal showing the Pharaoh being overthrown by the sea with Moses and the children of Israel safe on the shore.

John Hancock, the first signer of the Declaration of Independence, said, "Resistance to tyranny becomes the Christian duty of each individual... Continue steadfast and, with a proper sense of your dependence on God, nobly defend those rights which Heaven gave, and no man ought to take from us." (History of the United States of America, Volume. 2 p. 229)

Apparently, this individual who wrote the article knows nothing of the Black Robed Regiment that the tyrant King George feared the most. The Black Robed regiment, were in fact, the preachers that went before the Forefathers in educating the colonies to resistance when it came to the corrupt King on the other side of the pond. They sacrificed themselves to establish the freedoms in which he enjoys today.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The author went on to write that this protestant should know what the Bible says about those in authority.

First of all, the authority given to our representative government is derived from "We the People."

We receive our rights from God, and in turn, delegate power to those who serve "We the People."

Representatives work for us, we do not work for them.

"They are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights... Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their powers from the consent of the governed." -The Declaration of Independence

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

He then quotes Romans 13: 1-7

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

The first Scripture says:

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

God ordained the power, and that "rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil."

Did God tell His Church to submit to that which He condemns? (Deuteronomy 25:1; Proverbs 17:15) Absolutely not!

Is the Church to transgress His Laws, or to magnify and enforce His Laws unto judgment? (Psalm 40:8; Romans 3:31) Of course not! If He did, that would make God unjust.

Jesus said, "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill" (Matthew 5:17).

The Lord has, in fact, commanded no where in Scripture for the Church to submit to the wicked. The Bible teaches just the exact opposite. We are to "have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove (expose) them" (Ephesians 5:11).

Furthermore, it would contradict what Scripture teaches us from Genesis all the way to Revelation every step of the way.

Think of this: Those that serve "We the People," before taking office, swear to uphold the US Constitution with their hand on the Holy Bible. They are appointed to magnify law against crime, not crime against the law (Psalm 94:20). America is based on Common Law, the Mosaic Institution. Read the 5 books of Moses.

"No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the Law of God." –William Blackstone, English Common Law

Representatives are to magnify the law, not tear it down; and yet, this is what the biblically illiterate are teaching others to do, submit to the tyrants and resist God, His Church and His Word (Micah 3:5).

I ask, are Christians to submit to those who have sanctioned the murder of the innocent in the womb (Exodus 20:13; Proverbs 6:17)? Absolutely not!

[YouTube Video]

Are Christians to submit to those who have redefined marriage where a man can now “marry” a man and a woman can now “marry” a woman (Leviticus 18:22; Romans 1:24 etc...)? Absolutely not!

[YouTube Video]

Submit to those who lie continuously, to them that steal and even kill? Absolutely not! Submit to what God condemns?

[YouTube Video]

Yet, this is what the perverse, modern-day, professing Christians are teaching the sheep in the American Church today.

It would do you well to now look to the Christ when He said that we are to beware of the leaven of the Pharisee's (corrupt doctrines of those who claimed to be the children of God), as well as the leaven of Herod (corrupt doctrines of government) (Mark 8:15).

If you remember, it was those same people who called for the crucifixion of Christ while crying out “We have no King but Caesar” (John 19:15).

Do these that teach such heresy not realize that every apostle, except John, was killed by hostile corrupt civil authorities opposed to their endeavors?

Christians throughout history were imprisoned, tortured, or killed by corrupt civil authorities of all stripes for refusing to submit to their various, lawless policies and prohibitions.

Did Christian martyrs violate God's principles of submission to authority? Of course, not.

[YouTube Video]

Also, keep in mind that magistrates have limited and defined authority in civil matters.

Take note that civil government is to be, and must be, a “terror to good works.” It has no power or authority to terrorize good works or good, law-abiding people. God never gave them that authority and any, and all, government that oversteps the divine authority and its boundaries has no divine authority or protection.

Civil government is a “minister for God to thee for good” (Romans 13:4). It is not a minister of God for evil. Civil magistrates have a divine duty to “execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.” Anyone who teaches that they have authority to execute wrath upon “him that doeth good” is ignorant and uneducated in their misleadings (1 John 4:6).

To tell Christians to submit to evil civil authority is teaching the opposite of what is true. Common sense does come into play here.

I ask, did Moses violate God’s principle of submission when he was commanded by God, “Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me” (Exodus 9:1).

And when Pharaoh refused, God plagued the Pharaoh and the Egyptians and set His children free.

Think of this, the meekest man alive was sent to the face of the Pharaoh to tell him to obey or else. Is this what is being preached from the pulpits across America today?

Or what of Gideon who was to deliver the Children of Israel from the Midianites? The first thing the Lord commanded him to do was to tear down his father’s altars (Judges 6:25). Was this a violation of God’s principles of submission? The sins of the fathers were the reason the Midianites had power to oppress them.

What of that lone prophet, Elijah? The tyrant Ahab called him the troubler of Israel. Elijah set the record straight when he answered, "I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim (1 Kings 18:18). Is this a violation of God's principles when it came to submission to authority?

Elijah took Ahab and the false prophets to the top of Mount Carmel where the God of Israel consumed the sacrifice by fire, and the false prophets were killed (1 Kings 18:38-40).

What of King David? Was he violating God's principles of submission when he refused to surrender himself to Saul's troops?

David was a king that was to overthrow corrupt governments by dispossessing them and establishing righteousness through justice and judgment (Jeremiah 23:5; Isaiah 51:4).

Did Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego violate God's principle of submission when they refused to worship King Nebuchadnezzar's image?

Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

And whoso falleth not down and worshippingeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. Daniel 3:3-6

When they refused to submit to the tyrant, the furnace was heated up 7 times hotter so that the guards were consumed, only to have the fourth man, "like the Son of man," show up to deliver them where the fire had no power over them, and not a hair of their heads was singed. In the end, Only the corrupt king acknowledges the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

"Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God." Daniel 3:28

Did Daniel violate God's principles of submission when he disobeyed the king's order to stop praying to any god but himself?

Keep in mind that the punishment was that Daniel was thrown into a den of lions in which God sent forth an angel to protect him. His accusers were then thrown into the den and devoured by the very lions that they meant to have devoured Daniel (Daniel 6).

What of Jeremiah? Was he violating God's principles of submission when he was sent to preach repentance to the corrupt church and the corrupt kings?

For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. Jeremiah 1:18

Don't forget about Amos, who was prophesying judgment upon the corrupt priests and the corrupt king of his day (Amos 7:10-16). Was that violating, or fulfilling God's principles and purposes?

What of the New Testament? John the Baptist points out all of the evils of King Herod (Luke 3:19). Was this a violation of submission to civil government? No, it was a rebuke to corruption in government to submit to the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and His laws.

Is it a violation of submission to God's principles to keep preaching, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins..."? Absolutely not! The corrupt Pharisees along with corrupt government did the opposite.

"Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, and Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,

Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard." Acts 4:2-20

Or what of the account found in Acts 12:1-11, where the Lord sent an Angel to liberate Peter from the hands of tyrants.

"Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews."

Over and over again, you can see that the Church was to stand in protest against the wicked that were at war with Christ (Revelation 12:17), in dealing with not only the corrupt and wicked priests, but also the corrupt and wicked in government. as well as those who submitted to such.

It is important for people to know the Scriptures (History), lest you find yourselves to be fighting against God (Acts 5:39).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Nowhere in Scripture can you find the Lord telling His children to submit to the wicked in disobedience to His Word. Nowhere!

Furthermore, the individual that wrote the article teaching people to submit to authorities might want to take the time to read Romans 12:21 before perverting and twisting Romans 13, so that the next time he will not be guilty of twisting Scripture the way that Satan twists Scripture.

"Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good."

America, Do You Want The Sand Or Do You Want The Bread?

“Philosophy is common sense with big words.” -President James Madison

In this age, there have risen up in America, men who speak perverse things. There are many that trouble us with their philosophies and novel interpretations, by which they deny the doctrines they profess to teach and undermine the faith and purpose they are pledged to maintain.

It is well that some of us, who know what we believe and have no secret meanings for our words, should just put our foot down and maintain our standing, holding forth the word of life, and plainly declare the foundational truths of the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all aspects of life (Philippians 2:16-18).

Let me give you a parable given by Charles Spurgeon.

In the days of Nero, there was great shortness of food in the city of Rome, although there was an abundance of corn to be purchased at Alexandria. A certain man who owned a vessel went down to the seacoast, and there he noticed many hungry people straining their eyes toward the sea, watching for the vessels that were to come from Egypt with corn. When these vessels came to the shore, one by one, the poor people wrung their hands in bitter disappointment, for on board the galleys there was nothing but sand which the tyrant emperor had compelled them to bring for use in the arena. It was infamous cruelty when men were dying of hunger to command trading vessels to go to and fro, and bring nothing else but sand for gladiatorial shows, when wheat was so greatly needed. Then the merchant whose vessel was moored by the quay said to his shipmaster, “Take thou good heed that thou bring nothing back with thee from Alexandria but corn; and whereas, aforetime thou hast brought in the vessel a measure or two of sand, bring thou not so much as would lie upon a penny this time. Bring thou nothing else, I say, but wheat: for these people are dying, and now we must keep our vessels for this one business of bringing food for them." Alas! I have seen certain mighty galleys of late loaded with nothing but mere sand of philosophy and speculation, and I have said within myself, "Nay, but I will bear nothing in my ship but the revealed truth of God, the bread of life so greatly needed by the people."

Bringing it to the present, I have noticed in recent years that we have some men on the scene who claim to give the answers to America's godless issues without making reference to the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob that brings about the resolve to the issues (Deuteronomy 4). That is like asking the fallen sinner (without Grace) to instruct and educate the people in righteousness. How that works I don't know. Yet, as long as the American people have teachers to tickle their itching ears, I guess that the resolve to the lawless issues matters not to many in our country (2 Timothy 4:3-4). How foolish. Let me describe a few...

In America today we have a very popular Jewish man who loves to debate and play the answer man to college students across the country. He is a man championed by the conservatives (yesterday's liberals) of the day with a mouth that spills out vulgarities (James 1:26; Ephesians 4:29). I ask, what is the lesson that he wants listeners to learn? This guy does a great job of tearing down misconceptions and propaganda in one part while propping up immorality in another (Galatians 5:9).

This guy wears a Kippah (skull cap) while "educating" Americans on conservatism, and all the while denying the deity of Christ. This is like the scientist discovering God's Creation, and then denying the Creator and taking praise unto one's self as a teacher that need educate the creation.

CONSERVATIVE, adjective, Preservative; having power to preserve in a safe or entire state, or from loss, waste or injury.

Jesus said, "Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men" (Matthew 5:13).

Salt is a preservative to stop putrification.

The meaning of Christ's words is that the salt represents those of great worth and reliability in the honoring of God's Word without compromise.

It seems almost inevitable, as a law of nature, that a man who is not sound in his life cannot be sound in his judgment. Yet, the people in America put this "conservative" speaker as so. Wisdom will not long hold a seat in the head of that man who has yielded up his heart to folly. A pure theology and a loose morality will never blend.

Then, we have another man who wears sunglasses and dressed up like he is from the 1990s. During his question and answer session to college students, he acts out as if he is some sort of pop culture star when, in fact, he is a full-fledged sodomite (even defending pedophilia) with a whore's forehead claiming to speak on the behalf of those who call themselves conservatives. He advocates that which God condemns and yet, people act out as if it is wisdom on our part to follow the blind and rebellious. I say that if the ditch is the place where you want to end up, then keep listening, keep following the blind.

The list goes on...

We have a couple more that claim to be preachers who use innuendo and filth every step of the way. It's not a good position to put themselves in (Exodus 20:7) What Bible are these reprobates reading?

Ezekiel 22:26

Today's Tea Party favorites across the country claim to be some sort of standard among Americans and behind closed doors I have seen are godless, adultery committing drinking hypocrites (1 Corinthians 6:9).

Or how about them favorites on the radio or television that have sold their souls to the golden calves of the day (sponsor's) who are just UNWILLING to say and do what needs to be said and done. Matthew 23:3 This is why Americans are losing ground year after year, and why it is their backs are up against the wall. Shameful.

These are also the same people giving you the same talking points given to them by the CIA controlled media. Dividing Americans one against another, the left vs the right, the Democrats vs the Republicans, socialists vs the conservatives etc.. Mark 3:25

Remember, Jesus said "Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch (Matthew 15:14).

When know that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." 2 Timothy 3:16-17 So as Americans we need get back to the Book (the Bible) that will point the way to victory that God promises, yet on His term, not on ours. 2 Corinthians 3:17

Many of these men are, without a doubt, very intellectual and at the same time very carnal. Let me remind you that God speaks to the heart and not the head. Furthermore, it is simplicity that is in Christ. A child is the model of Heaven (Matthew 18:2-4), not some intellectual philosopher, which by the way in many instances is nothing more than a man giving forth big words with common sense meaning.

How many times these sort of men are found to be without understanding. How could they when it goes no further than their heads and through their mouths? Titus 1:16 Why? Because they cannot quite explain what they do not understand from the heart.

Without the Spirit of God and the Sword of the Spirit (Hebrews 4:12), they are ministering from their own wicked hearts (Jeremiah 17:9), like fighting with a wooden blunt sword. If they preach not the Word of God in the power of the Holy Ghost, I am here to tell you that they are fools for their pains in the effort (2 Corinthians 3:6).

Don't forget, friends, that you will never go beyond those who you allow to teach you. Know who you follow, know who you listen to and pay attention to those you allow to influence you. Ask yourself, what do those you follow stand for, and mark this, you will not go beyond those you allow to teach you. Christ is the Bread of Life (John 6:35), which feeds men's souls, as well as sets men free. That is, of course, if you follow Him and Him alone (John 8:36; John 14:6).

Soldiers Of The Cross – Who The Real And Counterfeits Are

“If you want to change the future you are going to have to trouble the present.” –William Booth

Before I begin, I need to make clear that the best leaders are the best followers, and that of the Christ (John 14:6). With that said, Isn't it funny how things work in this world, it seems like when you do the wrong thing before God and man, somehow people seem to give it a pass. Yet, when you begin to do the right things and obey God and love man according to the Word of God, all of a sudden, the world acts like you're doing something wrong.

After I got saved, as they say (John 3:3), I remember my mother calling me up and saying, “The family wants to know what is wrong with you.”

“What's wrong with me?” I laughingly replied. I said, “Mom, when I was in the rock n roll world doing the things that I was doing, nobody said anything, and no one had a problem with what I was doing, that is until I started to emulate (obey) Jesus Christ” (1 John 2:6).

This reminds me of when I gave a prayer at the state capital in Minnesota. After the prayer was over, I had a minister come up to me and tell me that I could not be dropping the “J” (Jesus) word in the capital. I said that the reason I dropped the “J” word was because you haven't in 40 years (Romans 1:16).

[YouTube Video]

What of public high schools across the country that we have been going into in order to educate the youth as to who we are, and not what the revisionists and propagandists would have them believe that we are. We have shown the young people that abortion is murder and that 58 million babies have been murdered since 1973 under the guise of woman's choice (Proverbs 6:17).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

We got kicked out of a public school for re-enforcing America's value's by teaching the US Constitution.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

We have taught that homosexuality is an abomination, and how it is a felony in every state in our union (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Jude 1:7).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

How true Scripture is when it declares:

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!"

No wonder why the reprobates and hypocrites thought that the Christians who were following the living Christ were turning the world upside down in the book of Acts. They were, in fact, turning the world right side up (Acts 17:6).

Identifying the genuine from the counterfeit

Last week, I had a woman come up to me at my last meeting in Amery, Wisconsin. She said that she did her research on me and said that the media really attacked me. I responded with, "Of course they did, and of course they still do." They are being exposed for who they are and they do not like it. (John 15:22).

I told her that there are too many counterfeits, self-proclaimed leaders, out there who care more about saving face, than they do the souls of men (Luke 19:10), as well as saving their country. Apparently they have a reputation to keep up. Philippians 2:7-9

These are those that sit behind the status of some sort of church or political leader of the pack. Yet, you do not see any warfare or opposition around them and why? because they have simply forsaken the cross. There is no absolutes with these people. They are people pleasers and nothing more. After all you can always tell what a man stands for by the enemies that he has.

They hide behind a microphone day after day. Yet, they fail to confront the issues that needed to be confronted. The reason they don't is because they are guilty of what they fail to confront!

They are paper tigers. They can write all big and bad but when it comes to what someone else should do. However, when it is time for them to put boots on the ground, they are simply missing in action (MIA). These are willing to live in the freest country in the world as long as it is not them that have to sacrifice to maintain it.

There is also a group of people out there that have to be friends with everyone (and have to apologize to any that they may have told the truth lest they should convict them unto godly repentance (2 Corinthians 7:10) as they congregate week after week deceiving themselves into believing that they are demanding a lawful change just as long as it does not offend anyone (Matthew 5:10).

As a matter of fact, these counterfeits will be the first ones to get angry with and denounce and attack the ones that are sent by the Spirit of God (Galatians 4:29).

Maybe this group of people should ask their enemies for instructions as to how change is brought about, and in a righteous sense reverse the lawlessness-taking place in this country (Matthew 24:12).

These groups of people are simply enemies of the cross of Christ and know not the power of God unto salvation (Philippians 3:18).

Furthermore, I said to this woman that this is how you can tell who the genuine Christians are that are in the fight and those who are counterfeits.

When the church and the world can jog comfortably along together, you can be sure something is wrong. The world has not compromised—its spirit is exactly the same as it ever was. If Christians were equally as faithful to the Lord, separated from the world (2 Corinthians 6:17), and living so that their lives were a reproof to all ungodliness, the world would hate them as much as it ever did. (John 7:7) It is the church that has compromised, not the world. – Catherine Booth

The way to gauge those who are actually taking ground for the kingdom is to see who is in the midst of a continuous warfare (always in trouble, slandered, lied about, defamed etc) fighting the good fight of faith because they trust in the living God (Matthew 11:12; 1 Timothy 6:12).

John Calvin said, "Whomsoever the Lord has adopted and deemed worthy of His fellowship ought to prepare themselves for a hard, toilsome and unquiet life, crammed with very many and various kinds of evil." And of course to the counterfeit's this is foreign.

Why Politicians Think That They Are Above The Law

“No man is above the Law and no man is below it: nor do we ask any man’s permission when we ask him to obey it. –President Theodore Roosevelt

If there is one thing that bothers me is when a politician, who is guilty of committing a crime, is caught up and exposed in some sort of scandal, that the American people throw out justice because of their lack of understanding of what the law states in our US Constitution. They then fall in line with the propaganda the CIA-controlled media puts out that corrupt politicians are somehow above the very laws that they have sworn to uphold. This is why they believe, as a demi-god would, that they are above the law (Isaiah 14:12-15).

The preamble to the United States Constitution states,

“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice...”

And yet, when a criminal politician is found out Americans are taught to say that he or she should just simply resign. That is like a career criminal being found out by the police and instead of prosecuting him they simply ask him to resign. Friends, this only adds insult to injury to the laws in which they are to uphold. Because it gives permission to them to live above the law, making the Law their servant rather than their master. This is completely unjust and backward (Isaiah 59:14).

Americans have also taken on that if a politician violates the law, even the smallest of infractions, that there is nothing that they can do until his tenure is up. That is like the police waiting for the criminal to finish the job before incarcerating him. This is completely and utterly false (Hosea 4:6).

Like President Roosevelt stated, "No man is above the Law and no man is below it: nor do we ask any man's permission when we ask him to obey it."

The US Constitution states in Article 2, Section 4:

Disqualification. The President, Vice President and ALL civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

When a new Representative is elected to office, he or she takes an oath that lists many responsibilities. Abuse of power or failure to uphold these responsibilities cannot be tolerated.

The Constitution gives the House of Representatives the God-given right to impeach the offender.

Impeachment means that a charge of misconduct (1 John 3:4) is filed against the offender. A majority of the members of the House must vote for these charges in order to impeach the offender.

After the charges of misconduct are filed, the Senate has the power to try impeachment cases like a court. Two-thirds of the senators must vote for conviction. The offender may be removed from office and never allowed to hold a government position again if he is found guilty.

Process of Impeachment

1. Impeachment

- 1. Being formally accused of unlawful activity, committing a crime

2. Not necessarily being kicked out of office
2. Who can be Impeached? Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution
 1. "President, Vice-President, and all civil officers of the United States"
 2. Civil Officers include people appointed by the President (cabinet members and judges)
 3. Members of Congress are NOT civil officers
3. Process of Impeachment
 1. Justice Department or an independent council investigates charges & presents them to the House Judiciary Committee
 2. House Judiciary Committee (HJC) reviews evidence
 3. HJC drafts Articles of Impeachment
 4. HJC debates Articles of Impeachment (Nixon)
 5. Entire House of Representatives debates Articles of Impeachment & votes on them (Simple Majority)
 6. If this happens, President is considered impeached.
 7. Senate holds the Trial "Will the official be kicked out of office"
 8. House Judiciary Committee acts as the prosecution—presents evidence against the accused
 9. Accused chooses own lawyers to present defense
 10. Chief Justice of Supreme Court acts as Judge and rules on admissibility of evidence
 11. Senate acts as the Jury
 12. A 2/3 majority of the Senate must vote against accused to remove the person from office.

The Impeachment of Andrew Johnson occurred in 1868, when the United States House of Representatives resolved to impeach President Andrew Johnson, adopting eleven articles of impeachment detailing his "high crimes and misdemeanors," in accordance with Article Two of the United States Constitution. The House's primary charge against Johnson was violation of the Tenure of Office Act, passed by the U.S.

Congress in March 1867, over the president's veto. Specifically, he had removed from office Edwin M. Stanton, the Secretary of War—whom the Act was largely designed to protect—and attempted to replace him with Brevet Major General Lorenzo Thomas (Earlier, while Congress was not in session, Johnson had suspended Stanton and appointed General Ulysses S. Grant as secretary of war ad interim).

President Richard Nixon resigned from office rather than face impeachment charges in the Watergate scandal in 1974 (Pedophile ring).

President Bill Clinton became the second president to be impeached by the House in 1998. Later, the Senate found him not guilty (China Gate).

That is NOT ALL

After the impeachment process is complete, then comes in prosecution, not a resignation only to encourage the next politician to commit the same crimes. (Proverbs 16:6) Prosecution for the laws that they have transgressed!

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law. –ARTICLE I, SECTION 3, CLAUSE 7

Door To Door Gun Confiscation: No Longer Law Enforcement, Now Agents Of The State

Don't Let it Get This Far America

"We're bending the law as far as we can to ban an entirely new class of guns." –Rahm Emmanuel, President Obama's former Chief of Staff and a senior advisor to President Bill Clinton

Recently, I had seen a video of a police officer talking of the unlawful and unconstitutional actions of a city board in Deerfield, Illinois who is attempting to legitimize gun forfeiture and/or confiscation. Of course, it comes in the guise of law, has the color of law, yet it is not law.

Why?

Because it runs antithetical to American constitutional law, which is undermining the very laws in which they are to uphold and to enforce, which in short makes it "null and void!"
[Facebook Video]

Who gave delegated authority to the city board of Deerfield to tear down the very laws in which they have sworn to uphold?

Delegation of authority comes from "We the people," not the elected representatives of the people.

"Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed... -Declaration of Independence

President Thomas Jefferson said, "Whensoever the general government assumes undelegated powers, its acts are unauthoritative, void, and of no force."

"No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms." – Thomas Jefferson, Virginia Constitution, Draft 1, 1776

Remember,

"A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, The right to keep and arms shall not be infringed." 2nd Amendment of the Bill of Rights.

[YouTube Video]

This police officer went on to tell the American people that his partners in the police force were not, and will not, go door to door to enforce a violation of the 2nd Amendment.

Americans must remember that they have God-given rights (to do that which is right 2 Corinthians 3:17), not privileges from the people that work for them. After all, free people don't ask for permission to do what already belongs to them.

He continued to share that if they were to enforce this unlawful and unconstitutional order to go door to door that they are no longer law enforcement agencies, but rather have become agents of the state.

This is why it is important to learn from the Nuremberg trials, in which a majority of the war criminals were found guilty of obeying a tyrant named Adolph Hitler rather than upholding the German Constitution which they swore to uphold. If they were obeying their country's constitution, they would have lawfully dealt with the tyrant rather than violating its own innocent, law-abiding citizenry.

[YouTube Video]

Apparently, the city council in Deerfield, Illinois are hoping that Americans forget the history of anti-gun tyrants.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Furthermore, for those who would go door to door to illegally confiscate guns from law-abiding gun owners would be violating the Fourth Amendment, which protects citizens from unlawful searches and seizures.

“The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.”

And do not forget about the 14 Amendment.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Now, we know that it has not gone this far yet. I said “yet” because it can all be avoided.

The way to avoid it getting to this point, as I have highlighted so many different times in so many different ways, is to deal with the corrupt politicians.

Americans must come to the realization that either you lawfully remove corrupt anti-American politicians, or you will, at length, be disarmed.

P.S. The response concerning bump stock bans...

In Denver, after the city banned bump stocks, which was approved by city council, not one was turned in.

In Columbus, a city-wide bump stock ban went into effect. They were so kind as to suggest even coming to your home and picking them up for you. Not one was turned in.

The people in this country are being pushed and assaulted on a daily basis, and this is the response tyranny is getting! (Romans 12:21)

If The Politicians Want Un-Constitutional Wars, Then Let's Send Them! This Is How The Wars Will End

“War is delightful to those who had no experience of it.”
–Desiderius Erasmus

First and foremost, I come from a military family. My grandpa was in World War I, my uncles were in World War II, my Father was in Korea, my cousin was killed in Vietnam and my brothers were in the US Army and Air Force. So, without a doubt, I honor the American military, but let's be clear here, in righteousness, not in unrighteousness (Isaiah 51:4). I honor those that magnify the enumerated laws found within our US

Constitution, not those who blindly follow behind corrupt politicians and fight for their unlawful ends.

Ever since I can remember (I am sure you do as well), corrupt politicians in this country have been at war with other countries. I have seen war after war after war, decade after decade.

- Dominican Civil War

- Insurgency of Bolivia
- Cambodian War
- War in South Zaire
- Lebanese's Civil War
- Invasion of Grenada
- Bombing of Libya
- Tanker War
- Invasion of Panama
- Gulf War
- Iraqi No-Fly Zone Enforcement
- First Intervention in the Somali Civil War
- Bosnian War
- Intervention into Haiti
- Kosovo War
- Operation Infinite Reach
- War in Afghanistan
- Iraq War
- War in North-West Pakistan
- War in Somalia
- Operation Ocean Shield
- American-led intervention in Libya
- Lord's Resistance Army Insurgency
- American-led intervention in Iraq
- American-led intervention into Syria
- Yemeni Civil War
- American intervention in Libya

I wonder if those who were doing the fighting would be fighting at all had they taken the time to know the US Constitution, which reveals what and who they are fighting for (Romans 3:20). For the most part, the wars above are unconstitutional and illegal.

America has been at war 93% of the time since its inception, that is 222 years out of the 242 years since 1776. The United States has been at peace for less than 20 years since its birth.

Notice as to whom is doing the fighting? Your Grandpas, your Fathers, your brothers, your cousins, your neighbors or perhaps your mothers, sisters or even yourself, etc.

Guess who is not doing the fighting? The politicians who are working on the behalf of the special interest groups such as the bankers, Military Industrial Complex etc.. In short, they are those who are responsible for creating the wars!

To be quite frank, I am sick and tired of the lies (Remember, truth is always the first casualty in war) thrown on the American people in order to fight their un-Constitutional wars. Who do you think is funding these wars? The American taxpayers are! Then those who began the wars end up profiting from them.

Politicians, of course, with the help of the CIA-controlled media, are lying to you on a daily basis. They are the very ones that are accusing and casting into the minds of Americans, that the leaders of other countries are dictators, that they are evil and monstrous and must be dealt with or else. All the while, these same politicians are hoping that you forget that they are the ones who are consistently lying to you. They are also those who will not raise a hand to help in the war that they created and want you to believe is a just war.

Maybe the American government (We the People) should judge within before judging without! (1 Corinthians 5:12-13)

First, stop Washington D.C.!

This government sends innocent boys over to fight their unconstitutional wars in a third world country, while they are given a pass, as they commit the same crimes against Americans here in the homeland. Hypocrites! (Matthew 23:3)

Hopefully, this will explain as to why so many foreign countries hate America. They hate America because of what Americans have let their representatives do to their perspective countries unlawfully.

I say that if politicians and special interest groups want war, then let's throw them all in a cage and fight it out to the death.

If they claim that that is absurd and ridiculous, then you will know that it is not a war worth fighting.

This is why it is important, regardless if you are in the US military, the police force, civil government or in any other capacity of a representative government, to know what the US Constitution says. We should all follow the reference as to what is legal and what is illegal (Exodus 20) in the sight of God, first and foremost, and unto men (1 John 5:2).

Those that serve "We the People," in any capacity, must remember what they swore in their oath to uphold:

"I, (Name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God.” -5 U.S. Code § 3331 – Oath of office/Deuteronomy 23:23

Notice that when swearing the oath to serve “We the People,” it states both “foreign and domestic;” domestic meaning here in America, such as unconstitutional and unlawful enforcements here that go against our Constitution. Unlawful enforcements such as illegal searches and seizures and door-to-door disarmament, etc. are all illegal!

These orders are illegal and the individuals that gave such orders are to be lawfully dealt with (Article 2, Section 4, US Constitution).

So, it is important to know who and what you are fighting for rather than just blindly falling in line with that which may be illegal again, both here and abroad.

During the Vietnam War, it was widely circulated that the politicians were very eager to send America’s finest, whose names came up during the draft lottery, that is until their children’s names were pulled up. Then, the war soon ended.

It is true that a politician is willing to lay down your life and the lives of others for his country. Yet, not when it comes to his own life or the lives of those close to him. If that be the case, which it has been so many times in the past, their un-Constitutional orders MUST BE RESISTED! When the law is obeyed, they cannot have another unlawful and unconstitutional war.

If everyone catches onto the point being made here, not only will the illegal orders to go to war be RESISTED AND DENIED, but the American people will also lawfully deal with the corrupt politicians. (Article 2, Section 4, US Constitution)

"Of course the people don't want war. But after all, it's the leaders of the country who determine the policy, and it's always a simple matter to drag the people along whether it's a democracy, a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism, and exposing the country to greater danger." – Herman Goering at the Nuremberg trials

Again, I say then that if the politicians want war, let's send them to war, for you know as well as I do that will be the very method in which war will cease.

How is it that anyone can fight on the behalf of those that kill, steal, and destroy for profit (John 10:10) and advocate for war when you know that they are lying to you?

Listen to what these men had to say of our American military (Our grandpas, our fathers, our uncles, our brothers, our neighbors, our mothers, our sisters etc). Former National Security Advisor and former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger said":

"Military men are just dumb stupid animals to be used as pawns for foreign policy."

General Smedley Butler said:

"Our boys were sent off to die with beautiful ideals painted in front of them. No one told them that dollars and cents were the real reason they were marching off to kill and die."

"I spent 33 years and four months in active military service and during that period I spent most of my time as a high-class muscle man for big business, for Wall-street and the bankers. In short, I was a racketeer, a gangster for capitalism."

And this all coming from the General that said, "I wouldn't go to war again (After knowing what was going on within) as I have done to protect some lousy investment of the bankers."

There are only two things we should fight for, one is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights.

Maybe this explains why America has 700 military bases in over 146 countries.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Where, I ask, in the US Constitution is it the job of the American Government to police the world? Where is it the duty of those that serve in any capacity to throw off the US Constitution and to obey tyrannical orders and fight their wars? I cannot find it!

Often, wars are fought without congressional approval, and why? Because they know that if the people knew the truth of the matter, they would not approve of such measures and fight.

Don't forget that those that do their bidding in unconstitutional wars are just as guilty as them that are giving the unlawful orders.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

When the American people realize who needs to be lawfully dealt with, they are going to find that the problem is in Washington D.C. rather than some created cave-dweller with a turban on his head in a third world country.

Furthermore, when our forefathers, who established this country, thought war was inevitable, they were the first ones to go as an example to the rest of the people.

It was said of George Washington that he was, "First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Today, the opposite is true of those who represent the people.

Again, since when are the police, military, and representative government suppose to follow unconstitutional orders? They are not! And if the unconstitutional orders are not followed through with, the innocent will not be violated, but protected. This is the rule of law that reigns supreme (Deuteronomy 5:7-21).

This is the reason why the American people should take the time and read the enumerated laws found within the US Constitution.

When John the Baptist was demanded upon by the soldiers, they asked him, "And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do no violence to any man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages" (Luke 3:14).

[YouTube Video]

What do the warmongers in America advocate for? Just the opposite of what the Word of God teaches. They advocate violence and lies to gain profits.

Either man will end war or else war will end man! Which one do you desire? The answer? If you want to end war then just send the politicians that want it to that war! (Psalm 94:20)

Did The Political Prisoners Of The Holocaust Live Politics?

"Silence in the face of evil is evil itself: God will not hold us guiltless. Not to speak is to speak. Not to act is to act."—Dietrich Bonhoeffer, German Watchman, Anti-Nazi, Dissident Recently, I saw a picture of a group of men in a concentration camp from back in the 1930s. When I looked at the picture, the first thing that went through my mind was "I wonder if this was a group of political prisoners that said that they did not want to get involved with politics when their country was being overthrown by a tyrant named Adolph Hitler and his Third Reich?"

I'm sure these political prisoners saw the transgressions, crimes (1 John 3:4) and usurpations, and at length, the overthrow of the German "Constitution," by their government day by day, week by week and year by year, but made excuses as to why they did nothing.

In parallel, let's go back to September 11, 2001, when Americans were told that they were attacked by a foreign country and compare the events of today, to that of Adolph Hitler's Nazi Germany during the 1930s.

First, let's take a look at an article published at the Guardian titled, "How Bush's Grandfather Helped Hitler's Rise to Power."

George Bush's grandfather, the late US senator Prescott Bush was indicted in 1942 Under Trading with the Enemy Act. Prescott was a director and shareholder of companies that profited from their involvement with the financial backers of Nazi Germany.

The Guardian has obtained confirmation from newly discovered files in the US National Archives that a firm of which Prescott Bush was a director was involved with the financial architects of Nazism.

His business dealings, which continued until his company's assets were seized in 1942 under the Trading with the Enemy Act, has led more than 60 years later to a civil action for damages being brought in Germany against the Bush family by two former slave labourers at Auschwitz and to a hum of pre-election controversy.

The evidence has also prompted one former US Nazi war crimes prosecutor to argue that the late senator's actions should have been grounds for prosecution for giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

Keep in mind during that war, 405, 399 American men fought, bled and died fighting against the Germans that the Bushes were aiding and abetting (Luke 22:48).

On September 11, 2001, Gary Hart said that there was a chance that George W. Bush will use the disaster to carry out a New World Order that his father had called for.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Hitler's first move was that of the Reichstag fire, which was when the German parliamentary building went up in flames. Hitler harnessed the story to simply seize power over the German government.

History teaches us that the Nazis were the responsible party for setting the fire in order to accuse their political opposition to start war.

"This is a God-given signal," Hitler told von Papen when they arrived on the scene. "If this fire, as I believe, is the work of the Communists, then we must crush out this murderous pest with an iron fist."

A few hours later, on February 28, Hindenburg invoked Article 48 and the cabinet drew up the "Decree of the Reich President for the Protection of the People and State."

The act abolished freedom of speech, assembly, privacy and the press; legalized phone tapping and interception of correspondence; and suspended the autonomy of federated states, like Bavaria. Does this sound familiar Americans? Can we say National Security Agency.

That night around 4,000 of Hitler's political opponents were arrested, imprisoned and tortured by the SA (Hitler's assault division). Many were detained indefinitely after the fire. Their empty seats left the Nazis largely free to do as they wished.

It took Adolph Hitler just 6 years to overthrow the German Constitution and aggrandize all power unto himself.

From the self-inflicted Reichstag fire came the Enabling Act. On March 23, the Reichstag passed the Enabling Act, the partner piece of legislation to the February 28 Decree for the Protection of People and State. The Enabling Act assigned all legislative power to Hitler and his ministers, thus securing their ability to control the political apparatus.

After September 11, 2001, George W. Bush and his administration installed The Patriot Act, which by the way, was not read by one of the 535 members of Congress, and they passed it at 3:30 am.

Then, President Bush sought out a war with Iraq, attacking a country, which had nothing to do with the two towers being leveled in New York City.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Oh yes, and don't forget that Vice President Dick Cheney, who was the CEO of the company Halliburton, profited $39.5 billion off of the Iraq War.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

After the Reichstag fire, Germany installed Fatherland Security. After September 11, 2001, George W. Bush installed Homeland Security.

Friends, look at the bureaucracies that have been created since September 11, 2001.

Nobody has attacked the American people and their God-given rights more than this government has. A foreign government could not have dreamed of doing the things that this American government has done to Americans since September 11, 2001.

Propaganda minister Josef Goebbels was in full force deceiving the people, with comments like "Think of the press as a great keyboard on which the government can play," all the while knowing that it was designed to control the German people to submit to the Third Reich.

What did these political prisoners do while knowing they were being lied to? Absolutely nothing! Sound familiar?

"The CIA owns everyone of any significance in the major media." –William Colby, former CIA Director

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false." –William Casey, CIA Director

"Deception is a state of mind and the mind of the state." –James Angelton, Head of the CIA Counter Intelligence

Maybe that is why President Harry Truman said, "I never would have agreed to the formulation of the Central Intelligence Agency back in forty-seven, if I had known it would become the American Gestapo."

What of the promises given by the tyrant Adolph Hitler only to find out that they were nothing but fabrications and lies, and yet, these political prisoners did nothing. They said, "Things will just take care of themselves."

I'm sure these political prisoners saw the Nazis targeting and purging certain ethnic groups and attempting to divide them against one another (Mark 3:25), and did nothing.

When the tyrant was leading them to war against the political opposition that he created, the political prisoners said that they were just too busy to get involved with politics.

The apathetic non-political participants then saw, I'm sure, the disarmament of the gun owners, namely the dissidents that were not compliant with Hitler's tyrannical and murderous Reich. The political prisoners, of course, were still just too busy to get involved with politics and didn't want to risk the opposition or repercussions they might face if they stood up and spoke out.

SS Officer and war criminal Herman Going said,

Naturally, the common people don't want war ... but after all it is the leaders of a country who determine the policy, and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship. Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is to tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in every country.

Sound familiar, America?

In short, they had to have seen with both eyes open as to what was coming. Yet, they refused to deal with the lawless and tyrannical acts of such a monster as Adolph Hitler and his SS officers, and these political prisoners stood back and did nothing when they had the time to do so.

Look how Adolph Hitler was perceived by the German people. Louise Solmitz, a Hamburg school teacher in 1932, said of Adolf Hitler:

"How many look up to him with touching faith as their helper, their savior, their deliverer from unbearable stress." (2 Corinthians 11:14)

Behind closed doors, Adolph Hitler was responsible, with the use of his brown shirts, for creating the crimes and then playing the problem solver. Sound familiar, America?

Adolph Hitler said,

"Terrorism is the best political weapon for nothing drives people harder than a fear of sudden death."

Apparently, these political prisoners did not take the time to educate themselves. All they had to do was look up the word "terrorism" in the Oxford English Dictionary to know who was responsible for these acts of terror.

Terrorism was originally defined in the Oxford English Dictionary as "Government by intimidation."

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

I'm sure you've heard of the famous quote by Pastor Martin Neimoller who, after the Holocaust, blamed the evangelical church for allowing Adolph Hitler and his rise to power.

Martin said,

First, they came for the Socialists, and I did not speak out—

Because I was not a Socialist.

Then they came for the Trade Unionists, and I did not speak out—

Because I was not a Trade Unionist.

Then they came for the Jews, and I did not speak out—

Because I was not a Jew.

Then they came for me—and there was no one left to speak for me.

Well, by the looks of it, in the end, their country being toppled, millions of their own being murdered through war without, and purging within, they still refused to deal with the tyrant. Other countries had to bring him and his countrymen to justice.

The fact of the matter is, regardless if they wanted to admit it or not, they did, in fact, live politics. When they ended up in the camps, they were known as “political prisoners.” At that point, there was nothing they could do except wait and die at the hands of those that they should have lawfully dealt with when they had the opportunity to do so.

How did that work out for them? It didn’t work out for them. It worked out for the enemies within by adding strength to tyranny and by the complete and total surrender of the people, through their lack of action, to the tyrannical Nazi reign, which left them helpless, hopeless, and at length, destroyed (Leviticus 26:14-46).

It has been rightly stated that there are none so deaf as those that will not hear (Matthew 13:15-17).

The summation goes as follows: The history of men that do not learn from history?

Men turn from the living God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of the Lord Jesus Christ and give allegiance to corrupt and fallen man.

At length, the people and the country are destroyed only to return back to the God that they should not have forsaken in the first place.

Mr. President, You Have Been Given The Authority To Prosecute, Why Haven't You?

[DISCLAIMER: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not necessarily the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

"When you want to help people, you tell them the truth. When want to help yourself, you tell them what they want to hear."
–Thomas Sowell

If I see a reoccurring post on social media, almost without fail, it is a post from the people reminding the President of his promises told to them on the campaign trail concerning the rule of law that he promised to bring back in. After all, he has been given delegated authority from "We the people" to prosecute; yet he has not.

Remember Donald Trump said on December 29, 2017, "I can do whatever I want with the Justice Department?"

The question that I have for the President is, why haven't you prosecuted the enemies within who mean to destroy you and this country? (I, of course, am playing to those that still have not opened their eyes to this never ending game of circus politics that they are caught up into.) (Jeremiah 5:21)

"A king (President Donald Trump as a Representative of the American people under God's moral Law, Common Law) that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away evil with his eyes." – Proverbs 20:8

Therefore, we see that judgment scatters evil away as does it guard our liberties. Yet, judgment has not been brought forth to establish peace and righteousness within our country by this administration. (Amos 5:15)

I ask, what of that "swamp" that remains to be judged according to the law, Mr. President? If you remember, that was to be drained by your administration.

Americans need to awake to the fact that this is all controlled opposition, the left warring against the right is nothing more than pro wrestling.

Furthermore, this president acts, and I said acts (this is what actors do), more like an impotent victim than the Commander-in-Chief. America, Donald Trump is the President, not the victim!

He is nothing more than a created underdog (CIA Controlled media attacking him, unless it agrees with the agenda) who is being beat up by those that he fails to prosecute. Why? It is to simply drive more support for his administration. This is a Communist tactic.

"The best way to control the opposition is to lead it ourselves.” -Vladimir Lenin

Furthermore this is merely the “Circus of Politics” from start to finish, designed to divert one’s attention away from the agenda that they are pushing forward. All of this, of course, is behind the contrived and fabricated “smoke and mirrors.”

Look at the headlines, just today, highlighting the crimes of corruption in government.

Obama Administration Official’s, FBI, and CNN Coordinated to Set Up Donald Trump

Well, Mr. President, when is that DOJ that you have control over to do what you will, going to bring forth judgment against those that allegedly want to overthrow your administration? This is illegal Mr. President. (10 U.S. code 7 894- Art. 94. Mutiny or Sedition. Or Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution.)

This is simply the conditioning of the American people by pulling away prosecution of the guilty with help coming from the likes of the appeasers Trey Gowdy, Jason Chaffetz, and Daryl Issa.

We are not seeing Justice Americans, we are seeing injustice. These criminals are not being prosecuted, and, at length, they are being promoted (Matthew 16:14-16).

“If you tell them what they want to hear, they don’t bother to try to see.” –Libba Bray

“Stuart Varney: ‘Entrenched Obama Bureaucrats Tried To Cover For Hillary, Destabilize Trump’

On May 25, 2018, Former U.S. Secretary of State Hillary Clinton on Friday received the Radcliffe Medal, which annually honors a recipient whose life and work have had a “transformative impact on society.” Sound familiar? “Fundamentally Transform America.” I thought Barrack Obama and Hilary Clinton were rivals?

Where is that special prosecutor, Mr. Trump, that you promised to bring forth were you to win the Presidency?

"Politicians like to tell people what they want to hear-and what they want to hear is what won't happen." -Paul Samuelson

And another one to add to the never ending games (This just today)

"America deserves to know if Democrats (As if to suggest that there is a difference between the democrats and the republicans; Divide and conquer Mark 3:25) used taxpayer money to fund spy ring in Trump Campaign"

All circus politics, no justice: No rule of Law unto judgment to establish peace (Isaiah 51:4), just empty promises.

Side note: The hypocrisy and willfulness to justify the president (The professed Christians in this country may want to make sure that they are Christians before making sure the president is one (1 John 2:6)). In an attempt to justify themselves (Luke 16: 14-16), it has become so apparent that pro-life organizations are thanking Donald Trump for a victory in a PROPOSED bill to defund the abortion industry. I said PROPOSED. Where did government receive delegated authority from "We the People" to enact such legislation, forcing taxpayers to pay for the murder of the innocent in the womb? (Proverbs 6:17)

Maybe these that are duped by political theatre would like to take a look at the $1.3 trillion omnibus bill that Donald Trump just signed under "National Security" that funds the illegal abortion industry with a $51 million deposit into Abortion Industries bank accounts, paid for, of course, by these cheerleaders who refuse to judge this administration by its fruit (Matthew 7:16).

[YouTube Video]

Americans do not see when it comes to these corrupt politicians that they are simply protecting their own, as well as themselves and the corporations and special interest groups for which they work. Time will prove this truth, as it always does.

How many administrations were called out for their crimes during their incumbencies? When questioned for their crimes, they would stand and deny it publically and laugh it off, only to find later on that they finally admit it when they are no longer in office. Every, single one of them (John 8:44).

It has been said, "If you start throwing these corrupt politicians in jail that the swamp will dry up real quick."

So, I ask again, where is that rule of Law, Mr. President?

What Is Deterring The Next School Shooter From Acting Out?

*"And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot."
–Deuteronomy 19:21*

First off, the very reason Americans are an armed people is the very reasons the Communists conjure up propaganda in an attempt to disarm the American people, which is not negotiable (Article II of the Bill of Rights).

School shootings happen in “Gun Free” zones.

Furthermore, the criminality, irrationality and unreasonableness of these Communists within are not the reasons they are naming as to why they want Americans disarmed, and you know it. It is about them having absolute control!

Forefathers Face-off with Criminal Politicians – Indoctrinated Protesting Their God Given RIGHTS!

[YouTube Video]

They are magnifying the crimes against the law rather than magnifying the law against the crime (Isaiah 51:4). For if they were to magnify the law against the crime, we would not have these reoccurring school shootings or, for that matter, crimes, in general, would be minimized for they would fear the consequences (Isaiah 26:9; Deuteronomy 19:21).

Sante Fe Texas High School shooter Dimitrios Pagourtzis knew all the well that there was going to be no consequence for killing 10 innocent people in that high school when he shot and killed them.

He knew that the reprobates (Romans 1:28) in government would want to rehabilitate him, to financially feed their created bureaucracies ($64 billion a year correctional institutions), after his crimes committed against the innocent (and on taxpayers' monies) they will school him, feed him three square meals a day; and, at length, they will put him back into the populace to do it all over again.

Soft judges produce hardened criminals.

A society that shows more mercy to that of the criminal then that of the victim is in fact breeding criminals (Isaiah 59:14).

They are only being encouraged to commit the crimes through indoctrination and propaganda as an excuse to disarm the population after the crimes are committed.

Hollywood, television, radio, video-games you name it, all on standby to feed, and to assure the very results of the seeds that have been sown into the hearts of these young people (Galatians 6:7).

“Where there is darkness crimes will be committed. The guilty one is not merely he who commits the crimes but he who caused the darkness.” –Victor Hugo

You see, we can teach what we know, but we can only reproduce what we are. What we have taught the youth is really what the last four generations have acted out in their lifestyles. Sadly, the youth are emulating the older generation's example in advocating crime.

Jesus said, “...wisdom is justified of all her children” (7:35). This is a truth no man can deny.

What is deterring the next kid from shooting up his school? I am about to tell you (Proverbs 16:6).

Can you imagine the people in this country agreeing to the Word of God and its judgments once again (Our Constitutional and enumerated Laws; Deuteronomy 4:6) would simply deter crimes and establish righteousness within our gates (Amos 5:15).

Simply televise it natonally and make a public example of the next criminal that wants to shoot up his or her school with “And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.”

–Deuteronomy 19:21

Here is history lesson 101: America's founding forefathers sent the message loud and clear that crimes (1 John 3:4) will not be tolerated, and justice deters crime.

Tired Of The Brow Beatings By Those Who Mean To Destroy And Dominate Your Country?

“Racist” is a made up word by Russian Revolutionary Leon Trotsky in 1927. It's a word used to browbeat all dissenters of the communist ideology.

Over and over again today, we hear the use of words such as homophobia, Islamophobia, haters, bullies, racists, etc. all coming from those who don't carry the shield to protect themselves in defense with the law on their side, but rather the spear to attack anyone and everyone that does not tolerate and comply with their lawlessness and treason.

First, it was the sodomites that were used as a political battering ram. Since the American people have now accepted that which God and American law have clearly condemned, you now have the Muslims (Judges 2:14) who are being used as a political battering ram.

[YouTube Video]

Seventeen years ago, I warned that the Muslims were on the heels of the sodomite communities in an attempt to upend America's sovereignty (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:24).

"Racism" (Since when did Islam become a race?) and "Islamophobia." This is the same way any other ignorant minded individual would act, use totalitarian methods and try to accuse your enemies of that which you are guilty. Are you tired of this yet, America?

P.S. It was also reported that in Massachusetts: Hamis-Linked CAIR Official With Ties To Jihad Terror Group Running As Democrat For Congress

Disarmed Countries – What Do They Look Like?

“So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan.” (1 Samuel 13:22)

Just recently, while taking care of business, I walked into a craft store where a woman was working. At first, I was not sure if I heard an English accent or not. She spoke again and then I was sure of it.

I asked, “Are you from England?” and she said that she was. I then asked her how disarmament was working out for the people there.

She told me that she has now lived here in America for 40 years and that her mother still lives there. She went on to say that her mother was so brainwashed that she has a wad of money rolled up in a secret compartment so when, not if but when, an intruder breaks in, she can tell them where the money is in hopes of them not bringing harm to her (Luke 11:21).

This all reminds me of Annie Hendrick and Sally Skidmore who are two women that live in England, as well. They are both in their 80's and were beaten by intruders.

In fact, one woman was so tired of intruders breaking into her home, that she put chicken wire around her home. Once the local government found out what she did, they summoned her to court and told her that she must remove the chicken wire, lest it hurt one of the intruders.

What does history teach us when a nation is disarmed?

The woman I was speaking with also told me that now with all of the Muslims coming into their country, knives have now been outlawed due to all of the stabbings and the police were disarmed in England, as well. I could not believe that a people could be so dumbed down to accept this in any country (Hosea 4:6).

I then asked her if she had seen the video of the 11 British police officers vs. one Muslim with a knife. I have never seen anything so ridiculous.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

After viewing the video above, one must understand the reprobate and perverse minds of the system of injustice in England. The reason that they took the course that they did with this madman is because they said that they wanted to rehabilitate him. (Exodus 21:12) You cannot make this up friends.

On the other hand, in 1982, the town of Kennesaw, Georgia passed a law requiring all able adults, except convicts, to have a gun. They have only had one murder (From an out of state criminal with a gun) and have had no increase in crime or violence in 12 years! (Final Warning, Grant Jeffrey p. 205, 1995)

In the video below, they also interviewed local prisoners (3:12) as to why they never set Kennesaw, Georgia in their sights when committing crimes. They said, "Stay away from Kennesaw because they are an armed people."

According to www.americagunfacts.com, 3/5 of Felons say they won't mess with an armed victim. 200,000 times a year women use a gun to defend against sexual abuse and guns are used save thousands of lives every year. No wonder why the disarmed United Kingdom case study found them to be the most violent country in the EU.

[YouTube Video]

The bottom line is,

"If a violent crime is to be curbed, it is only the intended victim who can do it. The felon does not fear the police, and he fears neither judge nor jury. Therefore what he must be taught to fear is his victim." –Lt. Col Jeff Cooper

In ending, when you look at the Scripture found in 1 Samuel 13:22, you will notice that the children of Israel after many were killed, due to their disobedience to God's moral law (1 Samuel 3:13), were enslaved and oppressed before the Philistines, and how did they do that? They were disarmed. See how this works?

Americans: Greatly Armed “Obstacles”

“The main obstacle to a stable and just world order is the United States.” -George Soros

First of all, I would have you note that the headline does not suggest that because we, as a people, are armed that God is going to put an end to judging this nation (Psalm 9:16). In fact, just the opposite is true.

Yet, it is a mercy of God that we are still in a position to right the wrongs by remaining armed. America’s sin is before God (Numbers 32:23), and until America repents and turns from her wicked ways, the judgments of God are not only going to continue, they are going to increase (Leviticus 26:14-39).

With that said, the propagandists were hard at work this last week, as well as every week attempting to brainwash the American people with more anti-gun and false polling rhetoric.

Instead of magnifying the law (teaching men the fear of The Lord; Proverbs 16:6) against the crime, you have the media and politicians magnifying the crime and blaming the law abider for the crimes of the transgressors.

One headline in Minneapolis was “Majority of Americans want tighter gun legislation.”

[YouTube Video]

Really? A majority of Americans want tighter gun legislation? I do not care if 100% of the American people want to disarm themselves before their enemies, America is a Constitutional Republic (Article

4, Section 4), not a democracy. We are ruled by Law, not the opinion of any media-contrived polling of the majority of people in this country.

Yes, friends, these polls are bought and paid for. Just ask those corporations that attempt to rule the roost through deception. These are the same CIA-controlled, anti-gun media outlets, though they are separate companies, which are pushing the same propaganda on the American people on a daily basis.

[YouTube Video]

To prove the point, look at the facts!

According to the Geneva-based Small Arms Survey – the leading source of international public information about firearms – the U.S. has the best-armed civilian population in the world, with an estimated 270 million total guns.

That's an average of 89 firearms for every 100 residents.

Do the math.

Furthermore, it is interesting to note that whenever more gun legislation is broadcasted, gun sales skyrocket.

And if the media cannot convince you that a majority of Americans want more gun legislation through deceptive measures, then they will have some appointed, unelected, black-robed tyrant who sits on the Supreme Court pervert what we all clearly understand when it comes to our right to keep and bear arms.

[YouTube Video]

“Do not separate text from historical background. If you do, you will and subverted the Constitution, have perverted which can only end in a distorted, bastardized form of illegitimate government.” –James Madison, the 4th President of the United States

[YouTube Video]

On October 20th, 2017, the National Rifle Association reported,

“This week it was announced that hedge fund billionaire and radical left-wing activist George Soros has infused his Open Society Foundations with a gift of $18 billion.”

According to a New York Times report, Soros funneled the money to the organization over the course of several years. The paper also called the Hungarian immigrant’s gift, “One of the largest transfers of wealth ever made by a private donor to a single foundation,” and pointed out that Open Society is now the second largest “philanthropic” organization in the U.S.

Gun owners will likely find the New York Times’ characterization of Soros’ political arm generous, given that the organization has routinely targeted Americans’ Second Amendment rights. Further, the group’s global reach has imperiled gun owners throughout the world.

On the domestic front, in 2000, Open Society published a widely circulated report entitled, “Gun Control in the United States.” The publication called for a host of new federal and state gun restrictions.

Americans have known for years what George Soros and others are all about, and still they stand by and act as if he has a lawful right to attempt to strip Americans of their right to keep and bear arms. If Americans do not want to know any better by educating themselves, then they simply will be disarmed (Hosea 4:6). Either you deal with the corrupt politicians (Which will close the door and enforce the law against the George Soros' of the USA) or you will be disarmed.

The Ever Changing Promises About The Wall – Now You're Paying For It

[DISCLAIMER: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not necessarily the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

"A people that values its privileges above its principles soon loses both." – Dwight D. Eisenhower

It has been rightly stated, "Fool me once shame on you, fool me twice shame on me!" When does that "shame on me" come into play when it comes to the blatant hypocrisy of those who call themselves conservatives who have been fooled over and over again by the current administration?

The sad part about this is what the right calls “the left” is calling them out for their hypocrisies (Matthew 23:3). I hope you now understand why today’s conservatives are yesterday’s lawless and un-principled liberals.

Do you remember on the campaign trail that Donald Trump was going to have Mexico fund the border wall, and that it would cost $4 billion dollars, and that it was going to be so easy to get the job done?

Well, think again.

How many times was the wall (Malachi 1:4) promised to the American people with ever changing and unfulfilled promises?

The list of false promises and an ever-changing agenda are marked below.

Each statement is different and in a different setting regardless if he is speaking to a reporter or an audience. Donald Trump is simply telling the sheep what it is that they want to hear (Matthew 13:25).

Wasn't Mexico supposed to pay for the wall?

Donald Trump, “I will build a great, great wall. And I will have Mexico pay for that wall. Mark my words.”

Well, Mr. Trump, I am marking YOUR words.

- The wall is going to be built, folks. Just-in case anybody has any question.
- We need the wall. We're going to build the wall.
- We're going to have a wall.
- The wall's happening.
- Build that wall. Build that wall.
- On day one, we will begin working on an impenetrable, physical, tall powerful, beautiful southern border wall.
- We'll, I'd love not to build the wall but you need the wall.
- Building it, not negotiable.
- We have no choice.
- We have to close down our government we're building that wall.

(The government was never shut down! Yet Obama's \$1.3 trillion dollar omnibus bill funding America's enemies without and within was not only illegally and unconstitutionally signed by Obama, but Donald Trump also signed similar legislation this year behind the media's smoke and mirrors "March for our lives" on the same weekend)

Remember, Paul Ryan went from saying, "We are not going to pay for that [the wall] to, "We are going to finance the Secure Fence act, which is the construction of the physical barrier."

Back to Donald Trump mockingly repeating critics, "You can't get Mexico to pay for the wall." Of course, you can.

- Do you have any doubt that I will get them to pay for the wall?
- We will build the wall as sure as you are standing there.
- As sure as you are standing there. 100 percent.
- Who's going to pay for the wall? Audience: Mexico!
- Who's not going to pay for the wall? Vermont.
- REPORTER: It now appears clear U.S. taxpayers will have to pay for it upfront. What is your plan- TRUMP: That is not clear at all.

- REPORTER: So the American taxpayer will pay for the wall at first?
- TRUMP: All it is, is we'll be reimbursed.
- Mexico will be reimbursing the United States.
- It will be reimbursed.
- It may be through reimbursement.
- We did discuss the wall, we didn't discuss payment of the wall.
- I will build the greatest wall that you've ever seen.
- I want a gorgeous wall. And you do a beautiful, nice precast plank with beautiful everything. Just perfect.
- CHILD: What's it going to be made of? TRUMP: Ohhhh, It's going to be made of hardened concrete, and it's going to be made out of rebar and steel.
- I'm talking about a wall. See that ceiling up there? Higher.
- We're thinking about building the wall as a solar wall.
- And were going to have a door in the wall.
- If they ever get up there, they're in trouble. Because there is no way to get down, maybe a rope.
- It's not a fence, it's a wall.
- Yeah, it could be-it could be some fencing.
- Mexico will not pay for the wall. Could we have your comment? I said, yes the wall just got 10 feet higher.
- 10 feet taller.
- 10 feet higher.
- 10 feet higher, higher, higher.
- Let's say the wall costs $4 billion.
- $5 Billion dollars.
- The wall is going to cost $6 or 7 billion.
- The wall is probably $8 billion.
- It's going to cost $10 billion.
- The wall's going to cost $10 billion, maybe 12.
- We're putting down $25 billion for the wall.
- TRUMP: And who's going to pay for the wall? AUDIENCE: Mexico! TRUMP: Who's going to pay for the wall?

AUDIENCE: Mexico! TRUMP: Who's going to pay for the wall? AUDIENCE: Mexico! I've never done that before, that's actually cool. I've never done that before-I swear it.

Wasn't Mexico Supposed to Pay for The Wall?

[YouTube Video]

You just cannot make this stuff up! The hypocrisies of Donald Trump and his blind and unprincipled followers (Matthew 15:14) are unprecedented.

This is what happens when men put their trust in the arm of the flesh (Jeremiah 17:5). The curse (devoted to destruction) simply falls upon them that refuse to acknowledge the truth (Jeremiah 3:13).

Remember what President Eisenhower stated,

"A people that values its privileges above its principles soon loses both."

Biblical And Constitutional Illiteracy Is The Recipe For Tyranny

"It is in the religion of ignorance that tyranny begins."
—Benjamin Franklin

It seems that when covering this country from coast to coast in providing presentations from the House of Representatives to high schools, colleges, television, radio and every other outlet which we are able to take advantage (Luke 19:10) when the opportunity is offered, there is this reoccurring theme of ignorance when it comes to the history or where it is that "We the People" came from, and who it is that we are as a people.

In other words, ignorance of our American history starts with Biblical and constitutional illiteracy.

I can say with all confidence that if you do not know where it is that you came from, then you have no idea as to where you are going. It all starts in the American Church that is to be the moral compass of society. When that goes, so goes the government (Matthew 5:14-16).

Think of this, you now have the impotent hirelings in American Churches (John 10:13) unscripturally and heretically (1 Timothy 4:1) teaching (out of context) that the sheep are to submit themselves to tyranny (the wolves) in American government by teaching Romans chapter 13 upside down.

"Make yourself sheep and the wolves will devour." —Benjamin Franklin

Of course, there would be no conversation on this topic if Christians would simply go to the preceding verse found in Romans 12:2 where it simply reads:

"Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

We are now seeing in this country an unprecedented level of corruption within government ranks with an 11% approval rating. This first begins in the church.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Why? The church in this country has failed to hold itself to the Christ that they profess to love in the keeping of His commandments (Deuteronomy 4; 1 John 2:4).

Is the world to know a just and a holy God through an uneducated, ignorant, disobedient and hypocritical lot of cowardice unbelievers? I think not! Though the God of Israel will set the record straight through judgment, though He desires to show mercy (Ezekiel 18:23), and that just happens to be the course that this country has clearly and willfully taken (Jeremiah 5:20-31).

America is going to learn the hard way.

Let me explain.

Pulpits across the country today are the greatest advocates to the crimes against Heaven and the corruptions found in American government and society. Instead of the American Church confronting sin (1 Timothy 5:20) and corruption, it has now ignorantly taught that Christians are to submit to corruption in government (Matthew 16:18).

But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. (John 19:15).

How far this teaching is from that of the first, The Bible, and secondly, our forefathers and our Constitutional Republic form of government, which they established.

First, Romans chapter 13 reads,

“Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. (Who ordained that power?) Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. For rulers (representatives) are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.”

I have searched Scripture high and low looking for Scripture that would support the Lord God of Israel having His children to submit to unjust rule, and, of course, I could not find it!

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

As a matter of fact, what I did find was quite the opposite.

For example, I found that Moses was sent forth to confront the Pharaoh and commanded him, by God, to let His people go (Exodus 5:1). In the end, the Lord brought forth judgment upon judgment upon the head of Pharaoh and all that pertained to him and his people through plagues (Exodus 7:1-4).

What of the lone prophet, Elijah?

Elijah was sent by God to confront the tyrant Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel to meet on Mount Carmel where the fire from Heaven would bring destruction to the false prophets (1 King 18:36-40).

Do you remember what the tyrant king Ahab said to Elijah before going to Mount Carmel?

"And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?"

(Here Ahab is accusing Elijah for the things that he and his wife were guilty of) And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed (false god) Baalim." 1 Kings 18:17-18

What of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who would not bow to the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar created? They were thrown into the fire for their lack of submission to the tyrant, and at a short length, because they did not bow, they did not burn, and sure enough the fourth man, the Son of Man, appeared on their behalf to glorify the God of Israel.

"Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God." (Daniel 3:28)

What of John the Baptist, "The greatest prophet born of woman?" (Luke 7:28) John confronted King Herod for all of his evils (Luke 3:19).

Or what of the Apostle Peter, who was put in prison because the tyrant Herod wanted to please the religious hypocrites of the day by imprisoning him.

Acts 12:5-11 explains the account:

Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

I ask, who sent the angel to break Peter out of prison?

When I look to our forefathers who drew up that document called the Declaration of Independence, I see 75% of it is documentation of them candidly showing the world where they threw off tyranny when it came to the corrupt King George from across the pond and his usurpations which they would no longer tolerate. They wrote,

“That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to affect their Safety and Happiness.”

[YouTube Video]

President Thomas Jefferson, the chief architect of the Declaration of Independence, exhibited in his writings and his life (1 John 3:18):

“Rebellion to Tyrants is Obedience to God”

Like that of Elijah, it wasn't our forefathers that were troubling the country, it was the corruption in government that would not be ruled by God as they swore that they would be. That is where the trouble begins.

In the Church, if the preachers are not going to preach the word in deed and truth, then they simply need to be removed. And so it is in Government, if those who represent “We the People” are not going to uphold the US Constitution in which they swore to uphold, then we will throw them off (out). We are not throwing off the Constitution, but those who pervert the Constitution. (Article 2, Section 4, US Constitution)

“The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress.” –Fredrick Douglas

Just Not Too Much Truth, Say the Hypocrites! The Saga Continues

HYPOC'RISY, noun [Latin hypocrisis; Gr. simulation; to feign;

1. Simulation; a feigning to be what one is not; or dissimulation, a concealment of one's real character or motives. More generally, hypocrisy is simulation, or the assuming of a false appearance of virtue or religion; a deceitful show of a good character, in morals or religion; a counterfeiting of religion.

Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy Luke 12:1.

2. Simulation; deceitful appearance; false pretence.

In my article I wrote last week titled "1.3 Trillion Omnibus Bill Sold as 'National Security' Funds Avowed to America's Enemies," I highlighted the treasonous acts of the new administration concerning that which was laid on the backs of the American tax payers and their children when it comes to the reallocation of funds and how they are being used to literally (And illegally) fund America's sworn enemies. P.S. This same kind of bill was brought forth under criminal Barrack Hussein Obama and his administration with the help of Paul Ryan, who played the Judas with the American people (Luke 22:48).

Back on December 16, 2015, when Breitbart first blew the trumpet (Ezekiel 33:3), I did a follow-up on LIVE radio several times and even wrote an article on June 16, 2017 titled, "Paul Ryan Helped Open the gates to The Wolves."

I knew that it was just a matter of time before Donald Trump, with the help of his right hand man, Paul Ryan, was going to move the agenda forward, and right on cue, they did. Please take note that this all happened during the same weekend that the "March for Our Lives" protests were taking place, which was, in fact, was planned months before any alleged shooting ever took place in Florida. In the end, it was nothing less than smoke and mirrors to divert the American people from passing this unconstitutional and treasonous (Article 3, Section 3, US Constitution) bill (Psalm 94:20).

This, in part, is what we found in this omnibus bill that DONALD TRUMP JUST SIGNED:

- $12m for Scholarships for Lebanon

- $20m for Middle East Partnership Initiative Scholarship Program
- $12m in military funding for Vietnam
- $3.5m in nutrition assistance to Laos
- $15m in Developmental assistance to China
- $10m for Women LEOs in Afghanistan
- $1m for the World Meteorological Organization
- $218m for Promoting Democracy Development in Europe

After reading through the content found in this unconstitutional omnibus bill, I ask, did you vote for this?

Yet, today's conservatives (yesterday's liberals) are now requesting (asking the criminal to give himself up), you heard me right, requesting Paul Ryan's resignation.

One has to take into account that Paul Ryan didn't sign the bill, Donald Trump did. No wonder why these hypocrites are looked upon as a reproach!

After seeing the provisions passed in this bill, you would have thought that the professing Christian conservatives would have been up in arms about this, but if you thought that, you were wrong.

This was sent to me by a reader, which was found on one of my forty outlets nationwide.

The new headline reads,

1.3 Trillion Omnibus Bill Sold As “National Security”

As you can see, they first changed the headline by omitting the second half and then put this disclaimer right below it.

[DISCLAIMER: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not necessarily the opinion of (the outlet), it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers. (The outlet) believes President Trump had a reason for signing this bad Bill and we don't believe in throwing the best President since George Washington under the bus. We also believe that a Deep State President would mean the end of America Forever!]

They stepped all over themselves in an attempt to justify the treasonous acts of President Donald Trump (Luke 16:15), and then went on to compare Donald Trump to that of George Washington.

In a piece penned by –Joseph Sobran titled, “How Tyranny Came to America,” he wrote:

“If Washington and Jefferson, Madison and Hamilton could come back, the first thing that they would notice would be how the federal government now routinely assumes thousands of powers never delegated or granted to it. These were the words used and it is a good idea for us to learn their language. They would say that we no longer live under the Constitution they wrote.”

There you have it, “Kings will be tyrants from policy when subjects are rebels from principle.” (2 Thessalonians 2:10)

The U.S. Constitution is as foreign to these hypocrites (as the Bible is to the immoral workers of iniquity) as it is to the Chinese and Russians, and all three parties act accordingly.

[YouTube Video]

What happened to patriotism? President Theodore Roosevelt said,

“Patriotism means to stand by the country. It does not mean to stand by the president or any other public official, save exactly to the degree in which he himself stands by the country. It is patriotic to support him insofar as he efficiently serves the country. It is unpatriotic not to oppose him to the exact extent that by inefficiency or otherwise he fails in his duty to stand by the country. In either event, it is unpatriotic not to tell the truth, whether about the president or anyone else.”

Speaking of our Constitutional Republic, the second President of the United States, John Adams, said that our country is based upon Laws, and not of men (Exodus 20). How right and wise this founder was.

Laws must not be altered, for if they are, then it leaves us without any Law at all. A sliding scale of duty is an immoral invention, fatal to the principles of law (Such as making excuses for the president like “he is only human,” or “he is doing his best,” “Nobody is perfect” etc.), which America is. (Article 4, Section 4, US Constitution)

Yes, hypocrites have shifted the standard, by claiming we are a democracy, and every man will now do that which is right in their own eyes and claim to be doing their best.

[YouTube Video]

If you shift the standard pound weight or the bushel measure, you will certainly never get full weight or measurement again. There will be no standard to go by, and each man will do his best with his own pounds and bushels. If the standard is tampered with, you have taken away the foundation upon which trade is conducted. It is the same in matters of Law—abolish the best rule that ever can be, even God's own law (our Mosaic Institution), and there is no rule left worthy of the name.

This truth must be maintained, for if it goes, our tacklings are loose, we cannot well strengthen the mast; the ship goes all to pieces; she becomes a total wreck and, at length, the same will be true of our country.

[YouTube Video]

The problem is that I have seen these people adjust themselves to the shifting standard of immorality (Lawlessness – counterfeit grace; Isaiah 30; Matthew 7:23) over and over again throughout the years, especially when it comes to their tolerance of representatives both in the church and in government (Jeremiah 5:31). And then we wonder why they do what they do. They do what they do because they are allowed to do it.

How much further backward do you suppose we, as a country, can go before it all goes awry? (Psalm 9:16) Only Americans can answer this question.

If you are going to confess to being someone or representing someone or something that is to be right, then practice what you preach. That is how credibility is established. People are sick and tired of hypocrisy on both fronts, and so am I (Matthew 23:3).

When you act right, it means that you are right.

Treason-In general, it is the offense of attempting to overthrow the government of the state to which the offender owes allegiance, or of betraying the state into the hands of a foreign power. –Webster's 1828 Dictionary

Last week, the news broke that behind the smokescreen of the March on Washington D.C., President Donald Trump did the unthinkable when he signed off on the budget-busting \$1.3 trillion spending bill, which is nothing short of a complete betrayal of the American people. The bill also finances countries that are avowed enemies of America. (Article 3 sections 3 US Constitution) HE SAID THAT IT WAS SIGNED FOR “NATIONAL SECURITY” WHILE FUNDING AVOWED ENEMIES TO AMERICA.

This in part is what we found in the bill:

- $12m for Scholarships for Lebanon
- $20m for Middle East Partnership Initiative Scholarship Program
- $12m in military funding for Vietnam
- $3.5m in nutrition assistance to Laos
- $15m in Developmental assistance to China
- $10m for Women LEOs in Afghanistan
- $1m for the World Meteorological Organization
- $218m for Promoting Democracy Development in Europe
- $10m for disadvantaged Egyptian Students

After reading through the content found in this unconstitutional omnibus bill, I ask, did you vote for this?

Did these treasonous politicians receive delegated authority from “We the People” to implement that which is clearly treasonous? (Article 3, Section 3, US Constitution)

[YouTube Video]

I noticed immediately after this bill was signed by Donald Trump (Psalm 94:20), today’s conservatives (yesterday’s liberals) were falling all over themselves in an attempt to justify the unjustifiable (Luke 7:30).

They cry out in unison, “Away with the truth, crucify the truth, crucify the truth, we have no King but King Caesar” (John 19:15).

[YouTube Video]

One individual named Schlichter said, “I refuse to lose my mind over the omnibus fiasco, and so should you.”

Another person stated, “What Trump said behind closed doors, after signing the bill, and what he just signed are not the same.” In other words, he didn’t really mean to sign this $1.3 trillion omnibus bill. Yes he did, because he did it. Remember, the man in private and the man in the office are one in the same (Luke 6:43-45).

Then we have another who wrote an article titled:

Omnibus Bill: “Trump Outsmarted The Deep States Again, The Wall is Being Built” Really? Friends you cannot make this stuff up! Shameful! (Jeremiah 3:3)

These people are the problem. Today’s conservatives, or lack thereof, along with the corrupt politicians, at length, are attempting to justify themselves, which neither can (Luke 16:15).

They continue on their little selfish venture of playing the political games that they are willfully caught up in (Jeremiah 5:21).

They refuse to receive correction and then wonder why the politicians do not hold to their oath! (Jeremiah 2:30; Matthew 15:14) If they did, then they would not have to play the hypocrite with the guy wearing their favorite jersey on committing the act of treason.

Parkland High School Shooting Has 70 Cameras Only 4 Released

Keeping You Outside the Building

"The short memories of Americans is what keeps these false flag attacks moving forward."

We're seeing Facebook, YouTube, Twitter scrubbing the eye and ear witnesses as to what contradicted the CIA-controlled narrative when it came to what allegedly took place at Parkland High School in Florida.

(We found the ones that have been reposted)

Student Alexa Meidnik was talking with Nikolas Cruz during this alleged shooting.

[YouTube Video]

Snopes "Fact Checkers" claim that this was a false report!

[YouTube Video]

CNN pushed for a gun debate within 2 days without a shred of evidence released to the American people of what took place inside of that school.

Then, we witnessed a national walk-out of students who are being used to throw-off the old form of government in an attempt to bring in the new.

[YouTube Video]

Of course, the CIA-controlled media would have you overlook the students nationwide who walked out in support of the 2nd Amendment.

CNN is so rabidly anti-Second Amendment that they went so far as to broadcast a fake news story about an AR-15 purchase.

Are the American people going to figure out the games that conspirators play?

They now have the sheeple in America's attention off of what it needed to be on, and that was a derelict deputy outside of the high school building.

They have Americans focused in on what they want the people to be focused in on through divertive measures.

This reminds me of the John F. Kennedy assassination. Over 200 people ran to the grassy knoll where they claimed that the shots were fired from, including 2 police officers, and the television cameras diverted the viewers to the book depository (Isaiah 5:20).

[YouTube Video]

So obvious is this false flag event (Jeremiah 11:9) that CBS reported on March 16, 2018 the deputy outside of the building who "failed to protect."

They talk out of both sides of their mouths. How does this fit the anti-gunners narrative?)

[YouTube Video]

It was reported that the Broward County Sheriff's office (which has had 66 open investigations into his department from drug trafficking to kidnapping), under Sheriff Scott Israel, released 27 minutes of surveillance which came from 4 cameras from the roughly 70 security cameras at the school.

They didn't release any videos that showed the shooter, just the ones that focused on what Deputy Scott Peterson did as chaos unfolded.

[YouTube Video]

Yet, they have Americans in a debate over the 2nd Amendment? Our God given RIGHTS (Luke 11:21) are not up for debate, period.

"A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed."

"Resistance to tyranny becomes the Christian and social duty of each individual. ... Continue steadfast and, with a proper sense of your dependence on God, nobly defend those rights which heaven gave, and no man ought to take from us."

Forefathers Face-Off With

Modern Politicians – Americans, The Second Amendment Is A God-Given RIGHT, Not A Privilege

“The Constitution shall never be construed to prevent the people of the United States who are peaceable citizens from keeping their own arms.” – Samuel Adams, Massachusetts Ratifying Convention, 1788

With all of that is going on with these anti gunner politicians (surrounded by armed security detail) working hard for their special interest groups, rather than upholding the US Constitution, the US Constitution which they swore an oath to uphold, instead, and in using the tactic of “necessity” based off of some tragedy or massacre, which, in many cases, are induced false flag events (conspired black ops Jeremiah 11:9), one must understand the methods and the language of their enemies.

“Necessity is the plea for every infringement of human freedom. It is the argument of tyrants; it is the creed of slaves.” – William Pitt (the Younger), Speech in the House of Commons, November 18, 1783

“I prefer dangerous freedom over peaceful slavery.” – Thomas Jefferson, letter to James Madison, January 30, 1787

Furthermore, when you look to the anti-gunner corrupt politicians and their methods one must ask where did they derive their delegated authority to encroach upon the God-given RIGHTS of the American people? I cannot find it! Why? Because it isn't there (Hosea 4:6).

Americans must come to terms that corrupt politicians are not the type that you can help or rehabilitate; they are the type that you must lawfully remove, or you will lose your God-given RIGHTS! (Article 2, Section 4, US Constitution)

"The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants." – President Thomas Jefferson

You must fight for your God-given RIGHTS! (Deuteronomy 1:8; James 2:14-26)

It is the difference between a FREE people, and an enslaved people there are no in-between (Luke 11:2).

"To disarm the people...[i]s the most effectual way to enslave them." – George Mason, referencing advice given to the British Parliament by Pennsylvania governor Sir William Keith, The Debates in the Several State Conventions on the Adoption of the Federal Constitution, June 14, 1788

Therefore, it might be well for you to take a couple of minutes and read what our forefathers had said in their writings during the ratifications to establish gun rights to Americans as a whole, namely the Second Amendment to the Bill of Rights. Who knows better what the Second Amendment means than the Founding Fathers that established our God-given rights?

[YouTube Video]

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the People to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

First, who are the militia?

“I ask who are the militia? They consist now of the whole people, except a few public officers.” – George Mason, Address to the Virginia Ratifying Convention, June 4, 1788

“The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed. A well regulated militia, composed of the body of the people, trained to arms, is the best and most natural defense of a free country.” – James Madison, I Annals of Congress 434, June 8, 1789

“A militia when properly formed are in fact the people themselves...and include, according to the past and general usage of the states, all men capable of bearing arms... “To preserve liberty, it is essential that the whole body of the people always possess arms, and be taught alike, especially when young, how to use them.” – Richard Henry Lee, Federal Farmer No. 18, January 25, 1788

“What, Sir, is the use of a militia? It is to prevent the establishment of a standing army, the bane of liberty Whenever Governments mean to invade the rights and liberties of the people, they always attempt to destroy the militia, in order to raise an army upon their ruins.” – Rep. Elbridge Gerry of Massachusetts, I Annals of Congress 750, August 17, 1789

Second, look to our American forefathers and how what they established contradicts the corruptions in the face of the present day criminal politicians (Psalm 94:20; Luke 22:48; John 8:44).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

"Before a standing army can rule, the people must be disarmed, as they are in almost every country in Europe. The supreme power in America cannot enforce unjust laws by the sword; because the whole body of the people are armed, and constitute a force superior to any band of regular troops." – Noah Webster, An Examination of the Leading Principles of the Federal Constitution, October 10, 1787

"A free people ought not only to be armed, but disciplined..." – George Washington, First Annual Address, to both House of Congress, January 8, 1790

"No free man shall ever be debarred the use of arms." – Thomas Jefferson, Virginia Constitution, Draft 1, 1776

"What country can preserve its liberties if their rulers are not warned from time to time that their people preserve the spirit of resistance. Let them take arms." – Thomas Jefferson, letter to James Madison, December 20, 1787

"The laws that forbid the carrying of arms are laws of such a nature. They disarm only those who are neither inclined nor determined to commit crimes.... Such laws make things worse for the assaulted and better for the assailants; they serve rather to encourage than to prevent homicides, for an unarmed man may be attacked with greater confidence than an armed man." – Thomas Jefferson, Commonplace Book (quoting 18th century criminologist Cesare Beccaria), 1774-1776

"A strong body makes the mind strong. As to the species of exercises, I advise the gun. While this gives moderate exercise to the body, it gives boldness, enterprise and independence to the mind. Games played with the ball, and others of that nature, are too violent for the body and stamp no character on the mind. Let your gun therefore be your constant companion of your walks.” – Thomas Jefferson, letter to Peter Carr, August 19, 1785

“The Constitution of most of our states (and of the United States) assert that all power is inherent in the people; that they may exercise it by themselves; that it is their right and duty to be at all times armed.” – Thomas Jefferson, letter to John Cartwright, 5 June 1824

“On every occasion [of Constitutional interpretation] let us carry ourselves back to the time when the Constitution was adopted, recollect the spirit manifested in the debates, and instead of trying [to force] what meaning may be squeezed out of the text, or invented against it, [instead let us] conform to the probable one in which it was passed.” – Thomas Jefferson, letter to William Johnson, 12 June 1823

“Besides the advantage of being armed, which the Americans possess over the people of almost every other nation, the existence of subordinate governments, to which the people are attached, and by which the militia officers are appointed, forms a barrier against the enterprises of ambition, more insurmountable than any which a simple government of any form can admit of.” – James Madison, Federalist No. 46, January 29, 1788

“This may be considered as the true palladium of liberty... The right of self-defense is the first law of nature: in most governments it has been the study of rulers to confine this right within the narrowest limits possible. Wherever standing armies are kept up, and the right of the people to keep and bear arms is, under any color or pretext whatsoever, prohibited, liberty, if not already annihilated, is on the brink of destruction.” – St. George Tucker, Blackstone’s Commentaries on the Laws of England, 1803

"The supposed quietude of a good man allures the ruffian; while on the other hand, arms, like law, discourage and keep the invader and the plunderer in awe, and preserve order in the world as well as property. The balance of power is the scale of peace. The same balance would be preserved were all the world destitute of arms, for all would be alike; but since some will not, others dare not lay them aside. And while a single nation refuses to lay them down, it is proper that all should keep them up. Horrid mischief would ensue were one-half the world deprived of the use of them; for while avarice and ambition have a place in the heart of man, the weak will become a prey to the strong. The history of every age and nation establishes these truths, and facts need but little arguments when they prove themselves." – Thomas Paine, "Thoughts on Defensive War" in Pennsylvania Magazine, July 1775

"The right of the citizens to keep and bear arms has justly been considered, as the palladium of the liberties of a republic; since it offers a strong moral check against the usurpation and arbitrary power of rulers; and will generally, even if these are successful in the first instance, enable the people to resist and triumph over them." – Joseph Story, Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States, 1833

"For it is a truth, which the experience of ages has attested, that the people are always most in danger when the means of injuring their rights are in the possession of those of whom they entertain the least suspicion." – Alexander Hamilton, Federalist No. 25, December 21, 1787

"If the representatives of the people betray their constituents, there is then no resource left but in the exertion of that original right of self-defense which is paramount to all positive forms of government, and which against the usurpations of the national rulers, may be exerted with infinitely better prospect of success than against those of the rulers of an individual state. In a single state, if the persons intrusted with supreme power become usurpers, the different parcels, subdivisions, or districts of which it consists, having no distinct government in each, can take no regular measures for defense. The citizens must rush tumultuously to arms, without concert, without system, without resource; except in their courage and despair.” – Alexander Hamilton, Federalist No. 28

“As civil rulers, not having their duty to the people before them, may attempt to tyrannize, and as the military forces which must be occasionally raised to defend our country, might pervert their power to the injury of their fellow citizens, the people are confirmed by the article in their right to keep and bear their private arms.” – Tench Coxe, Philadelphia Federal Gazette, June 18, 1789

“Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect everyone who approaches that jewel. Unfortunately, nothing will preserve it but downright force. Whenever you give up that force, you are ruined.... The great object is that every man be armed. Everyone who is able might have a gun.” – Patrick Henry, Speech to the Virginia Ratifying Convention, June 5, 1778

We have heard over and over from criminal anti-gunner politicians that we do not need 30 round magazines when it comes to our ability to protect ourselves.

Just a reminder to all, we do not need 30 rounds to hunt with, correct, but the Second Amendment was not written in case the deer turn against us, it was given in case our government does.

“The beauty of the second amendment is that it will not be needed until they try to take it!”

Chaos, How Could It Be Otherwise? Americans Do Not Believe Their Own Message

“...they overpass the deeds of the wicked” -Jeremiah 5:28

Church scandals, political scandals, media propaganda, war, sex trafficking, kidnappings, illegal immigration, etc. (1 Timothy 1:8)

Chaos, how could it be otherwise? (Psalm 9:16)

The American people are subjecting themselves yet again to the injustices (crimes, sin) and the transgressions of God’s moral law (1 John 3:4) that are being perpetrated upon them by magnifying the crimes rather than the law against the crimes (Isaiah 59).

Police, who are to enforce the law against crimes, have on their cars “Peace officers” (Matthew 5:9).

Yet, no matter how many times nor how many different ways I go back to the Word of God and show the American people the answer to the injustices taking place and how the law applies to ALL of us, regardless of the capacities in which we are occupied, for some reason or another, and without fail, people will always fall back into the old cycle of talking about the branches (lawlessness-injustices) on the tree rather than laying the axe to the root of the tree (bringing about judgment to establish peace) and taking it down (Luke 3:9).

Chaos, how could it be otherwise, Americans? (Jeremiah 6:6)

First things first, the very first Scripture in the Satanic Bible is "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the law." – Aleister Crowley, Satanic priest

Yet, God commands otherwise! Thou shalt not! Not because He hates, but because He loves (Exodus 20; Psalm 19:11; Galatians 3:24). It is always wise for us to do what God commands for our own good (Deuteronomy 4:6).

God gave His law because He loves, and we know that love is the fulfilling of the Law (Romans 13:8-14). Love does not allow the sin (crime) to be committed upon yourself or against your neighbors (Leviticus 19:17).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

When you live in a country where 78% of the people profess to be believers (Christians), and looking around at what is seen in America today, one can only come to the realization that they do not really believe their own message (1 John 2:4).

The American Church: These “unbelievers” are guilty before the Judge of all the earth, and have ignorantly advocated that which God clearly condemns (Micah 3:5; John 7:7).

They destroy moral law, which Jesus magnified, through omission and ignorance and call it grace, which in truth is not true grace at all (Matthew 5:17).

Furthermore, the American Church believes that it is somehow the mercy of God to allow corruption to reign in the place of justice and judgment (Jeremiah 9:24; Psalm 9:16, 89:14, 97:2) when the opposite is true. What is the fruit? The fruit is a “feigned” or “counterfeit” compassion for the criminal rather than the victims themselves (1 Peter 1:22).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

King David prayed:

“It is time for thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law.” (Psalm 119:126)

And the people then stand back in apathy and wonder why “...judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off...” (Isaiah 59:14)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

This is the same American Church that promotes a false and “licentious” “grace” (Jude 1:4; Romans 3:31) day in and day out without shame or remorse (Jeremiah 6:15) because they have never been to the cross (Acts 20:21; 2 Corinthians 7:10).

Grace is defined, in part, is unmerited favor. Yet, in keeping with the heart of the Gospel, those that are forgiven much also love much! With their eyes on the cross of Calvary (Galatians 3:1), those that truly love the Lord understand the price paid for their redemption. Upon comprehension, they will then live for Him who died for them (2 Corinthians 5:15) and will tolerate nothing which offends.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

If their message is true to Scripture, why then is sin abounding over the Scriptural grace that is to abound over sin?

“But where sin abounded, grace abounded much more.” -Romans 5:20

Where is the grace?

Webster’s 1828 Dictionary defines grace as:

“Favorable influence of God; divine influence or the influence of the Spirit, in renewing the heart and RESTRAINING from sin” (Ephesians 2).

Chaos, how could it be otherwise?

The Government: Where representatives of the American people have taken on the position of the employer rather than the employee, while tearing down the U.S. Constitution and its enumerated laws rather than upholding them as they swore an oath to do so are, at length, destroying our very freedoms.

How many times do American clergy and politicians need to be exposed before they are held accountable to the laws in which they are to magnify?

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

Chaos, how could it be otherwise?

Let me show you the otherwise....

“Hearken (Listen carefully) unto Me, my people; and give ear unto Me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people. My righteousness is near; My salvation is gone forth, and Mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon Me, and on Mine arm shall they trust.” (Isaiah 51:4-5)

“When thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.” (Isaiah 26:9)

“But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth Me, that I am the Lord which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.”

So then, the question falls to each and every one of us, who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? (Psalm 94:16)

School Shooting: False Flag – What History Teaches Us

“It is not a matter of what is true that counts, but a matter of what is perceived to be true.” –Henry Kissinger

Russian Revolutionary Vladimir Lenin said, “The best way to control the opposition is to lead it ourselves,” and leading it they are in America today.

Leading through opposition simply means that if a tragedy is necessary to bring about a means to an end (more gun control), then they will bring it about themselves through False Flag attacks to lead people to the debating table for more gun control (Jeremiah 11:9).

This will continue until the American people realize who and what is behind all of this, which at length, will be full gun confiscation. America, there is NO debate! You have God given rights, not privileges handed down to you by the state. These people work for you, not you for them. Make the distinction for your own sakes.

A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed. -2nd Amendment of the

Bill of RIGHTS

[YouTube Video]

False Flag refers to covert operations designed to deceive; the deception creates the appearance of a particular party (group or nation) being responsible for some activity, disguising the actual source of responsibility.

P.S. False Flag does not mean that people did not die, it just means you must seek out who really committed the act!

Adolph Hitler was notorious for sending in his brown shirts to commit crimes on his orders, and then he would come in behind them only to blame his political opposition for the crimes that he was responsible for committing. He would then play the problem solver so he would look like the savior of the world. However, little did people know that until after the fact. History shows him over and over again as the responsible individual (2 Thessalonians 2:3-12).

[YouTube Video]

If you want to see history in replay simply look to the history of dictators and what it is that they did and how it is that they did it when it comes to their crimes committed against their own people. They always found pleasure in doing the unthinkable in so many different ways. History is, without a doubt, today repeating itself.

In the present, we go from this alleged massacre in Florida with no evidence produced of the shooting spree itself, to a national gun control debate within just a couple of days led by CNN.

Eyewitnesses Alexa Miednik says she spoke to the suspect Nikolas Cruz after hearing gunshots during alleged shooting in another part of the building.

Alexa said, "I kind of joked to him about it and said I'm surprised you weren't the one who did it." She added, "He just gave me a, 'huh?'"

The video has been scrubbed.

Ear witnesses say there were 3 shooters and 2 shooters.

There were three drills during the school day, the third one in which the police told students that they were going to shoot off blanks during the drill while students were to act like it was a real scenario, and magically Nikolas Cruz arrives on the scene during the drill with a weapon. From the EMTs and police being told to stand down during the alleged shooting all the way to the corruption that is now being exposed of that of the Chief of Police and the Broward County Sheriff's office and its corrupt connection, we see something is not right in all of this.

Then right on cue, Facebook, Twitter and YouTube scrub the Internet with any objectionable questions when it came their narrative (Proverbs 18:17).

The media and its allies have a long history of attempting to cover for conspirators. (Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City bombing, Columbine etc.)

[YouTube Video]

Don't forget this lunatic in Florida, namely the sheriff of Broward County who has compared himself to Gandhi, Martin Luther King, Abraham Lincoln, and former Miami Dolphins coach Don Shula, has extensive ties to every corrupt politician known in the USA. Now surfacing are the many cover-ups with Broward County Sherriff Scott Israel (Proverbs 5:22).

[YouTube Video]

We, as a people, have seen corruption coming from every corner of those who call themselves journalists and representatives (in whatever capacity), the lies, and cover-ups and treason (Article 3, Section 3 US Constitution). And now, a blatant attack on anyone that would dare question the narrative is enough to understand who is doing the attacking through authoritarian means.

It is the truth that sets men free (John 8:36), not what we perceive it to be because they said so.

It has been said, "A lie can run around the world before the truth can get its boots on." The fact of the matter is that in this country, with all the light and knowledge that we have been so graciously given by our God, there is no excuse for a lie to take a half of a step (Isaiah 51:4).

Federal And State Protections For Muslims Promoting Death, Torture, Terrorism To Un-Believers In America?

The Law Says Otherwise, So Does Common Sense!

“Islam is not a religion of peace. It’s a political theory of conquest that seeks domination by any means it can.” – Ayaan Hirsi Ali

When it comes to freedom of speech in this country, one should always recollect that no one has the right (No institution of the Church, the government, the media or individuals) to violate law in any sense of the word in what one calls freedom of speech.

“Liberty is the RIGHT to do what the law permits.” – Charles de Montesquieu

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion (Under the Christian umbrella), or prohibiting the free exercise thereof (That which is lawful); or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press, or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.” –First Amendment (cf 2 Corinthians 3:17; John 8:36)

Yet, there are many that have been indoctrinated to believe that whatever you say, and no matter what you say, will be without a lawful consequence (Hosea 4:6).

It is in fact, illegal to defame, to libel, to lie, or to bring about a willful and purposeful inciting of violence toward a people that do not align themselves with an unlawful agenda (Exodus 20).

Taking it head on, is it freedom of speech to teach others to be subversive toward American government? To incite domestic insurrection, terrorizing, torture or the calling forth to execute those that do not believe according to a system of "religion" and governance that is foreign to that of American law?

These 2 videos were both broadcasted in 2009.

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

I hear the two things in these videos that should alarm any American and move them to immediate action concerning what is taking place in our country.

They are protected by legal rights in a country they detest.

CIA operative from CNN Anderson Cooper asks, "How can they get away with this?"

Answer, "They are protected under the First Amendment."

Really?

The second report: Sean Hannity asks, "Why would the United States Government allow these facilities to stay open?"

Answer, "They are protected by the U.S. Constitution and they are protected by state Constitutions."

Really? Law enforcement's hands are tied in trying to shut these groups down?

Sean Hannity asks, "Do you believe that they are planning attacks on American cities?... It's almost unimaginable... You say that they are planning, plotting scheming the next attack against Americans."

Answer, "Not only do I believe that, not only will the people that watch this documentary believe that, even the law enforcement officials that we have spoken with, not the ones in Washington D.C., but the field officers, they believe that. We even had law enforcement tell us that they have weapons of mass destruction."

Government of today that counters American government would have you believe that Muslims have a RIGHT to do so and that law enforcement official's hands are tied from doing anything to stop them because they have federal and state protections.

This may explain why in America there are 35 Jihadi terror cells on American soil, a 74% jump since September 11, 2001 of Muslim Mosques (3,000) and a total of now 3.3 million Muslims in America. And do not forget about the 50 terror attacks on U.S. soil alone because they are all hiding behind what the CIA-controlled media who would have you believe it comes to freedom of speech.

This is COMPLETELY UNTRUE!

Muslims have no more rights to say and do the things that they advocate than the modernized version of the American government has in sanctioning the murder of the innocent in the womb (Proverbs 6:17). This, in parallel, is the American government licensing abortionist "murderers" to kill babies, to the Muslims having a RIGHT to advocate the murder, torture, and terrorizing of unbelievers at will.

Keep in mind, this is the same government and its agencies

telling you that a foreign enemy has a RIGHT to be on our soil and has labeled Americans as potential "Terrorists."

The RIGHTS that God gives Americans are the RIGHTS God Law's permits, not to do what He clearly condemns (Deuteronomy 25:1).

Certain people believe that Muslims have Federal, State and First Amendment RIGHTS backing them concerning advocating their crimes against the American people. This is an attempt by Muslims to come into America to overthrow and establish Sharia law in place of the U.S. Constitution.

Yet, simply look to our Laws which state otherwise.

- Internal Security Act
- 8 U.S. Code § 1324 – Bringing in and harboring certain aliens

Do the Muslims advocate terror, torture, and death? Do they advocate domination? Just let them tell you...

"It is the nature of Islam to dominate, not to be dominated, to impose its law on all nations and to extend its power to the entire planet." –Hassan al-Banna

Islam isn't in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Koran is the highest authority in America, and Islam is the only accepted religion on earth." – Omar Ahmed, The founder of the Council on America-Islamic Relations

"If we are practicing Muslims, we are above the law of the land." Mustafa Carrol CAIR Director Houston, Texas

And your government would have you believe that they have protected RIGHTS to advocate what the Koran says against anyone and everyone that that are "unbelievers."

"And slay them wherever you come upon them, and expel them from where they expelled you; persecution is more grievous than slaying. But fight them not by the Holy Mosque until they should fight you there; then, if they fight you, slay them – such is the recompense of unbelievers.” – Koran 2: 191

“Let not the believers take the unbelievers for friends, rather than the believers – for whoso does that belongs not to God in anything – unless you have a fear of them. God warns you that you beware of Him, and unto God is the homecoming.” – Koran 3:28

“Whoso desires another religion than Islam, it shall not be accepted of him; in the next world he shall be among the losers.” – Koran 3:85

“This is the recompense of those who fight against God and His Messenger, and hasten about the earth, to do corruption there: they shall be slaughtered, or crucified, or their hands and feet shall alternately be struck off; or they shall be banished from the land. That is a degradation for them in this world; and in the world to come awaits them a mighty chastisement...” – Koran 5:33

“I am with you; so confirm the believers. I shall cast into the unbelievers’ hearts terror; so smite above the necks, and smite every finger of them!” – Koran 8:12

“And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them whom you do not know [but] whom Allah knows. And whatever you spend in the cause of Allah will be fully repaid to you, and you will not be wronged.” – Koran 8:60

“O Prophet, urge on the believers to fight. If there be twenty of you, patient men, they will overcome two hundred; if there be a hundred of you, they will overcome a thousand unbelievers, for they are a people who understand not.” – Koran 8:65

“Slay the idolaters wherever you find them, and take them, and confine them, and lie in wait for them at every place of ambush.” – Koran 9:5

“Christians and Jews are perverted. God assail them! How they are perverted!” – Koran 9:30

“O believers, fight the unbelievers who are near to you; and let them find in you harshness; and know that God is with the god-fearing.” – Koran 9:123

“But those who disbelieved will have cut out for them garments of fire. Poured upon their heads will be scalding water.” – Koran 22:19

“So when you meet those who disbelieve [in battle], strike [their] necks until, when you have inflicted slaughter upon them, then secure their bonds.” – Koran 47:4

Again, to suggest that Muslims or otherwise have a Constitutional Right to advocate and to promote murder, torture, and terror on Americans is absolutely ridiculous! Yet, this is what they would have you believe (Judges 5:8). Wake-up!

Warning Went Unheeded, Again!

Tragedy In Florida: A Letter From A Student

"...after the Massacre in Littleton, CO, I realized that as a member of this generation that kills without remorse, I had a duty to challenge all of my elders to explain why they have allowed things to become so bad." – Marcy Musgrave

Just last week, I was taking the time to speak about school shootings and the pharmaceutical companies, as well as the indoctrination taking place in public schools on my national radio broadcast.

[YouTube Video]

I also took the time to bring forth warnings to parents as to what their kids were and are facing and what it is that their kids are being subjected to on a 5-day a week basis in public schools. I shared a letter to the editor from a student warning what would happen if her generation, and those upcoming, were ignored by their parents and elders.

The following letter from college student Marcy Musgrave in the editorial section of the Dallas Morning News on Sunday, May 2, 1999.

Generation NEXT has some Questions I am a member of the upcoming generation—the one after Generation X that has yet to be given a name. So far, it appears that most people are rallying behind the idea of calling us Generation Next. I believe I know why. The older generations are hoping we will mindlessly assume our place as the "next" in line. That way, they won't have to explain why my generation has had to experience so much pain and heartache. "What heartache?" you say. "Don't you know you have grown up in a time of great prosperity?" Yeah, we know that. Believe me, it has been drilled into our heads since birth. Unfortunately, the pain and hurt I speak of can't be reconciled with money. You have tried for years to buy us happiness, but it is only temporary. Money isn't the answer, and it is time for people to begin admitting their guilt for failing my generation. I will admit that I wasn't planning to write this. I was going to tuck it away in some corner of my mind and fall victim to your whole "next" mentality.

But after the Massacre in Littleton, CO, I realize that as a member of this generation that kills without remorse, I had a duty to challenge all of my elders to explain why they have allowed things to become so bad. Let me tell you this: These questions don't represent only me but a Whole generation that is struggling to grow up and make sense of this world. We all have questions; we all want explanations. People may label us Generation Next, but we are more appropriately Generation "Why?"

"Why did most of you lie when you made the vow of 'til death do us part'?" "Why do you fool yourselves into believing that divorce really is better for the kids in the long run?" "Why do so many of you divorced parents spend more time with your new boyfriend or girlfriend than with your own children?"

"Why did you ever fall victim to the notion that kids are just as well off being raised by a complete stranger at a day care center than by their own mother or father?" "Why do you look down on parents who decide to quit work and stay home to raise their children?" "Why does the television do the most talking at family meals?" "Why is work more important than your own family?" "Why is money regarded as more important than relationships?"

"Why is 'quality time' generally no longer than a five-to-10-minute conversation each day?" "Why do you try to make up for the lack of time you spend with us by giving us more and more material objects that we really don't need?" "Why does your work (in the form of a cell Phone, laptop computer, etc.), always come with us on vacations?"

"Why have you neglected to teach us values and morals?" "Why haven't you lived moral lives that we could model our own after?" "Why isn't religion one of the most important words in our household?" "Why do you play God when it comes to abortion?" "Why don't you have enough faith in us to teach us abstinence rather than safe sex?" "Why do you allow us to watch violent movies but expect us to maintain some type of childlike innocence?" "Why do you allow us to spend unlimited amounts of time on the Internet, but still are shocked about our knowledge of how to build bombs?" "Why are you so afraid to tell us 'no' sometimes?" "Why is it so hard for you to realize that school shootings, and other violent juvenile behavior, result from a lack of your attention more than anything else?" Call us Generation Next if you want to, but I think you will be surprised at how we will fail to fit into your neat little category. These questions should, and will, be asked of the generations that have failed us. Written by Marcy Musgrave, a junior at Texas A&M University.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

It is amazing to me that another tragedy like that of the school shooting in Florida on Wednesday has to take place before people awaken to what is happening in our country today. This will, of course, last for 3 to 4 days and Americans will be diverted once again.

The sad fact is that I was refused, for a very short time by a school district in Boca Raton, Florida, not for tearing down their values and what we see in our Constitution, but for reinforcing them.

[YouTube Video]

Young people are illegally indoctrinated by the federal government and then these same politicians, who push for the federal government's illegal indoctrination in public schools, are the first ones to call for gun control after a tragedy occurs. Hopefully, people in this country do realize that a majority of school shootings are in "gun free" zones, which in itself is illegal. Funny how this does not happen in schools with armed guards.

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

Going back, Obama had illegally implemented an extensive overhaul of public education from kindergarten through high school, bypassing Congress (again), the voice of the American people, and inducing states to agree to major changes that none of his predecessors attempted.

Apparently, Barack Hussein Obama, the self-proclaimed "Constitutional Scholar," hasn't taken the time to read Article 10 of the Bill of Rights. The federal government has no business whatsoever in the education of American schoolchildren.

This was all done by implementing Common Core Standards in 46 states and D.C., drowning students with mostly "informational text" and historical documents.

Some of the non-fiction texts that will be implemented into school curriculum are "FedViews," by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco (2009) and "Executive Order 13423: Strengthening Federal Environmental, Energy, and Transportation Management," published by the General Services Administration.

Jamie Highfill, the Arkansas 2011 middle school teacher of the year, said, "I'm struggling with this, and my students are struggling. With informational text, there isn't that human connection that you get with literature. And the kids are shutting down. They are getting bored. I'm seeing more behavior problems in my classroom than I've ever seen."

The curriculum change in public schools has been a downward spiral for many years. America has been so dumbed down that 700,000 students per year graduate without the ability to read their own diplomas.

Add to students' confusion the innumerable amount of errors in school textbooks ranging from misinformation to omission of facts or outright lies. These "errors" can be found in virtually every subject, especially in math, science and history.

Math:

In Texas, the State Board of Education found a total of 109,263 errors in math textbooks reviewed for use in 2008 alone. Yes, I said 109,263 errors. The board had to go so far as to place a possible fine of $5,000 per error found if they were not fixed by spring of the same year.

Science:

In textbooks all across America, science (the study of creation) is well-known for being laced with the dangerous theory of evolution, which wars against Christianity, the Bible, God and His Law, which is the foundation of our republic.

History:

In Virginia, a state review committee found a slew of errors in many history textbooks. A committee of five historians caught errors ranging from the incorrect year John Rolfe married Pocahontas to quotes that do not even appear in historical records. One book illustrated Virginia soldiers in the Revolutionary War wearing red coats, when in fact they wore blue. Another textbook erroneously stated many colonial Americans were illiterate. In fact, literacy rates were extremely high.

Retired Library of Virginia historian Brent Tarter wrote in his review of one textbook, "Our Virginia," "I also found some very significant omissions, some internal inconsistencies, and some erroneous or questionable descriptions and analyses of historical events. Some are so ludicrous and difficult to explain that I cannot understand where the misinformation came from."

[YouTube Video]

Muslim Indoctrination:

In recent years, American public schools have also been indoctrinated with the Muslim religion. Studies have shown over 500 historical errors in public school textbooks, giving an Islamic slant to our youth.

As a result, our youth are subject to the following teachings:

- Learning to become a Muslim
 - Fasting for Ramadan
 - Learning the five pillars of Islam
 - Memorizing verses from the Quran
 - Adopting a Muslim name
 - Staging a Jihad (war against non-Muslims)

[YouTube Video]

Resolve:

As I said, the federal government of the United States of America has no lawful authority over the education of the young.

The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution states, "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

Second, the reason this is happening is that 86 percent of the American people who call themselves Christian conservatives are the ones sending their kids into public schools to be indoctrinated in a worldview they claim they despise.

Proverbs 22:6 says, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

The Lord commanded parents to train their children in the way they should go, not the federal government.

The good news is we still have the freedom to do the right thing. These are our kids, not the federal government's.

As a forewarning, you might want to bless this generation while you have time to do so. If you don't, they will be there to curse you.

"The philosophy taught in the class room in one generation will be the taught in government in the next."

This explains what we are dealing with today. I tried to tell you.

Today's Churches Have Clowns Entertaining The Goats

The Clowns Entertaining the Goats! How do you Justify the Unjustifiable?

The chief danger that confronts the coming century will be religion without the Holy Ghost, Christianity without Christ, forgiveness without repentance, salvation without regeneration, politics without God, Heaven without Hell." –William Booth, Founder of The Salvation Army

It has been brought to the light that there are those in this country that want to make the following Monday after the yearly "Super Bowl Sunday" a national holiday. They have found that more people in this country lie to their bosses using that day as a "sick day" than any other day of the year (Exodus 20:16).

I can see why that may be when it comes to the American church of today, teaching a false grace (Galatians 5:13) and teaching them, or rather not teaching them, what it means to obey the Lord's commands. They are teaching a counterfeit Gospel and have become an absolute embarrassment and reproach to those that are true Christians.

"Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins." -1 Corinthians 15:15-17

"Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." -Jude 1:3-4.

Last week on Super Bowl Sunday, I sent a quote from George Orwell to an acquaintance of mine concerning those that were all caught up into what was going on with sports and how they are simply being controlled, and might I add, enslaved.

"Football, Beer.... filled up the horizons of their minds. To keep them in control was not difficult." -George Orwell

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The response was, "It's a form of entertainment."

However, did you know that the word "tain" is derived from the word entertainment, actually means to stop from entering in?

He went on to say, "When people decide to attend the event, they are exercising their freedom in making that decision."

That's true, but remember that freedom was not given unto us to do what we want to do, but to do what we ought to do.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Then, he attempted to justify the unjustifiable by "Overlooking the deeds of the wicked" (Jeremiah 5:28) such as abortion, sodomy, corruption in our Church and Governmental institutions etc., by saying that these events also provide jobs and cash flow into our economy. Of course, to be taxed more to pay for the abortions on demand (Proverbs 6:17), same sex couples (Leviticus 18:22, 20:13; Romans 1:24 etc.) and ungodly and corrupt politicians. He said it is not my god, it's an activity that brings people together and creates memories.

Let me share with you the memories that it is creating for a godly family. Last week, I took my family to dinner and, of course, wherever you go today, you are surrounded with televisions at every turn to keep you diverted away from the family that you are attempting to spend time with.

My son, who is 12 years old, caught a commentator talking of the Super Bowl and a coach that had the courage to deflect all of the criticisms from the media.

My son then heard them talking of how the players are going to be escorted from the Mall of America to the stadium in Minneapolis (That the tax payers paid for without my approval) which was 9 miles away.

After hearing this, my son blurted out, "They treat them football players like they are rock stars." He said, "Dad, they get paid millions of dollars and our military guys only get paid about $38,000 a year." I responded with, "This is all about diversion and control to keep people entertained from what they should be doing." (John 14:21)

Firstly, courage and the coach is nothing compared to courage on the battlefield. This is about stealing honor from those that are on the field from them that fight to give them the privilege to be there! I also said, "Keep in mind that these are the same football players that refuse to stand for the veterans that paid the ultimate price to give the gift of freedom through their sacrifices for them to even be there in the first place!" (John 3:16)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

And people wonder why Jeremiah 1:16 has to come into play?

"And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands."

This falls to the lot of those that do not understand that their money, their adoration and loud praise that they give up to a bunch of grown up men in tights fighting over a pig ball, is an offense to the God that gave us all things to enjoy.

Then this justifier of the Super Bowl said to me, and I knew that it was coming, "What about the churches that held Super Bowl parties?" He then proceeded to send me his Sunday morning service itinerary. Here it is....

The Salvation Army (not what it was under William and Catherine Booth mind you) February 4, 2018

- Pep Rally –Victory, Victory!
- Game plan-Head Coach speech

- 1st Down- “Believe We Shall Win”
- Halftime-Special Teams Coach speech
- Halftime show-Victory in Jesus!
- Unifying the Team-Prayer focus
- 2nd Down-Awesome God
- Message from the Sponsor-Pep talk: The Playbook
- Message from the owner- Are You a Super Bowl Christian?
- 3rd Down-Jesus Shall Conquer
- Victory Celebration-Defensive Coordinator speech

Now after looking at this itinerary, we can clearly see at every given step of the way, its aim is the Super Bowl football game!

Remember, Exodus 20:4:

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image!

A god to suit your sins, that does not, in fact exist (John 8:24).

Did it lead you to the cross of Christ? (Matthew 16:24) or set Christ crucified before your ears and eyes? (1 Corinthians 1:23) Did it command that you “Come out from among them?” (2 Corinthians 6:14-18) or the Baptism into Christ? (Galatians 3:26-27) Did it teach you that we are to be witnesses of the resurrection by the power of the Holy Ghost? (1 Corinthians 15:17) Absolutely not.

Oh, how right the Prince of Preachers Charles Spurgeon was when he said, “A time will come when instead of shepherds feeding the sheep, the church will have clowns entertaining the goats.”

DACA: Judicial Activism – Teeing It Up For Sonia Sotomayor

“When plunder becomes a way of life for a group of men in a society, over the course of time they create for themselves a legal system that authorizes it and a moral code that glorifies it.” – Frédéric Bastiat

It has been said by Alexander Hamilton that “...the judiciary, from the nature of its functions, will be the least dangerous to the political rights of the Constitution...The judiciary is, beyond comparison, the weakest of the three departments of power...and the general liberty of the people can never be endangered from that quarter.”

How far backwards have Americans fallen? To see this quote in the light of what is happening today is unbelievable. It's unbelievable in the fact that the American people have allowed Injustices not Justices to commit lawless acts in the face of plain Constitutional law.

The Judicial branch in this country has now become renowned for gutting the pith and marrow of the laws that they are to simply discover and apply. As if to suggest that somehow today's "Justices" are above the law, the laws mind you, that they are to uphold, not tear down (Psalm 94:20).

William Blackstone Commentaries on the Laws of England said,

"Man, considered as a creature, must necessarily be subject to the laws of his Creator, for he is entirely a dependent being...This law of nature, being co-equal with mankind and dictated by God Himself, is of course superior in obligation to any other. It is binding over all the globe, in all countries, and at all times: no human laws are of any validity, if contrary to this; and such of them as are valid derive all their force, and all their authority, immediately, from this original."

Furthermore, "The Judges, both of the Supreme and inferior Courts, shall hold their Offices during good Behavior..." (Article 3, Section 1, US Constitution – They are to be removed for bad behavior. Article 2, Section 4, US Constitution)

[YouTube Video]

Well then, tolerating these injustices is simply the reflection of the people of this country.

"When there is a lack of honor in government, the morals of the whole people are poisoned.” – President Herbert Hoover

DACA- The Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals was an American immigration policy that allowed some individuals who entered the country as minors, and had either entered or remained in the country illegally, to receive a renewable two-year period of deferred action from deportation and to be eligible for work.

DACA has protected about 800,000 illegal immigrants. The program includes hundreds of thousands of college-age students.

Question: If parents sneak their kids into Disney World and get caught, does Disney let the kids stay for FREE? Absolutely not! But corrupt politicians do not want you to look at it this way. Then what is the issue? (Deuteronomy 28:43)

Furthermore, DACA is unconstitutional.

The information coming out from the CIA-controlled media about Chuck Schumer’s house being surrounded and amnesty being demanded for illegal aliens is being funded and advocated by George Soros and his paid actors and activists. This is only a push by the media to get a demand from the American people to move on this issue of DACA. They create the problems and come behind them as the problem solvers.

I would also like to point out that Barack Hussein Obama, five minutes before his presidential inauguration said that he wanted to “fundamentally transform America,” and for 8 years, the American people let him transgress the US Constitution from the first week to the last day of his administration.

He transgressed the Constitution over 1,180. So, when I hear supporters of Donald Trump make excuses for why he has not fulfilled his promises yet because the process may take a little more time, you are simply barking up the wrong tree. Donald Trump has the law on his side, Barack Hussein Obama did not and he still did as he pleased!

Look what happens when you go into Mexico illegally.

As you may know, Breitbart reported that Paul Ryan's first major legislative achievement was a total and complete sell-out of the American people masquerading as an appropriations bill.

(1) Ryan's Omnibus Fully Funds DACA

Though much of the public attention has surrounded the President's 2014 executive amnesty, the President's 2012 amnesty quietly continues to churn out work permits and federal benefits for hundreds of thousands of illegal aliens. Paul Ryan's bill funds entirely this 2012 executive amnesty for "DREAMers"— or illegal immigrants who came to the country as minors.

Specifically, Division F of Ryan's omnibus bill contains no language that would prohibit the use of funds to continue the President's unconstitutional program. Obama's executive action, known as Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), has granted around 700,000 illegal aliens with work permits, as well as the ability to receive tax credits and federal entitlement programs. A recent GAO report documented how this illegal amnesty program for alien youth is, in large part, responsible for the illegal alien minor surge on our southern border.

In 2013, Paul Ryan said that it is his job as a U.S. lawmaker is to put himself in the shoes of "the DREAMER who is waiting" and works to find legislative solutions to his or her problems.

Which then leads us to none other than Sonia Sotomayor.

The Blaze reported:

Sotomayor's time at Princeton takes up much of the book, but her account of her alma mater left a lot out, especially her involvement in left-wing politics and an explicitly anti-white club.

In fact, despite her self-description as “more as a mediator than a crusader” on racial and political issues, the archives of Princeton show that it was just the opposite.

According to The Daily Princetonian, Sotomayor even “helped shape” Princeton’s affirmative action practices and used her position as a student judge to advance a left-wing agenda.

As a sophomore, Sotomayor, then co-chairman of the Puerto Rican student group Accion Puertorriquena, filed an April 1974 complaint with the New York office of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) demanding that Princeton do a better job recruiting Latino administrators, faculty, and students. She delivered not one, but two letters to the president of the university calling for explicit quotas and timetables for Latino students, faculty, and administrators—and got results.

“Over the next few years, the University established new hiring and recruitment practices that gradually changed the ethnic makeup of the faculty as well as the student body,” wrote The Daily Princetonian in 2009.

Sotomayor demanded more Latinos on campus. She condemned Princeton’s administrators for showing “a total absence of regard, concern, and respect” for Latinos and accused them of organizing “an attempt—a successful attempt so far—to relegate an important cultural sector of the population to oblivion” in a letter to the editor in May 10, 1974.

Sotomayor saw an “Institutional pattern of discrimination” at Princeton. Later in a 1996 speech, she described the complaint as Princeton’s “Affirmative action failures” and the ensuing pro-racial preferences as results. “A short time later, Princeton hired its first Hispanic assistant dean of students.”

Third World Center:

While Sotomayor’s book mentioned her involvement with the Third World Center (TWC), she left out that the group’s politics were laced with anti-American and anti-white rhetoric. Its constitution and founding documents made this clear, as does a 1976 document from the TWC. “Oppression breeds resistance,” the students wrote in protest of the decision by Princeton University to reduce the TWC’s funding. “The history of the peoples of the Third World, who have suffered from U.S. Imperialism, and of the oppressed nationalities within the United States—Afro-Americans, Puerto Ricans, Chicanos, Asians, and Native Americans, has been a history of oppression and resistance.”

The TWC’s anti-white position was demonstrated in November 1984, when the group’s board demanded that non-white students should have the right to bar whites from their meetings on campus. They also demanded minorities-only meetings with the deans. (John Hurley, “Black students, university debate closed meeting policy,” The Daily Princetonian, November 29, 1984).

The legacy of the Third World Center continued after Sotomayor graduated. In fact, future First Lady Michelle Obama would later serve on its board. Almost a decade later, the political tone of the TWC was expressed in the group’s 1984 constitution with the following language: “We define the term ‘Third World’ as those nations and people who have fallen victim to the oppression and exploitation of the world economic order,” wrote the preamble. “This definition includes the peoples of color in the United States, as they too are victims of a brutal and racist socio-economic structure perpetuated by those who still exploit such groups as Asians, Blacks, and Latinos and who still occupy the homelands of the Puerto Rican, Mexican, Native American, and Alaskan peoples.”

While careful in her book not to associate with the “Down with whitey” attitudes of many Latino students, Sotomayor wasn’t so circumspect in a speech she gave before the TWC on November 7, 1996, entitled, “The Genesis and Needs of an Ethnic Identity.”

So, I ask you Americans, “Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee?” (Psalm 94:20)

Remembering that such thrones may plead a right divine, but their claim is groundless, a fraud upon mankind and a blasphemy of heaven. God enters into no alliance with unjust authority (Romans 12:21). God gives no sanction to unrighteous legislation.

Either your God-given rights are going to be stripped away by corrupt injustices, or you are going to impeach them, prosecute them, and replace them to ensure a future for your posterity.

Unifying The People Under God Will Expose And Drive-Out The Enemies Within

“Pit race against race, religion against religion, prejudice against prejudice. Divide and conquer! We must not let that happen here.” -Eleanor Roosevelt

The media, corrupt politicians, modern revisionists, indoctrinated teachers and professors to intentionally or unintentionally, advertently or inadvertently, relentlessly try to divide America so they can assume all power over the people (Mark 3:25). It would be wise on the behalf of the American people to pull the curtain back on what the United States Constitution says and what it is that the founding documents have within in their pages.

For example, look at the over 100 different party affiliations. There is the Constitution party, the Socialist party, the Republican party, the Democratic party, the Independent party, the Libertarian party, the Green party, the Progressive party etc. There is even a Legal Marijuana Party. Hmmm.

It's as if to suggest that anyone that would like to recreate our Constitution by tearing it down and reinventing or redefining our American form of government can do so at will. Ridiculous. Why is there so much division?

We are a Constitutional Republic. We are a country ruled by Law, not the opinions of men and their distorted interpretations (Article 4, Section 4, US Constitution).

Do you not remember that John Adams, the second president of the United States of America, warned of this type of division as the greatest political evil under our Constitution?

"There is nothing which I dread so much as a division of the republic into two great parties, each arranged under its leader, and concerting measures in opposition to each other. This, in my humble apprehension, is to be dreaded as the greatest political evil under our Constitution." – John Adams

Do remember what President James Buchanan said concerning stability and from where it comes.

"There is nothing stable but Heaven and the Constitution."

James Wilson, United States Founding Father, Signer of the Declaration of Independence, Signer of the Constitution, and the Original Justice of the United States Supreme Court appointed by George Washington said:

"Human law must rest its authority ultimately upon the authority of that law which is divine. Far from being rivals or enemies, religion and law are twin sisters, friends, and mutual assistants. Indeed, these two sciences run into each other."

Now, crossing over into the Church, it is interesting to note the hundreds of denominations in the American Church today. You have the Lutherans, the Catholics, the Wesleyans, the Presbyterians, the Baptists, the Anglicans, the Episcopalians, the Methodists, the United Church of Christ and the list goes on and on.

Why so much division? We are to follow the Christ (1 Corinthians 11:1) and are to keep His Commandments (John 14:21), not the commandments of men which make the Lord's commandments void (Matthew 7:13).

The Church is doing the same thing when it comes to all of its denominations as the government is with all of its different parties and affiliations. All these denominations are man's different interpretations of what God clearly said (Exodus 20). They simply want to remove the cross (1 Corinthians 1:18) and create a Jesus that looks just like them rather than conforming to Jesus as He is and not how they want to make Him out to be (1 John 2:6).

I have one answer to both of these issues (Colossians 2:8). We have one God in whom we serve though our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and one Constitution in which we follow. Our job is to conform ourselves to both the Law of God and His Word and to the one Constitution, which was established in our nation to make and keep us free. The Bible says in Ephesians 4:14:

"That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive..."

What has happened? Man has created, to his own demise (Psalm 5:10), something called deconstructionism.

What is deconstructionism?

Deconstructionism is a philosophical and critical movement that started in the 1960s that questions all traditional assumptions about the ability of language to represent reality and emphasizes that a text has no stable reference or identification because words essentially only refer to other words and therefore a reader must approach a text by eliminating any metaphysical or ethnocentric assumptions through an active role of defining meaning, sometimes by a reliance on new words, and other word play.

In other words, create and define words at will, whatever you say it says, and declare whatever you think it means.

[YouTube Video]

You hear this in political talk on a 24-7 basis, but let's go into the Church where you may go to a Bible study and hear some biblical illiterate ask, "What is your interpretation of that Scripture?"

Keep in mind there is a difference between those that are born of the Spirit and of those that are born of the flesh (John 3:6; 2 Corinthians 3:4-6; Galatians 4:29).

Those that are just immature and uneducated in the things of the Lord, Peter wrote:

"In which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction." (2 Peter 3:16)

It is almost as if to suggest that the Holy Ghost has not given us the clear interpretation, which He has!

The bottom line is:

"He who has not felt what sin is in the Old Testament knows little what grace is in the New. He who has not trembled in Moses, and wept in David, and wondered in Isaiah will rejoice little in Matthew, and rest little in John. He who has not suffered under the law will scarcely hear the glad sound of the Gospel." –R.W. Barbour – 1900

This also explains the watering down, revision and the redefinitions of words, as well as the softening down of the countenance and character of our Founding Forefathers and of the scriptural Christ and His disciples.

First, if you were to put anyone of our Forefathers up to any of the modern day politicians, you will see the sharp contrast in their character.

Roger Sherman, signer of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution said, "Sad will be the day when the American people forget their traditions and their history, and so longer remember that the country they love, the institutions they cherish, and the freedom they hope to preserve, were born from the throes of armed resistance to tyranny, and nursed in the rugged arms of fearless men."

Instead of betraying their own people, they were fighting to empower them, to give them a hope and a future (Jeremiah 29:11).

Historian Alice Baldwin said in 1918, "The Constitutional Convention and the written Constitution were the children of the pulpit."

The preachers of the founding era were feared by the tyrant King George across the pond, as he named them the Black Robed Regiment, which they wore as a badge of honor.

"The ministers of the Revolution were, like their Puritan predecessors, bold and fearless in the cause of their country. No class of men contributed more to carry forward the Revolution and to achieve our independence than did the ministers. ... [B]y their prayers, patriotic sermons, and services [they] rendered the highest assistance to the civil government, the army, and the country." – Historian B. F. Morris, 1864

"Mighty men they were, of iron nerve and strong hand and unblanched cheek and heart of flame. God needed not reeds shaken by the wind, not men clothed in soft raiment [Matthew 11:7-8], but heroes of hardihood and lofty courage. ... And such were the sons of the mighty who responded to the Divine call." –Bishop Charles Galloway, 1898

{YouTube Video}

And now to the Christ (John 14:6).

In the minds of most Americans, and thanks to the modern day hirelings who have no business occupying any pulpit in any capacity (John 10:12), they have somehow pictured Jesus wearing pink booties, patting sheep on the back and telling them that everything will be okay when nothing could be further from the truth.

It's shameful how people today do not even know the difference.

Leonard Ravenhill said:

"The early church was married to poverty, prisons, and persecutions. Today the Church is married to prosperity, personality, and popularity."

When the Lord asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I am?" they said, "Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." (Matthew 16:14)

Keep in mind that Scripture identifies the Christ.

"For He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes." (Matthew 7:29)

Furthermore, He is described as the Lion of the Tribe of Judah. (Revelation 5:5) and His message was Repent (Matthew 3:2).

For the most part, the image of Jesus Christ that people have in their minds is backwards and clearly unscriptural.

It is like that of John Wesley, the great English field prophet, who preached 90% law and 10% grace (Galatians 3:24).

John was kicked out of the Church for confronting the heretical teaching of the day, which God used to push him to the masses (John 16:2).

It was said that after John Wesley's death, the painted pictures of him were too rough in countenance. So, instead of painting John Wesley for who he was and what he looked like, they simply accommodated the self-professed religious hypocrites of the day by painting an effeminate and softened down version of John Wesley which you see today (Matthew 11:8).

To further prove the point of this softening down of men who spoke the truth and were real leaders, let's turn to Hip Hop Artist Chuck-D who said of Martin Luther King Jr.:

"I don't like the fact that when people look at Dr. King and the millennium, there's a year by year softening of his image like he wasn't radical, you had to have a radical view point just to be able to stand in the face of oppression and take it to a physical level if need be."

Remember, Martin Luther King Jr. said, "I must admit that I was initially disappointed in being so categorized (as an extremist). But as I continued to think about the matter, I gradually gained a bit of satisfaction from being considered an extremist. ... [Was not] Abraham Lincoln [an extremist]: 'This nation cannot survive half slave half free.' [Was not] Thomas Jefferson [an extremist]: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.' So the question is not whether we will be extremists, but what kind of extremists will we be. ... Will we be extremists for the preservation of injustice or [will we be extremists] for the extension of justice?"

I say this to those who have eyes to see and ears to hear (Matthew 13:15).

We must continue in "endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all." (Ephesians 4:3-6)

Never let us be guilty of sacrificing any portion of truth that will unite us on the altar of a false peace which will, at length, divide us!

New Civil Rights Hero-The Oppressed Victim of Circumstance, Colin Kaepernick?

"I am not going to stand up to show pride in a flag for a country that oppresses Black people and people of color." - Colin Kaepernick

If you remember, the controversy started when Colin Kaepernick, who rejected reality while giving himself over to the propaganda, refused to stand for the national anthem during a pre-season National Football League game. At the same time, Colin was protesting "racism" while supporting all 5 members of the race-baiting, hate group "Black Lives Matter."

Don't forget, friends, Colin was adopted by white parents.

Telling NFL.com:

"I am not going to stand up to show pride in a flag for a country that oppresses Black people and people of color."

Webster's 1828 Dictionary defines "oppressed": Burdened with unreasonable impositions; overburdened; depressed.

Oppressed, really? Colin's life proves the opposite. In fact, he signed a $114 million contract with the NFL.

Apparently, Colin has failed to remember that those he calls oppressed live in America where they have the opportunity to become what they work to become (2 Thessalonians 3:10).

As a matter of fact, take a quick look at others that are oppressed as the "victim of circumstance," Colin Kaepernick.

- The National Football League has 68% black, 0.7 Latinos, 1.1 Asian and 28% white.
- The National Basketball Association has 74.4 % black, 23.3 % white, 1.8 % Latinos and 0.2 % Asian players.

Oppressed? I think not!

Colin also might want to take the time to take note of the fact that those who followed his lead in disrespecting the American flag just happen to be criminals.

[YouTube Video]

Colin went on to say, "To me, this is bigger than football, and it would be selfish on my part to look the other way. There are bodies in the street and people getting paid leave and getting away with murder..."

That is would be admirable if Colin had his facts straight.

According to the USA Crime Statistics (Crime Statistics Bureau- San Francisco)

- Blacks killed by whites- 2%
- Blacks killed by police- 1%
- Whites killed by police-3%
- Whites killed by blacks- 81%
- Blacks killed by blacks- 97%

During a press conference, where the “useful idiots” in the media were eager to make him a fellow propagandist, Colin added insult to injury to his own message by wearing a shirt which had photographs of the 1960 meeting of former Cuban dictator Fidel Castro and Malcolm X that read, “Like Minds Think Alike.”

And to think that Olympian John Carlos would look to Colin Kaepernick to be this generation’s civil rights leader. How irresponsible and reckless can one be? (Matthew 15:14; Hosea 4:6)

Friends, you cannot make this up.

The modern day civil rights wannabees and “demoralizers of the faith,” include not only Kaepernick, but also Al Sharpton, Jesse Jackson, and yes, don’t forget the new “Civil rights champion,” Oprah Winfrey. Their definition of rights comes with a god that looks just like them (Exodus 20:4).

Dr. Alveda King spoke on a television show about her uncle, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and the power of nonviolence. She shared that every participant in the civil rights marches in the 60’s was required to sign a pledge before they could participate.

1. Meditate on teachings of Jesus daily.
2. Remember that the non-violent movement seeks justice and

- reconciliation, not just victory
3. Walk & talk in the manner of love/charity, for God is love.
 4. Pray daily to be used by God.
 5. Sacrifice personal needs. Greed has to go out the window.
 6. Observe with both friend & foe the ordinary rules of courtesy.
 7. Seek to perform regular service for others and for the world.
 8. Refrain from the violence of fist, tongue or heart.
 9. Strive to be in good spiritual and bodily health.
- Follow the directions of the movement and of the captain of the demonstration

What a great pledge for us to commit to in our daily lives! If enough of us would commit to this, maybe we could dramatically impact our world for the better.

[YouTube Video]

However, the self-made civil rights leaders of today have left off their Bibles and their morals, as they debase themselves and reap nothing but mockery and reproach.

Let me contrast the original pledge with the modern version of the pledge, as demonstrated by their actions:

1. Meditate on the media and anything but the teachings of Jesus.
2. Civil disobedience to just laws, through force, in hopes of an unjust victory.
3. Walk and talk in the manner of thuggery/pride
4. Play the race card as you are enslaved through deception by a godless administration daily.
5. Sacrifice the needs of others. Gain is the goal.
6. Send threats to those with whom you disagree.
7. Seek to have it your way at all costs; lie if necessary.

8. Use fear and force.
9. Strive to take from others because you deserve what you take!
 - Follow the directions of an unconstitutional and unlawful administration.

[YouTube Video]

Here is the good news, Jesus Christ settled the issue over 2,000 years ago when He died on the cross. He died to save sinners, and it is for us to respond accordingly (Acts 2:38).

"We must learn to live together as brothers and sisters or we will perish together as fools."

The Grooming Of Oprah Winfrey: Setting The Stage

"Just because you're not using N word, harboring Ill will toward black doesn't mean you're not racist." –Oprah Winfrey

If you remember right, it was one month ago that I had stated on my radio program, "You can mark my words. They will attempt to put Oprah Winfrey in the peoples' White House in some capacity."

And now, we are here.

Before we begin, I need to make one quick point before going into detail. From coast to coast, from city to city, from state to state, and from first-hand experience, I do not see what the CIA-controlled media is continuously spewing out when it comes to racial issues which, for the most part, are a thing of the past.

This is an issue that is water under the bridge and does not belong to the up and comings of the last 6 decades. Yet, there is an all-out attempt to use people of a revengeful nature, who have never experienced what they decry, in an attempt to bring about more division.

They found this is one such person, Oprah Winfrey.

First, I would like to make you aware of what President Roosevelt said back in the 1930's.

"In Politics, nothing happens by accident, if it happens, you can bet it was planned that way."

He is also known for saying:

"Presidents are selected, not elected." (Jeremiah 11:9)

Let me show you how this works. Do you not remember when Oprah Winfrey did a show with Donald Trump while planting the seeds back in 1988 concerning the possibility of a run for the presidency?

[YouTube Video]

Apparently, the favor had been returned when Donald Trump was asked by Larry King, "Do you have a vice presidential candidate in mind?"

"Oprah, I love Oprah," Trump replied. "Oprah would always be my first choice."

[YouTube Video]

People need to understand that Oprah has been groomed over the past decades and has been placed in this position for reasons that are now unfolding before your very eyes (Matthew 4:9).

Let me ask you, how do you know who Oprah Winfrey is? Did you come to know her via the aisle at the grocery store, where her magazines are placed right before your eyes, or was it the 25 years of exposure on her television program, which aired from September 8, 1986 to May 25, 2011? Or is it Oprah's new position as a correspondent for 60 Minutes?

If television was not the source that she was exposed to you on, maybe it was the movies?

- The Hundred Foot Journey (Movie) 2014
- Selma (Movie) 2014
- The Great Debaters (Movie) 2007
- Oprah Winfrey Presents: Their Eyes Were Watching God (TV Show)
- Their Eyes Were Watching God (TV Show) Beloved (Movie) 1998

Somehow, Oprah is now dominating the Golden Globes. Where she is being pushed as a candidate for the 2020 presidential run.

Everyone, for the most part, knows who Oprah Winfrey is. The CIA-controlled media would have you know who she is. After all, they have labeled Oprah as the "most influential woman in the world!"

Do not forget that these are the same people that have given her the exposure needed, as well as the opportunities that have been taken advantage of by getting her into the position that she now enjoys (Mark 8:36).

Do you see where this is going? Good, let's now talk of her possible run for the people's White House.

Do an internet search on her run for the presidency and you will find the major networks are reporting in a supportive and favorable manner for a run in 2020.

NBC honors Oprah Winfrey as "our future president."

[YouTube Video]

When looking to Oprah Winfrey, that is when she is not paling around with Harvey Weinstein or George Soros, one must consider her overwhelming support for the most corrupt administration in the history of America, criminal and "race baiting" Barack Hussein Obama (Proverbs 26:8).

Remember, "Birds of a feather, flock together."

[YouTube Video]

Also, we can see that the apple does not fall too far from the tree when they all have the same divisive talking points: Oprah Winfrey, Barack Hussein Obama, Al Sharpton, Jesse Jackson, Colin Kaepernick. What is the difference?

[YouTube Video]

Pay close attention to what Oprah has been spewing out over the years leading up to the present?

The Washington Examiner reported:

A correspondent for the BBC asked her if she felt that racism was the reason some Americans opposed Obama and his policies. Oprah, the one person responsible, more than any other, for Obama being president, of course said yes.

But she said much more than that. Specifically, she said this when asked if the problem of racism in America had been solved:

"Of course the problem [of racism] is not solved. ... As long as there are people who still— there's a whole generation — I say this, you know, I said this, you know, for apartheid, South Africa, I said this for my own, you know, for my own community in the South — there are still generations of people, older people, who were born and bred and marinated in it, in that prejudice and racism, and they just have to die."

In one quick, thoughtless breath, Oprah added another tenet to Libthink: Not only are all racists white, but they also need to "just die," every last one of them.

It is of interest to note that the media promotes Oprah as the "voice for the people."

Apparently, she means to be the voice for the people of color as she attempts to drive the wedge of division among all people (Acts 17:26; Matthew 12:25).

These revengeful people are in a struggle for power, what they fail to realize is, black power is just as dangerous as white power. BEWARE Americans.

Finally, let me be clear that there is nothing wrong with success. Oprah Winfrey's net worth of $3.2 billion, I'm sure, was hard-earned. I understand that one does not get to the top of the mountain by falling there, but the fact of the matter is that you have anti-American forces in place that support her every move and position, and those forces are aimed at "fundamentally transforming" this country (Isaiah 5:20).

Media's Propaganda Of Biblical Proportions And Barack Obama

"All propaganda has to be popular and has to accommodate itself to the comprehension of the least intelligent of those whom it seeks to reach."

Breitbart recently reported that former President Barack Obama took the title of "Most Admired Man" for the tenth consecutive year in a row, and former first lady and secretary of state Hillary Clinton is the "Most Admired Woman" for the 15th consecutive year in a row, according to a Gallup poll.

This is clearly nothing short of propaganda.

prop·a·gan·da

präpə'gandə/

derogatory information, especially of a biased or misleading nature, used to promote or publicize a particular political cause or point of view.

Propaganda, in this case, is an attempt to cause the readers to believe that they have the support of the masses, which they do not.

Remember their tactics America:

"Power is not only what you have, but what the enemy thinks you have." – Saul Alinsky, "Rules for Radicals: A Practical Primer for Realistic Radicals," p. 126

The truth of the matter is that the headline should have stated, Barack Hussein Obama (Soetoro Sobarkah), the "Most Despised Man" in America, and Hillary Clinton, the "Most Despised Woman" in America.

First of all, there is Barack Hussein Obama, the person with 47 different Social Security numbers. This is the person who has his Harvard Law School, Columbia College, and Occidental college records sealed. He is the person who has his Illinois State Senator records sealed, Illinois State Bar records sealed, his Client List sealed, Punahou School and financial records sealed, Noeiani Elementary records sealed, name change records sealed, marriage license between father and mother sealed, records of Obama's mother's repatriation as US citizen on return from Indonesia sealed, his adoption records, baptism records all sealed.

And he is the most admired man in America, according to this report? No one knows who he is except for what they have seen him do and it is not admirable in any sense of the word. Just think Americans, he campaigned on transparency (2 Corinthian 11:14-15).

[YouTube Video]

I reported on August 18, 2014,

CNN's president resigned last year due to the low viewership it received. Maybe this will shed some light as to why he resigned: Amber Lyon, former news anchor for CNN, said she was ordered to report fake stories, delete unfriendly stories adverse to the Obama administration and construct stories in specific manners while working for the left-wing network. Lyon said CNN is paid by U.S. and foreign governments for reporting on some events and not reporting on others. She also stated that the Obama administration pays for CNN content.

The New York Times actually blurted out the truth in their confusion (to their credit, I might add) that all information coming out of the Obama administration is first vetted.

Or what about MSNBC? I'm sorry I even have to bring them into the equation, but their slogan during the election campaign happened to be "Lean Forward," which is directly derived from the communist playbook. MSNBC parades people like radical lesbian Rachel Maddow, the shameful uncivil rights want-to-be leader Al Sharpton and Chris "It's a terrible place to be when your brains are in someone else's head" Matthews.

Nothing could be further from the truth!

Don't you remember that in the 2010 elections, 63 Democratic representatives were unseated?

Do you remember that Barack Hussein Obama had to move the 2012 Democratic Convention from a 74,000-seat arena to a 20,000-seat arena, and he still couldn't fill the seats by giving away free tickets?

Do you remember when it was reported in Milwaukee that people filled up an 18,000-seat arena to see Barack Hussein Obama, when in fact there were only 5,000 seats available?

Do you remember that 70 percent of Obama's Twitter followers were found to be fake accounts, created out of thin air?

Do you remember when Stevie Wonder couldn't get 200 people to show up for a fundraiser for Barack Hussein Obama?

Did you forget that during the re-election inauguration there weren't even enough people in Washington, D.C. to fill up the hotel rooms?

And of course, you surely haven't forgotten the massive voter fraud that took place in the United States in the last election.

Communist dictator Josef Stalin said, "Those who cast the votes decide nothing. Those who count the votes decide everything."

Who supported Barrack Hussein Obama then? Well, the homosexuals do for one, who make up less than 1.7 percent of the population – the very ones who are being used as a political battering ram only to make way for Shariah law (They just haven't realized that yet).

Planned Parenthood supports him, only to be used as a political battering ram to eradicate human life under the guise of "choice" (Which in truth is population control).

In effect, Obama's support only comes from those who are at war with our Constitutional Republic and those who are at war with God who gave us our rights to establish our Constitutional Republic (Exodus 18:21).

Without the United States, countries like Cuba, Venezuela, China, Russia, the Muslim Brotherhood, etc. have expressed their support for Obama as well.

Furthermore, why are the illegals so important to Obama if he has all that support?

No wonder this administration sees fit to “Lean Forward” to open the floodgates to illegal immigration. So, does this administration have the support you might think they have?

Absolutely not!

The Gallup poll, which has been conducted every year since 1946, asked respondents to name their top two picks for most admired man and woman.

Pope Francis, who even though he is becoming more despised by the Catholic Church on a daily basis, mysteriously followed with three percent of the vote, and Rev. Billy Graham came in fourth with two percent of the vote.

Adding insult to injury, the poll also mentioned other political, business, and religious leaders, including “Songbird” Senator John McCain (R-AZ), Microsoft co-founder Bill Gates, the Dalai Lama, and Tesla CEO Elon Musk.

For the woman, it again was reported that Hillary Clinton topped the list for “Most Admired Woman” – a title she has held onto for the past 15 years.

However, Gallup notes that she may not hold onto this title in future years because her polling numbers were at their lowest in 15 years and are unlikely to improve as her political career is “likely over.”

Where did all of that support come from to support those polls America?

I’ll tell you, out from the offices of the propagandists.

What has been reported concerning this poll and what the facts truly are, are in stark contrast to what we found.

When going to Facebook alone, what pops up are pages such as

"Hillary Clinton Sucks," "Hillary Clinton is WRONG for America," and several titled "HILLARY CLINTON FOR PRISON."

Even more telling was that when Clinton was in her position as Secretary of State, the Associated Press reported that the State Department was buying Facebook "likes."

In 2013, the State Department, which has more than 400,000 likes and was recently most popular in Cairo, said it would stop buying Facebook fans after its inspector general criticized the agency for spending $630,000 to boost the numbers. In one case, its fan tally rose from about 10,000 to more than 2.5 million.

But that isn't all. When Hillary opened up her campaign in Iowa, there were actually more reporters who attended than voters.

Clinton's Iowa campaign kickoff event roused a whopping 22 people! National Journal reports:

Gone are the soaring speeches and the big rally crowds, swapped out for roundtable discussions and meet-and-greets with local activists.

But the dozens of reporters both in the room and chasing after her van outside were a reminder of just how difficult it will be for one of the most recognizable public figures in the world to hold events that truly feel intimate.

On Tuesday, for example, Clinton was seated at a table with just seven other people for the discussion, with an audience of another 15. But those Iowans were far outnumbered by the dozens of reporters who were bunched together behind a thin yellow rope at the back of the room.

Indeed, despite some limits on the number of press credentials handed out by Clinton's Iowa team—each outlet had one person in the room, and national television and photography was pooled—it still was a big group. Bigger yet was the press crowd outside, where reporters who weren't admitted to the event chased Clinton's van when it first pulled up here, contributing to the feeling of a media circus surrounding the former Secretary of State's Iowa launch.

Clinton joked about the horde of reporters as the event opened, telling the seven-roundtable participants: "Well, thank you for having me here—and a few of my friends."

That is not all friends. According to her Twitter account, as of April 14, 2015, Clinton had 3,351,547 Twitter followers.

However, as the Daily Mail reports:

According to two popular online measuring tools, no more than 44 percent of her Twitter fan base consists of real people who are active in using the social media platform. And at least 15 percent – more than 544,000 – are completely fake.

Brazenly and shamelessly it was reported that former first lady Michelle Obama took the runner-up slot, with seven percent of the vote, while Oprah Winfrey took third place with four percent. Gallup surveyed 1,049 adults from December 4–11 with a four percent margin of error.

It absolutely amazes me that the American people continually fall into the talking points of the media that they decry as nothing short of what it is that they are, "Propagandists" (Jeremiah 5:21).

The New Administration's Push For War

"Mankind must put an end to war before war puts an end to mankind." –President John F. Kennedy

Yesterday, while I was drudging through the Christmas season of waiting for it all to be over with so I can get back to work, and while on hold, I turned on the conservative radio only to hear the "same old, same old" when it comes to warmongering to prepare the American people for another war.

I heard a former adviser to former Vice President Dick Cheney grilling the American people on what they need to do concerning the monster that has been cast into the minds of the American people by the media in North Korea named Kim Jong-Un.

His talking points were far too familiar. Kim Jong's "weapons of mass destruction" were mentioned and how they will be used against us if we do not respond immediately to the threat from the dictator across the water.

Ever since I can remember, there has been war after war, administration after administration, decade after decade, and generation after generation. Enough of war, I say.

Don't get me wrong. I will be the first to stand with the righteous if there is a justifiable war (2 Chronicles 19:2-3), though I hate violence.

The adviser's talking points seemed well rehearsed. He seemed skilled in coercing the people into another war (Ecclesiastes 1:9).

Furthermore, his talking points sounded like someone pushed the replay button for the war against Iraq (Ecclesiastes 1:9).

Then again, he knows that his former boss' Halliburton made $ 39.5 billion on the Iraq War and he also knows how to speak the language of creating a new war with the same old war tactics.

General Douglas MacArthur said of the United States government back in 1957:

"Our government has kept us in a perpetual state of fear – kept us in a continuous stampede of patriotic fervor – with the cry of grave national emergency. Always there has been some terrible evil at home or some monstrous foreign power that was going to gobble us up if we did not blindly rally behind it. ..."

You would think that this is what America was told by the president on Sept. 11, 2001. It was.

This may help many understand as to why Bush, Cheney and Rumsfeld are also considered war criminals in other countries.

Getting back to North Korea, according to CBS News:

North Korea's envoy in charge of U.S. affairs at the United Nations demanded Washington provide evidence to back up its claim that Pyongyang was behind the WannaCry ransomware attack, an allegation he said was a "baseless provocation" being used to generate tensions.

Pak Song Il told The Associated Press in a telephone interview from New York late Monday that Pyongyang sees the allegation as an effort to create an "extremely confrontational atmosphere." "If they are so sure, show us the evidence," he said.

I agree. Let this be a live conversation between the two countries in conflict in an open televised forum. This will leave it to the people as to what is actually taking place.

How many times has the American government been exposed for self-inflicting attacks and in generating wars, creating political opposition, winning public opinion with approval to attack the opposition that they created?

Let's go to Vietnam, for an example:

The Gulf of Tonkin incident (Vietnamese: Sự kiện Vịnh Bắc Bộ), also known as the USS Maddox incident, was an international confrontation that led to the United States engaging more directly in the Vietnam War. It involved either one or two separate confrontations involving North Vietnam and the United States in the waters of the Gulf of Tonkin. The original American report blamed North Vietnam for both incidents, but eventually became very controversial with widespread claims that either one or both incidents were false, and possibly deliberately so.

On August 2, 1964, the destroyer USS Maddox, while performing signals intelligence patrol as part of DESOTO operations, was pursued by three North Vietnamese Navy torpedo boats of the 135th Torpedo Squadron. Maddox fired three warning shots and the North Vietnamese boats then attacked with torpedoes and machine gun fire. Maddox expended over 280 3-inch and 5-inch shells in a sea battle. One U.S. aircraft was damaged, three North Vietnamese torpedo boats were damaged, and four North Vietnamese sailors were killed, with six more wounded. There were no U.S. casualties. Maddox "was unscathed except for a single bullet hole from a Vietnamese machine gun round".

It was originally claimed by the National Security Agency that a Second Gulf of Tonkin incident occurred on August 4, 1964, as another sea battle, but instead evidence was found of "Tonkin ghosts" (false radar images) and not actual North Vietnamese torpedo boats. In the 2003 documentary The Fog of War, the former United States Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara admitted that the August 2 USS Maddox attack happened with no Defense Department response, but the August 4 Gulf of Tonkin attack never happened. In 1995, McNamara met with former Vietnam People's Army General Võ Nguyên Giáp to ask what happened on August 4, 1964 in the second Gulf of Tonkin Incident. "Absolutely nothing", Giáp replied. Giáp claimed that the attack had been imaginary.

Ninety-four percent of the American people do not believe the CIA-Controlled media, who has a long history of lying, defaming, contriving, fabricating and creating war, and putting innocent people into a false light.

In the video below, take a look beginning at the 1:14 mark where a CNN operative is creating a false narrative inside a green room, acting out that the war in Saudi Arabia is inevitable.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Consider that Congress, who as of November 8, 2017 only has the support of 13% of the American people. These are the same people who work hand in glove with the CIA-controlled media against our Republic.

How is it that these two corrupt institutions, who have a history of lying to you, are now telling you the truth when it comes to the crimes of other countries and their leaders?

Remember, liars have a history of lying and in every war the first casualty is always the truth (John 8:44).

The American government and its role in this country have become as foreign to Americans, in many cases, as foreign countries are to us.

Yet, the push for war is relentless. American military brass in this country have now declared war with Korea as inevitable.

Americans, I want to tell you that our Forefathers left us an example when it comes to war. If a war was worth fighting, they were the first ones to lead the way.

"First in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

These famous words about George Washington come from a eulogy written by Henry Lee.

In the present, the corrupt media, along with corrupt politicians are working together for those who profit from war to convince you to send your granddaddies, daddies, uncles, cousins, brothers, and neighbors to do their fighting for them.

“Military men are just dumb, stupid animals to be used as pawns in foreign policy.” –American diplomat and Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger

Little did the people take the time to know that:

“Our boys were sent off to die with beautiful ideals painted in front of them. No one told them that dollars and cents were the real reason they were marching off to kill and to die.”
Two-time Medal of Honor recipient Major General Smedley Butler

You have been warned America (Ezekiel 33).

On January 17, 1961, President Eisenhower warned the American people about the Military Industrial Complex.

CNN’S “Useful Idiot” Jake Tapper Cheerleads Muslims To Serve In American Government

“Human law must rest its authority ultimately upon the authority of that law which is divine. . . . Far from being rivals or enemies, religion (Christian faith) and law are twin sisters, friends, and mutual assistants. Indeed, these two sciences run into each other.” – James Wilson, U. S. Supreme Court Justice & signer of the Constitution

Before we get to the pith and the marrow of this important topic of countering revisionist and CNN “Useful Idiot” Jake Tapper concerning a “religious test,” we must first understand that the term “religion” to the Forefathers always fell underneath the umbrella of the Christian faith (Lutheran, Catholic, Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Methodist, Wesleyan, Baptist etc... Not Hindu, Islam, Buddhist, etc.)

For example, if I were to go to India, I would expect them to rule according to their religious beliefs of Hinduism, and they do.

If I went to China, I would expect them to rule according to their religion of Buddhism, and they do.

If I went to a Muslim nation, I would expect that they would oppress through their religious totalitarian methods of Sharia law, and they do.

Furthermore, do you suppose for one minute that Barack Hussein Obama would have been elected president or given a pass to entertain America's enemies within the people's White House or to “fundamentally transform” America if he did not profess to be a Christian? No way.

So, in America, a Christian nation, it should come as no surprise to rule according to the Mosaic Institution, and so we do (Exodus 18:21).

[YouTube Video]

[Facebook/CNN Video]

As you can see, Jake Tapper questioned Roy Moore's comment in which he stated that a "Muslim" should not be allowed to be a member of Congress, by asking why and under what Constitutional provision?

What are you saying Jake, that some representatives are to uphold our enumerated Laws and some are okay to transgress and destroy? Is that somehow permissible?

This is what he is clearly stating. If there is no vow to serve "We the People" honestly, being held accountable before the One true God, then what will be the consequence?

"If only Muslims were clever politically, they could take over the United States and replace its constitutional government with a caliphate." -Siraj Wahhaj Countering this lunacy...

"And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without (Christian) religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious (Christian) principle." – Charles Carroll, signer of the Declaration of Independence

Maybe, Muslim cheerleader Jake Tapper has mysteriously conjured up that those who mean to conquer and destroy this country have the freedom to do so. Apparently, Mr. Tapper does not realize that his freedoms come from one God and His Son, Jesus Christ (John 8:36; 2 Corinthians 3:17).

According to many ignorant Americans, Freedom of Religion now means whatever they want it to mean, and that to their own demise (Proverbs 26:27), even when it runs antithetical to our Constitutional Republic, which is based upon the Mosaic institution called Common Law.

Though they may be afforded asylum here, those individuals that come to America should be processed into American society, by being properly vetted to assimilate to our ways of life before they serve anybody.

[YouTube Video]

Common sense does come into play here.

First, it is clear that our rights come from the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Second, remember that our Right-Giver did not give us a right to transgress His law (1 John 3:4) and serve other gods (Exodus 20:3-5).

Furthermore, America is a self-professed Christian nation and to do otherwise will bring about war within the gates (Judges 5:8).

Jake Tapper then goes on to tell his guest, "You don't actually have to swear in on a Christian Bible, You can swear in on anything really, I don't know if you knew that?"

Did anything, or did someone bestow His blessing's on this country? (Acts 14:17)

Just think of that.

This communicates to the people and those who represent them that we are not accountable nor obligated to uphold the laws of the Lawgiver, who saved us from our sins (Matthew 1:21) and maintains our freedoms, which feeds into a system of anarchy while giving power to the state.

Jake Tapper clearly has an evolutionary view of government.

Is this the example set before us by the American founders of this country? Absolutely not!

Here, in part, are some of the oaths of affirmation in America before one could serve.

Delaware Constitutional requirements for men in office:

"I do profess faith in God the Father, and in Jesus Christ His only Son, and in the Holy Ghost, blessed forevermore..."

Pennsylvania's Constitution:

"I do believe in One God, the Creator and Governor of the universe, the rewarder of the good and the punisher of the wicked..."

The Massachusetts Constitution is along the same lines.

North Carolina's Constitution:

"No person who shall deny the being of God, or the truth of the {Christian} religion, or the divine authority whither of the Old or New Testaments, or who shall hold religious principles incompatible with the freedom and safety of the state, shall be capable of holding office, or place of trust or profit in the civil department, within the state."

Every state in our American union starts out acknowledging, guess who? You got it!

[YouTube Video]

The Constitution

The Senators and Representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this Constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States. – Article 6, Section 3, US Constitution

Let's tear down \(Judges 6:25-32\) the revisionists and their purposefully distorted version of what our Founders have clearly bestowed upon us.

[YouTube Video]

BTW, Wikipedia also has a No Religious Test Clause on their site in accordance with the lies of the American Civil Liberties Union. It stated:

This clause is cited by advocates of separation of church and state as an example of the "original intent" of the Framers of the Constitution to avoid any entanglement between church and state, or involving the government in any way as a determiner of religious beliefs or practices. This is significant because this clause represents the words of the original Framers, even prior to the Establishment Clause of the First Amendment.

Remember, founder of the ACLU Roger Baldwin said, "Communism is the goal."

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

It comes to this: These media outlets, useful idiots, and organizations clearly fly in the face of everything that we are.

Either we are one nation under God, or we are one nation gone under! (Psalm 33:12)

To Resign With A Slap On The Hand Is NOT Enough! Prosecution Must Commence

"Regardless of what branch of government, office or party affiliation, the law applies to each and every one of us!"

Last week, I wrote that there must be consequences when it comes to false accusers, and this week I want to show you that there must be consequences when it comes to those who are guilty.

[YouTube Video]

We all must keep in scope that the purpose of government is to "restrain men from sin" (breaking the law), enforce God's standard of "right and wrong" and to "maintain order." Knowing this, how does one accept what is happening in American Government in the present?

Recently, Al Franken \(D-MN\) simply chose to resign after being accused of inappropriately touching multiple women before and after he was a senator and photos are easily accessible. An Ethics Committee investigation was already underway.

Facing multiple allegations of sexual harassment, Rep. John Conyers \(D-MI\) simply chose to resign as Congresses longest-serving member Tuesday, becoming the first lawmaker to step down as Capitol Hill grapples with allegations of inappropriate behavior by lawmakers.

Conyers, who represented the Detroit area for 52 years, yielded to mounting pressure from representatives to step aside as a growing number of female former aides accused him of unwanted advances and mistreatment. He has denied wrongdoing.

Arizona Republican Rep. Trent Franks announced in a statement Thursday night that he will simply resign from Congress at the end of January, after the House Ethics Committee said it would investigate allegations against him of sexual harassment.

Wow, they are uncovered (Luke 12:2) for their offences toward our laws and when found out, they simply choose to resign without fear of the consequences (Proverbs 29:15).

A mere slap on the hand is a signal of encouragement to the next violator of law in line to do the same in their criminal endeavors (Luke 22:48).

The last to resign amid a scandal was Sen. John Ensign \(R-NV\), in 2011, who quit during an investigation by the Ethics Committee into his affair with a former campaign staffer who was married to a Senate staffer.

Before that, Sen. Robert Packwood \(R-OR\) resigned after being recommended for expulsion amid accusations of sexual abuse in 1995.

Going even further back, Sen. Harrison Williams D-NJ) resigned in 1982 after being recommended for expulsion after a bribery conviction. This list of criminals is only the tip of the iceberg.

Here is a list of federal politicians convicted of crimes!

Where have the American people accepted the notion that public servants, who have been placed into public trust and have transgressed American laws, must simply resign after their criminal violations rather than face justice as to the laws they broke, as if to suggest that this will somehow appease the crime? It only encourages more crime.

There is a higher trust placed in the individual that serves "We the People."

Therefore, if they violate that trust by breaking the law, then there is a higher consequence that they must pay for their transgressions.

The President, Vice President and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors. – Article 2, Section 4 US Constitution

Asking them to resign is like hiring a banker that turns out to be a bank robber, and then after their crimes are discovered, you ask the bank robber to simply return the money and go find another job. He will merely go to another bank and then repeat the crime all over again.

You do not ask for a resignation. You fire him and call the police and have them prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law for the crimes committed. We should be deterring the crime, not encouraging it (Proverbs 16:6).

Americans need to understand that where justice is left off, it will create repeat offenders and so it has and will continue to do so unless the remedy is applied (Isaiah 26:9).

[YouTube Video]

If this is not done, it will destroy this country, regardless of wh0 the guilty party is, for Justice guards American liberties (Isaiah 51:4).

[YouTube Video]

Sickness Pays, Even When You Are Not sick

“The system is designed to create chronic disease. There’s no money in being healthy. There is no money in being dead. All the money is in being chronically ill. ”

-Dr. Irvin Sahni MD

After traveling from Boise, Idaho to Missoula, Montana to Orlando, Florida then onto Houston, Texas, we have tallied up about 150 ministry hours of driving over the last 6 weeks. With that, comes a toll on your physical body, and it caught up with one of my family members, at least for a minute. Let me explain.

Keep in mind, there is a balance between a natural/holistic remedy and western medicine. I have always been cautious when it comes to either side of the aisle. It seems that without fail, fear of not using either of their remedies is always what is pushed until you submit, and I for one will not go down that road.

During our final tour this last month, one of my family members had told me that her eyes were becoming blurry and that she could not see the road signs which were relatively close. Thinking that she only had to have her contacts replaced, she set up an appointment the following day when we would arrive at our next stop. Upon examination, the doctor stated that she had a drastic change in her visual tests. The doctor then said that the only time that she sees such a big change is when someone has diabetes, which we were not going to own. This family knows who the Healer is (Acts 10:38).

The doctor went and purchased a blood test, which revealed that her blood was up about 152 mg/dl higher than it should have been. After receiving her new contacts, the eye doctor then suggested going to the emergency room as soon as possible.

So, we set up an appointment the following Monday at the local clinic. Of course, by this time, I had plenty of time to ponder as to what was going on. Flags were already going up at every turn.

When we finally arrived for the scheduled appointment, the nurse wanted to take a blood test. The nurse took the first blood test and then suggested another, and we consented. After the blood tests were done, we were told that the blood needed to be sent to the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota, which was going to take at least a week for results to come back in.

Before we knew it, the nurse told us that she had good news for us.

She begins to tell us that she didn't think that it was this or that, or even the other thing but that my family member has type one diabetes and that she will have to be on insulin for the rest of her life.

I asked, "What was good about that dim prognostication?"

Furthermore, I asked how she could have come up with a prognostication that she had type one or two diabetes and how it was that she could make that diagnosis without getting all the blood results?

At this point, we knew that she was taking directives from someone in that clinic. Sincere as she was, she was lost; she continuously stumbled over as to how she was making this unsubstantiated claim. She ended up seeing the point we were making with our questions.

A couple of minutes later, she comes in with a "deep concern" as to what might be happening with our family members pancreas and that she now needs to take a couple of pictures to see what may be blocking insulin from getting into her blood and wouldn't you know it, out of nowhere comes in another nurse to start to "teach her how to use insulin twice a day for the rest of her life."

At this point, I got on the phone with an EMT and a nurse that we trusted and told them what was going on. I discovered that though diabetes is not to be played with, we were dealing with a system that is not about healthcare, but rather looking to create productivity and to match and connect a diagnosis with insurance codes to tap into the money.

How many of these young, sincere nurses and doctors get out into their field only to find that they are being used to be salesmen and women for the pharmaceutical companies who make billions every year off the sicknesses that they simply misdiagnose and therefore, are guilty of creating?

At this point, I told this nurse, who by the way had no business bringing this grim diagnosis, what her suggestions were and that we were not going to do anything until we had more information.

Of course, more fear comes from this nurse as to the importance of getting hooked on their remedy because if not, our family member may become blind, and possibly may even die, which we were not buying.

The long of the short of it is that we got to an experienced and caring doctor who told us that this lady had no business giving any diagnosis, that insulin was not the answer, and it would be remedied after a little rest, a good diet and exercise.

So, before taking the doctor's word for any diagnosis that may come down the pipe (There is a reason that they call it "practice") which pushes you to dependency on the medical and pharmaceutical industry, you may want to take a step back, read and listen carefully as to what the woman that pressed into Jesus knew from experience.

"And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any, Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd. And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace." (Luke 8:43-48)

The lists of fraud in the medical industry are astounding, to say the least. Below are some incredible links for you to review.

Muslim Mosques – Military Bases in America?

The mosques are our barracks, the domes our helmets, the minarets our bayonets and the faithful our soldiers...” –Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan

Recently, I was watching a video of former F.B.I. agent John Guandolo talking about the “Islamic Terror” attacks in America that have taken place since September 11, 2001.

During his exposition on “Islamic terror” within American borders, he brought up the question as to what would you think if a foreign country established military bases here in America.

Muslims are establishing Mosques in America, which is the same thing.

It is a sign of conquering, and as you know, out of their own mouths, the Muslims are not coming into America to assimilate, they are here in an attempt to dominate.

Furthermore, this is what they are taught to do through the teaching of the Koran.

"It is the nature of Islam to dominate, not to be dominated, to impose its law on all nations and to extend its power to the entire planet." –Hassan al-Banna

"Islam isn't in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Koran is the highest authority in America, and Islam is the only accepted religion on earth." – Omar Ahmed, The founder of the Council on America-Islamic Relations

"If we are practicing Muslims, we are above the law of the land." Mustafa Carrol CAIR Director Houston, Texas

What is even more disturbing is that the number of Mosques in the United States has jumped up to 74% since September 11, 2001.

The US survey 2011 counted a total of 2,106 as compared to 1,209 in the year 2000.

As of 2016, there are as many as 3,000 mosques in America, with a total number of 3.3 million Muslims residing in this country.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The slow siege (Deuteronomy 28:43), of course, comes on the heels of the CIA-controlled media doing their lying best to sell Muslims (On the heels of the homosexuals that are being used to help upend American Sovereignty) to the American people not only as the victims, but also the advocates of a peaceful religion (Judges 5:8).

The victims? The religion of peace? Really!

Below are some verses taken directly from their book of peace, the Koran.

And slay them wherever you come upon them, and expel them from where they expelled you; persecution is more grievous than slaying. But fight them not by the Holy Mosque until they should fight you there; then, if they fight you, slay them – such is the recompense of unbelievers – Koran 2: 191

Let not the believers take the unbelievers for friends, rather than the believers – for whoso does that belongs not to God in anything – unless you have a fear of them. God warns you that you beware of Him, and unto God is the homecoming. – Koran 3:28

Whoso desires another religion than Islam, it shall not be accepted of him; in the next world he shall be among the losers. – Koran 3:85

This is the recompense of those who fight against God and His Messenger, and hasten about the earth, to do corruption there: they shall be slaughtered, or crucified, or their hands and feet shall alternately be struck off; or they shall be banished from the land. That is a degradation for them in this world; and in the world to come awaits them a mighty chastisement,... – Koran 5:33

‘I am with you; so confirm the believers. I shall cast into the unbelievers' hearts terror; so smite above the necks, and smite every finger of them!' – Koran 8:12

And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them whom you do not know [but] whom Allah knows. And whatever you spend in the cause of Allah will be fully repaid to you, and you will not be wronged. – Koran 8:60

O Prophet, urge on the believers to fight. If there be twenty of you, patient men, they will overcome two hundred; if there be a hundred of you, they will overcome a thousand unbelievers, for they are a people who understand not. – Koran 8:65

Slay the idolaters wherever you find them, and take them, and confine them, and lie in wait for them at every place of ambush. – Koran 9:5

Christians and Jews are perverted. God assail them! How they are perverted! – Koran 9:30

O believers, fight the unbelievers who are near to you; and let them find in you harshness; and know that God is with the god-fearing. – Koran 9:123

But those who disbelieved will have cut out for them garments of fire. Poured upon their heads will be scalding water. – Koran 22:19

So when you meet those who disbelieve [in battle], strike [their] necks until, when you have inflicted slaughter upon them, then secure their bonds. – Koran 47:4

It amazes me how Americans are trying to figure out how all of this is happening to their country when Scripture is very clear in the matter as to why....

"I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;

And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:

I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror...Leviticus 26:13-16

The answer, Matthew 3:2.

There Must Be Consequence For False Accusations

*Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.
–Deuteronomy 19:19*

It seems that over the last couple of weeks the CIA-controlled media has, once again, succeeded in diverting the American people's attention away from The Clintons' Uranium Ore scandal to the fall guys that are conveniently picking up the attention for their sexual promiscuities in office, and that, at a most opportune time, Al Franken, Bill Clinton, Dan Schoen, Tony Cornish and the list goes on.

And these were the ones that have been caught!

Hopefully, this will bring to the light why this country is in the serious trouble that it is in (Psalm 9:17).

These corrupt politicians have been so emboldened to take taxpayer dollars in an attempt to cover up their sexual misconduct.

It is their job to uphold the laws of our Constitutional Republic, not tear them down (Article 4, Section 4 of the United States Constitution).

In a time where the media has declared the guilty as innocent and the innocent as guilty, it is hard, at times, playing the arbiter when it comes to who is guilty and who is not. Yet, for the most part, when the media declares someone innocent, it usually means that they are attempting to protect the establishment players such as the Bushes, the Clintons, the Obamas, etc... And when they declare someone guilty, you can rest assured, that they are the innocent that are bearing the accusations (John 15:20).

Last week, I wrote that the very ones who are accusing the innocent are the very ones who are guilty of the crimes.

These are the corrupt politicians who are attempting to ruin men of good character while attempting to keep them out of the Washington D.C. machine.

One such individual is Judge Roy Moore.

Conveniently, at a time when Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell was becoming unhinged at the prospect of Roy Moore winning the senate seat for Alabama, out of nowhere come Roy Moore's accusers.

*Deborah Wesson Gibson was an interpreter for Hilary Clinton presidential campaign. (Enough said)

Joe for America reported, The now infamous “Yearbook Signing” that Gloria Allred trotted out yesterday, along with the accuser who gave the worst acting to come out of California in decades, has multiple problems that prove it to be fake.

Then we have Darrel Nelson, the stepson of Judge Roy Moore accuser Beverly Young Nelson, who says the allegations are all lies. Nelson says he is baffled by the timing of the sexual advancement claims and voices his staunch support for the Alabama GOP Senate candidate.

“I’ve known the woman, she married my father many, many years ago. I’ve known her for a while now, and I truly do not believe that she’s being honest about this,” said Nelson.

“You, Mr. Moore, your wife, I apologize for whatever reasons she is doing this,” he added. “I am truly sorry... I stand behind you 100%!”

“To my stepmother, whatever reason you did this, I have a few questions on this,” he continued. “Why did you wait so long if this did happen? You said you were a teenager when it happened, but here it is now, how many years later? And all of a sudden you’re going to bring it up when we voted him into the House and you trying to get him [taken] out? I’m not going to have.”

Later, Nelson acknowledged that he knew he was going to get backlash from his family, but said clearing up the false allegation is worth the trouble.

“I don’t believe a word she says, but I do believe [Moore] is innocent.”

I do not believe a word of it either, and neither do the American people. This is why he was up 15 points in a recent poll concerning his run for senate.

What is important here is that when the dust settles, and these accusers are found to be false witnesses, which is a violation of law, it is not for the good of the people in this country to slap these accusers on the hand and let them go and accuse someone else. These false accusers are attempting to destroy the lives of innocent men, period.

Look at the Life of Brian Banks “Guilty unit proven innocent!”

And the consequences of the accuser!

Our Founding Forefathers Did Not Tolerate False Witnesses

I discovered that our founding forefathers did not tolerate in the least degree those who bore false witness. I wrote...

Just down the street in Williamsburg were the head and arm restraint stocks, which were located right outside of the local courthouse. A historian and re-enactment actor was outside educating the people who had questions.

One question asked was: “What is the head and arm restraint stocks for?” The actor said that before and after the revolution, the local magistrates would administrate Ecclesiastical Law (Romans 13).

She went on to tell us that crime was not tolerated in the least bit by the colonies because they understood the price paid to establish their freedoms (John 15:13). The stocks were used for those who would lie or commit the act of perjury (lie under oath, Revelation 21:8).

The criminal would be punished by being thrown in jail for up to six months (1 John 3:4). A fine would have to be paid, and this all took place after their head and hands were placed in the stocks as a means of public punishment.

First, they would bind them, take the criminal's ear and nail it with a long nail to the stock for one hour. After that hour was up, they would then go to the other side and nail the other ear to the stock for one hour.

When removing the nails, they would often slit the ear completely off, marking the offender so other colonies, as well as other cities or states, would understand that the person was not to be trusted. Thus, they fulfilled the true definition of "Earmark."

She ended with saying that it was to teach the person to repent before God so he would not end up in hell (Matthew 3:2; Leviticus 19:17).

Can you imagine the "earmarks" we would see today in the American church, government or in businesses if these laws were still enforced? How they loved their freedoms by demonstrating zero tolerance for crime (Deuteronomy 23:14).

One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong;

Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the Lord, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days;

And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother;

Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you.

And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you.

And thine eye shall not pity; but life shall go for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Consider The Source America! Accusers Are Guilty

All politics formed against Christ and His Gospel end at last in the destruction of those who contrived them. –George Whitfield

It never ceases to amaze me of the absolute criminal conduct of the state-controlled media that continuously puts the cameras and microphones up to the mouths of corrupt politicians who are doing everything in their power to protect the establishment that is attempting to destroy not only Judge Roy Moore, but this country as well.

Keep in mind that those who are accusing Moore have been busted time and time again in lie after lie and scandal after scandal.

[YouTube Video]

Setting the CIA-controlled media aside, which 94% of Americans claim that they do not believe (Romans 1:18), let's cut to the chase and address those who are personally accusing and attacking Roy Moore (Revelation 12:10).

[YouTube Video]

This is only the tip of the iceberg...

Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell said Monday that Republican candidate for US Senate Roy Moore should end his campaign for U.S. Senate in Alabama, following allegations.

“I think he should step aside,” said McConnell.

When asked by a reporter if he believed the allegations, McConnell responded: “I believe the women, yes.”

Well that’s interesting Mr. McConnell.

Let’s now take a look at McConnell himself.

We have all known for some time that many politicians have been engaged in drug trafficking while playing the hypocrite and advancing the “war on drugs.” It’s was reported (Not by the mainstream media) that the Ping May, a cargo vessel owned by the in-laws of Kentucky Senator Mitch McConnell, was boarded by Colombian inspectors and they discovered roughly ninety pounds of cocaine in forty separate packages.

The Nation reports:

The seizure of the narcotics shipment in the Caribbean port occurred far away from Kentucky, the state in which Senator Mitch McConnell is now facing a career-defining election. But the Republican Senate minority leader has the closest of ties to the owner of the Ping May, the vessel containing the illicit materials: the Foremost Maritime Corporation, a firm founded and owned by McConnell’s in-laws, the Chao family.

Though Foremost has played a pivotal role in McConnell's life, bestowing the senator with most of his personal wealth and generating thousands in donations to his campaign committees, the drug bust went unnoticed in Kentucky, where every bit of McConnell-related news has generated fodder for the campaign trail. That's because, like many international shipping companies, Chao's firm is shrouded from public view, concealing its identity and limiting its legal liability through an array of tax shelters and foreign registrations. Registered through a limited liability company in the Marshall Islands, the Ping May flies the Liberian flag.

McConnell's ties to the Chaos go back to the late 1980s, when James Chao began donating to the senator. In 1993, McConnell married James's daughter, Elaine Chao, a Republican activist and former Reagan administration official who would later serve as secretary of labor in the George W. Bush cabinet. James Chao immigrated to the United States from Taiwan, and founded the Foremost Maritime Corporation upon settling in New York. The company has grown significantly over the years, from acting as maritime agent during the Vietnam War to controlling a fleet of approximately sixteen dry-bulk cargo ships in operation today.

Or how about traitor Senator John "Songbird" McCain?

He said of Roy Moore, "The allegations against Roy Moore are deeply disturbing and disqualifying. He should immediately step aside and allow the people of Alabama to elect a candidate they can be proud of."

Let me remind you of a piece of Songbird's history.

The Keating Five were five United States Senators were accused of corruption in 1989, igniting a major political scandal as part of the larger Savings and Loan crisis of the late 1980s and early 1990s. The five senators – Alan Cranston, Dennis DeConcini, John Glenn, John McCain, and Donald W. Riegle, Jr.

– were accused of improperly intervening in 1987 on behalf of Charles H. Keating, Jr., Chairman of the Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, which was the target of a regulatory investigation by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board (FHLBB). The FHLBB subsequently backed off taking action against Lincoln. Lincoln Savings and Loan collapsed in 1989, at a cost of over $3 billion to the federal government (taxpayers). Some 23,000 Lincoln bondholders were defrauded and many investors lost their life savings. The substantial political contributions Keating had made to each of the senators, totaling $1.3 million, attracted considerable public and media attention. After a lengthy investigation, the Senate Ethics Committee determined in 1991 that Cranston, DeConcini, and Riegle had substantially and improperly interfered with the FHLBB's investigation of Lincoln Savings, with Cranston receiving a formal reprimand. Senators Glenn and McCain were cleared of having acted improperly, but were criticized for having exercised "poor judgment."

Mitt Romney said, "Innocent until proven guilty is for criminal convictions, not elections. I believe Leigh Corfman. Her account is too serious to ignore. Moore is unfit for office and should step aside."

This is the same guy that fooled enough of those who call themselves Republicans that he was their candidate.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

WOW! What he told these Republicans is the very opposite of what he did (Matthew 7:16).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Just think, America, these are the ones who have been exposed and were caught.

Criminals mock society's laws.

Your compassion for them for their crimes is a weakness that your enemies do not and will not share. Criminals thrive on the indulgences of society's understandings. The corrupt depend upon you in your ignorance of the Constitution and the embodiment of its laws.

When you live in darkness, the only light you have is truth. It would do us all well, America, to stick to the light that not only exposes, but refuses and deals with the darkness (Ephesians 5:11).

Benjamin Franklin rightly said, "A nation of well-informed men who have been taught to know and prize the rights which God has given them cannot be enslaved. It is in the religion of ignorance that tyranny begins."

Finally, to those who want to play folly with the children of the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and our Lord Jesus Christ, you may want to take a minute to ponder your next move before doing so (Psalm 2; Proverbs 26:27; Matthew 16:17-19; 2 Thessalonians 1:6).

Thomas Lye confessed, "I had rather stand against the canons of the wicked than against the prayers of the righteous."

That is a lesson the wicked will relearn once again, and very soon.

"Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us. He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision." – Psalm 2:1-5

The best way to restore public faith in government institutions is to send “Hillary to prison” unless the first lady’s crimes are seen to go unpunished, everyday Americans will forever know, deep down, that there is lawless standard for those with money and power (that the people have delegated) and another for the rest of us.

First we were told by Donald Trump that he would appoint a “special prosecutor” to look into crooked Hilary Clinton for her crimes against Americans.

Then, Donald Trump declares that she should be jailed for her crimes against Americans.

Within one minute of his presidential victory speech he tells Americans owe Hillary a major debt of gratitude for her service to our country.

Donald Trump then flipped on prosecution of Hillary Clinton after his Whitehouse win.

Then, Americans were told by Donald Trump that he does not “want to hurt the Clintons.”

Now, Donald Trump is telling you that he is frustrated he can't order the DOJ to investigate Hillary.

[YouTube Video]

“But you know the saddest thing, because I’m the President of the United States I am not supposed to be involved with the Justice Department. I am not supposed to be involved with the FBI,” Trump told WMAL host Larry O’Connor. “I’m not supposed to be doing the kinds of things I would love to be doing and I’m very frustrated by it.”

As Tim Brown, senior editor at The Sons of Liberty Media stated, “Not supposed to be involved in the Justice Department? Sir, you are the Justice Department, according to our Constitution!”

Yet, for all of this double talk, and flip flopping going back and forth, the modern day conservative (yesterday’s lawless liberals) wants to stand behind him in agreement that he just has no business in doing anything in prosecuting the Clintons or anyone else for that matter.

Let me get this straight, criminals in government can break the law, but the President cannot enforce the law?

The president can send forth America’s finest (military) into a third world country without congressional (you and me) approval in some unconstitutional war like many of his predecessors have done and yet, he cannot bring justice to criminals within the ranks of our own government?

Presidents can pardon treasonous criminals before leaving office and yet, the sitting President cannot enforce the law against political criminals at the highest levels?

Take a look at Bill and Hillary's pardon list...

Tim Brown, senior editor at The Sons of Liberty Media.com went on to say:

Furthermore, Mr. President, the Constitution does not even mention the Justice Department. It mentions your office as the only thing under the Executive Branch. Therefore, the buck stops with you. If you demand that AG Sessions appoint a special investigator in the matter, then he should follow those instructions. If he does not, he should be removed, plain and simple.

Our Constitution is clear on the duties of the president and it isn't really any of those things he mentioned in the interview with 60 minutes. Those things might questionably fall under the authority of Congress in legislation, but the execution of the law falls squarely in the lap of the president.

As we have previously noted, here are the duties of the president under the US Constitution.

Art. I, Sec. 7, cls. 2 & 3, grants to the President the power to approve or veto Bills and Resolutions passed by Congress.

Art. I, Sec. 9, next to last clause, grants to the executive Branch – the Treasury Department – the power to write checks pursuant to Appropriations made by law – i.e., by Congress.

Art. II, Sec. 1, cl.1, vests “executive Power” [see below] in the President.

Art. II, Sec. 1, last clause, sets forth the President’s Oath of Office – to “preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States”.

Art. II, Sec. 2, cl.1:

- makes the President Commander in Chief of the armed forces when they have been called by Congress into the actual service of the United States.
- authorizes the President to require the principal Officers in the executive Departments to provide written Opinions upon the Duties of their Offices.
- grants the President power to grant Reprieves and Pardons for offenses against the United States, but he can not stop impeachments of any federal judge or federal officer.

Article II, Sec. 2, cl. 2 grants to the President the power:

- to make Treaties – with the advice and consent of the Senate.
- to nominate Ambassadors, other public ministers and Consuls, federal judges, and various other officers – with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Article II, Sec. 2, cl. 3 grants to the President the power to make recess appointments, which expire at the end of Congress' next session.

Art. II, Sec. 3:

- Imposes the duty on the President to periodically advise Congress on the State of the Union, and authorizes the President to recommend to Congress such measures as he deems wise.
- Authorizes the President, on extraordinary Occasions, to convene one or both houses of Congress [e.g., when he asks Congress to declare War]; and if both houses can not agree on when to adjourn, he is authorized to adjourn them to such time as he deems proper.
- Imposes the duty upon the President to receive Ambassadors and other public Ministers.
- Imposes the duty upon the President to take care that the Laws be faithfully executed, and
- Imposes the duty upon the President to Commission all the Officers of the United States.

Notice that next to the last point in bold type. It's part of his oath of office, which is in the Constitution and he must recite as follows:

"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my Ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

It has been stated that unless Hillary Clinton (and government corruption) is dealt with, America is over. Republics are destroyed for allowing corruption to continue on without consequence.

Knowing that Justice Guards our liberties (Isaiah 51:4), this is true!

It has also been rightly stated that the best way to restore public faith in government institutions is to send "Hillary to prison." Unless the first lady's crimes are seen to go unpunished, everyday Americans will forever know, deep down, that there is a lawless standard for those with money and power (that the people have delegated) and another for the rest of us.

Mr. President, "Soft judges produce hardened criminals!"

Read and learn.

Corrupt Politicians Are Helping Make Way For Muslims To Attack America

"If tyranny or oppression every come into this country it will come in the guise of fighting a foreign enemy." –President James Madison

In light of the recent attacks in Manhattan, New York, one might ask as to how this is happening in America after September 11th, 2001.

What do I mean? With all of the bureaucracies that have been created and sold to the American people as to help secure and safeguard them, you would think that we are safer now more than ever. Nothing could be further from the truth.

What is happening to America from within could have NEVER happened from a foreign enemy without (Leviticus 26:15).

Foreigners could only have dreamed of doing what corrupt politicians have been allowed to do to us in this country. It is all brought to you with the help of your local politicians who have sold you out! (Luke 22:48)

People seem to be led astray by asking the wrong questions, and how couldn't they when they are given the wrong information?

For example, when terror attacks happen, people are looking for the culprit and rightly so. Yet, the lying media gets in there on cue and lays the blame on groups that, in many cases, do not even exist.

ISIS, ISIL, Al Qaeda etc. are groups that are created to divert you away from the responsible parties.

After all, whom does terror work for? Who gains the most and who is asking you to give up your rights? Is it a dictator with a turban on or America's politicians? Who brow beats the American people more than the American politician when it comes to immigration laws? Who has defined the American people as terrorists, a foreign agency without or homeland security within? Who asks you to give up your guns after an alleged "Terror attack"?

Why, it's the corrupt American politician! These created groups are simply being used to create domestic insurrection to bring about "Order out of chaos" and it is the chaos that the corrupt have created.

To explain further, we recently had Former F.B.I agent John Guandolo on the radio with us. The topic was on what allegedly took place in Las Vegas. John was laying the charge of the alleged shooting in Las Vegas to be Al Qaeda operatives as to the responsible party.

In response, I told John that I did not see the Muslim operatives changing the narrative 3 times like the law enforcement agencies in Las Vegas have.

I did not see the Sherriff taking orders from the Muslim operatives when he was told by the F.B. I. in the case "not to go there" on live television when asked by a reporter if there were bombs in the alleged shooters car.

I did not see Muslim operatives setting the narrative through the lying mainstream media with lie after lie and distraction after distraction, as well as ignoring eyewitness accounts of what they saw when it came to claims that there was more than one shooter.

Though John may be sincere, I believe that he is misled. He's only giving information that he has been given.

Though I believe that there is a Muslim threat to any people, even unto themselves, I believe that like any other group being used in this country or any other country, that they are simply being used to upend this country's sovereignty.

[YouTube Video]

[YouTube Video]

In New York City this week, an Islamic terrorist shouting 'Allahu Akbar' mows down pedestrians with his truck near the world trade center. In response, the governor said, that there's no "ongoing threat."

Let me ask you America, what just happened? It has been ongoing and spreading ever since the foreign government, acting as the American government, sold you out on September 11th, 2001.

[YouTube Video]

So without further ado, I lay out for you to observe an article that I wrote May 10th, 2017, as to who is alluring these Muslims into America illegally and who is legally responsible for the crimes committed against We the People.

Criminals Masquerading As Mayors In Sanctuary Cities

"Wherever law ends, tyranny begins." -John Locke

It was reported by Aamer Madhani, a White House reporter under Barack Hussein Obama's criminal administration, that big city mayors have vowed to defy the law and President Donald Trump regarding sanctuary cities harboring illegal aliens.

Aamer reported, "As you may know, back in Jan 26, 2017 several big city mayors across the U.S. vowed to defy President Trump's executive order that threatens to cut off federal funding to cities that offer some sort of protection to illegal immigrants in their communities."

The question is, how did they approve the funding in the first place? Furthermore, the Law does not protect illegal aliens. It prosecutes them. Aamer continued, "The pushback came from these mayors came as Trump signed a long-anticipated executive order that directs the government to identify federal money it can withhold to punish so-called 'sanctuary cities.'"

Since when did the federal government receive delegated authority from the American people to take their tax money and reallocate it to cities that are harboring illegal aliens? Aamer added, "If you remember, Trump had pledged to take action against sanctuary cities on the campaign trail."

"But as Trump announced the order – as well as action to build a wall along the U.S-Mexico border and hire thousands of new border patrol agents and immigration officers – leaders of some of the nation's biggest cities flatly stated they would not cooperate with the president," Aamer wrote and you need to ask why.

This is not Trump against the mayors. This is the mayors working against American Law! And the law exposes the criminal (Romans 3:20). Aamer reported, "In New York, Mayor Bill de Blasio vowed that the action 'won't change how we enforce the law in New York City.'"

"De Blasio said that the city has been able to dramatically reduce the crime rate in the nation's largest city, in part, because relationships the police department has managed to build in immigrant communities," the report continued. "He added that if Trump follows through with the plan it would mean he's effectively cutting funding from the New York Police Department."

In other words, through totalitarian methods, Mayor de Blasio is attempting to use the law against the law. Here, you have the criminal blaming the law for his crimes (1 John 3:12).

"Here in New York City and in cities across the nation, this executive order could in fact undermine public safety and make our neighborhoods less safe," de Blasio said.

What De Blasio said was that the enforcement of law could undermine public safety. He is the one personally responsible for the undermining of the public's safety. Was America told that they were under an Islamic threat after September 11, 2001? How does his statement line up with the facts?

[YouTube Video]

Take a look at Muslims from the east who are plundering countries that they are entering.

- Denmark: 450% more crimes committed by Muslims than non-Muslims.
- Germany: Muslim migrants committed 142, 500 crimes in 6 months. This is 780 every day.
- Sweden: 480,000 sexual assaults in one year. 77% of all rapes by less than 2% Muslim.
- England and Wales: Over 56% of Syrian refugee's committed severe crimes in less than 1 year etc.
- Belgium: 35% of Prison population is Muslim who make up only 6% of the population.
- UK: Muslims fill 44% of high security prisons, out of a 5% population.
- USA: 91.4 % Muslim refugees are on food stamps, 68.3 % on cash welfare.

Muslim migration has doubled in the decade since 9/11 and 60% migrants to America favor sharia law (Deuteronomy 28:15-68).

More illegals are coming across from the southern border.

- There were 68.57 illegal aliens imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Arizona, compared to 54.06 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned for every 100,000 citizens and legal noncitizens.
- There were 97.2 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in California, compared to 74.1 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned per 100,000 citizen and legal noncitizens.
- There were 54.85 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Florida, compared to 67.8 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.
- There were 168.75 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in New York, compared to 48.12 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.

- There were 54.54 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Texas, compared to 65.43 legal immigrants.

“After President Donald Trump signed an executive order exploring cutting off funding to so-called sanctuary cities, mayors on both coasts of the U.S. say their cities will not be bullied,” Aamer reported.

These mayors are the ones that are bullying anyone who does not go along with their lawless objectives. These are Saul Alinsky tactics at their best. They play the victim while perpetuating the crime.

[YouTube Video]

In Boston, Mayor Marty Walsh called the executive order an attack on “Boston’s people, Boston’s strength and Boston’s values.”

“If people want to live here, they’ll live here,” Walsh told reporters at a news conference. “They can use my office. They can use any office in this building.”

Americans should put these criminal actors that masquerade as mayors in jail where they belong, and remind each and every one of them that these buildings belong to “We the people.”

Furthermore, no one has the right to desecrate the blood of those who fought, bled and died enforcing the very laws that they are violating.

[YouTube Video]

Seattle Mayor Ed Murray, who has been accused and investigated for sexually molesting minors, said, “We believe we have the rule of law and the courts on our side.”

The opposite is true as I am about to show you (Numbers 32:23).

[YouTube Video]

Mayor of Chicago Rham Emanuel said, "I want to be clear. We're gonna stay a sanctuary city. There is no stranger among us. We welcome people, whether you're from Poland or Pakistan, whether you're from Ireland or India or Israel and whether you're from Mexico or Moldova, where my grandfather came from, you are welcome in Chicago as you pursue the American Dream."

San Francisco Mayor Ed Lee told reporters nothing has changed for his city following Trump's executive order.

"I am here today to say we are still a sanctuary city," Lee said. "We stand by our sanctuary city because we want everybody to feel safe and utilize the services they deserve, including education and health care."

Ed wants you to do your best to forget about Kate Steinle and her family. Kate was shot randomly by Juan Francisco Lopez Sanchez, who is an illegal immigrant and a repeat felon who was deported back to Mexico 5 times.

Have Americans been inundated by the media's narrative that there are threats constantly against "We the people"? Who has attacked the rights of Americans more than those who call themselves representatives? No one has.

Here, we have mayors that are committing treason (Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution) by opening the doors to those who are sworn enemies to America (Jeremiah 11:9).

A top aide to Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan questioned whether the city even qualified as a sanctuary city.

The U.S. Conference of Mayors and the Major Cities Chiefs Association expressed concern that the executive order is overly vague.

“That order does not provide a clear definition of what constitutes a sanctuary jurisdiction,” the organizations said in a joint statement. “Instead, it gives undefined discretion to the Secretary of Homeland Security to designate sanctuary jurisdictions and the Attorney General to take action against them.” (Homeland security was found to be illegally transporting criminal aliens into the United States under the criminal Barack Hussein Obama’s administration.)

“We call upon the Secretary of Homeland Security to document and promulgate a lawful definition before further actions are taken, so the cities across the Nation may determine how to proceed,” the organization added.

You cannot make this stuff up.

What the law states concerning these criminals masquerading as “mayors” in “sanctuary cities” is very clear and simple to understand.

If you want justice America, you are personally responsible to bring it.

These Muslims are being allured into this country to commit the acts of terror so at the end of the day you cry out to corrupt government for more safety and security. And rest assured and right on cue you will find that they will be more than happy to accommodate your request by stripping you of more of your God given rights until they have absolute control. Laying It To the Feet Of The Responsible Party

"The Constitution is not an instrument for the government to restrain the people, it is an instrument for the people to restrain the government – lest it come to dominate our lives and interests." – Patrick Henry

When you look at the quote from above, you would think that we were talking of a different country and about a different people. We can see clearly what happens when the American people no longer take responsibility before God to take their rightful place, position and perform their obligations (1 John 2:4).

When looking at America, the 4 day nation, 4 days later Americans have been diverted to another issue forgetting the 4 days before.

Headline news in America:

- New Poll Results: Majority Of White Americans Feel

Discriminated Against

- Millionaire Muslima Ripped Off Taxpayers For 18 Years – Finally Kicked Out Of Government-Funded Home
- RINOS Forced To Come Clean
- FBI Dumps Documents On Sandy Hook – Guess Who Visited the Shooter Before the Shooting?
- Vegas Gunman's Brother Busted With Child Porn
- Emails Confirm: Obama DOJ Funneled Big Bank Settlement Money to Liberal Groups
- Media Applauds LGBTQ Picking Up Guns "In Response To Far Right"

One only has to ask themselves, how it is that 325.36 million people in this country tolerate the crimes of less than 1.7 % of the corrupt population?

Before God, who is the guilty party, those who commit the crimes or those who tolerate the crimes? From God's perspective, both!

America is now bearing the corrupt fruit of a nation that has forgotten God and is now clearly under His judgments (Deuteronomy 28:45).

[YouTube Video]

All of this is occurring on the watch of those who live in the greatest nation on this side of Heaven, who once understood its mandate. America was not called the light of the world for nothing (Deuteronomy 4).

Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people. -Isaiah 51:4

[YouTube Video]

Once "We the people" get to the point of blaming ourselves instead of everyone else for what we are responsible to correct, then and only then, will we understand the reason we have been put on God's green earth in the first place (Matthew 3:2).

Why Are Some President Donald Trump's Appointees Protecting The Clintons?

"If Hillary Clinton is not brought to justice, then America is doomed." -Live feed

The above statement may sound over the top or extreme in many different ways, yet it is true.

History teaches us just that. Ask countries in the past who refused to bring corrupt politicians to justice and you will discover, without fail, that they were destroyed. If you leave corrupt politicians to do what they will, without suffering the consequences of breaking the laws (I John 3:4), you will simply add strength to tyranny.

To put it into perspective, look at what President Thomas Jefferson stated:

"The two enemies of the people are criminals and government, so let us tie the second down with the chains of the Constitution so the second will not become the legalized version of the first."

Taking it to the present, we recently heard Newt Gingrich say that the way to resolve the problem of corruption is to “Start putting a few people in jail, you’ll see the leaks dry up dramatically (Isaiah 56).”

Clearly, Scripture teaches us in Isaiah 26:9 that “...when Thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.” Also read Isaiah 51:4.

Yet, Americans fail to do so, and what they do is draw the seat of violence nigh unto themselves.

“Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near.” -Amos 6:3

Furthermore, it is inscribed on government buildings throughout America in stone. On one, Moses holds the two tablets of the Law (Exodus 20) with the inscription:

“Justice the Guardian of Liberty”

The reason this is happening is because the American Church (78% claim to be Christians -1 John 2:4) has been taught by the hirelings (John 10:12), who occupy the pulpits in this country, that they have no business in judging right from wrong. How ridiculous!

Maybe they should try that next time they break speeding laws. Just rip up the ticket, throw it at the police officer’s feet, and tell him “Who are you to judge me?” See how far that gets them!

I say, "Twist not Scripture, lest you be like Satan."

It amazes me how Americans give a pass to corruption as if to suggest that the politicians are above the law.

"...they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause..." (Jeremiah 5:28)

Didn't the representatives of "We the People" put their hand on the Bible swearing to uphold the laws found in our Constitution? YES THEY DID!

"They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause..." (Jeremiah 5:28)

This was Jeremiah preaching to a people that fell under the judgments of God.

America, 8 months ago a new president was sworn in. If you remember, for a long period of time on the campaign trail, you were promised that he was to bring forth a "special prosecutor" to deal with "Crooked Hilary." Donald Trump at this point has done nothing, worse yet he told Americans that, "We owe her a major debt of gratitude." That's the opposite of what he promised to do (Matthew 23:3).

Judicial Watch recently reported the following:

A Judge Forces the State Department to Open Up on Clinton Emails

This week United States District Judge James E. Boasberg ruled that the Department of State must make public a FBI declaration detailing its efforts to retrieve the former secretary of state's government emails (Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rex Tillerson (No. 1:15-cv-00785)).

Statement regarding the decision:

We're happy with the ruling, but it is unbelievable we're being opposed by Trump appointees in the State and Justice Departments on the Clinton email issue. President Trump ought to be outraged his appointees are protecting Hillary Clinton. The State Department should initiate action with the Justice Department – and both agencies should finally take the necessary steps to recover all the government emails Hillary Clinton unlawfully removed.

Here is the background.

On April 30, 2015, we sued former Secretary John Kerry after the State Department failed to take action on a letter we sent to Kerry “notifying him of the unlawful removal of the Clinton emails and requesting that he initiate enforcement action pursuant to the [Federal Records Act],” including working through the Attorney General to recover the emails.

After initially being dismissed by the district court, our lawsuit was revived on appeal by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit on December 27, 2016. The Federal Records Act states that an agency head “shall” initiate an action through the Attorney General when he becomes aware of any unlawful removal of agency records.

While at the State Department, Clinton conducted official government business using an unsecure email server and email accounts. Her top aides and advisors also used non-“state.gov” email accounts to conduct official business.

The Trump administration defended the handling of the email matter by the Obama administration and filed two declarations from the FBI trying to justify the State Department’s refusal to follow the law and refer to the Clinton email issue to the Justice Department.

As the decision notes, the second FBI declaration is non-public and was filed in camera and ex parte with the court. Judge Boasburg rejected the State Department’s arguments that the FBI declaration be withheld to protect grand jury secrecy: "After reviewing the document in camera, the Court concludes it largely rehashes information already made public, thus obviating any need for secrecy."

Meantime, transcripts reviewed by the Senate Judiciary Committee reveal that former FBI Director James Comey began drafting an exoneration statement in the Clinton email investigation before the FBI had interviewed key witnesses.

Chairman Chuck Grassley and Senator Lindsey Graham, chairman of the Judiciary Subcommittee on Crime and Terrorism, requested all records relating to the drafting of the statement as the committee continues to review the circumstances surrounding Comey's removal from the Bureau.

The senators wrote to the FBI: "Conclusion first, fact-gathering second—that's no way to run an investigation. The FBI should be held to a higher standard than that, especially in a matter of such great public interest and controversy."

And so should a president be held to his promises to a people that entrusted him to represent them in the first place.

Remember, "The people of these United States are the rightful masters of both congresses and courts, not to over-throw the Constitution, but to over-throw the men who pervert that Constitution," according to the Preamble to the US Constitution. Amen!

Eyewitnesses Accounts Contradict Media's LAS VEGAS Narrative

*"And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem."
(Jeremiah 11:9)*

I have a couple questions for you to preface this week's column.

Who is Leon Czolgosz? Who is Charles J. Guiteau?

The answer: Leon Czolgosz was President McKinley's assassin.

And Charles J. Guiteau is President Garfield's assassin.

Most people do not know who these men were because at the time, it was for the world to know the facts as to what took place concerning these assassinations. These were not conspiracies. They were simply two men who took things into their own hands and committed the act of murder (1 John 3:12).

There were no diversions, no media cover-ups. They were simple cases to solve, as it was reported through eyewitness accounts and easily solved.

Now, let me ask you who was John Wilkes Booth?

Most can speedily answer with "That's easy, that was President Abraham Lincoln's killer!"

The same with John F. Kennedy's assassination, that Lee Harvey Oswald was responsible.

Year after year, new generations are raised up to believe, by the media and lies in textbooks, that John Wilkes Booth and Lee Harvey Oswald were solely responsible for the assassinations of these two presidents. A Gallup poll, for what it's worth, taken in the U.S., reveals that 61% of the American people still believe that the JFK assassination was a conspiracy while the establishment media is hard at work doing their best to keep the up and coming generation deceived into believing their contrived theories and covering for those who are committing the act of conspiracies.

CONSPIRACY, noun

- 1. A combination of men for an evil purpose; an agreement between two or more persons, to commit some crime in concert; particularly, a combination to commit treason, or excite sedition or insurrection against the government.*

P.S. In this country it is the American people that are the government! Read the preamble to the U.S. Constitution.

As a matter of fact, you will find that for decades in this country, it has been the controlled media who has been demonizing and accusing those of being "conspiracy theorists" or just plain "crazy" when it comes to questioning the narrative that they attempt to set.

Below are Conspiracies that were sold by the controlled media as “conspiracy theories.”

In the early 1960s, American military leaders drafted plans to create public support for a war against Cuba, to oust Fidel Castro from power. The plans included committing acts of terrorism in U.S. cities, killing innocent people and U.S. soldiers, blowing up a U.S. ship, assassinating Cuban émigrés, sinking boats of Cuban refugees, and hijacking planes. The plans were all approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, but were reportedly rejected by the civilian leadership, then kept secret for nearly 40 years.

Now think of that. The media, in whom 94% of the people do not place any trust, and rightly so, wants you now to believe them when they tell you something that is in stark contrast to what the eyewitnesses have seen with their own eyes concerning the shooting that took place in Las Vegas.

Look at the diversions and inconsistencies that are taking place.

Furthermore, the stupidest and most telling thing that the controlled media has done here is tried to convince Americans to disarm in the face of an alleged mass murderer with a gun.

How stupid do they expect the people to be? (Just look to Hollywood) This is very telling as to the responsible party when you see a concerted effort from corrupt politicians, as well as the corrupt media, to call for gun control.

America, Are You Drinking Cool-Aide?

"So he gets about 400lbs of equipment up 30 floors, sets up a concealed sniper nest, disarms fire alarms and other security systems in a casino, removed a window that's 800lb of hurricane proof glass, then for 10 minutes reigned in aimed firepower, all with no training whatsoever, and with no motive!" -Post found on live feed

Does it not amaze you America that in administration after administration there is some major crime spree from a "lone wolf" that calls for more gun control measures? Columbine, Virginia Tech, Sandy Hook, Denver Movie theatre, Navy Ship Yard, San Bernardino, Las Vegas etc...

The established media, which is bought and paid for, as well as controlled by the CIA, and that 94% of the American people claim that they do not believe, tells them that another

"Lone wolf" did the unthinkable. The criminal politicians then gather together only to never let a good "crisis go to waste."

[YouTube Video]

Criminal Hillary Clinton (Why has she not been prosecuted yet?) said, that we must put politics aside and immediately called for gun control.

Remember the armed guards that she has around her at all times protecting her from you, America?

Pope Francis calls it a senseless tragedy while stating, "People who manufacture weapons or invest into weapons industries are hypocrites if they call themselves Christians."

Remember the armed guards that he has around him at all times protecting him from you?

And the list goes on....

Yet, those that work for "We the people" want to disarm you? How does that work? Let me show you....

"All political power comes from the barrel of a gun. The communist party must command all the guns, that way, no guns can ever be used to command the party." – Mao Tze Tung, Nov 6, 1938

How ironic that those who are calling for gun control are those who want the guns so they can have the control.

It is of interest to the American people to take note of those who they entrust to serve them. We are a government of the people, by the people, and for the people. Yet, time and time again in this country we have leaders in government who put on the guise of "patriot" and then turn out to be the criminal in garb.

We learned in the past about the criminal acts of anti-gun mayors. We found that anti-gun mayors are criminals themselves, guilty as charged within their own ranks of such crimes as tax evasion, extortion, accepting bribes, child pornography, trademark counterfeiting, perjury, and one demigod mayor was even convicted of assaulting a police officer.

The crimes that these anti-gun mayors are convicted of suggests they are public enemies rather than public servants. No wonder they want to take guns from law-abiding citizens.

These politicians know that where the citizenry operates in the rights given to them without government interference, namely the right to bear arms, crime diminishes. With mud on their face, they know when they interfere with the right to bear arms, crime skyrockets.

What we see is that some of today's politicians are magnifying the crimes they are placed in office to prevent.

They allow crime to be promoted through entertainment and when the crime is committed, they are there in hopes to grab the guns away.

This is exactly how criminals in government operate.

They demonize the gun, not the criminal.

Friends, this mentality is like blaming spoons for people being overweight, as if to say the act is apart from the actor.

Since criminal politicians refuse to look at history, which can be at the present our greatest teacher, it is very clear that gun banners know exactly what they are attempting to do - put the Second Amendment in the crosshairs.

Looking back, who has committed murder in the largest degree? Dictators Adolf Hilter, Mao Tze Tung, Josef Stalin, Pol Pot, Idi Amin, etc.

Time and time again, it has been a corrupt government that has been responsible for the mass murder of their own people under the deceptive guise of "gun control," all of which the said dictators implemented.

Keep in mind these people promised their citizens protection and freedom upon the forfeiture of their guns.

How many times does history need to repeat itself?

Paralleling History

Let's parallel history with the present ideology and methodology that those in the past blueprinted to implement gun control.

Mass murderer Adolf Hitler at a dinner talk on April 11, 1942 said:

"The most foolish mistake we could possibly make would be to allow the subject races to possess arms. History shows that all conquerors who have allowed their subject races to carry arms have prepared their own downfall by so doing. Indeed, I would go so far as to say that the supply of arms to the underdogs is a sine qua non for the overthrow of any sovereignty. So let's not have any native militia or native police. German troops alone will bear the sole responsibility for the maintenance of law and order throughout the occupied Russian territories, and a system of military strong-points must be evolved to cover the entire occupied country."

Germany established gun control in 1938 and from 1939 to 1945, 13 million Jews and others who were unable to defend themselves were rounded up and exterminated.

Josef Stalin, the sole leader of the Soviet Union from 1924 to 1953, said:

"If the opposition disarms, well and good. If it refuses to disarm, we shall disarm it ourselves."

In 1929, the Soviet Union established gun control. From 1929 to 1953, about 20 million dissidents, unable to defend themselves, were rounded up and exterminated.

Mao Tze Tung, communist dictator of China said:

"War can only be abolished through war, and in order to get rid of the gun it is necessary to take up the gun."

China established gun control in 1935. From 1948 to 1952, 20 million political dissidents, unable to defend themselves, were rounded up and exterminated.

Idi Amin, president of Uganda from 1971 to 1979, said:

"I do not want to be controlled by any superpower. I myself consider myself the most powerful figure in the world, and that is why I do not let any superpower control me."?

Uganda established gun control in 1970. From 1971 to 1979, 300,000 Christians, unable to defend themselves, were rounded up and exterminated.

Pol Pot, who created in Cambodia one of the 20th century's most brutal and radical regimes, was responsible for killing one million of his own 'educated,' yet unarmed citizens.

Conclusion:

Our forefathers did not arm the American people for the purpose of hunting, but rather to protect themselves from those who were doing the hunting, namely the tyrant King George.

The Second Amendment is only to vouchsafe our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and to ensure all of the other rights given unto us by our Creator.

The wisdom of the framers of the Constitution is found consistent with the lessons of the Bible they used as their bedrock for civil law. The people's individual protection should always be a primary concern of government "of the people."

In a righteous country, self-government reigns by the constraint of Christian morals.

The civil government that desires such a monopoly of force (i.e. they are the only ones with guns) is a threat to the lives, liberty, and property of its citizens, for that government ceases to be “of and for the people.”

[YouTube Video]

George Washington, our first president, said:

“From the hour the Pilgrims landed, to the present day, events, occurrences, and tendencies prove that to insure peace, security and happiness, the rifle and pistol are equally indispensable . . . the very atmosphere of firearms everywhere restrains evil interference – they deserve a place of honor with all that is good.” (Luke 11:21)

Divisive And Diversive Tactics At Work In America

In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, you can bet it was planned that way. –President Franklin D. Roosevelt America, America what has happened to you? (Psalm 119:110) The NFL shows its true colors and Americans are angry, and what Americans are angry about is right. Yet, what was revealed was the hearts of the people, and what it is that they worship: THE NFL! (Jeremiah 11:13). Where their treasure is, so will be their hearts be also (Matthew 6:21).

Grown up men with tights on fighting over a pig ball. How shameful!

Babies being slaughtered in the womb, sodomy, indoctrination of America's posterity etc... Where is the uproar? The hypocrisy stinks to high heaven (Matthew 23).

It was George Orwell who said, "Football and Beer...filled the horizon of their minds. To keep them in control was not difficult!" How true that statement is.

Can you imagine a people that still feared the Lord (Proverbs 16:6) and were indignant when it came to correcting corruption in the Church and in the government?

Yet, it first starts with the individuals (Acts 20:21).

The political tactics are in full force against the controlled and deceived, who have not yet learned how "Real Life" lived out (Hosea 4:6) are once again being played by those that they complain about through led opposition.

While everyone is whining about the NFL, who, I ask you, is paying for the tickets that support these Communists? The government is hard at work behind the scenes attempting to pass unlawful healthcare legislation formerly named under Mitt Romney as Romney-Romney Care, Barrack Hussein Obama as ObamaCare, and now under a brand new administration, the American Health Care Act.

The agenda goes forward regardless of what the new President has promised.

Whenever there is a big story in the media, look for what it is that they are trying to distract you from.

The Gullibility of the American People!

"The typical American voter is so stupid, his dog teaches him tricks." – Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-Care

The American people have accepted Supreme Court sanctioned murder of the innocent.

They have accepted the redefinition of marriage by the likes of a radical lesbian named Elena Kagan, who has never judged a case a day in her life.

The list goes on concerning the Supreme Court's attacks against America and Constitutional Law (Article 4, Section 4, The United States Constitution).

Apparently, these injustices seemed to have missed that which the law teaches in law school (1 Timothy 1:7).

"No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the Law of God!" –William Blackstone, Commentaries on the Laws of England

President Andrew Jackson said, "The Bible is the Rock upon which our REPUBLIC rests" (Exodus 18:21).

He was also the President that said, "If the Supreme Court is the final arbiter of what the Constitution says, then we have ceased to be our own rulers (Under God), and the Supreme Court is our ruler."

Rather than getting caught up into the debate that they want you to get caught up into, the question that should be presented to those who call themselves legislators is, "Where are you deriving your authority from to implement these unconstitutional acts?"

It is a question that they simply cannot answer.

This brings me to this point: "If they can get you asking the wrong questions, they do not have to worry about giving you the right answers."

Without further ado, let me bring to you Jonathan Gruber. Again, this is the architect of Romney-Obama-care, or rather the clown that is laughing at you, America.

"Exploiting the stupidity of the American voter is fun and easy: kinda like squeezing a lemon," said Jonathan.

He also said "Lack of transparency is a huge political advantage. Call it the stupidity of the American voter or whatever, but basically, that was really, really critical for the thing to pass" when speaking of Romney-Obama-care.

He also said, "When we're done with employer-based health insurance, it will have as much life in it as Jimmy Hoffa."

"P.T. Barnum said a sucker is born every minute, but his estimate was laughably low."

America, your children and future generations are being enslaved by those who are committing crimes against you (Deuteronomy 28:68).

It is time for 318.9 million people to stand up and deal with those who are only entertaining the destruction of this country (Psalm 94:16).

Let those who profess to be wise (Roman 1:22) be taken by their own lawless counsel (Job 5:13).

In closing, Harriet Tubman said when asked of the slaves that have been freed by her hands, "I freed a thousand slaves. I could have freed a thousand more if only they knew that they were slaves" (Hosea 4:6).

"Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off." -Psalm 94:20-23

If America would only repent, then the joke would be on the lawless!

There is no in between. God or tyrants!

I Never Said Anything About It Being Donald Trump

"Make the lie big, make it simple, keep saying it, and eventually they will believe it." -Adolph Hitler

Over and over again, the American people are played by the dupes of ill designing men and they refuse to be ashamed of what they fail to address concerning those who are playing them (Jeremiah 8:5).

Case in point, this last week I posted a meme on my live stream that showed the tyrant Adolph Hitler taking pictures with children to win the people over, as well as a picture of him as Time Magazine's 1938 "Man of the Year."

A man responded, "I am tired of people equating Adolph Hitler with Donald Trump."

"I never said anything about Donald Trump! You did!" I replied. "Did you see something that I may have overlooked?" (2 Corinthians 11:14)

We all have something to learn.

I have been posting these memes for years and now that Donald Trump is president, I am equating him to Adolph Hitler?

Look at what Louise Solmitz, a Hamburg school teacher in 1932, said of Adolph Hitler.

"How many look up to him with touching faith as their helper, their savior, their deliverer from unbearable stress."

I went on and said that regardless of who serves "We the people" in this country, we are to, like the good advice given by Patrick Henry, "Guard with jealous attention the public liberty. Suspect everyone who approaches that jewel."

So, I lay to the feet of present day America that you look to the past that you might know, through the Scriptures, the future that lies in front of us.

Are We as Asleep as the Germans of the 30's?

"Politicians brought the Nazis to power and started the war. They are the ones who brought about these disgusting crimes."
– Karl Doenitz, German admiral and would-be fuehrer after Hitler

On Nov. 20, 1945, the Nuremberg Trials began, bringing Hitler's Nazi criminals to justice. By this time, several countries were destroyed, and 50 million people, 2.5 percent of the world's population, lost their lives – including 12 million Jews, German dissidents, political opposition, intellectuals and others who were exterminated in Nazi concentration camps.

The world watched in horror as in the courtroom filled with Nazi criminals was played video footage of famished men, women and children who were mercilessly shot, starved and/or tortured, and then thrown carelessly into mass graves, all because they did not fall in line with the ideology of Adolf Hitler.

During the opening of the court proceedings, it is important to note that the prosecutor said, "The laws of God and man have been violated, and the guilty must not go unpunished."

Just imagine if the Nuremberg Trials, per se, would have taken place at the first unconstitutional acts of Hitler's wicked regime. Hitler could have easily been stopped in the 1920s with relative ease by the German people who still had the freedom to do the right thing, and did it not.

Instead, they acted as if Hitler had nothing to do with their personal lives.

Friends, as no one took Mussolini, Mao or Stalin seriously at first, many fellow Germans thought Hitler was an average run-of-the-mill wacko who posed no threat.

Horrifically, they were dead wrong.

One of Hitler's first moves when he rose to power was to attack his own Reichstag, only to blame it on his political opposition. He then proceeded to eradicate the Constitution of Germany in only six years.

Hitler no longer abided by the law, but instead promulgated his agenda by force.

Where were the 80 million people in Germany to stand up against this monster?

As Karl Doenitz blurted out, it was the politicians (and the people) who were responsible for bringing the Nazis to power.

On a daily basis the crimes of Hitler and his regime were evident. So obvious were the atrocities that after church the Germans were wiping the ashes of the incinerated victims off their cars.

Their lack of action turned them from victims to accomplices.

What does this have to do with America today?

Everything.

It is clear to see that over the last four administrations, America's government is emulating many similarities – likewise setting itself at war with God, abusing power and trampling on the Constitution.

Where are the 312 million (323.1 million in the present) Americans to stand up and magnify the laws of our republic?

Have Americans today forgotten the price of their blood-bought freedoms, paid for by hundreds of thousands of veterans who laid down their lives, fortunes and sacred honor?

In the 1800s, after much bloodshed through the Civil War, President Andrew Johnson made one wrong move, causing him to be tried for impeachment.

Johnson simply removed the secretary of war from office without the consent of Congress. Americans were so jealous over their liberties they would not tolerate the least offense.

It would do us well to follow in our forefathers' footsteps, lest we, like Germany, become accomplices to America's overthrow through our apathy and lack of repentance – to our own demise.

As it says on the Supreme Court Building, "Justice (is) the guardian of liberty," right under Moses holding the Ten Commandments. We must follow the preamble of our Constitution and "establish justice" (Isaiah 51) in order to "secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity."

America: Simply put, prevention is better than cure.

Time magazine merited the murderous dictator Adolf Hitler "Man of the Year" in 1938. Josef Stalin was also declared Time's "Man of the Year" in 1939 and 1942, who, like Hitler, was responsible for committing heinous crimes against his own people. This brings one to ask what other criminals have been labeled "Man of the Year" by Time magazine. You may be surprised.

Are We talking about The Same President?

[EDITORS NOTE: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not necessarily the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

"Prevention is better than cure!"

You would think that the way today's conservatives (yesterday's liberals) are propping up Donald Trump and what he is really doing that they are talking of someone else. Yet, they are not! This is why it is so important to pay attention to what our representatives do rather than what they say (Matthew 7:16). The man and the office are the same.

The political photo ops are taking place across the country with the new president helping with disaster relief, going into black communities and hugging and kissing folks, prayers at the administration's table before session. All of these are available online. They're everything good Americans want, and rightly so.

However, is this diversion to keep your eyes off of the ball and putting Americans back to sleep? (Matthew 24:5; Ephesians 5:14)

Of course, it is!

The New American reported:

The Trump administration is asking Congress to renew a law giving intelligence agencies the authority to collect the communications of millions of Americans without a warrant – despite the fact that such surveillance led to charges that President Donald Trump is in cahoots with Russia.

The law in question is Title VII of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (FISA), Section 702, which authorizes the National Security Agency (NSA) to intercept the communications of foreigners located outside the United States without obtaining a search warrant. The law expires at the end of the year unless Congress passes legislation reauthorizing it.

“Reauthorizing this critical authority is the top legislative priority of the Department of Justice and the Intelligence Community,” Attorney General Jeff Sessions and Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats wrote in a September 7 letter to congressional leaders.

Sessions and Coats argued that the law’s privacy protections are sufficient to comply with the Fourth Amendment, which requires authorities to obtain a warrant based on probable cause before they conduct a search. However, as Nate Cardozo, senior staff attorney at the Electronic Frontier Foundation, told Reason, the government is “using [the law] to spy on Americans.”

This should hardly come as a surprise. As Agence France-Presse reminds us, “Section 702 was passed in 2008 to replace a previously secret and illegal warrantless wiretap program instituted after the September 11, 2001 attacks.” In other words, Congress retroactively codified a blatantly unconstitutional policy that was known to vacuum up data on innocent Americans.

"We are now sure that it's a pattern," Kassam said. "So the positive will be that we can now move on this issue."

While the new administration is pushing forth that which the preceding administration was pushing forth, and the one that preceded that administration, rest assured, the agenda is going forward.

The sooner that the American people understand that Donald Trump is nothing more than another pawn in the never ending game of politics, the sooner things can change for the better (Jeremiah 5:20-31).

Regardless of who you think your representatives are and are not, under the pretenses that they put up (2 Corinthians 11:14), it matters not. This is between you and the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, period. Repent! (Leviticus 26:14-46: Acts 20:21).

This is mercy! And it is a message that we all will be forced to receive either through accepting the message or rejecting it.

Parents Of Public School Students, What Are You

Supposed To Do?

The philosophy of the schoolroom in one generation will be the philosophy of government in the next. –Abraham Lincoln Criminal and foreigner Barack Hussein Obama has, in the not too distant past, added to his long train of abuses against We the People in the education of American school children.

How

ma.

This has been going on incrementally through administration after administration. "No child left behind" is really "No child left un-indoctrinated" through George W. Bush, which is nothing short of Communism.

In an attempt to level the playing field, they teach America's posterity to shoot for the floor rather than aim for the stars.

Then, there is also, GLOBE. GLOBE stands for Global Learning & Observation to Benefit the Environment. Mikhail Gorbachev is the head of an organization called Green Cross International, operating right here in the United States. Gorbachev is working to create world government and he is helping implement this education scheme. He has also joined partnership with UNESCO, which is the source of much of the anti-American education curriculum, as well as the International Baccalaureate (IB) program. This GLOBE program is funded and implemented through the Federal Department of Education, created under Goals 2000, and now carried over in “No Child Left Behind.”

And don't forget about International Baccalaureate, which is a global scheme conceived in Geneva, Switzerland in 1968 and now making its way into American schools.

Among the things it promotes are:

- 1) Earth Worship.
- 2) Evolution.
- 3) Socialized Medicine.
- 4) World Government.
- 5) Animal Rights (animals seen as brothers and sisters).
- 6) Redistribution of American Wealth to other nations.
- 7) Contraception and “Reproductive Health” (legal abortions).
- 8) Debt Forgiveness to third world nations.
- 9) Adoption of the gay rights agenda.
- 10) Elimination of the right to bear arms.
- 11) Setting aside massive amounts of private land where no human presence is allowed.

Back to criminal Obama. Obama illegally implemented an extensive overhaul of public education from kindergarten through high school, bypassing Congress, the voice of the American people, and forcing states to agree to major changes that none of his predecessors attempted.

Apparently, Obama, the self-proclaimed "Constitutional Scholar," hasn't taken the time to read Article 10 of the Bill of Rights. The federal government has no business whatsoever in the education of American children.

Obama sought to implement something called the Common Core Standards, which has been implemented in 46 states and D.C., drowning students with mostly "informational text" and historical documents.

Some of the non-fiction texts that will be implemented into school curriculum are "FedViews," by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco (2009) and "Executive Order 13423: Strengthening Federal Environmental, Energy, and Transportation Management," published by the General Services Administration.

In 2011 in the state of Arkansas, Middle School Teacher of the Year Jamie Highfill said, "I'm struggling with this, and my students are struggling. With informational text, there isn't that human connection that you get with literature. And the kids are shutting down. They are getting bored. I'm seeing more behavior problems in my classroom than I've ever seen."

The curriculum change in public schools has been a downward spiral for many years. America has been so dumbed down that 700,000 students per year graduate without the ability to read their own diplomas.

Add to students' confusion the innumerable amount of errors in school textbooks ranging from misinformation to omission of facts or outright lies. These "errors" can be found in virtually every subject, especially in math, science and history.

Math:

In Texas, the State Board of Education found a total of 109,263 errors in math textbooks reviewed for use in 2008 alone. Yes, I said 109,263 errors. The board had to go so far as to place a possible fine of $5,000 per error found if they were not fixed by spring of the same year.

Science:

In textbooks all across America, science (the study of Creation) is well-known for being laced with the dangerous theory of evolution, which wars against Christianity, the Bible, God and His Law, which is the foundation of our Republic.

Andrew Jackson said, "The Bible is the rock upon which our republic rests."

That is why evolution was illegal to teach in schools at the time of the 1925 Scopes Trial.

In complete contradiction to America's foundational principles, the National Education Association agrees with humanism. Humanism is summed up in the following excerpt by John Dunphy in his article, "A Religion for a New Age":

"The Bible is not merely another book ... it has and remains an incredibly dangerous book. ... I am convinced that the battle for humankind's future must be waged and won in the public classroom by teachers who correctly perceive their role as the proselytizers of a new faith. ... These teachers must embody the same dedication as the most rabid fundamentalist preachers, for they will be ministers of another sort, utilizing a classroom instead of a pulpit to convey humanist values in whatever subject they teach. ... The classroom must and will become an arena of conflict between the old and the new – the rotting corpse of Christianity, together with all its adjacent evils and misery, and the new faith of humanism, resplendent in its promise of a world in which the never-realized Christian ideal of love thy neighbor will finally be achieved."

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

How far are they willing to go?

History:

In Virginia, a state review committee found a slew of errors in many history textbooks. A committee of five historians caught errors ranging from the incorrect year John Rolfe married Pocahontas to quotes that do not even appear in historical records. One book illustrated Virginia soldiers in the Revolutionary War wearing red coats, when in fact they wore blue. Another textbook erroneously stated many colonial Americans were illiterate. In fact, literacy rates were extremely high.

Retired Library of Virginia historian Brent Tarter wrote in his review of one textbook, "Our Virginia," "I also found some very significant omissions, some internal inconsistencies, and some erroneous or questionable descriptions and analyses of historical events. Some are so ludicrous and difficult to explain that I cannot understand where the misinformation came from."

Muslim Indoctrination:

In recent years, American public schools have also been indoctrinated with the Muslim religion. Studies have shown over 500 historical errors in public school textbooks, giving an Islamic slant to our youth.

As a result, our youth are subject to the following teachings:

- Learning to become a Muslim
- Fasting for Ramadan
- Learning the five pillars of Islam

- Memorizing verses from the Quran
- Adopting a Muslim name
- Staging a Jihad (war against non-Muslims)

They are even subjecting elementary school students to the D.A.R.E. program, which has statistically proven to educate the students as to how to commit the crime of drug abuse rather than prevent it.

[YouTube Video]

What of antidepressants prescriptions? They are simply attempting to set students up for the fall by prescribing dangerous psychotropic drugs.

Leon Eisenberg (Father of ADHD), in his last interview before his death, said, "ADHD is a prime example of a fictitious disease."

There has been a dramatic rise in the sale of antidepressants in the past decade alone. According to IMS Health, sales of antidepressants in the United States surpassed $11 billion in 2010.

Antidepressants are one of the most commonly prescribed drug classes. Four out of five physicians prescribing antidepressants are not even psychiatrists, and the drugs are increasingly being given for non-psychiatric uses.

This dramatic increase in usage could possibly be in direct connection to the controversial TeenScreen survey given to children as young as 9 years old in public schools. TeenScreen has been responsible for policing the mental health of students over the past decade.

More and more public schools have brought in the manipulative survey for children, setting them up for a prescription. For example, one of the questions asked is: "Has there been a time when you felt you couldn't do anything well or that you weren't as good-looking or smart as other people?" Another question is: "In the last year, has there been any situation when you had less energy than usual?"

Nearly 20 percent of students who take the survey are then labeled mentally ill, which leads to a prescription. This process is being sold as suicide prevention; however, the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force found "no evidence" that screening for suicide risk reduces suicide attempts.

In past generations, parents would train their children in the way they should go, using the rod of correction (Proverbs 22) to drive foolishness from the hearts of their children, while the pharmaceutical companies compete for the position contrary to that which God commanded.

In the meantime, pharmaceutical companies are raking in hundreds of millions of dollars a day while America's students are used as political and medical guinea pigs.

Most Americans don't even realize that Obama was attempting to deputize the medical industry to screen the mental health of every American.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Herein lies the "attention deficit." The deficit lies within the responsibility of the parents, not the child.

To further add insult to injury with the help of the NEA, students are being made a prey to teachers.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The homosexual agenda is being forced onto the young.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The real question to ask here is "Why are there public schools?"

Only you can answer that!

Resolve:

As I said, the federal government of the United States of America has no lawful authority over the education of the young.

The Tenth Amendment to the Constitution states, "The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people."

For as much as I know that the American people would like to blame Barack Hussein Obama for all of his illegal acts and things he implemented, and rightly so, I have to divert from this criminal to the people that are responsible for sending their children off to the cesspool of Un-American, Un-Constitutional and therefore, illegal indoctrination of indoctrination centers known as public schools.

The reason this is happening: 86 percent of the American people who call themselves Christian conservatives are the ones sending their kids into public schools to be indoctrinated in a worldview they claim they despise.

Proverbs 22:6 says, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

William Bennett, Former Education Secretary under Ronald Regan said, "In America today, the longer you stay in school, the dumber you get..."

Same Agenda Moving Forward Regardless of Who Is The President

"Regrettably, outside of yourself, the individuals who most embodied and represented the policies that will 'Make America Great Again,' have been internally countered, systematically removed, or undermined in recent months." – Sebastian Gorka

While the establishment media is doing its best to divert America's attention from the real issues by focusing your attention on Nazi criminal George Soros-backed paid provocateurs (John 10:10) attempting to stir up domestic insurrection, I felt it my duty to turn your attention where it needs be turned.

Take a look with me here.

We have seen treasonous Hillary and her criminal, traitorous, political husband Bill Clinton, who have yet to come under that special prosecutor that the president promised.

Criminal and foreigner Barack Hussein Obama, now being called out for his political espionage, continues to create war within (Psalm 9:17).

Treasonous Paul Ryan and Mitch McConnell are still at the side of the president, and all the well knowing what these two have done and are continuing to do.

Nancy Pelosi, Maxine Waters, Dianne Feinstein, James Comey and the list goes on.

All remain at large to upend American sovereignty to the highest bidder (Matthew 7:16).

In other words, the swamp has not being drained. It still remains.

Many of those in the swamp are funded by George Soros.

"And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." -2 Corinthians 11:14-15

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

To further solidify the point, this last week, The Daily Signal reported, "Why Are Trump's Justice Department Appointees Protecting the IRS?"

Various media sources have reported that federal District Court Judge Reggie Walton has ordered the IRS to finally respond to various legal requests for information and documents made by the conservative tea party organizations that sued the agency.

But the question that no one is asking is why that order was even necessary, and why the Justice Department, which is now supposedly under the control and authority of the new administration, hasn't reversed its obstinate, inflexible, and stubborn defense of the IRS.

It was over four years ago that the inspector general for tax administration at the Treasury Department released a report detailing that the IRS had targeted conservative nonprofit organizations seeking tax-exempt status, and that then-IRS employee Lois Lerner admitted what had been happening at an American Bar Association meeting in Washington.

The inspector general report found that officials were delaying the processing of applications and requesting voluminous, unnecessary, and irrelevant information, due to the perceived opposition of the nonprofits to liberal policies being promulgated by President Barack Obama and their association with the tea party movement....

The Justice Department's lawyer, Laura Conner, told Walton that the IRS should not be forced to "respond to far-reaching inquiries." But Walton asked, "Why hide the ball? If there's nothing there, there's nothing there."

Then, we have the Sons of Liberty Media reporting this week "Sebastian Gorka and Another Broken Trump Promise."

President Donald Trump promised a change on Islamic terror, but all the change agents are gone.

The specific problem was Trump's apparent retreat from his repeated insistence on speaking about "radical Islamic terrorism" rather than a faceless, amorphous and ideology-free terrorist threat. Gorka continued:

In his resignation letter, Gorka said:

[G]iven recent events, it is clear to me that forces that do not support the MAGA promise are – for now – ascendant within the White House. As a result, the best and most effective way I can support you, Mr. President, is from outside the People's House.

Regrettably, outside of yourself, the individuals who most embodied and represented the policies that will "Make America Great Again," have been internally countered, systematically removed, or undermined in recent months.

This was made patently obvious as I read the text of your speech on Afghanistan this week....

The fact that those who drafted and approved the speech removed any mention of Radical Islam or radical Islamic terrorism proves that a crucial element of your presidential campaign has been lost.

Gorka himself has been known to equivocate on this issue, but he was one of the last, if not the last, member of the Trump administration who was upholding any part of Trump's campaign promises: to speak honestly about the motivating ideology of the jihad threat; and to reverse the Obama administration's policy of denial and willful ignorance regarding the motivating ideology behind the global jihad threat.

In 2011, the Obama administration initiated a massive purge of counterterror materials that spoke honestly about the ideological roots of the jihad threat.

The Obama administration instead mandated that the FBI and other law enforcement agencies not study Islam.

This was a direct result of Muslim groups – many of which had links to Hamas and the Muslim Brotherhood – demanding the removal of such material.

Those who are committed to protecting us were directed at the highest levels to downplay and deny that Islamic terrorism had anything to do with Islam.

Since this is false, that directive has deformed our counterterror response ever since.

But Donald Trump campaigned on the implied promise to change all that.

Say what you will Americans, namely those who blindly follow behind their favorite jersey (politicians) regardless if they do what they promised to do or not, you are the problem when it comes to addressing the truth of the matter and holding those responsible by righting the wrongs when it comes to upholding their oaths.

Southern Poverty Law Center's Full Frontal Attack On Law-Abiding Americans

“The Southern Poverty Law Center is attempting to change your reality into the reality that they want you to believe in.” (Isaiah 5:20)

Finally. The Washington Times reports a conservative Christian media group has slapped the Southern Poverty Law Center with a defamation lawsuit after being listed alongside neo-

Nazis and white supremacists on its "hate map."

1. James Kennedy Ministries filed a lawsuit this week in federal court in Alabama alleging that the SPLC "illegally trafficked in false and misleading descriptions of the services" offered by the ministry, subjecting it to "disgrace, ridicule, odium, and contempt in the estimation of the public."

"These false and illegal characterizations have a chilling effect on the free exercise of religion and on religious free speech for all people of faith," said president and CEO Frank Wright in a Wednesday statement.

For the record, The Southern Poverty Law Center has The Sons of Liberty on their site listed in "General Hate." We are consulting with our attorneys at this time to consider taking the same action or adjoining ourselves to this lawsuit.

First and foremost America, I am not here in anyway attempting to change the Laws (The Mosiac Institution-Common Law - Constitutional Republic, Article 4, Section 4 of the United States Constitution) nor am I attempting to change your values. I am here to enforce and to reaffirm your laws and your values. In doing so, this requires an expose on un-American groups such as the Southern Poverty Law Center who are attempting to use the law against the law (Psalm 94:20) while aiding and abetting enemies both without and within which is defined as treason.

[YouTube Video]

Second, the Southern Poverty Law Center is simply pointing at the groups and ministries that are effective in pulling off the mask of the SPLC (Revelation 12:17; John 15:22).

They are even going so far as to push a hate agenda against the police which only exhibits there hatred for American Law (2 Thessalonians 2:8-10).

International criminal and financier of Southern Poverty Law Center George Soros also financially backs over 200 other anti-American groups

Soros is responsible for stating:

"Destroying America will be the culmination of my life's work."

The SPLC has already incriminated themselves, like that of George Soros, time and time again with statements such as this.

"Sometimes the press will describe us as monitoring hate crimes and so on...I want to say plainly that our aim in life is to destroy these groups, to completely destroy them." –Mark Potok, director of intelligence at Southern Poverty Law Center.

Yet, for some reason or another, the media keeps pushing the narrative that these are the people to listen to when it comes to pointing out the haters while a new poll recently came out that 94% of Americans do not believe the media.

[\[You Tube Video\]](#)

The lying media, along with anti-American groups such as Southern Poverty Law Center (Founder Morris Dees defended the KKK concerning their crimes against people of color), are simply attempting to indoctrinate Americans to believe that the law-abiding citizen is the hater when in fact the opposite is true!

Remember that all crime is motivated by hate, which means those who are hating are the ones that are violating laws (1 John 3:4). And how does one know if someone is hating? Look to the Laws of our Republic.

“For by the law is the knowledge of sin” (Crime against God’s moral Law Exodus 20) (Romans 3:20).

Also remember, that law is there to liberate those who obey the law (John 8:36; 2 Corinthians 3:17).

“The end of the law is not to abolish or restrain, but to preserve and enlarge freedom. For in all the states of created beings capable of law, where there is no law, there is no freedom.” –John Locke

And what you will see here is that the Southern Poverty Law Center is promoting and attempting to advance crime by labeling those who speak out against their crimes to be labeled as the haters (Revelation 12:10).

For example, on The Southern Poverty Law Center’s website they have on their hate list those who are “Anti-LGBT.”

Yet, in all 50 States of our union, our laws condemn sodomy. Which, of course, is found in Scripture with over 30 different references.

The SPLC is attempting to advocate what American law clearly condemns.

[YouTube Video]

Furthermore, SPLC's site is set as a "hit list" for those who believe their propaganda.

Remember twenty-eight year old Floyd Lee Corkins II, the man who attempted to murder members of the Family Research Council in Washington, D. C. back in August of 2012? He pleaded guilty to three out of ten charges, including committing an act of terrorism. He didn't plead guilty to a "hate crime."

However, according to an interview with the Federal Bureau of Investigation following the shooting, Corkins wanted to kill as many people as possible, then smear their faces with Chick-Fil-A sandwiches, and kill the guard. He had also taken substantial steps in the preceding week to carry out other crimes. His use of the sandwiches was to "make a statement against the people who work in that building ... and with their stance against gay rights and Chick-fil-A."

His Statement of Offense also read, "He committed the shooting for political reasons. He had identified the FRC as an anti-gay organization on the Southern Poverty Law Center Website."

"Consistent with his statement to the FBI," the Statement of Offense continued, "a subsequent search of Corkins' family computer revealed that on the afternoon of Sunday, August 12, Corkins used the computer to visit the Southern Poverty Law Center's website, as well as the websites for the FRC and the second organization on his handwritten list."

CBS reported:

Corkins acknowledged as part of his plea agreement that he had taken a number of steps to plan the shooting. He bought the pistol the week before and practiced firing it. He also visited the headquarters of the Family Research Council, and he purchased the Chick-fil-A chicken sandwiches the day before the shooting. The plea agreement said Corkins was filmed picking out the gun by a French television crew doing a piece on the ease with which firearms can be purchased in the United States.

Corkins also acknowledged that he considered making a bomb but didn't have the patience to do it. In his pants pocket, police found a handwritten list of groups that also oppose gay marriage. Lawyers did not include the list of organizations in the plea agreement.

Corkins pleaded guilty to three charges: interstate transportation of a firearm and ammunition, assault with intent to kill while armed and act of terrorism while armed, a charge based on the shooting being intended to intimidate anyone who is associated with or supports the Family Research Council and other organizations that oppose gay marriage. (This has never been in the history of the world).

SPLC's hate list map also calls out "Anti-Muslim"!

Apparently, they forgot what the media has been pushing on the American people for the last 16 years now concerning September 11, 2001. Who was flying those planes?

Look at some of these headlines.

Muslim who Stabbed Cop at Michigan's Flint Airport: As "Soldier of Allah," My "Sole Purpose" Was to Kill Cops

First Somali-Muslim Police Officer in Minnesota Murders Unarmed Blonde Yoga Instructor

And since the ill-advised and ignorant like to make repeated reference to Wikipedia, let me point the finger to them when they actually blurt out the truth in their confusion.

Take a look at their list of Islamist terrorist attacks.

If Americans would simply look to the law, it will clearly expose the organizations like the SPLC for what they are and what it is that they are attempting to establish.

Treason: Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution

Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort.

What Americans are dealing with today is what I have been warning about for 22 years now while diverting Americans from the sowing fields (Luke 7:35).

"Give me four years to teach the children and the seed I have sown will never be uprooted." -Russian Revolutionary Vladimir Lenin

How about 12 years of indoctrination!

[YouTube Video]

This organization, along with many others (Snopes, Facebook, Google, Amazon etc...) and the establishment media, is working hand in glove to win over public opinion to change law to policy which works against "We the people!" (Isaiah 5:20)

"Our government rests in public opinion. Whoever can change public opinion can change the government, practically just so much." -Abraham Lincoln

Nothing could be further from the truth, we are a constitutional Republic, ruled by law and not of men.

John Adams, the second President of the United States, said that we are a "Government of Laws, and not of men."

Furthermore,

"No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the law of God. -Willam Blackstone (The Torah)

The Modern Definition of A Hater – Tell The Truth

“During times of universal deceit, telling the truth becomes a revolutionary act!”-George Orwell

What a last couple of weeks it has been, America!

The Communists are doing their best to stir up domestic insurrection from Charlottesville to the tearing down of national statutes.

Our neutered, stand-by president posted the following on Twitter:

"Sad to see the history and culture of our great country being ripped apart with the removal of our beautiful statutes and monuments."

"...Can't change history, but you can learn from it. Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson- who's next, Washington, Jefferson? So foolish."

...the beauty is being taken out of our cities, towns and parks will be greatly missed and never able to be comparably replaced!"

Wow, the former plant and foreign criminal Barack Hussein Obama is being pointed to as the responsible party for the present turmoil while the current president acts as if he is not the Commander and Chief.

All the while, the media is keeping you diverted from the statue of KKK member Robert Byrd and friend of Hillary Clinton which stands in the halls of Congress, and Vladimir Lenin's statute in Seattle, Washington.

They are telling on themselves America.

[YouTube Video]

And to think that these people are busy at work calling you law-abiding American citizens everything in the book from haters to right wing extremists to racists, which is a word create by Leon Trotsky under the murderous regime of Joseph Stalin to brow beat those who stood against their lawlessness (Revelation 12:10).

All the while, they are accusing you of what they are guilty of!

Just ask propaganda minister under Adolph Hitler, Joseph Goebbels.

"Accuse the other side of which you are guilty."

Let me tell you from firsthand experience as to how this works from engaging in thousands of speaking events: High school assemblies, colleges, tea parties, radio, television etc.

They are attempting to demonize (Luke 23:1) anyone that tells the truth, which exposes them for who they are (John 15:22).

What Americans are not paying attention to is that the fact that they are now dealing with what the school system in this country has raised up! (Luke 7:35)

[\[You Tube Video\]](#)

In speaking to high school assemblies across the country, I would take the time to show them their history while teaching them the Constitution of the United States.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

I was kicked out of a high school for exposing the murder of the innocent (Proverbs 6:17), namely, the abortion industries trail of blood money.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

I was kicked out of a high school for simply bringing the message to Florida's immoral and indoctrinated school system.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

All the while, they were rewarding me "evil for good, and hatred for my love" (Psalm 109:5).

Jesus said, "These things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you" (John 15:12-13).

And boy, oh boy, do they hate! Since when did hate ever tell the truth? Love does that.

Remember Cain and Abel?

"Therefore we are not to be as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you." -1 John 3:12-13

We have been commanded to love our brethren...

"Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him." - Leviticus 19:7

Remember what 2 Chronicles 19:10 says?

"And what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass."

Why do they hate the Christians?

Jesus said, "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil."
(John 7:7)

We know that God is love (1 John 4:8).

And we know that love rejoiceth not in iniquity, which is lawlessness (1 John 3:4; 1 Corinthians 13:6).

In Romans 12:9, it tells us to,

"Let love be without dissimulation (a hiding under a false appearance). Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good."

And why?

Because love works no ill (Romans 13:10), and it owes our brothers and sisters the truth which makes men free (John 8:32).

You see, "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." (Matthew 22:37-40)

Nor are we to,

"Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law." (Romans 13:8-10)

So, when they speak out against God's truth, know then and there that you are dealing with those who do not understand love.

"And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ." -Revelation 12:17

Ending on a positive, while the media is doing its best to demonize American Christian patriots, what is it the students in the high schools got out of my message?

[YouTube Video]

This is why the enemy within is attacking. Because the truth, like a lion, will not only defend itself (Matthew 16:17-19), but it will also take to the enemy's territory to dispossess (Exodus 23).

Then again, who is asking for permission from the devil to obey The Lord? (Isaiah 56)

Teaching Corrupt Politicians To Fear The Consequence Of Violating Law

God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it. – Daniel Webster 1834

This past week, I received an email from a radio show listener in response to what President Donald Trump promised that he would do and what it is that he has actually done. This listener simply was telling me not to “bear false witness” with the President’s accomplishments, which in fact, have not been fulfilled.

I thought that Americans were raised to know that actions speak a lot louder than words (1 John 3:18).

Apparently not!

If you remember right, President Donald Trump promised on the campaign trail to bring forth the “rule of law,” as well as promised to ask his Attorney General to appoint a special prosecutor to look into Hillary Clinton’s long list of crimes.

Donald Trump did say that, did he not? Why, yes he did!

[YouTube Video]

However, immediately after winning the White House, he tells the American people that they owe Hillary Clinton a major debt of gratitude for her service to this country. That is the opposite of what he promised to do if he were to win office.

[YouTube Video]

We continue to watch the crimes of the Clinton crime family come to the surface (Luke 12:2).

Mr. “It is going to be soooo easy” acts as if he does not have the power to enforce the law?

Now, the neutered President is acting as if he did not have the power to prosecute corruption when it comes to the Clintons, or any other corrupt politician. He recently stated:

“Hillary Clinton can illegally get the questions to the debate and delete 33,000 emails, but my son is being scorned by the Fake News media?”

Really?

Here is the kicker. The second part of this email that was sent to me stated that secularist and radio show host Mark Levin said last week on his show that President Trump cannot force the DOJ to prosecute Hillary.

Isn't it interesting that they want to believe that they can, at will, send your boys over to fight unconstitutional wars on their behalf, to clean out some “monstrous dictator” in some third world country who is filling the coffers of the military industrial complex, but the President cannot deal with corruption within? These actors are simply protecting their own, period!

I'm humored at the willful ignorance of the American people that forsake their own mercies (Jonah 2:4) by straining at the gnat and swallowing the big camel.

It reminds me of Marcus Cicero who said,

“Do not blame Caesar, blame the people of Rome who have rejoiced in their loss of freedom who hail him when he speaks in the Forum of more security, more living fatly at the expense of the industrious.”

Our Forefathers countered this ignorance with statements like:

“If ye love wealth greater than liberty, the tranquility of servitude greater than the animating contest for freedom, go home from us in peace. We seek not your counsel, nor your arms. Crouch down and lick the hand that feeds you. May your chains set lightly upon you; and may posterity forget that ye were our countrymen.” – Samuel Adams

Maybe Mark Levin just happened to overlook The United States Constitution where it clearly states:

Article 2, Section 4

The President, Vice President and ALL civil Officers of the United States, shall be removed from Office on Impeachment for, and Conviction of, Treason, Bribery, or other high Crimes and Misdemeanors.

Or maybe Mark Levin didn't take the time to seek out the definition of the word treason?

TREASON is the highest crime of a civil nature of which a man can be guilty. Its signification is different in different countries. In general, it is the offense of attempting to overthrow the government of the state to which the offender owes allegiance, or of betraying the state into the hands of a foreign power. –Webster's 1828 Dictionary

When you look again to the founding documents, namely the Constitution, you will find that treason is a highlighted crime.

Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying War against them, or in adhering to their Enemies, giving them Aid and Comfort.

Some might say that the good thing is, we still have Trey Gowdy, Jason Chaffetz and Daryl Issa!

They are doing such a good job prosecuting corruption within their own ranks that we still have Harry Reid, Barrack Hussein Obama, Eric Holder, Diane Feinstein, Loretta Lynch, Maxine Waters, Susan Rice, Debbie Wasserman Schultz, Huma Abedin, Hillary Clinton and list goes on and on and on and on (Exodus 23:8).

The definition of insanity is doing the same things over and over again expecting to reap a different result (Galatians 6:7).

Don't forget that the likes of Mark Levin, Glenn Beck, Rush Limbaugh, etc. feed the unconstitutional narrative of the liberals vs. conservatives, left vs. the right, the Democrats vs. Republicans. The way they get away with this and hang on to their jobs is to simply omit reference to God, His moral Law and the Constitution of the United States (Mark 3:25).

Instead of taking responsibility and educating the American people, they simply play the self-elevated professors of Herod's corrupt governmental indoctrination (Mark 8:15).

They are simply getting you to ask the wrong questions without giving you the right answers, making void the commandments of God through the tradition of carnal and reprobate men (Mark 7:13).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Maybe those who have not taken the time to look to history need to start looking and understanding that Republics (Rule of Law not of men or of the opinions of men) have been destroyed for the lack of impeachment and consequence within when it comes to representatives in their governments.

Do not separate text from historical background. If you do, you will have perverted and subverted the Constitution, which can only end in a distorted, bastardized form of illegitimate government. – James Madison

With that said, how did our Forefathers deal with corruption within?

Benedict Arnold was thought to be a patriot. Yet, when exposed, he was found to be a man that committed high treason against his own country.

In July 1780, Arnold sought and obtained command of the fort at West Point. He had already begun a year-long correspondence with General Henry Clinton (Of all the names) in New York through Major Andre and was closely involved with Beverley Robinson, a prominent loyalist (Loyal to the British crown) in command of a loyalist regiment. Arnold offered to hand the fort over to the British for close to $3 million dollars in 2017 dollars and a brigadier's commission.

He chose West Point for its strategic importance. The Americans had been using its position to prevent British ships from moving Northward from New York City up the Hudson and connecting British forces in Canada-a move that would have split the north from the south. His plans were thwarted when Andre was captured September 23, 1780 with a pass signed by Arnold. Andre was carrying documents that disclosed the plot and which incriminated Arnold. Andre was later hanged as a spy.

[YouTube Video]

America, do as The Lord commands!

"Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate:" -Amos 5:15

If Americans truly want their country back, they are going to have to teach evil people to fear the consequences of their actions!

Who Does The President Work For?

We recognize no sovereign but God, and no king but Jesus!" - John Hancock, April 18, 1775

First, think of this, the greatest man in History is Jesus!

He had no servants.

Yet, they called Him master. He had no degree. Yet, they called Him Teacher. He had no medicines.

Yet, they called Him Healer. He had no army. Yet, earthly Kings feared Him. He won no military battles. Yet, He conquered the world. He committed no crime. Yet, they crucified Him. He was buried in a tomb. Yet, He lives today.

When you look to Scripture to identify what the King of kings looks and acts like (Matthew 7:16), it is of note that He was not surrounded by armed secret service, nor did He have 20-30 others on donkeys protecting the people to which he came to serve (John 1:11).

His trip didn't cost taxpayers approximately $156,820, or $2,614 per minute to move from place to place. He simply trusted God to show the world who He was and what He came into the world to accomplish (John 10:38; Luke 19:10; Matthew 1:21).

Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon.

And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. –Matthew 21:5-9

And this is what “We the people” in this country are to emulate. Christ the King! (John 14:6; Matthew 21:5-9)

Second, the first president of the United States, George Washington, was hailed as “first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen.” He led by example as he followed the Christ (1 Corinthians 11:1).

If you know your history you know that during the Revolutionary War, George Washington didn’t send someone else to go in his stead; he took responsibility and went himself to lead the call for independence on the behalf of the country and the people he loved.

During this time, he had little to no money to fight the war, but he fought on with what he had and beat back the tyrant King George.

George Washington was also known as the man who could not die in battle. He was shot at several times with bullet holes in his jacket, yet he survived unscathed. He told his family, “By the all-powerful dispensations of providence, I have been protected beyond all human probability or expectation.”

Like King David, God protected Washington from his enemies (Psalm 71:3).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Third, in the past half-century, we have seen the corrupt in government slowly usurp their authority and declare war on the American people. The proof is found in the over the top methods of “protecting” the president and how they have risen to ridiculous measures. One has to ask the obvious question, who does the President work for?

Anyone who travels to Washington, DC will know what I am talking about. When the president’s motorcade goes through town, armed militant officers block off every road and any building the president enters is searched over with a fine-toothed comb.

Why would they need to do this if they have the support of American people?

The Secret Service

The Secret Service was originally created in 1865 to suppress counterfeit currency. It had nothing to do with the president’s safety until 1907, when Congress passed the Sundry Civil Expenses Act, which now meant that two men would be in full-time charge of the president’s safety.

The Secret Service now has 3,200 employees, and whenever the president leaves the White House, the Secret Service calls on other federal, state, and local agencies to heighten security measures.

Until Harry Truman’s presidency, former presidents were dropped off at their homes and were provided no special pension, security, or other benefits. They were simply told “Thank you for your service and have a good day.” They would become an average American citizen, just like those they served.

As a matter of fact, President Truman would take daily walks around Washington, DC with a bodyguard or two in tow shaking the hands of his constituents.

What has happened since then? When presidents work for the people, they feel safe enough to walk up converse with them; if at this point you are saying that things have gotten much worse in this country, you simply prove my point. Corruption in America is an exhibition and an expose of what the government is and is not doing.

However, when they work for special interests and are being treated as crowned kings (which they are not), they suddenly feel that they need to be protected from their constituents. Is the writing on the wall? Yes, indeed it is.

Look at the parallel between Washington and the current administrations:

- In 1789, the federal government under President Washington had 350 federal civilian employees; today they number in the millions!
- In 1832, the total federal budget was $11 million; in 2011 it was over $4 trillion!
- Since 1900, the total number of government laws and regulations the average citizen is required to obey has increased an estimated 3,000 percent.

James Madison stated, “... every word of (the Constitution) decides a question between power and liberty. As the government increases control, this leads to a corresponding decrease of individual liberty and responsibility.”

“The real problem is when all this power becomes centralized and is left unchecked by the public, then comes the rationale that “they have the badge, they must be right.”

Thomas Jefferson, who lived through the era of the Revolutionary War, warned:

“The two enemies of the people are criminals and government, so let us tie the second down with the chains of the Constitution so the second will not become the legalized version of the first.”

It has also been said that laws are most numerous when the commonwealth is most corrupt. Thousands of unconstitutional policies are being laid on the backs of American people on a yearly basis.

Clearly, America is corrupt! The politicians are corrupt because the people are corrupt. To say or act otherwise is most disingenuous, and ignorant to say the least (Hosea 4:6).

[YouTube Video]

It further solidifies the point that our representative government does not serve the people they swore to serve. They are obviously serving special interest groups which need to protect their man/woman from the American people they purport to serve.

Somehow, the people in this country act as if the presidents were somehow above the law that they swore to uphold. Because of this, they then carry some unspoken title of nobility, a nobility that usurps the law, which our Constitution clearly forbids!

Article 1, Section 9, Clause 8:

No Title of Nobility shall be granted by the United States: And no Person holding any Office of Profit or Trust under them, shall, without the Consent of the Congress, accept of any present, Emolument, Office, or Title, of any kind whatever, from any King, Prince or foreign State.

Here's something to think about before going to the next point.

- The President is defended with guns.
- Congress is defended with guns.
- Governors are defended with guns.
- Courts are defended with guns.
- Celebrities are defended with guns.
- Yet, our children are defended with a sign that reads "This is a gun free zone" as they continuously strip Americans from their God-given right to protect themselves.

[YouTube Video]

Do your best to forget about American boys and girls that are sent to fight unconstitutional wars abroad, as well as the police that are subjected to all sorts of danger on the behalf of those that sent them to war both here and abroad.

Let's get to the final points...

How is the President protected today?

Did you know that back in 2001 the Secret Service awarded a contract to General Motors to custom make the presidential car?

Although the car still has the look of a Cadillac DeVille, it is actually built on a chassis for a sports utility vehicle.

With all of the extras that are built into the car, there is substantial need for a heavier-duty chassis. The windows have five layers and can stop armor-piercing bullets. The doors are 8 inches thick and cannot only block projectiles but also keep out chemical attacks through a special extra-tight seal.

The chassis is reinforced to protect the passengers from bombs underneath the car. All of the car's bodywork is armored with a combination of steel, aluminum, titanium, and ceramic. The gas tank has special armor and is surrounded by foam to prevent it from exploding if it is shot.

In addition to defensive capabilities, the car also has some offensive weapons. The car is fitted with tear gas cannons to disperse crowds. Of course, "The Beast" generally travels in a large motorcade surrounded by other Secret Service vehicles, so the situation would have to be dire for any weapons to be used.

There are two pints of blood of the president's blood type in Cadillac One at all times.

The back compartment, where the president rides, can be sealed against not only chemical attacks but also against nuclear contamination. Even when the tires are punctured, the car can continue driving on them.

Between the motorcades, airplanes, helicopters and security entourage, travel for a U.S. president is an insanely complex and highly-orchestrated endeavor, as well as the costing the American taxpayers.

That quick travel and those high costs are a result of a very well-organized system of transportation. The motorcade, for example, includes a route car—along with about 20 to 30 motorcycles—that comes through before the rest of the motorcade to close off all the exits, intersecting streets, and to push cars to the outside of the street.

Then comes the local police, followed by the "secure package," a group of cars that includes two identical (they even have the same plates) armored presidential limos.

The helicopters (which can cost around $2,000 per flight hour), Air Force One (which costs close to $206,337 per flight hour), the motorcade, and the C5 Galaxy planes used to transport the motorcade cost the American taxpayer $350 million per year, or one quarter of the yearly White House

budget.

The question that I have for you is, who does the President work for? Read Deuteronomy 17:14-20. [YouTube Video]

Minneapolis Protesters To Mayor Betsy Hodges: “Stop Terrorizing Us!”

Terrorism- “Government by intimidation” Oxford English dictionary

Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

As you may have heard, on July 15th, Justine Damond was shot and killed in her pajamas after calling 911 of a suspected crime in progress. Justine was speaking to a Somali Muslim police officer named Mohamed Noor, whom Mayor Betsy Hodges approved and praised and was somehow fast tracked to become a Minneapolis police officer with a badge and a gun.

To date, Noor refuses to be interrogated by city investigators about the killing.

After the blast in England, Minneapolis Mayor Betsy Hodges gave a speech from a mosque \(1 Timothy 4:1\) and showed her unwavering support for the Muslim communities.

Hodges said, "We stand with our Muslim community."

Not one word was shown in support of the victims, not one word.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

You can also see that the apple does not fall too far from the tree (Matthew 7:16) when you see governor Mark Dayton, voted worst senator in US history, acting out in a similar fashion. He told Minnesotans who protested illegal immigration, "If you don't like our Somali refugees, get out of Minnesota."

To add insult to injury in an attempt to justify the killing of Justine Damond, all the while knowing that there is nothing that could justify the murderous acts of Somalian Mohamed Noor, Mayor Betsy Hodges encouraged the Muslim communities to file hate crimes against Americans who were outraged over the killing.

How did this all go over with the good people of Minneapolis?

As expected, and right on cue, treasonous Mayor Betsy Hodges, with script in hand and the corrupt media standing by to publish everything that she illegally advocates by attempting to set the narrative, got called out by the community for who she really is and what it is that she is doing (Luke 22:48).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Of course, after the people jammed her message in protest and shouted her down, demanding that she stop “terrorizing” the people in Minneapolis, they then called for her resignation!

Earlier in the week, Hodges forced the resignation from the first lesbian police chief of police Janee Harteau, who just happened to call out Mohamed Noor as to the responsible person for the killing by saying, “Justine did not have to die,” and criticized Noor’s decision to shoot as the “actions of one individual, “and that the death of Justine should have not happened.”

P.S. This is also the same Betsy Hodges that married a homosexual couple back in May of 2014 in defiance of South Dakota law (Psalm 94:20).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Let’s take a look at the fruit of the Muslims \(Matthew 7:16\) in which corrupt politicians on a global scale are helping to plunder.

- Denmark: 450% more crimes committed by Muslims than non-Muslims.
- Germany: Muslim migrants committed 142,500 crimes in 6 months. This is 780 every day.
- Sweden: 480,000 sexual assaults in one year. 77% of all rapes by less than 2% Muslim.
- England and Wales: Over 56% of Syrian refugee’s committed severe crimes in less than 1 year etc.
- Belgium: 35% of Prison population is Muslim who make up only 6% of the population.
- UK: Muslims fill 44% of high security prisons, out of a 5% population.
- USA: 91.4 % Muslim refugees are on food stamps, 68.3 % on cash welfare.

Muslim migration has doubled in the decade since 9/11 and 60 percent of migrants to America favor sharia law (Deuteronomy 28:15-68).

It is not a foreign enemy that is doing the terrorizing here, America. It is the corrupt and treasonous politicians within (Leviticus 26:17). So, it is time to protest and indict the corrupt who are doing the terrorizing (Article 2, Section 4 of the United States Constitution).

Confronting The Oppressors

“Never take counsel from your fears.”-Stonewall Jackson

On a daily basis, Americans are being inundated with oppression through a corrupt system of not only the media, but also corrupt politicians as well.

80 house members have been reported as communists.

[YouTube Video]

Through it all, we see such unlawful and unconstitutional organizations like that of the American Civil Liberties Union, The Southern Poverty Law Center, Planned Parenthood, Homosexual organizations and bureaucracies such as the TSA, Homeland Security etc. surfacing throughout the country (Psalm 55:11; Amos 3:1-15) only to upend American sovereignty. While in the end, they are making war against God by advocating that which He clearly condemns (Micah 3:5).

[YouTube Video]

It has been rightly said by William Booth, "If you want to change the future, then you are going to have to trouble the present."

It is a tactic that enemies of this country within and without are facilitating.

"Accuse the other side of that which you are guilty." –Joseph Goebbels, Nazi propaganda minister

The enemies of America are doing their best to tear down the United States Constitution while claiming victim status and perpetuating the crimes.

However, the good news is that it works both ways, if the American people are willing to enforce the law against them that commit the crimes (Psalm 40:8; 1 John 3:4).

"The strength of the Constitution (enumerated Laws) lies entirely in the determination of each citizen to defend it. Only if every single citizen feels duty bound to do his share in this defense are the constitutional rights secure." -Albert Einstein America, there is no other side to the issue when it comes to America's oppressors. There is the law abider or the Lawbreaker. Furthermore, America is a Constitutional Republic, ruled by law (Article 4, Section 4), not by the opinions of the criminals.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

When you go to Judges 3, you find:

Now these are the nations which the Lord left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan; Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at the least such as before knew nothing thereof; Namely, five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount Lebanon, from mount Baalhermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the Lord, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses. So the corrupt Kings were allowed to remain only to PROVE THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL TO KNOW WHETHER THEY WOULD LISTEN CAREFULLY UNTO THE COMMANDMENTS OF THE LORD! This they failed to do, and because they did evil in the sight of The Lord they were delivered into the hands of their enemies.... And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and forgot the Lord their God, and served Baalim and the groves. Therefore the anger of the Lord was hot against Israel, and he sold them into "their hand and were forced to serve them!"

When you look into the history of the patriarchs, you can see that the Lord is willing to give the church what it is willing to fight for! (1 Timothy 6:12) What an opportunity for us in this country to prove the God of Israel (Judges 2:22), who has not changed (Hebrews 13:8), that He might show Himself strong on our behalf once again (2 Chronicles 16:9).

Remember America, greater works will we do than Jesus did (John 14:12). The sooner you take Him at His word, the sooner we are going to see the God of Israel in Jesus Christ glorified. America has been a beacon of light to the world (Isaiah 51:4), and it is for us to keep it lit up. To those who understand "to bring the light you must endure the flame," we have a job to do, and your enemy is scared to death of this revelation of truth in action (Matthew 16:17-19). Let's set the record straight.

A Politician Is A Fellow Who Will Lay Down "Your" Life For His Country

"Our boys were sent off to die with beautiful ideals painted in front of them. No one told them that dollars and cents were the real reason they were marching off to kill and die."
—General Smedley Butler

Did you ever notice that the politicians that talk much of war are those who have never been to war.

Or have you noticed that those who are to serve "We the People" in Congress are so apt to send your men and women to fight unconstitutional wars, but for some reason or another it does not apply to their own (Matthew 23:3).

As a matter of fact, it has been said that the Vietnam War ended when the children of those who represented us were pulled up for the draft.

Furthermore, to add insult to injury, it seems that trees take precedent over human life. When you go to Washington D.C., you see trees with fences around them that state "Tree protection: KEEP OUT! Do Not Enter. The enclosed area is a tree root protection zone. Fence must remain closed at all times." They are simply protecting trees from the people (Romans 1:28).

What you do not see is the Vietnam Wall (my cousin was killed in Vietnam) 20 yards behind this sign. Fifty-eight thousand, three hundred and eighteen were killed (Amos 4:10).

With the last 100 years of exposing the corruption of the American politician, you would think that Americans would understand that they CANNOT trust the Judases who they are led to believe actually work for the people of this country (Luke 22:48). Especially, when it comes to war.

In contrast, how was it that during the Revolutionary War, the Forefathers thought it their duty to fight the wars in which they believed were worth fighting, which established our Constitutional Republic.

It was said of George Washington, "First in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen."

Why first in the hearts of his countrymen? Because he led by example. He did not expect others to take his place for such a worthy cause.

Remember, there is The Lord's Wars and that of man's wars. One is righteous and the other is not (Numbers 21:14).

A post recently popped up that will make the next point,

"Before complaining about the fact the American government is involved with another campaign to plunder another country that does not go along with the plans of the new world order.

You would not have to worry about other countries hating you if you stopped corrupt politicians from inciting America to attack their countries.

Bombing other countries, Launching coups, installing expendable puppet dictators only to send in American forces to establish a military presence."

Another one read,

"In today's distorted media landscape, when the U.S. Government calls another nation's leader a dictator, what they really mean to say is that they're not a complete pro-USA puppet."

Just think of this, 94% of Americans do not believe the lying media, Congress has an 11% approval rating, and yet, when they are told what some drummed up foreign country is going to do to us, the people somehow latch onto the fact that they are now telling them the truth. This is the pinnacle of hypocrisy (Romans 1:18).

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said of the United States government back in 1957:

"Our government has kept us in a perpetual state of fear – kept us in a continuous stampede of patriotic fervor – with the cry of grave national emergency. Always there has been some terrible evil at home or some monstrous foreign power that was going to gobble us up if we did not blindly rally behind it. ..."

You would think that this is what America was told by the president on Sept. 11, 2001. It was.

Of course, war is never sold to you in truth. Remember, the truth is always the first casualty of war (John 8:44).

"By way of deception, thou shalt do war." –Mossad slogan

What of the military–industrial complex (MIC), which is an informal alliance between a nation's military and the arms industry which supplies it, seen together as a vested interest which influences public policy.

A driving factor behind this relationship between the government and defense-minded corporations is that both sides benefit—one side from obtaining war weapons, and the other from being paid to supply them. The term is most often used in reference to the system behind the military of the United States, where it is most prevalent and gained popularity after its use in the farewell address of President Dwight D. Eisenhower on January 17, 1961. In 2011, the United States spent more (in absolute numbers) on its military than the next 13 nations combined.

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

I suggest that next time a war is being sold to the American people that those who are calling for the war, like our Forefathers, are the first ones to lead the way.

The people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same way in any country. –Herman Goering

And to think that 222 years out of 241 years since 1776, Americans have been at war.

And Americans still haven't figured this out.

Henry Kissinger said of our veterans:

"Military men are just dumb, stupid animals, to be used as pawns in foreign policy."

The fact is, the American military are not dumb and stupid. They just need to recognize who the enemies are, and that comes by knowing what the Law states (Hosea 4:6; 2 Timothy 2:15).

"I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic."

There are only two things we should fight for. One is the defense of our homes and the other is the Bill of Rights!

–General Smedley Butler

So, the next time you hear the politicians clamoring for war, if it's a worthy cause, they should be the first ones to go.

There Is No Debate: It Is Illegal & Unconstitutional No Matter What They Re-Name It

"The typical American voter is so stupid, his dog teaches him tricks." –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-Care

The hot topic again this week coming from today's conservatives is an attempt to get you caught up into a debate about what is illegal. The GOP is attempting to appease the American voter with a change of name again to implement the illegal and unconstitutional "Obamacare" (Mark 8:15).

Look at this word play here America. First, it was the "RomneyCare." Then, it became the "Affordable Care Act." Now it is the "American Health Care Act." No matter what it is called, or who the president is who pushes for it and signs it, it is illegal (Psalm 94:20).

Rather than getting caught up into the debate that they want you to get caught up into, the question that should be presented to them who call themselves representatives is, "Where are you deriving your authority from to implement these unconstitutional acts?" It is a question that they simply cannot answer.

In other words, "If they can get you asking the wrong questions, they do not have to worry about giving you the right answers."

Considering that which you have been led to believe concerning Romney-Obama-care and that it is such a good deal (Premiums are skyrocketing) for Americans, why does it not apply to the Congress that approved these unlawful measures?

"Exploiting the stupidity of the American voter is fun and easy: kinda like squeezing a lemon." –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"Lack of transparency is a huge political advantage. Call it the stupidity of the American voter or whatever, but basically, that was really, really critical for the thing to pass." -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"When we're done with employer-based health insurance, it will have s much life in it as Jimmy Hoffa." -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

P.T. Barnum said a sucker is born every minute, but his estimate was laughably low. -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

WorldNet Daily reported on how Obamacare threatens to shred the Constitution.

Here are the top six legal arguments cited in “Impeachable Offenses” challenging the legality of Obamacare.

1. Taxation without representation

The law appears to violate Article 1 Section 9 of the Constitution, which stipulates: “No capitation, or other direct, Tax shall be laid, unless in Proportion to the Census or Enumeration herein before directed to be taken.”

The section is clarified in the 16th Amendment: “The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several States, and without regard to any census or enumeration.”

The Supreme Court ruled the law’s individual mandate requiring most Americans to obtain health insurance is a tax. However, according to experts cited in “Impeachable Offenses,” the mandate does not fit the description of any of the three types of valid constitutional taxes – income, excise or direct.

Write Klein and Elliott: “Because the penalty is not assessed on income, it is not a valid income tax. Because the penalty is not assessed uniformly or proportionately, and is triggered by economic inactivity, it is not a valid excise tax. Finally, because ObamaCare fails to apportion the tax among the states by population, it is not a valid direct tax.”

Despite Obama’s public statements that the individual mandate was not a tax, the Supreme Court ruled June 28, 2012, in a 5 to 4 vote, with conservative Chief Justice John Roberts siding with the majority, that the requirement that the majority of Americans obtain health insurance or pay a penalty was constitutional, authorized by Congress’s power to levy taxes.

"The Affordable Care Act's requirement that certain individuals pay a financial penalty for not obtaining health insurance may reasonably be characterized as a tax," Roberts wrote in the majority opinion. "Because the Constitution permits such a tax, it is not our role to forbid it, or to pass upon its wisdom or fairness."

In a second 5 to 4 vote, again with Justice Roberts joining the majority, the court rejected the administration's most vigorous argument in support of the law, that Congress held the power to regulate interstate commerce.

The Commerce Clause, the court ruled, did not apply.

However, Klein and Elliott document the White House has been changing the law without involving Congress since the Supreme Court ruling and that multiple sections of the implementation of Obamacare are unconstitutional.

2. Illegally bypassing Congress? Bribing states?

"Impeachable Offenses" cites Jonathan H. Adler of the Case Western Reserve University School of Law and Michael F. Cannon of the Cato Institute.

The duo found: "The law encourages states to create health-insurance exchanges, but it permits Washington to create them if states decline. ... ObamaCare authorizes premium assistance in state-run exchanges (Section 1311) but not federal ones (Section 1321).

"In other words, states that refuse to create an exchange can block much of ObamaCare's spending and practically force Congress to reopen the law for revisions."

The Obama administration, however, was furiously at work in an attempt to avoid a legislative debacle. The administration proposed an IRS rule to "offer premium assistance in all exchanges 'whether established under section 1311 or 1321,'"

Adler and Cannon said.

The Treasury Department, they continued, was “confident” that the IRS had the authority to offer premium assistance where Congress had not authorized it and that this overreach was “consistent with the intent of the law and [its] ability to interpret and implement it.”

“Such confidence is misplaced,” Adler and Cannon asserted. “The text of the law is perfectly clear. And without congressional authorization, the IRS lacks the power to dispense tax credits or spend money.”

In May 2012, the IRS released its final regulations that would “provide guidance to individuals who enroll in qualified health plans through Affordable Insurance Exchanges and claim the premium tax credit, and to Exchanges that make qualified health plans available to individuals and employers.”

Free-market advocate Phil Kerpen, cited in “Impeachable Offenses,” called the regulations an “outrageous edict that attempts to up-end the ability of states to opt out of [Obama’s] health care law’s new entitlement.”

Kerpen called the Obama administration out for what he said was an obvious attempt to “bribe states to participate by manipulating language in the law that is meant to authorize start-up grants to instead fund years of operating expenses.”

Indeed, a July 2012 announcement from the Department of Health and Human Services offered states six full years of funding.

Was the maneuver constitutional? Article I, Section 1 states: “All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.”

Congress does not vest the power to write and rewrite laws in HHS and IRS; nor can unelected bureaucrats impose taxes on states that legitimately opted out of a federal program, Kerpen continued.

“Impeachable Offenses” further cites Adler and Cannon on how the IRS went ahead in May 2012 and finalized “a rule that will issue tax credits – and therefore will trigger cost-sharing subsidies and employer-mandate penalties – through federal Exchanges.”

They contended that the rule is not only illegal, but it also lacks any statutory authority.

3. ‘State’s rights violated’

The 10th Amendment to the Constitution reads: “The powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.”

The Tenth Amendment Center, which was among the plaintiffs that took Obamacare to the Supreme Court, clarifies that the amendment was “written to emphasize the limited nature of the powers delegated to the federal government.”

“In delegating just specific powers to the federal government, the states and the people, with some small exceptions, were free to continue exercising their sovereign powers.”

As of February 2013, only 17 states and the District of Columbia planned to run their own exchanges, while another seven opted for state-federal exchanges. The 26 states that have chosen to opt out entirely challenged the law in the Supreme Court

In January 2010, Ken Klukowski explained that the 10th Amendment does not apply here in the way many people have thought – although it does apply in a more serious manner, “Impeachable Offenses” relates. Klukowski co-authored with former Ohio Secretary of State Kenneth Blackwell the 2010 book

“The Blueprint: Obama’s Plan to Subvert the Constitution and Build an Imperial Presidency.”

Citing two cases from the 1990s, Klukowski wrote that the Supreme Court “shocked the legal world” by striking the cases down for violating the 10th Amendment.

The first case was in 1992, New York v. United States, in which “the Court struck down a federal law requiring states to pass state laws for the disposal of radioactive waste, and to issue regulations for implementing those laws.”

In the second case, Printz v. United States in 1997, the court “struck down a provision of the Brady Act – a federal gun-control law – that required state and local law enforcement to run background checks on handgun purchasers.”

From these two cases, Klukowski explained, “emerged the anti-commandeering principle, holding that the 10th Amendment forbids the federal government from commandeering – or ordering – any branch of state government to do anything. The states are sovereign and answer only to their voters, not to Washington, D.C.”

The commandeering principle is the real problem for Obamacare, write Klein and Elliott, since the law requires each state to set up an insurance exchange.

“It then requires the states to pass regulations for implementing those laws. And it further requires the states to dedicate staff and spend state money to administer those programs,” said Klukowski.

In his opinion, Obamacare is a “straight-out repeat of those 1992 and 1997 cases.”

“The main difference is that Obamacare violates the anti-commandeering principle in a far more severe and egregious way than those previous laws ever did,” Klukowski concluded.

4. Originated in Senate?

"Impeachable Offenses" cites Article 1, Section 7 of the Constitution, which states: "All bills for raising Revenue shall originate in the House of Representatives."

The Sacramento, Calif.-based Pacific Legal Foundation filed a challenge to Obamacare that contends it is unconstitutional, because the bill originated in the Senate, not the House.

The foundation claims that under the Origination Clause of the Constitution "all bills raising revenue must begin in the House."

The tip to follow this course of action came from the Supreme Court itself. In his June 28, 2012, ruling, Chief Justice Roberts took pains in the majority opinion to define Obamacare as a federal tax, not a mandate.

The Justice Department claimed that the bill did not originate as a spending bill and therefore does not violate the Origination Clause.

The bill, which began life as House Resolution 3590, then called the Service Members Home Ownership Act, was stripped of its contents after it passed in the House in a process known as "gut and amend." The legislation was replaced entirely with the thousands of pages of what eventually became Obamacare and given a new name.

The Obama government's position is that while using the resolution as a "'shell bill' may be inelegant ... it's not unconstitutional."

The foundation's response, as documented in "Impeachable Offenses," was that "it is undisputed that H.R. 3590 was not originally a bill for raising revenue. ... Unlike in the prior cases [cited by the Justice Department], the Senate's gut-and-amend procedure made H.R. 3590 for the first time into a bill for raising revenue. The precedents the government cites are therefore inapplicable.”

While the Justice Department contended that raising revenue was incidental to Obamacare’s “central purpose” – to improve the nation’s health care system – the foundation’s attorney, Timothy Sandefur, disagreed.

“What kinds of taxes are not for raising revenue?” he asked.

5. Creating commerce

The Commerce Clause, as stated in Article 1, Section 8 of the Constitution, grants Congress the right to regulate interstate commerce, not intrastate commerce, Klein and Elliott note.

Since the 1930s, Supreme Court decisions have interpreted the Commerce Clause broadly,” writes Ilya Somin, an associate professor of law at George Mason University School of Law and co-editor of the Supreme Court Economic Review.

“But every previous case expanding the commerce power involved some sort of ‘economic activity,’ such as operating a business or consuming a product. Failure to purchase health insurance is neither commerce nor an interstate activity. Indeed, it is the absence of commerce,” Somin added.

Georgetown University Law Center professor Randy Barnett, a former student of Harvard Law School professors Charles Fried and Laurence Tribe, “both of whom argued for the constitutionality of the [economic] mandate,” writes Klein and Elliott, has been referred to as “the ‘mastermind’ of the legal challenge” against ObamaCare.

Barnett opined in a March 2011 debate with his former teachers: “Though Congress can compel people to be drafted into the military or sit on a jury, those activities relate to, as the Supreme Court put it, the ‘supreme and noble duty’ of citizenship . . . There is no supreme and noble duty of citizens to enter into contracts with private companies.”

Barnett added that “the mandate would result in a ‘fundamental alteration in the status of American citizens.’”

Even the Congressional Budget Office weighed in, stating in January 2010: “A mandate requiring all individuals to purchase health insurance would be an unprecedented form of federal action. The government has never required people to buy any good or service as a condition of lawful residence in the United States.”

6. Illegal penalty?

Obamacare affixes a financial penalty on Americans who fail to purchase health insurance in order to regulate behavior – regulatory powers not granted in the Constitution, documents “Impeachable Offenses.”

Scott P. Richert commented after the Supreme Court ruling: “Congress has been given the green light to do something that even the most imaginative interpretation of the Commerce Clause would not allow: to compel the supposedly free citizens of the United States to purchase anything that Congress deems in those citizens’ best interest – or to compel them to purchase one thing rather than another.”

Richert, who is executive editor of Chronicles, the monthly magazine published by the conservative think tank the Rockford Institute, continued: “All Congress has to do is to pass legislation levying a tax on those who, say, fail to purchase smoke detectors for their homes, or who insist on purchasing a car that runs on gasoline over one that runs on electricity.”

The Founding Forefathers Meant To Unite By Dividing

"Sad will be the day when the American people forget their traditions and their history, and no longer remember that the country they love, the institutions they cherish, and the freedom they hope to preserve, were born from the throes of armed resistance to tyranny, and nursed in the rugged arms of fearless men." -Roger Sherman, signer of the Declaration of Independence

The Founding Fathers established documentation such as The Declaration of Independence, The Bill of Rights and US Constitution, etc., which are set in place to Unify in righteousness (Leviticus 19:17) under God and separation from the wicked, as well as Tyrants (Matthew 10:34).

[YouTube Video]

"Our constitution was made for a moral people and a religious people (Under the Christian umbrella). It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." -President John Adams

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Study the Constitution. Let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in legislatures, and enforced in courts of justice.
– President Abraham Lincoln

We know that history teaches us the lessons that many want to learn so that history does not repeat itself. On the other hand, there are those who could care less about the lessons that need to be learned. I am now addressing those who do not want to see the evils of the past repeated in the present. After all, prevention is better than cure.

In this country, our forefathers, under God, have given to their posterity, the American people, the privilege of being the government. Remember what President Abraham Lincoln said:

“Government for the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.”

Of course, he took from John Wycliffe who said:

“This Bible is for the government of the people, by the people and for the people.”

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

The Declaration of Independence, which our forefathers have handed to the past, present and future generations, reads:

“That to secure these (God given) Rights, Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever and Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute new Government” (Exodus 20; Amos 3:3; 2 Corinthians 6:14-19; James 4:4).

Then, we look to the preamble of the US Constitution to find

"We the People (Are the government) of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union (All 50 states), establish Justice (According to God's moral Law), insure domestic Tranquility..."

The Framers had good reason to seek to "insure" domestic tranquility. Literally "domestic tranquility" means peace and quiet at home—at home in America, as opposed to in other nations. Tranquility for the Framers meant the absence of riots, rebellions, and similar symptoms of social disorder.

The Constitution continues, "...provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare (The concern of the government for the morality, peace and safety of its citizens. Providing for the welfare of the general public is a basic goal of government.), and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity (family lineage), do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

Suppose a nation in some distant region should take the Bible for their only law book, and every member should regulate his conduct by the precepts there exhibited! Every member would be obliged in conscience, to temperance, frugality, and industry; to justice, kindness, and charity towards his fellow men; and to piety, love and reverence toward Almighty God...What a Utopia, what a Paradise would this region be. –John Adams wrote in his diary entry dated February 22, 1756

NOT TRUE! Evil Prevails Because Good People Do Nothing!

"History will record that the greatest tragedy of this period of social transition was not the strident clamor of the bad people, but the appalling silence of the (so called) good people." –Martin Luther King Jr.

Excuses on the left and excuses on the right. Oh, the little games that the so-called grown-ups have played. The lack of gratitude toward the sacrifices given for the freedoms that Americans have, and yet, Americans play the game of blaming others for what all are responsible, doing the right thing.

[YouTube Video]

I headlined Edmond Burkes quote where he stated:

"The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." – Edmund Burke

Yet, the statement is not true. Good is defined in Webster's 1828 Dictionary as "Having moral qualities best adapted to its design and use, or the qualities which God's law requires; virtuous; pious; religious; applied to persons, and opposed to bad, vicious, wicked, evil."

Therefore, the good are those who do the right thing under God's Moral Government (Exodus 20), not the wrong thing.

Americans have been conditioned to call themselves the "good people." Yet, they do nothing concerning the "bad people." As a matter of fact, today's conservatives are, without a doubt, yesterday's liberals.

God is speaking to those would call themselves the good people of the day:

"They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge." –

Jeremiah 5:28

Sound familiar?

Let me give you an example. This week, someone had posted a meme on a live feed, which read:

"This is what the Democrats have done to America:

- Let illegals in
- Let criminals out
- Coddle the lazy
- Persecute the Christians
- Demonize police officers
- Let boys into girls bathrooms
- Tolerate and accept radical Islam
- Advocate for the murder of the unborn"

First of all, I would ask the reader where in any founding document is there a divided party system? (Article 4, Section 4, US Constitution)

Furthermore, President John Adams said

"There is nothing which I dread so much as a division of the republic into two great parties, each arranged under its leader, and concerting measures in opposition to each other. This, in my humble apprehension, is to be dreaded as the greatest political evil under our Constitution" (Exodus 18:21).

[YouTube Video]

All that was posted concerning the Democrats and their crimes are only a reflection of what the so-called good people have tolerated from those they call the Left or Democrats. There is no such thing as the Left, America. It is simply a scapegoat to blame others for what the Right has left off.

Martin Luther King, Jr. rightly stated"

"When evil men plot, good men must plan. When evil men burn and bomb, good men must build (Isaiah 58:12) and bind. When evil men shout ugly words of hatred, good men must commit themselves to the glories of love (1 John 4:8). Where evil men would seek to perpetuate an unjust status quo, good men must seek to bring into being a real order of justice (Isaiah 26:9)."

Spot on. Justice is the answer (Isaiah 56).

[YouTube Video]

"There is a war between you and God's Law. The Ten Commandments are against you. The first comes forward and says, 'Let him be cursed. For he denies Me. He has another god beside Me. His god is his belly and he yields his homage to his lust.' All the Ten Commandments, like ten great cannons are pointed at you today.

For you have broken all God's statutes and lived in daily neglect of all His commands. Soul, you will find it a hard thing to go to war with the Law. When the Law came in peace,

Sinai was altogether on a smoke and even Moses said, 'I exceeding fear and quake!'

What will you do when the Law of God comes in terror; when the trumpet of the archangel shall tear you from your grave; when the eyes of God shall burn their way into your guilty soul; when the great books shall be opened and all your sin and shame shall be punished... can you stand against an angry Law in that Day?" – Charles Spurgeon

And that Law is a school master (Galatians 3:24), which drives us to the foot of the Christ, who came not only to deliver His people from their sins (Matthew 1:21) but also manifested Himself and empowered His church (2 Corinthians 7:10) to destroy the works of the devil (I John 3:8).

The Enemy Within Blows Their Cover Once Again

America will never be destroyed from the outside, if we falter and lose our freedoms, it will be because we destroyed ourselves. –Abraham Lincoln

Surely you have noticed that since September 11, 2001, the so called representatives of “We the people” have been acting out in favor of doing for America’s sworn enemies, what the enemy could not have dreamed of doing on their own. So this begs the question, who is the enemy?

“A dangerous ambition more often lurks behind the specious mask of zeal for the rights of the people, than under the forbidding appearance of zeal for the firmness and efficiency of government. ... History will teach us, that the former has been found a much more certain road to the introduction of despotism, than the latter.”- Alexander Hamilton

“A nation can survive its fools, and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within. An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and carries his banner openly. But the traitor moves amongst those within the gate freely, his sly whispers rustling through all the alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself. For the traitor appears not a traitor; he speaks in accents familiar to his victims, and he wears their face and their arguments, he appeals to the baseness that lies deep in the hearts of all men. He rots the soul of a nation, he works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of the city, he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to fear. The traitor is the plague." Marcus Tullius Cicero

On May 5, 2017, I wrote that there were felons across the country that are masquerading as mayors. These felons are defying the laws of America by alluring illegals that mean to destroy America into their perspective cities by harboring them from prosecution according to law. Why would they do the unthinkable? (Luke 22:48) This is treason (Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution).

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

After the Manchester, England jihad bombing at the Ariana Grande concert last week, we saw people in the UK who began to wake up to the fact that in Birmingham, England the mayor just happens to be a Muslim. Additionally, Luton, Blackburn, Oxford, Oldham, Rochdale, Leeds, and in London the mayors all happen to be Muslims.

As a matter of fact, the mayor of London, holding a sign in his hand that read "Refugee's Welcome" said, "Terror attacks are a part of 'Urban life'" (Deuteronomy 28:43). This is not happening in some dark corner of the globe. This is happening in the light of day for all the world to see and hear.

In Germany, Angela Merkel, 2015 Time's Person of the Year (Adolph Hitler – 1938 "Man of the Year," Joseph Stalin – 1939 and 1942 "Man of the Year" (Luke 16:15)) who once slapped the German flag and stated that Germany belongs to Islam, said that the reason for the jihadi bombing in Manchester was not the fault of the Muslim who chose to commit the crime, it was the fault of Christians for Islamaphobia (Matthew 10:16-23).

Not one thing was said in support of the victims.

[YouTube Video]

In Canada, sodomite and Allah-worshipping Prime Minister Justin Trudeau made an appeal to the Muslims in a show of support for Islam. Not one word was said in support of the victims.

You might say, how foolish can those people be? Well, let me ask you? America, you have mayors in America alluring illegal aliens into this country under the guise of helping them as poor victims. They have been used to plunder other countries and now they are doing it with your taxpayer dollars in your own country.

After the blast in England, Minneapolis Mayor Betsy Hodges gave a speech from a mosque \(1 Timothy 4:1\) and showing her unwavering support for the Muslim communities.

Again, not one word was shown in support of the victims, not one word.

Keep in mind Americans, these are those behind these “useful idiots” who have sold their souls who are working for those who have labeled you the “terrorists.”

Why is all of this happening? (Leviticus 26:15-46)

It’s because Americans have wickedly departed from the living God.

“Not only will we have to repent for the sins of bad people; but we also will have to repent for the appalling silence of good people.” Martin Luther King Jr.

We All Just Need To Co-Exist – You First

“No Barriers, No Borders, We all need to co-exist.” –Katy Perry

This week, headline news read, “MASSIVE Explosions” Rock British Concert... Bodies Everywhere... Fatalities Confirmed... “It Was Huge-You Could Feel it in Your Chest.”

Yet, in London, we know that Muslim Mayor Sadiq Khan told New York and London, “Terror attacks are a part of urban life.”

In America, Minneapolis Mayor Betsy Hodges begins her little scripted diatribe on cue supporting those who follow the teachings of the Koran, all the while, overlooking the victims. This is all brought to you by your local, corrupt and treasonous politicians (Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution).

[YouTube Video]

Here you see them using divide and conquer to gain control of the chaos that politicians and the media are allied in creating (Mark 3:25).

We see these officials act rather strange after these “terror attacks.” They seem to conglomerate on cue and ally themselves to condemn the acts, but not the actors. In the end, they ask the people to give up their rights while attempting to disarm them for the “global good.” Additionally, they attempt to forge new powers against the very people they are supposed to represent.

When are Americans going to figure out that this is a global initiative? This leads us to ask who the real terrorists are. They are nothing but an allied group of “useful idiots,” which will be disannulled (Isaiah 28:18).

Terror was originally defined in Oxford English Dictionary as:

“Government by intimidation”

Notice how Hollywood, the media, the music industry and corrupt government are all pushing forth the same initiative.

After the terror attack in Britain, Katy Perry pipes up in her ignorance and stated after the attack, “No barriers, no borders. We all need to co-exist.”

Katy wants the world to co-exist. I say, “You first, Katy!”

Ironically, in a display of hypocrisy, Katy Perry has a gated entrance to her mansion, which is located in a guarded community.

“They chose new gods; then was war in the gates...” -Judges 5:8

The reason there is war in the gates is because men have left serving the One, True God and followed after other gods, which is idolatry (Exodus 20).

Ariana Grande, whose concert was interrupted by the Islamic terrorist this week, claims to be a representative of America in Britain said, “I hate Americans, I hate America!” She went on to say on another occasion, "Islam is love!"

Yet, she is in a country that is disarmed by their government while being subjected to a foreign enemy without and overtaken by those who are committing the acts of terror, but continues her rhetoric (Romans 1:22).

People actually pay money to listen to this filth from an uneducated, indoctrinated fool that thinks that she is a representative of the American people.

Are these America's representatives? Are these the real lawless legislators to the up and coming generation who are being used to change the laws of society? (Psalm 94:20) You better know that they are (Isaiah 14; Ezekiel 28:12-13)

Learn From American History – Throw Off The Tyrants

"I once sent a dozen of my friends a telegram saying 'flee at once – all is discovered.' They all left town immediately."
–attributed to Mark Twain

When one looks at the quote above, one might ask, to what does this apply? It is simple. It applies to those who have been exposed for crimes who were found out (Luke 12:2) and fled.

In America, the culprits in the Church and in the government have been found out again and again. Yet, they do not flee. They are encouraged to continue on.

Strength is simply added to their tyrannical ways by those who tolerate their crimes (Jeremiah 9:6; 18:12).

"The greatest sin of our time is not the few who have destroyed but the vast majority who sat idly by." -Martin Luther King, Jr.*

My columns are not about magnifying the crime, but rather magnifying the law (Psalm 94:16) against the crime to bring forth righteousness and peace, like that of the good police officers that we have in this country. They have painted on the side of their cars "Peace officer." Peace officers enforce the law against the crimes to maintain order. Law and Order: America, you are the Law!

"Hearken unto Me, My people; and give ear unto Me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from Me, and I will make My judgment to rest for a light of the people." (Isaiah 51:4)

If the people in this country are sick and tired of being sick and tired, which I believe they are and rightly so, then it is time for Americans to stand up and defend what has rightly been entrusted unto each and every one of us.

"The strength of the Constitution lies entirely in the determination of each citizen to defend it. Only if every single citizen feels duty bound to do his share in this defense are the Constitutional rights secure.” – Albert Einstein

Thomas Jefferson, who was one of the architects and a signer of the Declaration of Independence, which 75% of that document shares with the world the crimes of King George who would not rule in the fear of God and was thrown off by those who would not be ruled by a tyrant, once said:

“[Bear] always in mind that a nation ceases to be republican only when the will of the majority ceases to the law. ...” [YouTube Video]

Enemies Within Re-Writing American History

Wednesday, May 17, 2017

“Every record has been destroyed or falsified, every book rewritten, every picture has been repainted, every statue and street building has been renamed, every date has been altered. And the process is continuing day by day and minute by minute. History has stopped. Nothing exists except an endless present in which the Party is always right.” – George Orwell, 1984

America, they are re-writing your American history incrementally, little by little until it all fades away.

Today, in New Orleans a statue of Jefferson Davis is removed to appease those in government that do not want you to learn from people like Jefferson Davis, who set the example of pushing back against a tyrannical federal government. On the other hand, the same government, antithetical to American government, approved a statue of Vladimir Lenin, a Russian communist revolutionist from the early twentieth century.

It does not get any plainer than that, does it? It's not hard to believe when 80 members of government in the USA are self-proclaimed communists (Psalm 94:20).

That should come as no surprise when we see that the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) is also a communist organization, which has been given a free hand at attacking American Law and our Christian heritage, as well as anyone and everyone it wills because of the ignorance of those who should know better.

The founder of the ACLU, Roger Baldwin, stated, "I am for socialism, disarmament, for abolishing the state itself...I seek the social ownership of property, the abolition of the propertied class, and the sole control of those who produce wealth. Communism is the goal."

We see that Muslims are calling for “Death to America,” and we see politicians, who are nothing more than paid actors, and provocateurs in America shouting “Let them in!”

How could it be otherwise when we know that the “Science and history books are being changed every 3-7 years”?

“The philosophy taught in the classroom in one generation will be the philosophy of the government in the next.” -Credited to Abraham Lincoln

Does any of this sound familiar as to what you are seeing today in America?

The Ten Planks of the Communist Manifesto by Karl Marx (1848)

1. Abolition of private property in land and application of all rents of land to public purpose.

The courts have interpreted the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution (1868) to give the government far more “eminent domain” power than was originally intended, Under the rubric of “eminent domain” and various zoning regulations, land use regulations by the Bureau of Land Management property taxes, and “environmental” excuses, private property rights have become very diluted and private property in land, vehicles, and other forms are seized almost every day in this country under the “forfeiture” provisions of the RICO statutes and the so-called War on Drugs..

2. A heavy progressive or graduated income tax.

The 16th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, 1913 (which some scholars maintain was never properly ratified), and various State income taxes, established this major Marxist coup in the United States many decades ago. These taxes continue to drain the lifeblood out of the American economy and greatly reduce the accumulation of desperately needed capital for future growth, business starts, job creation, and salary increases.

3. Abolition of all rights of inheritance.

Another Marxian attack on private property rights is in the form of Federal & State estate taxes and other inheritance taxes, which have abolished or at least greatly diluted the right of private property owners to determine the disposition and distribution of their estates upon their death. Instead, government bureaucrats get their greedy hands involved.

4. Confiscation of the property of all emigrants and rebels.

We call it government seizures, tax liens, "forfeiture," Public "law" 99-570 (1986); Executive order 11490, sections 1205, 2002 which gives private land to the Department of Urban Development; the imprisonment of "terrorists" and those who speak out or write against the "government" (1997 Crime/Terrorist Bill); or the IRS confiscation of property without due process.

5. Centralization of credit in the hands of the state, by means of a national bank with state capital and an exclusive monopoly.

The Federal Reserve System, created by the Federal Reserve Act of Congress in 1913, is indeed such a "national bank" and it politically manipulates interest rates and holds a monopoly on legal counterfeiting in the United States. This is exactly what Marx had in mind and completely fulfills this plank, another major socialist objective. Yet, most Americans naively believe the U.S. of A. is far from a Marxist or socialist nation.

6. Centralization of the means of communication and transportation in the hands of the state.

In the U.S., communication and transportation are controlled and regulated by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) established by the Communications Act of 1934 and the Department of Transportation and the Interstate Commerce Commission (established by Congress in 1887), and the Federal Aviation Administration as well as Executive orders 11490, 10999 – not to mention various state bureaucracies and regulations. There is also the federal postal monopoly, AMTRAK and CONRAIL – outright socialist (government-owned) enterprises. Instead of free-market private enterprise in these important industries, these fields in America are semi-cartelized through the government's regulatory-industrial complex.

7. Extension of factories and instruments of production owned by the state; the bringing into cultivation of waste lands, and the improvement of the soil generally in accordance with a common plan.

While the U.S. does not have vast "collective farms," which failed so miserably in the Soviet Union, we nevertheless do have a significant degree of government involvement in agriculture in the form of price support subsidies and acreage allotments and land-use controls. The Desert Entry Act and the Department of Agriculture. As well as the Department of Commerce and Labor, Department of Interior, the Environmental Protection Agency, Bureau of Land Management, Bureau of Reclamation, Bureau of Mines, National Park Service, and the IRS control of business through corporate regulations.

8. Equal obligation of all to work. Establishment of Industrial armies, especially for agriculture.

We call it the Social Security Administration and The Department of Labor. The National debt and inflation caused by the communal bank has caused the need for a two "income" family, women in the workplace since the 1920's, the 19th amendment of the U.S. Constitution, the Civil Rights Act of 1964, assorted Socialist Unions, affirmative action, the Federal Public Works Program and of course Executive order 11000. And I almost forgot, The Equal Rights Amendment, which meant that women should do all the work that men do, including military service, and ultimately, it would make women subject to the draft.

9. Combination of agriculture with manufacturing industries; gradual abolition of the distinction between town and country by a more equable distribution of the population over the country.

We call it the Planning Reorganization Act of 1949 , zoning (Title 17 1910-1990) and Super Corporate Farms, as well as Executive orders 11647, 11731 (ten regions) and Public "law" 89-136.

10. Free education for all children in government schools. Abolition of children's factory labor in its present form. Combination of education with industrial production, etc. etc.

People are being taxed to support what we call 'public' schools, which train the young to work for the communal debt system. We also call it the Department of Education, the NEA and Outcome Based "Education."

This is all happening today on America's watch, not from outside of us, but from within (Deuteronomy 28:52)

And why? Americans have wickedly departed from God (Psalm 119:102).

And God spoke all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me; And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's. -Exodus 20:1-17

Criminals Masquerading As

Mayors In Sanctuary Cities

"Wherever law ends, tyranny begins." -John Locke

It was reported by Aamer Madhani, a White House reporter under Barack Hussein Obama's criminal administration, that big city mayors have vowed to defy the law and President Donald Trump regarding sanctuary cities harboring illegal aliens.

Aamer reported, "As you may know, back in Jan 26, 2017 several big city mayors across the U.S. vowed to defy President Trump's executive order that threatens to cut off federal funding to cities that offer some sort of protection to illegal immigrants in their communities."

The question is, how did they approve the funding in the first place?

Furthermore, the Law does not protect illegal aliens. It prosecutes them.

Aamer continued, "The pushback came from these mayors came as Trump signed a long-anticipated executive order that directs the government to identify federal money it can withhold to punish so-called 'sanctuary cities.'"

Since when did the federal government receive delegated authority from the American people to take their tax money and reallocate it to cities that are harboring illegal aliens?

Aamer added, "If you remember, Trump had pledged to take action against sanctuary cities on the campaign trail.”

“But as Trump announced the order – as well as action to build a wall along the U.S-Mexico border and hire thousands of new border patrol agents and immigration officers – leaders of some of the nation’s biggest cities flatly stated they would not cooperate with the president,” Aamer wrote.

And you need to ask why. This is not Trump against the mayors. This is the mayors working against American Law! And the law exposes the criminal (Romans 3:20).

Aamer reported “In New York, Mayor Bill de Blasio vowed that the action ‘won’t change how we enforce the law in New York City.’”

“De Blasio said that the city has been able to dramatically reduce the crime rate in the nation’s largest city, in part, because relationships the police department has managed to build in immigrant communities,” the report continued. “He added that if Trump follows through with the plan it would mean he’s effectively cutting funding from the New York Police Department.”

In other words, through totalitarian methods, Mayor de Blasio is attempting to use the law against the law. Here, you have the criminal blaming the law for his crimes (1 John 3:12).

“Here in New York City and in cities across the nation, this executive order could in fact undermine public safety and make our neighborhoods less safe,” de Blasio said.

What De Blasio said was that the enforcement of law could undermine public safety. He is the one personally responsible for the undermining of the public’s safety. Was America told that they were under an Islamic threat after September 11, 2001? How does his statement line up with the facts?

Take a look at Muslims from the east who are plundering countries that they are entering.

- Denmark: 450% more crimes committed by Muslims then non-Muslims.
- Germany: Muslim migrants committed 142, 500 crimes in 6 months. This is 780 every day.
- Sweden: 480,000 sexual assaults in one year. 77% of all rapes by less than 2% Muslim.
- England and Wales: Over 56% of Syrian refugee's committed severe crimes in less than 1 year etc.
- Belgium: 35% of Prison population is Muslim who make up only 6% of the population.
- UK: Muslims fill 44%of high security prisons, out of a 5% population.
- USA: 91.4 % Muslim refugees are on food stamps, 68.3 % on cash welfare.

Muslim migration has doubled in the decade since 9/11 and 60% migrants to America favor sharia law (Deuteronomy 28:15-68).

More illegals are coming across from the southern border.

- There were 68.57 illegal aliens imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Arizona, compared to 54.06 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned for every 100,000 citizens and legal noncitizens.
- There were 97.2 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in California, compared to 74.1 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned per 100,000 citizen and legal noncitizens.
- There were 54.85 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Florida, compared to 67.8 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.
- There were 168.75 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in New York, compared to 48.12 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.
- There were 54.54 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Texas, compared to 65.43 legal immigrants.

"After President Donald Trump signed an executive order exploring cutting off funding to so-called sanctuary cities, mayors on both coasts of the U.S. say their cities will not be bullied," Aamer reported.

These mayors are the ones that are bullying anyone who does not go along with their lawless objectives. These are Saul Alinsky tactics at their best. They play the victim while perpetuating the crime.

In Boston, Mayor Marty Walsh called the executive order an attack on "Boston's people, Boston's strength and Boston's values."

"If people want to live here, they'll live here," Walsh told reporters at a news conference. "They can use my office. They can use any office in this building."

Americans should put these criminal actors that masquerade as mayors in jail where they belong, and remind each and every one of them that these buildings belong to "We the people."

Furthermore no one has the right to desecrate the blood of those who fought, bled and died enforcing the very laws that they are violating.

Seattle Mayor Ed Murray, who has been accused and investigated for sexually molesting minors, said, "We believe we have the rule of law and the courts on our side."

The opposite is true as I am about to show you.

Mayor of Chicago Rahm Emanuel said, "I want to be clear. We're gonna stay a sanctuary city. There is no stranger among us. We welcome people, whether you're from Poland or Pakistan, whether you're from Ireland or India or Israel and whether you're from Mexico or Moldova, where my grandfather came from, you are welcome in Chicago as you pursue the American Dream.”

San Francisco Mayor Ed Lee told reporters nothing has changed for his city following Trump’s executive order.

“I am here today to say we are still a sanctuary city,” Lee said. “We stand by our sanctuary city because we want everybody to feel safe and utilize the services they deserve, including education and health care.”

Ed wants you to do your best to forget about Kate Steinle and her family. Kate was shot randomly by Juan Francisco Lopez Sanchez, who is an illegal immigrant and a repeat felon who was deported back to Mexico 5 times.

Have Americans been inundated by the media’s narrative that there are threats constantly against “We the people”? Who has attacked the rights of Americans more than those who call themselves representatives? No one has.

Here, we have mayors that are committing treason (Article 3, Section 3 of the US Constitution) by opening the doors to those who are sworn enemies to America (Jeremiah 11:9).

A top aide to Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan questioned whether the city even qualified as a sanctuary city.

The U.S. Conference of Mayors and the Major Cities Chiefs Association expressed concern that the executive order is overly vague.

“That order does not provide a clear definition of what constitutes a sanctuary jurisdiction,” the organizations said in a joint statement. “Instead, it gives undefined discretion to the Secretary of Homeland Security to designate sanctuary jurisdictions and the Attorney General to take action against them.” (Homeland security was found to be illegally transporting criminal aliens into the United States under the criminal Barack Hussein Obama’s administration.)

“We call upon the Secretary of Homeland Security to document and promulgate a lawful definition before further actions are taken, so the cities across the Nation may determine how to proceed,” the organization added.

You cannot make this stuff up.

What the law states concerning these criminals masquerading as “mayors” in “sanctuary cities” is very clear and simple to understand.

Modern Education (Indoctrination): The Making of Slaves

“I don’t want a nation of thinkers. I want a nation of workers.” –John D. Rockefeller, created the General Education Board (GEB) in 1903 to dispense Rockefeller funds to education.

It has been documented that former slave and abolitionist Harriet Tubman said, “I freed a thousand slaves. I could have freed a thousand more if only they knew that they were slaves.”

What a powerful statement. Yet, how true it is.

The Adults

Do remember when Architect of Romneycare, or Obamacare, Jonathan Gruber said, "This bill was written in a tortured way to make sure CBO did not score the mandate as taxes... Lack of transparency is a huge political advantage... And basically, call it the stupidity of the American voter or whatever, but basically that was really, really critical for the thing to pass."

Do you recall when the late Senator John Glenn said, "Americans just want us...not to be concerned if they can be constitutionally justified...Why if we had to do that (Follow the rule of the Constitution), we could not enact most laws we enact around here."

There's no better way to make slaves out of men than to pervert and reverse law, and to redefine their history by allowing the corrupt to lead the way (Matthew 15:14).

This week, I noticed a live feed that was posted from the American people that stated, "The Democrats did this and the Democrats did that," and going off on American "democracy," which we are not. We are a republic and we only have one Constitution (Matthew 3:25).

"There is nothing which I dread so much as a division of the republic into two great parties, each arranged under its leader, and concerting measures in opposition to each other. This, in my humble apprehension, is to be dreaded as the greatest political evil under our Constitution.” -President John Adams Article 4, Sections 4, US Constitution (Jeremiah 5:21)

Divide and Conquer

Then another conservative asked, “Who is worse, Korea, Russia, Syria...etc.?”

The suggestion is that the corrupt politicians who are allowed to run counter to American government under the guise of American government, somehow or another must be telling you the truth when they go to war with an alleged third world dictator. These are the same people who continuously advocate what God condemns, such as lying (Exodus 20:16), stealing (Exodus 20:15), sodomy (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13), redefining marriage, pedophilia (Exodus 22:23) and the sanctioning of the murder their own children (Proverbs 6:17).

“Every war when it comes, or before it comes, is represented not as a war but as an act of self-defense against a homicidal maniac.

In our time political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible. But if thought corrupts language, language can also corrupt thought.

All the war-propaganda, all the screaming and lies and hatred, comes invariably from people who are not fighting.

Political language...is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidarity to pure wind.

Then another conservative asked, “Who is worse, Korea, Russia, Syria...etc.?”

The suggestion is that the corrupt politicians who are allowed to run counter to American government under the guise of American government, somehow or another must be telling you the truth when they go to war with an alleged third world dictator. These are the same people who continuously advocate what God condemns, such as lying (Exodus 20:16), stealing (Exodus 20:15), sodomy (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13), redefining marriage, pedophilia (Exodus 22:23) and the sanctioning of the murder their own children (Proverbs 6:17).

“Every war when it comes, or before it comes, is represented not as a war but as an act of self-defense against a homicidal maniac.

In our time political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible. But if thought corrupts language, language can also corrupt thought.

All the war-propaganda, all the screaming and lies and hatred, comes invariably from people who are not fighting.

Political language...is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidarity to pure wind.

War against a foreign country only happens when the moneyed classes think they are going to profit from it.

Nationalism is power hunger tempered by self-deception. War is peace. Freedom is slavery. Ignorance is strength. (On the manipulation of language for political ends.) We have now sunk to a depth at which restatement of the obvious is the first duty of intelligent men. If liberty means anything at all, it means the right to tell people what they do not want to hear. In times of universal deceit, telling the truth will be a revolutionary act.” -George Orwell

Furthermore, just ask former US diplomat, National Security Advisor and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger as to what his corrupt take on the military men are that fight those wars.

Military men are “dumb stupid animals to be used as pawns for foreign policy,” he said.

On March 10, 1975, after meeting with the Turkish foreign minister in Turkey, Kissinger said, “The illegal we do immediately. The unconstitutional takes a little longer.”

The above said are the “grown-ups,” the adults. This is just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to their genius (Romans 1:22).

Their Children

After speaking at 360 high schools and a number of colleges nationwide, it never ceases to amaze me that these young people know more than those who founded this country and established the rule of law to keep us free (Psalm 119:45). How could this be? It is what has been allowed by the parents who have delivered their children to be taught by a bunch of dumbed down “Useful idiots,” who have been appointed to indoctrinate (Luke 7:35).

Creating War While Leading Through Opposition

[NOTE: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

Fake News Media is "the enemy of the American People."
–President Donald Trump

There is less than 21% approval rating for the American media. The reason is that people in this country understand that it is nothing more than fake and contrived news! Yet, they remain in the present, continuing to lie and to further their agenda by promulgating propaganda, as well as driving support for Donald Trump, as a leader of the opposition. The more the media attacks him, the more support that he garners.

Those pulling the strings behind the corrupt politicians knew that Hillary Clinton never had the support of the American people anymore than John McCain had running against Barack Hussein Obama. Sad to say, it took the American people 8 years to figure out that he did everything opposite of what he promised. It was an easy fix.

[YouTube Video]

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

Fake News now seems to apply to those who are for the Law and the United States Constitution while they expose corruption wherever it may be, even when it hits their favorite politicians. The enemies of America are thankful for people that remain ignorant of their enumerated laws (Hosea 4:6). So far, the majority of the American people have been very accommodating.

"How fortunate for governments that people never think."
—Adolph Hitler

I reported earlier this year, 70 years of CIA propaganda and corruption, and how disinformation is exactly what they have been spewing out of the CIA for a long time, not only in our country, but in other countries, as well.

Dr. Udo Ulfkotte came out in 2016 exposing the CIA by stating the following:

[\[YouTube Video\]](#)

"The entire mainstream media is totally fake!"

"Taught to lie, to betray the people and not to tell the truth to the public."

"The CIA gets control over all of the majority of journalists."

"CIA's primary mission is to collect, analyze, evaluate, and disseminate foreign intelligence to assist the President and senior U.S. government policymakers in making decisions relating to national security."

Dr. Ulfkotte dropped dead inside of a year of making those claims.

If you don't believe what he said, then you deserve what you have coming.

What they say that they do and what they actually are doing are two different stories. The fruit of the CIA has been war, world destabilization, media propaganda, murder, bribery, etc. Listen to former CIA agent John Stockwell:

"It is the function of the CIA to keep the world unstable, and to propagandize the American people to hate, so we will let the establishment spend any amount of money on arms."

Of course, they have been in cahoots with the military industrial complex, which President Eisenhower warned Americans about back in January 1961. [YouTube Video]

The CIA has become a propaganda outlet.

We can see what former CIA Director William Casey said when reinforcing John Stockwell's statement:

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American people believe is false."

[YouTube Video]

The media cannot be trusted, and most of us agree on that (Psalm 101:3).

[YouTube Video]

"If you are not careful, the newspapers (The Media) will have you hating the people who are being oppressed, and loving the people who are doing the oppressing."

So, how is it that when their favorite politician moves into the White House, all of a sudden, the things that he does, regardless if they are constitutional (legal) or not, as long, (as he has on your favorite jersey) all is accepted? This is exactly what is happening in America. Once again, it's a different President, but the same illegal and unconstitutional policies and agenda moves forward. However, as long as you like him, that is all that matters. Where have America's principles gone? (Jeremiah 5:21)

"Kings will be tyrants from policy, when subjects are rebels from principle." –Edmond Burke

Americans must adjust to changing times and still hold to unchanging principles (Psalm 119:89).

"For a people that value its privileges above its principles soon loses both." –President David Eisenhower

Now, we have Hillary Clinton and Donald Trump agreeing as to what should be done with Syria. Yet, Donald Trump promised a special prosecutor to investigate her for her crimes against "We the People." He launched 59 Tomahawks in Syria, but refuses to bring forth "the rule of law" concerning corruption here at home? How do they attempt to justify their aggression, they tell you that they have chemical weapons that could be used against us. Apparently, Americans did not learn that inciting the people to war first comes with a threat regardless if it is legitimate or not. Remember Weapons of Mass Destruction in Iraq under the Bush administration that could never be verified?

That was before Donald Trump became the president, and after he told the American people that they "owed her [Hillary Clinton] a major debt of gratitude" for her service to our country. [YouTube Video]

How many scandals are exposed concerning these corrupt politicians like that of Nancy Pelosi and Chuck Schumer, and now that Donald Trump is the president, they now agree. Are the flags going up yet?

And to take one step further, Trump's assault on Syria was praised by world leaders. Before he was the president, a majority of these "world leaders" were attacking him. Now that he is the president, they are praising him.

There you have it. The same world leaders who have been used to lie, steal, kill, sell their people out and wage war across the globe are in concert praising the new President of the United States of America.

How about holding Donald Trump to his own promises when it comes to dealing with corruption inside our borders rather than dealing with corruption outside America? First things first, after all, isn't that what Donald Trump promised to do? (Psalm 94:16)

How is it that you now believe the media that has been lying to you for so long? (Romans 1:18)

This is pro-wrestling at its very worst.

Are they now telling you the truth because it is Donald Trump who is the president? Hypocrites! Again, isn't Donald Trump the one that has called out American media resources as "Fake News Media" and the "Enemy of the American people?" America, this is leading through opposition.

As more troops are sent to another war, remember, it will not be Donald Trump's young men and woman that will fight that war. It will be our fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, neighbors and children that will fight these unconstitutional wars.

"The man who can look upon a crisis without being willing to offer himself upon the altar of his country is not fit for public trust." -President Millard Fillmore

[YouTube Video]

What is it that Trumps administration is not telling you?

Let a former United States Marine tell you what the American media will not. [YouTube Video]

Another Canadian journalist exposed the lies of the Western media and the US about the war in Syria. [YouTube Video]

Hopefully, this will sum up the whole of what I am saying for those who have not learned from the past.

Every one of these warmongers claimed to be Christians (Matthew 7:16; 2 Corinthians 11:14).

- President Jimmy Carter: El-Salvador, Guatemala, Angola, and Afghanistan
- President Bill Clinton, Balkans, Iraq, Sudan, Rwanda.
- President George Bush Sr. Gulf war, Panama, Somalia,
- President George Bush Jr. Iraq, Afghanistan
- President Barrack Hussein Obama, Libya, Syria, Yemen, Afghanistan and Ukraine

Remember, war is the rule of force. Peace is the reign of law.

When was it America's job to police the world?

"We Americans have no commission from God to police the world."

"The Law...Expressed in orderly constitutional methods, is the only King to which we bow." –President Benjamin Harrison

Furthermore, how many of these above "wars" were constitutional?

America, do you wonder why you are so hated by other countries? You are hated because of what you allow your representative government to do to other countries, in many cases without provocation.

The best way to enhance freedom in other lands is to demonstrate here that our Republican system is worthy of emulation.

America, when are you going to figure this out? (Psalm 11:3)

Silent Majority: You Put Off the Day of Disaster and Bring Near a Reign of Terror

Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; -Amos 6:3

It has been said that he who brings the light must endure the flame. How true that is in the Christ (John 14:6) that I follow (2 Timothy 3:12).

One thing that I have come to understand as a preacher of God's Word is that men are either going to hate their sin and repent, or they are going to hate me (Acts 20:21; 2 Corinthians 7:10).

Since the beginning days of ministry, I have found that the problem is not so much with those that are called the left (Lawless). It is more so with those who call themselves the right (Mark 8:15). They are often referred to as the silent majority (outside of the 78% of them that profess Christianity (1 John 2:4). Remember those who crucified Christ claimed to belong to God, as well (John 8:33))

When I first started in ministry, I wondered why people were attacking me for telling them what they claimed their values consisted. After all, I was not giving any one of my messages to bring about change to America's values, but only to reinforce them.

I became what Paul described as the enemy because I spoke the truth (Galatians 4:16) that exposes the lawlessness (1 John 3:12).

I have had the media dog my trail since day one.

Wikipedia founder has even come out against me.

On my Wiki page, which we did not set up, there are reports of outrage at my events and distortions of who we are and what it is that we have done as a ministry. The page is full of blatant lies and half-truths, written by people who have never approached me. Yet, they have written as if I had answered all of their questions. How is this not criminal? It is. They want to set the narrative without any truth exposing their lies.

Of course, the good news is in the back, hard to find, and in many cases, the people could care less about the truth. They simply let it fall to the ground (Isaiah 59:14).

It is as if Psalm 120:7 rings like a bell in my ears: "I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war."

Well, guess what? They are, and it is one that they will not win in this life unless you let them (Matthew 16:15-20).

This is how the seat of violence comes nigh (Amos 6:3).

The seat of violence comes near to those who do not deal with the wicked (Isaiah 59:15). These people are known as the "silent majority."

The silent majority is responsible for the evils that prevail because they look the other way rather than deal with the enemies of the law (Isaiah 56), even when the promises of God unto victory are given to us (Romans 8:37).

I don't believe that I have ever had a day in my Christian life in which I did not feel the responsibility of duty before the God (Acts 3:13) that I love (Galatians 4:9) to prove Him and His Word (2 Chronicles 16:9). When we respond to His commands, He promises to respond with longevity to all those who fear Him.

That thou mightest fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged. -Deuteronomy 6:2

And victory over the enemies, regardless if there are many to go it with you or not. -2 Samuel 23:10

"A man with God is always in the majority." –John Knox

As well, a man of conscience is not there to take a consensus, a man of conscience is there to mold the consensus. -Proverbs 14:26; 28:1

What happens when you do take a stand? The Lord is willing to give us that for which we are willing to fight (Exodus 23; 1 Timothy 6:12).

Here is a list of those who have spoken out against this ministry, or have stood against the laws of this land that would not be confronted on live nationwide radio. These are those who when confronted want to turn and run. Again, they are simply there to establish the narrative.

- Congressman Keith Ellison
- Senator Amy Klobachar
- Senator Al Franken
- Former Speaker of the House-Nancy Pelosi
- Tarryl Clark-Opponent of Michele Bachmann for Congress
- Kevin Jennings-Assistant Deputy Secretary for Safe and Drug Free Schools, US Dept. of Education
- George Soros
- Media Matters
- Right Wing Watch

- MSNBC's "Useful Idiot" Rachel Maddow
- Rob Boston, Americans United for Separation of Church and State
- Council on American-Islamic Relations \(CAIR\)
- San Francisco Police Department concerning the crimes of Larry Brinken
- LGBT
- Out-Front Minnesota
- Joe Solmonese-Human Rights Campaign

Why are these lawless people so adamant about shutting my ministry down? This is what happens when you become effective. However, I can also show you what happens when you become silent. You draw nigh the seat of violence. [YouTube Video]

Where is Your God? Same Place that He Was When He was Warning You

Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. -Ezekeiel 33:4

It seems that no matter what the circumstance, no matter how extreme and dangerous things might be, people want to test God's faithfulness when He warns mankind of impending danger. Is it human nature that wants to rebel against the Spirit of Christ (John 16:8) so the flesh can attempt to justify itself? Of course, it is, and it is what I have dealt with since the first day of ministry (Romans 7:9). In every warning given from Scripture I have seen, Scripture is justified in its manifestation and man, who meant to rebel, pays the price for resisting the faithfulness of God to warn them (Micah 2:7).

One such incident is the story of a young man named Zach, who was part of a drug rehab program here in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Zach was, I'm sure, slapped on the hands in court by a soft judge (soft judges make hardened criminals) and given a plea bargain, either jail, or the drug rehab program for his crimes committed (1 John 3:4; Exodus 20). Of course, the obvious choice for a young reprobate would be to spend his time in rehab rather than a boring jail cell.

After entering the program, shortly thereafter he escaped without consent and went missing for a couple of weeks, only to find that he made a bad move. Zach had jumped out of the frying pan into the fire. Things out there were worse than things in rehab.

Young people today have been taught an entitlement mentality and feel somehow or another that when people work hard to get to the top of the mountain that they fell on top of it.

Well, Zach soon ended up bringing himself back to drug rehab only to find himself in a circle being called out by a faithful witness (Proverbs 14:25) who told him, "You know Zach, there is no turning back. You know that you can never go back." All the while Zach, affirmed the words that this man had spoken to him as a warning concerning his former life choices (Deuteronomy 30:19).

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." -2 Timothy 3:16

A couple of days later, Zach was upstairs while everyone was sleeping "huffing" paint from a helmet. "Anything to get high" was Zach's motto, and it cost him the ultimate price. Zach fell over dead from an overdose.

When the other boys in the program were awoken to see what all the commotion was about they found that Zach had made the choice (Romans 6:12-13) to inhale dangerous chemicals that took his life.

What is of interest here friends is that many of those boys that saw Zach lay in a lifeless state started to yell at others saying, "Where is your God now?"

This was supposed to be a Christian rehab. These boys saw the warnings given to Zach. They saw Zach reaffirm what was said was true, "no going back." Instead of blaming Zach for making the wrong choice, they wanted to blame God by saying "Where is your God now?"

One that stood by listening to enough of the hypocrisy said, "The same place He was when He was warning Zach" (1 Corinthians 12:10).

There is a story of a man in England that soon learned his lesson when he took the time to pay attention and listen to who the responsible party was.

A man in a London airport decided to purchase some English Butter Cookies. He opened the small tin, took one out, then placed the tin at his feet. After waiting for his flight for some time, a middle-aged woman smiled politely and sat next to him. To his astonishment, without a word of permission she reached down, took a cookie out of the tin and ate it.

He couldn't believe what the complete stranger had just done!

Suspecting that it may be a local custom, he smiled awkwardly and took a second cookie himself. She then took a third.

Then she took the very last cookie, looked at him, broke it in half and offered it to him. The audacity of the woman! Different words such as impudent, rude, brazen and presumptuous flashed through his mind.

As he was about to express his thoughts, he bent down and saw that his identical tin of cookies was still at his feet. In an instant, he realized that he had been the brazen, rude and impudent, presumptuous person. He had been eating the cookies of a complete stranger! He also realized how her response to his actions had been very gracious.

The good thing about this parable is that this man learned his lesson unlike those that shut their eyes and ears to the Spirit of God.

History Has Tried To Teach America, But She Will Not Learn

"Some even believe we (the Rockefeller family) are part of a secret cabal working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure – one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it." –David Rockefeller

"All they go down to the dust will bow before Him, even he who cannot keep his own soul alive." Psalm 22:29, Mark 8:36

I know that people in this country love to magnify the crimes of so-called "elites," but take a look at what the American people have tolerated when it comes to the crimes of those that rule behind the corrupt politicians and propagandists. These are those who have been allowed to create chaos with the purpose of bringing order out of it.

From the charades that are going on with Russia and Trump through divertive measures to get America's eye's off of what really is happening to Obamacare to Pizzagate to Hillary Clinton's email scandal to FBI Director James Comey and obstruction of justice when it comes to the likes of Anthony Weiner, etc. All of this is nothing but confusion (Daniel 9:7).

This week, Time magazine featured a picture of a man dressed as a woman with the headline "Beyond He or She: How a new generation is redefining the meaning of gender."

These are the same people that mean to demoralize and subject Americans to their tyrannical ways.

Samuel Adams warned long ago, "While the people are virtuous they cannot be subdued; but when once they lose their Virtue they will be ready to surrender their Liberties to the first external or internal invader..." (Deuteronomy 30:19; Romans 6:16)

Or consider the California Attorney General who filed politically motivated charges against those who exposed Planned Parenthood's illegal baby parts trafficking (Proverbs 6:17).

This is all foreign to America as we all know it.

When you think of the people that are behind the scenes attempting to establish a global system (a war against God and man) like that of the Rockefellers, Rothchilds, Soros, Bushes, Obamas, etc... and the corrupt politicians who play to special interests, as well as those countries that are allied with their covenant of hell (Isaiah 28:18) in helping push the agenda forward, you need to know that on this side of Jerusalem, God was faithful to warn every one of us (Proverbs 14:25).

The man who found himself in hell wanted Abraham to warn his father's house of the hell they were going to come to which he was in, but then it was too late (Luke 16:19-31).

Hell is the consequence of un-repentant sin before God. We are to fear God, not hell (Proverbs 6:16). Therefore, hell fire preaching is not scriptural (Luke 12:4).

Do not forget those who complain and do nothing while allowing these hellions do the things that they do are just as responsible.

Who would you say is guilty of the crimes committed? Those who actually advocate and execute the crime, or those who tolerate commit the crimes? Before God, both are guilty.

Study the Past

At the entrance of the National Archives in Washington, D.C., you will see a monument stating, "Study the Past."

Why study the past? Our forefathers suggested this so we might learn from history. They did not want us to commit the same mistakes.

History has shown time and time again that when a nation departs from God, there will be a tyrant in the midst attempting to move into His position. Devastation and massive loss of life follow that rise in power. This is what God warned would happen to nations that refuse keep His commandments (Leviticus 26:21).

God commands us to go back to the old paths "where is the good way" (Jeremiah 6:16), not to dare His justice by taking on the new paths.

Here are ten lessons men have learned from history:

- 1,
- 2,
- 3,
- 4,
- 5,
- 6,
- 7,

8, 9, 10,

Nothing.

America is emulating those who have not learned from history. If you do not learn the lessons history has to teach, then you are doomed to the same results.

History also teaches a lesson to tyrants who are at war with God and attempt to usurp His law (Isaiah 14:13-15). What man forgets, God will not.

What did Napoleon Bonaparte say? Those who oppose God and His Word will be conquered – and that is exactly what history teaches us.

Let me show you the little-known history of those who dared to crucify Christ, kill His apostles and behead John the Baptist. Let me also show you what happened to tyrant Mussolini, French Queen Marie Antoinette, godless Voltaire and the vain Senate of Rome.

“We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.” -2 Corinthians 5:10

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment.” -Hebrews 9:27

“And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.”

–Revelation 20:11-15

Disney, Sea World and Universal Employee's Caught In Sex Stings, Child Porn Arrests

Disney Moves Forward

“The vision for Walt’s world was clear: Entertain children. Disney characters were about hope, optimism and, above all else, making sure children were able to enjoy their innocence for as long as the outside world would permit. And Disney understood that part of its mission was to provide a buffer for as long as possible. Somewhere along the line, Disney went off course. No longer did it see itself as a defender of children’s innocence. Instead, it saw itself as a conduit to social change. Walt Disney became Harvey Milk.” –Self-identified homosexual attorney Joseph R. Murray

There is no doubt that there is nothing like Orlando, Florida, and for some reason or another, it happens to be one of America's favorite playgrounds on earth for the recreation that it offers.

Where it is Sea World, Universal Studios or Disney, the parks are immaculately clean, appealing, and a lot of fun. They are also very expensive. Yet, there has been a serious problem when it comes to the parks employ.

CNN reported on July 14, 2014 that a Walt Disney World security guard and janitor at SeaWorld's Discovery Cove were among 18 men arrested in a sex sting dubbed "Operation April's Fools," Polk County, Florida.

Those arrested responded to online ads from undercover detectives who posed as children or custodians of children.

"Child predators are dangerous and out of control. They prowl the Internet for your children – children as young as 10 years old – to teach them how to have sex," Judd said. "They arrive with candy and condoms and they leave in handcuffs and a one-way ride to the Polk County Jail."

The sting, which involved state and central Florida law enforcement agencies, took place from March 29 to April 4.

The investigation found that 35 Disney employees, as well as two SeaWorld and five Universal employees had been arrested since 2006 for sex crimes involving children.

The parks all said at the time they have a zero tolerance policy for such behavior and require all employees to undergo extensive background checks.

The arrests included Jeffrey Erich Binder, 26, of Winter Garden, Florida, who worked as a security guard at Walt Disney World. A Polk County Sheriff's news release said he "arrived at the undercover location to have sexual intercourse with who he believed was a 14-year-old teenager.”

“While chatting online and texting, Binder told the undercover detective he wanted to do ‘everything’ sexual with the teenager. He purchased and brought condoms to the undercover location,” the news release said. He had his Disney security guard uniform in his car when he was arrested, according to the sheriff’s office.

Binder was charged with attempted lewd battery, traveling to meet a minor, use of a computer to seduce a child and use of a two-way communication device to commit a felony.

Disney World spokesperson Jacquee Wahler said Binder “has been placed on unpaid leave pending the outcome of the charges” and did not address a question about his prior arrest.

Also arrested was 19-year-old Arthur Joseph Nelson, of Orlando, a janitor at SeaWorld Orlando’s Discovery Cove theme park.

Nelson showed up at the undercover location to have sex with who he thought was a 14-year-old teenager the news release said.

“He sent pictures of his genitals, and he bought condoms on the way to the undercover location,” the release said. “After his arrest, Nelson told detectives he knew the teenager was 14 years old, he stopped at Wal-Mart to buy condoms, he chatted with underage teenagers but this was the first time he has ‘done something like this’ and he was ‘high’ and ‘horny’ and thought it seemed like a good idea,” the release added.

Nelson was charged with use of a two-way communication device to commit a felony, use of a computer to seduce a child, traveling to meet a minor, attempted lewd battery, transmission of harmful materials to a minor and possession of paraphernalia.

Becca Bides, SeaWorld corporate communications director, said,

"There is no greater responsibility than protecting the safety of our guests and ambassadors, and we have extensive measures in place including pre-employment criminal background checks and ongoing proactive security measures within our parks. We have zero tolerance for potential safety threats and have taken swift and appropriate action in this case."

Others arrested in the sting include a hospital technician, computer program director, car dealership manager, airline customer service manager and a former Polk County firefighter.

What is of interest is the fact that these parks are adding insult to injury when it comes to aiding this sort of debauchery. On March 15, 2017, Entertainment headline read "Disney won't censor Beauty and the Beast gay scenes for Malaysia."

Even the homosexuals are saying that this is going too far.

A Mississippi attorney who identifies as a homosexual is objecting to the "gay" content in Disney's live remake of "Beauty and the Beast," saying children should not be exposed to adult topics that seek to destroy their innocence.

In an Orlando Sentinel column, Joseph R. Murray said the company is straying away from Walt Disney's original vision to "entertain children" and is now pushing a political agenda.

"The vision for Walt's world was clear: Entertain children. Disney characters were about hope, optimism and, above all else, making sure children were able to enjoy their innocence for as long as the outside world would permit. And Disney understood that part of its mission was to provide a buffer for as long as possible," he wrote.

"Somewhere along the line, Disney went off course," he continued. "No longer did it see itself as a defender of children's innocence. Instead, it saw itself as a conduit to social change. Walt Disney became Harvey Milk."

And to such a statement, I warned the homosexual communities that their leaders are going to take them where they do not want to go, and they are doing so (Proverbs 26:27).

Maybe they should look at their icons to understand what is happening here.

Furthermore, it has not nor has it ever been about redefining marriage to include homosexuals, which has never been in the history of mankind.

The extorted politicians of the day may help you understand why things are moving in the direction they are, as well. It has always been about the children (Luke 17:2). I have been a target of a homosexual at a young age when I was made an open prey. That is when I was part of a fatherless program called "Big Brothers" (Exodus 22:22-24).

This is about protecting our young people regardless of what organization they are a part.

I have been faithfully blowing the trumpet (Ezekiel 33) regardless of the status quo.

Why the American people sit down when it comes to the abominable (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:24; 2 Peter 2:6; etc...) lifestyles that these companies are promoting, while all along playing to less than 1.7 % of the population and 78% profess to love God yet advocate through apathy what God condemns, I do not know.

How is it that anyone with a conscience can further support these organizations, all the while knowing what it is that they are attempting to advocate as the norm?

The Loony Professor and the Desperation of the State-Controlled Media

"Some people are asking which news sources I trust, and all I can say is that I read/watch/listen very widely, from mainstream, corporate owned sources (The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Boston Globe, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes) as well as The Atlantic, National Public Radio, and various local and alternative sources with different political perspectives." –Melissa Zimdars

The mainstream media has been circulating a viral list of so-called "fake news" websites – and the list includes established news sites like TheSonsofLibertyRadio.com, Breitbart, Red State, the Daily Wire, Project Veritas and many other credible sources – but what we found was a leftist (criminal-minded), President bashing assistant professor in Massachusetts who is behind the effort to target and discredit legitimate news/media organizations (John 8:44).

For the record, it is called libel, and it is illegal.

Merrimack College Assistant Professor Melissa Zimdars, a 30-something, self-identified feminist and activist, who has expressed great dislike for the new President and Vice President created the list.

Zimdars published and circulated a list of “fake, false, or regularly misleading websites that are shared on Facebook and social media.” She said she began writing the list because she didn’t approve of the sources her students were citing.

In many cases, she offers no explanation for why the news organizations were included on the list.

The media has a 21% approval rating and the state-controlled narrative is being called out for their defamation, libel, slander and lies on a continual basis.

Yet, the mainstream media outlets, in hopes of propping up yet more lies, such as the Los Angeles Times, circulated this list. The Times headlined its story, “Want to keep fake news out of your newsfeed? College professor creates list of sites to avoid.” And of course, the Times offered no details concerning Zimdars’ lack of qualifications or background.

Propagandists organizations such as CNN, the Washington Post, Boston Globe, New York Magazine, USA Today, Business Insider, the Austin American-Statesman, the Dallas Morning News and others spread the list like gospel and cited it in their reports.

[YouTube Video]

As a matter of fact, Zimdars has not responded for clarification on her expertise or criteria for deciding which news sources to include on her list.

However, when Merrimack Vice President of Communications Jim Chiavelli was asked, he replied, “Thanks for your question to the president about professor Zimdars’ pedagogy. The college has no comment for this story.”

In response to the list, PJ Media’s Stephen Kruiser wrote, “It’s no surprise that a college professor compiled this list; what’s galling is that the Los Angeles Times ‘reported’ on it without mentioning that it's complete garbage."

Of course, it is! They all know that it is nothing but garbage, but this is what they do to continue to prop up the establishment, with which America is fed up.

In addition to her new job as an assistant professor, Zimdars is also a columnist and contributor for Little Village Magazine – a lawless-leaning magazine that says it's focused on issues such as "racial justice," "gender equity," "critical culture," "economic and labor justice" and "environmental sustainability."

Zimdars' social-media accounts are protected from public view, leading tweeter Vanessa Beeley to note that Zimdars "can't take the heat. Named 'fake media' & then protected all her own media sites."

But Newsbusters found tweets from Zimdars harshly criticizing President-elect and Vice-President-elect during the vice-presidential debate in October.

"Undocumented workers contribute more to this country (beyond taxes) than Drumpf ever has or ever will," she tweeted on Oct. 4.

The same day, she tweeted to Pence that Hillary's "basket of deplorables" comment does not equal "Trump's constant sexist, racist, homophobic, and xenophobic comments."

The little professor was asked what media resources she read and trusted.

"Some people are asking which news sources I trust, and all I can say is that I read/watch/listen very widely, from mainstream, corporate owned sources (The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Boston Globe, The Wall Street Journal, Forbes) as well as The Atlantic, National Public Radio, and various local and alternative sources with different political perspectives.” –Melissa Zimdars

Let's pull the curtain back on the media so you can see who is doing the reporting.

In 1917, Rep. Oscar Callaway entered a disturbing statement into the congressional record:

J.P. Morgan, a banker and a steel tycoon, hired 12 high-ranking news managers and editors, and asked them to determine the most influential newspapers in America. He wanted to control the policy of the daily press of the United States (that policy being whatever they wanted it to be). The 12 found that it was only necessary to purchase 25 of the greatest newspapers. An agreement was reached, the policy of the papers was bought, and an editor of their choice was placed at each paper to ensure that all published information was in keeping of the new policy. (Again, keep in mind it was their policy.)

In a nutshell, what are they doing? The news media is being controlled by very few people throughout major networks in the United States and worldwide. There are those who are trying to rearrange reality to become the reality they want you to believe.

Robert Lichter and Stanley Rothman, two media scholars, interviewed 240 news anchors, editors and news writers, and here's what they found:

1. 47 percent of those who report the news in this country believe that adultery is OK.
2. 76 percent of those who report the news see nothing wrong with homosexuality.
3. 90 percent of those who write your papers in this country believe there is nothing wrong with aborting a baby.
4. 86 percent of those who write your paper in this country seldom or never attend church.

Former CNN journalist Amber Lyon said that she was ordered to report fake stories, delete unfriendly stories adverse to the Obama administration, and construct stories in specific manners while working for the left-wing network.

CNN is paid by foreign and the US government for reporting on some events, and not reporting on others. The Obama Administration pays for CNN content.

"The CIA gets control over all of the majority of journalists." –Dr. Udo Ulfkotte German Editor, Journalist

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false." –William Casey CIA Director

Truth be told, these people simply blurted out their fears when declaring "Fake News" media outlets were really those who were exposing their "Fake News" outlets for what they are (Luke 12:2). They hate the truth (Psalm 94:16).

The Selective Prosecution of the FBI

"The FBI are, without a doubt, sending the message of selective prosecution."

Let me just preface this article by saying that I am in no way advocating one crime over another, as any attempt to justify any sort of crime is absolutely ridiculous. The history of my ministry is that I condemn crime, and I always will regardless of who commits it, period (1 John 3:4).

However, I have to ask, what is wrong with people that tolerate the likes of Madonna, who incites a people through her words to "Blow up the White House" yet, go unpunished? Where was the FBI?

Furthermore, how do Americans tolerate people like Linda Sarsour, who led the women's march in January? Linda Sarsour is tied to Hamas and seeking to overthrow American government by inciting the people to domestic insurrection in order to establish Sharia law. Where was the FBI? [YouTube Video]

How could Americans look the other way when it comes to the next women's march organizer, Rasmia Yousef Odeh, a convicted terrorist? Odeh, a Palestinian, was convicted in Israel in 1970 for her part in two terrorist bombings, one of which killed two students while they were shopping for groceries. She spent 10 years in prison for her crimes. She then managed to become a US citizen in 2004 by lying about her past (great detective work, INS: Next time, use Google), but was subsequently convicted in 2014 of immigration fraud for the falsehoods. However, she won the right to a new trial, set for this spring, by claiming she had been suffering from PTSD at the time she lied on her application. Oh, and in her time as a citizen, she worked for a while as an ObamaCare navigator. Where was the FBI?

Well, we know that the FBI is missing in action when it comes time to prosecute the crimes of the above said who are advocating crimes against Americans on American soil.

Back in February of 2016, a Muslim NHL player threatened to slit the throat of an opposing player. [YouTube Video]

Read his lips. Nazem Kadri threatened to murder Mark Giordano. Certainly, he was caught up in the heat of the moment and isn't really going to kill him, but as a Muslim, his cultural frame of reference is interesting. When you grow up hearing "When you meet the unbelievers, strike the necks" (Qur'an 47:4) and that sort of thing, even if you're not all that devout yourself, it's just possible that it might be in the back of your mind.

The 25-year-old Kadri was disciplined for the same gesture while playing for Canada in a game against Switzerland at the 2010 world junior hockey championship. Yet, he was just reprimanded.

Why hasn't the FBI intervened when it comes to re-educating students in public schools in America?

What are they teaching? Just ask the Muslims who are getting a pass when it comes to teaching ...

A Minnesota man, who mailed a bomb threat to a mosque under construction in his Minneapolis neighborhood in 2015, was sentenced Wednesday to one year in federal prison.

U.S. District Judge Wilhelmina Wright sentenced Daniel George Fisher, 57, based on his guilty plea last year to obstructing the Tawfiq Islamic Center's free exercise of religion by threat of force.

Fisher confessed to sending the letter after the FBI traced fingerprints he left on the note last year.

Fisher told agents he wanted the staff at the Islamic center, which primarily serves the Twin Cities' large Oromo population, to think that anyone could have sent the note, which threatened to "blow up your building with all you immigrants in it."

U.S. Attorney Andrew Luger, whose staff prosecuted the case, said, "My office takes very seriously any threat of violence against an individual or their place of worship based on race, religion or cultural practices.

What they are saying is that they will protect those who are here to overthrow American government, which Sharia law mandates, and we will not tolerate anyone who would seek to defend themselves against the enemies within.

"If we are practicing Muslims, we are above the Law of the land." -Mustafa Carroll Director CAIR Texas

"Islam isn't in America to be equal to any other faith, but to become dominant. The Koran, the Muslim book of scripture, should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion on earth." -Omar Ahmad Founder of the

Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR)

Luger continued, "We will continue to work closely with the FBI to prosecute these types of crimes, which threaten religious freedoms and violate fundamental civil rights."

FBI Special Agent in Charge Richard Thornton said Fisher's sentence "reflects the severity of his appalling hate crime."

Hate crimes against Muslims nationally rose 67 percent in 2015, the FBI reported last year, reaching the highest level since the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks. Data for 2016 won't be reported until November, but preliminary data out of Minnesota show 14 reported crimes against Muslims – the highest on record in the state.

The FBI is, in essence, attempting to further strip the American people to defend themselves when it comes to the threat; the threat that is clear when it comes to those who mean to kill, steal and destroy (John 10:10).

Apparently, the FBI are selectively picking whom they wish to prosecute.

President Trump, I Hope You Have Not Forgotten

"When the law no longer protects you from the corrupt, but protects the corrupt from you, you know that your nation is doomed."

We have seen that recently the new DNC chair would not rule out Hillary Clinton running for the president's office in 2020. How could this be? It was promised by the now President

Donald Trump that he was going to instruct his Attorney General to look into Hillary Clinton's situation. As you know, instead, after he won office, he said that Americans "owe her a major debt of gratitude for her sacrifice to our country."

This proves the point as to what happens when Americans leave off justice, which guards American liberties. Hillary Clinton is now calling for resistance to Trump.

She said, "We need to stay engaged... I'll be with you every step of the way."

How is it that she has been given that liberty?

Why hasn't Trump lawfully dealt with the likes of the Clintons? He said that he would reinstate the rule of law.

The President said that Hillary has been caught selling uranium ore, which I warned months before anybody dared to speak out on the topic, to the Russians. Yet, she is still free to attack him at will? America this is treason (Article 3, section 3 of the United States Constitution).

Americans just follow blindly behind because the right guy has on their favorite jersey. Americans have been put back to sleep with a blanket of deception (Matthew 13:25).

The enemy is wide-awake America, and they are busy, in the light of day, dividing people one against another.

"And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand." -Mark 3:25

Furthermore, if you think that the enemies within and without

are just going to give everything back over to the American people, think again. They are unlawfully attacking the rule of law, and Trump, who promised to enforce the law against them, is not!

We already know that when it comes to justice, surely you cannot depend upon the likes of the great American appeasers Gowdy, Issa, and Chaffetz.

This reminds me of pro wrestling. You know, where the wrestlers act like archenemies on the mat and behind closed doors they are the best of friends.

All the while, the self-deceived fans are willfully played by the wiles of these paid actors.

But then again you cannot blame corrupt politicians for letting them get away with whatever you let them get away with....

"Do not blame Caesar, blame the people of Rome who have so enthusiastically acclaimed and adored him and rejoiced in their loss of freedom and danced in his path and given him triumphal processions. Blame the people who hail him when he speaks in the Forum of the new wonderful good society which shall now be Rome's, interpreted to mean more money, more ease, more security, and more living fatly at the expense of the industrious." -Cisero

What is truly astounding about all of that which takes place in the country by the corruption that is tolerated is that Americans actually, somehow or another, believe that WHAT THEY TOLERATE has no effect on them; and that these above said, or otherwise, are somehow above the law, which they swore to uphold.

Decency, security, and liberty alike demand that government officials shall be subjected to the same rules of conduct that are commands to the citizen. In a government of laws, existence of the government will be imperiled if it fails to observe the law scrupulously. Our government is the potent, the omnipresent teacher. For good or for ill, it teaches the whole people by its example. Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a lawbreaker, it breeds contempt for law; it invites every man to become a law unto himself; it invites anarchy. To declare that in the administration of the criminal law the end justifies the means – to declare that the government may commit crimes in order to secure the conviction of a private criminal – would bring terrible retribution. Against that pernicious doctrine this court should resolutely set its face. -Supreme court justice Louis D. Brandies(1928).

“A nation ceases to be republican...when the will of the majority ceases to be the law.” –Thomas Jefferson

Americans honoring what offends the law

“A nation that kills its children in the womb has lost its soul.”

On February 21, 2017, Life site news reported:

This morning, Virginia Gov. Terry McAuliffe vetoed a bill defunding Planned Parenthood of its non-Medicaid funds.

The bill passed the House 60-33 and the Senate 20-19. It would have given healthcare programs that don't perform or promote abortion priority state funding over organizations that commit abortions.

Planned Parenthood's non-abortion services are able to be billed through Medicaid, although pro-life advocates point out that this money is fungible and helps the abortion-centered organization operate.

Planned Parenthood tweeted that at the veto, McAuliffe said, "Discrimination breeds hatred and we will not tolerate that here in the commonwealth of Virginia."

The question I have for all of America is, why is it that these representatives of the people in our Constitutional Republic (Article 4, Section 4 of the US Constitution) are continuously given a pass when they support these organizations, which have no lawful standing in the sight of Heaven or America, when it comes to the murder of the innocent children? (Proverbs 6:17)

Americans know that there is nothing on this side of Jerusalem which can justify the murder of the innocent.

Why is it that these representatives are getting a pass from the American people? They honor what I despise, namely, corruption.

Furthermore, why is it that this governor is so adamant about supporting the likes of a known criminal organization like Planned Parenthood?

Maybe this will help shed some light on Governor Terry McAuliffe (Ephesians 5:11).

Did you know that he was under investigation concerning his campaign donations from people like the Clinton Criminal family?

This criminal is also receiving donations from an organization that is aimed at murdering children.

Lest you forget...

"The most merciful thing that a large family does to one of its infant members is to kill it.” –Founder of Planned Parenthood Margret Sanger [YouTube Video]

“It’s no secret that this bill is aimed at destroying Planned Parenthood,” said McAuliffe.

He added that such a law would make Virginia appear unwelcome to new businesses, reported The Virginian-Pilot: “We will not tolerate socially divisive issues that put walls up.”

The Virginia Bureau of Watchdog.org reported that Planned Parenthood contributed more than $1.7 million to McAuliffe’s gubernatorial campaign in 2013. Abortion industry lobbying organization NARAL donated $56,000 to his campaign, as well.

America, how do you show mercy to a people who show little to no regard when it comes to enforcing the law against the crime, which establishes justice? (Luke 12:2)

After all, justice does guard American liberty (Isaiah 51:4).

Why am I saying this? No matter how many times you bring things to the light, the American people, for the most part, act as if it is someone else’s responsibility to right the wrongs (Deuteronomy 4:1).

How many of our veterans fought, bled and died magnifying the law against tyrants that Americans are tolerating within? Remember,

“Where the law ends, tyranny begins.” –William Pitt [YouTube Video]

A judge, because of his love for the law and society, shows mercy by pronouncing (Enforcing the law) sentence against (Judgment) them that violate law. Luke 11:42

America, you are the law (Under God)!

“A nation ceases to be republican...when the will of the majority ceases to be the law.” –Thomas Jefferson

Depending on how thankful you are, will be to the degree that you tolerate crime (2 Corinthians 7:10). How much do you honor those who sacrificed their all for the freedoms which you now have? Do you live for what they died for? (2 Corinthians 5:15)

Go into Mexico illegally: you are arrested, deported or jailed

How is it that Americans have tolerated a people that cry “Death to America” without, and “Let them in” by traitors within? (Corrupt politicians and “useful idiots known as news anchors, Hollywood degenerates, etc.”)

We see and hear much about what the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals unlawfully ruled upon concerning the President’s lawful ban on illegals coming into the United States. By doing so, the court has declared that the United States Constitution is unconstitutional. This is nothing short of anarchy among those who are to discover and apply law (Psalm 94:20).

As a reminder, the advocates of illegal immigration, to their own demise, are in hopes that you will forget about Kathryn Steinle, who was shot dead on San Francisco’s Pier 14 by an illegal in an unprovoked attack. Her murderer, Juan Francisco Lopez-Sanchez, who used a federal agent’s gun in the crime, was deported 5 times and was a 7 time felon across multiple states, including Texas, Oregon and Arizona. He had several aliases with several birth dates, was flagged to be held by ICE for immigration, and was recently released following a marijuana arrest and was subsequently protected by corrupt politicians in what Americans have been led to believe when it comes to the unlawful guise of illegal “sanctuary cities.”

The Laws:

*Immigration Laws (Leviticus 19:34-Romans 13:10)

Each year, the Border Patrol apprehends hundreds of thousands of aliens, who flagrantly violate our nation’s laws by unlawfully crossing U.S. borders. Such illegal entry is a misdemeanor and, if repeated after being deported, becomes punishable as a felony.

The illegal alien population is composed of those who illegally enter the country (referred to as “entry without inspection – EWI”) in violation of the immigration law. Others enter legally and then stay illegally (referred to as overstayers). The immigration authorities currently estimate that two-thirds to three-fifths of all illegal immigrants are EWIs and the remainder is overstayers. Both types of illegal immigrants are deportable under Immigration and Nationality Act Section 237 (a)(1)(B) which says: “Any alien who is present in the United States in violation of this Act or any other law of the United States is deportable.”

The laws in this country are simply going un-enforced.

Do you ever wonder what might happen if you were to go into Mexico illegally? According to Mexico’s 1999 Immigration Law:

(General Law on Population)

Mexico’s Constitution

(English translation)

- Mexico welcomes only foreigners who will be useful to Mexican society:

- Foreigners are admitted into Mexico “according to their possibilities of contributing to national progress.” (Article 32)

- Immigration officials must “ensure” that “immigrants will be useful elements for the country and that they have the necessary funds for their sustenance” and for their dependents. (Article 34)

- Foreigners may be barred from the country if their presence upsets “the equilibrium of the national demographics,” when foreigners are deemed detrimental to “economic or national interests,” when they do not behave like good citizens in their own country, when they have broken Mexican laws, and when “they are not found to be physically or mentally healthy.” (Article 37)

- The Secretary of Governance may “suspend or prohibit the admission of foreigners when he determines it to be in the national interest.” (Article 38)

- Mexican authorities must keep track of every single person in the country:

- Federal, local and municipal police must cooperate with federal immigration authorities upon request, i.e., to assist in the arrests of illegal immigrants. (Article 73)

- A National Population Registry keeps track of “every single individual who comprises the population of the country,” and verifies each individual’s identity. (Articles 85 and 86)

- A national Catalog of Foreigners tracks foreign tourists and immigrants (Article 87), and assigns each – – – – individual with a unique tracking number (Article 91).

- Foreigners with fake papers, or who enter the country under false pretenses, may be imprisoned:

- Foreigners with fake immigration papers may be fined or imprisoned. (Article 116)

- Foreigners who sign government documents “with a signature that is false or different from that which he normally uses” are subject to fine and imprisonment. (Article 116)

- Foreigners who fail to obey the rules will be fined, deported, and/or imprisoned as felons:

- Foreigners who fail to obey a deportation order are to be punished. (Article 117)

- Foreigners who are deported from Mexico and attempt to re-enter the country without authorization can be – imprisoned for up to 10 years. (Article 118)

- Foreigners who violate the terms of their visa may be sentenced to up to six years in prison (Articles 119, 120 and 121). Foreigners who misrepresent the terms of their visa while in Mexico – such as working without a permit – can also be imprisoned.

- Under Mexican law, illegal immigration is a felony. The General Law on Population says,

- “A penalty of up to two years in prison and a fine of three hundred to five thousand pesos will be imposed on the foreigner who enters the country illegally.” (Article 123)

- Foreigners with legal immigration problems may be deported from Mexico instead of being imprisoned. (Article 125)

- Foreigners who “attempt against national sovereignty or security” will be deported. (Article 126)

- Mexicans who help illegal aliens enter the country are themselves considered criminals under the law:

- A Mexican who marries a foreigner with the sole objective of helping the foreigner live in the country is subject to up to five years in prison. (Article 127)

And so it is...”

“Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the Lord God of your fathers giveth you” (Deuteronomy 4:1).

If not,

“And it shall come to pass, that as the Lord rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you; so the Lord will rejoice over you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whither thou goest to possess it” (Deuteronomy 28:63).

Governments are admitting to it, after the damage is done

“You had to attack civilians, people, women, children, innocent people, unknown people far removed from any political game. The reason was quite simple. They were supposed to force these people, the Italian public, to turn to the state to ask for greater security.” – Vincenzo Vinciguerra

Throughout the duration of Barack Obama’s criminal administration (Bushes and Clintons as well) you have seen these administrations aid and abet the enemies only to advance a global agenda through the use of terrorism (Article 3, Section 3 of the United States Constitution).

“Terrorism is the best political weapon for nothing drives people harder than a fear of sudden death.” – Adolph Hitler

Barack Hussein Obama told the American people on August 21, 2010.

“The only people who don’t want to disclose the truth are people with something to hide.”

To answer Barack’s statement, let me help things along so you can understand more clearly as to what is going on today.

George Soros stated that the “main obstacle to a stable and just world order is the United States.”

Furthermore, Paul Warburg said, “We will have a world government whether you like it or not. The only question is whether that government will be achieved by conquest or consent.”

So, we can clearly see that America is still under threat of terrorism, both within and without.

“And if ye shall despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant: I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint over you terror...” –Leviticus 26:16

The question that we need to answer here is, who are the terrorists?

First, those who have been given a free hand to do what they will because the people have left off God’s commandments when it comes to despising His statutes and abhorring His judgments. These are the real terrorists, who are committing the crimes like that of the past and proceeding administrations in America.

You would think that now Donald Trump is the president, he would have the intelligence to expose the guilty parties. It does not get more obvious than Bush, Clinton and Obama!

“A history of false flag attacks used to manipulate the minds of the people! In individuals, insanity is rare; but in groups, parties, nations, and epochs it is the rule.” ? Friedrich Nietzsche

We have learned from the annals of history that there are many documented false flag attacks, where a government carries out a terror attack, and then falsely blames its enemy for political purposes.

This is nothing new (Ecclesiastes 1:9).

In the following 42 instances, officials in the government, which carried out the attack (or seriously proposed an attack), admit to it either orally or in writing:

1. Japanese troops set off a small explosion on a train track in 1931, and falsely blamed it on China in order to justify an invasion of Manchuria. This is known as the “Mukden Incident” or the “Manchurian Incident.” The Tokyo International Military Tribunal found: “Several of the participators in the plan, including Hashimoto [a high-ranking Japanese army officer], have on various occasions admitted their part in the plot and have stated that the object of the ‘Incident’ was to afford an excuse for the occupation of Manchuria by the Kwantung Army...”

2. A major with the Nazi SS admitted at the Nuremberg trials that – under orders from the chief of the Gestapo – he and some other Nazi operatives faked attacks on their own people and resources which they blamed on the Poles, to justify the invasion of Poland.

3. Nazi general Franz Halder also testified at the Nuremberg trials that Nazi leader Hermann Goering admitted to setting fire to the German parliament building in 1933, and then falsely blaming the communists for the arson.

4. Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev admitted in writing that the Soviet Union’s Red Army shelled the Russian village of Mainila in 1939 – while blaming the attack on Finland – as a basis for launching the “Winter War” against Finland. Russian president Boris Yeltsin agreed that Russia had been the aggressor in the Winter War.

5. The Russian Parliament, current Russian president Putin and former Soviet leader Gorbachev all admit that Soviet leader Joseph Stalin ordered his secret police to execute 22,000 Polish army officers and civilians in 1940, and falsely blame it on the Nazis.

6. The British government admits that – between 1946 and 1948 – it bombed 5 ships carrying Jews attempting to flee the Holocaust to seek safety in Palestine, set up a fake group called “Defenders of Arab Palestine”, and then had the psuedo-group falsely claim responsibility for the bombings.

7. Israel admits that in 1954, an Israeli terrorist cell operating in Egypt planted bombs in several buildings, including U.S. diplomatic facilities, then left behind “evidence” implicating the Arabs as the culprits (one of the bombs detonated prematurely, allowing the Egyptians to identify the bombers, and several of the Israelis later confessed).

8. The CIA admits that it hired Iranians in the 1950’s to pose as Communists and stage bombings in Iran in order to turn the country against its democratically-elected prime minister.

9. The Turkish Prime Minister admitted that the Turkish government carried out the 1955 bombing on a Turkish consulate in Greece – also damaging the nearby birthplace of the founder of modern Turkey – and blamed it on Greece, for the purpose of inciting and justifying anti-Greek violence.

10. The British Prime Minister admitted to his defense secretary that he and American president Dwight Eisenhower approved a plan in 1957 to carry out attacks in Syria and blame it on the Syrian government as a way to effect regime change.

11. The former Italian Prime Minister, an Italian judge, and the former head of Italian counterintelligence admit that NATO, with the help of the Pentagon and CIA, carried out terror bombings in Italy and other European countries in the 1950s and blamed the communists, in order to rally people's support for their governments in Europe in their fight against communism. As one participant in this formerly-secret program stated: "You had to attack civilians, people, women, children, innocent people, unknown people far removed from any political game. The reason was quite simple. They were supposed to force these people, the Italian public, to turn to the state to ask for greater security" (and see this) (Italy and other European countries subject to the terror campaign had joined NATO before the bombings occurred). And watch this BBC special. They also allegedly carried out terror attacks in France, Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Greece, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, the UK, and other countries.

12. In 1960, American Senator George Smathers suggested that the U.S. launch "a false attack made on Guantanamo Bay which would give us the excuse of actually fomenting a fight which would then give us the excuse to go in and [overthrow Castro]".

13. Official State Department documents show that, in 1961, the head of the Joint Chiefs and other high-level officials discussed blowing up a consulate in the Dominican Republic in order to justify an invasion of that country. The plans were not carried out, but they were all discussed as serious proposals.

14. As admitted by the U.S. government, recently declassified documents show that in 1962, the American Joint Chiefs of Staff signed off on a plan to blow up AMERICAN airplanes (using an elaborate plan involving the switching of airplanes), and also to commit terrorist acts on American soil, and then to blame it on the Cubans in order to justify an invasion of Cuba.

15. In 1963, the U.S. Department of Defense wrote a paper promoting attacks on nations within the Organization of American States – such as Trinidad-Tobago or Jamaica – and then falsely blaming them on Cuba.

16. The U.S. Department of Defense even suggested covertly paying a person in the Castro government to attack the United States: “The only area remaining for consideration then would be to bribe one of Castro’s subordinate commanders to initiate an attack on Guantanamo.”

17. The NSA admits that it lied about what really happened in the Gulf of Tonkin incident in 1964 ... manipulating data to make it look like North Vietnamese boats fired on a U.S. ship so as to create a false justification for the Vietnam war.

18. A U.S. Congressional committee admitted that – as part of its “Cointelpro” campaign – the FBI had used many provocateurs in the 1950s through 1970s to carry out violent acts and falsely blame them on political activists.

19. A top Turkish general admitted that Turkish forces burned down a mosque on Cyprus in the 1970s and blamed it on their enemy. He explained: “In Special War, certain acts of sabotage are staged and blamed on the enemy to increase public resistance. We did this on Cyprus; we even burnt down a mosque.” In response to the surprised correspondent’s incredulous look the general said, “I am giving an example”.

20. The German government admitted (and see this) that, in 1978, the German secret service detonated a bomb in the outer wall of a prison and planted “escape tools” on a prisoner – a member of the Red Army Faction – which the secret service wished to frame the bombing on.

21. A Mossad agent admits that, in 1984, Mossad planted a radio transmitter in Gaddafi's compound in Tripoli, Libya which broadcast fake terrorist transmissions recorded by Mossad, in order to frame Gaddafi as a terrorist supporter. Ronald Reagan bombed Libya immediately thereafter.

22. The South African Truth and Reconciliation Council found that, in 1989, the Civil Cooperation Bureau (a covert branch of the South African Defense Force) approached an explosives expert and asked him "to participate in an operation aimed at discrediting the ANC [the African National Congress] by bombing the police vehicle of the investigating officer into the murder incident", thus framing the ANC for the bombing.

23. An Algerian diplomat and several officers in the Algerian army admit that, in the 1990s, the Algerian army frequently massacred Algerian civilians and then blamed Islamic militants for the killings (and see this video; and Agence France-Presse, 9/27/2002, French Court Dismisses Algerian Defamation Suit Against Author).

24. An Indonesian fact-finding team investigated violent riots which occurred in 1998, and determined that "elements of the military had been involved in the riots, some of which were deliberately provoked".

25. Senior Russian Senior military and intelligence officers admit that the KGB blew up Russian apartment buildings in 1999 and falsely blamed it on Chechens, in order to justify an invasion of Chechnya (and see this report and this discussion).

26. According to the Washington Post, Indonesian police admit that the Indonesian military killed American teachers in Papua in 2002 and blamed the murders on a Papuan separatist group in order to get that group listed as a terrorist organization.

27. The well-respected former Indonesian president also admits that the government probably had a role in the Bali bombings.

28. As reported by BBC, the New York Times, and Associated Press, Macedonian officials admit that the government murdered 7 innocent immigrants in cold blood and pretended that they were Al Qaeda soldiers attempting to assassinate Macedonian police, in order to join the “war on terror”.

29. Senior police officials in Genoa, Italy admitted that – in July 2001, at the G8 summit in Genoa – planted two Molotov cocktails and faked the stabbing of a police officer, in order to justify a violent crackdown against protesters.

30. Although the FBI now admits that the 2001 anthrax attacks were carried out by one or more U.S. government scientists, a senior FBI official says that the FBI was actually told to blame the Anthrax attacks on Al Qaeda by White House officials (remember what the anthrax letters looked like). Government officials also confirm that the white House tried to link the anthrax to Iraq as a justification for regime change in that country.

31. Similarly, the U.S. falsely blamed Iraq for playing a role in the 9/11 attacks – as shown by amemo from the defense secretary – as one of the main justifications for launching the Iraq war. Even after the 9/11 Commission admitted that there was no connection, Dick Cheney said that the evidence is “overwhelming” that al Qaeda had a relationship with Saddam Hussein’s regime, that Cheney “probably” had information unavailable to the Commission, and that the media was not ‘doing their homework’ in reporting such ties. Top U.S. government officials now admit that the Iraq war was really launched for oil ... not 9/11 or weapons of mass destruction (despite previous “lone wolf” claims, many U.S. government officials now say that 9/11 was state-sponsored terror; but Iraq was not the state which backed the hijackers).

32. Former Department of Justice lawyer John Yoo suggested in 2005 that the US should go on the offensive against al-Qaeda, having “our intelligence agencies create a false terrorist organization. It could have its own websites, recruitment centers, training camps, and fundraising operations. It could launch fake terrorist operations and claim credit for real terrorist strikes, helping to sow confusion within al-Qaeda's ranks, causing operatives to doubt others' identities and to question the validity of communications."

33. United Press International reported in June 2005: U.S. intelligence officers are reporting that some of the insurgents in Iraq are using recent-model Beretta 92 pistols, but the pistols seem to have had their serial numbers erased. The numbers do not appear to have been physically removed; the pistols seem to have come off a production line without any serial numbers. Analysts suggest the lack of serial numbers indicates that the weapons were intended for intelligence operations or terrorist cells with substantial government backing. Analysts speculate that these guns are probably from either Mossad or the CIA. Analysts speculate that agent provocateurs may be using the untraceable weapons even as U.S. authorities use insurgent attacks against civilians as evidence of the illegitimacy of the resistance.

34. Undercover Israeli soldiers admitted in 2005 to throwing stones at other Israeli soldiers so they could blame it on Palestinians, as an excuse to crack down on peaceful protests by the Palestinians.

35. Quebec police admitted that, in 2007, thugs carrying rocks to a peaceful protest were actually undercover Quebec police officers.

36. At the G20 protests in London in 2009, a British member of parliament saw plainclothes police officers attempting to incite the crowd to violence.

37. Egyptian politicians admitted that government employees looted priceless museum artifacts in 2011 to try to discredit the protesters.

38. A Colombian army colonel has admitted that his unit murdered 57 civilians, then dressed them in uniforms and claimed they were rebels killed in combat.

39. The highly-respected writer for the Telegraph Ambrose Evans-Pritchard says that the head of Saudi intelligence – Prince Bandar – recently admitted that the Saudi government controls “Chechen” terrorists.

40. High-level American sources admitted that the Turkish government – a fellow NATO country – carried out the chemical weapons attacks blamed on the Syrian government; and high-ranking Turkish government admitted on tape plans to carry out attacks and blame it on the Syrian government.

41. The former Ukrainian security chief admits that the sniper attacks which started the Ukrainian coup were carried out in order to frame others.

42. Britain’s spy agency has admitted (and see this) that it carries out “digital false flag” attacks on targets, framing people by writing offensive or unlawful material ... and blaming it on the target.

In addition, two-thirds of the City of Rome burned down in a huge fire on July 19, 64 A.D. The Roman people blamed the Emperor Nero for starting the fire. Some top Roman leaders – including the Roman consul Cassius Dio, as well as historians like Suetonius – agreed that Nero started the fire (based largely on the fact that the Roman Senate had just rejected Nero’s application to clear 300 acres in Rome so that he could build a palatial complex, and that the fire allowed him to build his complex). Regardless of who actually started the fire, Nero – in the face of public opinion accusing him of arson – falsely blamed the Christians for starting the fire. He then rounded up and brutally tortured and murdered scores of Christians for something they likely didn’t do.

We didn’t include this in the list above, because if Nero did start the fire on purpose, he did it for his own reasons (to build his palatial complex), and not for geopolitical reasons benefiting his nation.

The use of the bully's trick is so common that it was given a name hundreds of years ago.

"False flag terrorism" is defined as a government attacking its own people, then blaming others in order to justify going to war against the people it blames. These are covert operations conducted by governments, corporations, or other organizations, which are designed to appear as if they are being carried out by other entities. The name is derived from the military concept of flying false colors; that is, flying the flag of a country other than one's own. False flag operations are not limited to war and counter-insurgency operations, and have been used in peace-time; for example, during Italy's strategy of tension.

The term comes from the old days of wooden ships, when one ship would hang the flag of its enemy before attacking another ship. Because the enemy's flag, instead of the flag of the real country of the attacking ship, was hung, it was called a "false flag" attack.

Indeed, this concept is so well-accepted that rules of engagement for naval, air and land warfare all prohibit false flag attacks.

Representatives throughout history have acknowledged false flags and the danger of false flags:

"Why of course the people don't want war ... But after all it is the leaders of the country who determine the policy, and it is always a simple matter to drag the people along, whether it is a democracy, or a fascist dictatorship, or a parliament, or a communist dictatorship ... Voice or no voice, the people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is to tell them they are being attacked, and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same in any country.” – Hermann Goering, Nazi leader.

“The easiest way to gain control of a population is to carry out acts of terror. [The public] will clamor for such laws if their personal security is threatened”. – Josef Stalin

Now that President Donald Trump has taken office, a majority of those who were fed up with the likes of the foreign criminal Barack Hussein Obama have now fallen asleep.

Donald is there now to take care of us, say so many in this country. “No need to worry over anything, at least not for the next 4-8 more years,” they say (Ephesians 5:14). Really?

Regardless, if you want to see things for what they are or not is irrelevant! Judgment is going to continuously rain (Genesis 7:12) on this country until Americans realize that their sins are before God (Number 32:23).

America, you cannot advocate what God condemns (regardless of what any president advocates) and prosper. Sodomy (Leviticus 18:22), abortion (Proverbs 6:17), corruption in the church and in the government, etc. are all things the Lord abhors (Proverbs 14:34).

Furthermore, it is time for bring forth fruits of repentance by cleaning house (Matthew 3:8). Now is that time.

President John F. Kennedy wanted to abolish the CIA

"I will splinter the CIA into a thousand pieces and scatter it into the wind." –John F. Kennedy

Why was John F. Kennedy so adamant about abolishing the Central Intelligence Agency?

History shows that shortly after he made this statement, he was assassinated on the streets of Dallas, Texas on November 22, 1963.

Most Americans are also aware that after the assassination President Johnson reversed President Kennedy's orders on Vietnam while conveniently appointing former CIA director Allen Dulles, who was fired by President John F. Kennedy for lying and manipulating when it came to the "Bay of Pigs," as the fox in the chicken coop to the "Warren Commission" to investigate John F. Kennedy's assassination (Jeremiah 11:9).

The rest is history. The truth fell in the streets the day (Isaiah 59:14) that the American people refused to deal with those who were responsible for the murder of their president.

LBJ's Mistress Blows Whistle On JFK Assassination [YouTube Video]

While the truth was not acted upon that day, it did not fall dead. It has an affinity with the soul of man. The seed, however broadcast, will catch somewhere and produce a hundred fold, and it has.

One has to ask, what is the function of the CIA? Well, look it up.

"CIA's primary mission is to collect, analyze, evaluate, and disseminate foreign intelligence to assist the President and senior US government policymakers in making decisions relating to national security."

If you believe this, then you deserve what you have got coming.

What they say that they do and what they actually are doing are two different stories. The fruit of the CIA has been war, world destabilization, media propaganda, murder, bribery, etc. ... Listen to former CIA agent John Stockwell.

"It is the function of the CIA to keep the world to keep the world unstable, and to propagandize the American people to hate, so we will let the establishment spend any amount of money on arms...."

Of course, they have been in cahoots with the military industrial complex, which President Eisenhower warned Americans about back in January 17, 1961. [YouTube Video]

The CIA has become a propaganda outlet.

We can see what former CIA director William Casey said when reinforcing what John Stockwell stated,

"We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American people believe is false." -William Casey, CIA Director, 1981

Operation Mockingbird

Disinformation is exactly what they have been spewing out of the CIA for a long, long time, not only in our country, but in other countries as well.

Dr. Udo Ulfkotte came out in 2016 exposing the CIA by stating the following:

- “The entire mainstream media is totally fake!”
- “Taught to lie, to betray the people and not to tell the truth to the public.”
- “The CIA gets control over all of the majority of journalists.” [YouTube Video]

Udo Ulkotte was found dead on January 13, 2017.

Is the CIA alive and well concerning their crimes?

On February 1, 2017, the CIA popped its ugly head up once again. This time they were exposed for fake news about an assassination attempt on the Syrian leader, Bashar Assad.

When are the American people going to hold accountable not only corrupt politicians who are using the media as a cover for their crimes, but also those who are behind the crimes? (Deuteronomy 4:1)

Remember that Adolph Hitler’s third Reich was “made on propaganda,” according to Joseph Goebbels.

Who does propaganda work best on? The least intelligent (Hosea 4:6) said none other than the devil incarnate, Adolph Hitler.

“All propaganda has to be popular and has to accommodate itself to the comprehension of the least intelligent of those whom it seeks to reach.”

It has been said that not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced.

Until the American people understand what they are allowing through the likes of the CIA and other bureaucracies, nothing will change.

"I never would have agreed to the formulation of the Central Intelligence Agency back in forty-seven, if I had known it would become the American Gestapo." –President Harry Truman.

America, it would be wisdom on our part to finish what President Kennedy intended to do with the CIA.

And a muslim leads them: hollywood's "useful idiots"

"Accuse the other side of which you are guilty of." – Joseph Gobbles Nazi propaganda minister

Over the last week, we have been hearing much of the DC Womens' March. For example, the threats coming from the likes of Madonna, who spoke of "blowing up the White House," while also shouting out vulgarities like "suck my *#@k!" (Yes you heard her right) and Ashley Judd, a self-professed Christian (Titus 1:16), making comments like "I feel Hitler in the streets," "A mustache traded for a toupee," "Nazis renamed." Judd went on to make accusations concerning President Donald Trump with regard to favoring his daughter as being a "Favorite sex symbol." She ended with "Our p#@*ies are for our pleasure and they are birthing a new generation...of nasty woman."

Additionally, Scarlett Johansson complains about how male actors are paid more than female actors, and how when she was 15 years old she had to "use Planned Parenthood" (Proverbs 6:17).

So, what is it that we have here? Nothing but a bunch of out of control, lawless murderers, whores, hypocrites and feminists that want to lay the guilt of their choices onto the innocent in the womb, in which they themselves are guilty (1 John 3:1).

To take it a step further, look who is the leader of the DC Women's March. It's none other than Linda Sarsour. Sarsour is a Palestinian-American activist and executive director of the Arab American Association of New York.

Linda Sarsour is angry that US States don't not allow Sharia Law. Oh, the Irony! Just think of this, a Muslim on the head of Hollywood's "useful idiots," promoting the murder of their own children so their enemies do not have to do it. Nazi feminists playing into the hands of their enemies. [YouTube Video]

Americans should pay attention to what this is breeding. To do otherwise is a disservice to yourselves and to your posterity.

It must be some sort of prerequisite that if you want to be a part of Hollywood's club of "useful idiots," you had better come with full allegiance to the demonic system of anti-Christ if you want a job (1 John 2:15-16; Matthew 4:9).

Americans have the audacity to call these people stars; fallen stars would be more like it.

Is it not of interest to see how Satan himself mocks and counters everything that God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, does? (Isaiah 14)

Hollywood has the walk of stars in the West, while the wise men followed the star in the East over the house where the Christ child was at (Matthew 2:2).

Hollywood has degenerated in so many ways to that which promotes and stands against America's Christian heritage, which was founded in righteousness, goodness and truth (Ephesians 5:9).

The Mosaic institution in which America was founded and established is that which Christ fulfilled (Exodus 20; Romans 3:31).

Furthermore, if the American people knew the history of the “City of Churches” (Hollywood) and how that property was given away for free to those who would establish parishes, they would probably blush to see how far backwards things have gone in this country which they now tolerate (Isaiah 59).

This is just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to those that Americans are allowing to lead the way.

America, a word of admonition, know who you follow (John 14:6; 1 Timothy 2:5; 1 Corinthians 11:1).

Do not choose the blind to be your guide! (Matthew 15:14)

Ask yourself, what do those you follow stand or fall for?

Mark this: You will not go beyond those you allow to teach you. How they stand or fall is how you will stand or fall! Consider those you tolerate!

Warning rejected – curse now in place

The LORD shall bring a nation against thee from far, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flieth; a nation whose tongue thou shalt not understand; A nation of fierce countenance...” -Deuteronomy 28:49-50

In May of 2011, I had the opportunity to give the opening prayer to the House of Representatives at the state capital in Minnesota. That door was opened at the request of a local representative named Ernie Leidiger R-District 47 A, to which I gladly responded.

Now, let me set the stage for you here.

As I entered the Capitol chambers, I was introduced to Speaker of the House Kurt Zellers as “the guy that gets things done around here.”

Before my prayer, I had asked the chaplain if I could provide a preface to my prayer to bring understanding by using an analogy. He approved, and off I went to the podium to give up my heart to God and to man (1 John 5:2).

Here is the entire transcript of my prayer, as supplied by the DFL Caucus media department:

When I arrived at the Capitol today I noticed all the writings upon the inside of the walls. On the Supreme Court Chambers you have Moses awaiting the Ten Commandments, God’s divine law. You have George Washington quotes, Thomas Jefferson quotes speaking of unalienable rights given unto us by our creator. And when I looked at that I thought what an awesome building and those in this chamber are very privileged to be here and I’m honored to be here as well ... And if I can give a small preface to my prayer so my prayer has meaning. I remember when I was a young man. I had a friend who founded a company in Fridley, Minnesota.

This man built this company from the ground up as he blueprinted everything in great detail. He put his sweat, tears, everything into it until he established a great company. Nobody understood what sacrifice he put into his company except those that helped him along. The company grew in such a proportion that he could now sell the company and he did. On the sale of his company the buyers agreed to keep him on to run the company for them and in the process the company sold. And when it was sold the buyers went against the contract and fired the founder. How foolish could they be? They thought once they had control of the company they could run it their own way and still prosper. And they failed miserably. [Excuse me]

And it sounds much like America today. America has the longest standing Constitution in the history of the world. And might I remind everyone here that we have one Constitution so let us come together and unite ourselves under its directives. Because we all know the problems didn't come into our country in 1776, they came when we wandered from the founder of the company and tried running it our own way.

So let us pray.

Father God I just thank you Father for what you have bestowed upon us and through the sacrifice of our brothers and our sisters. Father God to ratify the Constitution of the United States. Father God, the fight, the bloodshed, and the sacrifice. From World War One to World War Two to Korea, Father. To Korea and Iwo Jima and Vietnam. And Father God, Iraq and Afghanistan. And I think about their sacrifice when I go, Father God, to Arlington Cemetery and I think that's the reason I that fight. That's the reason that I stand, that I encourage my brothers to do the same thing. They died so we could have the freedoms that we have today. And they ratified that Constitution and sacrificed their all for it. And I end with this. I know this is a non-denominational prayer in this Chamber and it's not about the Baptists and it's not about the Catholics alone or the Lutherans or the Wesleyans. Or the Presbyterians the evangelicals or any other denomination, but rather the head of the denomination and his name is Jesus. As every President up until 2008 has acknowledged. And we pray it, in Jesus' name. [YouTube Link]

Right after I finished praying, one "hypocrite" chaplain came up to me and did his best to reprove me for using the "J" word (Jesus) in the House chamber, as if to suggest that I was to check my faith at the door before calling upon the God who gave us government (Exodus 18:21).

Apparently, he had been around enough whores and hirelings to believe that I was to follow in close pursuit. What a fool. I will never, by the grace of God, ask for permission from corrupt man to obey a just and holy God (Acts 5:29; Matthew 10:33).

First, I was labeled the "anti-gay preacher." Then I was called the "bigot." And then when the people figured out that I said nothing about homosexuality, they tried to figure out why there was such an uproar over my prayer.

Also, keep in mind that after this prayer was over, there were over 2,000 outlets that reported on it within 10 minutes.

This worked out in my favor because it exposed the state-controlled media for who they are and how they operate (Proverbs 26:27; Psalm 7:15).

Minutes after my prayer, and on cue, Speaker Zellers apologized on the House Floor:

Then tagged off to his little buddy Terry Morrows to follow up with their attack.

When their little show was over, they were swiftly removed from office as promised by our Heavenly Father (Psalm 2).

Over and over and over again, I have warned what was coming behind the homosexuals, which are being used as nothing more than a political battering ram to give way to America's sworn enemies, the Muslims!

Muslims are systematically following the homosexuals line upon line. Barack Obama appointed 225 homosexuals and then stacked governmental positions with Muslim terror-tied individuals. Sound familiar?

Now, after the damage is done, everyone is starting to make the correlation.

On the same podium that I gave my Christian prayer, in the same rotunda, Somalian Ilhan Omar was sworn in to uphold the Constitution on a Koran, as an Imam prayed aloud in his foreign tongue. It was a staged event with 100 Muslims who cheered and put forth Allah as their god (1 Timothy 4:1). All this was done with the full support of the representatives and state-controlled media in the State of Minnesota.

After all was said and done, not a word of opposition was voiced.

You would think with all the light that has been brought to the American people concerning the crimes against God and humanity by these Muslims, this would come to a swift and speedy end, but we find that the opposite has been true.

This is what “the sheep being led to the slaughter” means. America, you are undoing yourselves at every given step by what you tolerate in disobedience to the God so many of you professors claim to love. I have literally hazarded my all to bring this to the American people and in honor to God concerning these issues. I am free of the blood of my brothers and sisters. You have been duly warned (Ezekiel 3:19).

The american politician: yes, we are corrupt

“You can’t get rich in politics unless you are a crook.” - President Harry S. Truman

The first president of the United States, George Washington, warned long ago concerning those who represent the American people that “few men have the virtue to withstand the highest bidder.”

As we take a look at what is happening in the arena of politics today, we can see that his warnings have been largely ignored by the people that he was addressing.

Today, Americans are betrayed on a daily basis by corrupt politicians, and that with a kiss (Luke 22:48).

To prove the point, have you ever wondered about the politicians who are to serve “We the people” enter office with little to nothing and before you know it, they have garnered great wealth? As a matter of fact, 268 of the 534 members are millionaires. One has to ask the question, who are they working for, especially knowing that their salaries do not match their accumulated wealth.

How is it that America has experienced so much un-godly and un-constitutional change (Proverbs 24:21) over the last 50 years in this country? Yet, we wonder why America is being turned into hell (Psalm 9:17).

Perhaps it is because there have been senators in this government that have been serving themselves, as well as special interests groups that have literally been conspiring against the American people for years such as Robert C. Byrd (D-WV). Don’t forget about Daniel K. Inouye who served 49 years, Storm Thurmond 47 years, Edward Kennedy 46 years, Patrick J. Leahy 42 years, and the list goes on and on.

I can just here the media-minded, modern day conservative say, "This is not right!" or "Where did you get this information from? Go ahead and back it up Bradlee!"

I say, "I always have in the past, and so I will do again."

Here is a list of politicians that have admitted that money controls politics.

- Jesse Unruh, Speaker of the California Assembly in the 1960s and California State Treasurer in the 1970s and 80s. He said,

"Money is the mother's milk of politics."

"[T]he millionaire class and the billionaire class increasingly own the political process, and they own the politicians that go to them for money. ... we are moving very, very quickly from a democratic society (America is a Republic), one person, one vote, to an oligarchic form of society, where billionaires would be determining who the elected officials of this country are."

- Socialist Bernie Sanders, US senator from Vermont, said many similar things, such as, "I think many people have the mistaken impression that Congress regulates Wall Street. ... The real truth is that Wall Street regulates the Congress."

In other words, the dog is not wagging the tail, the tail is, in fact, wagging the dog.

- Vice President Joe Biden said "You have to go where the money is. Now where the money is, there's almost always implicitly some string attached. ... It's awful hard to take a whole lot of money from a group you know has a particular position then you conclude they're wrong [and] vote no."

- "Today's whole political game, run by an absurdist's nightmare of moneyed elites, is ridiculous – a game in which corporations are people and money is magically empowered to speak; candidates trek to the corporate suites and secret retreats of the rich, shamelessly selling their political souls.” – Jim Hightower, former Democratic agricultural commissioner of Texas.

- “People tell me all the time that our politics in Washington are broken and that multimillionaires, billionaires and big corporations are calling all the shots ... it’s hard not to agree.” – Russ Feingold, three-term Democratic senator from Wisconsin, in 2015 announcing he’s running for the Senate again.

- “Lobbyists and career politicians today make up what I call the Washington Cartel. ... [They] on a daily basis are conspiring against the American people. ... Career politicians’ ears and wallets are open to the highest bidder.” – Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas.

- “I can legally accept gifts from lobbyists unlimited in number and in value ... As you might guess, what results is a corruption of the institution of Missouri government, a corruption driven by big money in politics.” – Missouri State Sen. Rob Schaaf

- “When you start to connect the actual access to money, and the access involves law enforcement officials, you have clearly crossed a line. What is going on is shocking, terrible.” – James E. Tierney, former attorney general of Maine.

- “There are two things that are important in politics. The first is money and I can’t remember what the second one is.” – Mark Hanna, William McKinley’s 1896 presidential campaign manager and later senator from Ohio, in 1895.

- “Behind the ostensible government sits enthroned an invisible government, owing no allegiance and acknowledging no responsibility to the people. To destroy this invisible government, to dissolve the unholy alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics is the first task of the statesmanship of the day.” – 1912 platform of the Progressive Party, founded by former president Theodore Roosevelt.

- “I had a nice talk with Jack Morgan [i.e., banker J.P. Morgan, Jr.] the other day and he seemed more worried about [Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Rexford] Tugwell’s speech than about anything else, especially when Tugwell said, ‘From now on property rights and financial rights will be subordinated to human rights.’ ... The real truth of the matter is, as you and I know, that a financial element in the larger centers has owned the Government ever since the days of Andrew Jackson ... The country is going through a repetition of Jackson’s fight with the Bank of the United States – only on a far bigger and broader basis.” – Franklin D. Roosevelt in a 1933 letter to Edward M. House.

Listen to what Daniel Webster said to the American people only to reinforce Presidents George Washington and Harry S. Truman’s statements:

“I apprehend no danger to our country from a foreign foe. Our destruction, should it come at all, will be from another quarter. From the inattention of the people to the concerns of their government, from their carelessness and negligence, I must confess that I do apprehend some danger. I fear that they may place too implicit a confidence in their public servants, and fail properly to scrutinize their conduct; that in this way they may be made the dupes of designing men, and become the instruments of their own undoing. Make them intelligent, and they will be vigilant; give them the means of detecting the wrong, and they will apply the remedy.”

Remember, America, prevention is better than cure (Isaiah 26:9).

Obama's legacy is america's legacy

Over the last couple of weeks, we have been hearing much of Barack Obama and his legacy. In other words, we have been hearing about what state he has left America in Islam in the hands of the Globalists: submit or else?

Is it not amazing how these videos are conveniently distributed, as well as done professionally with jib arms and dual cameras? Of course, it would not be complete without sound effects, which are

The exploitation of America's

“Sex before eight, before it is too late!” –NAMBALA Slogan heard during Gay Pride Parades

It amazes me to think that Americans will literally take all day and all night to prove a point when it comes to propping up their favorite politicians. Yet, when it comes time to deal with the politicians for advocating the very crimes that America's children are dealing with, they just can't find the time to actually love on them enough to actually stand up and fight for them (James 2:14-26).

I knew when writing this column that I was writing to a nation that already has given pass to a corrupt government that sanctions sodomy, which American law condemns in all 50 states (read your state statute), as well as the murder of the innocent (Proverbs 6:17), which is a disastrous combination (Psalm 9:17; Proverbs 14:34).

As the American people are continuously and incrementally being desensitized, last week National Geographic took the time to dare the justice of God by boasting of the confusion (Daniel 9:7) that is being laid onto the backs of America's children through the exploitation of a 9-year-old boy on their front cover.

This is European tyranny, and if you want to advocate what God condemns by sowing what the Europeans have sown, you are going to reap what they have been reaping (Romans 6:23; Galatians 6:7).

It has been spoon feed to the American sheeple that these distorted sodomites that have chosen the acts of the abominable (Deuteronomy 30:19) wanted to just be left alone, when in fact these sodomites have done just the exact opposite. They have attacked anyone and everyone that would stand on the side of the law, which calls these crimes for what they are, "crimes against nature" (Romans 1:24). All the while, the children have been the end aim and Americans know this.

The Homosexual Manifesto has been in the congressional record since 1987.

National Geographic has hailed the cover as progress after decades of marginalization and discrimination.

National Geographic unveiled its January issue featuring the young boy, dressed as a girl, from Kansas last week. Wearing hot pink cheetah pants and a matching T-shirt.

The little boy said of himself, "The doctor said that when I was born that I was a boy but I knew in my heart that I was a girl. I am made up of some boy body parts but that is not wrong, that is o.k." He said this as if to suggest that God somehow made a mistake. Not!

These parents need to be held responsible for child abuse and so do the people that help advocate these crimes. It is their duty and obligation before God to raise them according to the laws of God, which are foundational law in the United States of America (Proverbs 22:6; Luke 7:35).

Like that of anything else the media wants to advocate, they want you to believe that everyone, for the most part, is in support of what these sodomites advocate. The opposite is true. Furthermore, the mother of this young boy has a whopping 2,000 followers and the YouTube video where the little boy is being led about as to what to answer when questioned, has had the comments disabled. I will tell you why they are disabled. Like that of the control the media wants over the minds of the people, they do not want you to know of the outrage that is taking place over this issue.

The Media is Pushing This...

Listen to some of these headlines that the media is pushing on you America!

“Jacob the 5 year-old transgender”

“Transgender at 11” by 20/20

“Transgender Parents Who Conceived Two Sons Naturally” (Where the man is the woman and the woman is the man)

“I never knew my boyfriend was born a GIRL but she still wants to marry and start a family”

And Americans look the other way.

America, they are simply trying to normalize the crimes through desensitization.

“60 Minutes” in Australia, did an expose of “Worldwide Pedophile Network,” where the politicians were being exposed for their crimes against children (Romans 1:24). They also interviewed an individual who was advocating the normalization of sexual consent of adults with children. The report on YouTube has been conveniently scrubbed.

In America, this has been exposed over and over again only to be blacked out by a media that is bought and paid for. This is to the demise of America as we know it.

Why would the modern American Church stand down concerning the homosexual agenda? (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:24).

Why are politicians in Washington D.C. voting in favor of what God calls an Abomination? (Exodus 22:22-24; Luke 17:2). They know that if they can demoralize the people, they can rule with an easy hand.

Pedophilia

The wide-spread acts of pedophiles committed against our children by both corrupt clergy and corrupt politicians are rampant and unthinkable. (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Matthew 18:7-9; Romans 1:24; Jude 1:7)

Conspiracy of Silence is a documentary that exposed a network of religious leaders and Washington politicians who flew children to Washington D.C. for sex orgies. Many children suffered the indignity of wearing nothing but their underwear and a number displayed on a piece of cardboard hanging from their necks when being auctioned off to foreigners in Las Vegas, Nevada, and Toronto, Canada.

At the last minute, before airing, unknown congressmen threatened the TV Cable industry with restrictive legislation if this documentary was aired.

Almost immediately, unknown persons, who ordered all copies destroyed, purchased the rights to the documentary. A copy of this videotape was furnished anonymously to former Nebraska state senator and attorney John De Camp, who made it available to retired FBI Agent Ted L. Gunderson.

On Tuesday May 3rd, 1994, a video was scheduled to air on the Discovery Channel. Influential members of Congress applied pressure to the cable industry to stop the airing of the program and destroy all copies.

It was already listed nation-wide in the April 30th-May 6th edition of TV Guide and newspaper supplements.

The Discovery Channel and Yorkshire Television were reimbursed for the $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ million dollars production costs.

Whatever the people believe is the truth! – not true!

“True glory takes root, and even spreads; all false pretences, like flowers, fall to the ground; nor can any counterfeit last long.” -Marcus Tullius Cicero

Barack Hussein Obama once again exhibited his absolute disdain for the truth when his lies fail to advance his agenda. He calls out anyone that would dare question the rigged voting system as “ludicrous.” Yet, when it fails to keep him in power all of the sudden the voting system needs to be investigated.

When are the people in this country going to discern the evil and the hypocrisy of this current, corrupt administration? (Hebrews 5:14)

It seems that in America, confused though she may be, they just cannot discern between that which is good and that which is evil (Daniel 9:8). Furthermore, Americans claim that they can recognize the evils, but for some reason or another, they live in subjection to the very evils they decry (Romans 1:18).

For example, Americans have tolerated a foreign agent in the people's White House, who ran on his Christian faith, which through his speeches and actions has done that which contradicts the Christian faith (1 John 2:4-6). He has omitted “Creator” from his recitations of the Declaration of Independence, omitted “under God” in recitation of the Gettysburg Address speech. [YouTube Video]

This is the same criminal against God and humanity who has done more to advance the murder of the innocent in the womb more than any other president (Proverbs 6:17). Bradlee, why are you on this topic again? It's because the American people have failed to bring to justice those who advocate the lie that abortion is legal (Isaiah 26:9). He previously voted over 242 times to in his short tenure as an Illinois senator for such murderous actions.

As you know, Planned Parenthood founder Margret Sanger said, "The most merciful thing that the large family does to one of its infant members is to kill it."

To date, abortions in the US have reached 57,762,169.

Obama praised Planned Parenthood while stating his gratitude for this criminal organization by saying, "Thank you Planned Parenthood and God bless you!"

This is the same man that has advocated the lawless sodomite agenda by appointing Kevin Jennings as the "Safe school czar," whose idol is hero Harry Hay, an icon from an organization called "North American man Boy Love Association." Their slogan is "Sex before 8 before its too late," but America, you already knew this. As you know, Obama has appointed over 225 homosexuals, lesbians and transgender to governmental positions.

He is responsible for also attacking North Carolinians and their governor by demanding that they either accept his neutral gender bathroom bill lead by convicted sex offender Chad Severance or else he would withhold tax dollars in aid to that particular state.

This is the abomination that the American people have accepted from a professed "Christian" man (2 Corinthians 11:14). He advocates that which God condemns. [YouTube Video]

This is the same man that Americans have been dumbed down to believe that he knows better than the God of our Lord and Savior (from sin) Jesus Christ by warring against His written Law (Hosea 4:6; Isaiah 14:13; Exodus 20).

On the heels of the sodomites, Obama has supported the Muslims, which I have been warning since 2005.

Obama has aided the enemies of America both within and without (Leviticus 26:17; Deuteronomy 28:36; Article 3, Section 3 of the United States Constitution). He stacked governmental positions with Muslim Brotherhood operatives and has armed, as well as financed, America's enemies in the face of the American people.

"The future must not belong to those who slander the prophet of Islam," said Obama before the United Nations.

He has played the Judas with the American people by kissing them with lie after lie all while betraying them (Proverbs 26:28). Still, the American people do not realize that these are the actions of Satan himself as he moves to "steal, and to kill, and to destroy" (John 10:10).

One doesn't have to question Obama's ties to Satan. After all he was a disciple of Saul Alinsky, who dedicated his "Rules for Radicals," the handbook for a leftist takeover strategy, to the devil.

"Lest we forget at least an over-the-shoulder acknowledgment to the very first radical: from all our legends, mythology, and history... the first radical known to man who rebelled against the establishment and did it so effectively that he at least won his own kingdom – Lucifer." [YouTube Video]

Americans have taken this minion to be that of a disciple of Jesus Christ. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Just remember that Napoleon Bonaparte said, "The Bible is No mere Book, IT IS A POWER THAT CONQUERS ALL THAT OPPOSE IT!"

Americans can attempt to decry the truth of what has been written here, but the fact of the matter is that they have accepted his actions by being accomplices to his crimes and accepting his lies better than most in this country know how to live out the truth (Jeremiah 2:19).

The revisionists of the day have been busy tearing away at the character of those who established this country in an attempt to put themselves in their place. Is it working? The Good, The Bad and The Righteous.

Pastor Robert Jeffress, Elena Kagan and gay marriage

“Human passions unbridled by morality and religion...would break the strongest cords of our Constitution as a whale goes through a net.” – John Adams

December 6, 2016 Headline: Confused Pastor say's Sodomite “Marriage” is the Law of the Land

Once again, the American Church has its role upside down as they turn and capitulate (Psalm 78:9). It is for the Church to lead as they follow the Christ (Exodus 20; John 14:6), where the gates of hell shall not prevail (Matthew 16:13-20)

The Declaration of Independence, which underlies the Constitution, holds that the rights of the people come from God, and the powers of the government come from the people. [YouTube Video]

The Supreme Court Justices are as is any other appointed judge. They are to discover and to apply written law, and to sit during good behavior (Article 3, Section 1 of the United States Constitution). If not, they are lawfully to be removed (Article 2, Section 4 of the United States Constitution).

President Andrew Jackson said:

"If the Supreme Court is the final arbiter of what the Constitution says, then we have ceased to be our own rulers (Under God), and the Supreme Court is our ruler."

To reaffirm President Jackson's statement, the Supreme Court declared:

"We are a Christian people...according to one another the equal right of religious freedom, and acknowledging with the reverence the duty of obedience to God." -United States v. Macintosh (1931)

A prominent Baptist minister in Texas who backed Trump's campaign efforts says that despite his opposition, same-sex "marriage" is "settled law," and Christians should move on to another issue, such as abortion. (That is, where the American people are guilty of the blood of over 57 million babies since 1973)

Robert Jeffress, who leads First Baptist Church in Dallas said,

"This is not going to be re-litigated by the Supreme Court. That is the law of the land. I wish it were different, but it's not different."

This is what the American people have been seeing and hearing far too long: The professed Christians agreeing with the enemy (James 4:4). No wonder why people are confused (Daniel 9:7). The Church doesn't practice what it is commanded to do (Proverbs 7:2).

These are cowards living out Ignorance in action as they attempt to spread their lack of faith in God motivated by the fear of man (Proverbs 29:25).

To regularly hear unscriptural teaching is a serious thing. It is a continual dropping of slow poison into the mind. ~J.C. Ryle

This also applies to the United States Constitution.

I wrote in a past article...

The stage has been set, and just in time. Before the elections, Obama came out in support of homosexual marriage. Of course, he first had to repeal DADT and place 225 homosexuals in key positions...such as the Supreme Court... before he made his announcement.

Such a one is Elena Kagan.

Elena Kagan is the former dean of students at Harvard. Contrary to Harvard's founding mottos, "For Christ and the Church" and "For the glory of Christ," Kagan is known for "Queerifying Harvard."

During her tenure, she did the following:

Kagan hired former ACLU lawyer William Rubenstein to teach "queer" legal theory, in which he taught courses on taking up new identities such as bisexuality, transgender fk, involving polygamy, sadomasochism, and the sexuality of minors.

Kagan also hired other radicals (a lesbian and a transsexual) to teach transgender law courses, as well as Cass Sunstein who has written in support of polygamy and free-for-all marriage relationships.

Kagan viciously attacked our military in opposition to "Don't Ask, Don't Tell," even banning military recruiters from coming on campus. Kagan's attempt to ban the recruiters was unsuccessful, and even after losing her legal campaign, she encouraged students to continue protesting them.

Kagan's radical activism on campus was so toxic that there was even a campaign to make the entire university trans-inclusive, using Harvard's "gender identity" non-discrimination policy to spew gender confusion among students on campus.

Elena Kagan has never judged a case a day in her life, yet Obama, unqualified for office himself, has seen fit to “qualify” her on the Supreme Court bench...just in time for the Court to review homosexual marriage.

How deprived is the understanding of the modern church when it comes to its own history!

Instead of preaching “Repent and be baptized, every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins” (Acts 2:38) and establishing righteousness through judgment (Isaiah 51:4), they just simply go along to get along as they lead the sheep into the ditch (Matthew 15:14). Of course, they do this for the approbation of men (Luke 16:15).

What a contrast to the preachers who thundered from America’s pulpits before, during and after the Revolutionary War, causing the colonists to stand up in the face of tyranny. The British labeled them as the much-feared “Black Robed Regiment.” The British were not the only ones who recognized them as the bulwarks of America’s Independence.

“Mighty men they were, of iron nerve and strong hand and unblanched cheek and heart of flame. God needed not reeds shaken by the wind, not men clothed in soft raiment [Matthew 11:7-8], but heroes of hardihood and lofty courage. ... And such were the sons of the mighty who responded to the Divine call.”
–Bishop Charles Galloway, 1898

“The ministers of the Revolution were, like their Puritan predecessors, bold and fearless in the cause of their country. No class of men contributed more to carry forward the Revolution and to achieve our independence than did the ministers. ... [B]y their prayers, patriotic sermons, and services [they] rendered the highest assistance to the civil government, the army, and the country.” – Historian B. F. Morris, 1864

“The Constitutional Convention and the written Constitution were the children of the pulpit.” –Historian Alice Baldwin, 1918

Concerning the headline article I referenced at the beginning, I am here to tell you that nothing could be further from the truth. There has never been and never will be any such thing as “sodomite Marriage.” As a matter of fact, never in the history of mankind has there been any such thing.

“No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the Law of God!” -William Blackstone Commentaries on the Laws of England English Common Law

And God’s Law clearly states that “Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination” (Leviticus 18:22; 20:13; Romans 1:24; 2 Peter 2:6; Jude 7-8).

John Adams, the second President of the United States said, “Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

Here gives way to the enemies of all righteousness (Acts 13:10). For they know how to lie better than the self-professed righteous know how to live out the truth (Hosea 4:6).

Son of Liberty Samuel Adams said, “A general Dissolution of the Principles and Manners will more surely overthrow the Liberties of America than the whole Force of the Common Enemy.”

“The Church is to be the moral compass of society” -President John Adams (Matthew 5:14-16)

The Church is to overcome evil with good. As our forefathers rightly exhibited, “Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God.”

America, Hillary (the establishment) means to sink your ship

“Tyranny is defined as that which is legal for the government but illegal for the citizenry.” –Thomas Jefferson

I knew that it was coming. History teaches us what will happen when judgment is left off.

Just this week, Americans witnessed the treasonous, repeat offender Hillary Clinton jumping on board with the Communists to stir up domestic insurrection by fabricating a victim mentality in the face of the voter fraud that was perpetrated on their behalf, which completely backfired. What is it that Americans witnessed? They witnessed a criminal who was given the opportunity to violate the law once again and sink your ship. [See this YouTube Viseo]

CNN (Communist Network News) reported:

Hillary Clinton's campaign said Saturday it will take part in efforts to push for recounts in several key states, joining with Green Party candidate Jill Stein (Four years ago Stein was arrested for disorderly conduct and handcuffed to a chair at the Hofstra University debate), who has raised millions of dollars to have votes counted again in Wisconsin.

But, in a post on Medium, Marc Elias, the campaign's counsel, said the campaign's own investigation has not uncovered any evidence of hacking of voting systems.

In the campaign's most detailed comments to date on the recount, Elias wrote that while the campaign was not going to contest the results itself, it has decided now to take part in the effort to “ensure that it is fair to all sides.”

On Monday, Michigan’s secretary of state office announced that President-elect Donald Trump won Michigan’s 16 electoral votes.

That brought the final electoral tally for Trump 306, while former Democratic nominee Hillary Clinton has 232 electoral votes.

Clinton continues to lead Trump for the country’s popular vote by about 2 million votes, and the lead is likely to grow as votes continue to be counted.

But Trump on Saturday dismissed the recount and said, “The election is over.”

It’s a scam. Trump called the recount “ridiculous.”

Then again, how couldn’t she be encouraged to take another shot at the American people? The people allowed President-elect Donald Trump, who on the campaign trail promised a “special prosecutor” to go after the Clintons for their crimes, but after he was pronounced the winner, the very first thing he stated was, “Hillary has worked very hard and very long over a long period of time, and we owe her a major debt of gratitude for her service to our country.”

What happened to “I am going to instruct my attorney general to get a special prosecutor to look into your situation because there has never been so many lies, so much deception”? Now, he doesn’t want “to hurt the Clintons, they are good people.”

What good is a special prosecutor, America, when you have the likes of American appeasers Trey Gowdy, Daryl Issa and Jason Chaffetz doing absolutely nothing when it comes to justice, but talk?

Wasn't this the guy that was going to "bring back the rule of law? (Exodus 20; Romans 3:20)

Why, yes it is. I'm speaking about Constitutional law, not opinion, deconstructionism, nor emotion, but law! How right on was Benjamin Franklin when he said, "Make yourself sheep, and the wolves will devour."

There was a story of a merciful captain of a ship. While a passing ship shot at the captain's ship, the captain showed mercy on him and warned him not to shoot again. The ship shot at him again, but the kind captain did not retaliate. His "mercy" ended up bringing the destruction not only upon himself but all those on his ship. By allowing his enemy to attack him twice, the passing ship shot a third time and killed them all.

Thomas Jefferson was right when he said, "When the people fear the government you have tyranny. When the government fears the people you have liberty." Yet, this will not come to fruition until the American people again fear God (Proverbs 16:6; Psalm 94:15; Isaiah 26:9; Psalm 97; Jeremiah 9:24).

Giving the power and authority back to the American people (under God) in spite of corrupt politicians and broken promises, remember:

"...a nation ceases to be republican only when the will of the majority ceases to be the law." -Thomas Jefferson

Paul Ryan is alluring, funding and protecting illegals, disregarding Americans

"The short memories of the American voters is what keeps our politicians in office."

Remember the headline from December 17, 2015: Paul Ryan Hands Everything Obama Wants in $1 Trillion Omnibus Bill – Including Funding Refugee Plan and CISA (Proverbs 26:28)?

It was reported that Paul Ryan's first major legislative achievement was a total and complete sell-out of the American people, which masqueraded as an appropriations bill (Luke 22:48).

Why is it that the American people have not come to the realization that these politicians know exactly what they are doing when they are doing it? And why it is that the American people, instead of dealing with the treasonous self-serving criminals, give them a pass over and over again only to suffer another abuse of power? It is a question that Americans must answer for no one else can or will (Article 2, Section 4 of the United States Constitution; Isaiah 51:4).

Think of the content found in this unconstitutional and unlawful omnibus bill that Paul Ryan passed when he literally gave the foreign criminal in the people's White House Barrack Hussein Obama everything that he wanted to further fundamentally transform America.

Let's take a look at the content of this illegal bill:

1- Ryan's Omnibus Fully Funds DACA

Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals has granted around 700,000 illegal aliens with work permits, as well as the ability to receive tax credits and federal entitlement programs.

2- Ryan's Omnibus Funds Sanctuary Cities

Almost 12 months ago, 32-year-old Kate Steinle was bleeding to death in her father's arms. She was gunned down in broad daylight by a five-time deported criminal alien whose presence in the country was the direct result of San Francisco's refusal to comply with U.S. immigration law—yet Paul Ryan's omnibus rewards these lawless Sanctuary Cities with federal grants. Division B Title II of Ryan's omnibus funds various grant programs for the Department of Justice (pages 167, 168, and 169) and contains no language that would restrict the provision of such grants to sanctuary jurisdictions.

3- Ryan's Omnibus Funds All Refugee Program

Ryan is not one of the 84 cosponsors of Babin's bill to halt the refugee operation.

Paul Ryan stated that "We're a compassionate country. The refugee laws are important laws."

4- Ryan's Omnibus funds all of the Mideast immigration programs that have been exploited by terrorists in recent years.

The omnibus would put the U.S. on a path to approve admission for hundreds of thousands of migrants from a broad range of countries with jihadists movements over the next 12 months, on top of all the other.

5- Paul Ryan's Omnibus Funds Illegal Alien Resettlement, Ryan's Omnibus Funds the Release of Criminal Aliens

6- Ryan's Omnibus Quadruples H-2B Foreign Worker Visas

7- Ryan's Omnibus Funds Tax Credits for Illegal Aliens

8- Ryan's Omnibus Locks-In Huge Spending Increases

9- Ryan's Omnibus Fails to Allocate Funds to Complete the 700-

Mile

Double-Layer Border Fence That Congress Promised the American People

On the 13th of November Paul Ryan said the, Removing illegal immigrants will not be a “focus” of a Trump administration, says Republican House Speaker Paul Ryan, a longstanding supporter of open borders and cheap labor.

For a guy who seems so adamant about alluring the illegal’s into America one should ask this criminal why it is that he has a fence around his property.

Breitbart again reported, “ICE officers have... been disturbed to hear some of the recent comments made by the Republican House Speaker,” said the ICE Council President. “Your 2015 spending bill funded sanctuary cities, the resettlement of illegal alien border crossers, the release of criminal aliens and executive amnesty-policies which jeopardize the safety and security of the American people.”

While reports have documented that the border surge is currently the worst it’s ever been, the ICE Council president said that as House Speaker, Ryan has pushed policies that would only “exacerbate the situation”:

In the nine months that you have served as House Speaker, I am not aware of you holding a single press conference devoted exclusively to addressing this national crisis. Indeed, we were disheartened to learn that instead, the House Speaker intends to push and fund policies, which we believe would only exacerbate the situation.

In the letter, the National ICE Council demanded a meeting with Speaker Ryan. Yet Ryan never responded and never met with the council’s president.

When grieving mothers, who were forced to bury their loved ones as a result of illegal alien crime, tried to meet with Ryan, the Speaker of the House literally fled from them.

Ryan “doesn’t care [about our families] one bit,” said Laura Wilkerson, whose 18-year-old son was tied up, beaten, strangled, set on fire, and tortured to death by his illegal alien classmate.

“Paul Ryan is personally responsible for the deaths, maimings, and sexual assaults of thousands of innocent Americans and lawful residents,” the grieving angel moms wrote in August.

“Paul Ryan has never shown one millionth the passion in defense of our families as he has spent advocating for policies that would result in the deaths of more Americans... [He] has the blood of so many on his hands—blacks, whites, Asians, Hispanics, immigrants, and children of immigrants...

If Ryan’s considerable powers had been marshaled, in any serious degree, towards advocating for our families, demanding change for our families, or insisting upon justice for our families, then so many more families just like us would have been saved. For all of these reasons and more, we deem Ryan disqualified from serving in Congress or any other position of public office that is supposed to represent the American people.”

It is the duty of every American to put a stop these criminals, who have a care about protecting those who destroy and destroying those who they are to protect. Enough is enough!

There is a true story told of Major Andre. He had been caught as a spy in our country, and there was undoubted proof that he was guilty. By the laws of war, he ought to be put to death. What he had done was intended to the ruin of the American cause and if such an act went unpunished, it would expose the army to surprise and destruction.

He should, in accordance with the law of nations, be put to death. On the other hand, there was his youth; his high attainments; his honorable connections; his brilliant hopes, all pleading that he might live, and that he might be pardoned.

In the heart of George Washington, the prompting of justice and mercy came into collision. Both could not be satisfied, and there seemed to be but one course of pursuit. His sense of justice was shown in the act by which he signed the death warrant. His feelings of compassion in the fact that when he did it, his eyes poured forth a flood of tears.

You see, Washington so loved his country that he knew if such an act went unpunished, it would only encourage the next person to do it as well, thus endangering the country. Justice had to be satisfied.

How every generous feeling of our nature would have been gratified if mercy could have triumphed, and the youthful and accomplished officer could have been spared.

Who are these protesters? Let them tell you!

“The ultimate test of a moral society is the kind of world that it leaves to its children.” –Dietrich Bonhoeffer

This week, young protesters were surrounding police cars in an attempt to free rioters who were being arrested for breaking the law. I know the media backed (bought and paid for) rioting taking place is in many cases the voice of the unheard, yet that is not what we are dealing with in this country. We are dealing with those who are illegal, unruly and unworthy to even be a part of this country.

Many of these little communists simply want to rule the roost by being the law, when they do not know the law (1 Timothy 1:7). They simply want to be a law unto themselves (Acts 23:3).

Furthermore, I have warned that the likes of Barack Hussein Obama, who is continuously adding gas to the fires that he has incited, emulating the tyrant and dictator, Mao Tse-Tung. Mao, in his state of rebellion, overthrew the Republic of China by reaching into the younger generations, and teaching them that they were a democracy, only to take from the have's and give to the have-nots.

These protesters are the young people who have been given to a federal government to illegally indoctrinate them through No Child Left Behind, Common Core, and international baccalaureate. Seven hundred thousand of these students can't even read their own diplomas.

The school system from which these protesters have graduated is corrupt from the top to the bottom. The National Education Association has made the young an open prey by subjecting them to everything and protecting them from nothing. Students are given over to caucus to sodomites, as well as a transgender caucus. Furthermore, they are being taught false history and science.

These are the protesters that have been taught that it is acceptable for government to sanction the murder of the innocent (Proverbs 6:17) by calling it choice, instead of murder.

Since Roe vs Wade in 1973, 58, 586, 256 babies have been murdered in their mother's womb. That number is equivalent to 18 states in our union.

Once they are done with public school, they can choose a college of their choice to be indoctrinated, and indebted, by a bunch of burnt communists, who are still high on PCP, high enough to call themselves professors (Romans 1:22), while the dumbed down are taught to believe it.

Former Education Secretary under Ronald Regan said, In America today, the longer you stay in school, the dumber you get..."
-William Bennett

This is all happening because 86% of the American people that call themselves Christians, patriots or conservatives are dropping them off at the front door of a public school that should not exist in the first place (Proverbs 22:6).

All the while, cowardly professors in the church stood down (Psalm 78) because they did not want to judge what God commanded (Isaiah 59:14). They continually strain at the gnat and swallow the big, big camel by removing the Law (Romans 3:20; Galatians 3:24) and teaching a false grace (Galatians 5:13), which ends with hate rather than love (Psalm 109:4, and hell rather than heaven (Psalm 9:16-17); namely, Thou shalt not kill (Deuteronomy 5:17).

Out of their own mouths:

The following article was in the editorial section of the Dallas Morning News on Sunday, May 2, 1999.

Generation NEXT has some Questions I am a member of the upcoming generation—the one after Generation X that has yet to be given a name. So far, it appears that most people are rallying behind the idea of calling us Generation Next. I believe I know why. The older generations are hoping we will mindlessly assume our place as the "next" in line. That way, they won't have to explain why my generation has had to experience so much pain and heartache. "What heartache?" you say. "Don't you know you have grown up in a time of great prosperity?" Yeah, we know that. Believe me, it has been drilled into our heads since birth. Unfortunately, the pain and hurt I speak of can't be reconciled with money. You have tried for years to buy us happiness, but it is only temporary. Money isn't the answer, and it is time for people to begin admitting their guilt for failing my generation. I will admit that I wasn't planning to write this. I was going to tuck it away in some corner of my mind and fall victim to your whole "next" mentality.

But after the Massacre in Littleton, CO, I realize that as a member of this generation that kills without remorse, I had a duty to challenge all of my elders to explain why they have allowed things to become so bad. Let me tell you this: These questions don't represent only me but a Whole generation that is struggling to grow up and make sense of this world. We all have questions; we all want explanations. People may label us Generation Next, but we are more appropriately Generation "Why?"

"Why did most of you lie when you made the vow of 'til death do us part'?" "Why do you fool yourselves into believing that divorce really is better for the kids in the long run?" "Why do so many of you divorced parents spend more time with your new boyfriend or girlfriend than with your own children?"

"Why did you ever fall victim to the notion that kids are just as well off being raised by a complete stranger at a day care center than by their own mother or father?" "Why do you look down on parents who decide to quit work and stay home to raise their children?" "Why does the television do the most talking at family meals?" "Why is work more important than your own family?" "Why is money regarded as more important than relationships?"

"Why is 'quality time' generally no longer than a five-to-10-minute conversation each day?" "Why do you try to make up for the lack of time you spend with us by giving us more and more material objects that we really don't need?" "Why does your work (in the form of a cell Phone, laptop computer, etc.), always come with us on vacations?"

“Why have you neglected to teach us values and morals?” “Why haven’t you lived moral lives that we could model our own after?” “Why isn’t religion one of the most important words in our household?” “Why do you play God when it comes to abortion?” “Why don’t you have enough faith in us to teach us abstinence rather than safe sex?” “Why do you allow us to watch violent movies but expect us to maintain some type of childlike innocence?” “Why do you allow us to spend unlimited amounts of time on the Internet, but still are shocked about our knowledge of how to build bombs?” “Why are you so afraid to tell us ‘no’ sometimes?” “Why is it so hard for you to realize that school shootings, and other violent juvenile behavior, result from a lack of your attention more than anything else?” Call us Generation Next if you want to, but I think you will be surprised at how we will fail to fit into your neat little category. These questions should, and will, be asked of the generations that have failed us. Written by Marcy Musgrave, a junior at Texas A&M University. [YouTube Video]

As a forewarning, you might want to bless this generation while you have time to do so. If you don’t, they will be there to curse you.

“The philosophy taught in the class room in one generation will be the taught in government in the next.”

Undocumented (illegal) citizens that contribute to America?

“When you elect a Chicago community organizer who was never qualified for the office that he has been entrusted to hold, who clearly hates America, who persecutes law abiding citizens and has done more for the illegal’s and the Islamic state than he has for Americans, it should be clear as to what America is dealing with.”

On November 6, 2016, the criminal and foreign agent in the people’s White House once again exhibited his stance against America and her constitutional laws (Luke 3:19).

Barack Hussein Obama (Muslim name), while alluring illegals on American tax payer’s dime to this country, endorsed the notion of illegal aliens casting votes in the 2016 US presidential election.

“...[M]illennials, dreamers, undocumented citizens – and I call them citizens because they contribute to this country – are fearful of voting,” an interviewer told the president. “So if I vote, will immigration know where I live? Will they come for my family and deport us?”

“Not true,” Obama reassured. “And the reason is first of all when you vote you are a citizen yourself. And there is not a situation where the voting rolls somehow are transferred over and people start investigating, et cetera. The sanctity of the vote is strictly confidential.”

Once again, the law stands as a stumbling block to this criminal (1 Peter 2:8). He failed to share with the American people that in order to vote you must do so lawfully. Here is what is required in Minnesota before voting:

- A valid photo ID such as a MN driver’s license, permit, or ID card (or a receipt for any of these IDs).

- A valid student ID card that has your picture.
 - o Can only be used if your college has given a student housing list to election officials.
- A photo Tribal ID card that shows your signature.
- A valid voter registration in your same precinct showing a different name or address.
- A registered voter residing in your precinct who can sign an oath confirming your address.
- An employee of your residential facility who can sign an oath to confirm your address.

If you cannot provide one of the above, you can provide an expired photo ID; however, if you do you'll also need to bring proof of residency, such as a utility bill or rent statement dated within 30 days of Election Day.

Illegal's cannot, and will not produce this!

ILLE'GAL, a. Not legal; unlawful; contrary to law; illicit; as an illegal act; illegal trade. Webster's 1828 dictionary

I have been blowing the trumpet for 8 years now making Americans aware of the fact that if Barack had the support that the media wanted you to believe that he had, including Hilary Clinton, why is it that he has been appealing to the illegals for support and assailing those who uphold border laws? Simply put, he does not have the support.

Second, the useful idiot during this scripted interview called illegal aliens "undocumented," and said, "I call them citizens because they contribute to this country" (Proverbs 19:9).

Undocumented illegal aliens contribute to our country? Let's see if what she said lines up with the facts.

Take a look at Muslims from the east who are plundering countries that they are entering.

- Denmark: 450% more crimes committed by Muslims than non-Muslims.
- Germany: Muslim migrants committed 142, 500 crimes in 6 months. This is 780 every day.
- Sweden: 480,000 sexual assaults in one year. 77% of all rapes by less than 2% Muslim.
- England and Wales: Over 56% of Syrian refugee's committed severe crimes in less than 1 year etc.
- Belgium: 35% of Prison population is Muslim who make up only 6% of the population.
- UK: Muslims fill 44% of high security prisons, out of a 5% population.
- USA: 91.4 % Muslim refugees are on food stamps, 68.3 % on cash welfare.

Muslim migration has doubled in the decade since 9/11 and 60% migrants to America favor sharia law (Deuteronomy 28:15-68).

More illegals are coming across from the southern border,

- There were 68.57 illegal aliens imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Arizona, compared to 54.06 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned for every 100,000 citizens and legal noncitizens.
- There were 97.2 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in California, compared to 74.1 citizens and legal noncitizens imprisoned per 100,000 citizen and legal noncitizens.
- There were 54.85 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Florida, compared to 67.8 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.
- There were 168.75 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in New York, compared to 48.12 legal immigrants imprisoned for every 100,000 legal immigrants.
- There were 54.54 illegals imprisoned for every 100,000 illegals in Texas, compared to 65.43 legal immigrants.

Crimes of the Illegals

From the unlawful acts of this criminal called the president to the advocating of the crimes of illegals within (Psalm 9:16), no wonder America is where she is.

Barrack Hussein Obama has released 165,900 “contributors” (illegal’s) back onto the streets of America, jeopardizing the safety and the welfare of those who have a lawful God given right to be here.

This, of course, is when he is not commuting more “contributors,” namely Muslim drug dealers. Barack Hussein Obama commuted the sentences of 111 federal inmates Tuesday, 96 of which were in prison for cocaine trafficking.

America, you would not have to deal with the crimes of the illegals from without if you would simply deal with the crimes of the illegals and unlawful from within!

America can start this process by sending this foreigner back to Kenya where he came from and eradicate his 7 and three quarter years of unlawful policies (Deuteronomy 28:36).

The gullibility of most Americans

“The typical American voter is so stupid, his dog teaches him tricks.” –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-Care

Last week, it was reported that un-Constitutional Romney-Obama-care was working as designed. I pondered this, all the while knowing that to force people to buy healthcare is an illegal act. Remember, the federal government is a creature of the state and not the state a creature of the federal government. Furthermore, the foreign agent in the people's White House has never been given delegated powers to illegally legislate against the states through unlawful policy. Policy follows law, law does not follow policy. [YouTube Video]

I am not going to spend time showing you the illegality of Romney-Obama-care, for in judging this administration (Matthew 7:16), we can see that when he said that he wanted to fundamentally transform America, that was enough for me to know what it was all about.

"The fundamental basis of this nation's laws was given to Moses on the Mount. The fundamental basis of our Bill of Rights comes from the teaching we get from Exodus and St. Matthew, from Isaiah and St. Paul. I don't think we emphasize that enough these days. If we don't have a proper fundamental moral background, we will finally end up with a Totalitarian government which does not believe in rights for anybody except the State." –President Harry Truman

I know there are some that believe that because the Supreme Court upheld Romney-Obamacare, it must be legal. Consider that the Supreme Court and other justices in any court are to discover and apply law (which is good behavior), not to create it out of thin air and apply that which is not taken from that which has been delegated (Article 3, Section 1, The United States Constitution).

Also, consider that this is the same Supreme Court that has advocated that which God has clearly condemned over and over again (Exodus 20:13; Proverbs 6:17).

The American people have accepted Supreme Court sanctioned murder of the innocent. They have accepted the redefinition of marriage by the likes of a radical lesbian named Elena Kagan, who has never judged a case a day in her life. The list goes on concerning the Supreme Court's attacks against America and Constitutional Law (Article 4, Section 4, The United States Constitution).

Apparently, these injustices seemed to have miss that which the law teaches in law school (1 Timothy 1:7).

“No enactment of man can be considered law unless it conforms to the Law of God!” –William Blackstone, Commentaries on the Laws of England

President Andrew Jackson said, “The Bible is the Rock upon which our REPUBLIC rests” (Exodus 18:21).

He was also the President that said:

“If the Supreme Court is the final arbiter of what The Constitution says, then we have ceased to be our own rulers (Under God), and the Supreme Court is our ruler.”

And rather getting caught up into the debate that they want you to get caught up into, the question that should be presented to them call themselves legislators is “Where are you deriving your authority from to implement these unconstitutional acts? It is a question that they simply cannot answer.

Which brings me to this point: “If they can get you asking the wrong questions, they do not have to worry about giving you the right answers.”

Considering that which you have been led to believe concerning Romney-Obama-care and that it is such a good deal (Premiums are skyrocketing) for Americans, why does it not apply to the Congress that approved these unlawful measures?

Without further ado, let me bring to you Jonathan Gruber again, the clown that is laughing at you, America.

“Exploiting the stupidity of the American voter is fun and easy: kinda like squeezing a lemon.” –Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"Lack of transparency is a huge political advantage. Call it the stupidity of the American voter or whatever, but basically, that was really, really critical for the thing to pass." -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

"When we're done with employer-based health insurance, it will have s much life in it as Jimmy Hoffa." -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

P.T. Barnum said a sucker is born every minute, but his estimate was laughably low. -Jonathan Gruber architect of Romney-Obama-care

America, your children and future generations are being enslaved by those who are committing crimes against you (Deuteronomy 28:68).

It is time for 318.9 million people to stand up and deal with those who are only entertaining the destruction of this country (Psalm 94:16). Let those who profess to be wise (Roman 1:22) be taken by their own lawless counsel (Job 5:13).

In closing, Harriet Tubman said when asked of the slaves that have been freed by her hands, "I freed a thousand slaves. I could have freed a thousand more if only they knew that they were slaves" (Hosea 4:6).

"Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off." -Psalm 94:20-23

If America would only repent, then the joke would be on the lawless!

There is no in between. God or tyrants!

Americans want Hillary in jail – rightly so

When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion—when you see that in order to produce, you need to obtain permission from men who produce nothing—when you see that money is flowing to those who deal, not in goods, but in favors—when you see that men get richer by graft and by pull than by work, and your laws don't protect you against them, but protect them against you—when you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice—you may know that your society is doomed. —Ayn Rand

If it is not a t-shirt that reads “Hillary for Prison” then it is a yard sign. If it is not a Facebook page, then it is a Twitter page calling for Hillary Clinton's indictment.

It is headlines in the media, as well. Across America, more people want Hillary Clinton (do not forget about the Bush's and the Obama's) indicted and charged than those who wish her to be put in office. And why wouldn't America want this? She is a criminal!

“Justice the Guardian of liberty” -Moses atop of the Supreme Court building with the Ten Commandments in his hands

Headline news across America that prove these claims:

- Security Agent: Hillary Clinton Compromised Way More Than Just Emails
- Famed Watergate Reporter and Retired Federal Prosecutor

Agree – Hillary Clinton is Corrupt!

- Hillary Clinton Revealed: The Queen of Corruption and Crime
- Leaked Emails Show Hillary Ready to Write Executive Orders for Her Donors
- Clinton tops 2015-16 JIHAD DONORS list

Which leads up to...

- Truth Bomb from Rasmussen: More Americans Want Hilary Indicted Than Elected!

And the list goes on...(Proverbs 24:21; Hebrews 4:13)

Now Hillary and the foreign agent in the people's White House, Barack Hussein Obama, are being exposed for voter rigging. Obama has been visited 45 times out of his 340 visits to the White House by election rigging guru and former prison inmate Robert Creamer.

The new scapegoat for Obama and Clinton is Russia. They are now being blamed for the crime when it is Clinton and Obama who are literally exposed in their own corruptions.

America, do not be diverted from these diplomatic magicians from hell (John 8:44-45). The Clintons have been selling uranium ore to the Russians. This is now World Wrestling Entertainment on a global scale, as they continue to play off of each other. They are not archenemies. They are allied in crime together, period.

Furthermore, like that of the Bushes, China, Russia and America, as well as the Pope, they are all calling for the new world. They are allied with the covenant of Hell, which I remind you disannulled (Isaiah 28:15-18).

Many are wondering why Hillary Clinton is even up on the platform during debates. It comes to this, the American people have been soft on these corrupt criminals, and have been soft on themselves. However, God will not be soft (Nahum 1:3), and these corrupt individuals have been encouraged to act out in a more corrupt manner.

Americans have also allowed the appeasers that identify themselves as prosecutors and government oversight to talk big. Yet, they produce nothing when it comes to justice (Amos 5:7). They are the fox in the chicken coop, acting as if they actually mean what they say. They are protecting themselves as much as the establishment in which they are a part.

Then there are those who pose as some sort of patriotic representatives when, in fact, they are the same people that have given Barack a pass every step of the way. These are a few of those who are the establishment:

- Colin Powell
- Mitt Romney
- John Boehner
- Dick Cheney
- Jeb Bush
- Barbara and George Bush Sr.
- Paul Ryan
- ...and the list goes on and on

These people represent the establishment, which has supported the likes of Obama and the Clintons, who are also the establishment. Americans have failed to realize that it is not the Democrats versus the Republicans. This is the globalists against Americans.

Divide and Conquer

The Answer to America's corruption is justice and judgment, which guards our liberties. Without justice, America will fall to further abuses. Of this, there is no doubt.

Until the message is sent to those who are to represent "We the people" that we will tolerate no more further abuses and impeach (Article 2 section 4 of the United States Constitution) and indict each member of government that has abused their delegated powers, this will continue (Leviticus 26:15).

The preamble of the United States Constitution reads:

“We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.” (cf. Jeremiah 9:24)

The United States Constitution ends with,

“Done in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the States present the Seventeenth Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and Eighty seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth...”

There is no in between. God or tyrants!

Exposing Hillary's concealed transparencies

For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. –Luke 2:2

I can absolutely say, without reserve, that Hillary Rodham Clinton is a fraud from the top of her head to the soles of her feet. The way that she portrays herself, in contrast to who she really is, are two different revelations.

FRAUD, n. [L. fraus.]

Deceit; deception; trick; artifice by which the right or interest of another is injured; a stratagem intended to obtain some undue advantage; an attempt to gain or the obtaining of an advantage over another by imposition or immoral means, particularly deception in contracts, or bargain and sale, either by stating falsehoods, or suppressing truth.

From her boastful (criminal) record to her contrived and fabricated support, with her answers and comments, it is not hard to detect that she is a fraud.

Much of last night's debate was spent on her accusing her opponent of crimes of which she is guilty.

You can pretty much count on the fact that whatever she says, the opposite is true, even when she gives her answers to her pre-scripted questions where it speaks in contrast to the point that she is trying to make. She is talking out of both sides of her lying mouth (Proverbs 19:5).

During the debates on Wednesday, we had the misfortune of seeing Hillary Clinton for who she really is (John 8:44; 1 Timothy 4:2).

One of the low points was when she spoke about gun control, which is unconstitutional and clearly runs in against the Bill of Rights.

The Federalist.com reported:

When pressed by Wallace to explain her opposition to 2008's landmark District of Columbia v. Heller decision, Clinton went through a checklist of platitudes before landing on the following:

You mentioned the Heller decision, and what I was saying that you reference, Chris, was that I disagreed with the way the court applied the Second Amendment in that case. Because what the District of Columbia was trying to do was protect toddlers from guns.

Hillary brought up "toddlers" a few more times, because little children are mostly adorable and no one wants to see them shot.

The thing is, the Heller case revolves around Richard Heller, a then 66-year-old police officer in Washington DC, who was allowed to carry a gun in a federal office building to protect politicians and strangers, but not in his home to protect himself, his family, or his property. Also of note, the Heller decision had nothing to do with toddlers or saving toddlers' lives or toddler gun safety or even toddlers shooting at each other. The word "toddler" doesn't appear anywhere in either the majority or dissenting opinions in the case.

After she was done fearmongering, Hillary went on to say this:

But there's no doubt that I respect the Second Amendment, that I also believe there's an individual right to bear arms.

No, she does not. Heller ended Washington's "total ban on handguns" – which was SCOTUS's description of the gun-control laws in DC. It codified the Second Amendment as an individual right to keep and bear arms for self-defense. Hillary admits she supports an effective ban on all handguns (for the toddlers), which is what instigated Heller. What "application" of the decision does she oppose if not the individual's right to own a gun? [YouTube Video]

America,

"What country can preserve its liberties if their rulers are not warned from time to time that their people preserve the spirit of resistance. Let them take arms." –Thomas Jefferson, letter to James Madison, December 20, 1787

When it came to the topic of abortion, remember the toddlers for whom she expresses such great care?

She plainly stated that she would continuously support the unconstitutional act of abortion through Planned Parenthood, as well as the corrupt that have illegally sanctioned the murder of the innocent in the womb by supporting Roe vs. Wade (Proverbs 6:17).

She said, "Because Roe v. Wade very clearly sets out that there can be regulations on abortion so long as the life and the health of the mother are taken into account. And when I voted as a senator, I did not think that that was the case. The kinds of cases that fall at the end of pregnancy are often the most heartbreaking, painful decisions for families to make."

Fifty-seven million innocent babies have been murdered, and they are still attempting to justify it.

- 1% Rape or Incest
- 6% Potential health problems (Mother or Child)
- 93% For social reasons (Unwanted or Inconvenient)

"The most merciful thing that a large family does for one of its infant members is to kill it." -Margret Sanger, the founder of Planned Parenthood, Women and the New Race. (Eugenics Publ. Co., 1920, 1923) (Proverbs 12:10)

Cecile Richards, in an attempt to defend Planned Parenthood after being exposed on video for harvesting baby parts, said that the people who caught them are the real monsters, also murderers and terrorists, but don't ask us for evidence (Revelation 12:10). [YouTube Link]

She went on to hypocritically say that government has no business telling people what they are to do concerning their choice to murder their babies.

Americans, knowingly or unknowingly, have been funding abortion through an illegal allocation of taxpayer dollars on behalf of a government that has been ruling through force far too long concerning issues for which it has no constitutional authority.

Remember,

Political language... is designed to make lies sound truthful and murder respectable, and to give an appearance of solidity to pure wind. –George Orwell (Mark 8:15)

Furthermore, 95% of the issues brought up during the debate had nothing to do with what the government has a constitutional right to do in the first place. Government doesn't have a future without the chaos it creates.

Concerning the likes of Hilary Clinton, this is only the tip of the iceberg concerning the expose of her concealed transparencies.

Deal with the warmongers: American politicians

“The people can always be brought to the bidding of the leaders. That is easy. All you have to do is tell them they are being attacked and denounce the pacifists for lack of patriotism and exposing the country to danger. It works the same way in any country.” –Herman Goring

For those who have yet to figure out that the game that is being played out between the Democrats and the Republicans concerning America's welfare, it is not the parties contending with one another, it is the globalists contending with the American people in the guise of their representatives (Proverbs 26:28).

The real threat to you and your freedoms in America does not come from those hiding out in a cave wearing turbans on their heads yelling, "Allahu Akbar." It is coming from men and woman wearing suits and ties in Washington D.C. that are selling you out.

To prove my point check out these recent headlines just over the last week:

Hillary Clinton's Solution for Terror Attacks in America? More Gun Control

Back in October of 2015, Governor Mark Dayton, voted worst senator in United States history, said to the people of Minnesota, "If you do not like immigrants, get out of Minnesota."

Who are the terrorists? Who are these "Useful Idiots" working for?

Line this up with what Former British Secretary Robin Cook Inter-Services Intelligence: "The truth is there is no Islamic army or terrorist group called Al-Qaeda. And any informed intelligence officer knows this. But, there is a propaganda campaign to make the public believe in the presence of an identified entity representing the "devil" only to drive TV watchers to accept a unified international leadership for a war against terrorism. The country behind this is The US..."

Americans all the well know that the present administration has done everything in its power to aid, to abet and to fund America's enemies both within and without. The devil is found in the details (2 Corinthians 11:14; 2 Thessalonians 2:8).

This Saul Alinsky disciple has been assailing everything American since day one by creating war within and without (P.S. It has been recently reported that Barrack Hussein Obama is a war criminal)

Saul Alinsky said, "Any revolutionary change must be proceeded by a passive, affirmative, non-challenging attitude toward change among the mass of our people. They must feel so frustrated, so defeated, so lost, so futureless in the prevailing system that they are willing to let go of the past and chance the future." Alinsky, Rules For Radicals pp. xix

Hillary Clinton, also a Saul Alinsky disciple of the devil, was exposed recently by Wikileaks email dump that Saudi Arabia and Qatar are funding ISIS. Are these not the enemies of America that are funding Hillary Clinton's foundation? Why, of course, they are.

She went on and said terrorism is "Not a said threat to us as a nation." It seems to be a convenient ploy to use terrorism at will to control the people with the use of fear. Furthermore, it was reported that she wants to "drone strike all dissidents and whistleblowers" (Leviticus 26:17).

Recently, the governor of Iowa said there are major Islamic terrorists that are living in every state that can strike any day. He received his information from the FBI, who have a long history of protecting the likes of the Clintons who are being funded by these terrorists.

FBI Director James Comey said, "Defeating ISIS will make them more dangerous."

I ask, who is the real threat to your freedoms America?

Don't forget that the criminal in the people's White House wants to rush 185, 000 Muslim immigrants into the USA by 2017. Does anyone see who is responsible for the chaos being created here?

What of Paul Ryan, who handed everything over to the foreign agent in the people's White House on his first legislative act, which was a complete and total sell-out of the America as we know it (Deuteronomy 28:36, 43).

For those who are warning of a revolution, I have a news flash for you, it started when America turned her back on God (Psalm 9:16).

In parallel to America and the past,

"Politicians brought the Nazis to power and started the war. They are the ones who brought about these disgusting crimes."
-Karl Doenitz, German admiral and would-be fuehrer after Hitler

Who are the criminals America? Is it the corrupt politicians or the people that tolerate their crimes? Americans know that these corrupt representatives feel that that are demi-gods above the laws of our Republic)

“My measures will not be crippled by any bureaucracy. Here I don’t have to worry about Justice; my mission is only to destroy and to exterminate; nothing more.” –Hermann Goring

Remember, the rule of law brings about peace while the rule of arbitrary policy by force creates war.

The only way to prevent the next war is to deal with those who are illegally working to create war.

Corrupt officials are forcing change through the chaos that they create.

The war that the American people have on their hands right now is to deal with those who are no longer working for the American Republic.

“And ye, O peoples, to whom God gave the liberty to choose your own magistrates, see to it, that ye do not forfeit this favor, by electing to the positions of highest honor, rascals and enemies of God.” -John Calvin

Controlled opposition: no other options?

[NOTE: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it’s employees, representatives, or other contributing writers.]

"Whenever the people need a hero we shall supply him." –Albert Pike 33 Degree Mason

When a friend of the ministry ran for the Constitution Party in 2004, he was asked by a reporter why no one had heard of him. He replied, "They do not want you to know about me." Why? It's because he is not an establishment guy (One that will push forward the global agenda).

If you remember correctly, back in 2008, there were 13 candidates running for the presidency of the United States of America. Yet, you were told of two candidates: the foreign agent in the people's White House Barrack Hussein Obama and "Song Bird" John McCain. During that cycle in 2008, there were 312, 511, 424 people in this country and most people did not know that there were other options. They failed to pull back the curtain.

Today, there are 318.9 million people in this country and yet you have only been given two options. In fact, these two candidates are what the establishment have offered as legitimate candidates, and what the American people have accepted (Jeremiah 8:5). [YouTube Link]

Furthermore, before getting excited about your favorite candidate remember what Vladimir Lenin stated:

"The best way to control the opposition is to lead it ourselves."

This is controlled opposition. Controlled Opposition is when a deliberate attempt is made to either create an opposing effort to any existing power base, or, to obtain control of any opposition to one's own efforts. Some protest movements are actually being led by government or corporate agents.

Did you know that Adolph Hitler is the one responsible for stating, "How fortunate for those in power that people never think"?

Look how Adolph Hitler was portrayed to the people of Germany during his rise to power. Less than 3% of the population supported his criminal regime.

“How many look up to him with touching faith as their helper, their savior, their deliverer from unbearable stress.” -Louis Solmitz, a Hamburg school teacher in 1932 (Daniel 8:25) [YouTube Link]

History teaches that the people depart wickedly from God (Psalm 119:102) and submit to the dictator. The dictator causes wars within and abroad, the people are used up for a political agenda, millions die within and without, and the country is destroyed. The dictator is dealt with by the people who finally figure out that they have been lied to. Then, they return back to the God of Israel, whom they should have not departed from in the first place. For some reason or another, the American people think that there is more than one version of the United States Constitution. There is not!

Pretty soon, Americans will be accepting God knows what concerning party platforms because of their ignorance and love of their favorite candidate, which runs counter, and that which is foreign, to God and America's Constitution.

There is no such thing as "coexisting" with those who war against America's God ordained government (Judges 5:8; Exodus 18:21).

President George Washington warned long ago:

"I have already intimated to you the danger of Parties in the State, with particular reference to the founding of them on Geographical discriminations. Let me now take a more comprehensive view, & warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful (Poisonous, pernicious, destructive) effects of the Spirit of Party, generally."

"This Spirit, unfortunately, is inseparable from our nature, having its root in the strongest passions of the human Mind (Romans 1:28). It exists under different shapes in all Governments, more or less stifled, controlled, or repressed; but in those of the popular form it is seen in its greatest rankness and is truly their worst enemy."

Donald Trump and his affections

[NOTE: The opinion in this article is the opinion of the author and is not the opinion of NewsWithViews.com, it's employees, representatives, or other contributing writers. NWV loves Donald Trump and we believes that Mr. Trump is America's only hope.]

The people are caught up in the same old cycle. The modern definition of insanity it has been said, you do the same old things that you will get the same old results.

Insane is: Madness, extreme stupidity, irrationality, lunacy, mad

Though it seems that there are so many that complain about the establishment concerning the corrupt in Government, yet over and over it is the establishment that keeps rolling forward in spite of the professed opposition. One has only to come to the conclusion that America you cannot complain about what you tolerate.

Last week, it was reported that evil poppy George H.W. Bush will be voting for the likes of his partner in crime Hilary Clinton, which only further confuses people who cannot think for themselves. It is, in fact, a terrible place to be when your brains are in someone else's head (Daniel 9:8). [YouTube Link]

Of course, this comes as no surprise whatsoever to those who know the dangerous game that these corrupt politicians have been playing. Over and over again, the American people play the fools to ill-designing men. How long have I been telling Americans that there is no difference between the Republicans and the Democrats? Of course, the two party systems is set up only to divide and conquer.

“Make yourself sheep and the wolves (John 10:10) will eat you.” –Benjamin Franklin

“There is nothing I dread so much as a division of the Republic into two great parties, each arranged under its leader and converting measures in opposition to each other.”
–President John Adams

Furthermore, I warned you of the modern conservative’s presidential nominee, Donald Trump. These conservatives are the same people who have put Trump in Gods place. Just check out Ann Coulter’s “In Trump We Trust” (Jeremiah 2:28). Therefore, America continuously get man’s cursed results (Jeremiah 17:5).

These are a group of people who, for some reason or another, think they have it over on the group that they call the left, when, in fact, they are the reason that there is a left. Yet, they support Trump, who advocates on several fronts what God condemns (2 Chronicles 19:2). Donald wants to protect the LGBT from anyone that they want to attack. Sodomy is a felony in every state of our union.

On Tuesday’s Dog and Pony show, the scripted debates, there was a perfect exhibition of what I knew was coming. Donald Trump had the perfect opportunity to expose the Clintons for their many crimes toward “We the people.” However, he failed to do so and, in turn, he exposed himself.

Instead of exposing The Clintons for their crimes, he went on and said that he decided against bringing up former President Clinton’s “many affairs” at Monday’s debate, claiming he didn’t want to do it with Chelsea Clinton in the audience.

Forget about the crimes against “We the people,” let’s just consider Chelsea Clinton and her feelings. It seems to be a family affair with Trump and the Clintons. This is the game that politicians play.

Can two walk together, except they be agreed? -Amos 3:3

Donald went on to say, "I wish Ivanka and Chelsea weren't friends."

Trump added that "friendship between his daughter and archrival Hillary's girl is inconvenient."

Interesting.

Chelsea takes precedent over the American people, according to the world of Donald Trump. How could it be otherwise when Donald's many crimes toward Heaven have been made clear?

Apparently, Donald failed to remember or to bring up:

TREASON: Hillary has been selling uranium ore to the Russians from underneath the ranchers in Oregon.

Chinagate: The Clinton-Gore campaign in 1996 allegedly took bribes from Chinese banks and their government to help their dwindling poll numbers.

Travelgate: Catherine Cornelius, a 25-year-old cousin of Bill's, was allegedly promised the position of director of the travel office. Hillary Clinton then (indirectly) fired seven employees from the White House travel office and replaced them with associates from Arkansas. Records were either nowhere to be found or incorrectly filed. And, there's a reported attempt to give a White House airline contract to a friend. Hillary had the FBI investigate Billy Dale, the head of the travel office, ruining his career. He was found to have done nothing wrong, but was then audited by the IRS for three years afterward.

Whitewater: Hillary and her husband were partners in a shady real estate development firm called Whitewater Development

Corp in Arkansas. Accusations of impropriety against the Clintons and others soon surfaced, regarding improper campaign contributions, political and financial favors, and tax benefits. Clinton's friends and majority owners, James and Susan McDougal, were jailed for fraud. Clinton's successor, Gov. Jim Tucker, was jailed for fraud along with municipal judges David Hale and Eugene Fitzhugh who worked with James McDougal. The Clintons walked away unscathed, having apparently done nothing wrong.

Vince Foster Jr. mystery: Questions cloud the suicide of Vince Foster, former colleague, friend and deputy White House counsel who had connections to Travelgate and the Whitewater scandals.

Filegate: Craig Livingstone, director of the White House Office of Personnel Security, "improperly" accessed FBI files on several hundred individuals. Mrs. Clinton called it a, "completely honest bureaucratic snafu." Many of these files were on people from previous Republican administrations. Hillary Clinton hired Livingston and is alleged to have looked at the files and requested this move. She was accused by Republicans of violating privacy rights of individuals she viewed as political adversaries.

Drug Dealer Donor Scandal: Convicted drug trafficker Jorge Cabrera apparently made such a big donation to the Clinton's campaign that he was invited to the White House without Secret Service present.

Ponzi Scheme and Political Favor Scandal: Norman Yung Yuen Hsu was a convicted pyramid investment promoter and major Democratic donor. He contributed an undisclosed amount to Hillary Clinton's 2008 campaign.

Benghazi, the email scandal, Arkansas drug dealing, dead bodies strewn across the path of the Clintons ... and the list goes on and on concerning who she is and what she is truly about.

However, as long as Chelsea's feeling were not hurt, it's no big deal, right? Apparently, her feelings are more important than the crimes her Daddy and Mommy have committed against the innocent.

Fredrick Douglas was right when he said, "Find out just what any people will quietly submit to and you have the exact measure of injustice and wrong which will be imposed upon them."

I have warned you that the modern day conservatives are yesterday's liberals.

Americans, so easily controlled!

"Football, beer... Filled up the horizon of their minds. To keep them in control was not difficult." –George Orwell

One day last week our family went to grab a bite to eat. We went to Maynards. We walked in, sat down, looked around and at a quick glance became angry with what we saw.

My family and I have been spent in ministry at every given moment of every given day over the last 20 years in service to God and man (1 John 5:2), and this is the people that we are serving and fighting for? The bar in the restaurant was full of grown men (the majority with their Viking jerseys with the name of their favorite player on their backs), partying it all away while watching the Minnesota Vikings' game.

It was almost laughable if it were not so shameful (Jeremiah 6:15; 7:10).

A whopping 64,000 people were packed like sardines in the new US Bank Stadium. Eighty-six percent of these hypocrites that profess to be Christians cannot even name 3 of the 10 commandments (1 John 2:4).

Ticket sales ranged from $75.00 to $901.00 per ticket. As I said, 64,000 people jam packed that stadium, to watch a bunch of grown men, who feel that somehow or another it is a cool and an honorable thing to wear tights while bashing each other's brains out while fighting over a pig ball (Jeremiah 8:5).

On the bleachers, you have men with their shirts off, painted in purple and yellow with Viking horns on their head giving up all dignity over a game that they will not be able to give you the score from in 3 weeks (Jeremiah 2:28; 11:13).

Somehow, the American people have deceived themselves into thinking that this is normal in a country that is being turned into hell (Psalm 9:17). Maybe they are just having fun, right? They are having fun while their country is being assailed from every front, both from without and from within.

I ask, is it honorable to live for idols while turning your back to those who fought, bled and died to give us the freedoms in which Americans enjoy? What a disgrace and a shame (2 Corinthians 5:15).

This also includes those who watch a man, who has practiced thousands of hours, hit a golf ball with a metal rod into a hole, or grown men hit a baseball with a piece of wood, or a little plastic hockey puck gets hit into a net by a fiberglass stick, or men will entertain themselves out of their blood-bought freedoms by watching cars drive in a circle over 500 times! Wow!

Furthermore, watch these hoodlum commentators, who sound like they are on a double shot of caffeine, react after a team scores. (Video is a must watch to get full effect)

During our family dinner, we also noticed that there were about 30 televisions round around us aimed at desensitizing and dumbing down the American people in hopes of them taking on an anti-Christ spirit (1 John 2:15-17).

During one commercial, there was a baby duck that was doused with oil from a broken oil rig on the coast. It went on to show the viewers that Dawn soap cared enough to care for these helpless animals (Proverbs 12:10), which within itself it was good. Yet, not when it takes precedent over human beings. As the next scene flashed up on the screen, there were seals and seagulls being released back into nature from their cages after having care given to them. It ended with the statement that Dawn had been "Saving wildlife for over 30 years."

On the heels of that commercial came another commercial from MSNBC with their communist slogan "Forward." The commercial showed some manatees washed up on shore while a group of people frantically tried to save these helpless mammals. At the end, it shows everyone with a sigh of relief that these mammals were spared and then released back to their natural habitat.

All of this is going on while America's jihadists, who work for Planned Parenthood, are beheading, dissecting and even selling that which has been fearfully and wonderfully created by God (Psalm 139:14).

Wickedness, violence, and spoil are all at the feet of those who have forgotten that their love for God and country should be the ruling influence of their conduct (Matthew 22:36-40).

As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil are heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds. Jeremiah 6:7

But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. Jeremiah 7:23

I ask, will not God be avenged on such a nation as this? Yes, He will be, and rightly so. To say otherwise, shows the lack of understanding concerning the character of a Just and Holy God (Jeremiah 9:24). Apparently, the American Church has failed in its mandate to convey to the world the message, "Repent for the kingdom of Heaven is at hand" (Matthew 3:2). Why? Because,

"Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things." Proverbs 28:5

What is it that makes God good in the sight of His church? It is the fact that He is a good Judge (Isaiah 26:9), and will not acquit the wicked (Nahum 1-7).

Who are the wicked? Those who know to do right and don't do it.
