

Appealing to Heaven

As you may be aware, I led a contingent of hearty patriots to Washington DC last weekend. Rather than sitting on our butts and complaining about the unequal justice that is running rampant in this nation we decided to take our complaints to the streets in an attempt to bring accountability to our elected officials.

Turning up the Heat on William Barr, Biden, and Obama

We have reached the point where we can no longer trust Government to “do the right thing.” We must make our voices heard. Thomas Jefferson said, “When the government fears the people there is liberty and when the people fear the government there is tyranny.” We are taking our grievances to the streets.

As Wise as a Serpent

Every major institution in America is under the control of Satan. A nation clearly founded on Biblical principles has totally rejected them. In fact, we are witnessing the trial of Amy Barrett before the US Senate where she is being charged with adhering to Biblical beliefs. This is no longer permissible in this nation.

It's Time To Hold The Evil Doers Accountable

I do not believe that there has ever been a more corrupt American politician than Hillary Clinton. Her public life has been one slimy action after another. The Demonic Left loves her. There is no doubt in my mind that she is under control of very dark forces. Spiritual forces...Demonic forces...gate of hell forces. Hillary Clinton is a child of the Devil.

America and Freedom Hangs in the Balance

Have you looked around America lately? Do you even recognize the nation that you grew up in? How could a nation founded on Christian principles so easily yield to the forces of darkness? How has THE CHURCH become so oblivious to what is going on around us?

Banned by United Airlines

I will not be flying anymore. I have had enough of it. America used to be free. Now America is fearful. Tyranny has become normal. It will only get worse. Where will you draw the line? Airplanes today, automobiles tomorrow. The "Land of the free and the home of the brave" is perishing.

American Traitors

How much more of this are we Americans going to take? What would our forefathers have done? Trusting and electing evil men to do good has not worked. Voting for RINO Republican's has not worked. We've been betrayed.

I Ain't Wearing No Stinkin' Mask

I have already reached that point. In fact, I never did buy into to the whole mask thingee. I have been around long enough to recognize a scam when I see one and from Jump Street the whole idea of wearing a mask seemed like nonsense to me. There are just too many was for ANY disease to spread.

The Stench of Death

I've noticed this week that the RNC convention has been far more Christ-centered than anytime in my adult life. They are serving up more Gospel than most churches. The Republican Party of the past with it's Fake Christianity and Fake Pro-life stance has gone by the wayside. No more fake conservatives like McCain's or McConnells, Boehners or Bushes, no Romney's or Ryan's.

The Left Hates the Truth

Everything they are telling us about Kamala Harris is a lie. It is the way the Left operates. Cheating, lying and fooling the voters it's their only means of victory. If they were to ever admit their REAL agenda, they know that it would be rejected. The Left does not value TRUTH. Truth is not an important value to the Left.

Who Really Controls the Church?

The Church created Caesar, why does the Church answer to Caesar? What is it the Church possesses that belongs to Caesar? What should the Church render unto Caesar? Nothing. Caesar is simply an abusive ex-spouse. Christ is the Head of the Church and the Church is the Head of Government. The Government answers to Christ, Christ's body does answer to the Government.

Black Conservatives Don't Matter

I know a lot of white guys who don't think like me. Where did we ever come up with the idea that all members of a certain racial group are supposed to think the same way? Who was the author of this "group think" paradigm that seems to control all of our political debate?

Policing the Law Abiding

And I'm curious, just where does the money go when I pay my $100 fine for not buckling-up? Shouldn't the purpose of a fine be to pay back the one that I injured? Who does an unbuckled seat-belt harm? Seems to me someone is making a lot of money forcing me to be safe. You know what they say, "Follow the money." I have often wondered if cops get a commission on the tickets they write.

Change the Words, Change the World

A coup has taken place in America. Our nation is no longer controlled by “we the people.” (We fell asleep with the pastors) Our domestic enemies are now officially in power. We are no longer free, we just think we are – and it has happened on our watch.

I’m Proud to Be White

I write this today because I know this is how most Americans feel. The thought of white Americans being racist is bunk. Our government is corrupt. Our churches are sheepish and divided. Our nation is morally bankrupt.

Voodoo Science and Voodoo Courts

America is rapidly descending into chaos. Truth has fallen in the streets. The American church won’t even help Truth get back on its feet. The pulpits preach the Voodoo social gospel. Stop giving them money! Pray at home and get involved, church leaders won’t!

Faithism is Worse Than Racism

I've about had it up to my once water-breathing gills with this whole whitey hates blackie thing. Coming on the heels of a made-up pandemic the idea that the greatest evil facing America is racism is more than my once-monkey evolved brain can handle.

Heinz 57 Brand of Christianity In America Today

Look, I don't know whether Donald Trump's name is written in the Lambs Book of Life or not, but I PERSONALLY trust him more than any other president in my lifetime. We have the deep state today because Mssrs. Obama, Bush, Clinton, Carter, and Bush Sr. didn't do a damn thing to stop the onslaught of evil in this nation.

Stuck on Stupid

How did we ever reach the point in this nation where seemingly "normal" people wear a mask, pray for the day where they can take a government-mandated injection, willingly go broke, and dutifully close down our houses of prayer? What caused Americans to be so stupid that they would permit the “experts” the “right” to ruin their lives as they claimed to be saving their lives?

Our Dollar is Worthless

The American dollar is not backed by anything tangible. In other words, the only value the dollar has is what the Government tells you it has. If I type the number $1200.00 and send it to your bank will they put it in your account as if I had actually given you the money? Of course not.

The Counsel of the Ungodly

If America is to ever be restored the righteous must return to places of authority. Honor must be honored. What kind of church will emerge on the other side remains to be seen. If the blind lead the blind they both end up in a ditch...

Who Will Redress My Grievances?

What good is a Constitution if the Government doesn't obey it? Where do they get the authority to violate the inalienable rights of an individual American? Well, from us of course, for blindly voting them into office and then keep reelecting them over and over and NOT standing up to them when they screw us.

What Do We Do When the Government is Lawless?

My entire life I have been told that we are a nation of laws and that no one is above the law. Both of those statements no longer ring true with the introduction of a soft martial law quietly imposed on law-abiding American citizens.

A Ball of Confusion

It is a look at today's issue from a Biblical perspective where we try to cover all of the topics that our Pastors refuse to discuss. Christians should be the best informed, most enlightened citizens on the planet. Instead, they are some of the dumbest, least interested, most poorly equipped people in the country.

Non-Essential Churches and the Failure of America's Pulpits

I am sure that is alarmingly to some of my less "awake" fellow American Christians who are convinced that the job of the government is to regulate the church. Some of the responses that I have read on Facebook regarding his arrest are striking evidence of the failure of America's pulpits.

May Your Chains Set Loosely

Heck, even local politics are rigged. The power brokers in small towns are no different than the boys in Washington...they simply swim in a smaller swamp. Local government is the minor leagues for those who aspire to "serve the people." Yeah right. Public servants. Give me a freakin' break.

The Death of Globalism

Globalism is dead but we must fight to remove the rotting corpse. It won't be easy. The financial reset had to come. It is upon us. How we handle the next 12 months will determine the future of this nation.

Fear God and Keep His Commandments

I look around at all of the wicked things that are going on in America and I find myself nearly apoplectic at how disinterested most Christians are in regards to the unrestrained evil advancing in every area of this once-moral nation. For the most part, the church has lost its saltiness and wicked folks are driving the bus.

Open Your Mouth and Speak While You Still Can

Folks, America is the “Land of the Free and the home of the Brave.” When we stop being brave we will no longer be free. Don’t let the Left put words in your mouth. If your words are not free then your thoughts are not free.

What Kind of America are We Leaving to Our kids?

The greatest threat to America has always been from within. While we focused on the enemies from without, (can you say cold war) subversion below the radar screen was eating away at the foundations of the nation like the termites in an oak tree.

We Can Win This Fight

I have spent the last six days doing interviews with Leftist radio hosts whose sole desire is to make Christianity and Bible believing Christians look like fools. Their assault has been unrelenting.

Let's Sue The NFL

Sometimes I don't know why I waste the energy, but I am on a 24/7 march to wake up Christian America. It is the greatest challenge of my life. I really don't care what others think or say, but I immensely care about what people do. God created me with a competitive spirit and I used it most of my life in athletic endeavors.

Fake Politicians, Fake Media

and Fake Laws Have Destroyed America

After having spent most of their careers ignoring it, and getting away with regularly violating it, their love of our historical founding documents is almost comical. Except, it is no laughing matter. Their willingness to ignore the law is exactly what has gotten this country in the mess that we now find ourselves in.

It's Time For Christians to Get Off Their Knees and Fight Back

It is not the evil that troubles my sleep. It is the apathy. It reminds me of the old saw about the high school social studies teacher who asked his students what was the most pressing need facing the nation. To his despair, the most common response was, "I don't know and I don't care."

What Are We Teaching Our Sons?

Christian men must rise up and model Biblical manhood for their children. The culture is feeding our young men tolerance. What they need more than anything is testosterone. Testosterone is a good thing. The righteous are as bold as lions...it's time to man up.

The Manger is Empty

American Christianity is often controlled by the calendar, especially now that the "Christian" holidays have become more secular and commercial than spiritual. The two most celebrated days on the church calendar are the birth of baby Jesus and the crucifixion/resurrection of the suffering Savior. Christmas and Easter are the most celebrated days in all of Christendom

The Murder of America

America didn't die. America was murdered. Yes, America was murdered and we had been eye witnesses to the assassination. Although the corpse was still warm, we sensed that a body-double had been inserted in its place. The Baby Boom generation watched it happen. In fact, we participated in it. We joined our parents on the Sea of Forgetfulness as we paddled our way out into the deep. A nation without a moral standard is a ship without a rudder.

Lord, Teach My Hands to War

Prayer alone will not end abortion. Prayer alone will not end the opiate scourge. Prayer alone will not restore marriages. Prayer alone will not restore justice to our land. Prayer alone will not train our children in righteousness. Prayer alone will not move the heart of God. But, prayer put into works (action), will.

How Seven Black Robes Changed America Forever

Get your kids out of the government schools NOW. Grandparents...spend some of the inheritance on Christian education, or better yet, allow MOM to stay home and home-school. Start a home school co-op at your church. Rescue them. Your Christian children have no business in the Humanistic government schools.

Donald Trump, Impeachment and Bait and Switch

President Trump is getting very little support from his own party because both parties are not designed to serve the people. The ever-increasing advancement of government is their job and their PERSONAL wealth and power is their main focus. Government produces nothing. They are fearful that President Trump is going to break up their club.

Do You Have a Plan For Your Family When Things Get Worse?

Take your eyes off of the government for a minute. Do YOU have a plan? Do you have a network of people with whom you can hunker down if things turn dark? Do you expect the government to come flying in and rescue you or are you making plans with friends and neighbors to coalesce around a community plan?

We May Never Get Another Chance to Save America

Perhaps it is old age, or maybe it is just crankiness, but I find that the older I get the less I care about what others think about me. Oh, I want others to like me. I want to be invited to all the right gatherings. But I have reached the point in my life where I would rather speak the truth and be hated than speak a lie just to be loved.

Stop Appeasing And Sleeping With The enemy

Abortion. Same-sex marriage. Child trafficking. Educational indoctrination. Government corruption. God's people could end them all within a year if they had the faith to do it. Silence is not only consent and deafening its also cowardly. Wake up. Stand up. Speak up. Surrender and capitulation to sin is an affront to Christ.

I Stood Eyeball to Eyeball With the CNN Trump Hater Jeff Zucker at the Democratic Debate

I stood face to face with the CNN traitor Jeff Zucker...eyeball to eyeball. He is a midget. Shorter than me. I'm 5'7" on a tall day. On the scene doing his best to overthrow an election. He'll soon be looking for a job but needs to call in some favors to stay out of jail.

Injustice in Small Town

America

Can you imagine the assault being caught on tape and the evidence being presented to the police? Can you imagine the publicity and outrage that such an assault would illicit? Can you imagine the screams of outrage from the always-the-victim race baiters among the ambulance chasing legal predators?

Why Won't Millennials Have Babies?

American Christians need to start having children and they need to start now. It is obvious that inflation and over taxation by our government has forced both parents into the workforce. Sadly, many young married couples can't live on one income.

I Have Come To The realization That Absolute Right And Wrong No Longer Exist

Sadly, like so many others my age, I have come to the realization that the idea of absolute right and wrong no longer exist. Truth has become an opinion.

The Sin of Silence

Webster's 1828 dictionary defines sin: "To depart voluntarily from the path of DUTY prescribed by God to man; to violate the divine law in any particular, by actual transgression or by the neglect or non-observance of its injunctions; to violate any known rule of DUTY."

What Else Have They Lied About?

I'm not sure with whom this phrase originated with but it is on full display in America today. Our government is a collection of thieves. They have robbed every vestige of Truth from the American people and have smiled while doing it.

Trouble Is Coming – Perilous Times Are Upon This Nation

I used to love watching the old westerns on TV. That was long before political correctness had taken root in America. In fact, that was so long ago that there was actually a thing called right and wrong.

America's Double Standard Justice System

We no longer have a Justice System. We have a legal system. You may be shocked to find out that those two are not the same. Currently, we have a multi-tiered legal system where those at the top are protected by rich and powerful friends.

No Deposit – No Return

When the sand runs out of your hour glass what will it be that you left behind? Take stock in your life of the things that really matter and fight like hell to preserve them. Now is the time. Stand up and speak up.

It is Time to Legalize Jesus

America is awash with darkened hearts. It used to be the job of our schools, in conjunction with our churches, to teach our children right from wrong. But with the dastardly decision of the US Supreme Court in Everson V Board of Education, the demonic lie of “the separation between the church and state” was birthed out of the gates of hell and launched an all out assault on all things Christian.

Now Is The Time To Stand Up And Be Counted

Thomas Jefferson famously said, “When the people fear the government there is tyranny. When the Government fear the people there is liberty.” Ask yourself this very simple question. When you get a knock on your door from “the Government” is your heart filled with fear or with joy?

What if Christians Thought We Could Win?

Since choosing to leave public school teaching and coaching in 2000 the sole focus of our work has been to awaken Christians to the urgency of the moment and our need to get personally and actively involved in what others love to call “the Culture War.”

I’m Proud Of How God Made Me, White

Should I be ashamed of my ethnicity? Would America be a better place if all of the “pale faces” simply retreated inside of our log cabins and stroked our coon-skinned caps?

Would America be a better place without “whitey?”

It Is Time to Indict Hillary

That includes Hillary Clinton and her wife Bill. As long as the two of them are walking the streets of America Lady Justice will be forced to hide her eyes. They don't call them the Clinton Crime Family for nothing.

Still-Born Christians

Most of the Christians that you run into today really aren't. Christians, that is. They really aren't Christians. They have been tricked by phony political correct preachers into believing that salvation of one's soul is as simple as walking an aisle and repeating a prayer.

Is Anyone Else Homo-Nauseous?

What is wrong with the Church? Can't they see what is happening to America? Can't they see what is happening to our children? Can't they see that the rug is being pulled out from under them?

We Rained On Hillary's Parade

As I wrote back on May 23rd, we made a trip to Hillary Clinton's home in Chappaqua, New York. The reaction of folks to our plan ranged from being called foolish to dangerous. No one messes with the Clinton's and gets away with it, at least that is what several well meaning, cowards told us. How long are we Americans going to continue to live in fear?

While The Good People Pray And Talk, The Doers Are Changing The Country

Hundreds of us are getting in our cars and driving to Chappaqua. We are going to meet up and caravan together into town and demand that the government do its job and INDICT HILLARY CLINTON. She is a felon. James Comey told us she was, but he explained that there was a different system of justice for the rich and powerful.

The Political Party Of Death

If you vote for a Demoncrat you better check your theology.

God is not a Republican, but I guaran-darn-tee you He ain't a Demoncrat. Voting to support a party that specializes in killing the weak and innocent borders on sin. The Demoncrat Party is the party of death.

The Left Stole This Nation By Force

You see, violence is what they accuse US of when we choose to push back against the FORCE that they have applied. Like the trained monkeys we all parrot the mantra "don't get violent." The LEFT uses FORCE while they accuse us of VIOLENCE. The two words really aren't that different.

Do You Believe In Miracles?

Jesus told us that He would build a church "and the gates of hell will not prevail against it." He left us with supernatural power to win a supernatural war. Why does the church seem so powerless against the forces of darkness?

FBI Visits Coach Dave Daubenmire, No Joke

I was visited by the FBI a couple of weeks ago. No joke. They actually showed up at my house to do a “threat assessment.” It seems that someone reported me to them. One of the agents began reviewing my daily show and they decided they needed to pay me a visit.

Thou Shall Not Covet

Help me here. Isn't covetousness just as sinful as theft? Don't the two go hand in hand? Would we have the economic disparity that we have in this nation if we taught people that it is wrong to desire to have what someone else has earned?

Government By Opinion

America was not founded as a Christian nation but as a nation founded on Christian ethics. If there is no unchanging standard of right and wrong then eventually we will become a nation not of laws, but of opinions.

President Trump: Please Call Up The Militia

ALL government tends towards evil; George Washington called it a “fearful master.” The moment one yields responsibility and authority to government, the individual citizen begins to shrivel. It is time for “we the people” to reclaim our authority. Not funny, but lots of dummies are voting for Democrats that promise FREE STUFF.

Do You Really Understand Why We're Losing Our Country?

“Do you really understand?”

I find myself saying that a lot lately. It is amazing to me how many people have their head stuck in the sand. I'm not sure whether it is deliberate, or if they really don't get it.

Ignorance is bliss, or so they say. But it really isn't. Ignorance is dangerous. The Bible tells us that ignorance is one of the main reasons that people perish.

But some folks really have no excuse and I really don't understand it. How can so many seemingly-bright people be so far off base?

Better yet, how can so many Christians be so deceived? How can so many Christians not understand? How can the one group of people who are supposedly enlightened by the Holy Spirit be walking in such deception?

“Do you really understand?”

Jeremiah 5:21 says that ‘people have eyes but can’t see, they have ears but can’t hear’ meaning, that people have lost their God given gift to discern good from evil.

My heart aches because I just spent another day as a speaker in a suburban high school in the Columbus, Ohio area. I usually roll with the punches pretty well and I love the give and take that the mind -invigorating exercise affords me.

But today was different. Today left me with a tension headache. I am hoping that writing this screed will ease the thumping in my temples. I have had several conversations since I got home and I find myself asking the same question to everyone I speak with in my attempt to explain the plight I just navigated through.

“Do you really understand?”

The harsh truth is...they don’t. They don’t understand or they would never put up with it. Neither do most of you reading this. You don’t really understand either.

So, let me lay it on the line.

Our public schools are a moral wasteland. Any hope of rescuing this nation is rapidly draining away. Any standard of ethical belief is oozing out of the body.

There is no longer a right and wrong in America’s public schools. They have been Balkanized. Morality has become merely personal. Right and wrong is no longer based on a standard, but is left to the whims of the individual.

Sorry Superman, but there is no longer any such thing as “truth, justice, and the American way.” Truth has become an opinion. What is right for you may not be right for me. As long as you feel OK about your decisions then what does it matter what others think.

"Who are you to judge me?" they ask. "How do my choices and my decisions impact you? What does it matter what I do with my own body? Who are you to tell me what I can and can't do?"

Do YOU really understand? YOU. The reader. Do you really understand how bad it is?

The failure of the local church is so evident when you walk into the classroom. Appearances can be so deceptive. There used to be a time when you could get a "feel" for a student based on appearance or attitude. But today there really is very little difference. The Christian kids look, speak, and act just like everyone else.

They have their morality but, for the most part, it is no different than the non-Christian kid sitting next to them. Neither one of them believe in a universal standard of right and wrong. "I'm ok, you're ok," and Jesus loves all of us anyway...so who am I to judge."

We are losing America. In fact, it may already be lost. The kids in the classroom have parents who are in their forties. I am old enough to be their grandfather. We have very little in common when it comes to a universal standard of right and wrong. As the Scripture's warn us, "when there was no King in Israel everyone did what was right in his own eyes."

Christ is no longer King in America because he is no longer King in the church. There is no way that a church could be teaching Bible Truth to the congregation and produce classrooms full of children who have no universal understanding of right and wrong.

I guess that is why they call it multi-cultural. No right and wrong. Everyone choosing how they will live. No obligation to your neighbor. No fealty to the Truth of Christ. A mosh pit of mushy morality...saltless Christian children sitting in the sewer.

Do you really understand how bad it is?

America's pastors have failed us. Most speak glowingly of their local "public" schools and "wonderful" teachers indoctrinating the children in doctrines of demons. There is nothing Christian about our educational system.

The secularists run the schools. Christianity is mocked. Real Christian children are ostracized. All with your tax dollars. All on your dime. Teaching your children things you would never teach them in your own home.

Education is a national emergency. Children are taught to FEEL not to learn. No wonder AOC is so popular. She looks just like America. She represents the values taught in America's government schools.

Get your kids out of the public hell holes. The value-less indoctrination they provide is undermining our nation. If your pastor supports the schools then find a new church. They are institutions of lower living...undermining everything you have tried to instill in your offspring. SELF makes a pretty poor god.

America cannot survive amoral education. Do you still have your children in public schools? Are your grandkids there?

Then you really don't understand.

The Devil Is Real

When was the last time that you attended church and the leadership of the church did an in-depth teaching on the Devil? Not a cursory tip of cap towards old Slew Foot around the church's Halloween celebration, but a deep, in depth teaching about the Prince of Darkness?

I would venture to say that not one in a thousand people who attend church regularly have any real knowledge of the Evil One. The Bible teaches us that we are “not to be ignorant of his devices”, but yet we are.

The greatest trick that Satan has played on the world is to convince us that he is not real. Just like Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny, Diabolus is nothing more than a mythological character with a red tail, horns, and a pitchfork. The average Christian has no understanding of the depth of the darkness that Lucifer controls.

Is it any wonder that the Prince of the Power of the Air is having such a successful campaign all across the American spectrum? Back in the day, when Americans used to believe in God, our children were taught how to avoid Satan and his devices. Today, we not only don't recognize his techniques, we don't even recognize him. How do you fight an invisible foe that you don't even believe exists? An excellent movie about good and evil for children is “Pinocchio.”

“You shall know them by their fruits,” the Scriptures teach us. But we are no longer taught how to inspect the fruit. The Bible calls him "The Adversary" for a reason. He is the enemy of mankind. He is the enemy of all that is good. He is the enemy of our souls.

O my friends, the Devil is real and his goal is global conquest.

There is an invisible spiritual realm around us. It is in that realm that the battle over good and evil takes place. Although you may have been taught about Satan in your Sunday school class chances are pretty good that you know very little about how he operates. He is more than a "personal" devil hell-bent on messing up your life. He is the opposer of all things good. The battle between good and evil is real and it is playing out right before our very eyes.

Do you understand the demonic realm? Has anyone ever taught you about demonic oppression? Are you aware that there are satanic angels called demons who once served God? Do you understand that the Devil's team is strategically organized into groups called principalities, powers, and rulers of darkness? Has anyone taught you that these demonic forces work through people?

I assume you have heard of angels. They are spiritual beings created by God to serve His purpose in the world. Demons are spiritual beings without a physical body. They are fallen angels who rebelled against God. They oppose the work and the will of God.

In a nutshell. The Devil has a team. They are organized and they are committed. It is time for all of us to wake up.

Evil spirits work through people. Some people are oppressed...strongly influenced by them. Others are possessed...their minds completely taken over and controlled by them. Most addictions and many sicknesses are a result of demonic activity.

The American government is under demonic control. What do you think a “principality” is? Did it ever dawn on you that those whom you see on your TV screen every day are under the influence of demons? Most of your news readers, entertainers, and government officials are under control of the demonic. Some serve the Devil intentionally and some serve him through false beliefs. How else can you explain the foolishness you see all around you?

Have you noticed how those who live by Biblical standards are mocked and criticized? Don't you see how Christian values are under assault in this nation? Have you ever asked yourself why every mention of the name of Jesus has been stripped from the education of our children?

What do you think is behind all of the sexual deviancy being shoved down our throats? Why is transgenderism being so exalted? Who is behind the drive towards infanticide and the destruction of the natural family? What is going on in Hellywood and the filth the movie industry is pumping out? What could possibly be behind the watering down of the True Gospel once trumpeted from America's pulpits?

No, my friends, the Devil is not fake news. He just wants you to believe he is.

Christ was the antidote to Satan. When he went to Calvary He foiled all of the plans of the wicked one. Our job as believers is to “Occupy Till He comes”, to hold the ground against the forces of darkness. We were never converted to cower in the corner. We were called to earnestly contend for the faith.

There is a Devil on the loose and he is ravaging the American landscape. Christ's body, the church, is the antidote. Darkness is simply the absence of light. Look around at every major institution or industry in America and tell me one place where Christ rules as King?

Here is a very simple question. Do you see any influence of Christianity in the American government?

The Devil is king of the swamp. It is time we drained it. Jesus said "All power is given unto me both in Heaven and earth." Do you believe it? Do you believe Christ is stronger than Satan?

The Devil has played possum. He has convinced us that he isn't real. He is a liar...a thief...a deceiver. But his mask is slowly coming off.

He works through people. He impacts the mind. He plants evil thoughts. The battle is for the mind. The Devil is real.

© 2019 NWV – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Fearful And Unbelieving

In a strange sort of way this commentary is written to me. It is a self-inspection of some issues and some deep soul-searching that I have engaged in recently.

Introspection is healthy therapy. You will find that if you do a serious self-examination of your deepest thoughts much of what you say you believe are simply surface level thoughts. If you were to go all the way down the rabbit hole of thought you will find lying at the very bottom of your straw house is a foundation built on compromise.

Very few of us actually act upon what we claim to believe. Believing and acting are not the same thing, or as I used to tell those who played football for me, talk is cheap. When you dig down deep you will truly find both who and what you serve. Put up or shut up, boys.

Well, it looks to me like we are rapidly approaching the bewitching hour. The moment of truth is at our door.

“What chue talking about Willis?” Me. I’m talking about me...and you...if you are honest enough to admit it. At the very bottom of everything I say lies a demon known as cowardice. Silence isn’t golden, it’s yellow. So much of what we do, or don’t do, is shaped by fear.

The Scriptures teach “that to he who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.” Cowardice makes sinners of us all. Is there anything less Christ-like than a cowardly Christian?

In fact, if you were to read the Bible with an open heart you will find that Christ looks very harshly upon His cowardly children. Perhaps that is why the admonition to “FEAR NOT” appears nearly 100 times in the Bible. One mention should have been enough.

But what if “Fear Not” was a commandment and not just a suggestion? What if, as the John taught us, “Perfect love casteth out fear?” What if Revelation 21:8 was true and “The fearful and unbelieving” were the first ones who cast into the Lake of Fire?

What are you afraid of? What am I afraid of? Why is it that my actions and words don’t match? Why is it the things that I claim are important to me cause such little passion in my life? Why is there so little works following my faith? Why am I so silent regarding the things that I claim are non-negotiable with me? Or worse yet...why am I so silent regarding the things that matter to God?

Am I fearful and unbelieving? Does fear throw water on what I claim to believe? Do I love myself too much to stand up for the things that matter to God? We are exhorted in the Scriptures that BELIEVERS "overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto death."

Do I love myself too much? Do you? Is that way the Gospel seems to be stuck in neutral in America today? Are we ashamed of it? Are we fearful of the consequences of speaking out? Jesus said "greater love has no man than this that a man lay down his life for his friends."

I think we love ourselves too much. I think that is why evil has the American church stuck in the swamp.

Can we get honest with each other Christian? Would you mind if I invited you into the discussions I have with my own conscience? Far be it from me to tell you how to best soothe your own soul but here are a few serious questions I find asking myself on a regular basis.

If I was TRULY a Disciple of Christ would I...

Sit silently on the sidelines while they murdered unborn children? Would I refuse to storm into an abortion clinic and rescue those on the verge of death simply because I might go to jail?

Would I continue to pay taxes to a wicked government that uses my tax dollars to kill children, indoctrinate them into deviant sexual lifestyles, that teaches them that Almighty God is nothing more than a myth, that they evolved from monkeys, and that the public mention of Jesus was illegal? If I financially support such lies am I not an accessory to their destruction?

Would a servant of the Most High permit a secular government to destroy the very institution of marriage? How can I sit silently on the sidelines while sexual deviancy is promoted and applauded to the point that birth certificates are being altered to “no gender” status? Why would I pay even one dollar to such an evil government knowing that the end result is the all out destruction of God and His Word?

The list and the examples could go on, but in my not-so-humble opinion the reason for our failure to fight back is cowardice. We say we believe one way but our actions show a different picture.

One of my friends once told me that the problem in America wasn't that Christians are afraid to die for their faith, but that they didn't want to do anything that might cause them to lose their stuff. That is the reason that no one ever fights back.

You wanna know what really scares me? What if one day I stand before the Lord and He asks me why I PERSONALLY didn't do anything to fight against the darkness sweeping over the land. I wonder how my weak response will echo in the corridors of the doomed and the damned.

“I wanted to stand up for you Lord but I was afraid I might lose my job, or be sued and lose my house, or be thrown in jail for violating the law?”

“Violating WHO'S law” I hear His voice reverberate. “Don't you know the command was to obey God rather than man?”

Babies are dying. The minds of children are being destroyed with barely a peep from the church. Why?

Because we are fearful and unbelieving. God is watching. It is time to put up or shut up boys. Talk is cheap. Remember, the cowards go first.

© 2019 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Does Equal Protection Under The Law Apply To New Born Babies?

Although we took part in the recent Day of Mourning event here locally I was unable to be part of the national event which was held under the Statehouse in Albany, New York. The event was so wonderfully organized by Elizabeth Johnson who is known as The Activist Mommy on Facebook where her video views number in the 10's of millions.

This wasn't a political rally, but a call to repent and mourn over the Church's apathy towards the pre-born and our unwillingness to actively fight for a culture of life here in America. The solemn assembly was a response to the attempted "legalization" of infanticide in New York.

As so often happens with the Left they gain ground by constantly changing the words that they use. Just when they get us used to "choice" they pop the clutch and head straight to infanticide. We are so screwed up that now we are debating whether or not a woman has a "choice" to kill her baby after it is born.

I will no longer refer to baby murder as abortion. I invite you to join me in calling it what it has always been. INFANTICIDE. Soon, if you don't wake up, they will be "choosing" to kill 3 year olds who wet the bed. After all, if a Mommy can kill her born baby, what is to prevent her from choosing to kill her 1st grader? Semantics. It is all a play on words and we have yet to figure it out. Abortion is Murder...always has been...always will be. Those on the Left just don't like calling things by their proper name.

But my real rub comes from those of us in the Right who have lost our ability to make an argument. Nearly every position that the Left takes is either built on a lie or on the defiance of Truth. They selectively use Science when it makes their argument, but ignore it when it doesn't. Many of us understand the game but we are usually way too late in reacting.

The Left has used the Courts to bully us into submission. Whenever one of their pet issues does not have popular support they simply file suit in some court where a socialist judge sits and have him/her overturn popular beliefs and standards by judicial fiat. The Left is systematically destroying everything but using judges to override the will of the people.

We, God fearing Americans, are always slow to react. We have yet to come to the realization that courts cannot make law and that the opinion of a court is just that...an opinion...and does not carry the weight of law. One of the gripes of our Founders, in the Declaration of Independence, was that the King was "giving His assent to their Acts of Pretended legislation."

That is what we are dealing with in America...Pretended Legislation...which in common-man terms means that it was "no law at all." Homosexual marriage, Roe V Wade, removal of prayer and religious activities in schools, and the removal of the 10 Commandments off of government buildings is "no law at all." Pretended legislation. Legislation by judges. Oligarchical. Separation of the Church from the government is a lie.

Have you ever heard of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution? The Left uses it all of the time when they want homos to marry...or girls to be Boy Scouts...or boys who think they are girls competing as women in women's sporting events. The Amendment has that catch phrase at the end of it, EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAWS...which makes all this foolishness possible.

But it is imperative that we read and understand the entire Amendment because it is in the very first phrase that the Left's "right" to infanticide is completely destroyed. Are you ready? Just read below.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Did you catch it? Do you need to read it again? ALL PERSONS BORN...a BORN baby is a citizen. All rights granted to every other citizen apply to the baby. EQUAL PROTECTION OF THE LAWS...remember?

Neither the State nor the Feds can give a mother the right to kill another CITIZEN. To refuse to offer a child who survived an abortion the equal protection that a Doctor or Hospital would provide to any other citizen is a blatant violation of the Constitutional Rights of that baby. That right is INALIENABLE. No vote of a group of pro-abortion legislators can take that right away.

Where in the world are the Christian attorneys? Why haven't they already filed a restraining order to keep infanticide from going in to effect in New York? The Left files suit at the first sign of opposition. The right sits around and complains about how unfair everything is.

I am not a lawyer and far be it from me to give legal advice, but how any Legislature anywhere can strip a newly born American citizen the equal protection of the law is legal fiction on steroids.

The pro-aborts for years have told us unborn babies were not people. Now they changed their minds and said born citizens aren't citizens either. Why do we let them have it both ways? A baby is a citizen at birth...isn't that what they tell us about anchor babies? But a baby born to a mother who doesn't want her is not a citizen at birth? If the birth was "accidental" the child doesn't have equal protection of the laws?

Isn't there some lawyer out there with enough sense to file a suit and put a stop to such foolishness?

A child becomes a citizen at birth. All citizens have equal protection of the laws. A mother does not have citizenship-cancellation rights for her child. At least not yet. Give them time.

Every legislator who will not protect the rights of an American citizen has violated the oath of office and should be removed. Why is this so hard for the Right to understand?

© 2019 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

This Is It. Let's End Abortion

As most of you know I spent my early life as a high school coach. Football was where I really hung my hat, but during my three decade long career at various times I also directed the baseball team and the girls basketball team. As Jim McKay so famously described on ABC's Wide World of Sports, I understand "the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat and the human drama of athletic competition."

Along life's journey, through hundreds of games and thousands of individual plays, most coaches develop a sixth sense in regards to the game that is unfolding before them on the field of play. I learned early on that the most important moment in a football game was often unnoticed by the fans observing the game from the bleachers.

Sometimes it was in the first quarter of the game. Often it was after half-time, and at times it came down to the final play of the game. But whenever it occurred most coaches had the feeling in their gut that "this is it." The entire outcome of the game was resting on the next play.

The momentum was about to shift. The worm was about to turn. The entire game was hinging on what was about to happen at that particular moment in time.

I remember hundreds of those moments during my career. In fact, I still can replay some of those make or break plays during my career when you could point to a specific moment and say, "the whole game changed right there."

Well my gut tells me once again that THIS IS IT!

In 1984 I was the head girl's basketball coach at Heath High School in Heath, Ohio. Our undefeated team was boarding the bus to play our arch rivals for the league championship showdown. Once the girls were seated, and before the wheels on the bus began to go round and round I stood in front of the bus and played the Kenny Logins song, This Is It. (Listen).

"Are you gonna wait for a sign, a miracle? Stand up and fight! This is it. Make no mistake where you are. You're going no further, until it's over and done. One way or another."

Over and done. One way or another. That's where we are my friends. This is it. Stand up and fight.

There is nothing that has brought as much calamity upon the American people as the scourge of abortion. For forty-six years the American church has sat passively on the sidelines while little humans created in the image of God have been ripped from the wombs of their mommies. Nothing in all of history compares to a supposedly civilized society sacrificing their children on the altar of selfishness.

The entire abortion debate has been built on foundation of lies that can no longer withstand the light of truth. EVERYTHING that keeps abortion available is a lie. EVERYTHING. To wit:

Norma McCorvey (Jane Roe) never had an abortion. She was never raped as alleged in the court proceedings. The baby is not part of a woman's body. Killing a baby is not healthcare. Abortion is murder and can never be legal. The child is not just a blob of tissues. No one has the legal right to kill another person. There is a right to life but no right to take a life. Children conceived in rape are no less human than those who are not. Wanted babies are no less worthy of life than unwanted babies. God hates the hands that shed innocent blood.

All reasons to abort are lies. Filthy lies. None of the excuses hold up under any logical or moral scrutiny. Even the name of the procedure...CHOICE...is a lie. No one has the right to choose death for another.

Just this month the abortion ghouls have come out of the closet. The blood thirsty demons have taken off their masks. As if we didn't before, we now know that abortion is not about women's healthcare, but about the avoidance of consequences.

No abortion is ever necessary. For over 46 years we have let them get away with the lies. Even the 1973 science was a lie.

Courts do not make laws. A Supreme Court decision does not automatically become the "law of the land." They just tell us it that is law. Abortion has never been under the purview of the Federal Courts. Healthcare is regulated by the states, not the Feds. The truth is finally starting to come out.

The Godless left has used the courts, SCOTUS especially, to cram their Godless agenda down the throats of the undereducated American people. They now suddenly realize that they have lost control of SCOTUS as their legal battering ram and so that are scurrying to codify abortion into State law. The legal fiction that SCOTUS has the final say is finally being exposed.

This is it, folks. NOW is the time to go on the offense. God has given the American church a short window of time to rise up and put an end to baby murder. President Trump has proven himself to be the most vocal pro-life President in American history. "Ripping babies out of the womb" is not OK with him. He stands exposed for the entire world to see waiting for an "AMEN" from the American Christian Church.

Ending abortion is not the job of the President. It is time we stopped waiting on him to do what Jesus mandated to His Church. Abortion will end when Christians say it will end.

It is time for Christians to step up to the plate. We have been given a short window of opportunity to be obedient to the Lord's mandate. The American Church is being weighed in a balance. Will we answer the call? Will we move into the gap? Will we walk through the breach that the enemy has exposed?

The Supreme Court cannot make law. That pretended legislation is being exposed. The abortion battle is moving to the States. Let's not miss this moment.

THIS IS IT ! It is time to end abortion. We can do it one State at a time.

© 2019 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

And The Pulpits Are Silent

(Notice: This article is a reprint originally written in 2006. With the direction our culture is heading a reprint is deemed appropriate. Why won't our pastors fight?)

"For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?" –Jeremiah 5:26-31

Despite what the political parties would like you to believe, the problem in America is not the politicians, it is the pulpits. I hate to break the news to you, but most of America's pulpits are filled with cowardly men. They are a shame to the Christ they claim to serve.

Harsh words, aren't they? Not the type of thing that will make any friends in this "cheap-grace" culture in which we live. But that's okay. I'm not looking to make friends.

I am about fed-up with what I see. How did we ever get such man-pleasing leaders? All that our fore-fathers held dear is being destroyed before our very eyes and hardly a peep from the pulpit. They don't want to hear it. It's the pulpiteers that I am talking about. They are concerned with being "to harsh", they tell me that "Jesus is in control," that they are not "called" to fight evil and that "we should pray for our enemies."

Where have these guys come from? What we need is a return of the Voice of God thundering through prophets standing in America's pulpits. Not the prissy Purpose Driven drivel passing as the Gospel today. The feminized-preachers of today cannot hold a candle to those who ushered in The Great Awakening which led to the American Revolution, and the abolition of slavery – two world-changing events spearheaded by the pulpit.

Listen to the message of America's premiere preachers today. Rick Warren and his Purpose Driven Life have infiltrated the Church. Over 400,000 pastors have attended his conferences and over 40 million of his books have been sold. Wikipedia tells us "Since September 2002, over 30,000 congregations, corporations, and sports teams across the United States have participated in a "40 Days of Purpose" emphasis. A May 2005 survey of American pastors and ministers conducted by George Barna asked Christian leaders to identify what books were the most influential on their lives and ministries." The Purpose Driven Life was the most frequent response. Today's Christians are more familiar with the words of Warren than the Words of Jesus. Thousands of America's churches have used it in their Bible studies and thousands of preachers preach Warren's message.

Joel Osteen was voted Most Influential Christian in 2006. His preaching style focuses on "the goodness of God rather than sin." He is a self-described "Life-coach" and "thinks that there are probably others better qualified, or more gifted for explaining Bible verses. Osteen explains that he tries to teach Biblical principles in a simple way, emphasizing the power of love and a positive attitude." Wikipedia. "Presently, Osteen and several Lakewood Church team members travel across the nation, presenting programs in large stadiums to a paying public." He has sold millions of books to millions of feel-good Christians.

While our nation is killing babies, our schools are indoctrinating Christian-kids in Secular Humanism, and "Truth has fallen in the streets," our preachers are attending church-growth seminars, using 'self-help' books to supplement the Bible, and chasing after the butts and bucks. They are fiddling while the nation burns, building their church rather than Christ's Kingdom.

- Public schools are destroying the faith of Christian children.
- Legislation is introduced to remove the rights of parents.
- Children are taught they came from apes.
- Millions of children are "medicated" to control their behavior.

...and the pulpits are silent

- Gambling is promoted to pay for schools.
- Precious babies are being murdered in the womb.
- Planned Parenthood kills babies with our tax dollars.
- Judges make laws.

...and the pulpits are silent

- Tolerance trumps Truth.
- Homosexual sodomy is granted legal protection.
- The institution of marriage is crumbling.
- Obama says the Sermon on the Mount justifies gay marriage.

...and the pulpits are silent

- Government has replaced God as defender and provider.
 - Faith-based initiatives invite the government into the Church.
 - The IRS muzzles the voice of the Church.
 - Taxes are levied to do the work of the Church.

...and the pulpits are silent

- The Church locks arms with compassionate-conservatism.
 - Children's service agencies separate family members.
 - Self-help books replace the Bible.
 - A Purpose Driven Life is elevated above dying to self.

...and the pulpits are silent

- G.W. Bush says Christians and Muslims worship the same God.
 - The Constitution is ignored.
 - Pagans pray to open a session of Congress.
 - Our elected officials lie and steal.

...and the pulpits are silent

- Private property is stolen by government.
 - Mother Earth is protected more than Father God is exalted.
 - Illegal aliens over-run our borders.
 - The entertainment industry celebrates and promotes debauchery.

...and the pulpits are silent

From a bygone era, the sound from the pulpit rumbles throughout the ages.

"Could a mariner sit idle if he heard the drowning cry? Could a doctor sit in comfort and just let his patients die? Could a fireman sit idle, let men burn and give no hand? Can you sit at ease in Zion with the world around you DAMNED?" -Leonard Ravenhill “Churches don’t need new members half so much as they need the old bunch made over. There wouldn’t be so many non-church goers if there were not so many non-going churches. Too many churches are little more than four walls and a roof.” -Billy Sunday

The voice from the pulpit today sings a different song. “The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?” Jeremiah 5:31. Truth, justice and the American way are a thing of the past.

“None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.” Isaiah 59:4.

And tragically, the pulpits are silent.

© 2019 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Are We Eating Our Children?

This one is not an easy one for me to write. It might be even more difficult for you to read. I know we all run a risk if you simply laugh off what I am about to share with you today.

I am edgy. I get that. People often accuse me of being crazy, harsh, or conspiratorial but everyone who reads my thoughts knows that I don’t pull any punches.

Well, I am going to swing hard today and I am sorry if the punch to the gut makes you sick. I wish there was a softer way to inoculate you from the lies. But Truth and sunlight are the best disinfectant and usually is the best thing to use to lighten your path. I pray you are sitting down while you read this.

Have you noticed recently how much mankind has changed? I don't mean the clothes we wear, or the latest fashion trends, but the actual PHYSICAL changes that you see in people around you? Have you noticed how fat people are? Don't you see the rash of "cancers" that folks all around you are developing? Autism is rampant in the young. Haven't you noticed the blending of the sexes and how some men are becoming so much like women and some women are becoming so much like men? Have you noticed how many people are unable to think?

I don't just mean think, everyone is able to think. Perhaps "reason" is a better term. Have you noticed how many people believe things just because they saw it on TV...or the internet...or from some "teacher?" Maybe it is just me but I think something PHYSICALLY is going on. People are changing. It is right before our eyes and we can't process it.

Perhaps you should stop reading now. The consequences of what I am about to posit may be more than you are willing or able to accept. Far be it from me to bust open the protective cocoon in which you currently live. Ignorance may be blissful but it is also destructive. Ignorance is deadly. "My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge." You have been warned.

Is it possible that many of the health problems we are dealing with are a direct result of the fact that we are eating our children? Watch this brief interview. It is sworn testimony in a deposition of Dr. Stanley Plotkin where he admits UNDER OATH that aborted baby parts are used in the production of vaccines. Watch to the end. It is hard, but necessary, to understand the dark hearts at work in the medical industry.

So, it is no longer a "conspiracy theory." It is a PROVEN theory. Aborted baby parts are experimented on and used in vaccinations designed for human beings.

Have you ever heard of DNA? Is it possible to alter the DNA of one human being by the introduction of another human being's DNA into one's body? Did you know that studies now show that it is possible a woman maintains within her body the DNA of every man she ever had intercourse with? Oh Yeah. Here's the link. Planned Parenthood didn't tell you about that study in Sex Ed class in your public school?

The thought of that is earth shaking. Gives new meaning to a "paternity" test, eh?

But it is worse than that...much worse. Abortion is BIG BUSINESS and the government is actively involved in the promotion of research involving the use of "fetal tissue."

(That is a nice term for aborted babies.) Ever wonder where they get the fetal tissue?

And what might they be using these aborted children for? Why food supplements, additives, sweeteners...and other things that human beings ingest. Yep, you read that right. Ingest is another slick term for eat.

I didn't finish at the top of my class but I was pretty good in English and I believe that ingesting fetal tissue would be classified as cannibalism. Just in case you don't like my tin-foil-hat the dictionary defines cannibalism as "The act or practice of eating human flesh, by mankind." Yep, we are eating our offspring.

I often hear the refrain from pro-cannibalists "How does my abortion affect you? It is none of your business what I do with my body." Accept it does affect me when I swallow little Suzie's DNA in a soft drink.

You are what you eat!! Remember that phrase? I wonder what we become when we eat the DNA of another human being. Could that explain the big-butted women I see when I go to Wal Mart? Is it possible that sexual choices of some may have been altered by who they had for lunch? Maybe there is a genetic-reason why the average person isn't able to process information.

For those of you who are still reading and still maintain the ability to process thoughts you might find the following articles enlightening. Did you know that "artificial flavors" are often the result of aborted baby tissue? Oh Yeah. Check this out. Enjoy a Pepsi or Gatorade while you read it. A list of products is in the article.

Here is a simple question for those of you who can think. If a cow eats poison and you drink the milk from the cow is it possible that the poison the cow ate may be passed to you through the milk? What about drinking an Ocean Spray with a little bit of Suzie floating in it?

I know. I know. Someone else's abortion doesn't have any impact on your life. What's the big deal if you are sucking down your buddy's grandbaby's DNA? At least the drink tastes tart and it is sugar free!!

Some of you still don't believe what is written here and some of you are oblivious to how American's are being changed. But if what is written here is bogus can someone explain to me why President Trump just issued a BAN on fetal tissue research? Check it out. For those of you who won't take the time to read the article just let this quote sink in.

"The N.I.H. spends about $100 million a year of its $37 billion budget on projects that involve fetal tissue. The tissue is used to test drugs, develop vaccines and study cancer, AIDS, Parkinson's disease, birth defects, blindness and other disorders. For much of that work, scientists say there is no substitute for fetal tissue." I wonder where they get the fetuses.

Yes, my friend, abortion is big business. Follow the money.

Not only are Planned Parenthood and their ilk profiting off of the backs of unborn babies, they are turning the rest of us into cannibals. It is comforting to know that another woman's abortion doesn't impact me.

Didn't Charleton Heston warn us of this in this clip from Soylent Green?

Who are you having for dinner tonight?

© 2018 NWV – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Whatever Happened To Science?

The original Webster's Dictionary, the 1828 version, defined science as:

"In a general sense, knowledge, or certain knowledge; the comprehension or understanding of truth or facts by the mind. The science of God must be perfect." (All Emphasis mine.)

To "know", again from the scholarly Webster, is "To perceive with certainty; to understand clearly; to have a clear and certain perception of truth, fact, or any thing that actually exists."

To "feel", same resource, is "To have the sensibility or the passions moved or excited."

Passion is "The feeling of the mind, or the sensible effect of impression; excitement, perturbation or agitation of mind."

"Beware. Your emotions will betray you." My friend Chad Estes.

Science explains feelings. Feelings do not alter science. That is something very basic that I learned in my 6th grade Science class.

Science thrives on facts, evidence, and proof. The Scientific method requires proof. Feelings and emotions are not proof. Feelings and emotions cloud Truth. It is nearly impossible to convince someone of something they already refuse to believe.

Simply WANTING something to be true does not make it so. Simply believing something does not make it true. Founding Father Webster explained to us that truth is the "True state of facts or things."

Feelings are not facts. Feelings cannot alter facts. No matter how much I want to BELIEVE that my parents are still alive, the facts prove otherwise. Facts, according to our friend, is "Reality; truth. To deny a fact knowingly is to lie."

Is it possible for "science" to produce lies? If science produces a lie can it even be called science? Why do we allow so many falsehoods to be promoted by science? Science is not an opinion. Unproven science is not scientific. Unproven science is a theory. A theory, according to our scholarly friend "is speculation; a doctrine or scheme of things, which terminates in speculation or contemplation, without a view to practice." Whatever happened to science?

Stating that 85% of scientists believe in Global warming is citing an opinion poll. Air is necessary for a human being to live. That is a fact and it doesn't matter how many scientists agree with it. If 90% of scientists believed air was UNNECESSARY for human life, you would still need air to live. Opinion does not alter truth.

Opinion is not science, OK? Opinion is speculation. Speculation is "to view, to contemplate."

(Sorry if you are “feeling” like I am running you in circles.)

Folks this is so simple. A theory is not proof. A theory LEADS to proof. Proof does not require peer reviewed opinions. Proof, like truth, stands alone. Look outside. Is the sun shining? Does it matter if your wife disagrees? Whatever happened to science?

Can I show you how much “Science” has been destroyed in America? Are you willing to simply explore what Joe Friday so famously said? “Just the facts, Ma’am.” Is it OK if I return to the days of Perry Mason and demand, “the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth...so help me God (THE Truth).”

There are only two sexes and only two genders. Male and female. Any “science” that says otherwise is voodoo science. Look between your legs for proof. “Feeling” like a woman when you have a penis does not invalidate science. When they dig up the remains of Bruce Jenner 500 years from now they will find a male in his casket. Science baby. Bruce Jenner ain’t no woman no matter how he “feels.” Why do so many intelligent people foolishly agree he is a woman?

An unborn baby is a human being no matter how much the mother doesn’t want it to be. To abort it is to kill it. To kill it is murder, no matter what some “judge” “feels.” Even if 95% of judges agree abortion is the “law of the land” murder can never be legal. The child is a human being at the moment of conception. What are judges doing judging scientific issues? Why does the left cling to science when it supports them and deny it when it doesn’t? Why do we let them?

Darwinian Evolution is a theory. As we learned earlier, a theory is speculation. There is NO SCIENTIFIC proof that man evolved from pond scum no matter how many scientists vote in favor of the theory. If macro-evolution was PROVEN it would no longer be a theory and there would no longer be a debate. Biblical Creation is just as valid of a SCIENTIFIC theory as Darwinism. Believing the Bible requires faith. So does Darwinism. Both are systems of belief. Those who believe the theory of Creation are called Christians. Those who don't are called scientists.

Science doesn't lie, but scientists do. Special interests pay for scientists to do research. I have often wondered if "scientists" could find evidence for God if they were paid to prove His existence. I am sorry to break the news to you, but researchers today do their best to find the results that their benefactors pay for. Do you think Monsanto wants to know if GMO's cause cancer? Government spends millions on research. Do you know of any government studies to find out when life begins in an unborn baby? Ever wonder why? Are they afraid of science?

Nothing seems real any more. Everything is opinion, emotion, speculation, and wishful thinking. Over the last 100 years science has done its best to destroy God and His creation. All you have to do is look around and you will see that, in the end, science has destroyed science.

When I was a teenager we used to tease each other and argue in the hallways, "If you are a man come into the locker room and prove it." That challenge won't work today. Thanks to voodoo science you can't even believe your eyes any more. Lies rule the day. Nothing is as it seems. Why do we permit it? Why do we allow them to teach our children things that simply are not true? Why don't we demand proof and truth? Can a nation built on lies survive?

Whatever happened to science?

© 2019 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Don't Blame Me, I'm Pro-Life

They are killing babies, you know? All across America, under the sleepy eyes of the American church, the ghouls continue to rip apart the tender bodies of precious unborn babies.

I wish I could say it in a more graphic way. I wish I could find the words to awaken supposed God-fearing Christians to the holocaust of the pre-born citizens in a city near you.

A calloused heart. There is no other explanation for it. Church pews filled with self-proclaimed servants of Christ who continue to treat their neighbor's child with the heartless sin of apathy.

Oh, they are pro-life alright. At least they claim to be. But those who kill the babies are also pro-life. They just happen to choose the life of the mother over the life of the child. They don't want the mother's life to be messed up by some pesky new-born life that will complicate their future plans.

"Pro-life" is a slogan. Christians are good with slogans. They hide behind them. They use quasi-Bible verses as a reason to divert their eyes from the slaughter. "I PERSONALLY am against abortion, but who am I to judge what someone else does?" What a crock of hooey!! Pro-choice with exceptions. That is where most Christians stand.

Our once fiery pulpits are now filled by compromised men who are afraid to cry out for their pre-born neighbor for fear of awakening the conscience of the "Best life Now" women who don't want to be reminded of the dastardly thing they did to their precious child in a moment of selfish fear and panic.

January 22, 1973 is 46 years ago and still today the carnage continues. The news just got worse as we have just been informed that abortion is now the leading cause of death in the world. There were more deaths from abortion in 2018 than all deaths from cancer, malaria, HIV/AIDS, smoking, alcohol, and traffic accidents combined.

Choice. It sounds so harmless...the word choice. Sometimes soft, ambivalent words are the most dangerous. Infanticide, child sacrifice, and dismemberment all give a more realistic ring to "women's health care." How can a process that results in death ever be called health care?

But Christians are pro-life alright. Consider the bumper sticker I saw on a car the other day. "Abortion stops a beating heart." I wanted to stop the driver and scream, "Yep! Now what are you gonna do about it?"

But, of course, that would be far too judgmental for America's snowflake Christians.

Why do we hate our children? When did we become so selfish that we began to see children as a burden rather than a blessing? What kind of people have we become? For forty six years we have stuffed our fingers in our ears and whistled past Planned Parenthood while the "Government" picks our pockets in support of this most evil of all "medical procedures."

But it gets worse than that. As if killing our children was not bad enough we now have the testimony, under oath, of a medical expert who admits that premature babies killed in their mother's womb are, in fact, being experimented on in a Frankenstein like manner by "scientists" in America. We now know that they cannibalize the babies for vaccines.

Oh yeah. Think I am lying right? You remember when Planned Parenthood was accused of selling the body parts of the "blobs of tissues" that they had terminated? Remember the undercover videos and the “price lists” that we were given, like a menu, to the infantivores we were told didn’t exist? Here is a video that exposed it all. The media called him a liar and sued.

Abortion was only 3% of the services that Planned Murderhood offered in their “women’s clinics the liars told us. Well that lie went out the window this week as their new President admitted that promotion of abortion was their “core mission.” Dumb me. I thought they were all about pap smears, mammograms, and condoms. I guess if you would kill a baby then lying probably doesn’t cause your conscience to bleed very badly.

Most of you probably don’t believe what you read here. You don’t want to. You want to keep your eyes shut and fingers in your ears over what is occurring in well manicured suburbs all across this nation. Can we be truthful? Abortion is about pride. Most women won’t passionately fight against it for fear that their precious teenage daughter may need to exercise her “choice” sometime in the near future. Sin makes strange bedfellows.

Here is the video of the expert admitting they experiment on unborn babies for use in vaccines. Notice the soul-less response of this monster. Watch it and weep. This is 2 minutes from hell.

I hear a lot of criticism from Christians because President Trump hasn’t kept his promise to defund Planned Parenthood. Why should he? It doesn’t matter to Christians and it certainly doesn’t matter to Christian leaders. Why would anyone expect President Trump to do the job that the average American pastor only occasionally refers to from the pulpit?

January 18th is the 46th Annual March For Life in Washington DC. Hundreds of thousands will make the annual pilgrimage as a form of penance while failing to acknowledge their complicity in the murder of unborn children. Abortion exists only because the American church does not hate it.

American Christians have blood on our hands. No amount of marching will wash it off. Voting won't stop it. Abortion will end ONLY when the American Church demands it must stop.

They are killing babies, you know. All across America, under the sleepy eyes of the American church, the ghouls continue to rip apart the tender bodies of precious unborn babies. If they did it to a puppy most Christians would shriek.

Every abortion clinic in America should have a sign hanging over the door. OPEN FOR BUSINESS WITH THE PERMISSION OF THE LOCAL CHURCH.

But don't blame me. I'm Pro-Life.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Let's Go Down Standing Up

"What would you do if you knew you couldn't fail?"

I remember having that question asked of me by a motivational speaker when I was in high school. He was doing his best to try and convince us that most people are defeated before they ever get started because they never really thought they could win in the first place.

The world of athletics is a great place to find slogans because so much of what is accomplished is done by the sheer will of overcoming what one's mind says cannot be done.

The body can achieve what the mind can believe!

Quitters never win and winners never quit!

You can take the dog out of the fight but you can never take the fight out of the dog!

When all is said and done more is usually said than done!

It's not the size of the dog in the fight it's the size of the fight in the dog.

I am sure you could add a few of your own. But the bottom line is, your greatest opponent is often yourself. The Bible says it this way.

As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he.

But the common denominator in all of the sloganeering is the importance of believing that what you want to achieve really is possible. I used to tell our guys all of the time;

If you think you can...or if you think you can't, you're right!

Ultimately, belief propels action. You can tell what a man BELIEVES by what he DOES.

In so many ways Christianity mirrors athletics in that the participants love to repeat quotes about what they claim to believe but have very little corresponding action to match what they say.

I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength!

With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible!

What can we say to these things? If God be for us who can be against us!

Now thanks be to God who always causes us to triumph!

But thanks be to God who gives us victory through Jesus Christ.

All power is given unto me both in heaven and on earth, go ye therefore...

So let me ask you this, my fine Christian friend. Why don't we believe what He told us? Why have we, despite the evidence to the contrary, so given up hope in this battle for the culture?

Remember...if you think you can or if you think you can't, you are probably right.

Christianity, just like athletic competition is a battleground of the mind. The sad truth is most of Christianity has become convinced that the bad guys are going to win.

"We win in the end, Coach Dave" I often hear Christians say, as if that is justification for our lousy performance here and now. Although millions of people can quote the Bible, very few are willing to put it in action.

The righteous are as bold as lions and evil men flee when no one pursues, the book of Proverbs tells us. Can somebody please explain to me why it is the Christians who are running for the hills? Why are the Christians the ones who are begging the Government to protect our rights? Is there somehow something wrong with a Christianity that wins now?

As bad as it looks what if this is simply a valley that we have to walk through? What if the return of Jesus is 50...or 100...or 1000 years into the future? What if the game really isn't over? What if what you did today really did make a difference in tomorrow?

I believe that 2019 is the most critical year for America in the last 100. No amount of human endeavor will overcome the will of God but what if we are misreading the "signs of the times?" What if victory in the cultural war was possible today? What if God actually wanted his people to rise up and fight the evil doers?

What if the church could end abortion? What if the church could restore marriage? What if God wanted us to end child trafficking and the scourge of pornography? What if the righteous were bold? What if we really could do all things through Christ? What if with God all things really WERE possible? What if he really meant what He said?

Have God's people sold God short? I am reminded of this passage from the inspirational poem "IF".

"Often the goal is nearer than it seems to a faint and faltering man; Often the struggler has given up when he might have captured the victory cup. And he learned too late when the night came down how close he was to the golden crown."

Sometimes I feel like we are determined to live out pre-written history. Could it be Christians aren't winning because we don't think that we can?

Let's agree on one thing. It is 4th and goal. We just don't know how much time is left on the clock.

Jesus asked a piercing question of His followers...When the Son of Man cometh shall He find faith on the earth?

What you DO shows what you believe! When the trumpet sounds will Christianity go out with a bang or a whimper?

Hold that line!! Occupy till He comes!! Let's honor God. What would you do if you knew you couldn't lose? Let's go down standing up.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Tale Of Two Lawmen

I don't know if there has ever been a more endearing character than that of Barney Fife the loveable bumbling deputy sheriff from Mayberry.

Don Knotts' portrayal of Deputy Fife created a caricature of a small town cop that still lives on. How often have you referred to a pushy cop as a "Barney Fife" when describing his behavior to a friend? His false bravado was so outlandish because it was so spot on. Whether we care to admit it or not there is a little bit of Barney Fife in all of us.

Viewers were drawn to Barney because we all recognized the innocence of his cowardice and we understood that we often struggled with the courage to do what our job required of us.

Whether it was our job as a parent, or a teacher, or just our common role as a good citizen we often found our knees-knocking in the face of a controversy that we knew we should confront. So many times in our lives our courage did not match our conflict and we sheepishly slinked away from a subject we knew we should have taken on. We left the dirty work for someone else to handle.

Yes, my friends. There is a little bit of Barney Fife in all of us.

I was prompted this week by a discussion we were having on my podcast when one of the participants quoted from the Scriptures "to him that knows to do good, and not to do it, to him it is sin." After the show was over I began to ponder why we are so hesitant to speak uncomfortable Truth. Why are we afraid to shoot our bullets?

That's what brought to mind the immitigable cowardice of Deputy Fife. He wanted so much to be strong...to do the right thing...to be respected...to honor his office...yet he never was able to live up to the image he had of the position that he occupied.

I love to watch old reruns with my grand children and I loved to point out that Barney was only permitted to carry one bullet. Yet, in all of the episodes we have watched I have never seen Barney ever actually shoot his bullet.

I wonder if our image of him would be different if he had. I wonder if HIS image of himself would be different if he had. Although Don Knotts has since passed on I wonder if his mythical character Barney wished that JUST ONCE he had shot his bullet. What a sad statement for a defender of the people to go to the grave with all of his ammo still in his pocket.

I'm going somewhere with this. How about you? Do you still have your bullets in your pocket? Are the bad guys storming into your town and your fear of confrontation has caused you to tuck tail and run? Will it ever be time to shoot your bullets?

Barney was so unlike another popular law-enforcement officer from the same golden age of television, Wyatt Earp.

You remember Wyatt Earp and the self-describing theme song that accompanied his show. It so encapsulated the descriptive nature of the job of a lawman and the image that Barney so desperately wanted to fulfill. Listen here

*Wyatt Earp. Wyatt Earp.
Brave courageous and bold. Long live his fame and long live his glory and long may his story be told.*

Mouth those lyrics again and simply insert the name Barney Fife for Wyatt Earp and see if you can do it without causing yourself some serious cognitive dissonance. The images don't match. Hugh O'Brien was everything that Don Knotts wanted to be but could never find the chutzpa to live out.

Brave. Courageous. Bold. Can you think of three more powerful words for which you would want to be remembered?

Tough times are coming to America. Everywhere you look America and American values are under attack. Not since the days of Wyatt Earp has the need for courageous Americans ever been greater. In a time when America needs brave, bold, and courageous leadership all of our formerly great institutions are turning out cowardly, compromising, weak men.

America will never return to greatness if we are depending on top-down leadership. The only way that America can be great again is if AMERICANS become great again. Stop waiting on Washington to come up with the fix. Brave, courageous and bold leadership begins right where you live.

For at least two generations Christian men have been taught to be nice...to compromise...to judge not...and the results have been streets full of chaos not seen since the days of the Wild West. If our nation is going to change, then our cities must change. If our cities are to change, then our churches must change. If our churches are to change, then our families must change.

Everything begins at home. We must be like the Sons of Issachar "which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment."

America needs brave, courageous, and bold LOCAL leadership. Bold Christian men built this nation. Only bold Christian men can save it.

Stop looking at Washington and start looking around you. Where are tomorrow's leaders? Who is teaching them how to lead? Don't you think it is time to start developing them? Find a group of leaders and teach them to lead. Tomorrow's leaders need trained today.

In a nation crying for Wyatt Earps we have to stop producing Barney Fifes.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Are Christians Supposed To Be Doormats?

At the risk of a bit of self-promotion I ask whether or not Christians are supposed to roll over and take it. Is simply lying down and letting evil run roughshod over us a sign of holiness? Does “turn the other cheek” mean we are never to fight back?

The Bible teaches us to die to self, but it does not teach us to be a doormat. “Dying to self” means putting the Lord, and others, first. It does not mean yielding authority to those who hate Christ. Dying to self actually means that the fear of physical death should not prevent a Christian from standing up and fighting. You can’t kill a dead man. Following Christ means victory over physical death.

Why do Christians have it so wrong? Christians should be the most courageous of all people.

Many of you who regularly read my commentaries often contact me and let me know how much you enjoy my gritty Gospel. Some don’t appreciate my “tone” quite as much, but despite the criticism I am determined to awaken Christians to Paul’s admonition that “to live is Christ but to die is gain.” What in the world are Christians so afraid of?

If my email inbox is any indication many of you are sick of the non-confrontational, nicer-than-Jesus message emanating from America’s pulpits. The loyal opposition to the Devil’s stratagems seems to be neither loyal, nor oppositional. The Salt has lost his savor.

For those of you who may not be aware, I host an internet podcast five days a week. It is a live, interactive program where we are training men, and some women, to grow some hair upon their chests. Those who join the show believe that Christian testosterone is a good thing. That is something that is sorely missing from the girlie men filling most of America's pulpits.

If you are sick of milquetoast Christianity we invite you to join our Huddle. We have been doing the show for nearly three years and listeners are being challenged to a more active Christianity. Fighting evil is not a spectator sport and we challenge the listeners to "get in the game."

What follows is a copy of some notes that Lowell, one of our "Huddle" members, shared with us following one of last week's shows where we discussed the role of a Christian.

Huddle Notes/Study 2018/11/29

Fact/Scripture: God made the Earth

Fact/Scripture: Man was given the Earth and everything in it.

Fact/Scripture: Man chose his woman/following Satan and retained him as counselor, not God.

Therefore Man had then become allied with Satan in his rebellion against God Fact/Scripture: Both were cast from God's presence.

Research Did the Nephilim become a way for fallen angels to access earth physically/easily? Research Did these hybrids become new souls to build the Satanic army?

BUT

Fact/Scripture: Jesus takes Earth back, buys it back. As a man he reclaims it for/as God & Himself!!! Given: The Holy Spirit should then inoculate us vs. demons!!!!!!

Probably Not all Nephilim DNA was destroyed...Goliath? Question Do their progeny become Satan's army as well?

My conclusion; Posit: The Great Commission is prosecuting

God's renewed title to Earth through Jesus and his Saints. We are an insurgency until His return.

Fact/Scripture: The world is ours to reclaim by Jesus' birth, execution, and resurrection. Jesus said: Behold woman, I have made all things anew! Jesus said: It is finished!

Assert/Repeat: Man alienated the title to Satan; God became man to reclaim it. Jesus said: He owns it all again. He has legal title again.

Fact/Scripture: God gave Earth to Adam who alienated the title by following Satan. He said so: Jesus/God as a man/God had the right to reclaim the heritage as both man and maker! But: Most of man is still complicit with Satan in rebellion against God. Therefore: Satan and his allies are TRESPASSERS now. Illegal immigrants, Fact/Scripture: Jesus commanded us to OCCUPY UNTIL I COME!!!

Intent: Keep the base of operations safe, or expand it for the total reconquest when Outcome: Christ returns leading and to lead his army of Saints IN THIS WORLD to subdue Satan and his allies physically, not just spiritually.

But: SATAN IS STILL LORD OF THIS WORLD BY ACCLAIM....VOTE HIS ASS OUT OF OFFICE.

Scripture John 8 Know the truth and the truth will set you free

Scripture John 3:16 Jesus came not to condemn the world, but that the world would be saved.

Scripture Ephesians Full armor, salvation, righteousness, gospel/peace, faith, TRUTH.

The Word is our sword and our offensive weapon. The Truth is the suspension belt on which the offensive and defensive array is carried.... The boots of peace provide the peace in knowing we are God's own. The boots enable us to hold our ground by digging in when pushed, or move quickly and surely over rough ground in attack.

Comment: Boots of Gospel of peace appears to be misunderstood as pacifism preaching peace. Given Paul's Roman citizenship and knowledge of a Legionary's panoply Paul would know the Roman's hob nailed boots protected the feet from both spear thrusts from above and broken ground below. When pushed, Legionary's would dig in their toes and press/lean forward. In attack, they advanced protected from stones and dropped weapons.

Fact/Scripture: RESIST the Devil and he will flee from you!

Comment: MOST CHURCHES ARE NOT CHURCHES AT ALL.

Comment: THEY ARE COLLABORATORS – Quislings, Vichy French, Tories, Copperheads.

Comment: The Saints and the areas we influence/control God also controls.

Comment: We are the beachhead. It must be expanded, secured, enlarged, and no surrendered.

Comment: The areas controlled by the unsaved, those taking counsel of Satan still control theirs.

Comment: The frontier between the two is where we come into conflict and sparks should fly.

Conclusion: The Christ is God saying I am back. I am among you. I reclaim my Kingdom. Come home. Join me and conquer. Free the world from rebellion. Pull on your boots, gear up and bring PEACE to the Earth.

Are you sick and tired of weak-kneed Christianity? We invite you to check out "The Huddle." It lasts an hour. Check out the link below. Both audio and video are available. Full of testosterone. It is free.

If you like my writings then you will LOVE the show.

www.CoachDaveLive.com

God is looking for a Few Good Men. Let's drain the wimpy Christian swamp.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

People Prefer Safe Space Over Conflict – Go Along To Get Along

It is possible to learn things in the strangest of places and in the strangest of conversations.

I have always been a bit intrigued by prison life and exactly what goes on behind the walls of the penal institutions. We have all heard the horror tales of rapes, muggings, and “jailhouse justice,” and certainly being incarcerated for an extended period of time would seem to be such a waste of life.

Just this week I had a discussion with a friend who had spent some time in the clink and is now radically saved which has led to a total change in lifestyle. His testimony is miraculous and a real eye-opener about the power of Jesus to transform a life. He now credits his time in jail as God's plan to rescue him from sure destruction.

During the course of the discussion I asked him if it was true that prison was a dangerous place.

“It can be,” he said. “But it is really no different than the outside world in that regard. Most of the trouble you get in to is trouble that you brought upon yourself. If you lay low and simply do your time you can get through it without much trouble. You just keep your mouth shut, head down, and count the days until you are outta there."

"Is there a lot of violence inside? Do guys get beat up a lot by other inmates?" I asked.

"Sometimes. But if you really sense that there is trouble lurking on the yard you simply stay safe in the cage." He said.

"Huh? Safe in the cage? What does that mean, Bill?" I queried.

"Your cell. The cell is a cage. In order to protect themselves from thugs some guys simply spend all of their time sitting in their cell. There are guards around and it is very hard for someone to get into another guy's cell. Safe in the cage. You have no freedom...but there is also less danger. Life is always safer if you stay in the cage."

"Hmmm. Did you ever spend much time in your cage?" I asked.

"Not much," he said. "I always tried to avoid the conflicts and controversy. I didn't go out of my way looking for trouble."

"Wow," I murmured. "Sorta like church. Is that what you mean?"

"I'm not following you, Coach. What do you mean by that?"

"Safe in the cage. That is the way I see most Christians living their lives. The church is the cage and it is a safe place for them to run to when things get a little bit scary out in the world. Instead of standing up and pushing back against the forces that are attempting to intimidate them, they run to church because it is "safe in the cage." They can hunker down, avoid the controversy out in the real world, and breeze through their time until their time of release occurs. Just like the men in prison.”

“Dude! I have never looked at it that way!”

“Yeah. Think about it. Most Christians that I have been around my entire Christian walk are some of the most passive, non-confrontational people you would ever want to be around. They are good people, but they really are not interested in ruffling anyone’s feelings. No matter how much crazy stuff is going on around them they don’t seem to want to do anything about it.”

“Look at the schools,” I continued. “The public schools are teaching their kids all kinds of crazy things...gender issues...homo sex...secular beliefs and the parents never make a peep. The government takes their tax dollars and spend it on crazy things like abortion, macro evolution...things that go in direct conflict with what the parents believe in their home, yet they never voice a complaint to anyone about their displeasure.”

“Ahhh.” He moaned. “Now I’m picking up what you are laying down. The parents keep their mouths shut because they don’t want to make any waves. They know that if they speak out they run the risk of making someone mad and then they will have to deal with the consequences of what they stood up for. It’s safe in the cage! You’re right Coach! The parent’s unwillingness to speak out actually imprisons their own children. By going-along-to-get-along they are actually bringing harm to the one’s they claim to love.”

“You got it! In a funny sort of way the church has adopted the same mentality as the men who are locked in America’s prisons. In order to avoid any problems they simply sit in their church and wait for their time here on earth to run out. Why cause trouble when they are simply passing through.

This world is not there home. Sometime very soon the Lord is going to come and set them free.”

“Yep. Safe in the cage. I never looked at it that way. Jesus came to set us free, not to simply keep us locked in a church. Although it might be safe, warm, and void of conflict in the cage, hiding from controversy is no way for a Christian to live.”

“That’s it, Bill,” I sighed. “Avoiding conflict may be a safe way to live, but it sure is a waste of life. Somehow I don’t think that Jesus came just to make our time spent here on earth more comfortable. Fear is a prison in itself. There is nothing wrong with BEING afraid...but there is something wrong with STAYING afraid.”

“Man,” Bill replied. “It looks to me like I have simply traded one form of bondage for another. Hiding from controversy in the church really isn’t much different than hiding form controversy inside the prison.”

“That’s what I am saying. Jesus came to set us free, not simply change our cage.”

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Who’s Team Is President Trump Playing For?

I don’t know if I have ever seen a public figure as hard to figure out as President Trump. Certainly, no one who has ever been elected to the Presidency has been more of a battle axe than he. He has forged a political coalition that has baffled even the most seasoned political scientists.

Which team is President Trump playing on? Is he part of the deep state and his promise to “drain the swamp” merely a diabolical diversion from what he is actually orchestrating, or is he really “one of us” a man who has promised to deliver our government back into the hands of “we the people.”

We are going to know very soon.

I have to confess that I was on the Trump Train very early and that my public endorsement of him garnered much opposition from those who would normally be supporting the same values-driven candidate as me. My support of him cost me many friends, some of which with all of the fences still have not been mended.

But I saw something in him, early, that told me that one need not be a man of God in order to be God’s man. I still hold that position and am a supporter of his today. But I understand the anxiety many of my friends suffer. If he is REALLY going to drain the swamp isn’t it about time that he called the Roto Rooter man?

Again, we are going to know very soon.

One of the things that really troubles me about some of my Christian friends is their inability, or unwillingness to “root” for him. It is almost as if THEY have made up their mind that he is NOT God’s man and refuse to support him even 2 years into his term in office. Stubborn as they are, I wonder if they follow the Bible’s mandate to “pray for our leaders” but instead secretly hope he fails so that they will have been proven right about his character shortcomings and fitness for the office.

I would hope that all Christians pray that he is successful, but I really don’t think that is the case. Their own pride blinds them to the fact that God may not be operating the way that they expect Him to. God is ambidextrous. He is the originator of the idea of sleight of hand. He fooled Satan into crucifying His Son. I wonder what the odds at Vegas were on God coming out on the winning side of that power play.

Oh, but His ways are not our ways. Perhaps someday we will realize that He plays by His own set of rules and that it is foolish to ever think we have The Creator figured out.

I became aware of politics 55 years ago today on November 22, 1963 when JFK had his head cracked wide open in Dealey Plaza. In my mind, I always referred to that as the "day America died" because since that time our government has become a secret operation and the real truth of what was going on "behind the curtain" has been hidden from the American people. The Kennedy assassination was the first of many "deep state" operations pulled on the American people. Our "elected officials" no longer run the government. Most are hired simply to make sure that the government continues to run according to plan...THEIR plan...the deep state...SWAMP...shadow government...that we all pray President Trump is committed to draining.

We will know very soon which team he is paying for.

Let me take the peel off of the potato.

Like so many of you I have waited patiently for 2 years for the hammer to drop. I have followed Q Anon and all of the "insiders" dropping breadcrumbs as to what was really going on behind the scenes. Trust sessions...trust Q...trust the plan. Well, I have trusted them all and it is now time for the President to crap or get off of the pot.

It is apparent to anyone who is paying attention that the corruption in our government runs very deep. It is clear that we have not had a REAL President since that fateful day in Dallas. And I find it ironic that the battle has now gone full circle. It appears to me that Donald Trump is fighting the same group that President Kennedy warned us about...the military industrial complex.

But in the 55 years since Kennedy was blown away that political swamp of miscreants has metastasized and become so entrenched that it is nearly impossible to dislodge them. The way I see it, President is our last hope. If he is a fraud, a bought and paid for agent of the Rockefellers and Rothschild's bankers, then our ship is sunk.

Call me naïve'. Call me foolish. Call me a sellout. But if Donald Trump is pulling our chain, then our nation has long since been lost.

We are about to find out where he stands. We will soon know which team he is quarterbacking. This is where the rubber meets the road.

Declassify the FISA Report. Expose the criminal activities of the high level deep-staters at work in the Alphabet Agencies. Expose for the world the criminal activities of those who were sworn to protect and serve us. Perp walk them. Show the American people the dark underbelly of our "election process" and the treasonous crimes of those who have manipulated the American system.

Restore the rule of law. Re-establish justice. Do away with the multi-level criminal justice system. Return the government to THE PEOPLE. Anything else is simply window dressing.

Pray for him...even if you don't like him. Pray he is God's man. What he does in the next 30 days will show us which team the President is playing for.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

If Christians Found Their Conviction They Would Be In Control

Never underestimate an opponent.

That was a lesson I learned early in my athletic career. The easiest way to get your hind-end kicked was to assume that you were going to win simply because you were better. History is lined with the stories of upset victories and every one of those upsets occurred because the favorite was either overconfident or deceived.

Both attitudes will eventually lead to defeat. Have you ever heard of Goliath? He was superior to the little shepherd boy in every measure except for the one that really mattered. David was committed to victory while Goliath was focused more on his own abilities. It is hard to defeat a prepared, focused, and committed opponent.

We, those who carry the Name of Christ are on the verge of squandering a game that we never should have lost. In the battle of the ages the American church has greatly underestimated the skill set of our opponent. Even though we were warned in Scripture that we were “not to be ignorant of his devices,” we have been. Failing to comprehend the seriousness of the battle we have given into apathy. What has caused our unwillingness to “earnestly contend for the faith?”

Even though the Bible clearly spells out the game plan of “our adversary” we have failed to taken him and “his devices” seriously. We are losing the battle, not because we are not well equipped, but because we are oblivious to how diabolical and how committed our opponent truly is.

Satan, Diablo, the Devil, is a worthy opponent. He is so powerful, and so effective, that he has been able to convince most of the Christian world that he doesn't really exist. For those who DO believe in Satanus, America's Christian leadership has tricked us into thinking that the Devil is nothing more than a personal agitator who designs are set on making individual life miserable.

The Devil, the tell us, is after your health, or your finances, or out to "steal your joy", as if he was nothing more than a supernatural mosquito whose main goal was to keep the individual Christian from living a comfortable life. The Devil is real, they told us, but they sold us a Walt Disney version of the fallen cherub...you know what I mean...red tail, horns, pitchfork...a comic-book character who comes out of hiding around Halloween.

Our failure to understand his purpose, his power, and his techniques have left once-great, once-Christian America gasping for breath. While the Church sat around and counted our blessings, the enemy of our souls was raiding our houses destroying everything good. As long as he could keep us focused on ourselves we would miss the greater battle that was raging around us. Satan was not after "our stuff." He had his sights set on control of the world.

We have underestimated the dark side. Satan has pulled a reverse David and Goliath on the Church because we have lost focus of what he was really after. The battle we are engaged in is a battle for the world. Yes, it is partly a personal battle, but it is more importunately, a corporate battle. The battle is against the two seeds. The seed of the serpent and the seed of the woman...found in Genesis 3. Most dumbed-down Christians STILL do not understand it.

Imagine with me how GOOD Jehovah must be. He is the Creator and Giver of life. The Bible teaches us that He was perfect in every way and that our “eyes have not seen, nor our ears heard, neither has it entered into our hearts, what God has in store for those who love Him.” Our feeble minds cannot even conceive of how vast and complete His goodness is. Real Christians serve a Real “all powerful” God.

But my high school science classes taught me about Newton’s law and that “for every action there is an equal and OPPOSITE reaction.” If God is ALL good, how deep and how dark must the dark side be? Christ conquered all of that darkness, but the prayer He taught us to pray states “thy Kingdom come, thy will be done ON EARTH as it is in Heaven.” The earth is not yet perfected...and will not be until His coming...but in the meantime he adjured us to “Occupy, Til I come.”

Occupy is an action verb. It connotes the idea that someone else is intent on taking over. Help me out here, if the battle has been won why did He command us to hold the ground? Could it be that the “adversary” is not yet under His feet? Could it be that “God’s team” was placed here to actively oppose the evil one?

Look around America. Think back to the days of Father Knows Best and ask yourself what has happened to 1950’s America? Could it be that while we were fighting a cartoon-character opponent, the Devil and his minions were actively at work fighting to pull off the greatest coup in the history of the world? Could it be that his greatest strength was convincing us that he was not really very strong?

Focus your eyes for a moment on every major institution that influences the culture and name for me ONE the Christians are in charge of? Media, Education, Finances, Entertainment, Government, Family, even the Church has fallen into the hands of the enemy. While Christians have been dressing up like the Devil to celebrate Halloween, the Devil has been eating all of the candy out of our sacks. Our churches have lied to us.

They have taught us to look to the coming Kingdom while ignoring the one right in front of us.

Just a warning. You ain't seen nothin' yet. The darkness spreads through deception. So much of what we see, hear, and are taught simply is not true. Lies rule the day and Satan is the father of them.

If, as Jesus said, "all power has been given unto me both in heaven and earth" what would it look like if His disciples actually lived as if HE was supposed to be in control? What if HIS people occupied those gates of power?

I John 3:8 says "For this purpose was the Son of man manifested that he might destroy the works of the Devil." What if He meant it? What if the Devil really WAS a defeated foe? What if our job was to "go into all of the world...and teach all that He commanded us?" What if God's people are supposed to put the Devil under the feet of the Lord?

What if what we did here on earth really mattered HERE ON EARTH? What if the Devil was a defeated foe HERE AND NOW? What if Jesus was counting on us to help build His Kingdom ON EARTH? What if the Lord was waiting on us to act?

What if we really believed that Jesus was King of Kings HERE AND NOW?

What if the gates of hell really could not prevail against His church? What if HIS CHURCH was His plan to conquer the darkness? What if we stopped under-estimating the Devil and started conquering him?

If the Church actually believed Jesus controlled "all power in Heaven and on earth" would it change the way we responded?

What would it look like if Christians were actually in control?

A Skeleton Crew Serving in Florida

Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. Matt. 9:38

It seems as if there are churches on every street corner in America's cities. Yet, with all of the churchianity that exists it is hard to believe that so little of the Gospel really goes forth.

It is, for the most part, a "different Gospel" that is being shared from America's pulpits. A Gospel that glorifies "self" with a Savior that died to give us a "better life."

Unfortunately, that is not "the Gospel" that you will find in the Bible. Oh, it is part of it...but the "best life now" thing is a small branch of the "living water" that is supposed to flow out of the belly of Believers. The True Gospel is not only life changing, it is life altering.

The "Gospel of the Kingdom" does not call us to a "better" life, but to a sacrificial death. Jesus loved us so much that He called us to die daily. He told us to "pick up our cross" and follow Him. He exhorted us that to lose our life is to find it...that to die is gain and that "greater love has no man than this that he would lay down his life for his friends."

Being a true disciple of Jesus is a sacrificial call to a life of service. Most Christians have no idea what that even means.

I've often found it remarkable that of all of the things Our Lord could have asked us to pray for "laborers" willing to expand His Kingdom would be at the top of His list. Most Christians have no idea what it means to "labor" for the harvest. It is hard to think of others when we spend so much time thinking about ourselves.

Please bear with me and permit me a few sentences to rant.

America, the once great "shining city sitting upon a hill" is merely a shadow of her once-great self. Our nation is adrift in a cesspool of immorality and debauchery to the point that our "government" is going broke trying to repair a broken nation. So much of the troubles in America are self-inflicted...a result of the church dropping a righteous standard and co-existing with a people who "do what is right within their own eyes."

We are a morally broken people and only Christ can pull us up out of the gutter we find ourselves lying in. But Christians don't seem to care. We pray for ourselves and for those we love, but ignore the reality that our salvation demands that we become workers in HIS field. Unfortunately, "works" has become a dirty word in this greasy-gracie church world in which we operate. Works are nothing more than evidence of what we say we believe. No works no faith.

Most Christians have nothing to show for all of their years in church.

Trust me, I know. Our ministry is focused on getting men and women to engage their faith with the society in which we live. Right now we are working with a skeleton crew. Very few want to get their hands dirty.

Jesus told us that "the fields are white unto harvest." The church is not the field. The church is the barn into which the workers carry the harvest. The job of the church is to bring in the harvest so that more workers can be trained to go out in the fields and bring in a greater harvest.

We must stop spending our time harvesting those that are already in the barn. Our command is to "GO YE THEREFORE!" Simply attending church is not "going."

If you speak with the average church-goer they will agree that the only answer to America's problems is the Gospel, yet they are so unwilling to apply it. Abortion is a Gospel issue, not a "health" issue. Homosexuality is a Gospel issue, not a lifestyle choice. Divorce is a Gospel issue, not a marital one. Addiction is a Gospel issue, not simply a sickness. Government debt is a Gospel issue not merely a spending problem. Every problem America faces is a GOSPEL issue and it is time we stopped looking for the Government to solve Gospel failures.

Pass The Salt Ministries is a boots-on-the-ground ministry, We fight darkness on the streets of America with the life-giving Gospel of the Kingdom of God. We are not Christians who think that they are better than anyone else; it is just that we think it is important to walk out what we claim to believe.

We are actively involved in hurricane relief in the Panhandle of Florida. We have established a beachhead in the area from which we are going to attempt to meet the physical and SPIRITUAL needs of those whose lives have been ravaged by the storm. We would love for you to join our efforts.

If you are interested in putting boots to your faith by getting involved with our relief efforts simply contact me here and we will make arrangements for you to join us. We have housing, showers, food...now we need workers.

If you can't come but would like to support our efforts you can donate here. Our overhead is next to nothing so your dollars go straight to those who need it.

Plus, we share the Gospel. FEMA doesn't do that. The Red Cross doesn't do that. Sadly, the Salvation Army no longer shares the Gospel because of the Federal funding they receive.

We have many great testimonies from those whose faith came alive when they stepped out of their comfort zone and put their faith into action. If you want your faith to be alive you simply have to live it...not study it. Experience is life's greatest teacher.

We are set up to host volunteers at least through Thanksgiving. If you can drag a branch, work a chain saw, or rip out drywall we can use you. There is something fulfilling about helping those who can never repay you.

We are operating with a skeleton crew. Help us put some meat on the bones!! Join our efforts.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

I Hate Sore Losers

As most of you know I spent a life-time in competitive athletics. I have both played and coached at the college level and there was a time when my entire life revolved around the latest sports event. I am competitive by nature and I credit the athletic field with the development of my fierce, never-give-in attitude.

I still love sports although I no longer follow them as closely as I used to. In fact, I have no idea who the final four are in Major League Baseball. I now get my competitive fix from fighting for the life of the pre-born, protecting the innocent from the ravages of the Devil, and exhorting "God's team" to play more effectively in the fight for Truth.

The farther up the ladder I climbed athletically the more respect I developed for my opponents. I understood the hard work and sacrifice that it took to be "the best" and win or lose, a fiercely dedicated opponent made the victory far more satisfying.

As I moved into coaching I carried this philosophy with me and that taught me to never underestimate an opponent. Both teams practice. Both teams work hard. Both teams strive relentlessly to achieve victory. There is no feeling as sweet as a hard fought victory over a worthy opponent.

I remember especially an upset victory we had in an important game way back in 1990. No one expected us to win, but our kids played mistake-free ball and our opponents coughed the football up at a couple of critical moments. I remember jogging to midfield after the game to shake the hand of the opposing coach on my way to the locker room and a huge post game celebration.

"Great game, Coach," I extended my hand to the clearly heart-sick opposition Head Coach. "Your kids played hard."

"We made too damn many mistakes...we gave this game away," he said as he extended his dead-fish handshake to me. "I don't mean to take anything away from you guys but we beat ourselves tonight. Good luck with the rest of your season."

I thought my head was going to explode as I turned and continued my suddenly less enthusiastic jaunt to the locker room.

"What a sore loser," I said to myself. "We worked our butts off and that guy doesn't have the decency to man up and accept the fact that we just kicked his team's tail."

"Heck," I continued under my breath. "We didn't play a perfect game either but we played well enough to kick their hind end and all he could do was make excuses.”

In his mind, our team didn't win, his team lost. There is nothing less sportsmanlike than to diminish the successful efforts of one's opponent. We won dude. You didn't lose. We won. We kicked your butts. Stop making excuses. Stop being a sore loser!

That is the way I feel about the current political climate that we see in America. Hillary and her sorry bunch of over-confident players made the grave mistake of underestimating the opposition and they still don't have the common decency to admit that Trump's team won.

What a bunch of sore losers.

Did Hillary walk to the center of the field after the game and look President Trump in the eye and congratulate him on his wonderful upset victory? Did she have enough respect for him to acknowledge his wonderful game plan and his ability to motivate his team to push the ball across the goal line?

Of course not. She blamed the refs. She called for instant replay and a review of the game films to see if perhaps President Trump had used ineligible players. She called in a special director of referees to investigate his entire team, and even went back and reviewed game films from previous years to see if perhaps he hadn't broken some rules along the way.

She and her fans are still crying about how badly they were robbed even today...two years later. She is hell bent...literally...on overturning the game from two years ago. Her entire team is still in disbelief and refuse to acknowledge the greatest upset in political history.

I hate sore losers.

I left out a part of my story from my coaching days. During pre-game warm-ups that opposing Head Coach walked over to one of our assistant coaches and asked...

"Hey, where is what's his face?" That was what he called me before the game...old What's His Face. I promise you this, after that game he knew my name.

And he never beat one of my teams again.

Hillary and her acolytes are sore losers. They have moaned and groaned for 2 years about how they lost the game, how the referees cheated, and how they are going to kick our butts the next time we play.

Well, fellas, in less than 3 weeks they get another shot at our team...the Trump Deploreables. They better pack their lunch because it is going to be an all day job.

I hate sore losers. Let's rub their faces in the ground. Let's make them cry uncle.

I don't know about you...but this is starting to get personal. This time we will leave no doubt. They will forever remember our name. This one will be fair and square.

When the game is over Hillary, Obama and her crew can take their ball and go home. It is time they stopped sucking on their thumbs.

Did I mention how much I hate sore losers? Get in the game.
www.MeetYouAtThePolls.com

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

We Are At War For This Nation: Meet You At The Polls

Stay with me to the end. Here is an opportunity for YOU to make a difference.

Ever since the miracle of Donald Trump's election nearly two years ago I have been warning anyone who will listen that Donald Trump cannot Make America Great Again! Only the American Christian church can pull off something as dramatic as that.

The recent Kavanaugh freak show was evidence that something is seriously wrong with America's two-party system. There really aren't two parties. For the most part, elected Republicans and Democrats are both on the side of bigger, more expansive government. The idea of principled politicians is a thing of the past. The "swamp" is nothing more than a conglomerate of politicians who desire nothing more than personal advancement and personal enrichment.

You are free to believe that Republican Senators Graham and Collins finally "saw the light" and did the right thing, but I can promise you that their "change of heart" had nothing to do with their integrity. Both were "caught by short hairs" and struck a deal with the men behind the curtain for their personal benefit. Me thinks there is big time stuff going on behind the scenes.

Both parties are corrupt, Ok? However, there really is something known as the "lesser of two evils" and the Demoncrats were exposed for the children of the Devil that they really are. I have no illusions about the darkness on the Republican side; however the wickedness of the Demoncrat leadership has no bottom. They are straight from the pits of hell.

Republican warts aside, how could any CHRISTIAN ever vote for a Demoncrat? The DEVIL's party was on full display. They are clearly anti-American and the greater of two evils. Let me say it again...no CHRISTIAN can ever vote for a Demoncrat. They are the party of abortion and fake marriage. Neither position is Biblical.

Which brings me back to Making America Great Again. It is time for THE CHURCH to get into the game. This is not about Trump, Kavanaugh, or political parties. It is about reclaiming our government one political party at a time. Let's bury the Demoncrats and then go to work on draining the Republican swamp. Hell hath no fury like a Demoncrat victory in November.

Christians in America can restore the rule of law this November. It is time for the churches to get ACTIVELY involved.

A note to our pastors. It is time to lead. It is time to pick a side. It is time to show the MORAL courage and speak the TRUTH to your flocks. Playing both sides of the fence will no longer work. Being neutral is cowardly. LEAD!! We cannot miss the opportunity to MAKE THE CHURCH GREAT AGAIN!

To America's black pastors. Open your stinkin eyes. Get off of the plantation, walk away from the Demoncrats and encourage your flocks to do the same. We can all see it now. Jesus is the author of LIFE and the Demoncrats support death. Life and death have no color. Jesus supports LIFE! Black babies do not matter to the Demoncrats.

The Demoncrat Party is now controlled by anti-American socialists who have wreaked havoc on America since seizing the courts in the late 50's. Their 60 year strong hold on the courts has turned America upside down. They have used the courts to get through policies that they never could have convinced the American people to vote for. The American Church can return sanity to this nation.

Please check out www.MeetYouAtThePolls.com. This is a safe and effective way for the voice of the church to be heard this November. This is YOUR chance, and your Church's chance to play an ACTIVE role in Making America Great Again.

In a nutshell...

We invite you to participate in a series of nation-wide prayer rallies leading up to Election Day, 2018. We believe that...

God-fearing people in our nation are called to be leaders in our communities and participants in the political process.

The Church should be less concerned with being politically correct and more concerned with being Biblically correct.

The Body of Christ needs to put aside our racial differences and unite on behalf of the Kingdom of God.

Our spiritual leaders need to reclaim their God-appointed duty (and exercise their Constitutional right) to speak the FULL measure of God's truth to their congregations.

So what are we asking you to do? Simply this. Spread the word in your church and among your friends to Meet You at the Pole in front of your local city hall, county courthouse or state capitol. We will meet once a week for the four weeks preceding the election, and on Election Day we will move from the flag pole to the ELECTION POLLS. If your pastor is willing take the lead on this and make it a church-wide event, then great! If not, you'll just have to organize from the trenches.

We are at war for this nation. If the CHRISTIANS would flood the polls on November and vote for LIBERTY we push back the Socialist drift of this nation for the next 60 years. What kind of nation will we be leaving to our children and grandchildren if we allow the God-haters to gain control?

Please check out the website and get involved in your local community.

Wake up! Get involved! Get organized in YOUR hometown. Motivate your pastor...and your neighbors. It is not a Red Wave or a Blue WAVE that will change this nation...it is a CHRISTIAN WAVE.

We don't need God's blessing...we need His Mercy. Let's repent of our apathy. Let's repent of our sins. Let's humbly ask the Lord to HEAL OUR LAND. Only then can America Be Great Again! Meet You At The Polls!

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Dems New America: Guilty Until You Prove Your Innocence

Stop the Sexual Profiling

I travel a lot. More than I would like to. I am sitting in the airport typing this. I usually enjoy myself when I get to my destination but the constant suspicion I am under while traveling to and from makes me uncomfortable.

Angry, actually. That would be a better description of what I feel. How did we reach the point in America where we are considered guilty until proven innocent?

That phrase...guilty until proven innocent... has been getting a lot of attention lately with the reputation-mugging of Judge Kavanaugh. But we shouldn't be surprised because the presumption of guilt is evident every time I try to board an airplane. In the eyes of the TSA we are all considered guilty. We have to prove our innocence before we can set foot in the plane.

Security...that is what they tell us. We have to sacrifice our freedom in order to be safe. But why don't I feel any safer after I remove my shoes and give them the opportunity to explore any body cavity they choose in order to prove my innocence?

It is all about conditioning. Racial profiling is bad, they say, so in order to catch the real crooks we must all be considered guilty. It is the new way of doing justice in the good old U S of A.

But even more insidious than the TSA is the blatant sexual profiling of men...especially white Christian men. Can you believe that we even put up with this bunk?

Do me a favor and let me know if you can list one group of Americans that is more profiled than men? If you were to take your cues from the Senate hearings, and make no mistake they are programming you to think a specific way, ALL men are sexual predators. ALL women are honest and would never lie. All women are victims. All men are guilty until they prove their innocence.

White privilege and white guilt are now weapon-ized and used every day in the moral cesspool that we find ourselves navigating through. ALL Christians are bigots. ALL Christians are full of hate. ALL Christians are racist. All Christian men take advantage of women. That is what patriarchy is all about. Guilty until proven innocent. Men are pigs. Ask the women who sleep with women.

Let there be no doubt about it, it is Christianity that the God-haters are hell bent on destroying.

Have you noticed that in the Kavanaugh hearings NO ONE is questioning the integrity of the accuser? Why, she is a woman and we all know that poor, helpless women don't lie. Everyone is falling over backwards speaking about her "bravery" and how "believable" she is. It makes me gag.

I think she is lying. Am I allowed to say that? Is a white male permitted to have an opinion in America anymore? Is it bigotry and sexual harassment simply to question what some appearing-out-of-nowhere babe has to say? Believing her just because she is a woman is a most insidious form of bigotry. Does anatomy now determine veracity? Is a woman to be believed simply because she has a vagina?

Sorry dudes and dudettes, but I ain't buying it.

The real war in America is the war on men.

I don't trust Diane Feinstein, Nancy Pelosi, Hillary Clinton, Kamala Harris, Susan Collins, Maxine Waters, Joy Behar, Whoopi, and Potifar's wife. I think they are conniving, sexist, and power hungry. Everyone lies about sex...remember Bill Clinton's defenders?

Any woman who would support the killing of an unborn baby cannot be trusted. Abortion reveals a great character flaw. Lying about sex would be nothing compared to lying to kill an unborn child.

The freakin men better stand up and start fighting. Women run the home, they run the schools, they run the church, and they run the government. But most importantly, they run the bedroom. Rare is the woman who has made it to the top who has not used her sexuality to her advantage.

There. I said it. I'm tired of the double standard. Evil women sexualize their power. Weak men are putting up with it. If you think that women don't use sex as a weapon you are a fool. What is that saying...hell hath no fury like a woman scorned? A woman would never lie to protect her right to abortion, now would she?

And yes I am married. Thirty nine years next month. My wife loves me and I love her. She agrees with my assessment. Our marriage bed is undefiled. How many elected officials can claim that?

Sexual profiling is making men fearful and weak. Grow a pair, Pal. Stand up and push back.

But we all know that women don't lie...right? Sorry, but lying has no gender. Trump is the only politician with balls. He scares the men as much as the women.

Be sure to vote in November. A vote for Trump's team is a vote for manhood. You are a male by birth but you are a man by choice. It's time to man up fellas.

© 2018 NWV – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Darkness Of The Human Heart

I am saddened by the moral condition of my country. It grieves me that my precious grand children are going to inherit this moral cesspool. The death of America has not happened overnight but the corpse of this once great nation can no longer hide the stench of the rot.

America is a moral wasteland. This is what happens when right and wrong are left to the opinion of men. The rejection of Christ and the elevation of the wisdom of man has our nation gasping for breath. The public crucifixion of Brett Kavanaugh is the death rattle of a nation hell-bent on the rejection of all things Godly. "Innocent until proven guilty" has followed the path of public school prayer.

American Christianity has died, not with a bang, but with a massive explosion of silence. Those who should have known better didn't. Those who could have made a difference chose not to. Those who were charged with the task of "teaching all that I have commanded you," were absent without leave.

We laughed at the Devil. We allowed Hellywood and the media to paint a red tail and horns on him and include him in the cartoons along side of Donald Duck. We laughed at the idea of sin and even welcomed it into our church under the guise of love. Instead of raising the standard for our posterity we lowered it. The more knowledge we gained the more foolish we became. In the Church's desire to be everything to everybody we sacrificed Truth. In our attempt to show the love of Christ we compromised His righteous standard. By trading Truth and Justice for tolerance and diversity we poisoned the immune system of this once seemingly invincible nation.

Can America ever be America again?

Despite what the revisionist historians may say this nation was built with Christianity as the foundation. The Gospel of the Kingdom of God was the Chief Cornerstone and the Rock upon which the entire moral foundation stood. With the assassination of God in 1947 by the Supreme Court decision Everson V Board of Education, the bloodline of America began to bleed out all across the fruited plain.

The Devil lied to us. He told us that we could maintain a nation without a moral code. He told us that love was the center of all of society and it was. But it was the love of CHRIST and HIS precepts that this nation was built upon. When we substituted the love of man over the love of God the cancer began to slowly metastasized throughout the body politic until Jesus stood side by side with Buddha, Mohammed, Confucius, and self as one of many God's who shared Lordship over America.

But Jehovah was a jealous God. He never agreed with His demotion and the equal standing he was forced to share with "other Gods." The warnings of the Bible and of our Fathers were ignored in a desire to build a multi-cultural utopia built on a foundation of sand. Mohammed is not God. Neither were any of the other carpetbaggers who flooded in under the protection of the 1st Amendment. There was room for freedom of other denominations but only under ONE GOD. The freedom to PERSONAL religious practices was guaranteed by The Constitution but only because America was a Christian Nation founded on Christian principles. You could come to America and not be a Christian but you had no right to change America to suit your religion.

That's why we were free. Christ...Christianity...guaranteed that freedom. It can be found nowhere else in the world. "Where the Spirit of the Lord is there is Liberty." Christianity is what guaranteed our freedoms and once Christ was removed as that foundation tyranny began its slow march across all of our institutions. Sadly, today most Americans share very little of importance in common.

Love is an empty word without the embodiment of He that IS love at the foundation of our moral law. "If it feels good do it" is a shaky foundation upon which a nation can be built. Foundations are the pillars upon which a society stands and America's are crumbling. The right of a mother to murder her own unborn child was a lightning bolt that cracked those pillars...a crack from which the pillars have never recovered.

You need to look no further than this for evidence of our Devil-loving citizenry. What kind of people kills their unborn children? What kind of government permits it? What kind of church sits helplessly and watches it? And what kind of people fight to destroy a man simply because he opposes it?

I don't even know if what I have written makes sense. It is a rant more than anything else. An expression of the frustration I deeply feel for the rejection of Truth that our nation has endured. How could Christians have so willingly yielded the authority to the Dark side? If America was a Professional football team I would find another team to root for.

But we are not a football team. We are a nation and we have no Truth upon which we stand.

There is nothing in the world as dark as a human heart unrestrained by a moral code. Trust me...I used to have one. I know, even today, what I am capable of doing without the restraining power of the Holy Spirit.

Teddy Roosevelt once opined "To educate a man in mind and not in morals is to educate a menace to society."

Look around the town in which you live at the many Christian churches that dot the landscape. They are full of people enslaved to the Devil and his minions. America is no longer free because the Church refused to fight. The god of government seized control of America as Christians sold their birthright for a pot of warm stew.

The heart of man is dark. Only Christ can restrain it. Today, does America look more like Billy Graham or Hugh Hefner? Who was the greater evangelist?

Founding Father Charles Winthrop said, "Men, in a word, must necessarily be controlled, either by a power within them, or by a power without them; either by the Word of God, or by the strong arm of man; either by the Bible, or by the bayonet."

We are in the last quarter and the church remains silent as the god-haters pour out into the streets. Hmm...menace to society, eh?

Which will it be church...the Bible or the bayonet? The foundations have crumbled.

If the foundations be destroyed what can the righteous do?
Psalm 11:3.

The moral decline of this great nation rests at the doorstep of lukewarm political correct church, that's 99.9% of them. It looks like the ball is in the church's court.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

It's Time To Start Fighting Like The Girls

"I never saw a football player make a tackle with a smile on his face." –Coach Woody Hayes

I spent the first half of my life engrossed in sports. I loved playing baseball but I especially loved coaching football. There is no sport that teaches the lessons of life better than the lessons learned on the gridiron.

When you get knocked down you have to get up. When you get up you have to go back to the huddle and regroup. When you get up you realize that you can't do it alone and the only way to move forward successfully is as a team.

Is it any wonder The Left is doing everything that they can to destroy football? For as long as America has been around our leaders have been developed on the football field. First The Left they tried to permit girls to play. Then they began to soften the rules on how hard you could tackle. Soon you will see football emasculated like the Boy Scouts.

Isn't it amazing to see that it is always the feminists who want to invade the world of men but rarely do you see men fighting to invade the domicile of women? I was taken to task by a mother one time because I criticized her son for "throwing like a girl." She told me it was demeaning to women. Somebody help me here. How many woman are there pitching in Major League Baseball? I wonder if it has anything to do with the way that women throw.

So, I was a bit hesitant when I originally considered titling this commentary "It is Time for Men to Stop Fighting Like Girls." After some ruminating I came to the conclusion that maybe it would be better if men DID learn to fight like girls...so I changed the title. Heck, girls are the only ones who are permitted to fight in today's culture. Men are taught that weakness is strength.

The truth is, men are afraid of women. I suppose it has something to do with "offending" or "tolerance" or some other nebulous term, but whatever the reason the courage has been sucked right out of the average American male. "Stand up and fight like a man" is tantamount to the N-word today. How dare I be so neanderthalish as to assume that a man can do ANYTHING better than a woman.

But men used to be able to fight. And not only did they fight well but we honored the greatest fighters. Rocky Marciano, Joe Louis, Sonny Liston, Joe Frazier, and Muhammed Ali were the epitome of manhood. Can you even name the World Heavyweight Champion today?

Do you remember Dick Butkus, The Fearsome Foursome, Jimmy Brown, and Vince Lombardi? Real men, known for their TOUGHNESS, were the role models that the young boys aspired to emulate. The Left is doing all they can to destroy manhood. Football, Boy Scouts, and Christianity are all bowing their knees to softness. Not kindness. You can be harsh and masculine and still be kind. Men are trained to be soft. Punching bag soft.

Fighting like a man is no longer permitted. Only the girls are permitted to fight. It is time for the men to start fighting like girls.

I grew up in the 60's. I remember when only the "trampy girls" "did it." Parents trained their daughters with virtue...or at least attempted to. No one excused the immorality of the male, and I certainly don't want to return to those days of double-standard morality, but this is no longer the 60's. Women can't have it both ways. They can't be both a victim and empowered. If you can't take it then you have no business dishing it out.

What if Judge Kavanaugh came out and said "Yeah I did it. But she did it with four other guys that same night. She was a first class slut. She passed it out like candy"

Can you imagine the outrage from The Left?! They would wax on and on about how he was "disparaging" her character without any proof. But yet, she can disparage his character and he is supposed to bend over and take it. Men aren't permitted to fight anymore.

I am so sick of the double standard. I am so sick of elected officials cow-towing to empty accusations. Clarence Thomas, Judge Roy Moore, and now Brett Kavanaugh. If you think this is the last time this play is going to be run then you are not paying attention to what is going on in the world. Hey fellas, did you ever have a lady "tease" you sexually? Wasn't that sexual abuse?

Donald Trump is the only man fighting and all of the sissy men around him are encouraging him to stop. He isn't "Presidential." He is "harsh", "crude", and "misogynistic". While everyone is complaining about the way he punches he is rapidly emerging as the new Heavyweight Champion of the World! The Jezebels hate him, as well as the King Ahab's that the Jezzies hang around with. But he is dropping his opponents one after another.

As Rocky Balboa said "That's how winning is done!"

Like it or not we have entered into a new age in American decorum. This ain't your Grandma's America and even though many of us would like to return to the Fabulous Fifties that train has left the station. The battle for the culture is raging and the American male must adjust. I wish it wasn't true...but feminism is crushing the spirit of the once brave American male.

Here is the take home. Women are driven by emotion. You can get mad at me if you want but the fact that I wrote it does not make it less true. Today emotion is at the heart of every issue we are dealing with. Science no longer matters. Facts are irrelevant. All women are not virtuous and not all men are controlled by their genitalia. Women want to be treated like men...except when it comes to sex.

I am sorry that it has come to this but the ladies can't have it both ways. My mother taught me as a young man that sticks and stones can hurt my bones but that words can never harm me. My mother was wrong. Some of the most severe injuries that I have ever received were a result of words.

Women fight with words. They cause deep wounds. Some men never recover. Look around.

There is a war raging in America and it is a war on manhood.

It is time for the men of America to fight back. It is time to start fighting like the girls.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Big Radio Talkers Need To Start Doing Something

Let me say right up front that I am a talk-radio junkie. Some I like more than others, but I do enjoy listening to what they have to say. Limbaugh, Hannity, Levin, Beck, and Savage et al are tremendous thinkers and even better entertainers.

But that is just it. They are merely entertainers. For the most part, they don't do anything but talk and where I come from we have a saying that "talk is cheap." Well, each of the talkers mentioned above are not cheap...they are all extremely wealthy, rewarded for their ability to entertain.

But for the most part, they are not DOING a darn thing to stop the flood of anti-Americanism that is rushing over this nation. Yep, talk is cheap, and all of the lip-flapping that the Big Talkers have done has not moved the conservative needle one iota in this battle for Truth.

None of them are new kids on the block. In fact, most of them have been around for over two decades and during their time on the air the Left has continued their long march through the institutions as America has slipped farther and farther away from our founding principles.

Stop a minute and name for me six liberal talk show hosts with a national listening audience. You can't. Conservatives have controlled the talk radio airwaves in America while the Left has controlled all of our institutions. How can that possibly be?

It is simple. The Left acts while the Right talks. The Left actually PLAYS the game while the Right analyzes it. We are losing the battle for the soul of this nation because none of the Big Talkers do anything besides talk.

I compare them to color analysts on a college football game. Limbaugh and his cohorts fill the airwaves daily with the color commentary on HOW the game is being played. For three hours a day you can tune in and listen to their expert dissecting of how the "Liberals" are doing this and the "Conservatives" are doing that but they never once do anything to organize any push back.

It is all color commentary on how the game is being played, a dissection of the strategy employed by both teams, and a close up inspection of those who are actually in the arena. I am convinced that they are employed to be pressure valves...designed to make us feel better at the end of the game because we now understand better the nuances of the game and the techniques each of the teams are using.

Meanwhile, the Left continues to ACT while the Right continues to talk. Except for Alex Jones. Now I don't want to get into a discussion about Jones but it sure seems to me that Alex gets a lot of things DONE. So much so that he is being banned from nearly every media platform that the tolerant Left controls. And with the exception of Dr. Savage, have you heard of any of the Big Talkers come to Alex Jones' defense? Isn't it ironic that the one guy who actually DOES rather than TALKS is the one "conservative Taker" that the Left seems to be concerned about?

Why aren't the censoring Limbaugh? He has the largest listening audience in America yet no one is threatening to ban him from any platforms. Could it be because all he does is TALK. "The Big Voice on the Right" he loves to declare. I find it very revealing that they are more afraid of what Alex Jones DOES than what Maja Rushie SAYS. Yep, talk is cheap. Alex Jones is in trouble for FIGHTING in the war while Rush is lauded for commenting on the war.

Rush Limbaugh is the John Madden of politics. He can assess a good game he just can't play it.

We are in desperate times in America and the sole reason for Donald Trump's election was that Mom and Pop America was looking for a leader...a doer...someone who would actually FIGHT for what they believed in. Heck, Beck and Levin were once both never Trumpers, Rush and Hannity were neutral. Don't you find it odd that the voices of conservatism in America were not smart enough to read the tea leaves?

Alex Jones was all in for Trump and so was Michael Savage. The rest of the color commentators only watched the Trump train roll down the rails.

You wanna know why the Right is losing the game? It is because most of our leaders are simply Big Talkers. The deep state hates Doers. Who on the Right actually organizes and fights?

Why won't the Big Talkers DO something? Why haven't any of them organized their audience to push for the defunding of Planned Parenthood? What if Rush took on the project and organized his audience to stop the slaughter of the unborn? What if he actually got involved in the game and organized a play?

What if Sean Hannity organized his massive audience to get to the bottom of what REALLY happened on 911? The average American doesn't know what happened but they know that the story that they have been given simply is not true. Why won't Sean organize his audience to bring the pressure necessary to get to the Truth? Let's look at some game films and run a play.

What if instead of simply talking about it Mark Levin organized a movement to get to the bottom of the corrupt Clinton Foundation? What if he organized protests, phone calls, and rallies demanding government accountability? What if he got out of the press box and went out into the streets?

Our entire nation is bound up in a web of deceit and not one of our national leaders will do a darn thing to expose the lies and corruption. Our nation will never be able to move forward until we right the wrongs in our past. Both parties are complicit. Both teams are dirty. Why in the heck won't the Big Talkers DO something to expose the evils at work in this nation?

Rush Limbaugh has been a daily fixture on the American scene for thirty years. When he rides off into the sunset perhaps they will send his stuff to the Limbaugh wing of the Broadcaster's hall of fame. But it will be nothing more than a large bust of a Big Talker who DID nothing but talk as his nation was destroyed from within.

We all have "talent on loan from God" and we will all be judged by what we DID with that talent...not for what we said.

Time is short. Talk is cheap. Climb out of the press box and on to the field. There are 68 million Deploreables listening to your voices. For God's sake organize them before we lose our country.

There will be time to analyze the game films after the game is over.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Fruit Of Selfishness And Self-Indulgence

I don't know how or when it happened, but somewhere along the path to eternity I have found myself being classified as an elder statesman. That is what a friend called me the other day. My reaction was mixed...honored that someone recognized and respected my wisdom...but saddened that somewhere along the path I had become old.

I sure don't feel old, but I would have to agree that trekking the trail that has been my life has gnarled my fingers in such a way that, crooked though they be, they still point more directly at Truth than they did twenty years ago.

As a wise man once said to me, life would be lived much more correctly were it done in reverse order. If only I had embraced the colonels of wisdom laying like pebbles along my life's journey perhaps so much of my life would have been spent in more productive endeavors. Sometimes life is wasted on the young.

Both of my parents have passed and as I head towards third base in my journey around the diamond I often wish for an opportunity to sit down with them and let them know how sorry I am that I did not honor their wisdom.

It wasn't purposeful...or malicious...it was simply that life and the education system had systematically convinced me that I was so much smarter than they. My father gave everything he had to his factory job as my mother did all she could to ensure a better future for the five children that they sacrificed so much for. Only now do I so clearly see how much they gave so our lives could be richer.

I wish I had a week with each of them to let them know that I now understand their struggle and the great sacrifice that they made that our lives would be better. I wish I had just one week to publicly give them the honor that they deserved.

Children do not honor their parents any more. You see it everywhere you look. Many of my baby-boomer friends are suffering through a period of loneliness as we journey together through the retirement years. My wife and I don't say much because we understand the unspoken pain, but nonetheless we are saddened by what a selfish, ungrateful generation of Americans is waiting in the wings to fill our shoes.

We have lost the idea of honor.

Webster's defines honor as "To reverence; to manifest the highest veneration for, in words and actions; to entertain the most exalted thoughts of; to worship; to adore."

The Fifth Commandment reads "Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."

I find it illustrative that the commandment doesn't speak of love, or veneration, but of honor. It is so sad to watch the way in which our now grown-children so ignore this great expression of love. HONOR your parents. My how we need to teach that once again.

Somewhere along the line we have reversed the equation. The fruit of the self-centered infatuation that we have fanned in the lives of our own children have elevated them to a position that Our Creator never intended for them to occupy. Children were to be loved, trained, nurtured, disciplined, and guided...but never to be honored. A well lived life was to be rewarded with a quiver full of grand-children sitting at the knee of Grandpa. It was the crowning achievement of our life lived on this earth.

Proverbs 17:6 "Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers."

A crown denotes honor. A crown is something that a king wears. Children are the crown of old men and women. It is a sign-post on the road to eternity...recognition that this thing called life lives on long after our days are spent. Grandchildren are the jewels in that crown.

Look around you and notice how many of your senior-citizen friends do not have grandchildren. In our attempt to create a better life for our own kids we have robbed them of the desire to show honor to their parents. The children of baby-boomers are not having children.

This is the fruit of the selfishness and self-indulgence that the fawning over our own children has borne. We dressed them in the finest clothes, put them in the finest schools, and went out of our way to make sure that they knew how "special" they were. We taught them to LOVE but not to honor.

So many of our faithful friends have been wonderful parents and they have sacrificed everything for the future of their own children. But now, as they cruise slowly into retirement, they are a cloud of sadness hovers as their own grown children have eschewed the idea of child bearing. Too busy living the self-centered life that we trained them to live; they are robbing their mother and father of the honor that they are due. A nation will not long survive the sin of self-centeredness.

Michele and I are expecting two new grandchildren as both of our daughters are due around the first of the year. My happiest days are spent on the back porch with a grandchild on each knee. It makes me feel like a King. It helps me touch the future.

I feel bad for my friends. They deserve so much more. There is no greater gift than that of a grandchild. It is sad to watch selfish children deprive their Mom and Dad of the honor they deserve. We are witnessing the death of honor and we have no one to blame but ourselves.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Do You Trust The Government?

I was born in 1952 and grew up in a time when most things involving the government were noble and respected. It grieves me to say that today I no longer trust the government.

How about you? Do you have trust in your government? Do you believe that the government has your best interests at heart? Can you name one department of the government that has not become bloated, corrupted, and unaccountable to anyone other than some other agency of the government?

It has all become so danged political that actual “justice” is now a byword from a long gone era. Do you trust the government?

“Well. So is your old man!” If you are anywhere near my age you will remember that phrase as commonplace a fifty years ago. For those of you born in the 21st Century, the phrase simply meant “it takes on to know one.” Hypocrisy is nothing new in America; it has simply become more commonplace.

I remember driving down the road a few years ago when I saw a political billboard that featured a candidate running for County Prosecutor. “I’ll put the criminals behind bars where they belong,” was the caption that overlaid the picture of some greasy looking candidate.

"Hey dude," I screamed at the billboard as I drove by. "That's not your stinkin' job! "Your job is to provide justice not put criminals behind bars." Our criminal justice system is nothing but a politicized "gotcha" game with the lives of the innocent being the ante on the poker game we call the courts. The purpose of justice is to protect the innocent...not create criminals.

Is there anything more frightful than a visit from a government agent? Too often, the criminal justice system is not interested in justice. How many lives do you know that have been destroyed by "legal" system intent on winning rather than upholding justice? The law is an ass and lawyers and judges love it that way.

I hate what has happened to our nation. I hate the division caused by those who use the government to divide and conquer us. I hate a criminal justice system where one side of the nation roots for the guilt of the president while the other side roots for his innocence. The justice system is not a football game where "fans" root for winners and losers. All of us should root for justice. As Dr King wrote from the Birmingham jail, "Injustice anywhere is injustice everywhere." What has happened to us America?

I want America to be great. I want all Americans to be successful. I want all Americans to play by the same set of rules and I desire that all Americans be judged by those same set of rules.

But that is not happening in America anymore. I don't care what your politics are or which dog you are pulling for in the hunt, our multi-tiered system of justice is not good for anyone. Do you really think the criminal justice system is blind? Do you really think that our justice system works when not everyone has access to the same thing...justice...regardless of their social standing in life? When it comes to right and wrong don't you think that it is time that we all stopped rooting for "our" team?

Do you really think justice is blind? "What you talkin' about Willis?"

Lying is no longer shameful. The end now justifies the means. That is the genesis of Fake News. People lie in order to make sure their team wins. Everyone lies...a half truth is still a lie. If Hillary is guilty then we should demand justice. If Trump is guilty then we should demand justice. "So is your old man" is a poor reason to root for the other guy to lose.

Our nation cannot survive where dishonesty, graft, and personal destruction masquerades as justice. We have become a sick, sick society.

Morality is not relative, no matter what they teach in our public schools. Some things are right and some things are wrong and from the founding of this nation over 242 years ago the standard of right and wrong was the Christian Bible. A nation cannot exist when the standards by which we all agree to treat each other has been reduced to grading on a curve. One set of rules for me and one set of rules for you just cannot work.

The witch hunt of President is not good for America. The investigative double standard is appalling. Neither side roots for justice.

God does not respect one man more than another. We are all equal in His eyes. That is where the idea of justice comes from. Any person who is treated unfairly by our government should have the support of every other citizen. But the scale by which behavior will be judged has been tampered with. There is only one Truth and we should all endeavor to find it...not alter it.

It matters not which side you are on nor which political party you swing the pom poms for we must all strive for justice which is nothing more than equal protection under the law. We were all CREATED EQUAL in the eyes of the law and that governing principle must remain paramount or we will continue the slide into decadence. Average Joe can't get a fair shake from government when Lady Justice is peeking out from under her blindfold.

So let me repeat my question to you. Do you trust your government? From local to federal do you really believe that they endeavor to do what is right or are they nothing more than an arduous task master hell-bent on forcing compliance with unrighteous edicts?

It is time we stopped rooting for candidates and start once again to root for justice. Injustice anywhere is injustice everywhere. Grading on the curve has not worked.

Perhaps that's why you don't trust the government. Folks must think that God grades on a curve.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Truth Decay

There is not enough dental floss or toothpaste left in the world to rescue the American church from its severe battle with truth decay.

I often hear people talk about how crazy things have become in the world and my friends often laugh at the snowflakes that we see whining on television. But what we see on the streets of America is nothing more than the consequences of the truth decay so prevalent in America's churches.

The salt has truly lost its savor. That is what Jesus warned us about during his sermon on the mount. That unless the church held fast to the reigns of Biblical morality the impending results would be a good for nothing form of Christianity.

Look around you and you see the impact of this truth decay everywhere you look.

Jesus commanded us to be "the salt of the earth." In some of His final thoughts before leaving this earth He charged His followers with both a commission and a commandment. Being a Christian was, and still is, so much more than "accepting Christ" and "going to heaven."

"Go into all of the world", I paraphrase him in Matthew 24, "and teach them all things that I have commanded you." "Go" is the commandment and "teach" is the commission. The American church has not done a very good job of either one.

In fact, the exact opposite has happened. As Christians have remained glued to the pews the world has crept into the sanctuary and has replaced the Truth of God's Word with a lie. The world has become the salt of the church. The church has become so worldly and the world so churchy that it is often hard to tell the difference between the two.

Truth decay has taken the bite out of God's Word. That is why our shirts have become so popular. Some of us still realize that "The Truth sounds like Hate to those who Hate the Truth!! (You can get one here.)

As America becomes more and more secular the church has become less and less effective. In a desire to be relevant and accepted the church has adopted the ways of the world. Instead of the church going into the world, the world has flooded into the church.

Truth is not an opinion. Truth is based on facts. Despite what you may have been taught in your local indoctrination center, something is not true simply because one believes that it is. So much of what is being taught in our schools and in our news today simply is not true. Truth does not have two sides to it. Truth is not "fair and balanced." Truth does not have a political label. Truth stands alone.

I am not sure whether truth decay leads to laryngitis or whether laryngitis leads to truth decay but no matter how you slice it the silence of the church has lead to this decomposing of society.

Here are just a few cavities.

For example in Kansas City public schools Boys and girls will share the same restrooms and the churches are defining silent.

Abortion is murder. It is not a "choice. A baby is not part of a woman's body. Fifty percent of the babies in a woman's womb have male attachments; they all have their own separate DNA and blood type. Given time and food the "fetus" will grow into a full-fledged human being. Why doesn't the church rise up and stop it? Truth decay.

There is no such thing as a transsexual. Bruce Jenner will always be Bruce Jenner no matter what he has wacked off and regardless of the makeup he puts on. If they were to exhume his remains 500 years from now and run a DNA test he will be categorized as a female by the intrepid scientist who does the tests. Bruce Jenner is, and always will be, a man. Why does the church accept such foolishness? Truth decay.

Men cannot "marry" Men. The term "marry" comes from the word "marriage" which is defined as "the act of uniting a man and a woman for life." It is actually a synonym for the word “matrimony” which can be translated in Latin to Matri (mother) mony (to make)...hence matrimony is the act of granting a woman the right to be a mother. Holy Matrimony is what the church used to call it. It was God’s idea. It came from the Scriptures. Two men can never consummate a marriage. Why are so many churches compromising on this simple fact? Truth decay.

God hates all sin. He sent His son to die in order to destroy it. God is not OK with sin. He is not OK with sinners. Not everyone goes to heaven. Hell is real and many are on headed there. No matter what the world tells you it is important not to do some things simply because “it feels good” to do so. The Scriptures tell us that God, who is love, “is angry with the wicked every day.” We are warned that God “hates all workers of iniquity,” and that those whose names are not written in the book of life shall be “cast into the lake of fire.” If you are living your Best Life Now you be in a heap of trouble!! Truth decay.

God is VERY intolerant, (He says He is the ONLY way), He loves judgment, and we are warned to “flee immorality.” In fact, John 3 teaches that “apart from Christ the WRATH of God abides” on the sinner.

If God loves the sinner but hates the sin could you please answer one simple question for me? Is it the sin or the sinner that gets thrown into the Lake of Fire?

If you don’t mind me borrowing from the Doobie Brothers...Jesus is not just all right with you.

In ain’t merely Fake News. It’s Truth decay. And it is deadly.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Evil Spirits In High Places

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. –Eph 6:13

Some of you will get this and some of you will not. You laugh it off at your own peril.

So much of what we see going on around us borders on the unexplainable. The absolute madness that the Trump haters display is one of those things. Many of us had a strong dislike for the Obama administration but, we didn't take it to the streets in order to undermine what we viewed as an anti-American administration.

We simply swallowed hard and complied. The day Obama left office was a time of great joy for many of us. As things begin to unfold in all of the investigations surrounding President Trump it is becoming obvious that for the previous eight years the American government has bordered on lawlessness. There is so much to be revealed I am not sure we will be able to handle it once it is fully exposed.

How could government of, by, and for the people become so diabolical? Where did America go wrong? Why do so many Americans look the other way at wrong doing simply because their "party" is in power? How have Americans become so divided?

Evil spirits in "high" places is the answer. (Here is where I am going to lose some of you.) The Bible teaches that the natural (non-born again) man does not understand the things of the spirit. Without an understanding of the spiritual world you CANNOT decipher what is happening in the natural world. Let me dig into this a bit.

A human is a spiritual being that happens to live in a natural world. In fact, although you have a body you are not a body. You are a spirit that LIVES in a body...much as a car transports us around town...your body carries your spirit around in this "material" world.

Every human being enters the world the same way which is through the womb of a woman. The Bible teaches that at the moment of conception a new creation is formed complete with his/her own DNA which science calls the "blueprint of life". Everything that makes you, you, is present at the moment conception occurs.

The Bible teaches that at that same moment a living SOUL is present. The soul is made up of the mind, will, and emotions. The soul is actually YOU. When people communicate with another human it is the soul to which they speak...not the body. The body is merely the encasement in which the soul is housed.

Hence, you are first and foremost a soul (mind, will and emotions) that is given life by the spirit,(Breathe of God) and you operate in this natural world with a body of flesh. You are a soul...not a body. When you die, the spirit/life leaves the body (natural world) and the soul leaves this natural world for a place we have been taught to call "heaven." But heaven is not necessarily the place where "God" lives but represents a non-material world where human flesh cannot operate. This non-material world is what we commonly call the "spiritual" world.

This is where the "spirits in high places" live and operate. I don't have the time to go into it now so do your own research, but suffice it to say that the "spiritual" world is made up of different dimensions. This "spiritual" world, although not a material one like this earthly realm, is very real. There is a gulf (area of separation) between the natural and spiritual dimensions. The only way you can enter the earth realm is by occupying a physical body.

That is what God did. He was born in human form, Jesus, through the womb of a natural woman, Mary. Possessing a body is the only way to enter this earth (natural) realm. The human soul is currently trapped in this natural world but is able to communicate with the spiritual realm. That is the realm where the "evil spirits in high places" operate. The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit is the only way that a "natural man" (human) can ever get victory of "evil" spirits that bombard the natural world continually.

The evil spirits attack humans through the mind. Every evil action begins as a thought. That is why we are taught to "take captive every thought", because bad thoughts lead to bad behavior. It is the MIND that the evil spirits try to influence. This influence of the spirit realm comes through our natural senses...taste, touch, sight...and the desire to fulfill the "natural desires" of the flesh are what causes calamity in the natural world. The Bible calls it sin.

The Bible teaches that when Satan was vamoosed from heaven he took one third of the angels with him. It is from that fall from God's presence that all of the evil has entered into the natural realm. From the time Satan entered the garden he and his minions have been trying to oppose everything that is good. Everything that is good comes from God and Satan and his offspring have worked tirelessly to destroy everything that is good.

That is what we wrestle with...all of us...every human...principality and powers...evil spirits...determined to destroy all that is Godly. What occurs in this natural world is a direct result of what has been occurring in the spiritual (high) realm. The Devil and his children fight humanity through thoughts...planting lies that seem true..."did God really say"...?

God sent His son into this natural realm by the same method we all got here...through the womb of a woman...so that we might gain access to a Spirit greater than the spirits operating in this world. That is the "wrestling" that we all do. Without the Holy Spirit we are powerless against the forces of darkness IN THIS NATURAL realm. The root cause of ALL of America's problems is SPIRITUAL. Sadly, there is no political answer to a spiritual problem.

The "high places" (positions of authority) in America are occupied by natural (non born-again) men. Natural men are prisoners to flesh, natural influences and desires. Money, fame, sex, and power are what drive America's leaders and without the Holy Spirit they are incapable of doing what is right.

That is it in a nut-shell. You can ignore it, or pick at my examples, but we are in the mess we are in because our leaders, and (sadly) our churches have no understanding of what is really going on around them.

The spirits that influence natural men are driving the nation over a cliff. Evil flourishes when good men give yield authority to wickedness. Read Genesis 6 and you will see that the battle has never changed...good versus evil...one will win.

Evil spirits in high places are ruling the world and the average Christian has no idea why. How can we hope to win if we don't understand the fight?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Christian Men Are Kneeling In The Face Of Darkness

Christian Men are So Soft

I don't think there is a nice way to say it...especially if you are not really concerned about being nice. It has reached the point where I am almost embarrassed to identify with the sissified men I see representing Christianity.

What in the world has happened to us? Why is the average Christian man so unlike the Christian men that we find in the Bible?

Pick your Bible hero...my favorite is my namesake David...and take a good hard look at him and see if you see his prototype in America today. Biblical men were real men. They fought evil, spoke the Truth, and usually ended up in trouble with the authorities of their day.

It is only modern Christian men who find solace and comfort in bowing their collective knees to the forces of darkness. Has there ever been a time in the history of the world where Christian leadership regarded compromise as a sign of Godliness?

Compromise is weakness. Jesus didn't compromise. He didn't go along to get along. The greater the opposition for his revolutionary message the more he doubled-down. Despite what may be modeled for you in your own church, the King of Kings was not a passive I'm-ok-you're-ok kind of guy.

They crucified him, you know.

This topic is near and dear to my heart because I am often reminded that my “harshness” is a turnoff to some sissy Christian men who wouldn’t recognize a jock strap if it hit them in the face.

John the Baptist didn’t wear skinny jeans. Jeremiah was not into “friendship” evangelism, and Jesus did not surround himself with cookie-cutter senior pastors, ministers of music, or youth ministers that dot the landscape of America’s churches today. He went after the hard core guys...guys who knew how to get their hands dirty...as opposed to today’s Pastor/CEO’s so prevalent in Evanjellyfishism today.

Where did we come up with the idea that Jesus was a softie...a pushover...a Mister Roger’s clone? Help me here. Can you point out for me even one “hero” in the Scriptures that was a weenie?

Christianity is in dire need of a reformation. How in the name of all that is holy have we come to the point where any man who speaks his mind is un-Christian? Have you read the book of Acts? Don’t you understand that those in the Bible who are most famous are the ones who opposed the status-quo? Paul wrote most of the New Testament FROM JAIL. A jail cell was his pulpit.

Not today. No sir. Anyone who stands up and speaks out is considered a troublemaker. Challenging “the authorities” is now taboo...“sewing discord” is what the religious folks call it. Standing up for the Truth, exposing sin, pushing back against the darkness just isn’t very Christian any more.

I heard from one of the listeners to my show last week that I would be more effective in my ministry if I was more Christ-like in my approach.

“What do you mean by that?” I replied to the email.

“Well, you just seem to be so harsh in your approach. You can catch a lot more flies with honey than you can with vinegar.”

"Well," I responded. "What makes you think I am looking for flies? Flies swarm around things that are dead. Jesus called us to be salt, not sugar."

"Good one," he jabbed. "Our pastor is very soft-spoken and he has built a wonderful ministry at our church. Hundreds come to hear his encouraging message every week."

"Hmmm. It sounds like he has drawn a lot of flies." I quipped. "I like the fly swatter approach better."

Christian men have become so soft.

Despite what they want you to believe, it was harsh, non-compromising, Christian men that built this nation. Compromised, soft, milquetoast, Christian men are giving it away.

Christian American men are so deceived. Soft men do not fight. Soft men look to "reach across the aisle." Soft men pride themselves on their ability to compromise. Soft men tolerate evil. Soft men have soft hands. Soft men go down with a whimper.

Harsh men say harsh things. Harsh men take harsh action. Harsh men inspire real men. The Bible is the story of harsh men taking harsh action during harsh times.

The American Left is harsh. They are Christ-less. They are intent on destroying everything that strong Christian men built. The Left advances only because the Right is soft.

Iron sharpens Iron, the Bible tells us. Well, not today. Iron SOFTENS iron. That is the message of the American church. Sit down, shut up, and get with the program. Don't make waves. God is love. Don't be angry.

Silence in the face of evil is evil itself. Not to speak is to speak. Not to act is to act. Bonhoeffer.

America is being bombarded with evil. Why do we think submission to evil is strength? What type of man cowers in the face of evil?

Soft men. Soft CHRISTIAN men. That's what our churches are producing.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Why The Democrats Want To Control The Supreme Court

Secularization Without Representation

Do you really understand what the war for the Supreme Court is all about?

It isn't about values, or women's rights, or even about the rule of law. Nope, the battle for the Supreme Court is all about POWER !! "Who are you to tell me what I can do with my own body?"

The hypocrisy of those on the LEFT is laughable. The only reason the minions on the LEFT want control of the Supreme Court is because they don't want anyone telling them what they can do or think.

That is their business...telling everyone else what to think. It is called political correctness. The LEFT's entire power base lies in the US Court system where they have been able to ram through every piece of their un-American, anti-Christian agenda. Try as they might they are unable to convince the average American to agree with their diabolical agenda so they stack the courts and use judicial review as the cultural battering ram.

And now, they have the stones to tell Brett Kavanaugh that he can have a place on the Supreme as long as he is willing to keep his deeply held religious values to himself. "It is ok for you to have personal beliefs but you better not let them impact what you rule when making decisions on the court! We control right and wrong," shriek those on the left. "You have no right bringing your conservative religious values into your decision making process. That's the job of atheists and secularists like Ruth Ginsburg, Stephen Breyer, Sonya Sotomayor, and Elena Kagan."

They call it "court precedence" or "stare decisis" which simply means that they have removed all morality by seizing control of the courts and establishing an anti-Christian Constitution for America. Our nation has been de-Christianized simply because a series of "terrorists in black robes" has decided to rule Jesus Christ and His precepts unconstitutional.

In a nation where over 70% of Americans self-identify as Christians don't you find it somewhat prejudicial that a group of non-believers have been granted the right to tell believers what they are permitted to believe?

I call this Secularization Without Representation.

That's what they are telling Brett Kavanaugh. "You can have a seat on The Court as long as you don't try and bring your deeply held religious beliefs into the decision making process. We have already ruled "Christian beliefs" unconstitutional and don't you dare try to come in and undue what we have worked so hard to implement."

The Left has pulled a coup on the American people. Article 1, Section 1 of the US Constitution states: All legislative Powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Courts cannot make laws...they are vested with the power to merely JUDGE the Constitutionality of the law. Roe v Wade is not a law...it is simply a court opinion. The Supreme Court did not legalize abortion...they simply told us it did. A court decision is fake law...the Founders called it "pretended legislation"...and carries no legislative authority.

Follow me here.

In 1947 Everson V Board of Education SCOTUS ruled that there was a "separation between the church and the state." But no law was ever passed. No congress ever legislated it and no president ever signed it. Separation of the Church and State is "pretended legislation."

In 1961 Engel v Vitale SCOTUS ruled that prayer was illegal in American public schools. From our founding prayer was a part of the American culture but 6 unelected judges ruled it unconstitutional. No law, no Congressional discussion, no Presidential signature. "Pretended Legislation."

In 1963 in Abington V Schempp the Court ruled that Bible reading in schools was un-constitutional despite nearly 180 years of having been permitted. No law was passed, no President signed a law, but the Court simply ruled it so. It was "pretended legislation."

Check out Stone v Graham which removed the 10 Commandments, Roe v Wade which "legalized" baby murder, Lawrence v Texas which decriminalized homosexual sodomy, and Obergefell v Hodges which "created" male and male marriage. All "pretended legislation." No matter how hard you look you will not find one law, one Congressional debate, nor one Presidential signature "legalizing" any of the above "pretended legislation."

All of the power in the American government has been stolen from the duly elected legislature and the people who voted for them and granted to 9 unelected lawyers who have overthrown the basic foundations of the US Constitution.

Even if Brett Kavanaugh is granted his seat on the SCOTUS he will do nothing to bring a balance to the SCOTUS that represents the views and values of the American people.

Are you sitting down? Although nearly 50% of all American's only Judge Gorsuch, a former Catholic who converted to the Episcopal Church is the only member of the "Protestant faith" currently sitting on the court. If Kavanaugh makes it he will join fellow Catholics Roberts, Alito, Thomas, (Kennedy and Scalia were Catholic as well) and mesh with Ginsburg, Kagan, Sotomayor, and Breyer (all Jewish). So, the makeup of the court will soon be 4 Catholics, 4 Jews, and 1 Protestant. Just curious...has anyone seen an Evangelical in Washington?

In this age of tolerance and diversity how can it be possible that the largest religious group in America...Bible believing Christians...have NO REPRESENTATION on the highest court in the land? If there is no "religious test" for office in America why is nearly half of the nation not represented?

No wonder America is in such a mess. All beliefs are valued in America...except Christianity. No wonder the Name of Jesus has been criminalized. It is time for the SCOTUS to look like America.

Secularization Without Representation has destroyed this land.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

What Price Are You Willing To Pay To Save America?

It is the 4th of July afternoon as I sit and pen these thoughts. While most of America is out boating or golfing, visiting parades or parents, lighting sparklers or swallowing beverages I find myself sitting at home feeling especially nostalgic.

I don't feel bad and I don't feel sad, I simply FEEL much of what is going on around me. It is something deep, almost spiritual really, that hunt and pecks my fingers across the keyboard. I carved this time out during this day of celebration because my heart is turned toward reflection.

My emotions were triggered by watching one of those corny man-on-the-street interviews so common on social media where a man with a camera and a microphone takes to the streets to prove how dumbed-down the American populace really is.

"What do we celebrate on the 4th of July?" the man with the microphone asked some twenty somethings as they traipsed down the street of a secularized American city. Although the purpose of the video was humor, it was hard to find anything to laugh about as one after another of the cellphone zombies searched their public school lobotomized rolodex to find the answer to such a seemingly simple American history fact.

Ignorance is never pretty to watch and I found very little edification in the-who-gives-a-crap attitude of these possible American voters. I think it was Thomas Jefferson who said something akin to "he who thinks we can remain ignorant and free wishes for what never was or never will be."

How many billions of dollars have Americans spent simply to make people dumber? The National Education Association and the US Department of Education should be brought up on charges of treason. Heck, college educated students today can't distinguish between a man and a woman. Jethro Bodine and Elly May Clampett figured that out without having spent one day at an IVY League school. Why do we pay so much for so many to be so ignorant?

Americans have traded what they dare not lose for what they cannot keep.

My thoughts flowed to Gettysburg this morning and to a recent visit that I made to the "hallowed ground" where on July 1, 2, and 3 of 1863 the most cataclysmic clash in the history of America spilled over the hills of Pennsylvania. On July 3rd nearly 55,000 casualties fell upon the dust of Cemetery Ridge during one blood-soaked morning...Americans killing Americans...

It was those boys I thought of this morning. Not the good for nothing college aged punks streaming onto the streets of America in protest of losing their right to murder their children and in support of a giveaway to foreign invaders the heritage for which their ancestors had, as Lincoln accurately stated, "thus far so nobly advanced."

We are witnessing a travesty in this nation this morning. It grieves my heart that the great-great-grandchildren of the men who spilled the blood at Gettysburg would be so willing to give away what cost their ancestors "their last full measure of devotion." What a slap in the face to their sacrifice.

Did you know that the average age of a Union soldier was 25 years old? Were you aware that over 3 million such American fought each other and that over 700,000 Americans were killed by their fellow Americans? FACTS.

In the 21st century how could so great of a nation produce such selfish and insolent posterity?

So as I surf the net I see the seeds of insurrection bearing fruit as America's recent public school graduates take to the streets with absolutely no knowledge of the sacrifices of those who came before them. The government schools have programmed them...indoctrinated them...in an America-hating ideology force-fed them by the Communistic NEA.

Today, even some "national leaders" are calling for insurrection against a duly elected President. My heart tells me that it will not be long until we see violence in the streets of America.

Here is the take-home. Most Americans just want to be left alone. They are tired of homo-policy gangs, and brutal baby killers masquerading as defenders of children. It is not the Christians that are "forcing their belief on others" but the insurrectionists who demand equally for their deviancy and acceptance of their debauchery. The last I looked it was the Leftist who were using the jackhammers to chip away at American hero monuments across this land.

The chickens are coming home to roost. The children of disobedience are spilling out into our streets. These demonically powered protestors will not go silently into the night. Every major victory the Left has won has been snatched through the courts. Despite what they tell you NONE of their diabolical agenda has ever been approved by the will of the American people.

Freedom isn't free, as the old saying goes, and we now find ourselves facing a caged animal. The Left's last vestige of power, the Supreme Court, is slipping through their fingers and they understand what most of us have yet to figure out. The LEFT rules by tyranny. Forced acceptance is their method of evangelism. The courts are their enforcers of lawlessness.

So, here on Independence Day I pray that you sit with your posterity and explain to them the meaning of independence and the sacrifices that those who came before them made. Although Lincoln's words would have had more meaning had they been uttered by a President that understood individual liberty and State sovereignty they nonetheless ring true today.

It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us – that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion – that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain – that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom – and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

It is a perilous time to be an American and as is often repeated by military veterans who understand sacrifice, ALL GAVE SOME AND SOME GAVE ALL.

America needs a new birth of freedom. Making America Great Again will not come easy. There are enemies of liberty within the camp and they will not go down without a fight. Do you have the courage it will require to birth this spirit of liberty? Look deeply into the eyes of your grandbabies.

What price are you willing to pay?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Left Is Destroying Our Children

I heard a conservative commentator on TV make reference to “the Godless Left” the other night. As so often happens we hear and repeat statements that often give validity to a premise that is factually flawed.

There is no such thing as a “Godless” person. Everyone serves somebody or something. Admit it or not we all find ourselves manipulated by forces beyond our own control.

For some it is an addiction...cigarettes...drugs...cell phones...but whatever we give our time to is what we serve. The “Godless Left” is not really Godless. They are Christ-less...but not Godless. Most of the Godless Left simply serve the “god” of self.

You see it everywhere you look...MY body MY choice...don't judge ME...who are you to tell ME what I can do. When you remove the God of the Bible from society you don't remove God...you simply change the god that is served.

The Bible tells us “that when there was no King in Israel the people did what was right in their own eyes.” Self is now the King over America. If it feels good do it...how better to please the god of self than to feed every one of its carnal desires.

President Theodore Roosevelt once said “to educate a child and not train him in morality is to educate a menace to society.” Our amoral public schools are destroying our nation.

But they are not really amoral...void of morality...but self-moral in that right and wrong is determined by the belief system of the individual. “Everyone doing what is right in his own eyes”...that is the mushy foundation upon which the New America is being built.

It is sinking sand. A nation is no longer a nation if it does not share a common culture. A nation's culture is not determined by skin color, or ethnicity, or gender, but by a common sense of values. A nation where whim is the determining factor in right and wrong cannot possibly survive. If the Truth is constantly changing like Bruce Jenner's gender then it was never really Truth to begin with.

Fake news, fake science, fake education all share the same thing in common. They are all agenda driven. "Truth" is shaped and molded to produce a desired outcome. There is no proof of Darwinian evolution, or gender confusion, or the existence of God, but our children are being taught in government schools that they can create their own Truth simply by manipulating Science.

Millions of dollars are spent annually in an attempt to "prove" evolution while very little scientific research is funded to prove the EXISTENCE of God. This is a perfect example of paying science to prove your already-believed theory. So much of our current educational system is hell-bent on destroying God that the scientific research is directed explicitly at that target. "There is no God and we can prove it!" Except they can't, no matter how hard they try.

But they can use deception. They can create an educational system totally devoid of the God of the Bible and His precepts for how a society is supposed to operate. That system is called multiculturalism which is simply a game plan for how to live together without a common set of values. Tolerance has replaced Truth. One belief is just as valid as another. Who are you to judge? We are all just one big happy family of divergent Truths striving to co-exist on a foundation of sinking sand.

Our churches are the ones to blame. Instead of fighting for Truth and demanding that the Truth be taught to our children we have opened the flood gates and permitted the creation of a theological swamp where Truth is merely one of a thousand opinions and God is recreated to fit the belief system of the individual. When you create your own version of God you can mold Him into your own system of beliefs. The average American Church no longer flies the banner of Truth.

This past weekend a few dozen of my friends and I took the Gospel of Jesus Christ to a local mosque, an abortion clinic, and to a homosexual-shame parade. In each instance we were struck by how obvious it is that The LEFT is feasting on our children.

I remember as a young man reading where Nikita Khrushchev said "Give us a generation and we will give you communism." The plan of the Devil has always been to infiltrate and mislead. Today in America all of our major institutions are under the control of The Left, including the church, and the fruit of that infiltration can be seen on any street in any town in America.

Our children are murdering our grandchildren in abortion clinics around the nation. The homosexualists have seized the government schools to the point that the average American can no longer recognize the evil of male on male butt sex. In fact, neither can our churches. The Pastors and church leaders are accepting and promoting perversions which fly in the face of the "laws of Nature and of Nature's God."

If our churches no longer recognize right from wrong what hope do our children have?

The next generation of Americans has very little in common with the morality of their grandparents. Give them sex, drugs, video games...anything but JESUS!! That is how The Left is destroying our children.

Below are three short videos of our Gospel outreach this past weekend. Watch them and weep. The church is asleep in the light. The Devil is eating our children.

Mosque [YouTube Video]

Abortion [YouTube Video]

Homo [YouTube Video]

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

America Will Never Be Great And Free As Long As We Keep Denying Truth

Stop Denying The Truth

"You shall know the Truth and the truth shall make you free."
–Jesus Christ

A lie only is effective if you choose to believe it. The fact that you believe something does not, in itself, make something true. Sadly, in today's world where knowledge is ever increasing, so much of what the average American believes is not true.

Willful ignorance is a good way of describing it. Much of what we believe is "true" only because we want it to be. Denial of the Truth does not make the Truth go away.

Truth does not have two sides. Truth is not fair and balanced. Truth stands on its own two feet and is never diminished by debate. Opinion is not Truth and Truth is not an opinion. At the core, the battle raging in America is over Truth.

As damaging and discouraging as it might be, only Truth can lead to freedom. Believing you are not sick will not make you well. Thinking you are free does not make it so. Hoping for the best does not cancel consequences.

So much of what we believe simply is not true.

We are told that religion and politics make strange bedfellows but I am not so sure that they do. Much of religion is fraught with half-truths manipulated by the will and desires of sinful men. Politicians are much the same as our religious leaders. They manipulate the truth because the results justify the methods.

If I may toot my own horn for a second, I was a fairly successful high school coach of a variety of sports and one of the reasons I was successful is that I was direct. I refused to lie to myself or to the players about what was required. Most successful coaches have enemies and in most cases the enemies will be those who choose to deny truth.

Truth places blame in the proper lap. Truth limits the ability to parse and point fingers. Truth is the touchstone of cause and effect. That is why it is so freeing. There is no way to find the proper cure if one is not willing to diagnose the proper cause.

Pro-aborts dehumanize the unborn. They have to. How else could they get away with murder? For over four decades they have told us lies about the pre-born. You can rattle them off...it is a fetus...it is not viable...it cannot think...it has no self-awareness...it is a blob of tissue...it is a clump of cells...it is part of the woman's body. It is the same argument that the Nazi's used with the gas chambers and that the lynch mobs used with blacks. The dead weren't totally human so therefore it was ok to exterminate them.

But we knew better. We all did. We knew it when Dred Scott declared that blacks weren't fully human and when Hitler declared that the Jews were sub-human. We knew better. We know better today. Our ignorance is simply...convenient...willful...selfish. Calling an unborn human being non-human does not make it so.

Take a look at this picture. It is harsh. It is convicting. It is tragic. Yet we know it is real. We know that "thing" growing inside a woman is a baby...what else could it be? Calling it by some other term does not make it any less human. Making it "legal" does not make it right.

You would have to search long and hard throughout history to find anything as massively evil as the willful slaughter of an unborn human being. Yet this action is commonplace in America...legal...in a nation that loves to talk about fairness...diversity...equal rights...and protecting the weak.

Abortion is the ultimate bullying in a nation that claims to decry the powerful picking on the powerless. What could be more helpless than an unborn child totally dependent on the love of another? Yet we legalize it...glorify it actually...grant special rights and financial support to those who engage in the practice of it. Love thy neighbor? Give me a break.

Child sacrifice is all one big lie. We all know the Truth. Our judges know it. Our elected officials know it. Our police officers know it. Planned Parenthood knows it. The Republican Party knows it. The Democrats know it.

But our pastors know it too. And so do the disengaged men and women sitting in the pews. They know blacks are not 3/5 human. They know Jews are not animals, and they know the fetus is a living human being.

Life is the greatest of all gifts that God has given to man. How can we fight so hard for our own life and be so cavalier about the life of another?

Abortion has not made America great. As long as we permit it we will never be.

Christianity is anchored upon the life of a man who identified Himself as Truth. The Church was God's antidote to the lies. Yet the church has embraced the lies. Darkness and light now are in fellowship in the House of God.

Speaking such Truth today is considered harsh and divisive. Child murder continues because the light has gone out in the church.

Abortion is murder and murder is not lawful. It is not healthcare. No one has the right to choose death for another. Abortion is mean. In our hearts...we all know that.

America will never be great as long as we kill our offspring. Stop the denial. Only the truth can set us free.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Are Christians Allowed To Get Angry?

I don't know if you have ever taken the time to watch my daily show. If not, it would be worth your time to give it a try. It airs live every weekday morning at 7 EDT and is archived for later viewing and downloading. It is free.

Just this morning we wondered aloud just what would be considered Christian values. In other words, what would be the fruit of a Christian man's life? How do you tell whether or not a man is a Christian? What does a Christian look like? How does a Christian react to adversity?

Check it out here. It is guaranteed to challenge the way you think.

One of the questions we focused on today was "Are Christians Allowed to Get Angry." As we tossed about the characteristics of a Christian man I was struck by the fact that it is assumed by most Christians that to be angry is a sin.

In fact, that is one of the weapons that the God haters use to tame Christians. As one of our participants in the show said, "God didn't save you to tame you." Whenever I hear criticism about the show it is usually the same lament. "Just a bunch of angry white men." The assumption is two-fold. If you are white you are not permitted to be angry...and if you ARE angry then you are not very Christian.

Hence the question, are Christians Allowed to Be Angry?

The Scriptures are replete with verses referring to the WRATH of God, so apparently God is ok with anger. The Psalmist told us that "God is angry with the wicked every day." Jesus, (the nicer, born-again version of Jehovah) stormed into the Temple and made a mess of the place in a fit of rage.

But Christians are not supposed to get angry. It is a sin some of our more passive Christian leaders tell us. We are supposed to look like and represent Jesus wherever we go.

If that is true then why is anger not considered a Christian value?

(Are you getting nervous yet?)

Why do Christians only want to talk about the love of God and never the wrath of God? Is it ever permissible for a Christian to get ticked off? Ever hear of righteous anger? Is anger an emotion only permitted for the unrighteous to use?

Well, sorry to burst your bubble but I am angry. Why aren't you?

Our own government is slaughtering babies in the womb with my tax dollars and there is no anger from the church. The God-created institution of marriage is being drug through the mud and there is no outrage. Our public schools are exposing sexual deviancy to elementary school children and no one is ticked off. Our government is burdening families by theft in the form of excessive taxation and not one face gets red. The Name of Jesus is denied entry into our tax-payer funded schools and our pastors line up to heap praise on the "wonderful" public schools.

Ain't it about time somebody got pissed off? (Most of you are angrier I used the P word than you are about abortion?)

I was reading the Scripture's before my show the other day and I came across Ephesians 4:26 "Be ye angry and sin not: let the sun go down on your wrath." I was struck by what the verse didn't say. Paul never said DON'T GET ANGRY, but rather, deal with the anger before you go to sleep.

Stay with me here...

In the book of James we are warned that "therefore for him who knoweth to do good and not to do it to him it is sin." Could it be that the sin is not in getting angry...but in refusing to act righteously regarding the sin you have seen committed? Injustice should make you righteously angry...as should all of the sin being codified into law. Has any of it made you angry? Have you ever felt an urging to do something about it? Do you know what is good but refuse to do it?

Here is the rub. God has NEVER granted us the right to remain angry about something that PERSONALLY offends us. It is in that situation that we are exhorted to "turn the other cheek." But when we see an injustice done to an innocent person, or unrighteousness codified into law it is our obligation to stand up with righteous indignation and oppose it.

Anger should propel us into action. That's why Jesus flipped over the tables. That's why David slew the Giant. "I come at you IN THE NAME OF THE LORD whom thou have defied." Not putting anger into proper action is sin. Tolerating, accepting, or being non-judgmental regarding the things that God obviously opposes is the opposite of what a Christian man should do.

The church fights anger more than we fight sin. Anger should propel us into action in a way that glorifies the Lord. Accepting sin does not glorify the Lord. In fact, it is just the opposite. That's why he is angry with the wicked every day.

Why aren't we? Why hasn't your anger motivated you into action? Is your failure to act upon your anger sinful?

I know it may not be very easy for you to imagine but what would happen to abortion if Christians really got angry about it? What if we saw it as murder? What if your Pastor got angry about it? God hates murder. Why don't we? Why are we so tolerant of what angers the Lord?

Why we are ashamed to admit that God has enemies? Why are we so unwilling to call them out? Why does the “church” think it is wrong to fight for what is righteous? If we are made in the image of God and God is angry every day then why aren’t we? I say it is time to get peed off about God getting peed on.

I am not ashamed to admit that I am angry. Does that mean I am no longer a Christian?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Thanks To Trump People Are Finally Beginning To Wake Up

It is Time to Buckle Up

I don’t know if you are aware of it or not but America is in the midst of the greatest landslide in history. The seismic shift I am referring to has nothing to do with election totals or opinion polls, but rather a culmination of events that will forever alter the lay of the land. It is time to buckle up.

So much of our lives are programmed by others. It is subtle, but a quick glance over your shoulder will confirm what you are about to read. People are finally beginning to awaken from a self-induced slumber after generations of permitting others to make their life choices for them. Both the sheep and goats have been imprisoned by their desire to be led.

From the school house to the church house Americans have forgotten how to think for themselves. Hitler is reported to have said "tell a lie long enough and loud enough and it will eventually become the Truth."

For over twenty years I have been awake to the lie that there are two political parties operating in Washington. Their entire plan has been to convince you that there are two sides to every issue and one of the parties is on your side and the other side is the enemy.

Two legs of the same bug is the way I described it back in 2008. It would be worth your time to READ THIS prescient article.

The internet has saved us. The Alt Media has given us a fighting chance. The two-party system is gasping for breath. We have Donald Trump to thank for that. The Alt Media...the internet...conservative talk radio...has become THE mainstream media. The days of sitting around and swallowing Walter Cronkite's bilge has come to a screeching halt. The corporate media still has not figured out what is going on.

Days before the election of 2016 I stopped by my older brother's house and as usual he had MSNBC on in the background in his living room. As a dyed-in-the-wool union Democrat he had blindly pulled the lever for socialism his entire voting life.

"Who are you voting for Dan?" I half joked.

"Trump!" He growled his immediate response.

"What!? You never voted for a Republican in your life. What's going on?"

"Trump ain't no Republican. He's an American. I'm sick of all them damn politicians."

That was my first indication of the quaking that was about to erupt out of the core of the heartland.

Donald Trump is not a Republican. That is what most Americans are slowly figuring out.

What we are about to witness in the next few months will shake blue-pill Americans to their very core. The corruption in the American political system is so deep that the average uninformed American will not know what hit him/her.

The two party, divide and conquer government scheme is about to come to a crashing halt as those from both sides of the aisle are going to be exposed for the deep swamp creatures that they really are. The corrosive nature of power, money, and politics is about to implode as the faux conservative/liberal divide gets peeled open and exposed to the light. And by the way, it's the same in your local city or county government level. In Washington, it's called the "Deep State", on your local level it's called the "Good-Ole-Boy" system. Its the same evil. Lie to the people, screw them out of their hard earned money, and live high on the hog. Than, by chance if some honest naïve soul gets elected, destroy him or her and get them recalled with lies that's fueled by your local liberal news paper.

My friends, there are not two sides to the Truth. After two decades of watching Fox News American is finally awakening to the fact that there is no such thing as fair and balanced TRUTH. Personal opinion is the genesis of fake news. For too long we have been programmed to believe that something is true simply because we believe it. Opinion is not truth and truth is not an opinion. The Truth stands on its own two feet.

The wild card in this whole American mess is the once Truth-filled American church. The success or failure of our society rests not in the political process but will be directly proportional to the degree to which our pulpits strike the plumb line. Only Truth can ultimately prevail.

Jesus warned us that we will know others by the fruit that their lives produce. It is time for our pulpits to once again train us to be fruit inspectors.

The darkness that is about to be brought into the light is going to shake America and Americans to their very core. I pray the sheer debauchery of our leaders will drive us to our knees.

Jesus came into my life in 1988. He changed everything about me. I know what a wretch I was and what a wretch I could be today if it were not for the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. I know, even today, what evil I am capable of in the darkness of my fleshly heart.

Some of you know what I mean...some of you have no clue what I am referring to. That is the great divide...redeemed and not redeemed...not Republican and Democrat.

Imagine you are elected to Congress with a very weak moral compass. Imagine the frills and benefits that accompany that position. Imagine how hard it would be to keep your nose clean. Imagine how hard it would be if you were part of the protected class and that your debauchery would never be in danger of exposure. Imagine you had friends in high places in the Justice Department who would be willing to overlook your foibles. Imagine it didn't matter what political party you were a part of because it was all one big club.

Imagine an outsider gets elected and an upsetting of the apple cart.

The apple cart is about to be rolled over and we will see the folly of the two-party system. Things are going to get messy. The Swamp will not go quietly. To paraphrase my brother, Donald Trump ain't no saint. Will God's team be ready to pick up the pieces? God uses people to do His work. If He was to wait for a perfect person there wouldn't be anybody doing His work. All the Jesus' apostles weren't perfect ether. However, they had a fertile spirit that God could plant His seed in.

Thank God for Trump and thank God for America.

It is time to buckle up.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Work While the Sun Shines

Please forgive me if I don't happen to share in the euphoria currently emanating from the Evanjellyfish who are going ga ga over the moving of the American embassy to Jerusalem.

It has nothing to do with whether or not I am anti-Semitic or pro-Semitic, or whether I support Israel or don't support Israel. To be perfectly honest with you it has absolutely no bearing on how I live my life.

But the same is not true with other Christians...at least many who choose to write all over my walls at Facebook. (I never understood why they felt they had the right to write derogatory stuff on MY PAGE. I'd boot them out of my house if they pulled out a paint brush and starting attacking the drywall in my physical home.)

Dare I say it? The absolute worship of Jerusalem and Israel by Evanjelly-culls has my head spinning. Is it possible to be Semite-neutral? Am I in danger of hell fire damnation simply because I don't get my Israel pom poms out? I am Pro-Israel...whatever that means. But I am also Pro-American, Pro-German, Pro-human. Does that disqualify me as a real Christian?

Permit me to connect a couple of dots for you, as least in regards to how I live my life. I am extremely excited about the job that Donald Trump is doing as President. Naturally, I don't agree with everything he does, but most of us don't agree with EVERYTHING Jesus did. All in all I think he is doing a great job.

I also find it encouraging that President Trump has followed through on his promise to recognize Jerusalem as the capital of Israel. I understand the Biblical significance of the nation of Israel and all of the promises that God made towards them.

But neither one of those events...the election of Donald Trump and the acknowledgement of Jerusalem...have changed the course of my life one iota. To me, both events are merely sign posts that God is up to something. I think the jury is out on both of these remarkable events as to whether they will ultimately be for our good or for our demise.

Understand, I don't deny the hand of God in both events but I think it would be foolish to connect a Biblical significance as to how and when this whole thing is going to play out.

I got up this morning, did my internet show, and made plans for ministry outreaches for the rest of the week. Moving the US Embassy to Jerusalem has done nothing to alter the way I live my life.

A sign post is nothing more than a land mark that signifies a particular point of reference when on a journey. Our interstate highways have mile-markers which help verify that you have not lost your way. They are simply confirmations, or warnings, that you are heading in the direction that you intended to go.

The moving of the embassy to Jerusalem is a mile marker...a confirmation that the plan that God laid out is still in operation. But most of my Jellyfish friends are acting as if it was a destination. That now that we have passed that Jerusalem-marker we are simply a few exits away from our arriving at the end of our journey.

That, my friends, is a dangerous assumption to make. Although the mile-marker can encourage us that the journey is nearing an end, sometimes the last few miles of a trip can take the longest. What if there is a traffic jam ahead which makes the final miles much longer to navigate than we had anticipated?

"How long till we get there?" The jellyfish cry out to the driver.

"I'll let you know when we arrive." Isn't that what Jesus told us? "No man knows the day or the hour."

I am sorry to quell your excitement about the imminent return of Jesus and the sky splitting rapture of the church. Rather than doing all you can to hurry along to the end of the trip wouldn't we be wise to obey His words to "Work while the sun shines for a day commeth when no one can work?"

Be honest with me now. Have the recent events in the Middle East changed your life in any significant way? Has the election of Donald Trump really altered what you do in your daily life? If the answer to either one of those questions is affirmative then you are missing the most significant part of your life. Your impact, your work, your effectiveness is most felt right where you live. Try as you might...no matter how much you pray for the peace of Jerusalem you will not speed up nor slow down God's prophetic time clock.

It ain't over till He says it is over.

Get your head out of the sky and look around you. If the clock really is getting ready to strike zero don't you think you should spend some time warning those around you? In your daily life are there people that you come in contact with every day who need to hear the message of the Kingdom of God? Shouldn't we be working everyday to get as many bales of hay on to the wagon as we possibly can?

I just took a peak outside my window and the sun is shining. I guess that means it is time for me to get out of my easy chair, put away my computer, and get to work. The sign posts are there. We are getting close to the end.

I don't worry about the rapture. I'm too busy working. If the trumpet blast sounds I think I will be on the first busload out. I just want to make sure that the bus is full when the journey ends. That's what the Lord wants as well. That's the work he wants us to do. Fill the bus.

Get your eyes out of the Middle East and get to work right where you live. Real lives are counting on you.

...For a day commeth when no man can work.

Do I have to believe in the Rapture to be part of it?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Are You Lost in Your Religion?

"So just what religion are you?" I had a man ask me on the street the other day.

"Christian." I responded.

"That's not what I mean. Where do you go to church? Are you a Baptist or something?"

"No." I responded. "I am a Christian...a believer...a follower of Jesus Christ. I don't consider myself a part of any organized religious organization."

"So you don't go to church?" He persisted.

"Well, sort of. You see I believe that we as individuals make up the church. Church isn't some place you go but something you are part of. We are all part of the Body of Jesus...the Body of Christ."

"Communion?" He said.

"Huh?"

"I used to go to church and I thought that communion was the body of Christ. That's what they taught me when I was in Sunday school. The blood and body of Jesus. The minister gave it to us at the end of the service."

(WOW. Not sure who's head was spinning more.)

"That's not the same thing." I continued. "Communion is a religious ceremony...a means by which man tries to get closer to God. Communion is really pretty meaningless if you are not part of the church."

"So you do go to church? Where? What religion are you?"

I took a deep breath mixed with prayer. "Religion is a set of rules and regulations designed to control the people. Some of them are good, but most of them are simply traditions. That is where people get confused. Religion is rule following. Christianity is a relationship."

"Who forgives your sins?" He asked.

"What?"

"If you don't go to church who forgives you of your sins?"

"Jesus does. That's what it means to be born again. Accepting Christ as your Savior makes you a member of His church...the Body."

"So you do go to church."

"Look Mike. Christianity is not a religion. That is why there are so many different churches in the world. Each church has their own set of rules and regulations that they think you are supposed to follow. Some things all churches agree on...somethings they don't. That's why there are different churches and different religions"

"So what do you believe?" He asked me. "If you don't go to church how do you know what rules to follow?"

'That's why I read the Bible. The Bible is God's Word and that is where we learn how to live?"

"Who teaches you what the Bibles says?"

"I read it for myself."

"What? How do you understand what it says? Who explains it to you?"

"The Holy Spirit."

"Huh?" Who explains what the Bible says? Do you have some special training that taught you what the Bible says?"

"No. The Bible is God's Word and He wrote it so that we could read it. Parts of it can be confusing but if you have received Christ the Spirit will direct your steps. You may need help understanding some things but you will find God in the Bible...not in the church building that you attend."

"But I thought they called the church the house of God...how can you know Him if you don't go to his house?"

"I am the house of God. God is a Spirit and He lives inside me. Sort of like breath in my lungs. As part of His body His breath flows through me. He lives in me. I am His temple...his church. You see, it isn't the church building that saves you it is the Spirit of God that saves you. A lot of people who go to church don't know Jesus and that is why they think they have to go to the church to visit Him. He lives inside of every believer. That is what it means that we are the body of Christ."

"I'm confused." He lamented. "I have never heard any of this talk before and I was in church regularly when I was a kid. No one ever told me anything about no relationship with Jesus."

"Well Mike, going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than sleeping in a chicken coop makes you a rooster. It is about being born again and having a relationship with Christ. It is open and available to whosoever wants to be part of the family."

"Dang...that is so cool. I'd love to learn more about it. Where did you say you go to church?"

Sooo many are lost in religion.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Shocking Of What Is Being Taught To Our Children

It's Not Natural

I continue to be amazed at what we are teaching our children. Those (whoever they are) that are in charge of what is being taught to our children in America's public schools have lost their stinkin minds.

They're "public" schools, you know. Meaning that what is taught is what is commonly seen as "normal" in the public sector.

Webster's 1828 dictionary is my favorite place to go when I get stuck on words and especially the meaning of them. So I recently visited my favorite online resource www.webstersdictionary1828.com as I watched the tomfoolery masquerading as education in this nation.

Natural, as defined by Webster's, "Pertaining to nature; produced or effected by nature, or by the laws of growth, formation or motion impressed on bodies or beings by divine power."

In the simplest terms, natural would be described as the way things go if not impacted or acted upon by some outside source.

Growing is natural when the body is provided nutrients. The changing of the seasons is natural. Seed corn produces ears of corn. Soy bean seeds produce soy beans. After their own kind is how the Bible refers to reproduction in nature. According to Biology all living things reproduce.

In fact, nature is the whole basis of the "climate change/global warming" scam. The proponents of this fake science argue that the climate is behaving unnaturally because of the intervention of the human species.

Weather is natural...man-made climate change is not. So, even the science deniers admit that nature has a natural course upon which it should function. Outside influences, they claim, alter nature and thus create an "unnatural" weather pattern.

Sadly, because they are so biased by their religious worship of science, they are unable to apply the same standard to other “abnormalities” that they see in the world. Hence, homosexuality becomes normal. An unborn baby becomes a fetus. But all “unnatural” behavior does have consequences.

Heck, the science worshipers are attempting to alter nature by simply denying what is considered a “normal” scientific fact that all living things are born either male or female. Although there are exceptions in nature where a form of asexual behavior is displayed, all “normal” creatures, especially mammals, are identified as either male or female at the moment of conception. Ender is a made-up word.

This is genetics 101. It is called DNA folks. All “normal” human beings are born either male or female. Exceptions to this rule would be called “abnormal” and the acting on sexual impulses outside of male/female would be classified as such. Homosex acts will never lead to reproduction. That’s one of the things that make it unnatural.

Our friends at Webster’s would like us to know that “unnatural” means “Not in conformity to nature; not agreeable to the real state of persons or things not representing nature; as affected and unnatural thoughts; unnatural images or descriptions.”

“Not conforming to nature” is what makes certain behaviors “unnatural.” Sorry friends, but all of this gender confusion that is popping up all across America is NOT NATURAL no matter how much the religious scientists try to bombard your mind in the interest of fairness and tolerance.

Homosex is sin. Abortion is sin. Transgenderism is sin. That’s why they have to eliminate Christianity. If there is no Christianity then there is no right and wrong. There is no “normal”. There is no sin. They have to eliminate “sin” in order to “normalize” unnatural behavior.

The sexual act is a behavior. Abortion is a behavior. Cross-dressing is a behavior. None of those behaviors are “natural.”

Why are those of us who are lucky enough to be born “normal” so willing to permit “abnormal” behavior to be normalized to our children?

Alcoholism is not normal. Drug abuse is not normal. Lying is normal, but wrong. Stealing is a natural urge, but wrong. Why are we so willing to confuse our children by not pointing out the obvious? ALL behavior is either right or wrong. Attacking “natural” law and “normal” behavior does not make abnormal behavior natural?

Are you following me?

I just saw where sexual deviant Bruce Jenner is engaged to marry another sexual deviant. Here is the story and here is the skinny. Bruce Jenner, who now calls himself Caitlyn, is engaged to marry a transgendered student 47 years younger than Jenner. His “bride” is a man who has changed to a woman. So Bruce, a cross-dressing man who identifies as a woman is marrying a cross-dressing man who also now identifies as a woman.

Can someone help me with the XX and XY Chromosomes in this “marriage?” Sorry folks, try as they might they can never make this relationship “natural.”

What is wrong with us? Why do we permit our “public” schools to violate scientific standards and teach our children that unnatural behavior is normal? Our friends at Webster’s tell us that public “expresses something common to mankind at large, to a nation, state, city or town, and is opposed to private, which denotes what belongs to an individual, to a family, to a company or corporation.”

Unnatural, abnormal behavior, should not receive the approval and special status granted it by the “public.”

Unnatural is not normal. Abnormal is not natural. The “laws of nature” declare it so. When man messes with the climate the religious scientists want us to know that it is a result of “unnatural” behavior of man. Why don’t we demand they apply the same standard to human “social behavior?”

Climate change is natural. Deviant sexual behavior is not.

Why don’t we demand that they teach our children the Truth?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Censorship Of Christian Values Is Happening All Across America

How Low Can The Christianity Haters Go?

My conscience compels me to write this but I don’t suggest you read it.

You read that correctly. If I was you I wouldn’t want to read this.

If you insist on ignoring my warning and reading it anyway perhaps you should prepare yourself by taking a moment to read ROMANS 1 which explains from a spiritual perspective what it is you are about to see.

I warn you again. THIS IS VULGAR and it is taking place in Cleveland next weekend and soon an American city near you.

Recently Brannon House, the leader of the Christian ministry Worldview Weekend had several seminars cancelled at hotels in the upper Midwest. Mr. House's ministry is designed to alert and inform Christians about the enemies of Christianity that are currently working over-time to undermine Christianity.

Here is a firsthand account of what the Islamists and the Marxists did to Mr. House and his organization. In a nutshell, Christ-hating groups organized to shut down Mr. Houses' events at hotels that he had legally contracted with to hold his seminars. The hotels cancelled his events and left his ministry holding the bag for nearly $20,000 in expenses he had hoped to recoup from offerings taken at the seminars.

This censorship of Christian values is happening all across America. One need look no farther than what Facebook, Youtube, and Google has been caught doing with "conservative" groups on their social media platforms.

I suppose we are expected to just sit back and take it. After all, Jesus told us to "turn the other cheek", right? We should never fight back or stand up for what we believe. That wouldn't be very Christian, now would it?

I hope Worldview Weekend sues SOMEBODY into oblivion.

Are you ready for the gross part?

Here is an example of what IS accepted and approved up in YOUR neighborhood brought to you by the homosexual deviants that many of the modern church so openly embrace? Are you ready?

Be forewarned you may need to get out the Lysol or the Raid...I am not sure which is more appropriate...and imagine your next family outing to a getaway weekend at the local Westin or Hampton Inn.

Some of my regular websites may not post this, and most of the readers will NEVER forward this. It just doesn't fit the mold of our contrived view of homosexuality. I bet YOU won't forward it. THE TRUTH SOUNDS LIKE HATE TO THOSE WHO HATE THE TRUTH.

Here we go.

Go to this website. This is the website that will connect you to the travelling debauchery that is being hosted by hotels around the nation.

I warn you...this is sickening.

Their next "event" is in Cleveland, Ohio on April 26-29. The entire hotel is closed to the public during the weekend as the guests come and learn about the latest sexual deviancy.

(Remember, Brannon House was not given the freedom to hold his seminars.)

What seminar would you like to attend in Cleveland? Here is a list of "skills" being demonstrated for the weekend.

(You have travelled this far...take a minute and look at the "classes" offered). Aren't these a violation of the public health? Would you like for your family to unknowingly stay in the hotel the night after this wicked event is over? Don't you think the hotel has a duty to tell future guests what went on in the conference room the previous weekend? Would you want to hold your meeting in a banquet room the night after this group left?

Please understand...these programs involve hands on (sorry) attendee participation.

How about participating in a seminar called INTRO INTO FISTING(10 am Thursday). Fisting is putting your fist where the sun don't shine.

Perhaps you would enjoy SCAT: BEYOND BROWN. (3:30 Friday)
SCAT is how to enjoy homos pooping on each other during sex.

If you are a novice perhaps you would like to learn more about ASS PLAY: FILL THAT HOLE. (7 PM Thursday). I don't think this needs much explanation.

Folks...this is going on in public venues in America while at the same time the voice of Christian/Conservatives is being silenced all across the land.

Our government officials are either bought off or afraid of the radical homosexual mafia. They love to tell us that homosexuals are just like everyone else and they only want to love the person of their choice.

Don't believe it. Radical homosexual behavior is deadly and in hotels all across America customers are being put in danger due to the acceptance of deviant sexual practices all across this nation. This is a direct threat to public health.

Brannon House and the Worldview Weekend folks are not free to explain how the Devil is working in America while the Devil's kids are free to practice all forms of debauchery in public venues.

If you would like more information on our plan to push back against this darkness visit AFT

How low are we willing to let the deviants go?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Put Down Your Smart Phone And Help Trump Fight For Your Country, Or Lose It Forever

I hope Mark Zuckerberg goes to jail.

I'm sick of the snot-nosed billionaire and the collection of snowflakes that regulate free speech on the social media Nephilim.

What a bunch of weenies. No wonder America is in such a mess. Just who the heck do they think they are when they try to determine for the rest of us what is and is not acceptable speech? Can I tell you the way that I see it? Oh, and by the way since I'm at it, don't keep re-electing the same idiots who hate Trump and are screwing you on a daily bases.

Censuring speech is an egregious form of bullying.

It is amazing isn't it? I bet little Markie was bullied. Most of his ilk has been. It is sort of like Montezuma's revenge. First chance he gets he wants to crap all over those who don't think like him.

I just got banned from Fakebook. Evidently I said something that Markie and his girlie friends didn't like and they decided it was time to send me to my room. Judge, jury and executioner. Don't you just love how intolerant the tolerance crowd is? Judge not tyrannies. They profess love, tolerance and compassion and they have nether. All they have is hate and judgement.

This ban, 30 days, comes on the heels of a previous 30 day ban that I just got released from. Two hours. That's how long it was before I was back in Fakebook prison. You read that right. I was banned for 30 days...released for 2 hours...and banned again.

What does it mean to be banned? They put a sock in your mouth and don't permit you to post for 30 days. It reminds me of the movie Cool Hand Luke...they are trying to get my mind right.

"What did they ban you for Coach?" I hear you asking. "Why don't you stop saying such offensive things?"

Well, there you go. You are as programmed as them if you are asking that question. What does it matter what I posted? My "friends" choose to read what I post. They like what I post. They like what I say. They have a sense of humor.

It's not my "friends" that complain, it is some Zuckerberg/Obama groupies that is reading my posts and he/she doesn't like what I said. I hear that Fakebook hired hundreds of censors from the bottom-feeding Southern Poverty Law Center to make sure I didn't say anything that my "friends" might get a chuckle out of.

Those on the Left have no sense of humor. They are the self-appointed moral agents hell bent on changing words into sins. Secular sins. Since they have no foundational moral standard they become the deciders for everyone else what is and is not acceptable. They are the poison fruit of our university system.

So why was I banned? Well...the first time it was because I made a post about how violent Islam was. I mean, it is not breaking news or anything. But that is not the worst part. The post that I was banned from was SIX YEARS OLD. That's right! Fakebook snowflakes banned me in 2018 for something I posted in 2012. (I am not making this up.)

Evidently one of those SPLC groupies has been assigned to troll my posts to make sure nobody gets a chuckle out of the obvious truisms that I point out. The Left hates jokes almost as much as they hate Truth. Laughing makes their tummies hurt.

So, I get out of Fakebook Jail and 2 hours later they hit me with another trip on the paddy wagon. This time it was for a four year old post. It seems that somewhere in the distant past I pointed out that “creepy homos” were trolling kids. But it was four years ago so I can’t really recall the actual wording.

I wonder if Markie’s girlie men would have banned me if I had said something about “creepy Christians”...or “creepy Republicans”...or “creepy Trump supporters?” I think not. But, perhaps I am a bit sensitive.

So let me get this straight. A homosexual couple can demand a private company bake them a cake but Fakebook can control what my “friends” get to read?

I write this a bit tongue-in-cheek but this censorship is serious business. For too long we have simply laughed the snowflakes off as petulant children but it seems as if it is now the children that the Left has decided to weaponize.

Rush Limbaugh used to joke about school children being “minds full of mush” but that was back in the days when we didn’t really take high school kids seriously. But times have changed and the Left has pulled out all of the stops in their attempt to destroy all that is good. I guess I am not surprised that teenage children think they have everything figured out. Kids have always been like that. But it is the first time in my lifetime that the adults agree with the deliberately dumbed down teenagers.

Let me see if I have this right. Aren’t these the same kids who are inhaling condoms? Haven’t I seen stories on the news about this group ingesting Tide pods? Isn’t it the same group who have been convinced that Bruce Jenner is actually a woman and that people who expect men to use the men’s restrooms are actually bigots?

Mark Zuckerberg and Fakebook are a scourge upon this nation. Even they're defenders are beginning to admit that Fakebook is nothing more than a mind-altering, data-gathering agent of the anti-American, anti-Christian, Clinton/Obama cabal.

Obama hoodwinked into thinking he loved America but behind the scenes he was conniving with the Demon-rats who were intent on goose-stepping us over the Communist-cliff.

Ban Fakebook. Breakup Google and Youtube. Close down the Universities.

America hangs in the balance. Put down your darn phone and fight back.

© 2018 Dave Daubebnire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

The Legalization Of Deviant Behavior

America has undergone a radical transformation and the average American is oblivious to what has occurred. As the average "Deplorable" laments the decline of this once great nation very few have a deep understanding of what has actually occurred.

The Bible, which most Americans no longer read nor believe, gives a clear warning in the book of Isaiah "Woe to those who call evil good and good evil..." Sadly, the America that most of us pine for is but a faint fog in our once vibrant memory.

Normal is no longer normal. Common sense is no longer common. What used to be universally accepted is now scorned. Old fashioned Mom and Pop beliefs have been replaced by a deepening dark degree of deviant directives designed to rewrite the standards of right and wrong.

Pull back the curtains and peek outside. There is no longer a common standard upon which behavior can be regulated. Once the Bible was removed as the cultural barometer in America the barn door was opened to the introduction of all forms of animalistic behavior masquerading as Constitutional rights. The removal of the God's standards from the minds of our people has given us a time "when everyone does what is right in his own eyes."

Normal is no longer a standard, normal has become a perspective. What is normal for me may not be normal for you. Opinion has become the sinking sand upon which American morality now teeters. An ever-changing standard of normal has thrown the American culture into chaos.

Evil becomes good when right and wrong are merely an opinion. Even science has become an opinion...bought and sold to the highest bidder with a demonic agenda. Is manmade global warming true or not or can favorable research be produced for 30 pieces of silver?

Most of our laws are put into force in order to control behaviors. Back in the day when we all shared a common set of values we endeavored to legalize "normal" behavior while criminalizing abnormal. Normal behavior was encouraged by law.

Deviant was the word we used back then. Deviate is a word emanating from the unchanging laws of mathematics. Websters 1828 Dictionary defines deviate as "To turn aside or wander from the common or right way." Evidently Daniel Webster was a homophobe because he believed in a "common or right way."

Deviant is defined today as a person or thing that deviates or departs markedly from the accepted norm. Abnormal behavior is deviant. We simply deny that truism.

Man can never make straight what the Lord calls crooked nor can he make crooked what the Lord call straight. Since deviant behavior by its very definition can never be made normal it is the term "normal" that must be redefined. Hence a nation where the most abhorrent of behaviors must be reclassified as human "rights". A moral wrong can never be a Constitutional right.

Abortion is no longer murder but rather a Constitutional right. Homosexual sodomy is no longer deviant but has become a Constitutional right. Pedophilia is on the fast track to be normalized as nothing more than an "orientation" and a Constitutional right.

Today anal sex between men is no longer argued as abnormal behavior but as a Constitutional right. The approach has been simple. Normalize the abnormal by calling it discrimination and demand the right to practice it. "Legalizing" male on male anal sex does not make it normal.

Look, my friends, laws are put into place to control behaviors. Most laws punish deviant behaviors. Luckily for us, most criminal behavior is deviant...against accepted normal standards...and is punished as such.

But a transformation is taking place as the deviants work to normalize abnormal behaviors.

The sex act is nothing more than a bodily function. It requires no "love" and no orientation. Many of our citizens have a vibrant sex life without the benefit of a partner. They defecate in private and they masturbate in private. Both are simply bodily functions done in seclusion.

Enjoying hamburgers more than hot dogs is not an orientation, it is an appetite. Some like steak, and some like chicken, but both selections are considered normal. Eating another human being would be...deviant...abnormal...and illegal.

Love is not sex and sex is not love. Love is an emotion while sex is a bodily function. Declaring the right to "marry" simply because you are "in love" does not hold up to scrutiny. I love many different people with whom I have no desire to engage in a sex act with. I love my children...my buddies...my neighbor...my grandchildren...my dog, but using any of them to reach an orgasm is deviant...abnormal.

At the same time, it is possible to use another person simply to fulfill my sexual appetite and my desire to reach an orgasm. That is what hookers and pornography are used for...simply fulfilling a physical appetite.

Eating is a bodily function. Using the restroom is a bodily function. Smoking cigarettes and drinking booze are bodily functions. Some of us have "normal" appetites and some of us have "deviant" appetites. Engaging in some behaviors is normal while engaging in others is not. The purpose of laws is to control the abnormal behaviors. Satisfying any and all appetites is not a Constitutional right.

What if a drug addict was "born that way?" Isn't taking drugs a choice? Why isn't their "appetite" legal? Would you rather your son use drugs...or sodomize his best buddy? I say both behaviors are abnormal. Drug addiction is a sickness...but sodomy is normal. Understand?

America is upside down. Owning a gun is becoming deviant. Believing in the Bible is abnormal. Speaking what is on your mind is offensive. Cross dressing is heroic.

You know the world has gone bonkers when heterosexuals do not want to get married...and the homosexuals do.

Try as they might the deviants cannot make the abnormal normal and calling it legal does not make it right. You cannot make straight what God has declared crooked. Why do we fall for such foolishness? Why are the churches looking the other way?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Are The Young Males The Real Victims Of School Bullying?

I've been putting off writing this one for a couple of months. I was hoping the gnawing in my conscience would go away if I simply outlasted it.

But I can't. At least not any longer. I have always found that speaking what was on my mind was the best pressure valve...even if it raised the blood pressure of the readers. I would say that I am sorry, but that would be a lie.

Only the Truth can set you free...and I have a propensity for calling them as I see them.

With all of the howling going on in America today about bullying I find it ironic that much of it emanates from the Gestapo known as "public school teachers." There is nothing as dangerous to masculinity as the nine months most boys spend sitting under the thumb of the testosterone-tamers hell-bent on disconnecting boys from their natural male impulses.

I don't care how politically correct it might sound but there are very few women capable of training a little boy how to be a man. The 7 1/2 hours a day that a young male spends being trained exclusively by women is detrimental to their manhood. I see it everywhere I look.

The inner city is especially dangerous. Statistics indicate that nearly 70% of young African American males live in homes where there is no father present. They are then shipped out the door to the local indoctrination center where 90% of the staff is female. If, perchance, a young man finds himself in trouble he is rapidly dispensed to the Principal's office where his unruly behavior is disciplined by...you guessed it...a female Principal.

For the super majority of young black men the first opportunity that he will have to be mentored by a man is when he steps foot on the athletic field. That is, if he makes it that far without dropping out or being academically ineligible.

Finding a man in an elementary school is about as rare as finding an NRA member at a Hillary for President rally. Is it any wonder the average American male has no idea what it means to "act like a man?" Try as they might, most American women do not really understand what makes real men tick. Our schools are full of "independent" women who finally have a chance to make men behave the way women want them to.

Save your catcalls. Look around. Have you noticed the number of millennial males still living with their parents long after they should have flown from the coop? Have you noticed the propensity of men who are more interested in wearing skinny jeans than they are camo gear?

Who is training the boys? Why is it so obvious that men are becoming less masculine and more compliant? Our young men are being trained to be soft. Getting in touch with your feelings is not an activity designed for men. Not all female teachers are bad for young guys but there is a serious assault on manhood in America and it is being led by the feminazis in our public schools.

I spent a career as a public school teacher/coach and I could tell you horror stories of the experiences that I had with women faculty whose sole purpose in life was to make the star football player bow to her every whim. Many of the women HATED strong-willed teenage boys and they did the best they could to bully the testosterone right out of them.

I remember the day when young men were taught "man-up" and take responsibility for their lives. Today to even use the term "man-up" is to be accused of being misogynistic. It is hard to turn him into a man when he is being punished for acting like one. Males...the natural leader type...do not respond well to the badgering of bossy women. Often the teachers are more interested in teaching the young man WHO is boss than showing him how to BE the boss.

I always tell the men in my life that you are born a male but you are a man by choice.

Dang, I bet I am making a lot of Jezebels mad today. Spare me the emails. Don't waste your time trying to put me in my place. I know my place and it is not under the thumb of a bossy woman.

Today was another fine example of it. All across America students walked out of their school in protest of guns. I happened to be speaking at a public school today as the walkout took place and I asked the class that I was addressing if there was going to be a walkout the next day in support of gun ownership. They looked at me as if I had just passed gas.

"Aren't there any of you in this class that support gun ownership?" A beaten-down young feller in the corner of the room raised his hand halfway into the air.

"Great!" I exhorted him! "When are you going to organize the I-support-guns-walkout? You certainly aren't they only student at this school that supports guns? Does anyone else support guns?" I asked. A few more male hands crawled cautiously in the air.

“So who is going to go to the principal and organize a gun rally? I’ll join with you!”

No takers. They were all afraid to express how they really felt. The bossy girls in the class were too busy putting them down for caring about guns more than their classmates.

Strong American males are a vanishing species in this nation and I am not afraid to point out that decades of being trained by women has born a heap big pile of rotten fruit in the hearts of the once valiant American male.

No wonder we have seen an avalanche of pornography pour over this nation as young men struggle to find their way in this feminist driven society in which we live. At least when the young guys are viewing porn they don’t have to deal with the lady on the screen putting down their every move.

My guess is that the gun marches at schools all across America today were organized by women...or men who act like women.

Laugh if you want to. Call me names if that is how you normally talk to men. But men get it. They are just too demoralized to fight. I wonder how many of the school shooters had a strong man in their lives?

Men who understand true Biblical masculinity are a vanishing breed. There is no group more bullied than the young American male.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Our Children Are Our Inheritance. Invest Into Them. Nothing Matters More

Are You Spending the Inheritance?

A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.
—Proverbs 13:22

I think I shared with y'all that I just signed up for Medicare. For the life of me I cannot figure out how I got so danged old. The thought of being 65 is sobering...I remember when 65 seemed really old.

But that is the reality of my life. And unlike so many others of my generation that I cross paths with, I am not in the middle of some identify crisis. The central focus of my life, other than the Lord, is the care and nurturing of our beloved children's children.

Michele and I are "Grampie" and "Gigi" to four little jewels and now that our lives have slowed down a pace or two I realize how much I missed in the raising of our own three children. The hustle and bustle of providing for a young family seems to absorb so much of your time that the raising of our own children is really nothing more than faint memories.

I thank Jesus that He didn't let me mess up our own children too much...we had no idea what we were doing. Parenting is a classic case of on-the-job-training if there ever was one. You know the old saying...if I knew then what I know now...sometimes life would be easier if it was lived backwards.

Ultimately, your children and grandchildren are really all that matters in life.

Michele and I were rolling down the interstate the other day when came upon one of those huge recreational vehicles that are so common on America's highways. As we passed by I couldn't help but notice the bumper sticker on the back.

"We're Spending Our Children's Inheritance." I know it was supposed to be a joke but it didn't strike me as funny...it struck me as sad. Is there anything sadder than a selfish old couple living out their retirement years spending the inheritance?

Are you mad at me yet you selfish old baby boomers? Well, sit back and enjoy the ride.

Living for oneself is a pretty empty lifestyle. A good man, the Scriptures tell us, leaves something behind. The only difference between some of my retired friends and the pouty millennials is that at least the old folks are able to pay their own way. Their grandchildren want a lot of things as well...they simply want somebody else to pay for it.

Look in the mirror, Grandpa and Grandma, your bank account may be healthy but the lives' of your grandchildren are empty. Heritage is more than money. A wise man once warned us "what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose his soul?" A more current paraphrase might be, 'what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and lose the souls of his grandchildren?"

Leaving an inheritance is serious business. And it isn't about money. It is about tradition...culture...faith...and eternal life. Trading a $500,000 state of the art RV for an empty spiritual legacy isn't a very good trade. That is something that a "good" man would never do. There are some things a child can only learn from a grandparent.

I was reminded of that again last week when the latest slaughter took place in one of our government schools. I watched “our leaders” offer all kinds of solutions as to how to keep the children safe inside the government indoctrination centers. No one would point out that it wasn’t an “assault rifle” that took the lives of some grandparents’ grandchildren, but a darkened heart.

Jesus told us “the light came into the world but the men loved darkness because their deeds were evil.” Evil hearts produce evil fruit. It is not the guns that the grandparents should worry about but the blackened hearts of the children that their grandkids attend school with.

Jesus also warned us that we should “fear not he who has the power to kill the body, but rather he that has the power to kill the soul.” Although your grandkids might be “good kids” they are surrounded daily by soul-less classmates...internet zombies...who don’t know the difference between good and evil. I can assure you of this, you would immediately remove your grandkids from school if you were able to see the hearts of some of the classmates they are exposed to on a daily basis.

So what are you waiting for Grandpa? At what point are you going to sit down with your own children and offer to pay for a private Christian education for your grandkids? When will you go to your own children and offer to pay their mortgage if Mom stayed home and homeschooled your grandbabies? What good will your Luxury RV be when you see your once-innocent granddaughter struggle to get off of drugs and reject all of the values that you had hoped to instill in them?

Every one of those crazy snowflakes that you see marching on TV probably have grandparents who would tell you what a “sweet” and “innocent” child their grandchild had been as a youngster. What could possibly have caused them to reject their grandparents’ values? Something happened along the way. Something stole their soul. Most American kids have not spent the first minute in Sunday school.

Guns should be the least of our worries. The public schools are destroying the souls of America's children. Grandmas and Grandpas must sacrifice everything they have to protect the souls of the precious progeny. Sell you vacation condo. Sell your motor home. Do whatever you can get rescue our future from the grips of the Secularists. Your grandkids need your investment now...not after you die.

Our children ARE our inheritance. Invest all you have into them. Nothing matters more. It is time to start leaving an inheritance rather than spending it. Sell your RV and build an arc. The souls of your grandkids are the ultimate prize.

What is the value of your loved one's soul? Be careful you don't trade what you cannot keep for the thing that you must not lose.

Are you spending the inheritance?

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

What If Abortionists Used Guns Instead Of Needles?

Every argument in the world is based on perspective. That truism is becoming more and more obvious as we journey farther and farther down the rat-hole that has become public debate. The more divided America becomes the more emotions come in to play.

We used to use the phrase "rational debate" when referring to the dialogue between opposing viewpoints, but today's discussions are becoming less and less rational and more and more emotion. Facts no longer matter, especially in an emotional dialogue. Feelings rule the day and emotional decisions are rarely the best ones.

Heartstrings are more powerful than purse strings...at least until it is time to pay the piper. Today, where actual money and its value are becoming less and less concrete we often find our hearts writing checks that our checkbook cannot cover.

That is why we find ourselves trillions of dollars in debt.

We could come up with a litany of emotional decisions that didn't turn out to be so wise...Our first sexual experience...The purchase of our first car...Voting for a President based on his skin color...

He who frames the argument wins the debate and the Left has been far more effective in their framing. Years of government education where male teachers are in the minority we find our children being quite effective at emoting but miserably incapable of thinking with the use of logic.

The key to winning most arguments is to frame the debate in such a way that it brings a greater emotional response which eventually leads to a regrettable decision when eventually viewed under the microscope of logic.

Facts are easy to ignore when emotions are involved. The more emotional the debate the less the facts matter and the more illogical the solution is. If conservatives are going to move the needle in the cultural debate we are going to have to become more adept at framing the argument.

One need look no further than the current debate over guns. We need to tread more carefully so that we do not end up in the trap that the Left has set. "You are certainly not for seeing young children die in schools are you?"

That isn't the question. Of course not...but associating guns with killing is quite a stretch. There are plenty of ways to kill people.

It is like the word "choice" that the Left uses when trying to hide the fact that abortion kills a baby. If the "choice" is about a baby's right to live rather than a woman's right to abort you will find fewer people in support of a "woman's right to choose."

What would be the reaction to abortion if abortionists killed the babies with guns?

What if we pointed out that forceps and suction hoses kill more children than guns? What if we pointed out that the womb was more dangerous for a child than a public school? Would we ever argue that the teenagers in the schools weren't really people because they were still dependant on their parents? What if all of the debate over abortion was focused on the child rather than on the mother? What if we zeroed in on a baby's right to live?

It would be horrific to lose a child regardless of the weapon that was used. Abortion kills more children than anything else. What if we outlawed the weapons of mass destruction below?

What if we used videos and actual science to show teenagers what really occurs during an abortion? We see what guns do to humans perhaps we should show them what Planned Parenthood does to premie humans. Violence in the womb leads to violence in the world. We refuse to connect the dots.

Cars kill more children than guns. So does texting, drinking, vaccines, and meth. I suggested that Congress take the $500 MILLION given to Planned Parenthood and use it to put armed guards in public schools where they can protect the innocent children from a madman with a gun. How can you justify the government paying to kill some children while leaving others to be sitting ducks? What really is the difference between a school shooter and an abortionist? Both wield their weapons from the holster of a dark heart.

Gun ownership is actually listed in the US Constitution. Can you tell me which Amendment refers to abortion? Abortion is not in the Constitution and leads to the death of children while proper gun ownership IS listed in the Constitution and protects children.

If no one wants to see innocent children die then why don't we stop killing innocent children in the womb? Calling them non-persons is the ultimate bullying.

Maybe it would end if we passed a law forcing abortionists to kill the babies with guns. Maybe then the hypocritical LEFT would stand up and fight for ALL the children.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Enough Of The Hyphenated

Christians

I find it more and more difficult to swallow the wide variety of Christianity that I see in America today.

You know what I am talking about, Willis. In case you are blind to the divide and conquer strategy orchestrated by Slew Foot permit me to provide a brief list of some of the Heinz 57 flavors on display.

Fundamentalist Christians, Liberal Christians, Social Justice Christians, Pentecostal Christians, Charismatic Christians, Orthodox Christians, Red Letter Christians, Apostolic Christians, Bible-Believing Christians, Lutheran Christians, Baptist Christians, Southern Baptist Christians, Free-Will Baptist Christians, First Baptist Christians, Second Baptist Christians, Primitive Baptist Christians, Methodist Christians, African Methodist Episcopal Christians, Presbyterian Christians...you get the drift.

According to my research there are nearly 34,000 denominations of Christianity in the world with nearly 2.5 BILLION adherents. Nearly 75% of American's self-identify as Christians...that is 280 million souls, spread out over 300,000 churches.

For those of you who might be interested here is a list of the 35 largest denominations in America.

Did you know that DENOMINATION is a math term? If you think back to your time spent in the 2nd grade you will remember that a "denominator" is the number by which the "whole" is divided. Numerator and denominator. Jesus said that His followers would all be ONE. (It looks like we need to return to the 2nd grade!)

But, of course this has been part of the Devil's plan. The oldest trick in the book is divide and conquer. If you wonder why the church is so powerless you need look no further than the division in the "Body of Christ." No wonder the "church" has become so ineffectual. We can't even agree on what is or is not truth.

This all came to head with me this week when I had a discussion with a "black" Christian friend. (I haven't even gotten into the division of Christians by skin color.) I called him out on his hyphenated Christianity and he seemed to take offense. He blathered on about Trump and how "his" people were burdened by the "racist" in the White House...yada yada yada.

"Hey Dude!" I said to him. "I think I understand what your problem is. You are more "black" than you are Christian. You are far more loyal to your skin color than you are to Christ."

He didn't receive it well and went on a tirade about President Obama and how "white" America disrespected him and all that he did for "black" America.

"Dang." I told him. "You are one of the most racist people I have ever met. If you are a Christian why are you so focused on the color of a man's skin? Don't you know that Paul taught us that there was no Jew or Greek...no fleshly divisions? Our true brothers are our brothers by faith rather than skin color?"

He told me I was miss representing the Scriptures and that I only resented President Obama because he was black.

"You're no Christian, Pal. You voted for Obama because of the color of his skin. You either don't have the discernment of the Holy Spirit or you are blinded by skin color if you cannot recognize that Obama was either a Muslim or a Muslim sympathizer. For Pete's sake, he had THREE Muslim names!!

Did you know that nearly 33% of all black babies conceived in the women are killed through abortion? Did you know that abortion is the leading cause of death in the black community? Are you aware that Barack Obama was the most pro-child murder President in history?

Do you remember that when the Supreme Court shoved homo-marriage down America's throat that our Black President lit up the White House in the color of the rainbow? Are you aware that Obama was the most anti-family President in the history of our Republic?"

He droned on about how "his" people had been oppressed for so many years and that it was about time that one of "their" people was finally elected President. It was important for "oppressed" people to stick together and that everyone in his church supported Obama.

"Is it a Christian church or a black church?" I asked him.

He told me it was "both."

"Do you think it is a good thing for black Americans to kill their unborn children?" I asked him. "Would Jesus support marriage between two men? Would Jesus be in support of a man who promoted anti-Christian values? If Jesus was only worried about 'His' people wouldn't the rest of us non-Jews be in a world of hurt?"

He told me I didn't get it and explained to me that blacks had been walked all over for years and that it was time to make things right.

"Didn't Jesus teach forgiveness? Wouldn't it make sense for all Christians to forgive each other for past wrongs that had been done to them? Doesn't the Bible instruct us to love one another and forgive one another of our trespasses? "Don't black babies' lives matter to you?"

He told me I didn't get it because I wasn't black.

My experience teaches me that those who identify as hyphenated Christians probably are not.

God is a Spirit. We are commanded to be like Him. Spirits have no skin color. There won't be any hyphenated Christians in Heaven.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

We Have Traitors In High Places – Throw The Bums In Jail

This is not going to be long. I am gonna say what I have to say even though it may not be popular. Isn't it about time somebody did something?

The idea of a "high Crime" which is referred to in our Constitution has nothing to do with the severity of the crime that is committed, but rather the position of the one who is committing it.

A "high" crime refers to position not to proportionality. A lie told by the CEO of a company is far more egregious than a falsehood uttered by the company custodian. The "higher" the position in the organization that a perpetrator occupies the greater the damage done by his/her dishonesty.

"High crimes" refer to those crimes committed by people in authority and especially those who are charged with securing the public trust. It is one thing if a teenager in a church congregation commits the act of fornication. It is entirely more severe if the Pastor engages in the same activity.

Although we love to say that all sins are equal the fact remains that not all sins have the same consequences attached to them. Lady Justice may be blindfolded but she is not blind. If there are multiple systems of justice then there is no justice. What's good for the goose is good for the gander.

I don't care what your political persuasion is. It matters not if you root for the Donkeys or the Elephants. Every sports fan in America hates the idea of unfair referees. There is no joy in a victory that was a result of ill-gotten gain or home town umpires. If putting one's thumb on the scale is reprehensible in a football game how much more scandalous is it in the governance of a people?

If our leaders are no more virtuous than the people they lead then they have no business leading.

Washington has become a crime scene. There is something seriously wrong when the government of a nation is referred to as a "Swamp" as if it was referring to some backwashed delta in Louisiana. The seat of government of the most powerful nation in the world is full of rattlesnakes and alligators. Some are left handed and some swing from the right but both wings are connected to the same bird. They are one big family and you and I aren't in it.

Most crime syndicates operate like families.

A fatal blow was delivered to America on November 22, 1963 and this nation has been gasping for breath ever since. The murder of President Kennedy was the first public act of the Deep State. Over the last 50 years the American people have been fed one lie after another by those who were sworn to bring us justice.

The list of lies lines up like something right out of the movie The Godfather. Kennedy, King, Oklahoma City, Waco, Ruby Ridge, TWA Flight 800, The Twin Towers, Boston Bombing, Benghazi, Judge Scalia, LaVoy Finicum, Las Vegas, The Birth Certificate...do you really believe that we have been given the Truth? Do you really believe that those behind the scenes who are really complicit have been held accountable?

I don't care if it is George Bush or Dick Cheney, Pappy Bush or Barbara Bush, Bill, Hillary or Princess Chelsea, Barry Soetoro, John McCain, Uma Weiner or The Pope. I am not interested in some underling being the scapegoat. It is time for some important perps to pay the piper.

Americans need to see some justice. It might be ugly, it might be painful, it might be hard to watch, but if we are to survive as a nation of laws then the laws must apply to everyone.

Every night as I lay my head on My Pillow I thank God that Hillary Clinton and her crime syndicate was defeated. If she had won, all of this corruption would have been bulldozed into the deep recesses of the swamp.

We have traitors walking among us. The thought of that was so repugnant that our Founders prescribed the death penalty as the punishment for those who engaged in that behavior. If the rich and powerful walk on this one then there is no hope for America.

There is no such thing as Republican treason or Democrat treason. Treason is serious business and for the sake of those aspiring leaders who are watching they must understand that such "high crimes" will never be tolerated.

Clint Eastwood would say "Hang 'em High!" I say throw their butts in jail.

Lady Justice needs to open her eyes. The future of our Republic depends on it. Oh, and by the way, quit re-electing the bums that are destroying this country.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

I'm Sick Of The God And America Hating Left

The Left Are The Real Bigots

It takes one to know one. That was some playground wisdom I grew up with.

If you asked the average lefty to explain to you what it means to be a bigot I doubt if he/she would be able to give you an accurate definition. Bigotry has been incorrectly linked to racism...another made up word that didn't even exist in the American lexicon until just before WWII.

The American Left has totally adulterated the English language to the point that we often find ourselves using words that are totally misapplied or improperly used in regards to their original meaning.

Bigot is one of those words. If you were to check the most authentic organic source on the English Language, the 1828 Webster's dictionary you will find bigot defined as "A person who is obstinately and unreasonably wedded to a particular religious creed, opinion, practice or ritual."

Look up the word "racism" in the same online version referenced above and you will come up with...NOTHING. That's right, when Noah Webster put together his exhaustive work on the English language there was no entry for “racism.” The word simply did not exist.

But in today’s increasingly knowledgeable, and stunningly dumber “college educated” millennial generation facts are becoming less and less valued. A re-working of words and a strong focus on “feelings” has given us a less logical more emotive generation of Americans.

Words have meaning so if you want to change the world simply change the words. Check this out... I wrote it back in 2009 and I include it for all of the critics who read my columns and accuse me of only recently having fallen off of the turnip truck. The more I look over my shoulder the more I realize how right I have been. A society will never progress if it forgets from where it has come.

Our “roots” are being dug up all around us and we are suddenly finding ourselves with a generation of young people who share very little in common with the beliefs of their grandparents. This has not happened by accident. Bigotry has been the aorta of the LEFT and they have sucked the life right out from under God-fearing Americans.

So bigotry has nothing to do with race and everything to do with control.

Open your eyes and look around and you will easily recognize that the snowflakes on the LEFT are the real ideologues. They are the least tolerant, least accepting, and are far more aggressive in the forcible advancement of their own “particular religious creed, opinion, practice, or ritual.” They are not content in simply exercising their “unreasonably wedded opinion” but are hell-bent on making you follow their misguided creed as well.

Lefties are not content with simply expressing THEIR beliefs but are aggressive in demanding that you cow-tow to their screwy, anti-logical belief system. Simply “tolerating” their beliefs is not enough. You are required to not only attend their parties but to bake and deliver the cake to their diabolically deviant displays.

Well, I am sick of it. I am sick of the one-way bigotry. I am sick of being expected to sit silently on the sidelines while the enemies of all things decent destroy everything my ancestors worked to build. The God-haters are not content to simply stand on the shoulders of the pillars who built the freest nation in the history of the world but are intent on a Samson-like pillar pull designed to crumble this once great Christian nation.

I'm sick of it. I'm sick of THEM. I'm sick of their rewriting of history and their thinly veiled attempt to destroy the foundations upon which this nation was built. I'm proud to be white damnit!! I'm proud to be a man. I'm proud to be a Christian! I'm proud to believe that some things are right and some things are wrong and I am proud to say that the Bible is the determiner of that standard.

I'm sick and tired of the immunity with which some ethnic groups seem to have in regards to their behaviors. I'm sick of lazy blacks and lazy whites who feel that they have the right to steal out of my wallet. I'm sick of the sexual deviants teaching debaucherous behaviors to my grand children in the name of tolerance and diversity. I'm sick of the Hollywood homos and pernicious pedophiles who undermine American decency with every movie they make.

I'm sick of double standards and white guilt. I'm sick of biting my tongue and going with the flow. I'm sick of the slaughter of the unborn and the cowardly pastors who permit it. I'm sick of two systems of justice and the powerful pundits who promote it. I'm sick of money grubbing politicians and money grubbing pastors both who have sold their souls for a pot of porridge. I am sick of the prospering of the wicked and the sissified church that permits the plundering.

Look around you, my friends. Most of the problems that we face in this nation have everything to do with BEHAVIOR and nothing to do with bigotry. It is the destruction of the moral code that has led to the lawlessness of the citizens of this nation. Not all cultures are the same. Not all values are equal. Not all beliefs are true. Multi-culturalism is societal AIDS.

My Christian faith teaches me that there is a hell to shun and a Heaven to strive for. Behavior has consequences and I'll be damned if I am going to sit passively on the sidelines as the Devil's doctrines of demons destroy all that is good. What they do in their private life is between them and the Lord. I am pro-choice in regards to the after-life.

Hell hath enlarged its mouth as many fools rush head first into the fiery pit. Although the road to hell is paved with good intentions I refuse to permit my progeny to be road kill on their Left's hedonistic highway to hell.

For the first time in a generation I believe we have a short window to pushback against the forces of darkness. Now is the time to stand up and call 'em like you see them.

The real bigots in America are those slimy snakes on the LEFT. It is time we started exposing the Truth.

© 2018 NWV – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Good Riddance To Obama – Thank God For Trump

I voted for America's first legitimate black Presidential candidate Alan Keyes for President...twice. So keep your race card in your pocket.

I find a great deal of amusement in watching the Never Trumpers whine about the direction that President Trump is taking us.

I find it especially humorous when I think about the radical Marxist that squatted in the White House the previous eight years. Every time I get discouraged I simply reminisce and thank God that Obama is gone.

I hear the pundits on the TV pontificate about how Donald trump is so "un presidential" in his actions, but there are millions of folks like me who are ready for some straight shooting from our politicians.

I like the crudeness with which President Trump tells me the truth as opposed to the classiness with which President Obama told me lies. I am a big boy. I can handle a bit of harsh truth. I grew up in a locker room. I know what real men sound like.

It is good to have a straight-shooter sitting in the oval office.

A great number of Americans have been brainwashed by actors. We have actors in politics, actors in the media, and actors in the pulpit. I am so sick of people acting like something they are not. I'm ready for a double-dose of straight shooting.

Turn on the TV and you will find non-stop attacks upon President Trump. Amazingly, it comes from both sides of the political spectrum. With all of the assaults upon President Trump it is easy for us to lose perspective. For the most part, Americans have a very short attention span. Well. Not me. I remember very well the mess that was the Obama administration.

I remember when President Obama turned up the "race" card with Skip Gates, Trayvon Martin, and the riots in Ferguson Missouri. I cannot forget his role as agitator in chief and how he never missed an opportunity to pick the scabs of the racial divide. In my opinion, his actions were so un-presidential.

I remember when President Obama forced socialized medicine down the throats of unsuspecting citizens with his famous double-headed lie "if you like you Dr. you can keep your Dr. and if you like your plan you can keep your plan." That didn't seem very presidential to me.

How can one forget his flip-flopping on traditional marriage and the lighting of the White House in the colors of the rainbow when the diabolical Oberkfell decision was shoved up the hind ends of God fearing American moms and pops?

I remember the smoochy smoochy relationship he had with Planned Parenthood and his unrelenting desire to see as many American babies slaughtered inside their mother's womb as was possible. He even joked about his own future grandchild being "punishment" to his daughter.

I feel my blood pressure rising with every letter I type on this keyboard. He may have "acted" more "presidential" but I am so glad Obama is gone.

I cannot forget the lectures regarding Global warming as he and his wife gallivanted around the world on Air Force One while the rest of the little folks were encouraged to drive electric cars and use incandescent light bulbs.

I remember how his policies were designed to spy on average Americans while all of the while refusing to release his college transcripts, birth certificate, and other pertinent documents that might better explain just who this guy was.

I remember his Islamaphila and his protection of what he loved to call the "religion of peace." His affinity went so deep as to make sure never to call a terror attack "Islam terror" but rather "workplace violence."

I remember his failure to rescue the four brave Americans in Benghazi and the lies he told to cover up his treasonous plans...as well as his jailing of an unknown Youtube film maker. I remember his Iranian deal which set up his Muslim buds in the Middle East, and his failure to destroy ISIS.

I remember his hatred of the 2nd Amendment and his desire to take guns from law-abiding middle-America citizens. I can never forget his doubling of the national debt and how his cut-and-run foreign policy in the Middle East strengthened the hand of his Islamic brethren.

Although we all know that our policemen aren't perfect I will never forget how he did his best to demonize the men in blue and how he accused them of "acting stupidly" when simply doing their duty.

I hated how he bowed to foreign leaders and the American apology tour he undertook soon after being elected President. I hated his support for the UN and his love of Globalism which was always causing America to take a back seat on the world stage.

I remember the lying media covering for him and the Hollywood deviants fawning all over him...not to mention border security, illegal immigration, free welfare for non-citizens and a cache 'of other un-American scams that he pulled on the American people.

He militarized the Deep State against a duly elected President. He used the IRS as a weapon.

President Obama did everything he could to destroy family, marriage, Christian morality, gender, and old fashioned American values. He worked overtime to muddy the idea of right and wrong. He may have been born in America but he certainly was no American. We have yet to find out all of the damage that this anti-American plant did. Aren't you glad we have an American in the Oval Office?

I am so glad Obama is gone.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Facebook Is A Big Part Of This Brave New World

You Gotta Make People Think

I have to admit that I have this love/hate relationship with Facebook. Social media, whatever that means, is all of the rage and whether or not we like it that is where you have to go if you want to be in touch with the world.

World is a pretty big word but Facebook really does put you in touch with the world. I continue to be amazed that I can take a picture on my cell phone and in a matter of seconds my brother can view it in Europe. Not only that, but I can do a live broadcast on my mobile phone that can instantly be seen around the world.

Facebook is a big part of this Brave New World.

The hate part of this relationship is that I find myself connecting with so many people that I would rather not connect with and as a result I find myself become increasingly discouraged by the intelligence of some of the people who label themselves as my "friends."

Friend is a pretty nebulous term these days. I have reached my quota of "friends" and have to confess that I have no idea who most of these people are. It is sort of like going to a mega church where you "worship" with a whole boatload of people whom you have never met.

Like so many other things in our self-consumed culture "friend" has really become a meaningless term. I have a myriad of fake friends on Fake book.

I bring this up because I love to use my Facebook posts to provoke people to think. It is a lost art...thinking... and I am on a personal mission to irritate others to engage in this obsolete exercise. In today's touchy-feely culture most people have substituted emoting for thinking. "Feeling" has supplanted truth as the foundation upon which an argument will be built. Facts no longer matter. Feelings rule the day. Anything that makes you feel good must be good, anything that makes you feel bad must be bad.

Recently one of the pieces of red meat that I threw out on my Facebook page didn't take long for some of my "friends" to begin to accuse me of "discrimination", as if that was a bad thing. Just like the monkey-see monkey-do programming was designed to do their reaction rolled off of their tongues like balls down the gutter at the local bowling alley.

Words have lost all meaning. The average Fake-booker, when regurgitating the word discrimination automatically thinks about race. In the mind of the average American those two words are synonymous...racist and discrimination. Nothing drives them battier than to point out that the world is full of discrimination and that discrimination is actually a good thing.

The fun part is watching them get angry as you point out the folly of their argument. Anger has been substituted in place of a logical argument. Remember, emotion rules the day. The madder they get the more they think they have won the argument.

So, permit me to offer a few words or advice on how to use Fake-book to your advantage. Because I have a method to my madness I find myself laughing at the responders rather than getting angry with them. I throw the chum out on the table and watch them swallow the hook. I rarely respond to what they post and that simply drives them crazy.

It is the dialogue that is important to me and I love to follow the post and enjoy watching my "friends" try to convince my other "friends" of their own wisdom. Remember this...people get on Fake-book not to LEARN something but rather to TEACH something. Everyone has an opinion and they love to pontificate in an effort to sway complete strangers to their way of feeling.

The most effective way to fight is to simply ask questions. Don't waste your time trying to win them over with persuasive arguments but rather put your effort into asking questions about what they just said. Point out the foolishness of what the person just wrote and ask them to defend it by simply asking questions.

Just this week my Fake-book page blew up when I posted a series of seemingly non-connected statements. Each one was designed to gore a sacred cow. I have come to understand that it is through DIALOGUE not MONOLOGUE that a person is most likely to be persuaded. Don't make it a battle over who is right and who is wrong. Heck, no one wants to lose that one.

But focus the debate on truth and facts. You will be much more effective if you ask questions that will guide them to the truth rather than trying to cram the truth down their throats with your literary skills.

The greatest way to get them to change their mind is for them to come to the truth on their own. Don't worry about winning. Just plant seeds.

The following are a list of questions that I posted on my Fake-book page last week. I threw out the meat and I simply let the dogs fight over it.

- ◆ The dead sea is dead because nothing flows out...merely in. Sound like most churches?
- ◆ Hillary loves planned parenthood. Pp is racial genocide. 90% of blacks voted for black genocide. Not very christian.
- ◆ Why do so many children born to bi-racial parents identify as black?
- ◆ If so many Christians are pro-life why is planned parenthood still funded?
- ◆ If whites are so racist why didn't 90% of them vote for the white guy?
- ◆ Only fake Christians can't see that Obama was a fake christian. Man in the mirror. Hillary too. Ryan too. McCain too.
- ◆ Obama was a foreign government agent. They convinced you he was black. Color irrelevant. Loyalty crucial. Nation of fools?
- ◆ To deviate: veer of the norm. Deviant. Not normal. Sexual deviants. Kevin Spacey? Bruce Jenner?
- ◆ Have you noticed that most pedophilia in Hollywood is men on young boys? isn't that an odd way for heterosexuals to behave?

♦ Kevin spacey liked younger boys. Weinstein liked younger women. Was Corey Feldman molested by women? why not?

♦ Stop buying the propaganda. Think for yourself. Easy to connect the dots if you take time to think.

♦ Facebook is a tool. Use it to your advantage. Don't use it to make fake friends. We must use it to challenge the status quo. Simply light the fuse and watch the sparks fly.

© 2018 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

When Are You People Gonna Wake Up?

I spent nearly 35 years as a high school football coach and one thing I learned was that a coach is judged by the performance of the team. When a team is under performing it is the coach that gets the boot. No amount of blame shifting or excuse making will change things. Every team is a reflection of its coach.

If churches were football teams there would be a lot of heads on the chopping block. The pastors have done a great job of changing the scoreboard. Rather than measuring their success by the impact they are having OUTSIDE the church they have washed their hands of the "world" and instead invested their time in petting the sheep inside the pen.

Everything looks great on the inside while the world around them rots. They have used all of their "salt" inside the building and permitted the ravening wolves to destroy the families on the outside.

Most of them have no idea what is going on in the real world and, even worse, they have no idea that they don't know. The salt is stuck in the salt shaker.

I don't know if you know it or not but a year after the election of Donald Trump Planned Parenthood is still being funded by the Republican Congress. There is only one reason that it continues and it is because there has been no demand from the PULPIT to stop it.

Most pastors do not HATE abortion. They are pro-choice with exceptions. If there is one thing that you can be sure of it is that God hates the slaughter of unborn children. But abortion is political, they tell me, and they don't want to "politicize" their pulpits. Silence is consent. Their silence IS a political position.

Over a year ago candidate Trump said to Hillary Clinton that abortion may be "alright with you but it is not alright with me." He sent a signal to America's pastors that he was ready and willing to end the slaughter of the innocents. But he never got an "Amen" from the pulpits. They stayed silent.

Their silence is deafening and our congressional representatives finally figured out that abortion really wasn't that big of a deal in the Christian community any more.

Why would they waste all of that political capital on an issue that didn't really matter to the base? It is the economy, Stupid.

America has become a moral cesspool while the sheep play ring around the rosy inside their stained glass fortresses. They continued legalization of abortion in America is the single greatest moral outrage since the selling of American human beings to other Americans human beings.

The pastors better hope that Jesus is as wishy washy about life as they are.

A friend of mine reintroduced me to an old Bob Dylan song from 1979 entitled "When You Gonna Wake Up?" You can listen to it here.

God don't make no promises that He don't keep You got some big dreams, baby, but in order to dream you gotta still be asleep.

*When you are going to wake up, when you going to wake up
When you are going to wake up and strengthen the things that remain?*

Counterfeit philosophies have polluted all of your thoughts Karl Marx has got ya by the throat and Henry Kissinger's got you tied up in knots.

*You got innocent men in jail, your insane asylums are filled
You got unrighteous doctors dealing drugs that'll never cure your ills.*

*You got men who can't hold their peace and women who can't control their tongues
The rich seduce the poor and the old are seduced by the young.*

*Adulterers in churches and pornography in the schools
You got gangsters in power and lawbreakers making rules.*

Spiritual advisors and gurus to guide your every move Instant inner peace and every step you take has got to be approved.

*Do you ever wonder just what God requires?
You think He's just an errand boy to satisfy your wandering desires.*

You can't take it with you and you know that it's too worthless to be sold

They tell you, "Time is money," as if your life was worth its weight in gold.

*When you are going to wake up, when you going to wake up
When you are going to wake up and strengthen the things that remain?*

Enough is enough. Where is Franklin Graham on this issue? Why are Joel Osteen, Rick Warren, and a mega load of mega pastors silent on this issue? Why haven't the leaders of the Southern Baptists, Assemblies of God, or a dozen other stuffed shirt denominational leaders engaged their congregations with the phony RINOS? Why are we not beating down the doors of our congressmen? Why would we expect our political leaders to care more about life than our pastors do?

I had a conversation with a congressman the other day and he punched me right in the mouth. "Coach, my office never hears from Christians. Everyone talks about how evil abortion is but it is the other side my office hears from the most. I hate to tell you, but if abortion doesn't matter to Christians then it won't matter to my colleagues. We never hear from Christians."

God has given us the opportunity to end the scourge of abortion. Why are our Christian leaders so cavalier about murder? Won't some leader please grab the ball and run with it. The church has an opportunity to roll back four decades of decadence. We can end abortion NOW!!

When are you gonna wake up and do your stinkin duty?

© 2017 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Has Christians Become Too Nice?

Two weeks ago I officially qualified for Medicare. I have no idea how I messed around and became this danged old. It is a funny thing...age...they say it is a state of mind. Why is it inside my head I still feel like I am 21? I guess I am not really clear on which state my mind is currently passing through.

Am I the only one who finds himself looking in the mirror and seeing the reflection of a gray haired "Grampie" where a Greek God once stood? Luckily my precious wife is aging right along side of me and her vision isn't what it used to be.

But there are some good things that come along with getting order. I call it the I-don't-give-a-craps. Earlier in my adulthood as I was forging my course in life I found myself biting my tongue a lot. Climbing the ladder often required laryngitis and like so many others I had some young mouths to feed. So I learned to "put a sock in it."

But the older I get the more often that sock starts slipping out. Now that I found myself on the downhill side of this thing we call life I have come to realize that it is much more desirable for me to be right than it is to be liked. I hope people like me...but that is where the give-a-craps come into play.

I am tired of acting nice. In fact, I am tired of "acting" in general and I have come to the conclusion that America is heading straight for the crapper because most of my Christian friends are still more interested in being liked than they are in speaking the Truth.

It's not that I have ego problems. I don't mind being PROVEN wrong, but I am sick of the weenie Christian attitude that we are not supposed to be contentious. Argumentative...I think that is what contentious means...and I cannot think of one human endeavor where you will be successful if you are not willing to fight.

That used to be a virtue...standing up for what you believe. But in today's snowflake world standing up for what you believe is not very Christian. Christians are loving...and thoughtful...and pushovers...that's why you never see the ACLU or SPLC attacking the Muslim faith.

When thinking of the average Muslim "kind" is not one of the first adjective's to pop into an atheistic lawyer's mind. Christians are kind. Muslims are...well you get the picture. That's why all of the pencil-necked lawyers chase the Christians out of the public square. Christians "act" like Christians. Christians think getting run over by the world is Christ-like. In a face to face battle are you betting on the Muzzies or the Christians? Your answer will speak volumes about the condition of the American church.

I warned you...I'm getting a serious case of the give-a-craps. (Some of you are offended because I used the word "crap"). That's what I am talking about, Willis. Save your holier-than-thou religious comments for someone else.

Now that we have made it through the love-fest masquerading as Christmas perhaps I could take this opportunity to open your eyes to the fact that, for the most part, American Christianity is worshipping a non-existent Jesus. You heard me right. Every time Christmas season rolls around we remake Jesus in our own image.

Just like you and me, Jesus made his way out of the crib. He is no longer a Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes. He is a risen Savior sitting at the Right Hand of God. He is THE King of the Kings and THE Lord of the Lords. Why do we fight so hard to make him seem so snowflakish?

I am beginning to think that all of this snowflakeism found its genesis in the nicer-than-Jesus evanjellyfish church. "Who am I to Judge?" Right? Soft churches are full of soft men.

Aren't the church and the snowflakes on college campuses tooting the same horn? You know what I mean...the Gospel of Rodney King...why can't we all just get along? That would be fine except that isn't the message that Jesus preached.

Can this creaked old bag of bones cut to the chase on you here?

Check out the Disciples of Jesus and you will find that they were not a bunch of non-offensive pretty boys. Call me calloused but I can't see the Apostle Paul wearing skinny jeans and puffy hair and being indifferent towards the slaughter of the pre-born.

John the Baptist was a pretty rough and tumble guy and I am pretty sure that he wasn't very popular on the Synagogue speaking circuit. He was about the most edgy and unpolished evangelist that the world had ever seen...unless you forget the Old Testament radicals Jeremiah, Isaiah, or Zeke.

In fact, did you know that Jesus is returning with blood dripping off of his garments and He is going to clean the place up?

Yes my friends, Jesus was born in a manger with no crib for a bed but that is merely where the story begins. If you take the time to get your head out your Christmas copy of "Your Best Life Now" and back into the Bible you will find that Jesus is returning and He ain't coming back in a baby stroller.

So, I am going to prepare for war. It is time we stopped begging folks to “come to Jesus” as if we were inviting them to some multi-level marketing program. The day of the Lord is a fearful day and it is time we cut all of the crap and start warning the wicked of the wrath to come.

It is time to stop “acting” like a Christian and time to start being one. If I am lucky I have 20 years left to live. I’m going out fighting. Who gives a crap what the Lord’s enemies think? I’d rather be right than liked. Do you care to join the fight?

Check us out at www.CoachDaveLive.com. We are training warriors for Christ. It is time to get off of the Love Boat and onto the battleship.

© 2017 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

What Has Christmas Done To Christianity?

This is not what you think it is going to be.

This is not about the pagan origins of Christmas. It is not about the placing of coniferous trees in your home. It is not about the commercialization of the birth of Christ or even about the glorification of Santa and the lying to children about the jolly old elf.

Those are certainly bad enough and an argument can be made for how each of those examples is undermining the Incarnation of Christ.

But that is not what is destroying Christianity in America.

Permit me to be the first to say how much I enjoy the Christmas season. My memory is flush with visions of sugarplums dancing in my head as a result of growing up in a large family in the sixties when things somehow seemed so much tamer.

Call it pagan if you like, but I have very warm and fuzzy images in my head of sitting around the Christmas tree and reading the Nativity story with our precious children as we explained to them the miracle of the virgin birth and God's unique plan of salvation.

It is not the paganism that is undermining the Gospel, although it is, but rather the incomplete story of the birth of Christ. Christ came to save us from our sins

This all came to a head last Sunday when I drove by our local porn shop only to discover that the building was covered with Christmas decorations...including reindeer on the front lawn. Immediately the thought popped into my head "the light came into the world but the darkness perceived it not." There is something seriously wrong when the porn shop is joining in the celebration of the birth of the One who came to destroy sin.

How could both the church and the porno shop be celebrating the same thing? Simple. The American Church no longer teaches that we are to fear the Lord.

Statistics show that young Americans are leaving the church in droves. The more we strive to make Christianity more relevant the more decadent the culture becomes. Where have we gone wrong I found myself thinking as I drove past the slut shop all decorated in "gay apparel?"

Suddenly, it hit me. The Babe wrapped in swaddling clothes.

That is the first image we place in the minds of our children when we introduce them to the King of Kings. From their earliest days we inculcate our children with the image of the Savior of the World as a Babe lying in a manger.

When was the last time you ever heard of someone being afraid of a baby in a crib?

Stay with me here.

Looking for a clue I reread the popular manger story found in Luke and I was stunned by what leaped off of the page at me.

*And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

The Glory of the Lord MADE THEM AFRAID!! Despite what the Christmas Carols tell us, it wasn't a Silent Night, Holy Night. All wasn't calm and all wasn't bright. The appearance of the King of Kings brought great fear to the Shepherds.

It wasn't the cattle lowing...or the fact that the "Little Lord Jesus no crying he makes." The Christmas carols that we sing totally misrepresent the atmosphere on that night. It was a night of awe punctuated by fear. It was Holy, but it certainly wasn't silent...at least not in the corridors of the doomed and the damned. A deathly blow that night was delivered to the forces of darkness.

Although he may have been born in a stable the King of Kings was birthed on a battlefield. Have you ever read the Nativity story in second chapter of Matthew? What if this was the story that we taught to our children? You would do well if you took time to read it.

Permit this synopsis. From the moment Jesus was born in that manger the forces of darkness, led by King Herod, set forth to kill the Christ Child. So real was the threat that an angel warned Joseph to flee to Egypt. When Herod could not find the location of the child he sent forth his soldiers to slaughter every male child under the age of two. Matthew records:

"In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not."

The kingdom of darkness responded to the birth of the King with unspeakable death, lamentation, weeping, and mourning. The battle for the souls of man began in a barn.

What if that was the Christmas messaging that America Christians taught their children? What if we spoke less of Ho Ho and more of hell? What if we taught them that the battle between the two seeds was a violent one and that the followers of the Babe Wrapped in Swaddling Clothes should be prepared to fight to the death for the advancement of the Kingdom of Light?

Perhaps it was a Holy night. Perhaps it was a silent night. Perhaps His incarnation would eventually bring "peace on earth goodwill to men." But the silence of His birth was soon broken by the wail of heartbroken mothers. Like it or not the history since His birth has been filled with violence and death.

For most American Christians Jesus is still lying in a manger. No wonder the porn shop celebrates Christmas.

Jesus is coming back and once again death will be following him. He is returning as a Warrior King... and he won't be wearing a diaper.

Ho! Ho! Ho! You won't find that message coming down your chimney.

© 2017 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Is It Ever OK For A Christian to Lie?

That is a question that I was asked on my internet show this week. The knee jerk reaction of most people I talk to is a without-hesitation "no."

Please permit this shameless plug. The show I broadcast five days a week is worth a listen. It lasts an hour and is a powerful interactive show with audience participation. We discuss all of the tough issues from a Christian perspective and have found that "in the multitude of many counselors is great wisdom." All of our shows are free and archived www.CoachDaveLive.com.

Is it ever OK to lie? That is a topic that we dealt with this week in regards to the Alabama senate race and particularly how it relates to Judge Roy Moore.

Stop! This commentary is not about Judge Moore. I am appealing to you, the reader, to weigh in on this issue because it is worthy of debate. Many Christians of good conscience could not vote for Roy Moore because they felt he had not been honest about his past. Without rearguing the situation in Alabama I am appealing to you for help.

Is it ever OK to tell a lie?

Whether we realize it or not, Christian values WON in Alabama on Tuesday. The vote was not a rejection of values but an upholding of them. However, the Christian community was divided about whether or not Judge Moore was worthy of their vote. Cast aside the arguments about his guilt or innocence...his right to the presumption of innocence...the political tactics involved in the accusations. Christian values carried the day. Those who voted for Judge Moore did it to advance the Kingdom. Christians who didn't vote for him believed they were advancing the Kingdom by demanding honesty.

I personally believe Judge Moore. He said the accusations were bogus and I believe him. Others did not. But the Christian community was divided over which Christian value was most important...presumption of innocence or lying. Evidently a whole gaggle of Christians who constantly tell us that we are not supposed "to judge" had no trouble passing judgment on Judge Moore.

In fact, if you check out the average Facebook page you will find "Christians" fighting over which virtue was most important. Hence, the question that we addressed on the show and the question I put before you today...

Is it ever OK for a Christian to lie?

As a point of reference please allow me to issue a clarification. The Ten Commandments never mention the act of lying. The 9th Commandment refers to "bearing false witness against thy neighbor." It is my belief that ALL of the Commandments are in place as a means of protection of the innocent. Bearing false witness is wrong because it is harmful to an innocent victim. Is it ever wrong to tell a falsehood in order to PROTECT an innocent person?

Consider the following:

Would you lie to protect the safety of your children? If a man broke into your house and asked you if there was any one else in the house and you knew your daughter was sleeping in a room in the basement would it be wrong to "lie" to the intruder to secure your daughter's safety? Would you be more "righteous" if you ratted out your daughter because "I cannot tell a lie?"

What if you were coaching a football team and on the last play of the game your team scored the winning touchdown, but you noticed that one of your players was holding on the play. Are you obligated as a Christian to go to the referee and report the penalty on your own player thereby cancelling the touchdown and awarding the victory to the other team? Isn't permitting a violation of the rules to occur and costing the other team a victory "bearing false witness?"

Or how about this nightmare. What if you are taking your wife out to a swank event and just before you leave the house she asks you "do I look fat in this outfit?" How do you answer? Would you be gut-honest and tell her "Yes" or would you reassure her that she looks fine even though you do think she looks a bit heavy in the gown.

Are you catching my drift? Is it ever OK to lie?

How about this one. What if you are running for office and you are the deciding vote as to whether or not the killing of innocent babies in their mother's womb will end. Let's pretend that you did date a 14 year old girl forty years ago but the rest of the allegations were bogus? If you knew that admitting to dating a 14 year old girl would prevent you from ending abortion would it be wrong to deny any involvement?

My friends, unfortunately morality is not as cut and dried, black and white as we would like for it to be. Jesus said that he would no longer write the law on stone but that he would write it on the "fleshly tablets of our hearts." We often hear about "the lesser of two evils" but is there ever a time when two "honest" values come in conflict and that we are required to choose between "the greater of two goods?"

The Bible tells us that "the letter of the law brings death but the Spirit of the law brings life."

Let's face the facts, my friends. That is the conflict that Christians faced in Alabama. Which is worse...the telling of a lie in order to save the lives of the unborn or admitting to the allegations and permitting babies to die? The conscience of many Christians caused them to stay home and as a result the overturning of Roe V Wade just became less likely. More babies will die...but at least a “accused liar” was not elected.

Those who regularly listen to my show are looking for an answer. I feel obligated to tell them the truth. Perhaps you can give me some guidance. Is there such a thing as a greater good?

Don't throw stones at me. I'm just asking the question.

Is it ever OK for a Christian to lie?

© 2017 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com

Is Feminism Ruining Relationships?

I have to confess that all of this talk about sexual harassment of women is driving me a bit crazy. I also know that it is getting more and more risky to speak out against the established narrative as presented to us by the national thought police.

I know I'm in danger of being called a misogynist, but my tongue is beginning to swell from being gnawed on by my recently crowned molars. At the risk of opening myself up to criticism from the feminazi mafia I have made the decision to choose my own manner of mutilation.

The soon-to-be slings and arrows hurled my way by the man haters lurking in the etherzone will be much less painful than the self-flagellation that comes from\personal censorship. A wise man once said "to thine own self be true" and with that thought in mind I am going to attempt to draw first blood.

In all of the cackling about equality, and equal rights I find it amusing that we allow the fall-back position of so many "strong" women to be "he harassed me." Sex was designed to be a participatory exercise and in a nation that now declares all "genders" equal how are women able to get away with playing the role of the helpless, weaker victim in this charade of sexual victimization?

Whoa Nelly. Before you start accusing me of being soft on rape, please understand that I think I know what rape looks like and agree with the Biblical standard of rape being a death penalty crime. But "sexual harassmt" is not rape...so spare me the moralizing, please.

Sex in the workplace is nothing new. In fact, it has for decades destroyed more marriages than Hustler Magazine. Satan himself was the first single guy in recorded history to hit on another man's wife and his philandering led to the downfall of the entire human race.

Yes, my friends, all adultery begins with flirtation and, like it or not, many a romance began with a pat on the rump or the twist of a tongue. If Adam had simply manned up and defended his wife's honor perhaps Matt Lauer would still have a job. In sexually liberated America fornication has replaced bobbing for apples as the activity of choice of most unmarried couples.

I wonder how many of the "strong" women that Lauer "victimized" took his bait in hopes of trading a little affection for a possible career boost. Sex is often about power and you will never convince me that modern professional women are not aware of the power that lies a few inches below their belly button. For every woman that was appalled by Lauer's advances there were probably ten who swallowed the hook.

Puhleeze...spare me the "he took advantage of me" sob stories. I was in attendance at the Million Woman March in Washington and I saw a boo-coo number of signs extolling "P-ssy Power." (Those were their words not\mine.) So evidently our feline friends understand a bit more than they let on about the concealed weapon they carry in their pant suits.

Look folks, as much as we would like to we cannot have it both ways. We can't have our cake and eat it too. How in the world can the "liberated" American female cry inequality while holding the power of sex like the sword of Damocles of their male co-workers? Sorry to be so pig-headed, but I think men deserve better treatment than that.

It takes two to tango and a woman can say "no" just as easily as a man can. One can only imagine the number of men in the work place who have been jerked around by some pretty thing batting her eyes and swinging her hips only to receive a face-palm when they "misread" the bread crumbs that she dropped as she walked by.

Let me drop\another truth crumb and then you are free to hurl your epithets my way. Modesty is a thing of the past in America. When fornication has become nothing more than another social activity it is apparent that women are not always offended by WHAT a man says to her in the workplace, but rather WHO the man is that says it. If she likes the dude it is flirting. If she doesn't, it is harassment.

I recently saw a statistic that explained that nearly 70% of men under the age of 30 are not married. As the old saying goes, "why pay for the cow when you can get the milk for free?" In this age of "P-ssy Power" the charge of sexual exploitation begins to ring hollow. Are we to believe that ALL American women are virtuous?

We are going to have to make a decision here in the good ole US of A? Are men and women equal or not? This selective outrage regarding pre-fornication dialogue is not going to end well.

Why do you think the girls loved to hang around Al Franken? Remember, the old commercial, "membership has its privileges?" How does one defend himself from sex charges when all he was doing was putting some bait in the traps?

Feminism is ruining relationships.

No wonder pornography and blow-up sex dolls are becoming so popular.

© 2017 Dave Daubenmire – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Dave Daubenmire: ptsalt@gmail.com