

Suing Your Schools

Chuck Schumer once said “The government is the only thing we all belong to.” Apparently the superintendent takes that literally. The schools are government schools, therefore the kiddies belong to the school, not the parents.

Public Education: Grade Students Based on Skin Color

Moving on to Chicago, we have high school “officials” planning to implement a new “race-based grading system... to account for skin color or ethnicity of its students”. That’s because “the traditional grading practices perpetuate inequities,” dontcha know.

Big Shots with Lame Excuses

Public schools have emerged as the most convenient venue for groomers. School boards used to be staffed by normal people, insurance companies used to sell insurance, and no one was required to go along with and “affirm and celebrate” anyone else’s absurd delusion.

Where's the Peacemaker?

In 1904 Russia and Japan went to war to decide which of them would dominate Manchuria and Korea. It was a punishing conflict, with high casualties on both sides. A Russian fleet sailed virtually around the world, only to be wiped out by the Japanese in the battle of Tsushima Strait.

Toward a World Government Run by Lunatics

They want a world government, with themselves in charge. Now they think we'll give them that in return for, um, "health." And "safety." As defined by themselves. The pot is boiling, the brew is being stirred. Probably by witches.

How Much More 'Sex Ed' Can We Stand?

We've been warning you for years and years that public education's not your friend, it undermines your family, and it's poison for your children. Most people didn't listen. It was always so convenient just to pack Johnny off to school every weekday and forget about it. That's what too many of us did.

The Evolutionary Fallacy

The Evolutionary Fallacy teaches that sometimes evolution is slower than we'd like it to be. When that happens, Really Smart People can hurry it along with a violent revolution followed by a reign of terror. Honk if you've seen that before.

Are We Winning?

Secret “transition closets” in schools all over the country, encouraging children to “change their gender” while keeping it a secret from their parents—exposed! The mighty Disney Corp smacked down by the state of Florida, after having defied a new state law against grooming children for sex. And CNN+ canceled before it lasted a month.

Replacing God

You can see, can't you, that the New York Times isn't just totally full of Schiff after all. Everything God can do, Science and Money—our current gods—can do. They may not do it for everybody—that kind of technology can be expensive—but what us common folk can't be, we can still worship.

How Much More 'Sex Ed' Will People Tolerate?

The people of New Jersey are public schooling's latest victims. They were shocked last week when the state Board of Education suddenly announced a new "comprehensive sex education" curriculum, to go into effect this fall, featuring the usual potpourri of gender identity, sex-change, "gay" relationships, all seasoned with gender-neutral pronouns.

Do We Still Need the Consent of the Governed?

President Kamala then appoints two-time loser Hillary Clinton, the most corrupt woman in the world, vice president. The next step is to persuade Kamala to resign—maybe appoint her to the Supreme Court, where she can mindlessly cackle for the rest of her life. However they manage it, Kamala's gone. And Hillary becomes our president...

'Educating' Ourselves to Death

But now it's a thing that's literally true, and dangerous. You can't spend billions and billions of dollars, year after year after year, pumping children's heads full of garbage—can't do that without winding up with a garbage country.

A New Low: A Substitute Teacher Masturbating in Front of Class

The first bomb came from Nutley, New Jersey, a high-end town—or so we thought. A substitute teacher was arrested for masturbating in front of a high school class. Hard to imagine, isn't it? But actually it gets harder. This was his second offense!

My 'Bell Mountain' Books

What would happen if a piece of highly advanced technology, still intact, were to fall into the hands of people living a thousand years after the civilization that produced that technology was utterly destroyed? That's the question posed in my book, "The Witch Box," No. 15 in my "Bell Mountain" series...

New Names for Old S

The Oregon legislature, for instance, is about to enact into law a bill that recasts blatant racism as a “public health crisis”. It would be just plain ugly “racism” if we did anything like this; but when they do it, it’s “public health.”

“Viva Yo!”

There’s a Spanish expression, “Viva yo!”, which means, literally, “Long live me!” But it means a little more than that. “I come first! I’m the king. The rest of you, out of the way!” There’s a lot of “Viva yo” going around these days.

How Our School Boards Turned Against Us

The only thing we can do that will mean anything, that will have any positive effect, is to pull our children out of public school and educate them at home. This year, the number of families homeschooling their children increased four times over, the biggest increase ever.

Goose-Stepping into Paradise

I didn't realize the Winter Olympics were on until they were almost over (which happens this Sunday, I suppose). I chanced to see a picture of the opening ceremonies—Chinese Communist soldiers goose-stepping under their flag.

Christian Communists?

What the Pope didn't see fit to mention was that this, in Acts 4, was the very first generation of Christians—the foundation of the whole Church, which would soon spread throughout the world. Their mission, far more important than any other consideration, was to establish the Church.

We Must Be Crazy

There must be something seriously wrong with us, the American people, that we continue to tolerate the deluge of toxic idiocy poured on us by what we call our public education system.

Desperate Democrats

However unpleasant it may be, we have to realize that leftists are working feverishly, fanatically, to bring America as we know it to an end. This time the enemy isn't bombing Pearl Harbor. This time the enemy is here.

Hijacking Christianity

The original sin was man's desire to be as God, deciding for himself what was good or evil, true or false. Today that sin manifests itself in such monstrosities as "choosing your gender," wiping out "systemic racism" by convincing all white people that they're villains, and that whole transhumanist pipe dream of merging ourselves with our machines so we can live forever

EU Drops Plan to Scrap Christmas

Recently the EU's "equality minister" recommended that Christmas be abolished and replaced with a vague "Holiday Period." Oh! And she also recommended that the names "John" and "Mary" be tossed out and not used anymore—'cause they're, like, "Christian names" and therefore "not inclusive."

Hostile Government

No more Critical Race Theory, no more diversity & inclusion officers, no more border-jumping, no more silly stupid pronouns, no more FBI spies hanging out at school board meetings, no more “mostly peaceful protests” making a shambles of our streets, no more 2,000-page spending bills in Congress—no more any of it, the whole infuriating mess has got to go.

What We're Getting for Our Money

Neatly hidden in the House Democrats' insane spending bill, somewhere around Page 1,350, we find an exhilarating plan to entertain Americans while at the same time making our minds right.

School Boards Gone Rogue

Who would have ever thought a school board president—and his father, for crying out loud!—would go around stalking parents who objected to a school board policy, collecting private information on them and making it publicly accessible? What kind of personal information? Social Security numbers!

Is It Still ‘Our’ Government?

We have to take a much closer look at the characters who are supposed to represent us, from Congress right on down to the smallest local board of education. Because I don't think they're representing us. Remember when elected officials of all kinds were known as "public servants"? Yo-ho-ho and a bottle of rum to that!

On The Road to Lunacy

By the way, have you noticed that "My body, my choice!" just goes away when they're talking about COVID-19 vaccine mandates? They're perfectly happy to have Big Brother make that choice for them. Sure, shoot us up with experimental chemicals! But it's "my choice" to off my unborn child.

Loudon County Schools... Melting Down

The Loudon County school district, in Virginia, is where the action is these days. Or to put it more simply, it's a mess.

This week a juvenile court judge found a 14-year-old high school boy—who was wearing a skirt at the time, and claiming to be “transgender”—guilty of raping a female student in a high school rest room.

Our Military Goes Downright Silly

Imagine it as a scene in a movie. General George Patton is up late at night, laboring to plan the relief of Bastogne. Can he get there in time, before the Germans overrun the town? It's the Battle of the Bulge, and the situation is critical. How about the weather? Will his combat aircraft be able to fly support missions?

Phony, Pandering, Condescending, and False

Is there anything about this so-called presidential administration that isn't phony, pandering, condescending, and false? Somehow, when she's supposed to be minding our southern border, alleged Vice President Kamala Harris found time to make a little video for NASA—you know, those guys who once used to send men to the moon.

Socialist School Boards vs. American Parents

So now parents are pushing back—vigorously, because they must. They absolutely must. They’ve branded us “domestic terrorists”—because we don’t want “Critical Race Theory” forced down our children’s throats. To say nothing of their obsession with promoting transgenderism.

Shut Up and Pay

The public pays for what people who don’t know any better call “public education.” But the public doesn’t own it. In that very real sense, “public education” isn’t public. Every moment of instruction, every textbook, school building, teacher pension, administrator’s gorgeous salary, every visual aid, locker, sports equipment—every cent of it, the public pays for.

Read! Read More!

This is serious. How are we supposed to maintain a constitutional republic—and keep our liberties!—if hardly anybody knows, or cares, what a republic is, how a constitution works, or what history tells us will not only not work, but can actually lead us into disaster?

Dancing on the Brink of Doom

Those “Met galas” in New York always give me the creeps. The one this year charged $30,000 a ticket. That’s what assorted high-end leftists paid to show off their overpriced threads—there are always photographers handy.

Two Questions That Demand Answers

The state of South Australia is going to use high technology to keep tabs on all its, er, “citizens.” They’ll subject you to random checks on your whereabouts, via your cell phone; and if you don’t text the government within 15 minutes of receiving the message, they’ll sic the cops on you.

‘Educating Perversion’ With

Little Or No Consequences

If the United States of America ever turns into a failed state, a socialist hell-hole that's only another name on the map, nothing will have played a bigger part in its destruction than what we like to call our public education system.

Look At Us Now

All of this mess—Afghanistan, the border, the inflation—was easily avoidable! It was never carved in stone. But after that travesty of a 2020 election, we had Democrats in charge of everything. They made these messes!

Kicking Sand in America's Face

Red China is kicking sand in our faces, trumpeting to the world that the USA is no better than a broken reed to lean on, a straw man of an ally who drops the ball and runs away when the going gets tough. "Better surrender to us while you can! Don't expect America to help you."

A High School Diploma... For Nothing

Late last month the Oregon legislature and governor passed a law that, in its own words, “prohibits the State Board of Education from requiring for a high school diploma that student show proficiency in any academic content area if student successfully completed credit requirements”

Stupid Stuff That Has to Stop

We’re doing it because politicians, teachers’ unions, cracked college professors, A-list celebrities, Big Tech, and all the rest of the usual suspects are telling us we have to! The mystery of it is, why are we obeying them?

My New Book “The Wind From Heaven” Is Out

Adventures happen, and fabulous discoveries. Ordinary people are called upon to do extraordinary things. The whole world is waking to a frightening realization that the last thousand years has only been a kind of sleeping-spell that held them in apathetic sin and ignorance.

Have We Gone Off the Deep End?

Bad enough we have to listen to pap like “Men are women with penises, women are men with vaginas,” all white people are racists, and “riots are Mostly Peaceful Protests.” The list could go on all day. But now we’re told that...

Are You an “Extremist”?

If we don’t want that done to us, we have to stop it. No more reaching across the aisle: all we ever get for that is a double handful of trash. No more sitting at home on Election Day because The Righteous Candidate never showed up. This is war—against a ruthless enemy who must be utterly defeated.

Can They Hijack Our Dreams?

If there’s a mean and nasty trick that the government is not allowed to do because it would be illegal... they can always find some goons in the private sector to do it for them. You know—like forcing people to take experimental drugs against their will.

Let Them Defend the Indefensible

Once upon a time the communities served by the public schools owned their public schools. They decided what was taught in there, and by whom. But little by little, starting in the late 1960s, state and federal governments, and teachers' unions, stripped them of their ownership rights and totally took over.

Mocking the Left

Because they truly believe in their own superior mental powers, which is quite a serious delusion, Democrats say a lot of funny things that deserve to be mocked. We offer mockery as a service to the public, in hopes that the American people, once they realize what dimwits their self-anointed betters are, will just stop listening to them.

The Pope's Mixed Message

On Monday the Pope was asked to give Communion to Joe Biden, a self-described Catholic who supports and promotes abortion, sodomy, and "transgender" like his life depended on it. Normally the Pope would say yes. But on Tuesday he backed off.

Christian Bloggers, Unite!

I'm not the only Christian blogger who's seen his viewer numbers take a nosedive this year. It seems to have happened to most of us. Why should that be? There are many of us, we all have different things to say—we can't all have turned off our audience at the same time.

Three Abominations—Shall We Try for Four?

Aside from the millions of lives lost, have we not cheapened life itself? To say nothing of our constitutional system of checks and balances: suddenly our courts could do anything they pleased, with no accountability to the nation.

It's Pushback Time

This week parents in Scottsdale, Arizona, held their own public meeting outside Coronado High School. They did it because that's where their Unified School District board meeting was supposed to be held, but the board members never showed up. To avoid answering to the public, they held a "virtual meeting" online.

Cuomo's 'Leadership Lessons'

I can't make up my mind what to write about today—Andrew Cuomo getting a $5.1 million book deal, or the IRS and the Postal Service teaming up to frustrate our efforts to pay our taxes. Let's see if I can find space for both.

War of the Worlds

This past weekend was our annual National Day of Prayer, kicked off, as usual, by a presidential proclamation. But the patzer currently inhabiting the White House left God out of his proclamation. True, he forgets a lot; maybe he forgot God, although he never forgets to promote abortion or transgender.

'Public Education' as a Car: A Parable

Suppose the government decided you had to buy a new car every year, whether you want to or not. If you already have a car, you can keep it. You don't have to take possession of the government car, but you'll still have to pay for it. They suck the money out of your taxes, so you're stuck.

The Far Left Tool Kit

Fundamentally transforming America into a socialist hell-hole is a big job, even for confirmed fanatics and other bad guys. But they're doing it as fast as they can; and here are six of the most useful tools in their kit.

A Tale of Two Follies

Which will prove to be the worse disaster as a leader of the world—Communist China under President-for-life Xi Jin Ping, or the Vatican under Francis I, the Red Pope?

The Next Big Lockdown

The Portland school board has provided us with a harbinger of things to come. They were about to adopt a fir tree as the mascot for their schools, but suddenly had second thoughts. Wait a minute! Those trees... they might be—oh, no!—racist trees. After all, “trees” were often used in lynchings. That would make them racist.

Killing Our Culture

First, you can hardly hope to wreck a civilization unless you can trash its arts and, at the same time, make it virtually impossible for people to communicate with one another. The nitwits in the Oxford University Music Dept. know that. So they're thinking of getting rid of... musical notation.

It Just Plain Stinks

We pay for public schooling. "Public money" is our money, which we worked for, paid out in local, state, and federal taxes. You'd think we'd have some kind of a say as to what gets taught in those schools, and by whom. And yet we don't. They take our money and do as they please.

Except the Lord Build the House...

You'd almost think it was our technology itself that's turned against us; but really it's the pipsqueaks who own the technology who are looking to devour us. And you thought "The Hunger Games" was science fiction.

History... and Fantasy

So we work. We plod on through good times and bad, wars and rumors of wars, crisis after crisis: we work to spread the good news of the Gospel, to give hope to a fallen world and light to the darkness. There is still great wickedness afoot, and we have to deal with it. And there will be times when it seems there is no path to victory.

It's All About Control

In Canada the Peel Regional schools, covering three suburbs of Toronto, have hatched a scheme that has even a lot of the “experts” on the warpath. Here’s what they want to do. If one child in your child’s class tests positive for COVID, school officials want you to take your child home and “self-isolate” him in one room for 14 days. During that time, he must stay in the room and not come out...

The Public's Masters

Somewhere along the way, public servants became the public's masters. Paternalism is hard to bear even when it's well-meaning, and benign. But when the paternalists despise the people that they govern—well, that's where we are now. Two examples will suffice.

Hungary, 1956: Freedom or Death

When I was seven years old, Hungarian state police opened fire on a student protest and launched the Hungarian Revolution. That was on Oct. 23. By Nov. 10, Russian troops had crushed the uprising and the victorious communists broke all their promises to reform the government. Hungary would not be free until the Iron Curtain crumbled, a whole generation later.

Republican Cowards

We were inundated this weekend with emails begging for funds for assorted Republican politicians. You know—the ones who were nowhere to be found when our president needed them. The ones who were nowhere to be found when we needed them. And now they want our money. Now they've got the tin cups in their hands.

How Crazy Is It Going to Get?

For instance: In Merrie Olde England recently, police arrested a woman for... singing in her back yard. You really ought to click the link and watch the embedded video. It's scary stuff.

Impeach 'Em All

Their current target is Donald Trump, former president and now a private citizen like you or me. If they can convict him of something, anything, then they can ensure he'll never be allowed to run again. So far, so good!

Are We Living in a Tom Clancy Novel?

But they aren't calling it an Iron Curtain. Globalists have a nicer name for it: The Great Reset. You'll like it, really. It's all for your own good, and owned and operated by The Smartest People in the World. Just obey; and, as Col. Saito said in The Bridge Over the River Kwai, "Be happy in your work." Because we'll lock you in the sweat-box if you don't.

The Big Lie Takes Form

resident Donald Trump incited a riot at the Capitol. The riots incited by the Democrats for the past four years don't count. Those riots included several invasions of the Capitol, by leftists—remember Code Pink barging in on Congress? But that was okay. Also okay was the spectacle of a leftist mob pounding on the doors to disrupt Brett Kavanaugh's swearing-in as a Supreme Court justice.

If They Can Do It to Us, They Can Do It to You

Do I know what to do about it? No, I don't. We've never dealt with such a colossal crime before. We are asked to submit to a government that has no right to be there. I can only pray that we will not.

Losing Heart? Don't

I'm also getting a dozen or more emails every day from Mitch McConnell and other aphids calling on me to pour more of my own money into the U.S. Senate race in Georgia. In the wake of McConnell & Co. giving up on President Trump and conceding the White House to Biden the Fraud, I find their schnorring really hard to take.

Did We See a... Pterodactyl?

Christmas Eve today, and Christmas Day tomorrow—I don't feel like writing about politics, and I don't blame you if you'd rather not read anything about politics. With a stolen election hanging over our heads, our country is in the most danger it has faced since World War II. We are looking down the barrel at the end of our republic.

The Age of Manufactured Consent

How do you govern a country when roughly half the citizens, and very likely more, believe you have no right to govern them at all? Because you lied, cheated, and stole votes to rig an election: that's how you got your power.

Pearl Harbor Day, 2020

What if, instead of attacking America's Pacific Fleet at Pearl Harbor, the Japanese sought to dominate America politically, economically, financially? What if they had access to technology that would allow them to corrupt American leaders and meddle successfully in American elections?

How to Set Up a Global Government

Globalists want a global government. They've wanted it for years; and right now, they're closer than they've ever been to achieving it. And they can do it, too—if only they can solve a few simple problems.

Teaching the Peasants Who's Boss

If COVID-19 is as deadly as they say it is, how come they're not afraid of it? How come their pet rioters aren't dying off like flies after crowding into the streets? But as long as you can dictate the outcome of a national election, it's What Me Worry for them and Shut Up and Pay Your Taxes for us. This is a shame to us, and it must not be allowed to stand.

The Media Cult

But I have also described our mainstream nooze media. Totally in the bag for Democrats, and the world's most practiced fear merchants—that's them. That's "journalism." And it's by no means unjust to call what they dish out "fear porn."

Will Riots Scare Us into Surrender?

The best thing this crime has going for it is its sheer enormity. Fixing an election makes fixing the World Series look like child's play. But they now have the technology, and the money, to do it—one accidentally-on-purpose “computer glitch” after another, just to name one of many tricks employed.

The Dems' Deplorable Word

Communists have always liked to say you have to break eggs to make an omelet, although never in history did they ever get past the egg-breaking stage. But what we're talking about here is breaking all the eggs. All of them. And depend on this: if they ever do get back into power, Democrats will change the rules so that they'll never be turned out of power again.

Is 'Journalism' Bottoming Out?

Now it's over fifty years later: and the new CEO of the Sacramento Bee has a plan to tie his reporters' pay to the number of clicks their stories get. And those reporters are horrified.

'Pro-Life Evangelicals' for Abortion

Recently a group of "pro-life evangelicals, some of them noted biblical scholars" (according to the Christian Post) endorsed abortion-happy Joe Biden for president. We are not given their names, nor told who has "noted" them as, ahem, "biblical scholars." But we do know that Biden has been endorsed by Planned Parenthood: seems like funny company for "biblical scholars" to be keeping.

They've Just Got to Control Us

Imagine how upset they'll be if they lose the election in November. But as joyous an occasion as that would be, it won't make them go away. Only several decades' worth of long, hard work can possibly accomplish that. And even then we'll need God's blessing—because leftist politics is Original Sin at work.

The Ideology of Playing God

We may also wonder why we stand for such abuse, why we let them get away with it. Well, ordinary people are often at a disadvantage when dealing with fanatics. Evil is usually permitted to run wild for a time before we pluck up the courage to smack it down. Which we will have an opportunity to do, this November.

Scaring Ourselves Silly

I saw a rather bizarre sight the other day. Children were coming out of St. Francis' school, across the street: all of them wearing face masks. Instead of laughing and talking as they always do, they were completely silent. And to pay their deep respects to Social Distancing, they walked with their arms outstretched in front of them, as if they were wearing blindfolds.

Trump's on Our Side

First he banned "Critical Race Theory" from being "taught" to federal employees in just about every branch of the bureaucracy. "Critical Race Theory," a poison concocted by our academic establishment, proclaims that all white people are evil, born racists, to blame for everything that's ever been wrong in our country...

Now, Will You Listen?

Rutherford County, Tennessee, "school officials" are demanding that parents sign a waiver promising not to listen in on their kids' lessons in the virtual classroom. This would be the remote learning provided by the school district, using its own teachers. They want the poor devils who pay for all this "education" to waive their rights as parents...

'Moral Enhancements'—in Your Drinking Water

Defund the universities. Throw out, as garbage, the whole inane idea that everybody has to go to college. It's only the absurd expansion of our higher education system that has created jobs for fools like this twaddler at Western Michigan. You could buy a nice house for the money that you blew on college.

College: Poisoning America

Our colleges and universities are poisoning our country. Look at the riots: multitudes of white middle-class college students, useful idiots. But let's look at two examples of what the colleges are...uh, "teaching" them

Teachers to Parents: Butt Out

A big-name "educator," one Mathew Kay, recently complained on Twitter about parents overhearing the content of online lessons and trying to butt in. He thinks they should butt out. Millions of kids are now in virtual classrooms, online, with schools closed due to the coronavirus panic.

When 'Smart' is Stupid

I grew up believing in Evolution, because that's what I was exposed to and I never heard anybody question it. But now a lot of people question it, including me—because it just doesn't make sense.

The ‘Socialization’ Scam

Millions of school-age kids and college students today are learning at home, learning online. Why send them back to the same public schools that these same conservatives have denounced, and rightfully so, as indoctrination centers? Why send them back?

Robbed of Their Adulthood

Rational thought, hard work, and intact families—according to a “portal” put up by the Smithsonian Institution, and quickly taken down again, that’s all white people’s stuff, and Persons Of Color (POCs) have only, well, borrowed and internalized them because that bad ol’ white culture is dominant.

The Enemy Is Here

Why is it that every socialist nabob in every country where they exist winds up as rich as flaming Croesus? What—is Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez not yet a millionaire? But then she’s only just started. Bernie Sanders didn’t start out rich, but he is now.

We Want Our Country Back

Our country was set up as a republic whose people governed themselves through their elected representatives. Laws didn't just materialize out of the ether. They had to be proposed, publicly debated, and then voted on by the legislature. At every step of the process was room for further discussion and possible amendment.

What Is God About to Do?

This is the age of panic. The wise and prudent, turned into fools, and our entire ruling class—politicians, banks, big corporations, professional sports leagues, social media platforms, Hollywood, teachers' unions, college professors—is stampeding to grovel at the feet of Only Far Left Black Lives Matter. They're wiping out our culture.

Don't Wait For Your Religious Leaders – Stick Up for Our Country, Now!

Why do we Americans just lie on our backs and take it when the Far Left and their pet nooze media dump their toxic "narrative" all over us? "Narrative," by the way, doesn't mean what the dictionary says it means. It has morphed into a euphemism for an endless stream of slimy lies spewed out by left-wing noozies.

‘Science’ Disgraces Itself

We are looking at a serious, well-funded, and thoroughly ruthless campaign to overturn America and replace it with a “new world” bearing more than a passing resemblance to the late Soviet Union. We are looking at a push for global Stalinism—with a self-anointed scientific elite perched on tyranny’s shoulder like a parrot.

My New Book is Out

We’re still locked down, we’re being told “the masks are here to stay,” and this past weekend we had coast-to-coast riots. The Left snapped up the murder of George Floyd as if it were a gift-wrapped birthday present with their name on it. Didn’t take long to bring this country to its knees, did it? Of course, certain people did work very hard to make it happen.

How Much of Our Country Does

China Own?

What, exactly, are colleges and universities supposed to do for us? After all, they cost us hundreds of billions of dollars a year, and there are some 18 million students sitting in their classroom—who have paid handsomely, if not exorbitantly, for the privilege.

We Can't Afford to be Stupid

China has already launched the most ambitiously intrusive and oppressive program of social control ever seen, the “social credit system.” You have to carry your cell phone everywhere so the government can keep track of everything you say and do, everywhere you go.

When Do We Get Our Freedoms Back?

Well, at least now we've all had a little taste of socialism. How do you like it? And remember that months before anyone heard any mention of COVID-19, assorted Democrats were campaigning to let convicted felons out of prison. And abolish the police, while we're at it. The virus gave them an excuse to spring thousands of jailbirds.

A Few Random Thoughts

Communism in general, and Chinese communism in particular, must be destroyed. Communism is an evil relic of the worst of the Twentieth Century, responsible for more suffering and wretchedness than any other form of government devised by fallen man—not to mention tens of millions of untimely deaths.

The Year Civilization Collapsed: 1177 B.C.

If you honestly believe a perfect world can be achieved by the likes of Bill Gates, the Chinese Communist Party, John Kerry, Greta Thunberg, Michael Moore, and the whole transgender movement—You're crazy.

Baloney Against Homeschooling From Harvard

Harvard Magazine's latest load of baloney is an article on "The Risks of Homeschooling". The primary source is a Harvard law professor who sounds like she was raised by insects. The article calls for a government ban of homeschooling.

Kudos and Black Eyes

The communist government of China is, of course, the ultimate villain here. Messing around in a biowarfare lab, they let the virus out, covered up the story (with help from the World Health Organization, thank you so much) for several weeks, tried to blame it on America, and played an exceedingly dirty trick on the whole world.

Three Lessons That Must Be Learned

If we learn nothing else from our steel cage match with the Chinese Wuhan Communist Death Virus, let us at least learn these three lessons. These are easy lessons. A ten-year-old could learn them. All right, I haven't tested to see whether Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez could learn them. But all the same we'd better learn them. The next time, presuming we come out of this bout alive, might be fatal.

Red China: How Much Longer?

And just this month it has been reported that 21 million Chinese cellphone users have dropped out of the picture. Gone missing. The immediate speculation was that the communist government, as is its invariable custom, had lied gigantically about the coronavirus death toll in their country.

Lessons To Be Learned

And if it turns out you don't like perpetual shortages at the supermarket and huge, swollen government meddling in your life and in your business—well, folks, socialism is like that all the time. Talk to anyone who risked his life to paddle over here from Cuba.

An Interview with Western Civilization

HOST: Whew! That was really something, wasn't it? Well, folks, that's it for "Eternity Today" today. Tune in to "Eternity Today" tomorrow for another special guest who wishes it was... yesterday!

Never Give In – Never Give Up

Winston Churchill said, "Never give in, never give in, never, never, never, never in nothing, great or small, large or petty, never give in except to convictions of honour and good sense. Never yield to force; never yield to the apparently overwhelming might of the enemy.”

The All-Time Dirty Deal

Meanwhile, up in Wisconsin, the Madison Metro School District teachers’ union has demanded—yes, demanded—the right of “transgender educators” to share bathrooms with the kiddies. Uh, does anybody still think teachers’ unions ought to be allowed? In Chicago the teachers’ union sends members on junkets to Venezuela so they can learn first-hand how to trash a country.

The News You Won’t Believe

A group of parents are suing the Madison, Wisconsin, Metro School District over its “gender policy”—under which the schools are to “help” children “transition” to another sex without the knowledge or consent of their parents.

Warning! Shipwreck Ahead

Ah! But what if they mean to sink the ship on purpose? Because they want to build their own, according to their own peculiar vision of what a ship should be; but before they can do that, they have to get rid of the ship that they took over. They've got their places reserved in the lifeboats, don't they?

That Crazy Party

Something has moved Democrats to cast off the mask of sanity and flash us all their naked totalitarianism. Is it delusion? Desperation? Or do they think they know something that we don't know—something that tells them they can get away with it? I take them at their word. They are crazy, and they need to be utterly defeated in November.

A Cornucopia of Tyranny

Want to freak yourself out? Just imagine Hillary Clinton in the White House instead of Donald Trump, and Chuck ("Who's that invisible person sitting in my chair?") Schumer as senate majority leader. If Far Left Crazy is this crazy when they're out of power, think what they would do if they were in.

More Climate Change Hypocrisy

Last week this guy used three private jets, and a helicopter, to fly 16,000 miles before finally coming to earth at Davos for the World Economic Forum and some photo ops with teenage climate scold Greta Thunberg.

Voting for Trump is... Illegal?

Meanwhile, CNN, an even more hysterical purveyor of left-wing rants disguised as news, plus a goodly portion of outright falsehoods, is now partnering with HBO to craft a documentary on “the rise of fake news”. Oh, please! Our nooze media are so dishonest, even with themselves, that they don’t know they’re fake.

Yes, It’s True, They’re Crazy

Anointed by the Far Left Crazy as Scold O’ The World, Swedish teenager Greta Thunberg has issued a set of “demands” to the elite globalists who are getting ready to board their private jets and head to Davos for the World Economic Forum.

Now They Want to Abolish Police

In London, where it's just about impossible to lawfully own a gun for self-defense, the murder rate for 2019 was the highest it's been for the whole decade—149 people killed. It wasn't at its highest for the new century, though: in 2008, the body count was 154.

Teacher Unions vs. Teachers

All of this mischief, which we still call “public education,” is the work of the Democrat Party. What a low opinion they must have of minorities! But then for liberals no one is a person in his or her own right. “You” are not you, but only a member of this or that identity group, to be treated accordingly.
