

Be Alert, America: Has The Battle For Our Country Come To Tennessee?

By Kat Stansell

The complete destruction of Accurate Energy Systems (AES) in Hickman County, TN, last week may well have been intentional. I hate to even think that, but, given all the other insanity of late, it may not be as crazy as it sounds. I believe that, after the evidence is gathered, it may be proven that the explosion was not just an industrial accident.

You see, AES served our US military.

The company had contracts with the Department of War (formerly DOD) for the manufacture of explosives. Just two weeks before the blast, the Department of War awarded AES a contract for $120 million for "the procurement of TNT" to support military needs, on September 23, 2025. Did one of the Dark Angel's troops know this somehow?

The company specializes in producing high explosives such as TNT and C-4, which are used in military applications including demolition charges. While AES also supplies commercial clients in sectors like aerospace, oil, and demolition, its DoD ties make it a key private partner in the U.S. military's explosives supply chain.

While watching the news, on the morning after the blast, something popped into my head...

What if, what just happened at AES was like what happened to food providers during Biden's White House occupation?

Do you remember all the explosions and fires at food processing and storage facilities during the OBiden regime? There were over 100 mysterious fires and explosions in food production facilities around the country as the Globalists worked to limit our food supplies, and force us to turn to fake food, bugs and the like.

Animals that many relied on for food were brutally massacred in fields and barns and feedlots, one after the other. "Bird flu" and all sorts of other insane rumors were perpetrated. Many food producers and processors which supplied America were destroyed. Prices went up sharply.

I wrote about it all then, because it sickened me, and because it appeared VERY intentional. At one point, there were 87 disasters in one calendar year! These continued THROUGHOUT Biden's years at 1600. The Left blamed the "supply chain" and the price of gas, as food prices went up. The press stopped covering the "accidents" and the attention of the public was diverted by other "shiny objects".

Not one arrest has been made in any of the incidents.

As we all know, Biden and his basement sidekick, Obama, who called the shots for old Joe, did all they could to bring down this nation, and us with it, and that included destroying food supplies. They opened the borders wide for criminals and co-conspirators to flood the country, our welfare and healthcare system. Now they are employing some of them to fight in their anti-American army.

The Cloward and Piven strategy with a twist. Yet, for all their dark deeds, they are still failing.

Their plans to jail and/or murder Trump failed. Even their own voters were upset at the horrible economy and the billions given to Ukraine to cover for the Obama/Clinton/Biden crimes over there. As they began to lose their grip on America, the Lord flew a flag over the Butler, PA rally, and Trump became the 47th US President.

Now, they are taking to the streets with their BLM, ANTIFA, and LGBTQII allies You KNOW that they are at war with us. The remnants of what once was a political party are now fighting our country, and all of us in it. The more their power wanes, and people decry their actions, the angrier they become.

"Take it to the streets!!" screech the likes of Maxine Waters, Hakeem Jeffries, Adam Kinzinger, and Frederica Wilson, D-FL. Wilson says we need an uprising. And, it's happening. There have been multiple shootings in bars, restaurants, churches, and other places where ordinary citizens gather. Big rigs and delivery vans have ignored traffic control signs and lights to kill several. Every day, we read of new horrors.

President Trump may be about to declare war on them, which he does have the right to do. A very smart former lawyer and professor, David Clements, explains this far better than I could. Go to this link to hear more.

You see, there is now a moral man at the head of our government, and Lucifer, the god of the Left, is not pleased. They hate Donald Trump for many things, especially for reaching the people, and trying to bring peace to the world. The more he succeeds with world and national events, the more unhinged they have become

The Left is desperate and desperate men take desperate measures. Like bombing munitions plants, perhaps.

Call me crazy. Frankly, I hope I am, but I want you to keep your eyes open and your families safe. “An abundance of caution” is the old phrase. An oldie but a goodie.
