

Biden to be Replaced on the Ticket

By Lex Greene

July 1, 2024

The first 2024 Presidential Debate was an unmitigated disaster for Joe Biden and the entire world was watching. In moments, nearly all of the “fake news” democrats were crying, gasping, holding their heads in their hands, and declaring “it’s all over for Joe.”

Within seconds, pro-Biden media propagandists launched into “who can we replace Biden with?” Partisan talking heads at CNN, MSNBC, ABC, CBS and NBC were in full panic mode unable to continue telling Americans that Joe is up to the job, even now, much less the next four years.

The far left New Your Times immediately called for Biden to leave the race. Establishment democrats are searching for Joe’s replacement ahead of the August 19, 2024, Democrat Party Convention. Politico says, “the movement to replace Joe Biden is real.”

Face it, Biden supporters have waved the white flag, thrown the towel into the ring to stop the fight before Joe gets hurt any further.

HOW WILL THEY DO IT?

Under the DNC convention rules, Biden must “voluntarily withdraw” from the race to open up a “brokered convention.” Biden would have to release his delegates to open up a “brokered convention” and he’s pretty much already out of time to do that, even if he could be convinced by Obama to do so.

Within hours after the debate failure, Biden was already saying he would not voluntarily withdraw from the race. The day after the debate, Obama met with Joe to ask him to withdraw for the “good of the party.” But it seems so far, that Biden has no such intention.

Once allegedly elected in 2020, the Biden Administration changed the DNC rules to favor the incumbent administration.

Because the DNC ran a bogus undemocratic 2024 primary wherein no one was actually allowed to run against Joe, kicking Robert Kennedy Jr. off the Democrat ballot forcing him to run as an independent, and disallowing Kennedy any Secret Service for his campaign, the party is currently stuck with Joe, like it or not.

If Democrats had put someone other than Kamala Harris in the VP chair in 2020, an easy solution would be to have Joe resign due to health concerns, allowing Harris to succeed to the Presidency as the 2024 Presidential nominee. But Harris only had 1% support from democrat voters in 2020 and is even less popular with party voters now. She scares the hell out of voters...

I recently released a column titled Obama Seeks 4th Term. The panic we are seeing everywhere after the debate is due to the open threat to a 4th Obama term, not a second Biden term. All doubts about Biden’s inability to run a summer lemonade stand were wiped out in one frightening Presidential debate. Biden wasn’t in charge of the 1st Biden term, Obama was.

It’s a 4th Obama term at stake here, and everyone with an IQ above their shoe size knows it, especially Democrat Party elites now rushing to replace Biden before November.

Despite the rush of democrat party “fact-checker” groups to accuse Trump of lies during the debate, nothing Trump said was actually untrue, even if I accept that some of his statements may have exaggerated his past Presidential accomplishments a bit, like every good career salesman will do.

The fact is, no politician tells 100% truth at election time, because real truth may be the most unpopular thing in America right now. But in watching the debate, while personally knowing what’s true and what’s not, I can state comfortably that nothing Joe Biden said was true. If you have followed Joe’s 40-year political career, you know that no modern politician is as prone to making up “facts” as Joe Biden is...

As for the normally Trump Derangement Syndrome CNN moderators, they made a decent showing of appearing to be as neutral as they could muster, but still posed questions to Trump wherein the question itself was based in false information. Meanwhile, the CNN camera crew tried to cut away from Biden when he looked lost, asleep, confused or like a deer in headlights, despite the DNC condition that the two would remain side-by-side on screen throughout the debate.

But even worse, at this point, Joe is clearly trying to spit out whatever his team tells him to say, which is always the “talking points” democrats think unsuspecting and disconnected from reality voters, will buy into without a blink. It was clear in this debate that Joe doesn’t even know when he’s lying now. He’s just trying to spit out the DNC campaign script, best he can.

If you remember in 2020, Joe Biden was finishing a distant 3rd for his Party Nomination behind Senator Pocahontas and Senator Karl Marx Sanders, with only 30% support from his own party. Then Obama stepped in and made a deal with Pocahontas and Sanders to step aside and allow Obama’s useful fool Biden, to take the nomination. On this basis alone, it’s mathematically impossible that Biden won anything in November 2020... but enough about that!

Now in 2024, even millions who participated in the most fraudulent election in US history, or were willingly to buy into the lies, “no evidence of election fraud,” are shifting to Trump as their eyes have been pried open over the past four years of utter destruction to our country, topped off with the worst Presidential debate performance in the history of political debates.

VERY LIMITED OPTIONS

Biden is all done, Harris isn't an option, and the party faces a massive uphill battle to replace Joe on the November ballot, due to undemocratic rules put in place by the democrat party.

So, the real question is, how far is the party willing to go to solve this problem?

Fall-prone Joe could have one last fall, easy enough. He's already had brain-bleeds, often referred to as an aneurysm, and I'm pretty sure, a few strokes along the way. Clear to every onlooker now, Biden is in late stages of some form of dementia and even though I'm not a fan of the politician, it's a crime what people are doing to Joe by continuing to thrust him into the light while he struggles so much on live camera.

No matter the how, there are only a few people on a very short list of potential Biden replacements, the equally unpopular California Governor Gavin Newsom, Michigan Governor and DNC Vice Chair Gretchen Whitmer, and of course, queen Hillary who still awaits her turn. The party may be entirely out of options at this late date, but Obama has to try, because his 4th term and the Global Covid Reset hang in the balance.
