

Bidenomics: Selling Bull Manure

By: Devvy

August 7, 2023

Another one of illegitimate president Joe Biden's cabinet picks, Labor Secretary Julie Su, is selling bull manure. Last week that dimwit served up a feast du jour of putrid propaganda: "Prices are lower than they were a year ago, and significantly so." And that gas prices "continue to come down."

I've purchased gas at the same gas station in my city for the past 17 years. HEB's fuel prices are always less expensive than everyone else in town except China (Wal) Mart's gas station; sometimes China Mart's may be one penny less per gallon. In the past 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ weeks, the cost of a gallon of gas has gone up a whopping thirty-six cents a gallon. A real shocker.

I only use Seventh Generation Free & Clear laundry cleaner. Unfortunately, only place to get it in my city is China Mart. I went back and looked at my receipts (I save them all year even using cash). In the past 12 months the cost of their brand, same size, has gone up almost $4.00 for that one item. Organic coconut oil (for cooking), $8.99 12 months ago. Today, same size, same company: $12.97. I pay $4.00 a dozen for eggs from a friend whose chickens roam free on her land. Find farmer's markets if you can and be sure to ask the right questions about fruits, veggies, eggs. Or, if driving in the country and see a sign "Eggs for sale", stop in and I bet you'll get a bargain from healthy chickens laying those eggs.

This is how chickens are raised for slaughter. Sickening. Their whole lives in a cage like that. Yes, they're only chickens, I get it. But we need to do it that way in big ag because of demand! No, you don't.

There is cruel and inhumane and there is humane both for hens laying eggs and slaughter: Cage-free vs. battery-cage eggs: "The vast majority of egg-laying hens in the United States are confined in battery cages. On average, each caged laying hen is afforded only 67 square inches of cage space—less space than a single sheet of letter-sized paper on which to live her entire life. Unable even to spread their wings, caged laying hens are among the most intensively confined animals in agribusiness.

"Caged hens also suffer from the denial of many natural behaviors such as nesting, perching, and dustbathing, all important for hen welfare. Numerous scientists and other experts have spoken clearly about the animal welfare problems with battery cages. One such scientist, Nobel Prize winner Dr. Konrad Lorenz, said:

"The worst torture to which a battery hen is exposed is the inability to retire somewhere for the laying act. For the person who knows something about animals it is truly heart-rending to watch how a chicken tries again and again to crawl beneath her fellow cagemates to search there in vain for cover.”

That’s why I’ve been purchasing only free-range chicken and beef for decades. Sure, I pay a little more but what goes in your gut controls good health for your body. I also make damn sure none of the beef comes from a foreign country. I also will not enrich corporations that cause even chickens to suffer when it’s simply not necessary.

And speaking of good health, let me give you some facts about making your home as toxin free as possible. Almost all ‘commercial’ laundry soap is full of toxins. Are These Dirty Little Secrets Lurking in Your Toxic Laundry Products? Jan. 11, 2016 – “The substances contained within laundry products aren’t that bad if you are just exposed to them once, but when you use them in your laundry, you have constant exposure. The artificial fragrances are chemically designed to linger in your clothing, meaning that your skin and lungs are constantly exposed. These fragrances and other toxic ingredients build up over time in your system and have been linked to issues like: Asthma and other respiratory issues, Hormone disruption, Reproductive problems, Birth defects, Cancer, Liver and kidney damage.

“Manufacturers aren’t required to list the specific ingredients of their products. Manufacturers trade secrets are protected before our health is. This increases the difficulty for consumers who are trying to make informed decisions about the products they use for their families... Still others have been shown to be harmful to human health, but they’re used nonetheless. Don’t look to the EPA or the FDA for help on this one. They’re more interested in going after small businesses like artisan soapmakers and women who sew cloth solutions for feminine hygiene. Meanwhile, large corporations continue to poison us, completely unchecked.” Also from the Organic Prepper: The 10 Safest Laundry

Detergents (And Brands to Avoid).

Cheaper isn't always better or healthier. The "health care" industry is huge and so is the amount of money to treat people who've abused their body with drugs, legal or otherwise or unsuspecting shoppers who purchase products that allegedly are safe but nothing could be further from the truth.

Labor Secretary, Julie Su, is detached from the truth. No where in Art. 1 Sec. 8 of the U.S. Constitution does it authorize Congress to create a Dept. of Labor. Oh, Lord, how did America function regarding labor before the Dept of Labor was created when President William Taft signed the bill into "law" March 4, 1913? Their mission: "To foster, promote, and develop the welfare of the wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of the United States; improve working conditions; advance opportunities for profitable employment; and assure work-related benefits and rights."

2023 budget: $14.6 billion, 16,922 full-time equivalent employees. Totally not needed or necessary. Texas Department of Labor. California Labor & Workforce Development Agency. Nebraska Department of Labor. Hawaii Department of Labor and Industrial Relations.

All the states have them and they are there to protect worker's rights, disability issues, workers comp and so forth. This is the same big government as the unconstitutional EPA. Article 1, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution does not authorize Congress to legislate in the area of the environment, therefore, it is unconstitutional.

All 50 states of the Union have their own version of the EPA as authorized under the Tenth Amendment. There is no need for a federal agency. The states of the Union can handle their own environmental needs as authorized by their legislatures. One size does not fit all when it comes to the environment. Alaska, New Hampshire vs Florida, Arizona. What CON-gress can't get done – because they know it's unconstitutional – is use treaties for agencies like the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service.

Make no mistake about the EPA: It only exists to reinforce the globalists destructive climate change hoax while destroying God-given rights of Americans. At the Earth Summit in Rio De Janeiro, June 3-14, 1992, the Secretariat for World Order distributed a nonpublic document titled, "The Initiative for Eco-92 Earth's Charter." It reads, in part, under policies that must be implemented as follows:

"The Security Council of the U.N. will inform all nations that outmoded notions of national sovereignty will be discarded and that the Security Council has complete legal, military and economic jurisdiction in any region of the world ... The Security Council of the U.N. will take possession of all natural resources, including the watersheds and great forests, to be used and preserved for the good of the Major Nations of the Security Council."

In the late Dixie Lee Ray's book, "Environmental Overkill," one gets a full accounting of what really went on with Al Gore and his maniac friends at the Rio Summit. On page 10 of her book, it states:

"The objective, clearly enunciated by the leaders of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED), is to bring about a change in the present system of independent nations. The future is to be world government, with central planning by the UN. Fear of environmental crises, whether real or not, is expected to lead to compliance. If force is needed, it will be provided by a UN green-helmeted police force, already authorized by the Security Council."
(Dixie Lee Ray: Former governor of Washington State and Chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. She was a Democrat.)

Every state of the Union has an environmental protection agency which is good – as long as regulations are reasonable for both the environment and human beings.

2023 budget for the EPA: $10,135,433,000 with 15,115 employees. No problem when your bank account is $32 TRILLION dollars in the hole. Old Tricky Dickey Richard Nixon created the EPA in 1970 by Executive Order and no one objected. Can someone show me where in Art. II, Section 2 of the U.S. Constitution does it give a sitting president authority to create the EPA by Executive Order?

Republicans bellow “We’re for smaller government!” every primary/election circus. Rubbish. If they were the bill below would have passed because both chambers of Congress were controlled by the Republican Party with Trump as president:

Meet the Four Republican Lawmakers Who Want to Abolish the EPA

“Rep. Matt Gaetz of Florida introduced a bill in the House that would terminate the EPA by the end of 2018.” Gaetz, a freshman, took aim at the EPA in a leaked email, obtained by The Huffington Post, saying Americans are “drowning in regulations” enforced by the agency.

“Our small businesses cannot afford to cover the costs associated with compliance, too often leading to closed doors and unemployed Americans,” Gaetz wrote in the email, which was circulated among possible co-sponsors.

“If enacted, the bill would will give power back to the states and local governments, Gaetz said. “To better protect the environment, we should abolish the EPA and downstream resources to states for more effective & efficient protection,” Gaetz said in a Facebook post Friday.” That is correct: Tenth Amendment issue. It would also get rid of supporting the grotesque hoax called global warming, er climate change by $193 million BORROWED dollars back in 2017.

“Today, the American people are drowning in rules and regulations promulgated by unelected bureaucrats,” Gaetz said, “and the Environmental Protection Agency has become an extraordinary offender.”

Gaetz also said, “It would take more than 94,200 employees working full-time to complete one year of EPA paperwork.” One thing he has wrong: No, Congress doesn’t “downstream resources to states”. Read Art. 1, Sec. 8 of the U.S. Constitution.

The other three GOP congressman who co-sponsored the bill: Rep. Thomas Massie [KY], Rep. Steven Palazzo [MS] and Rep. Barry Loudermilk [GA]. There were 4 other GOP congressmen who joined as co-sponsors; see here. And, once again, my GOP U.S. House rep, Jodey Arrington, who was in office then did not support the solution:

H.R.861 – To terminate the Environmental Protection Agency. Died in subcommittee.

Bidenomics is big, fat lie. The American people are drowning in debt. Household debt is over $17 TRILLION dollars. Credit card debt continues to skyrocket. Bankruptcies increasing. Just under $10 bux for one burger, fries and a soft drink at McDonald’s. Not working out so well: 30% of McDonald’s Franchises are in Trouble!, June 17, 2023 – “Some 1,700 stores have changed hands in the last year, and some 2,000 stores are expected to close by the end of this calendar year. Franchisees operate 95% of McDonald’s locations in the U.S.” 30% of their franchises are insolvent.

Ignorant and stupid Marxists (Democrats) pass mandatory minimum wage laws which force retailers to raise prices to the consumer. Instead of going for the solution, they’re destroying jobs because people can’t afford the prices. Domino’s Closing Thousands Of Stores As Retail Apocalypse Hits America’s Largest Restaurant Chains, June 18, 2023. The “Federal” Reserve Bank in NY reported earlier this year Americans were carrying $1.52 trillion in auto loan debt. Top U.S. automaker plans more mass layoffs after multibillion-dollar loan from Biden, June 27, 2023: “Ford Motor Co. is set to lay off at least 1,000 employees in North America less than a week after the auto titan got a multibillion dollar loan from the Biden administration to invest in its electric vehicle business, the Wall Street Journal reported Tuesday.” Totally unconstitutional. Ford’s EV follies are insanity.

Of course, we know Joe Biden doesn’t know what day it is, just take me to the beach for more ice cream cones. To think our great nation has been reduced to a career criminal in the first stages of Alzheimer’s allegedly running our country while Democrats (politicians and ignorant, stupid civilians) continue to support such insanity is almost beyond belief, but it’s real. A big show down is coming regarding impeaching old Uncle Joe.

But, that’s only part of what’s killing the economy. The cauldron has been boiling for years and it IS going to blow up. I want Americans to be warned so they aren’t bulldozed like 2008 because this time it will make 2008 look like prosperity. My recent column, Can Banks Dump the Fed? has important information.

I have been reading his reports for years. Greyerz – The Everything Bubble Is Bursting Now It’s All About Economic Survival, April 30, 2023 and, Gerald Celente – People Are

I hope you can share this information with family and friends who might not have a good understanding of what's really going on so they can plan for survival. Anyone listening to Labor Secretary Julie Su – what's the saying? A fool and his money are soon parted.
