

Bill, Hillary, and a convicted pedophile, Jeffrey Epstein

Elite deviance is a condition sociologists say exists in a society when the elite of that society no longer believe that the rules apply ... to them. "It is not due primarily to psychopathological variables, but to the institutionalization of elite wrongdoing." –Professor David Simon

You know, there's a difference between politicians and leaders. Politicians read poll numbers and compromise. Leaders do what's morally right. –Josh Fox

Shaping Public Opinion

The 2016 election is the most vitriolic and debased that I've ever seen. Granted the corruption and mudslinging by the Democratic candidate is beyond fiendish, but there have been others which were just as vile. The difference lies in subtlety. There is absolutely none this year. It is all out slander and libel about the Republican candidate. The media, the White House, the Department of Justice, the Democrats, and the neo-con Trotskyite Republicans are doing their best to make Trump more unlikeable than Hillary. It cannot be done.

The compliments by Miss Teen regarding Donald Trump will never see CNN, that is not their plan. Wikileaks even revealed the Clinton camp was posting FAKE "Sexist Trump Job Ads" on Craigslist. Hillary supporter, Jessica Leeds, claimed Trump groped her on a first-class flight in the early 80s. Her story has been proven to be another lie, and a witness from the plane came forward and exposed her. [Link]

Trump's former Mar-a-Lago butler, Anthony Senecal has stated that all these claims are absolutely false, and he should know because he was there for years, even when Trump was single. Senecal blames Trump's democratic opponent, Hillary Clinton. All of the allegations have been immediately debunked...

The narrative today is through the roof against Donald J. Trump...all because he's an outsider and is not a member of the globalist cabal. The media is using every polling mechanism available in the hope of swaying the public. They're trying to tell us that Mr. Trump's supporters are abandoning him because he's guilty of whatever crimes the media has blamed him for...he hates women, he's the sexual assaulter, he's the misogynist. This is what the Clinton owned socialist media is telling us. It's blah, blah, blah, he's rotten and evil ... and we hear that all day long. They promote Hillary as the little princess who will come in and save the day. What absolute bull dung!

So, TURN IT OFF!

Unlikeable Hillary

Hillary Clinton is so unlikeable that she often disappears, whether because of health, or because it's better to keep her out of the limelight. As I mentioned in a previous article, Bill and Hillary hired Steven Spielberg to help her become more likeable. She ditched the effort, saying she'd be herself. In high school, we called her Sister Frigidaire because her personality was so cold, and it hasn't changed one iota; it's actually gotten much worse.

Hillary's rallies are always small; she doesn't inspire anyone...only those in our electorate who lean heavily to Marxism. Her entire campaign is not on how she will lead the nation, but on how horrible and "deplorable" Trump and his supporters are.

Bill Clinton's former press secretary, Dee Dee Myers said, "In her personal life, she always seemed like she had something to hide.” One of her biographers, Carl Bernstein, noted that she indulged in “subterfuge and eliding.” This explains why all the likeability lessons in the world weren’t going to change her or put a stop to her lies.

According to Ed Klein, in his amazing expose, Unlikeable, he quotes one of Hillary’s acquaintances who said, “She freely admits she’s always had anger issues when she’s annoyed by people, which is often, it shows.” They went on to say, “She looks at her critics as a handful of nuts. Her outburst during the Senate committee hearing on Benghazi– ‘What difference does it make?’–was in total keeping with her pattern of behavior.

Something snaps when she’s under pressure and emotional stress. As much as anything else, Bill pushed the Spielberg likeability lessons on Hillary in order to avoid another meltdown like Benghazi when she hit the campaign trail.”

Hillary Mellows?

Hillary’s friends claimed she had mellowed with age, that her famous temper was under control, that she didn’t vent or get physically aggressive like she used to, that she didn’t poke people in the chest with her forefinger, or throw hard objects at their heads...all was in the past. There was a new Hillary with composure and the maturity to be the president of the United States.

Trouble is, the falsely painted picture of this violent, aggressive, and vitriolic woman didn't last long.

Bill, Hillary, and Democrat

Mega Donor, Jeffrey Epstein

Virginia Roberts, who alleged in court documents that Bill Clinton visited convicted sex offender Jeffrey Epstein's private island, where he witnessed sexual orgies, stated, "There were times when I was physically abused to the point that I remember fearfully thinking that I didn't know whether I was going to survive."

Hillary accused Bill of not wanting her to be president since his libido had gotten into the news again, and she was about to announce her run for president. Obviously, this brought up Bill's past encounters with Sally Miller, Juanita Broaddrick, Gennifer Flowers, Paula Jones, Kathleen Willey, Dolly Kyle Browning, Elizabeth Ward Gracen, and Monika Lewinsky.

Bill had consorted many times with convicted pedophile and registered sex offender, Jeffrey Epstein. Between 2002 and 2003, Bill was on Epstein's plane and was accompanied to Africa by Epstein's close companion, Ghislaine Maxwell, the daughter of the late, and disgraced, British newspaper tycoon, Robert Maxwell. Ghislaine was later accused of recruiting underage girls for Epstein.

Epstein had a Boeing 727, a black Gulfstream, a Cessna 421, and a helicopter for jaunts all over the world. Bill used Epstein to fly (without secret service) to South Africa, Nigeria, Ghana, Mozambique...all of which was pitched to Epstein by Doug Band, Bill's advance man, founder and head of Teneo, which I wrote about some time ago.

Epstein even flew Bill to Hong Kong on his plane, the "Lolita Express." Bill used the plane for countless trips to Russia, and China. When Epstein was arrested, Bill allegedly cut ties with the billionaire.

Flight logs show that Bill Clinton flew on Epstein's private plane at least 11 times, including once when a soft-core porn star was on board. –Photo:

The New York Post wrote, "Bill's Libido Threatens to Derail Hillary—Again"

The Clinton Foundation had accepted a $25,000 donation from Epstein in 2006, and Epstein's "Madam," Ghislaine Maxwell was a guest at Chelsea's wedding in 2010.

Hillary's Enraged Meltdown

All of this became public knowledge when several of Epstein's alleged victims surfaced in 2011. Epstein had paid off more than 30 cases out of court, and spent 13 months in the Palm Beach County Stockade for soliciting a minor for prostitution.

One of the alleged victims, Virginia Roberts, charged that Bill Clinton had visited Epstein's one-hundred-acre private island in St. Thomas, called Little Saint James, where he witnessed sexual orgies, although she stated he did not participate. Roberts states that she met Bill twice, but was told by Epstein that they were good friends.

Roberts believed Bill certainly knew about Jeffrey's girls because there were three desks in the living area of the villa on the island and they were covered with pictures of Jeffrey shaking hands with famous people as well as photos of naked girls, including Virginia in a hammock. (Page 199, Unlikeable)

Even after Epstein was released from prison in Florida, he was able to allure prominent figures in the world of entertainment and television news to his dinner table, including Woody Allen, George Stephanopoulos and Katie Couric. (Page 199, Unlikeable)

Epstein hadn't paid off all the women to keep them quiet, and they were suing him under the Crime Victims' Act. Hillary wanted pressure put on him to settle so the problem would go away. Some of these girls' lawyers wanted Bill to be a material witness and testify. They had to be contacted and told they couldn't call the former president and put him in a compromising position, but it was Hillary who was worried...and she wasn't easily placated.

An infuriated Hillary told one of Clinton's trusted legal advisors, "Can you really make this fking thing go away? My head is going to explode if I hear one more thing about this damn degenerate."

Stand By Your Man, and Woman

In 1998, at the height of the Lewinsky scandal and looming impeachment, Bill managed to save his own presidency, in large part because Hillary stood by her man. In return, Bill was meant to do what it took when it was her turn to run.

If, on some level, he wanted her to lose the nomination, he did a great job, both in 2008, and now in 2016. What became clear to Hillary's camp during the 2008 campaign, according to the book, "Game Change," was that Bill Clinton would do whatever he wanted to do. His blow-up right before the South Carolina primary, in which he called Obama's anti-war stance "a fairy tale," led to Hillary's crushing defeat.

The "Blood Feud" between the Clinton's and Obama's still exists, but Obama wants his policies continued, and Hillary wants the White House, so a temporary truce has been called.

Conclusion

Think about what Hillary would do to this nation, aside from being a continuation of the Obama administration. The last vestiges of freedom and liberty would be destroyed. Hillary wants open borders, open trade, 550% more Muslims than Obama and once and for all destroying the vibrant economy Americans enjoyed for so long before NAFTA.

And yes, a dozen years ago, Donald exchanged titillating off-color words with Billy Bush. It has already been proven that this tape was edited, and I know that Trump doesn't remember what was actually said in the exchange that long ago.

Bimbo eruptions are Bill Clinton's modus operandi, not Donald Trump's. It has already been proven that the Clinton-endorsing women who are claiming Donald Trump tried to touch them, are liars.

Hillary is so afraid of Donald Trump and so afraid of the issues he brings to the table that she must destroy him on a personal level.

The only candidate who will save America is Donald Trump. The supreme court, trade agreements, immigration, and the Islamic invasion are all in the balance.
