

Brexit, The Eu, and the transatlantic money matrix

Great Britain voted to leave the European Union according to what is called the "Brexit vote." The corporate controlled media in the U.S. and the EU are chanting the mantra "The middle class are revolting against the elites." Clearly, the voice of the working class, middle class, and what Bilderberg calls the "Precariat" class has not been completely silenced, if people are questioning things like trade treaties, the European Union, and a global economic system.

Super-billionaires like George Soros and Jacob Rothschild have been issuing ominous warnings about the Brexit, suggesting that the standard of living in the UK would crash and global economic and social chaos is on the horizon. Yet George Soros, like the rest of the elite, knew what was going to happen and apparently he quietly bet against the markets and invested heavily in gold. In addition, Eric Sprott, James Turk, and George Soros invested in a company that moves the world into a cashless society by advancing the digital payments revolution, where you can spend gold with a pre-paid-card globally.

Christine LaGarde, head of the IMF, warned of very serious negative consequences if Britain votes to leave the EU. Back in 2014 LaGarde talked about a global reset, or global reboot of the world's financial system. When she made this announcement to the Council on Foreign Relations and the National Press Club, she used over half of her speech making references to occult numerology and symbols. Is the British Brexit a true revolt by the middle class, or is it a strategic manufactured crisis? After all, the motto of the Illuminati is "Order Out of Chaos" or "New World Order Out of Chaos."

It does not appear that the IMF has specifically settled on any single nation's currency to be the world's currency, but rather, SDR's (Special Drawing Rights), which refers to a basket of currencies. But it is worth noting that China has been buying massive quantities of gold and 40 central banks have invested in the Chinese Yuan. Russia is also buying massive quantities of gold.

If we look at the Bible as an accurate historical document, as well as a book that contains supernatural prophecies of the future, we see a number of things regarding Great Britain, Europe, and very possibly America. In the Old Testament the "daughter of Babylon" is referenced over 200 times; it may well refer to the Canaanites and Phoenicians and all those who eventually were based in Tarshish. Many Bible scholars believe that ancient Tarshish was Great Britain. Tarshish or Great Britain plays a significant role in Bible prophecy.

The Old Testament prophet Daniel became the chief spiritual advisor to King Nebuchadnezzar because of his supernatural ability to interpret the King of Babylon's dreams. Daniel interpreted a dream of the four great Gentile World Empires, in the form of a giant statue, with a head of gold. The first kingdom represented Babylon and the final empire was the revived Roman Empire, which was represented by ten toes mixed with iron and clay, representing its fragility.

Many scholars believe that this revived Roman Empire refers to the European Union, which would include Great Britain, historically known as Tarshish. Ancient England was known for its importing and exporting of tin. When the Bible refers to the "young lions of Tarshish," this refers to the colonies of the British Empire such as America, Canada, New Zealand, and Australia.

Many scholars believe that the European Union along with Great Britain and its colonies constitute the revived Roman Empire. The current exit of Great Britain from the European Union, called the "Brexit," is in many respects a theatrical event designed by the City of London, which is the powerful international banking center where people like the Rothschild's have their headquarters, and it is directly linked to Wall Street in America.

This Transatlantic Union of international banking families, multi-national banks, and major financial institutions connects Wall Street and the Federal Reserve with the City of London and the institutions like the IMF, the World Bank, G8, G20, Davos, and the Bilderberg Group, and international banking families like the Rockefellers, and with the Council on Foreign Relations, United Nations, and the Tri-Lateral Commission.

All of the world's four great Gentile empires were raised up in defiance against God and created their own global governments, global religions, and global economic systems. The foundation of all these systems is built upon the raising up of a Luciferian or occult religious system, a Luciferian or occult economic system and a global government to enforce their implementation. The current revived Roman Empire, which is the one world government, one world religion and one world economic system, is not going to derail due to any Brexit vote.

A cosmic chess game is being played between Satan and God, with men, women, demons, principalities, and powers and the world's elite functioning as pawns, rooks, knights, kings, and queens. The game of chess represents the multi-dimensional reality of life and geopolitics. The CERN Hadron Collider accelerates sub-atomic particles in long tunnels constructed beneath the surface of the Earth in an effort to open up what amounts to an interdimensional portal. Dr. Mike Lamont, a scientist and director of the LHC, or Large Hadron Collider, warned, "Something may come through the dimensional doors at LHC."

As I write in my book A Prophecy of the Future of America 2016 – 2017, the real purpose behind CERN is to create an interdimensional portal or Stargate which, when combined with occult, even Satanic worship rituals, allows for the "something," which may come through the CERN Hadron Collider, and it may very well be an interdimensional entity or demon. If that sounds far-fetched remember that according to the Genesis account, the Tower of Babel was an interdimensional portal or Stargate based on highly advanced occult-technology or what some theologians call "fallen angel technology." The actual root word for Babel, or Babylon, or the Tower of Babel means the "gate of the gods." According to the extensive documentation in The Babylon Code, which I wrote with my co-author Troy Anderson, a Pulitzer Prize nominated journalist, the Tower of Babel was occult technology passed on from super-civilizations like Atlantis, which existed before the Flood of Noah.

There is a statue of the Goddess Shiva, which means the "Destroyer of Worlds," in front of the CERN headquarters. This same stature of Shiva, "The Destroyer of World's," was displayed at the Bohemian Grove and near the Trinity atomic bomb site, where Dr. Robert Oppenheimer, the father of the "Manhattan Project" and others decided to build and drop the atomic bomb on Japan at the Bohemian Grove.

Recently, the opening ceremony of the world's largest tunnel was a blatant occult ritual. Some of the most powerful people in Europe participated in the opening ceremony of the Gotthard Base Tunnel in Switzerland. The occult elite in Europe gathered to participate in an openly satanic ritual. The Gotthard Base Tunnel is the world's largest and most expensive tunnel in history, over 57 km long and costing 11 billion euros. The tunnel cuts through the Swiss Alps and is supposed to be a symbol of European unification, in contrast to rising nationalism and closing borders.

The elaborate ceremony in front of European dignitaries resembled satanic rituals where a man dressed like a goat presided over the ritual. Men and women workers were sent marching into the tunnel while another group of young people in white underwear begin to grope each other sexually. At the exterior of the tunnel there was a large all-seeing eye of Lucifer and a simulated (we hope) human sacrifice.

According to our extensive research, the Genesis account of the Tower of Babel built by Nimrod was a warning from God to Mankind about the satanic dangers of the Tower of Babel. God judged ancient Babylon because it was the first trial run at a "New World Order," which was an attempt to build a new global planetary order, a counterfeit of the Kingdom of God.

The Creator God originally created a man and woman to live in a kind of Heaven on Earth, a Utopia called the Garden of Eden, until Satan tempted Adam and Eve to disobey the Word of God, and the Fall of Man occurred which activated the law of sin and death. At that time, Satan (Lucifer) had already led a revolution against God with one third of the angels in attempt to overthrow the Throne Room of God and be worshipped as God in the rebuilt Temple in Jerusalem. Through Adam's and Eve's sin, Satan became the temporary lord of this world system, also known as Mammon.

ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF THE BREXIT

It would be highly naïve not to assume that the Brexit was orchestrated by the elite for the benefit of the elite. This is despite the fact that the world's 400 richest people lost $127.4 billion the day Britain voted to leave the European Union; the combined loss of certain billionaires totaled $3.9 trillion. It must be remembered that George Soros and many other billionaires made countless billions in profit by transferring their assets to gold. The Transatlantic Union and Transatlantic Matrix is the biggest and most profitable business in the world, which is manufacturing global illusion and virtual reality. The core financial mechanism, which has been driving the global financial system from the Tower of Babel until today, is a Luciferian system based on sorcery and printing money from nothing! The Federal Reserve and the central banks print money from nothing and then loan it to the governments and the people for interest in what is called a debt-based-slavery system.

What's required is that the masses who live in this Scientific Dictatorship embrace their scientifically induced trance state and learn to love their slavery, as Aldous Huxley said. From ancient Babylon through the Pharaoh-god-king system of Egypt, to the "divine right of kings of Europe," the Illuminati-based occult and magical system of money is based on the masses believing that each unit of money has some kind of magical or intrinsic worth. This is why Sir Arthur C. Clarke, who wrote 2001: A Space Odyssey, stated "Science is magic." It is also the reason 2001 director Stanley Kubrick displayed black obelisks which gave Man advanced knowledge through a process of Alchemical Magic and why in the final scenes of the movie Kubrick shows a black obelisk floating through space and a man becomes a "star child."

I recently was interviewing Dr. Werner, who I call the "Father of Quantitative Easing," who was in Japan during their financial crisis during the 1990s. The Japanese financial crisis was about to go into a full blown global financial meltdown. Dr. Werner developed Quantitative Easing as a means of protecting the global financial system. During the 2007 mortgage/financial crisis, which was developing into a global financial meltdown, Dr. Werner strongly warned many of the heads of the Federal Reserve and the heads of the central banks of Europe that the global financial system was going into meltdown. Ben Bernanke, the head of the Fed, observed how Dr. Werner prevented the Japanese crisis from becoming global.

Bernanke followed Dr. Werner's financial strategy which he distinguishes as distinct from simply printing dollars or money from nothing, by distinguishing between central banks like the Federal Reserve Banks, and other kinds of financial institutions. I pressed Dr. Werner on this distinction and Werner fully admitted that the central banks create money from nothing, which is an illusory system.

The Bank of England is pumping billions of pounds into the financial system, while the European Central Bank said it will give banks all the funding they require. The Federal Reserve said it was “carefully monitoring” financial markets. This is simply code meaning they are not going to tell you what they are really doing. A big clue has been revealed in the fact that members of the European elite in France and Germany are planning to issue an “ultimatum” to all nations in the European Union, which will offer up radical proposals that EU countries will lose the right to have their own army, criminal law, taxation system or Central Bank, with all these powers transferred to Brussels. In short, an all-powerful European Superstate will emerge.

Interestingly, this fits precisely into Bible prophecy and a Revived Roman Empire. But, it all sends a powerful signal about what may be going on behind closed doors in America, where our individual Constitution and Bill of Rights, may be in danger to a North American Union Superstate.
