

Can Donald Trump Sue the State of Georgia?

By: Devvy

August 21, 2023

This fourth indictment is like something from an alternative universe. Can't be real but it is and serious as a heart attack. The law means nothing to rotten, corrupt Democrats in public offices and too many Democrat voters. It is beyond obscene. The American people are seeing this pile-on as purely political.

Those DA's are trying to time the trials to burn up Trump's campaign time during the upcoming primaries. That's their game plan right there for all to see. The Fulton County indictment by DA Fani Willis with 19 defendants leaves one speechless. Desired trial date is March 4, 2024, the day before Super Tuesday with 16 states holding their primaries; 8 days before GA primary. Dream on, Fani. 19 Defendants with how many attorneys each? How many motions will be filed? Depositions? And don't forget the courts take long breaks for Thanksgiving and Christmas eating up your prep time regarding motions.

I've read all four indictments. Read endless legal opinions on line from Dershowitz to Turley. Will Trump get convicted? Can he pardon himself? There isn't a snow ball's chance in hell Trump can get a fair trial in NY, DC and Fulton County, GA. Florida is different. But that's what those cockroaches are counting on: Personal hatred by jurors directed right at Trump.

I am not a lawyer and have no legal training but I can read and analyze. The “hush-money” indictment is farcical and should have been flushed down the toilet on day one. The classified documents indictment is also bogus junk.

Can Trump sue the State of Georgia? I overnight mailed this information to Trump; priority mail to his Chief Senior Adviser at the WH, Stephen Miller and his NV election fraud attorney, Jesse Binnell, in Oct. 2020. If Trump would have done this in those ‘swing’ states, it would have been a whole different outcome. Response from any of them? Crickets. The circus that followed with all those court challenges got blown away by partisan judges who completely ignored the U.S. Supreme Court.

Ballot dumps in the middle of the night in most of the swing states. Judges allowing mail in ballots be counted as long as two weeks AFTER election day. I watched all the televised (on C-SPAN or alternative sites since I don’t own a propaganda box, TV) hearings, committee hearings, you name it. Read all the court decisions. It was sickening.

When I see a court case, I don’t just read it and say, oh, that sounds great, I’ll just sent it out to my email list or stick it in a column. No, I go read the case, opinions by the judges or justices and those important footnotes. You have to do this to fully understand a decision by a particular court whether county, state, federal or SCOTUS.

Federal elections end ON election DAY. No more ballots counted after midnight. No middle of the night ballot dumps. In PA in one county, they just decided everyone was tired, went home and started counting ballots the next day in violation of federal statutes which include those all-important Electors!

This is germane to Nov. 2020:

United States Supreme Court – DILLON v. GLOSS, 256 U.S. 368

\(1921\) 256 U.S. 368 settled the question of when a constitutional amendment is actually ratified: “That the Secretary of State did not proclaim its ratification until January 29, 1919, is not material, for the date of its consummation, and not that on which it is proclaimed, controls.”

For some murky reason no one knows: On April 11, 2002, the State of Alabama decided out of the clear blue to ratify the Seventeenth Amendment – 89 years after the alleged ratification. On July 1, 2010, 97 years after the alleged ratification of that amendment, the State of Delaware ratified it.

On April 1, 2012, 99 years after the alleged ratification, the State of Maryland voted to ratify the Seventeenth Amendment. How interesting that nearly 100 years after the alleged ratification of the Seventeenth Amendment and after people like me have been pounding on this issue for nearly thirty years, three states just up and decided to vote on an old constitutional amendment. A CYA which meant nothing. Ratification was 2 states short in 1913, therefore, the Seventeenth Amendment did not become an amendment to the Constitution.

Can Trump sue the State of Georgia for violating federal statute voting laws ignoring the U.S. Supreme Court? Lying, cheating, illegitimate governor Katie Hobbs [D-AZ], another morally bankrupt professional political whore wants to follow DA Fanni’s lead: Pig Pile: Katie Hobbs Says Arizona Should Prosecute Trump for Challenging 2020 Election (Audio), Aug. 16, 2022. Leo Donofrio is an attorney who used to have an excellent web site dealing with election fraud and laws along with the lawsuits he filed. I saved some of his postings because I learned a lot from them. Posted on his web site after the Nov. 2020 fraud:

Foster v Love Oral Argument, Oct. 6, 1997

“If the state Legislatures would just sit down for an hour and listen to the oral argument in Foster v. Love, they would have such an easy time understanding their plenary authority was triggered at midnight after Nov. 3rd. (You may listen to the audio here.) Let’s examine some of the transcript:

Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg: “It is an election, and it seems to me, being an election it conflicts with the Federal single Election Day.”

“You can’t canvass for days/weeks on end. As Justice Ginsburg said, it’s “the Federal single Election Day.” And the unanimous opinion in this case was consistent with the oral argument, holding that “the election” must be consummated on “the day”.

“Justice Souter then had this heated (listen to it) exchange with the Louisiana Attorney General, who was knocked out cold at oral argument, and then lost in a 9-0 decision. That’s going to be the outcome now as well if the state Legislatures would stop being bullied by their governors, secretaries, and attorneys general, and start fighting to end the usurpation of their elector choosing plenary authority.”

I did find Leo while writing this column. He appears to active on social media, X (formerly Twitter; no one says X). This is his X posting on Nov. 24, 2022. Please click on the link for You Tube. Leo gives a 23 min. breakdown of numbers in AZ for 2022. I wish Leo would have used slides instead of his phone which makes it difficult to watch, but if you find time, watch it: EVIDENCE OF CRIMINAL INTENT – ARIZONA 2022 ELECTION. The difference in numbers between active and inactive voters should catch everyone’s attention.

Back in 2020, Leo also laid out how Trump should file a Quo Warranto. I saved much of it from Leo's site, but too long for this column.

Remember: Federal election ballot counting is over at midnight. Trump endorsed Blake Masters who went up against Second Amendment hater, useless, Sen. Mark Kelly in AZ which is a toxic waste dump drowning in election fraud. Masters might be able to sue AZ, too, since they ignored the U.S. Supreme Court's decision. I wrote about this after the 2020 steal: It wasn't just Trump but all those federal house and Senate seats.

Of course, when you have GOP coward governors, Lt. Gov., Secretary of State and corrupt Democrat state legislators, we all see what happened.

One of the most concise explanations of Foster v Love is a must read: Elections Undecided by Midnight are Void & Preempted by Federal Law – Foster v Love (1997; 9-0 Decision), Nov. 18, 2020:

"The voters vote. The officials count. These combined actions form "the election," and the election must be decided on the day. States that failed to make a final selection of officeholder by midnight after Election Day have violated the statute, subjecting the nation at large to the very evils Congressionally mandated deadlines were drafted to prevent.

"Federal Election Day statutes were designed to curtail fraud, and to infuse a prima facie sense of integrity in our electoral process. But these States – in failing to obey Congressional deadlines – have flagrantly attempted to preempt federal law. This is certainly prohibited, and this is why the late election results are void.

"Citizens may file actions in the Federal District Courts and appeal all the way to the Supreme Court. Get this information to your State Representatives and Senators. Forward it to the White House if you know anyone with connections. Blog it. Video it. Podcast it. Share it in comments, please. The President's team has not made this argument yet. They have not plead it. And they must get up to speed.

"You were disenfranchised by the failure of States to follow federal law. Your pursuit of happiness is directly infected. You have a cause of action. This is the peaceful, legal battle plan of the Republic. Let's roll."

I doubt Trump ever saw my correspondence to him since I'm a nobody. His attorneys took the losing path and here we are today. But, I'm going to send it again this week to Trump and his legal spokeswoman, Alina Habba. I believe Trump can sue the State of Georgia for violating federal statutes. I don't know the statute of limitations, but his attorneys should know.

Biden Flips Coveted Georgia, The Last State To Be Called By The AP, Nov. 19, 2020 – "The AP's call came more than two weeks after Election Day..." Remember what Justice Ginsberg said in that 9-0 decision? What GA, PA, NV, WI, MI and other states did is count past election day ignoring SCOTUS' decision. Same with AZ, Nov. 11, 2020: Half a million ballots still to be opened in Arizona

Want to play hard ball, Fani? The AZ indictment is a baloney RICO. Trump allegedly knowingly and willfully joined a conspiracy to change the outcome of the election? The DNC's media pimps always say "overturn the election." No. He made a phone call and he exercised his right – as did his attorneys and those who worked for him as federal employees at the time – to question the vote count. Just like her: According to the New Rules, Shouldn't Stacey Abrams be Prosecuted?, Aug. 15, 2023

When pigs fly: Biden Leads PA After 700,000 Votes Found in Philadelphia, Sheriff Refuses Order Allowing GOP Observers –

“Literally overnight, President Trump’s lead vanished in Pennsylvania, a state plagued with voter fraud with officials that are actively ignoring election law to manipulate ballots.”

Those votes could not be counted because Election Day was over: “Last Updated on November 6, 2020 – “Overnight, literally, on the second day after the 2020 General Election, the sizable lead that Republican President Donald Trump held over his challenger, Democrat candidate Joe Biden, vanished into thin air as more mystery ballots emerged.

“Just as in the dark-of-night ballot dumps in Wisconsin and Michigan that bumped Biden up in the vote totals by tranches of 150,000 and 200,000 votes – with not a single vote in those dumps was tallied for the Trump campaign. The statistical viability of that happening is zero.”

Fani, honey: Your state violated federal statutes (counting and electors) and Trump should have the right to sue. None of the lawsuits filed in those ‘swing’ states should ever have happened because those states violated a federal statute backed by the U.S. Supreme Court. The election should have been declared VOID no matter how much screeching and hair pulling by the Democrat/Communist Party USA and their pimp media.

Trump was denied a fair and legal election. His rights were violated by the State of Georgia as well as AZ, PA, MI, WI, MI and NV who declared Biden the winner 4 days after Election Day and likely many other states who kept counting federal votes after midnight ON Nov. 3, 2020. Can he sue? I’m not a lawyer but I sure wish to God Trump’s lawyers would file a lawsuit and shove this indictment right down big Fani’s throat. Perhaps it could go straight to the Supreme Court since it’s the court’s decision in 1997 the State of Georgia ignored.

(Short video. Relax FBI, this is about activism, not grabbing muskets. Number one is to stop our elections from being stolen. Again.)
