The Manger is Empty

American Christianity is often controlled by the calendar, especially now that the "Christian" holidays have become more secular and commercial than spiritual. The two most celebrated days on the church calendar are the birth of baby Jesus and the crucifixion/resurrection of the suffering Savior. Christmas and Easter are the most celebrated days in all of Christendom

The “Christmas Thing”

Most folks know I own a wholesale commercial bakery and I’m very busy this time of year. In September I start baking Christmas cookies to be shipped all over the country the Monday after Thanksgiving. It is the part of my business that I enjoy the most. I love creating the cookies, buying the boxes, ribbons, and ornaments for packing, and sending them to all the folks that look forward to them every year.

Celebrating Christmas is Politically Correct

The birth of the Savior is the most significant political event in human history. This bears repeating. The birth of Jesus Christ is the most significant political event in the history of the universe. Why? Well, simply put, it is because liberty does not and cannot exist absent the acknowledgement of the Almighty

Islam Is Not Compatible With Civilized Society, Part 3

We can't sit back and ignore what is happening in America. We must stand up for our country, our culture and our rights. I don't care what offends a muslim if it is within the constitutional rights laid out by the Founders. If they demand that we allow shariah and then do, they will demand that we live by it also. That is not assimilation.

In This You Greatly Rejoice, Part 2

What is often not pointed out to those who ridicule, mock, scorn, and persecute Christians is that those who engage in these behaviors are proving that they are among those who are perishing in a biblical and spiritual sense. Unbelievers exhibit a mind that remains darkened and separated from the Light that has come into the world, and does not and indeed cannot comprehend what they foolishly reject.

Stopping the Morbidly Rich

We hear much about the deep state in government. We don't hear enough about how potent it is within the Christian Church in the West. This diabolical power continues to rise inside all the institutions of the West. At the same time sensible people the world over are finding they have much in common.
