

Celebrating January 6, 2021

January 7, 2024

On the 3rd anniversary of J6 2021, events of that day are celebrated by all sane Americans as the day when the once silent majority, stopped being silent. Before going any further, there's a few basic facts about J6 that some foolish Americans must come to grips with...

- Every Federal, State and Local government property is the property of the American taxpayers. No one has more right to enter those facilities than the American taxpayers themselves. These buildings are not owned by the public servants who work inside. Our government owns nothing. The taxpayers own it all, including the public servants.
- There's no such thing as an "unarmed insurrection." Never in human history has a people ever attempted to "overthrow a government" unarmed. That's because governments are armed to the teeth, also paid for by American taxpayers.
- And, in over 247 years of USA history, literally hundreds of political figures and millions of voters have stated their opinions that an "election was stolen" from them, including democrats Hillary Clinton and Al Gore of late, as well as low level politicians at the city, state, and county levels. There's nothing new about this at all. Many times, the accusation has been true! Other times, not...

For four years, commie leftists in the USA shouted "not my president” regarding Trump. They torched cities, attacked police, destroyed and looted businesses, all because they were Pavlov trained by the Democrat Party to “hate Trump” and all things American. Numerous times, dumbed-down democrat voters have seized a legislative plaza, shut down the people’s business inside and threatened politicians over abortion and countless other anti-American leftwing agendas. Public protests are a staple in any free society, and they don’t always end peacefully.

Of late, these same morons have even taken over whole cities marching in support of known terrorists like Hamas, Islamic Jihad, and Hezbollah. Can’t get any more anti-American than that!

Further, there’s plenty of live video available on open-source platforms showing how Capitol Police ushered people into those buildings on that day, and even escorted many through the buildings. For the record, taxpayers visiting and walking through those buildings is a daily event for those who visit DC.

Last, it’s also been proven that Trump offered additional security that day simply due to the volume of people attending events...that Speaker Nancy Pelosi repeatedly declined any additional security that day, against the advice of the House Security Chief, and that numerous BLM, ANTIFA and FBI personnel were on the grounds inciting a riot under the guise of being MAGA folks.

So, while dementia Joe tries to stop his tailspin to the lowest approval ratings of any former US President, by once again attempting to paint J6 as something every sane person knows it wasn’t, no one is listening except a handful of morons who know none of the true surrounding facts of that day. Most of them don’t even want to know.

Contrary to the blatant Democrat Party lies on the matter, J6 should be celebrated as the day when the American people decided to stand up and speak out against overbearing corruption in our government, including unlawful elections.

Whether you know it or not, the 2020 and 2022 elections in particular were held in an “unlawful” manner in all fifty states. Standing election laws were violated in every state during these two election cycles, numerous ways. Some of those states are now rushing new “unconstitutional” election laws into place before November, aiming to make the “unlawful” acts of 2020 and 2022 “legal” in their states, including allowing illegal invaders to vote.

Still, it’s not possible to get a “lawful outcome” from an “unlawful process.” If the process was “unlawful,” or “unconstitutional,” then so is the outcome of that process. It’s just that simple.

That being the case, Americans had and have every right to stand up against government corruption, especially when it involves unlawful elections. The People can either trust that their elections are free, fair, honest, and transparent, or they cannot trust anything from their government at all.

Every American should stand opposed to unlawful elections. It shouldn’t be a partisan issue. But it is, because America now has millions of voters who don’t care about honest elections, so long as their candidate wins.

Since that day, the Democrat Party has become even more corrupt and tyrannical towards every American citizen. Currently, the Democrat Party is disenfranchising all democrat voters by not allowing them to vote for anyone other than international crime boss Joe Biden in the Democrat Primary. Meanwhile, the Democrat Party is also inventing new dirty tricks in an effort to disenfranchise millions of Republican voters by not allowing them a chance to vote for the GOP frontrunner, Trump.

Folks, this is the party and tactics of men like Mao, Hitler, Stalin, and Lenin... there's nothing at all democratic about today's Democrat Party. And yes, some RINO Republicans are involved too, like Chris Christie, and Nikki Haley, just to name a couple.

Indeed, J6 marks a day worthy of celebration, as the day when true Americans finally stood up together against a horrifically corrupted system that Obama turned against all Americans fifteen years ago now. Democrats have turned every federal agency against the people, and at least to some degree, the US Military as well.

Three years later, good Americans are still sitting in prison for an "insurrection" that never happened, all due to the lies of America's political left, politicians, party operatives and even stupid kids posting DNC-funded lies all over social media.

According to dimwit Biden in his so-called campaign speech, his federal gestapo has arrested more than 1000 rallygoers and incarcerated more than 900 of them since J6th. Not one of them was ever charged with "insurrection" and most pled guilty just because they didn't have the money to fight the tyranny. Make no mistake, these are "political prisoners" of the sort usually only found in 3rd world dictatorships.

If this is the kind of America you want your kids and grandkids to live in, shame on you. Stay quiet on the sidelines, pole vaulting over mouse poop, arguing about far lesser things while Rome is being burned to the ground.

But if not, then don't be afraid to stand together against evil, anywhere you find it. Just as a garden left unattended will be consumed by weeds, a nation left unattended by its people will soon be consumed by evil.

Find serious groups working to solve these problems and get engaged. Donate to them, volunteer to help, spread the word so that others can know the truth and get involved. Don't sit idle on the sidelines in 2024 or we will lose our way of life forever.
