

Christianity is No Place for the Cowardly

By Coach Dave Daubenmire

It is obvious to anyone who is paying attention that Christianity is enemy number one in the battle for America. Not that Christians aren't numerous. Or that Christians don't care about what is going on in America.

No, my friends, apathy is not the problem, although it is surely running rampant across the fruited plain. I remember the day when you would ask someone what he/she thought we needed to do to rescue America and the response was more or less, "I don't know and I don't care."

But people are beginning to care again. After decades of forcing Christians' and Christian views and thoughts to be shoved to the back of the bus, the recent murder of Charlie Kirk has spawned a huge awakening...especially with younger Americans.

For at least a generation the Luciferian Left has shoved a sock in the mouth of Christians simply by making accusations of "racist, homophobe, bigot, anti-semitic"...you know the gig. In the land of "free speech" many voices have been silenced through fear and self-censorship.

The false narrative of "who are you to judge" has silenced the voice of more Christians than any single phrase uttered by some uncircumcised philistine who equated “judging” with hatred.

Help me out here...but isn't someone calling you a bigot for simply stating an opinion a form of bigotry? Charlie Kirk was murdered for simply asking the wrong questions which forced people to deal with uncomfortable answers.

My Christian friends, Jesus NEVER told us not to judge. In fact, He encouraged us to judge “righteously.” What kind of fool doesn't make value judgments? What's good...what's bad...what's smart...what's dumb...what's right...what's wrong. Besides, you are not JUDGING...but WITNESSING. Jesus is the JUDGE...we are the witnesses. Pointing out what is WRONG is NOT JUDGING...it is bearing witness to the TRUTH.

Webster defines judging as “forming an opinion.” Sadly, the thought police are doing all they can to “judge” which opinions are acceptable. Censorship, through ridicule, is their greatest tool. That is why I can often be seen wearing my favorite t-shirt which states TRUTH SOUNDS LIKE HATE TO THOSE WHO HATE THE TRUTH. (Check out my t-shirts.)

But speaking the TRUTH is becoming a dangerous business. In the past several years we have seen censorship become the number one tool in the arsenal of the opposition. The LEFT hates the TRUTH. How else can you explain their obvious censorship of arguments they cannot win based on reason and knowledge? Most of the name-calling now comes from the “tolerant” Left. But speaking the Truth has become more dangerous. Look no further than the false Government narrative of what exactly happened on January 6. As more and more evidence is uncovered it becomes plainly obvious that the power-hungry Luciferians will spare no weapon in silencing the voice of Truth.

Our courts are corrupt. Prosecutors are corrupt. The lawyers are afraid to go against the established government narrative for fear of professional censure while hundreds of innocent Americans languished in American Gulags. All promoted and approved by the once-guardians-of-liberty...the lame-stream media.

Did any of you ever think the day would come when Americans would openly cheer the public execution of a journalist? They killed Charlie Kirk not because he was wrong...but because he was effective. The Luciferians have always hated the TRUTH. You can bury it, but you can't kill it. It always resurrects stronger than before. The Luciferian Left are on the run. Truth is always the antidote to lies. What was the line the President popularized...the fake news...? What is fake is a lie. Satan is the Father of lies. It is not a very difficult trail to follow.

Let me cut to the chase...I seem to be rambling a bit.

I have a question you can ask your pastor. I once asked it of my former pastor. During one of those Saturday morning "men's breakfasts" that are so rampant in American churches I raised my hand and asked the pastor an honest question.

"Pastor, why is it that we don't talk more about John The Baptist? We know Jesus was powerful but He was God. Jesus told us that "of all those born unto a woman none was greater than John. Why don't we study John The Baptist more...since Jesus held him in such high regard?"

Much to my surprise, after the meeting I found myself in the principal's office being chastised for breaking rank with the Pastor's narrative. I never returned to that phony, man pleasing church headed up by a man so unlike John the Baptizer.

May I answer the question for you?

Think for a minute the magnitude of what Jesus said about his buddy. How many people did Jesus rub shoulders with yet he singled out John as the GREATEST man ever born to a woman. That is a mouthful for sure. Jesus elevated John because John had the cajones to speak TRUTH to POWER! It cost him his life!! Jesus spoke Truth to power and it cost Him His life as well.

I have always found it interesting that when the Bible speaks about those who will not enter into THE KINGDOM He mentions the cowardly first. Revelation 21:8.

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Things are going to get shaky as we strive to expand God's Kingdom in the crazy times in which we live. The metal of TRUE Christianity is about to go through the refiner's fire.

We are sooo unlike Jesus when we are cowardly...we are HIS WITNESSES TO THE TRUTH!!

Stand up. Show up. Speak up! Now is not the time to hide in the closet. Remember...the cowards go first.
