

CNN Commentator Don Lemon's Racist Charges Divide America

In a recent TV news cast on CNN, host Don Lemon said, "We have to stop demonizing people and realize the biggest terror threat in this country is white men, most of them radicalized to the right, and we have to start doing something about them."

This American journalist just about dropped my lower jaw to the ground upon hearing such a moronic statement by African-American Don Lemon. This man, vacant of serving his country, and mostly serving as a biased critic of all white people—owes his freedom to those who served.

Ephraim Mattos, as a member of Free Burma Rangers after his Navy SEAL Service, he and his teammates have rescued civilians who are caught up in wars not of their own choosing. He issued a statement that went viral.

" After surviving three wars, a gunshot wound, a near fatal drowning, a failed parachute, Taliban ambushes, ISIS snipers, mortars, mine-fields, suicide bombers and laying down my life for the cause of freedom while fighting shoulder-to-shoulder with my brother Arabs, Asians, Blacks, Hispanics, Christians, Muslims, Jews, Buddhists, Animists, and Atheists, I have now returned home to the USA where a CNN host has labeled me as a radicalized right wing terrorist simply because of my gender and the color of my skin."

Terry Gross of NPR interviewed a female journalist on the East Coast who wrote about deaths by a white nationalist killing 11 at a synagogue, but she never interviews anyone about the thousands of blacks being killed by other blacks in Chicago. On July 4, 2018, African-Americans from the "Windy City" engaged in 70 gun fights, knife fights and hundreds of domestic abuse beatings. Not a word from Ms. Gross. Certainly not a peep from Don Lemon.

Navy SEAL Mattos continued, "I represent just one of the hundreds of thousands of conservative white men who have fought to preserve freedom in this great Nation and in other nations. My forefathers are the 3% who founded this Republic against the might of the British Army. It was white Conservative men who died by the tens of thousands after charging into our southern states to free our black brothers from the slavery imposed on them by the Liberal left. We were the ones who acknowledged that women have a right to vote. We held the line in WWI and charged the beaches of Normandy in WWII. We have fought for freedom and liberty for generations and we continue to do so today alongside all of our brothers and sisters regardless of their race or religion."

Hitler said the same thing about the Jews that Don Lemon of CNN just said about white men. Lemon stands as the face of the Democratic Party and African-Americans. Whites fought for generations to free them and uplift them. Over 500,000 white men died in the Civil War to free blacks. As it stands in 2018, more blacks face slavery and starvation in Africa than ever in the United States.

Oprah Winfrey stated in a television interview that all white people need to die for her race to prosper. In 2013, she said that "older people, who were born, and bred, and marinated" in racism "have to die" before racism can be solved. Had she ever been born and lived in Africa, her home country, she would be starving to death in a thatched hut in Sudan.

Another oppressed minority in America continues to climb into power positions for one single reason: to install Sharia Law into America.

"Islam isn't in America to be equal to any faith, but to become dominant. The Qur'an should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion on Earth.” Omar Ahmed, director of Council on American Islamic Relations.

And yet, voters in Minnesota installed Keith Ellison, a Muslim Brotherhood member, and domestic abuser, into the Attorney General slot, along with two House members of Islam. Anyone see some problems screaming toward our Disunited States of America?

For the first time in history, a single nation, once 90 percent European-American only 50 years ago, has absorbed over 100 million third world people from 196 countries with failed cultures, educational systems, violent religions, lack of jobs and bad governments around the world—and concentrated them into one arena, and hoping they will become Americans. In reality, they can't, they won't, and they are not becoming Americans. Do you, whether you are black, white, Christian, Muslim, Hispanic or otherwise—think it's going to get better by adding 1.7 million more immigrants annually? Do you think the projected addition of another 100 million immigrants will solve racial, cultural and religious differences in the next 30 years?

You must be wondering what in the hell have we done to our country and our kids?
