

Communists on the March as Trump's Picks Self-Destruct

As if wars in Europe and the Middle East were not bad enough, the communists have just conquered South Korea. If you blinked, you didn't notice it. The communists won without firing a shot. In fact, anti-communist President Yoon's declaration of martial law, designed to save South Korea from the communists, was quickly reversed by the enemies within the National Assembly, the legislature. They have won. The Chinese and North Korean communists are celebrating.

Those not accustomed to communist takeovers through a so-called "democracy" may not realize what has happened.

Years ago, America's Survival, Inc. released a hard-to-find copy of the 1961 House Committee on Un-American Activities analysis of the book, How Parliament can Play a Revolutionary Part in Transition to Socialism. This is a how-to-book on how communists overthrow non-communist majorities and make democracies into dictatorships. The book outlines how a parliament or legislative body can be helpful in "transforming democratic nations" into communist countries.

It is happening in South Korea. It is a major defeat for the Free World.

And yet the antics of Pentagon nominee Pete Hegseth's sex life and alcohol consumption are now the focus of the attention of the media. His defenders at Fox say they never smelled alcohol on his breath. But Fox's reputation for sexual escapades is legendary. The channel went through a series of sex scandals involving its founder, Roger Ailes, and one of its stars, Bill O'Reilly.

Amidst the constant stories about Hegseth's drinking and womanizing, our media have simply ignored the true dimensions of the on-going tragedy in South Korea. It means that President Yoon's efforts to help the United States forge an anti-communist alliance of Asian nations, united against Communist China, are in tatters.

Our media say Yoon made a mistake with his martial law declaration. It was a desperate move. But it was urged by his defense minister, and what the government knows but cannot say publicly is that the communists have been infiltrating South Korean society. It's the communist playbook, as outlined in the book, How Parliament can Play a Revolutionary Part in Transition to Socialism.

Like the Democrats here, vis a vis the Republicans, the South Korean leftist Democratic Party has been waging legal terrorism against Yoon and his party. Our media will tell you that the opposition party supports "improved relations with North Korea." That's a euphemism. The opposition is now moving to impeach Yoon. The losers will be Yoon's conservative People Power Party and the anti-communism that has guided South Korea for decades.

Yet, this is treated as just a matter-of-fact by the American news media, liberal or conservative, and Biden's Department of State repeats blather about "democracy" ad nauseum.

What it means is that, before Trump takes power, another foreign policy fiasco will have unfolded, and any strategy to counter China by the new Administration will have already suffered a major defeat.

I keep getting emails from Trump supporters upset about how he responded to the release of the China virus from a Chinese military lab. They claim that the Trump-authorized COVID-19 vaccines were more dangerous than the virus. This is just what China needed to escape blame for the deaths of millions of people in the world, including more than 1.2 million dead Americans.

Both sides of the debate over the safety and effectiveness of Trump's WARP Speed COVID vaccines were and are missing the point: COVID is a real disease caused by a real virus and it is still killing people.

Senator Ron Johnson of Wisconsin tried to provide a rational and moderate approach and held a roundtable on COVID featuring whistleblowers, medical experts, and doctors. Johnson, however, never doubted the virus is a dangerous one and simply cited evidence that natural immunity from having had COVID is at least as effective as vaccine immunity.

In addition to the Red Chinese role in producing the deadly virus, there has been a systematic cover-up by the U.S. "Intelligence Community" of the origins of COVID-19.

The book Big Intel, by counterintelligence expert J. Michael Waller, has a section on how the U.S. Intelligence Community "let China off the hook" for the "destruction and grief wreaked on practically every single person on earth" when it failed to identify the source of the COVID-19 pandemic.

I interviewed Waller on my Rumble channel, where he talked about the infiltration of the FBI and the CIA by communist agents.

To make matters worse, Trump has proposed a soft-on-China propagandist, former Bernie backer Rep. Tulsi Gabbard, as the Director of National Intelligence (DNI).

The anti-communist analyst, Trevor Loudon, has documented Gabbard's relationship with a "suspected Chinese intelligence operative” and her comments on COVID were concerned with “the anti-Asian bigotry surrounding this pandemic,” not with its origin in the Wuhan lab.

She called on Trump, during the first term, to end the “destructive trade war with China” when in fact more tariffs and aggressive actions are called for. She called Trump’s policy toward China “erratic” and “destructive.”

Yet, she is a MAGA favorite, along with the doomed nominee for Pentagon chief, Pete Hegseth. It is as mind-boggling as the cover-up of what is now happening to anti-communist South Korea.

Some might say that MAGA is sabotaging the next Trump presidency. They seem to have a penchant for promoting flawed nominees and controversies that can only undermine the next administration and a pro-freedom anti-communist foreign policy.
