The Fourth Reich

Indifference, to me, is the epitome of evil. –Elie Wiesel

Government, even in its best state, is but a necessary evil; in its worst state, an intolerable one. –Thomas Paine

Communism will never be halted by negotiations or through the machinations of detente. It can only be halted by force from without or by disintegration from within. –Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn

Ask yourself why totalitarian dictatorships find it necessary to pour money and effort into propaganda for their own helpless, chained, gagged slaves, who have no means of protest or defense. The answer is that even the humblest peasant or the lowest savage would rise in blind rebellion, were he to realize that he is being immolated, not to some incomprehensible noble purpose, but to plain, naked human evil. –Ayn Rand

If you want a picture of the future, imagine a boot stamping on a human face—forever. –George Orwell, 1984

When I was a child, the world seemed so beautiful and sweet.

Summers and holidays on my grandparent's farm were wonderful. Cows, heifers, pigs, chickens, ducks, rabbits and much more. Riding on the tractor with grandpa through the fields, helping grandma make noodles and drying them on the back of a towel laden kitchen chair, feeding the chickens, collecting eggs, getting ready for the county fair, and weeding the garden, all part of a beautiful summer.

I drove the tractor while grandpa and my uncles put hay and straw bales on the wagon. I was paid a dime a load and by the end of summer, I had $5.00 to go to the county fair.

Mom and I lived in Chicago and often took the train to Indiana. Mom worked, so all the holidays were spent with my grandparents. I had the best of both worlds, school and friends in the city, summer and holidays on the farm.

Gram's gorgeous Gladiolas in her flower garden were taken to the cemetery on Decoration Day, and the numerous vegetables covering an acre of their backyard were canned for winter. The huge tomatoes and the sweetest corn on the cob and muskmelons grown between the rows of field corn were delicious. Grandpa would put the melons in the cold water well with the full milk cans and then pull them out after supper. Grandma would slice them in half and put a scoop of vanilla ice cream in the center.

Even in winter when the snow was so deep and grandpa had to dig a tunnel to the barn, the days were bright with promise and fun. I'd go out to the warm barn all bundled up to take grandpa a thermos of coffee and watch the kitties waiting for a pan of warm milk. In the winter, the cows stayed in the barn to keep out of the weather, but come early spring, they'd be out in the fields. Dinner was at noon, and grandpa would come into the big living room and watch Amos and Andy with me until gram called us to eat.

Grandpa planted in the spring. One year a field would have sweet corn, the next might be soy beans, maybe wheat or oats would follow, but then a year would come where the ground sat fallow and clover was planted.

After a full day, grandpa in his easy chair and gram crocheting or doing needlepoint while watching Jackie Gleason, Milton Berle, Red Skelton or Gunsmoke.

The high holy days started with Thanksgiving, then a month of Christmas, followed in spring by Easter. All were celebrations where the entire family gathered together with gram's two sisters and their children and grandchildren. Amazing arrays of food and desserts, and it started with the family's favorite meatballs, and shrimp cocktail.

Those were the days my friend; we thought they'd never end.

Now they're gone, but I can still see them in my mind's eye.

John Kerry has declared war on U.S. farmers stating government confiscation of farms like my grandparents are not off the table. They claim small farms are emitters of nitrogen. This is absolute rubbish and we all know it. His claims avail the WEF to starve the people and force them to eat only what WEF allows.

Times have radically changed, and this series of articles will try to explain the depths of the evil we're seeing in our beloved country, and what we can and should do to stop it. Be patient as I gather the information and condense it to give an overview of the times we live in and the people behind the evil.

The Fourth Reich

Never Again is Now Global, is a five-part series by Holocaust survivor, Vera Sharav. She has laid bare what we're seeing today as perfectly paralleling Nazi Germany.

In the following four-minute video recorded for Holocaust

Memorial Day the 27th of January 2012, Rabbi Sachs comments on the silence of people that haunted him ever since he first started thinking about the Holocaust.

That silence still resonates today with the autopsy of the COVID years.

Our silence in the face of evil gives the enemy power.

In Vera Sharav's first video, Rabbi Michael Green commented that he was astounded at the willingness of people to be told what to do and to comply. He said he would not close their synagogue, and that humans should be morally outraged any time a government or corporations ban together to trample individual human liberties. He believes what we saw during the COVID years parallel what precipitated the Holocaust in the 1930s, the marginalization of a minority, and identifying that minority as a threat to public health. That is exactly what master propagandist Joseph Goebbels did, and Rabbi Green said, "It's right out of the Nazi playbook."

He explained:

"There is nothing more reprehensible than government or authority of any kind claiming a minority of people or an innocent human being is a public health risk. It doesn't matter if these people claim to be doing this innocently for the greater good, because that's what Nazis did as well. That doesn't justify marginalization, persecution and apartheid and ultimately eugenics policies targeting innocent human beings. What we're seeing now days is precisely that.

"For the last 70 to 80 years, we're championing 'Never Again,' we'll never allow this ever again. But those same liberal organizations are doing exactly that. Just recently there was a Jewish woman who was also a Holocaust survivor, who was asked to speak at an event at Touro College on Holocaust Memorial Day, and they cancelled her because she could not show her 'vaccine' papers. This was at an orthodox Jewish Institution. They have become the modern-day purveyors of tyranny.

"What we're seeing now, is not just the prelude of Holocaust, we are witnessing genocide right now, global genocide. I don't know if viewers are aware of what is happening in Shanghai or what governments are doing to people. People are literally being left to die. They're being locked in their homes, being denied nutrition and hydration, access to medical care, all in the name of combating an amorphous, invisible disease. That's exactly what the Nazis were doing which had no scientific substantiation to it.

"That's really the issue here now and this is why I appeal to people, scientists and people who work in the medical field. If you have an opportunity after 70 some years to atone for the Holocaust...by doing what? By no longer standing by in complicity or collaboration with genocide, with eugenics, with persecution of minorities, with scapegoating minorities.

"This is what our elected and unelected officials are doing, blaming the unvaccinated. They're blaming the un-Aryan; it's the same thing. It just has a clever twist to it, but it's the same thing. It's the same genocidal totalitarian tyrants doing the same thing all over again. Only thing is they gave it a face lift. Now it's not in the hands of brown coats, it's in the hands of white coats in the name of science.

"So, what has happened is that intelligent people suspended their own critical thinking. This is what the CDC or the AMA dictate, this is the policy, we have to support the policy. The policy matters more than the individual, more than my oath to my individual patients, more than the Hippocratic Oath.

“And that is a violation of medicine. It’s a desecration of medicine, a desecration of religion, it’s the cynical subversion of our entire society where everyone becomes a policeman of tyranny. And this is the important thing there also...what is it called, plausible deniability. Everyone wants to wash their hands and say, ‘It’s not me, I was just doing my job.’”

“That is exactly what every German, every Ukrainian, every Pole who participated in the mass killings, or banned people from stores back in the 30s, that is exactly what each one of them said, ‘We were just doing our job, taking orders.’ At what point do people wake up? At what point do the medical people wake up? At what point do they realize the narrative has been hijacked?”

“There is no free discussion, there is no dissent allowed. We’re living in times of tyranny, book burning, censorship.”

Rabbi Green said that his grandmother survived the pogroms and Bolshevism and Stalinism and she told her grandson that the government is never allowed to dictate to you what is essential and what is not. The governor of his state told the clergy that worship was not essential and the Rabbi decided right then and there, they were not shutting the doors of their shul.

His wife asked him, “What if someone gets sick, what if we get sick?” but Rabbi Green answered, “We have to be ready to die before we allow government to shut down our religious observances, our right to live and live freely, our essential human liberties.”

And that’s why Rabbi Green never shut the doors of his synagogue. He said that many people were upset with him, and a few were accusing him. He felt that accusations without any substantiation or evidence claiming he was causing risk to anyone is exactly what propagandist Goebbels did to the Jewish people in the 1930s and 40s.

Too many people sat by in complicity and silent collaboration despite the extraordinary assault on humanity and individual liberties, and it was unprecedented. People showed their cards willingly, but this was forced experimentation without consent for many, and as Rabbi Green said, "Just like what Mengele did."

On February 5, 2021, the Supreme Court told California, that it can't bar indoor church services because of the coronavirus pandemic, but it can keep for now a ban on singing and chanting indoors, which also is totally against the Constitution. The high court issued orders in two cases where churches had sued over coronavirus-related restrictions in the state.

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors voted to authorize a $400,000 payment to settle a legal battle with Grace Community Church over lead pastor John MacArthur's defiance of COVID-19 restrictions in the early months of the pandemic. The pastor said the money will go to the Thomas More Society who represented them in this case.

Too little, too late. The first amendment was trampled to dust.

Fear and Propaganda

The COVID propaganda succeeded so perfectly. Fellow citizens became mask Nazis screaming at those who didn't cover their faces, calling them murderers, heartless, and callous human beings who shouldn't be allowed healthcare, or should be imprisoned.

This time the targets aren't the Jewish people. This time the targets are all of humanity, and all of the Lord's creation.

The animal population is also being poisoned with mRNA injections, including zoo animals.

Children's Health Defense reported, New York City will begin tracking the carbon footprint of household food consumption and putting caps on how much red meat can be served in public institutions as part of a sweeping initiative to achieve a 33% reduction in carbon emissions from food by 2030.

CCP's Social Credits are part of the Fourth Reich.

The people behind this evil hate the Creator and His creation. They want to be gods. They want to create their own world, but first they must destroy the world created 6,000 years ago by Elohim.

For 50 years Klaus Schwab has been expanding the World Economic Forum (WEF). He calls the "Great Reset," the fourth industrial revolution which is really the Fourth Reich. His father operated a manufacturing plant in Nazi Germany and used slave labor. Klaus learned well from his father. He has his SS all over the world. In 1992, the Clintons were early global leaders under Schwab. Now King Charles has joined Merkel, Trudeau, Macron, Biden and the rest of the heads of state who are members. Even House Speaker McCarthy is a WEF boy. (Oh, that he had lost the vote for Speaker.) We are riddled in both parties with young global WEF members. Schwab brags that every nation has now been infiltrated.

Schwab's plans echo Maurice Strong's UN Agenda 21, and before that, President George H.W. Bush's New World Order. Everything they're planning follows end time prophecies from the Books of Daniel and Revelation.

Bezos, Musk, the MSM, Google, Facebook, Twitter, Hollywood, the large corporations, all of them are run by WEF members.

All over the world, everyone followed the same plans for the "crisis" that was designed decades ago to frighten the people into allowing the destruction of their economies, their businesses, their health, and their livelihoods. Death was everywhere, but especially in hospitals, served up with Remdesivir and ventilators.

Evil is walking the earth.

Carnage

We no longer trust our medical systems in America either. Had they all stood up and said, "We will not follow these hospital protocols," and then said, "These vaccines were made too quickly, people should be wary," they would have succeeded in keeping the people's faith in their judgement. Now it is gone, and we all know they lied to us to save their own hides and didn't care how many perished as long as they weren't hurt.

For those in the medical profession who blindly trusted these godless creatures who created this evil and thrust it upon the world, you'd best be finding out what can be done to save those who willingly complied with the injection propaganda along with those who were mandated by employers or the government.

FLCCC.net has protocols for those who took the jabs, and Drs. Peter McCullough and Ryan Cole have shown studies proving nattokinase helps eliminate and dissolve the spike protein from the body. See The Wellness Company, with Drs. Peter McCullough, Harvey Risch, Heather Gessling and Richard Amerling.

These evil godless creatures aim to destroy the majority of humanity along with the rest of creation. Already our meats are tainted, our vegetables are next and will be grown in vertical farms of the future, to ensure mRNA is continually fed to the masses.

Bill Gates, the godless eugenics/vaccine lover, his Rockefeller buddies, and the CEO of Apeel, WEF member James Rogers, have developed a coating for fresh fruits and some vegetables to lengthen their shelf life. However, Apeel coated avocados take forever to ripen and once they get soft to the touch, you open them to find the fruit inside next to the skin is rotten and the core is still hard. I tossed most of them that had been purchased at Fresh Market. Their label stated they were grown in California. The Apeel label was not on them, but Fresh Market is listed as having Apeel avocados in Knoxville, TN.

The devils behind this evil will one day pay dearly for trying to replace the Creator with their own godless evil.
