

Cory Lewandowski set-up by a professional man hating scammer

Objective journalism is one of the main reasons that American politics has been allowed to be so corrupt for so long.

–Hunter S. Thompson

If you don't read the newspaper you are uninformed; if you do, you are misinformed. –Mark Twain

“Crippled America” by Donald Trump

In Trump's latest book, “Crippled America,” he talks about the media in chapter 15.

He says,

“It's incredible to me how dishonest the media in this country really is. People sometimes forget that the newspapers and television stations are profit-making businesses – or at least they're trying to be. If they have to choose between honest reporting and making a profit, which choice do you think they will make? The sad thing is that all it does is prove that both liberal and conservative news outlets can lie and distort the news shamelessly. I've had meetings with reporters who faithfully recorded what I said, then changed the words and meaning.”

“There are some experiences I've never forgotten. I had a so-called journalist from a well-known publication come up to my office and interview me and several of my executives. We gave him a pile of paperwork, we gave him financial reports and statements, anything he asked for – then he wrote one of the most inaccurate stories I've ever read. The public pays attention to a story for less than a week, especially when you get as many stories as I do. But the impression a bad story leaves lasts a lot longer."

What Mr. Trump says is absolutely true, and it is why the establishment is trying to fill the media with phony stories that will hurt the Trump campaign. They can lie with impunity as well, all because of the 1964 Supreme Court decision in NYTs v. Sullivan.

The Set-Up

Journalism and today's reporters are now two different things. There still is journalism, but the majority of main stream media is so tainted as to be utter propaganda. The brainwashing of the dumbed down electorate (thanks to the government schools) continues.

Corey Lewandowski is Donald Trump's campaign manager. He was charged with misdemeanor battery after allegations of forcefully grabbing a reporter at a Jupiter news conference. Following a March 8, conference at Trump National Golf Club, Michelle Fields, a 28-year-old reporter formerly with Breitbart News Network, said she was grabbed on the arm by Lewandowski, 41, after she asked Trump a question about affirmative action.

Fields, who Tweeted photos of bruises on her arm she said resulted from the battery, resigned Breitbart less than a week after the incident. She cited Breitbart's refusal to stand behind her amid the allegations as her reason for leaving.

Lewandowski replied to Fields' Tweet, writing: "You are totally delusional. I never touched you. As a matter of fact, I have never even met you."

✘ Ben Shapiro, former Breitbart editor-at-large, also resigned, claiming in a prepared statement that the conservative news outlet, seen largely as supportive of

Trump's presidential bid, "abandoned" Fields "in order to protect Trump's bully campaign manager."

Several other employees followed suit in the following weeks and resigned, according to multiple reports.

✘ So, you've got Cruz supporters, Ben Shapiro and Fields both resigning from Breitbart, but what they aren't telling you is that Breitbart is owned and funded by Robert Mercer, and Mercer is the main donor behind four of Cruz's Super Pac's, who raised a total of $31 million. Makes you wonder if Fields' allegations were true or not since Breitbart wouldn't back them up. Shapiro is a Cruz bot and I'd imagine Fields is as well.

Trump Tweets

✘ Who is Michelle Fields?

I really have to wonder what she got paid to bring assault charges against Corey, as I definitely believe someone hired her to do what she did. Twice she touched Donald Trump, and the Secret Service who were several steps behind him told her to stop. Corey Lewandowski was there and moved her away. She had a pen in her hand which is not surprising for a reporter, however, it can be seen as a weapon. This woman has a history of complaining about her treatment by those she's trying to interview or ask questions.

Here is the actual video showing that she was not thrown to the ground, that she didn't lose her balance, that Corey actually just gently moved her away from Mr. Trump.

Michelle Fields crossed the threshold of the secret service and did not lodge a complaint for three days. Again, one wonders who paid for her to complain because it was a non-issue. Corey barely even looked at her or made eye contact with her, he was just protecting Trump...he doesn't know her, even though these reporters think everyone knows them.

Who is the Prosecutor?

Corey Lewandowski is only guilty of doing his job, and that includes protecting his boss. He has stepped in before to avoid tragedy.

From the Conservative Tribune

When anti-Trump protesters and hecklers turned violent in Arizona on Sunday, it didn't take long for the media to do what they do best: blame Trump.

They were even more stoked when video emerged of Trump's campaign manager, Corey Lewandowski, grabbing the collar of a protester. Most every media outlet described the incident as being totally unprovoked.

However, new video from the Tucson, Arizona, rally Saturday night shows something even more disturbing: the anti-Trump protester was about to attack a young woman and Lewandowski prevented the attack through quick action.

Corey did it again with Michelle Fields, by protecting his boss, and the Secret Service agrees. Yet he is being prosecuted by Palm Beach County State Attorney, Dave Aronberg, a long-time Democrat and former state senator who is now part of Hillary Clinton's so-called Florida leadership "council."
[Link]

Feminist Media ask Trump to Fire Lewandowski

Today 16 feminists demanded that Donald Trump fire Corey Lewandowski for the Michelle Fields hoax. Among the signatories is Christina Hoff Sommers, who before Trump ran for office mocked women who played the damsel in distress. Sommers' salary is in part paid for by the same donors opposing Trump. Dana Loesch, another signatory, is facing $44,000 in tax liens and has sold out to the highest bidder to raise cash. She works for the Blaze, which is crazy Glenn Beck's outfit, and he is in the can all the way for Lyin Ted Cruz. Even Fox News' Trump hating Megyn Kelly bought this lie hook-line-and-sinker as well.

Make no mistake. This is a gender-identity based attack on Trump. The signatories use their status as women to push this anti-Trump agenda.

Letter from Female Media

The press is to have an adversarial, yet civil approach to those in, or running, for elected office. Never in this line of work is it acceptable to respond to reasonable and legitimate questioning with use of physical force. The photographs, audio, videos, and witness accounts documenting the treatment of Michelle Fields by Corey Lewandowski, Donald Trump's campaign manager, are inexcusable and unprofessional. Donald Trump should immediately remove Lewandowski from his campaign. However, unlike the Trump campaign, we believe in making a statement on the record to clearly highlight the difference between right and wrong," it concludes.

Signed.

Dana Loesch (Radio America, Blaze TV) (Glenn Beck – Cruz supporter)

Katie Pavlich, (Townhall, Fox News) (where she works tells it all)

Meghan McCain, (America Now Radio, Cosmopolitan, Fox News) (same here)

S.E. Cupp, (New York Daily News, Glamour, CNN) (same here)

Mary Katharine Ham, (CNN, The Federalist) (same here)

Christine Rosen, \(New Atlantis, Commentary\)

Christina Hoff Sommers, (American Enterprise Institute) AEI

gathered the billionaires to stop Trump

Bethany Mandel, (The Federalist, Acculturated) (and CNN)

Emily Zanotti, (American Spectator)(funded by pro-abortion Richard Mellon Scaife)

Elisha Krauss, (Ben Shapiro's radio co-host) (Shapiro for Cruz)

Karol Markowicz, (New York Post)

Kristen Soltis Anderson, (Washington Examiner)

Mona Charen, (Ethics and Public Policy Center, Creators Syndicate)

Sarah Rumpf, (freelance)

Brooke Rogers, (National Review) (The hate Trump group)

Mary Chastain, (Breitbart) (funded by Cruz supporter Robert Mercer)

Back Stabbing Ted Cruz

Cruz and his minions just love negative publicity against Trump, and the above reporters are all on his bandwagon. Ted and his dirty campaign manager, Jeff Roe, are up to more tricks. Roe and his tactics have been blamed for damaging opponents' lives and reputations, and even for contributing to a gubernatorial candidate's suicide.

First he stabbed Carson in the back by telling Iowans that Carson had dropped out. Then he stabbed Rubio in the back in Hawaii by telling voters Rubio had dropped out.

He has taken sides with Soros and Ayers against Trump over and over again. Now he's at it again, this time he's aiming at John Kasich. The Cruz campaign is trying to knock opponent John Kasich off Montana's primary by questioning signatures the Ohio governor's campaign submitted to qualify for the ballot – another subplot in the unfolding political drama to derail Donald Trump's presidential bid.

Conclusion

Will Corey Lewandowski get a fair shake? Highly doubtful with the political connections. The Florida prosecutor hates Trump and has called him names in the past. Since he is a democrat aligned with Hillary Clinton, it certainly doesn't bode well. Yet, there is video, as seen above, where it is obvious that absolutely nothing happened to Fields. One wonders why it took her three days to file a complaint, not to mention where the bruise on her arm really came from. Even more so, will Donald Trump get a fair shake?

Remember folks, the GOP establishment, the left, and the media are all in on the globalist agenda, and that's why they hate Trump. It's also why the American people love him.