

Cruz and Fiorina, a dream ticket for globalists

"The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes." –Prime Minister Benjamin Disraeli of England in his political book, "Coningsby," 1844

What is important is to dwell upon the increasing evidence of the existence of a secret conspiracy, throughout the world, for the destruction of organized government and the letting loose of evil. –Christian Science Monitor Editorial, June 19, 1920

Leftist Thought Process

We have neighbors with whom we are friendly, who happen to be die hard Democratic socialists and Hillary supporters, and I'm always astounded with their total stupidity.

Let me give you a few examples. Recently the husband said to me, "Do you really think people care about Hillary's email problems?" Unfortunately, there are two answers to that question. The dumbed down Americans who listen only to the MSM probably don't care. However, those of us who do any research absolutely believe she is not only corrupt to the core, but the murderess of Benghazi. I answered him with the scandal of General Petraeus who got the axe for far less than Hillary.

Another time I was walking with the wife and she said to me, "What would we do without China making all our goods?" I was floored. I said to her, "Well, we would have American people with jobs, we wouldn't have an over trillion-dollar debt to China, and we wouldn't have much of our tax dollars going to families who had lost everything and now were counting on government funds to support them."

Truly, there is no end to the idiocy. Just yesterday this neighbor told me that Donald Trump hates women. I asked her how she knew that...she said she'd done her homework. I asked her if she knew how many women were employed and promoted at Trump companies. She said very few. Again, I had to argue with her on that one.

From the Daily Caller:

Appearing on "CNN's New Day" with Chris Cuomo, Michael Cohen, Trump's general counsel and an executive vice president at Trump Organization, said that while the billionaire's companies employ 57 percent men and 43 percent women, "there are more female executives at the Trump Organization than there are male."

"And women who are similarly situated in positions similar to that of their male counterparts, are actually paid more," Cohen said.

Of course she told me that was all lies.

But let's get back to Cruz and Carly, two peas in a pod, and both far more globalist leftists than people understand.

✘ Cruz and Carly

How absolutely bizarre is it that Ted Cruz has named Carly Fiorina as his vice-president. After Trump's Northeastern sweep on Tuesday night, it's mathematically impossible for Cruz to net enough delegates to win on the first ballot if Trump doesn't reach the requisite 1,237 delegates needed to clinch the nomination. I know, I know, Cruz and Kasich hope to keep Trump from gaining the delegates and resulting in a brokered convention where Cruz could win the nomination. Carly Fiorina, just months ago, called Ted Cruz a typical lying politician.

Now she's joining with him and lauding his character and trustworthiness. In fact, she broke into song when it was announced that she would be his vice-president.

I really think these people have lost their minds, but then I knew what they were a long time ago, and have written about it over and over again. Crazy Glenn Beck who wants to knife Donald Trump, and Dominionist David Barton who believes Sharia Law and the Constitution are compatible, and all of them joining together to push a Constitutional Convention. These are Cruz's closest friends and supporters.

And top it off with John Boehner calling Ted Cruz "Lucifer in the flesh," and a "crazy SOB." [\[Link\]](#) Talk about the pot calling the kettle black, they're really two of a kind, albeit Cruz is far creepier.

Then there's the lesser known tale of Ted Cruz actually trying to uphold a ban on dildos. Does it get even more weird than this? You bet it does. His former Princeton roommate says that the women would continually ask him to keep creepy Cruz out of their hallway. [\[Link\]](#)

The Daily Bail is reporting that Cruz has lost his mind. They stated, "Last night in Indiana, Ted Cruz lashed out at the national media for favoring Trump. Cruz fails to consider that the majority of sane Americans, including members of his own family, correctly believe that he's an extremely creepy individual."

And of course Ted has called the Council on Foreign Relations a "nest of vipers," but his wife worked there for five years helping to write the North American Community. As well, his mentor at Princeton was none other than Robert George, CFR and UNESCO. Hmm...if CFR is a "nest of vipers," why has Cruz accepted George's endorsement and his wife's five year tenure at CFR?

Revisiting Carly Fiorina

Readers might want to revisit my two articles on Carly, her devastating destruction of Hewlett Packard, and how many in California still detest the woman. (Surely choosing Carly Fiorina for VP will help Donald Trump win big in California.) [\[Link\]](#), [\[Link\]](#)

Fiorina has openly admitted that she uses the Marxist Hegelian Dialectic every day, and lauds Islam as “the greatest civilization in the world.”

Cruz and Carly will get along famously. Both claim they will rid the country of Common Core, yet both are lying. Senator Cruz’s EDUCATION Bill S 306 expands Common Core to private, religious, and home schoolers. [\[Link\]](#), [\[Link\]](#)

✘ Craig Barrett, AZ’s chief Common Core promoter and Chairman of the Board at Achieve Inc. (architects of the Common Core standards), hosted a private fundraiser for Carly Fiorina in AZ on 9/10/15, according to the Maricopa County Republican Committee (MCRC) Briefs.

Carly on Abortion

During the CNN debate, Fiorina blasted Planned Parenthood and the horror of selling baby body parts for profit. However, she certainly hasn’t put her money where her mouth is. The Daily Caller reported that Fiorina joined Revolution Health Group, (RHG) when it was founded in 2005, along with Colin Powell, as an investor and board member. RHG was a website which promoted abortion benefits and directed users to Planned Parenthood, National Abortion Federation, and NARAL for more information. Women were urged to “think through” their “choices,” but a pro-life perspective was not offered.

While campaigning for John McCain, Fiorina assured pro-choice folks that ✘ McCain “has never signed on to efforts to overturn Roe vs. Wade. "Why would a pro-lifer regard this as a positive attribute to be touted? Why would a pro-lifer sign on as a surrogate for that sort of candidate?"

And why...when Ted Cruz claims he's a conservative would he join with someone like Carly Fiorina?

Destroying Hard Drives

Prior to Fiorina's takeover of the board of Hewlett Packard, she had an employee take a hammer to five of her hard drives. One has to wonder what she wanted destroyed. Sure sounds a lot like Hillary Clinton antics. She and Cruz make a good pair.

Cruz and his infamous campaign manager, Jeff Roe, have run the dirtiest campaign I've seen in a long time. He lied about Carson in Iowa, Rubio in Hawaii, and now with Kasich, [Link], and add in all the lies he's told about Trump. Even CNN corrected many of the lies Cruz spouted during the debates. Top all this off with the stealing of delegates, and the GOPe helping Cruz to receive delegates in states where votes weren't even cast.

Carly on Amnesty

Fiorina supports the DREAM Act. In her first debate with Sen. Boxer in 2010, she said: "I would support the DREAM Act because I do not believe that we can punish children who through no fault of their own are here trying to live the American dream."

The DREAM Act (acronym for Development, Relief, and Education for Alien Minors) is an American legislative proposal for a multi-phase process for undocumented immigrants in the United States that would first grant conditional residency, and upon meeting further qualifications, permanent residency.

The bill was first introduced in the Senate on August 1, 2001, S. 1291 by Dick Durbin and Orrin Hatch, and has since been reintroduced several times (see legislative history) but has failed to pass.

Last June, Fiorina appeared on MSNBC's "Morning Joe" and said she is against a pathway to citizenship for illegal aliens, but that a path to legal status is "a possibility." [Link] So, what is the difference? She also added she is open to immigration reforms that would give citizenship to children of illegal aliens. If that's the case, she might as well give every illegal alien citizenship. They are not "undocumented immigrants." They have broken the law and invaded our country.

✘ Ted's wife believes in building a North American Community with Canada and Mexico, and eliminating our borders, thus making us one big North American Union, just like the European Union. Needless to say, he and Carly have much more in common than most people understand.

Guess who is running all the negative ads in Indiana against Trump? None other than Club for Growth, who originally spent $3.3 million on negative ads against Trump and is now funding even more. Wonder why? Because Club for Growth is pro-amnesty, and they know Cruz and Fiorina are too, whereas Donald Trump will close the borders and build that wall!

Conclusion

Cruz and Fiorina have much in common, both are consummate globalists, and both have flip-flopped on so many issues, all of course, to fool the American electorate.

Remember too, it was Fiorina at Cruz's side when the National Enquirer story broke the story about his affairs with five women. It was Fiorina who answered the questions from the press, not Cruz, and certainly not Heidi Cruz, who disappeared for several weeks. Funny too that Ted never did sue the National Enquirer.

Both of these globalists need to be strongly rejected by the voters. I've often said that today's Christians have very little discernment, but maybe they're finally waking up to the real Ted Cruz. Let's hope so!
