

Dear 0 For 4 Democrats

During the unconstitutional eight-year reign of Barack Obama, your party lost over a thousand governmental seats nationwide. You lost numerous governorships and state legislatures, some for the first time since the Civil War. You lost the U.S. House, the U.S. Senate and the White House... You also lost the trust of average working stiff Americans across the country.

Since then, you have lost four of four special elections as of Georgia's 6th House District on June 20, despite record campaign spending and Republicans shooting themselves by running a dozen GOP primary candidates. Maybe it's time for some introspective thought...

Can you become an "American" party again?

While socialist Bernie Sanders and his fans insist that your party must shift even further towards global Marxism, away from American principles and values of national sovereignty, security and individual liberty, maybe you should actually consider becoming an "American" party again...

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." – Declaration of Independence

How did your party drift so far away from the most fundamental American precepts?

We hold these truths to be self-evident? You think everything is subjective in nature and driven by political agenda alone. Nothing seems "self-evident" to you. Everything must be decided by an unelected and unaccountable oligarchy of lifetime political appointees or their surrogates downstream. Even the most obvious truths are rejected by you, when those truths do not suit your agenda.

That all men are created equal? According to you, this is not so. Some are created less than equal, namely your laundry list of less than equal special interest voting blocs, that you labeled “minority” groups with special rights to help make them “equal.”

That they are endowed by their Creator? You folks don’t even believe that any of us were created. You think we evolved from apes, or birds or fish. You not only refuse to acknowledge that there is a Creator, you attempt to block all public discussion of relative foundational doctrines within our Founding documents, especially in your re-education system.

With certain inalienable Rights? You openly deny that all Rights are “natural rights” endowed by that Creator and insist that our rights are alienable by men in congress and your British Common Law courts – ignoring entirely the following from our Declaration – “to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature’s God entitle them...” – In your “world view,” all rights come from you and none are inalienable by you, as a result.

That among these are Life? The womb was once the safest place on earth for any infant child, but thanks to you folks, it is now statistically the most dangerous place on earth for any American child. You fail huge in the “right to Life” department! You own the “right to kill” agenda.

Liberty? Your party is even worse on individual Liberty than it is on the inalienable right to Life itself, if that’s possible. You have turned every federal asset intended to protect and defend the American people and the American way of life, against these people and their inalienable right to individual Liberty. You have replaced the right to individual Liberty with your right to take Liberty from some for the alleged benefit of others, enslaving both in that process.

The pursuit of Happiness? Your idea of happiness is undermining Constitutionally protected freedom, liberty, sovereignty and security for the American people with the pursuit of happiness for people in our country illegally, and the greater good of the global commune.

Your party has not only failed the American people in all of these basic precepts, you have become overtly destructive of these ends...

Can your Party become American again?

My opinion is, NO... you can't. Your party is too far gone. Not only is it no longer of any use to the American people, it is an active agent for the global commune and destructive of all things American.

Because the American people have soundly rejected you and your anti-American ideas in election after election after election, you now employ "jihad" war tactics of targeting innocent unarmed Americans in soft zones like a baseball field, college campuses, inner city markets and malls. You provide aid and comfort to our enemies at the expense of American lives. Your entire party has become treasonous against the American people!

Because you have so completely failed all Americans in your anti-American pursuit of "social justice" for every non-citizen seeking to bring harm to America, including through your so-called "refugee resettlement" program for jihadists, your party is now on the brink of extinction.

Still, you don't seem to get it! (Some Republicans don't get it either)

It's quite simple really...

- When asked to protect human life, you protect the right to kill instead

- When asked to protect Americans, you protect illegal aliens instead
- When asked to protect our national sovereignty, you build a global commune instead
- When asked to protect our borders, you attempt to erase our borders instead
- When asked to uphold and enforce our constitutional laws, you seek to undermine them instead
- When asked to protect our economy, you outsource our economy to benefit others instead
- When asked to protect our 1st and 2nd Amendments, you attack them instead
- When asked to respect the 10th Amendment, you act as if it doesn't exist instead

I could keep going with this list for several pages, but hopefully, you can see your problem here. You are 180-degrees opposite of our founding principles and values and every American citizen. I'm shocked you can get any votes at all today, anywhere in America. If not for your dumbing-down efforts through your Common Core public re-education system and your mind-control over the weakest among us, you wouldn't get a single vote anywhere.

So, what now for you?

If you allow the Bernie Sanders of the world to push your party even further left, that will be the final death of your party in this country. It's over at that point... You should see that clearly by now, though I doubt that you do. Your collective heads have been fried, turned inside-out. You couldn't be more backwards if your life depended on it.

Your only option for party survival at this late date is to purge your party of all anti-American global Marxists and rebuild from the ground up on American foundations. You don't have any other options...

The odds that you will do this are worse than your 0 for 4 record in recent special elections. It's time for the Democratic Party to join the ash-heap of history. Your future is hopeless in America. Voters across the political spectrum are no longer manipulated by your anti-American rhetoric or your campaigns based on nothing more than unfounded character assassination of your opponents.

It's time for America to move beyond the Democratic Party of yesterday and towards a new second Party based on American principles and values. You really screwed up!
