

Democracies Result in Turbulence and Contention

By Kelleigh Nelson

The founders knew that a democracy would lead to the same kind of tyranny the colonies suffered under King George III. Our founders intended for us to have a republican form of limited government...The word democracy appears in neither of our founding documents: our Declaration of Independence and Constitution. –Walter Williams

Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There is never a democracy that did not commit suicide. –John Adams

A democracy is nothing more than mob rule, where 51 percent of the people may take away the rights of the other 49. –Thomas Jefferson

Totalitarianism is never content to rule by external means, namely, through the state and a machinery of violence; thanks to its peculiar ideology and the role assigned to it in this apparatus of coercion, totalitarianism has discovered a means of dominating and terrorizing human beings from within. –Hannah Arendt

Anyone who thinks a democratic form of government, a republican form, a constitution, or anything else is going to save this or any other country is in for a rude surprise. The only thing that can save a people and their country are the people themselves.

In a Representative Republic, the representatives are to follow the rule of law, i.e., the US Constitution. That's not happening. Daniel Webster told us, "God grants liberty only to those who love it, and are always ready to guard and defend it."

Corruption and greed have overtaken the majority of our elected officials. Only a handful truly stand for freedom and individual liberty.

A dozen years ago, former Senator Rick Santorum (R-PA) made this statement, "There is no such society that I'm aware of where we've had radical individualism and that it succeeds as a culture." Sorry Rick, but that was once the hallmark of the USA and it is quickly disappearing with critical theory, Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) and cultural Marxism.

How many times have we heard the Stalinist comrades in mainstream media tell us that Trump threatens our "democracy." They've taken a lesson from Nazi propagandist Joseph Goebbels, knowing that if you repeat the lie often enough people will begin to believe it.

Do we pledge allegiance to the "democracy for which we stand?" No! We pledge allegiance to the Republic for which we stand!

Our founders hated democracies and considered them to be mob rule.

James Madison argued that democracies "have ever been spectacles of turbulence and contention; have ever been incompatible with personal security or the rights of property; and have in general been as short in their lives as they have been violent in their deaths."

The United States is a republic, as stated by article 4, section 2 of the U.S. Constitution:

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against Invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic Violence.

James Madison wrote in Federalist No. 39,

“We may define a republic to be, or at least may bestow that name on, a government which derives all its powers directly or indirectly from the great body of the people, and is administered by persons holding their offices during pleasure, for a limited period, or during good behavior. It is ESSENTIAL to such a government that it be derived from the great body of the society, not from an inconsiderable proportion, or a favored class of it; . . . It is SUFFICIENT for such a government that the persons administering it be appointed, either directly or indirectly, by the people; and that they hold their appointments by either of the tenures just specified.”

Okay, so we’ve just looked at the stupidity of our mainstream media and most alt-right pundits, including our university and college professors regarding the fact that we are a representative republic, not a democracy.

Let’s move on.

I would wager that if you asked today’s youth what river is the largest in America that few would be able to answer, “the mighty Mississippi.”

The same goes for all the fools on college campuses who have no respect, no dignity and apparently no parental training as they gather on university grounds and scream, “from the river to the sea, Palestine will be free.”

And how many times have reporters asked them what river and what sea and they can’t answer. Because they are brainwashed by propaganda from their professors and peers and think that what they're doing is righteous.

It is mob rule...i.e., a democracy.

July 4th is around the corner. Ask young 20 somethings what the holiday represents and few could tell you. "Who did we fight for eight years?" Crickets. "What was the Revolutionary War?" Nothing. Why do they call it Independence Day? Zip.

Switch the theme and ask them to name just one of the ten Bill of Rights in our Constitution. Deer in the headlights.

They don't even know American history, so how can they know the history of any other country?

These college children, yes, they are still children, are promoting terrorists who would rape and behead them in minutes, yet they are too ignorant of facts to understand that our ally, Israel, is the nation of peace. Their university professors are siding with terrorists instead of our ally.

Israel and her people have been attacked. They are defending themselves from a people who want them obliterated.

Israel at War

President Biden has made it very clear that he stands with Iran and Hamas and is not supporting our ally, Israel.

Our recently elected Speaker of the House, Mike Johnson, brings forth legislation we do not want. He refuses to use the border as a bargaining chip and stop the invasion of criminals, gangs, human traffickers, Chinese and Islamic terrorists. Instead, he gives away billions to the corrupt state of Ukraine, which is totally unconstitutional, and the Republican House members vote for it, other than those few who truly follow the US Constitution. Meanwhile, Americans pay for that giveaway with higher consumer prices and lower standards of living.

We're next on the chopping block from these invaders.

When they come for Israel, they come for the rest of us.

Israel consistently repays America and she also pays for munitions up front, but Biden and his terrorist loving administration drag their feet in sending the needed armaments.

In 2016, under the Obama administration, a 10-year deal was signed between the US and Israel for armaments. It was foolish for Israel to have signed this agreement, as told by Rabbi Wolicki in his interview with Frank Gaffney. Israel agreed to buy only from the US and not have their own munition plants. In two years, this idiotic contract is up, but Israel needs what they've paid for now. Biden is slow walking the bombs and firearms. He has broken the contract. As such, Israel should have the right to purchase arms from other countries and then start producing their own munitions plants.

Most of Obama and Biden's hires are from Columbia or Georgetown University Law School, two bastions of cultural Marxism plotting the overthrow of our Constitutional Republic.

Secretary of State Blinken is still fomenting a two-state solution. Why, in the Lord's Holy Name would anyone think it would be possible to live with Hamas/Palestinians and live in peace? Since 2005 when they were given Gaza, thanks to Ariel Sharon's peace plan, Hamas has been bombing Israel, building tunnels, storing munitions and planning an attack to slaughter, rape, behead and burn any and all Jews.

Joan Swirsky has documented the Jew hating hires of the Biden-Obama regime in three articles.

In 2014 David Pollock wrote, Ariel Sharon: From Warrior to Man of Peace at Last, in the Washington Institute for Near East Policy. Pollock has been proven wrong with the rest of the world including the Muslim loving United Nations. No nation can live in peace with another who wishes their death and destruction.

America should be standing at Israel's side and helping her just as Nixon helped Prime Minister Golda Meir in 1973. She phoned the president in the middle of the night and said that Egypt and Syria had both launched massive attacks.

Nixon remembered his mother reading him Bible stories at bedtime. Hannah Nixon told him that one day he'd be called on to help Israel.

The President knew the threat an Arab victory posed, and he also knew that the Soviet Union was providing arms to the Arabs in an attempt to spread their influence throughout the region.

To rid the region of the communist propaganda and takeover, Nixon knew Israel needed American arms to defeat the Syrians and Egyptians. Both he and Secretary of State Kissinger wanted to conduct the airlift, but the urgency was there with Nixon. He said to them, "You get the stuff to Israel. Now. Now!"

The Nixon Foundation tells the history:

The Nixon Administration initiated Operation Nickel Grass, an American airlift to replace all of Israel's lost munitions. This was huge – planeload after planeload of supplies literally allowed munitions and materiel to seemingly re-spawn for the Israeli counter effort. 567 missions were flown throughout the airlift, dropping over 22,000 tons of supplies. An additional 90,000 tons of materiel were delivered by sea. According to Abraham Rabinovich, "while the American airlift of supplies did not immediately replace Israel's losses in equipment, it did allow Israel to expend what it did have more freely."

For the next 32 days, MAC C-141 and C-5 cargo transports streamed steadily into Lod International Airport at Tel Aviv from onload points throughout the United States carrying urgently needed war materials.

The war spanned nearly three weeks, from Oct. 6 through Oct. 25, 1973. Most fighting had ended by October 26. But it was the swift and certain actions of America's president that gave Israel a fighting chance and allowed her to defeat the enemies who attacked her.

We've seen the actions of Biden and his administration, and we know who is pulling his strings. The government is siding with the enemies of freedom rather than with our ally. And nothing is being done to hinder the outrageous actions on college campuses.

Nixon remembered the Old Testament Bible stories read to him by his mother.

The Jewish people of today are the modern outgrowth of biblical Israel, and the history of the Jewish people is the centerpiece of biblical history and prophecy.

Conclusion

Mob rule was fomented with the death of George Floyd. Black Lives Matter and Antifa Marxists were responsible for the ensuing destruction.

The more objectionable and destructive acts of human nature are promoted to the youth of America by our institutions of higher learning. Those institutions are funded by anti-American filth who, like Goebbels, lie boldly, and if criticized, enlarge on those lies. Questioned by reporters, it is obvious that even slivers of truth evade the young minds of university protesters.

What shall we choose? A democracy or a representative republic?

The righteousness of the rule of law or mob rule with the overthrow of our constitutional republic?

As Daniel Webster said over two hundred years ago, we must be ready to guard and defend our liberty.

It depends on our people.

We are in a spiritual battle of good vs. evil.

Our nation needs to repent and return to the Lord.
