

Democrat Department of Fraud and Waste

Can you even imagine? In 2024, the party claiming to protect “democracy” put up a Presidential candidate that was not democratically nominated by any American voter. They tossed the democratically nominated candidate out of the race, stole his campaign funds, and tried to ram a totally unqualified drunk, proficient only in word-salads, down our throats.

Now, having committed political suicide in 2024 and losing all political power in the “democratic” election of Republican Trump and his Team, the same so-called “pro-democracy” group is working around the clock to block the new administration from doing exactly what “the people” democratically elected Trump to do... Drain the Swamp, once and for all!

All political power and government funds come from “We the People” who elected the Trump Team to clean up Washington D.C. and end the bankrupting of our nation after decades of grotesque government fraud and waste. Nothing seems to make democrats across the country more scared or angry than what the new Department of Government Efficiency is uncovering in just the first few weeks of agency audits.

For those of you who don't know, all Federal Agencies are Executive Branch Agencies under the direction of the President. None of them are under the command or control of Congress or the Judicial Branch. Every President brings in their own team to execute the objectives they were “democratically” elected by the people to achieve.

But according to democrats, the most undemocratic group in America today, this suddenly constitutes some strange form of a “constitutional crisis.” They didn’t think so when Obama brought in his team for three terms, or when Clinton brought in his team for two terms. Only when Trump brought in his team for a second term, are democrats suddenly freaking out over an open transparent audit of where “the people’s” money has been going for years.

It’s quite clear that the people responsible for our nearly $37-trillion in national debt don’t want the people to know where all that money went. Democrats were trying to hire 80,000 new IRS agents to audit you, but when the time came for them to be audited, they are calling for war in our streets.

Those with nothing to hide, don’t hide...nor do they try to incite war in our streets to prevent the people from knowing what they have been doing with our money!

The Trump team hasn’t even been in office for a month yet and guess what... “DOGE Finds \$4.7 Trillion In Virtually Untraceable Treasury Payments”

They’re just getting started and by the time they are done, I bet we will all know exactly how so many D.C. politicians have become multi-millionaires in short order, just by winning an election.

Face it, DOGE is auditing the table of mass-fraud and corruption in D.C. and democrats who have become extraordinarily wealthy in office are in full panic. When the dust settles and the smoke clears, many will need to face criminal charges for what they have done to rape and plunder American taxpayers their entire careers.

These miscreants have been bilking Americans out of their hard-earned trillions for decades, driving the people deeper and deeper in both personal and national debt. They can't stop talking about "your fair share" and they have put citizens in prison for using government tax codes to minimize tax liability. But now, the tables have turned!

The American people of all past political stripes are about to learn just how corrupt their politicians really are, who became wealthy while they bankrupted you, and how. When they do, politicians will never be looked upon as pillars of any community for another 200-years.

As Shakespeare once said in the play, Hamlet, "thou dost protest too much!"

Everyone trying to stop the DOGE audits of every Executive Branch Agency has something to hide, something BIG!

When the American people follow the money trail and find out what it is, many of these corrupt politicians will have to seek safe harbor in some other country.

If you're one of the dummies taking a frontline position to defend these thieves, just because they told you to, I hope you reconsider. There's a reason why your political heroes are putting you in harms way! You're there to protect them...they aren't there to protect you!
