

Democrats Are Seeming To Self-Destruct

By Kat Stansell

The Left is trying to make “nice” with some highly questionable bedfellows, in order to stay afloat, to remain relevant. Today’s Left is losing their minds, what little remains, in an effort to garner support. Will those at whom they grasp help them keep their political heads above water, or sink the Party like a rock?

Their mascot, the donkey, is a beast of burden, used by many. Remember that.

“Democrats”, aka, Communists, have moved from a party that was supposed to be for the “little guy” (a historical farce in itself), to a gang that stands with Lucifer- AND LGBTQAI , DEI, BLM, ANTIFA, et. al. You know their “daily shows”: the violence, the full-speed gender dysphoria, the lies that are SO blatant that they ought to be embarrassed for telling them.

Of course, it takes morals to feel shame or to be embarrassed by anything, and the Left has, apparently none. Missing moral guideposts are at the root of America’s problems today, and those problems, right now, are seeming bigger than ever. .

Sane people are backing away from the radical turn taken by the Left, which is now on display everywhere you look. The voters are disappointed with Democrat Congressional leadership, the party’s apparent “core values”, and support for Israel, and the economy under Biden, to name a few. They disagree with the violence, the illegal immigration for which citizens have to pay, drug and child sex trafficking, and all else that makes the party what it is today.

Unsurprisingly, Democrat Party approval ratings – NOT those “quoted” in lame stream media – stand at around 20-30% at the moment. They are in the toilet. The Party is in trouble.

Several exit polls in Michigan following the 2024 Presidential election show that Muslim Americans in Dearborn, Hamtramck, and Detroit deserted Democrats. Polls show that a majority voted for Donald Trump because of the economy, illegal immigration, and his willingness to deal with Gaza. It is felt that the 2024 election divided Muslim Americans.

This makes me wonder if the Democrat Party's fawning over an Islamo-Facist, Zohran Momdani, running for mayor of NYC, is an attempt for the Left to regain favor with the Muslim community, which is becoming more and more involved in American politics.

In their desperation, as their numbers drop and Trump's rise, the Democrats are racing to endorse Momdani. Lie-a watha (Elizabeth Warren), Kathy Hochul the NY Governor, and – of course AOC, Bernie Sanders and the Congressional Muslims, Omar, Jaypal, and Tlaib, have all stood up for him. So, too, Kamala Harris, who fared poorly in those exit polls. Take a look at those exit polls, linked above.

The Democrats, with their LGBTQII partners, may have ignored one critical thing. A major tenet of Islam – Sunni or Shia – is that homosexuality is verboten and its adherents are put to death. To murder a gay is considered an honor killing in some places.

Momdani, who will most likely win the race for NYC MAYOR it is said, has spoken out IN FAVOR of the gender dysphoric, promising an “Office of LGBTQIA+ Affairs”. This proves nothing more than, that like most leftists, he is adept at saying whatever he thinks people want to hear. He stresses that he is Shia, not Sunni – which really does NOT matter, as all Muslims believe that Sharia Law should rule the world, and that homosexuality is a sin worthy of death.

Nearly 20 years ago, the UK Guardian published an article about how SHIA militia have been killing men suspected of being gay. I'm guessing that Momdani won't be leading too many gay rights parades in rainbow clothing, despite creating an "office" for them. BTW, an LGBTQIA office in Momdani's NYC might be an excellent way to keep track of those sinners, in the event of any decision for disposal of that community should arise in the future.

As the Western Journal says, Mamdani is not moderate. He is toning it down only for the sake of electability.

The Sunni/Shia divide is really only a messy technicality when it comes to this. They fight each other about blood lines of their most high ruler, not Sharia Law. That, they all agree upon. Both Muslim sects believe in their own law, SHARIA LAW, NOT OURS,, the US Constitution.

That is a huge problem for us all. Ask Britain and France, where this destruction of national law is unfolding in real time.

In Britain, traditional parties have all but dissolved. Saddiq

Kahn, has served as Mayor of London since 2016. You will be shocked by the full list of British Muslims in office, as presented in Wikipedia. I know I was.

NYC may be about to vote themselves into submission, but they may have company

Now, in Georgia, one Muslim woman in the GA House, Ruwa Romman, is running for Governor of GA in 2026, as Brian Kemp is term-limited. Romman and Momdani are not isolated exceptions. Not sure how important the Left thinks GA is, but don't discount this possibility.

In the 2022 midterms, a record number of Muslims – 82 – were elected to public office around America. Two were elected to the GA legislature, including Romman; two to Ohio, two in IL, one in MN, and one in TX. Their population is expanding as well. After Christianity and Judaism, Islam is the third most popular religion in the United States.

Pew Research says that American Muslim voters lean only slightly to the Left. Pew Research is also the home of ERIC (the Electronic Registration Information Center), the voter fraud AI database. They are quite adept at information manipulation.

What we do know is this.

Mosques are being built around the country, at a rapid pace. Six hundred Islamic houses of worship were built between 2010 and 2020. In that same period, 4500 Christian churches closed in 2019 alone, as the Covid controls were tightened around America.

As of August 2025, there are 3.967 mosques in the United States. THE LARGEST NUMBER IS IN FLORIDA, WHICH IS HOME TO 4.8 % OF THE TOTAL in America. Pew Research ranks Florida as fourth or fifth. Like it matters. Governor DeSantis is proud of the religious liberty in his state.

According to the linked "POI DATA", above, Florida is closely followed by New York (4.7%) and California (4.6%). then comes Michigan, Virginia and Georgia. Rounding out the top ten are Texas, Ohio, North Carolina and Maryland, which is home to 93 mosques. I'm guessing that some of you will be surprised at the full list. Do check it out.

Another good red state, Tennessee, has 59 mosques, or 1.3% of the national total!

In 1994, just thirty years ago, there were 900 mosques in America.

All the while, Christianity, upon which OUR nation was founded, has shied away from political involvement. Our churches backed down so they didn't lose their tax-free statue for donations, and so, uninvolved as they were over the years, in what was going on, began to lose the youth which were being courted and turned by the other side.

This is where Charlie Kirk has, we pray, been a real turning point.

So the Desperate Dems are courting the gays and the Muslims in the effort to right their sinking ship. This cannot turn out well. They may end up sinking the Ship of State with their hatred and ineptitude.

Be concerned for America. Be very concerned.

Remember, Arab nations have used anti-Americanism to rally their people, despite America's support in many things which had nothing to do with religion. Also, they take all the monetary aid we will give. Obama's late-night plane full of palates of American bills, were, I am very sure, only a pittance of the total "gratefully received".

Over the years, the United States has spent much of our blood and treasure saving Muslims in Afghanistan from the Soviets; in Kuwait and Saudi Arabia from Iraq; and in Bosnia and Kosovo from Yugoslavia. We have supported a Muslim Pakistan against India and Muslim Turkey against Greece. Washington has courted Damascus, even tacitly accepting Syria's control over Lebanon. The United States supported Arab Iraq against Persian Iran during the Iran-Iraq War and also refrained from overthrowing Saddam Hussein after pushing him out of Kuwait in 1991.

The second election of Donald Trump is only the beginning. None of us knows how America will fare in these rough waters. We must simply pray, help where we can, then leave it up to the Higher Power.

We've got a wild, quite possibly dangerous, road ahead. Democrat leaders intend to make it that way, whether or not they realize the dangerous gang they've contrived, and the potential for disaster therein. Perhaps the real question is whether or not they care.

The demise of the Democrat Party, should it occur, will not happen quickly. They have too large a supply of Soros-type money, Chinese CCP assistance, and hearts full of the Devil's anger, to disappear without a lot more sound and fury – which hopefully signifies nothing but their angst.

We will have to wait to see, with eyes wide open.

If the Left goes out, it will be with a real bang. Know that, and be ready. From what I read, endless violence and attacks on us as well as our political leaders are planned. Look at what has happened already. I would not have said this a few years ago, but they are just that crazy now.

There is almost no doubt that they will attempt to kill our President at least once more, and other of our newly elected leaders because they are trying to drain the deadly Swamp. Pray hard that they will fail.

What a mess. I have less than ZERO patience for any elected official who cannot see this, who tries to play "middle-of-the-roader".

Ok, I've made my point. I hope.

Pray to God. And KNOW YOUR CANDIDATES. Who they are, what they believe, what is their understanding of Constitutional governance.

Should someone of the Muslim faith present as a candidate, PRESS THEM to swear allegiance to America, not Mohammed. ASK THEM how they intend to vote on various issues, should they have the opportunity. Watch who supports them.

[\[Two faces of Muslim ideology\]](#)

There is always a possibility that a Muslim American wants to work to support America. That would be our fondest prayer. We just have to sort them out before we elect them, which is no different that any candidate. RINO's and Globalists are as dangerous as anyone. Maybe even more so in the short term, as so many are still fooled by them.

Please help Lady Liberty to stand strong against her enemies, foreign and domestic.

Once again, it is up to us.
