

Democrats Condemn Israel's Decision to Deny Access to Anti-Semitic Israel Hating Rashida Tlaib and Ilhan Omar

Israel officially denied access to Ilhan Omar and Rashida Tlaib yesterday (August 15th), which is of course igniting a firestorm of protest among Democrats. Top Democrats were quick to rebuke this decision while being deliberately ignorant of the facts.

Nancy Pelosi immediately criticized Israel's decision calling it, "a sign of weakness, and beneath the dignity of the great State of Israel." Chuck-you Schumer claimed that Israel's decision would only hurt U.S. Israeli relations. Really? According to who – besides those who have long ago made it clear they are against Israel?

Of course the media is jumping all over the fact that President Trump called for Israel to deny these two members of "The Squad," and Israel within hours of the Trump tweet did just that.

"It would show great weakness if Israel allowed Rep. Omar and Rep.Tlaib [sic] to visit. They hate Israel & all Jewish people, & there is nothing that can be said or done to change their minds. Minnesota and Michigan will have a hard time putting them back in office. They are a disgrace!"

It would show great weakness if Israel allowed Rep. Omar and Rep.Tlaib to visit. They hate Israel & all Jewish people, & there is nothing that can be said or done to change their minds. Minnesota and Michigan will have a hard time putting them back in office. They are a disgrace!

– Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) August 15, 2019

There is of course a huge uproar on Twitter against the president and his comments.

“I can’t wait until you get sued for slander. You’re putting these congress members in danger by inciting hate within their own country against them and its transparent. We know you want to be a dictator more than anything. Good thing you’re so bad at it.”

https://twitter.com/just_plain_k8/status/1162115165539753984

So telling the truth about these two women who openly support the anti-Israel BDS movement, are associated with Islam and Israeli hating groups like CAIR and others, and have made disparaging remarks towards Israel – this is slander and endangering Tlaib and Omar? Oh please, get serious.

“Our president is trying to get American Muslims killed.

Not just these two congresswomen.

Muslims. In general.

There’s no other way to read this.”

Our president is trying to get American Muslims killed.

Not just these two congresswomen.

Muslims. In general.

There's no other way to read this. <https://t.co/A7T1iMCrql>

– Holly Figueroa O'Reilly (@AynRandPaulRyan) August 15, 2019

So because the president calls out two members of Congress who are Muslims for their anti-Israeli attitude and obvious dislike and even hatred for Israel, President Trump is trying to get American Muslims killed? This is nothing more than the typical Leftist paradigm of over exaggeration and finger pointing to divert negative attention away from Tlaib and Omar (who bring it on themselves) and turn this into an attack on Trump.

This is all too common among Democrats and their supporters, there is never any accountability for their actions and comments, instead, the blame for anything they do or say is shifted to Trump or some other scapegoat. This happened because Trump said, this occurred because the Republicans did this, Trump supporters are all haters, blah, blah, blah, blah.

The Democrats however conveniently leave out a few pertinent facts. Lets look at these facts shall we?

From Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's Facebook Page:

"As a free and vibrant democracy, Israel is open to critics and criticism, with one exception: Israeli law prohibits the entry into Israel of those who call for and work to impose boycotts on Israel, as do other democracies that prohibit the entry of people who seek to harm the country. In fact, in the past the US did this to an Israeli member of Knesset, as well as to other public figures from around the world."

Ok, so it is against Israeli law to allow Omar and Tlaib into Israel as they have actively supported the anti-Israel group BDS. Did any Democrat happen to mention this in their outrage against the Israeli decision? Of course not. What??? The U.S. did the same thing? Hmmm.

Here are some further facts regarding the Omar/Tlaib visit the Democrats will not tell you, and do not want you to know:

This visit was categorized as visiting "Palestine," not Israel. As well, there was no request to meet with any Israeli official, as is usual for both Democrats and Republicans – but you can bet the bank that there would have been a press conference or at the very least a photo op with Hamas officials in Gaza.

So Rashida Tlaib and Ilhan Omar who openly display hatred for Israel, and actively work to dismiss Israel's legitimacy as well as to destroy them, were going to go to Israel and snub the Israeli government while visiting with the so-called Palestinian state (which I want to remind the reader does not, and never did exist!) and it's officials, namely Hamas. Hamas of course need I remind the reader is a terrorist group and denies that Israel has any right to exist, and is actively working to destroy Israel – hand in hand with Iran. But it's ok for two U.S. Congress women to support these people.

A week ago, Israel welcomed Democrats in Israel for a meeting; yes you read that right, Democrats!

Read this last comment from the obviously hateful Prime Minister of Israel:

"Nonetheless, if Congresswoman Tlaib submits a humanitarian request to visit her relatives, the minister of interior has announced that he will consider her request on the condition that she pledges not to act to promote boycotts against Israel during her visit."

So, Israel would allow Rashida Tlaib to visit her family if she simply pledges not to work against Israel while there.

Seems pretty reasonable to this writer. Would Tlaib do the same? I rather doubt it.

It would be well worth your time to read the entire statement;

the Dems will not convey this information to the public.

Maybe President Trump should have stayed out of this and let Israel handle it. Maybe Israel made a mistake in barring these two members of Congress from entering Israel. That being said, I do not believe for one minute that Prime Minister Netanyahu or a member of his government would deny Rashida Tlaib and Ilhan Omar access to their country based solely on Donald Trump's opinion. Denying these two Israeli haters access is to me only common sense.

Many political commentators including some who support Israel are saying that Israel has made a serious mistake in denying access to Tlaib and Omar.

A serious question needs to be asked here:

Would anyone with even a smattering of brain cells invite or allow a known enemy of the United States to enter our country, knowing that these people desire the complete and utter destruction of the United States? The answer is obvious to any thinking person. Yet, the United States paid off just such an enemy with billions of dollars under the direction of President Obama – I am of course talking about Iran and the Iran “nuke deal,” Iran, whom refers to the U.S. as “the great Satan.”

Rashida Tlaib and Ilhan Omar both support Islam, and they are known to associate with CAIR and other Islamic organizations, which by the way financially support them. News flash, Islam hates the United States and seeks to dominate it by bringing in Sharia Law and turning the entire country into an Islamic caliphate. The Democrats are cutting their own throats, not to mention the throats of all Americans in supporting these two enemies of America.

America had better wake up, and do so soon. Far too many support these two anti-American Muslim women, while Omar and Tlaib along with the rest of “The Squad” continue to advance an anti-American agenda meant to weaken America so as to make us vulnerable to an Islamic and New World Order take over. If you believe this is all a far-right fairy tale, then you are not paying attention.

America needs to follow in the footsteps of “the Donald” as well as the Israelis, and stop making nice with these anti-American destroyers. “The Squad” and all others like them need to be voted out of office and never allowed to hold power again.

Rashida Tlaib, Ilhan Omar, Alexandria Ocasio Cortez, and Ayanna Pressley – otherwise known as “The Squad,” need to be eliminated from office for being the dangerous anti-American, pro socialism, pro open borders, and pro New World Order vermin that they are.

Wake up America, before it is too late. Read my new book that deals with all of this in more depth: Spiritual Darkness is Destroying America and the Church

Greg is the author of the newly released book: Spiritual Darkness is Destroying America and the Church

Follow TCP on Facebook, Gab, USA Life, Twitter, Pinterest, and Social Cross

© 2019 NWV – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Greg Holt: admin@trueconservativepundit.com