

Democrats in Republican Seats

The Obama 3.0 administration has set the entire world on fire in just the past 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ years, using mental midgets and moral misfits Biden and Harris as his human shields to protect the person actually running the Federal regime...Barack Hussein Obama. They are already responsible for millions of deaths around the globe, and an America on the brink of total collapse and Civil War, in just 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ years.

As warned many times over the years, the global left, represented by Muslim Marxist Barack Hussein Obama & Co. in the USA, was prepared to go “scorched-earth” to prevent America from ever being great again. Literally ALL of the chaos, division, destruction, financial ruin, worldwide terrorism, and growing wars are part of that scorched-earth mission. Now they have pulled that fatal trigger in the Middle East.

“A scorched-earth policy is a political policy and military strategy of destroying everything that allows an enemy to be able to fight a war, including water, food, humans, animals, plants and any kind of tools and infrastructure.”

Prior to the massive import of millions of Marxists and Muslims into the USA under the guise of “refugee resettlement” since Obama 2009, anti-American terrorism and terror supporters numbered less than 20% of American society. Thanks to Obama’s mass foreign invasion operation since 2009, and his “fundamental transformation” of the USA through fake news, public education and far left college lecture halls, the enemies within are fast approaching majority status in our country.

But they had to have help from across the aisle... Democrats in Republican seats.

Many refer to them as RINOs (Republican in name only), or "moderates." But the truth is far worse than that. Just as our country has been systematically infiltrated by foreign enemies since 2009, seats in Congress, the Courts, every federal agency, governorships, state legislatures, District Attorneys, Secretaries of State, the law profession, the medical profession, all the way down to local City Councils and law enforcement agencies...all have also been systematically infiltrated.

That's the bad news... The good news is the disasters they have created from sea to sea in the past 2 ½ years have made the worst of them quite visible to every American Citizen now. We can easily see who stands for what and with whom...

The House Speaker

As we sit today, the next Speaker of the People's House will either be Republican Jim Jordan of Ohio, or Democrat lawyer Hakeem Sekou Jeffries of New York. Shockingly, it will be the following list of Democrats in Republican seats who will decide which one becomes the next Speaker of the People's House. 217 votes are needed to become Speaker and Republicans only have a nine-member majority in the House at 221.

In the first vote for Jordan, the following 20 Republicans voted against Jordan.

Rep. Don Bacon, of Nebraska, was the first to cast a vote for McCarthy.

Rep. Ken Buck, of Colorado, voted for Emmer.

Rep. Lori Chavez-DeRemer, of Oregon, voted for McCarthy.

Rep. Anthony D'Esposito, of New York, voted for Zeldin.
Rep. Mario Díaz-Balart, of Florida, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Jake Ellzey, of Texas, voted for Garcia.
Rep. Andrew Garbarino, of New York, was the second to vote for Zeldin.
Rep. Carlos Giménez, of Florida, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Tony Gonzales, of Texas, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Kay Granger, of Texas, voted for Scalise.
Rep. John James, of Michigan, voted for Cole.
Rep. Mike Kelly, of Pennsylvania, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Jennifer Kiggans, of Virginia, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Nick LaLota, of New York, voted for Zeldin
Rep. Doug LaMalfa, of California, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Michael Lawler, of New York, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. John Rutherford, of Florida, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Michael Simpson, of Idaho, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Victoria Spartz, of Indiana, voted for Massie.
Rep. Steve Womack, of Arkansas, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Gus Bilirakis, of Florida was absent from the vote.

Here are the 22 Republicans who have opposed Jordan on the second round of voting:

Rep. Don Bacon, of Nebraska, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Vern Buchanan, of Florida, voted for Rep. Byron Donalds, also of Florida.
Rep. Ken Buck, of Colorado, voted for Rep. Tom Emmer, of Minnesota.
Rep. Lori Chavez-Ramer, of Oregon, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Anthony D'Esposito, of New York, voted for former Rep. Lee Zeldin.
Rep. Mario Diaz-Balart, of Florida, voted for Rep. Steve Scalise, of Louisiana.
Rep. Jake Ellzey, of Florida, voted for Rep. Mike Garcia, of California.
Rep. Drew Ferguson, of Georgia, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Andrew Garbarino, of New York, voted for Zeldin.

Rep. Carlos Gimenez, of Florida, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Tony Gonzales, of Texas, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Kay Granger, of Texas, voted for Scalise.
Rep. John James, of Michigan, voted for Candice Miller.
Rep. Mike Kelly, of Pennsylvania, voted for former House Speaker John Boehner.
Rep. Jennifer Kiggans, of Virginia, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Nick LaLota, of New York, voted for Zeldin.
Rep. Michael Lawler, of New York, voted for McCarthy.
Rep. Mariannette Miller-Meeks, voted for Rep. Kay Granger, of Texas.
Rep. John Rutherford, of Florida, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Michael Simpson, of Idaho, voted for Scalise.
Rep. Pete Stauber, of Minnesota, voted for Rep. Bruce Westerman, Republican of Arkansas. Stauber voted for Jordan in the first round.
Rep. Steve Womack, of Arkansas, voted for Scalise.

20 Democrats in Republican seats voted against fellow Republican Jim Jordan in the first round, and 22 voted against him in the second round.

These 22 hold the power to seat or block Jim Jordan from becoming Speaker...or cross the aisle and elect Democrat lawyer Hakeem Sekou Jeffries of New York the next House Speaker, despite democrats holding a minority in the U.S. House.

The future of the People's House is currently held hostage by these 22 House Democrats in Republican seats.

Meanwhile, Hamas unprovoked attacks on Israel are fast escalating to a global conflict capable of igniting World War III, all a scene in a grand global play of the scorched-earth Obama mission to forever transform America and the world, in concert with The World Economic Forum, the International Monetary Fund, the United Nations, NATO, and hundreds of major U.S. Corporations.

In the votes for speaker, 100% of democrats voted against both Steve Scalise and Jim Jordan, demonstrating their complete inability to act in any bipartisan fashion for the sake of the sovereignty and security of the United States. While the democrat Hamas Caucus has thousands in the streets supporting Islamic terrorism, they refer to Republicans as the “extremists.”

The only way for this to end well is for all 22 democrats in republican seats to vote their chosen party and stop holding the USA hostage in their ill-fated political stunt also aimed at the final demise of the USA.

Hakeem Sekou Jeffries was only 17 votes short of becoming Speaker in the first votes. These 22 turncoats hold 22 votes that can make this happen. If they do...they will be directly responsible for the Civil War that follows.

This isn't just about seating the next Speaker. Without a united 217 House member minimum, the House will not be able to accomplish anything, no matter who the speaker is, and that will allow Obama 3.0 to carry on without any check or balance from the People's House.
