

Dems Doing This While Conservatives Are Doing ...

We all know the saying, actions speak louder than words.

Something many may not realize is just how much action is going on by motivated individuals who call themselves Democrats; liberal or progressive their true political ideology is socialism and communism. ‘We have to regulate every aspect of people’s lives’ – Lawmaker slips, confirms objective of progressivism, 8.6.2018

Should Democratic Party merge with Communist Party? My column, 8.12.2005

“No doubt such a question will immediately raise the hackles of those who belong to the Democratic Party, but I believe this is a valid question considering the Communist Party USA and the Communist Party of Red China endorsed John Kerry for president in the last pretend election. They wouldn’t endorse him unless they felt he would continue to further the agenda for world communism via the official Democratic Party...

“Back in 1996, I wrote about the 57 members of Congress who belonged to the “Progressive Caucus.” The Democratic Socialists of America highly admire these left-of-the-left members of Congress, i.e., open socialist Bernard Sanders, I-Vt., who should be barred from serving in the U.S. Congress because his goal is the destruction of our constitutional republic (we are not a democracy)...

“The master plan is all but a fait accompli. People should remember these words by Ayn Rand: “We are fast approaching the stage of the ultimate inversion: The stage where the government is free to do anything it pleases, while the citizens may act only by permission – which is the stage of the darkest periods of human history, the stage of rule by brute force.”

Three years later we had an illegitimate president. An impostor president who was not constitutionally eligible to run for president, Barry Soetoro aka Barrack Hussein Obama, who committed fraud to get elected. A stinking Marxist whose only qualifications for the job was a community organizer. And, organize he did.

Today, socialists who belong to the Democratic/Communist Party USA have come out of the wood work. Kamala Harris, a counterfeit U.S. Senator from California is a Red, make no mistake about that. The Democrat Party is trying to mold her into a superstar.

Dozens and dozens of members of Congress still belong to the DSA while useful fools out there causing violence, ANTIFA for one, chant they are against Fascism. The paid anarchists know full well what their doing but the dullard's who join them wouldn't know what Fascism means if Mussolini stood in front of them and laid it all out.

We are getting close to the next election for the full U.S. House and 1/3rd of the illegitimate U.S. Senate. Once again, too many GOP incumbents, a whole lot of them RINOs, have won their primaries. Likely most will go on to win in November to go back to the swamp; once again, the lesser of two evils.

There's a lot of noise on the Internet belched from prominent fake news organizations that Democrats are going to take back control of the House. Dementia addled Nancy Pelosi actually believes she will become Speaker of the House again even though many young voters (they're called millennials) feel she is past her sell date.

David Hogg, an opportunist and now celeb of sorts due to his association with the Parkland School shooting tragedy hates the Second Amendment; most cowardly sissy "men" do. Hogg is too ignorant to even understand what that amendment means. In any event, he had some choice words for grandma Nancy so typical of today's youth who can't seem to speak two sentences without using filthy language:

"Parkland shooting survivor and gun-control activist David Hogg says "older" Democrats need to "move the f— off the plate" for young people if they want to be successful.

"The reason Republicans are successful right now is because they're empowering young people," the March for Our Lives told writer Lisa Miller for an interview published Sunday. "Older Democrats just won't move the f— off the plate and let us take control. Nancy Pelosi is old."

Yep. That little punk really believes such statements are going to get him elected to Congress in a few years. But, little David has been well coached and fully understands he who shouts the loudest gets heard.

Regular readers of my columns know I don't belong to any political party; I left the Republican Party in 1996. I've never voted for a Democrat nor will I. However, I do vote. Democrats are very organized in this country – precinct by precinct; county by county.

They 'get out the vote' every election with the help of the disgraced 'mainstream media' and Hollywood whores. They have been signing up illegals who vote in our elections and they make damn sure buses are available to get herds of dumbed down voters to the booth to push buttons.

Many might be too young to remember, but when slutty Billy Clinton ran for office the first time, guess what was exposed? Democrats going to nursing homes and signing up nearly comatose patients to vote and helping them vote using absentee ballots – one of the reasons that form of voting needs to be severely curtailed. Hey – if you can't get to all the cemeteries in Chicago, hit the nursing homes.

It hasn't been working too well the past few elections, but that doesn't stop the worker bees. Their blind loyalty is to their rank, stinking party and if it can't be done legally, vote fraud takes care of the problem. (DO read) Don't ever under estimate the well-organized, powerful machine and community organizing by the Democratic/Communist Party USA.

The other thing happening is liberals, Democrats, Green Party and their ilk, are moving in droves to major cities like Austin and Houston, Texas and Florida. They're coming from California and other states killing them in taxes (like Illinois) and working to ram their socialist/communist agendas and immoral lifestyles down our throats.

I am a constitutionalist. I'm morally and fiscally a conservative. Exactly what establishment elites who run the Republican Party from the top works hard to defeat every primary. And, they do. They hate conservatives. They pour big money into making sure globalist scum like the soon-to-retire Paul Rat Ryan and Mitch McConnell continue getting reelected.

How do they get away with it? I can tell you. Because all politics starts at the grassroots local level and not enough independents, conservatives and constitutionalists are willing to sacrifice their time to become involved.

Oh, yes, I do understand all about time and how there's only so many hours in the day. If you read my column on health care you know I have something called Parsonage-Turner Syndrome; rare and strikes 1 in 100,000 people. Thank God it's not permanent (can last 1-2 years) but I have lived in pain since Jan. 12th (228 days); sometimes excruciating, sometimes just relentless mid-level. I still don't have full use of my left arm; if I turn it the wrong way, horrible pain hits that lasts for hours.

I'm waiting for the results of an x-ray as I likely have a partially dislocated shoulder, a by-product of PTS and am waiting to see a new neurosurgeon from Canada in October to see about possible tendon transfer surgery. Medical bills for this plus the surgery on my neck in February is now over $103,000.00.

But, I still have to live life as best I can as a widow with the help of dear friends who live close. School is back in session so I am back to teaching part time. I wish I could volunteer my time at the local Humane Society because I just love being around dogs, but I can't with my arm. I can assure you there are probably a couple million people who have worse medical challenges than me, so I'm truly grateful there's light at the end of my tunnel.

I know all about time crunch but it all comes down to priority over importance. What matters most right now in our history? For our country, for freedom and liberty? It's all but gone and only We the People who cherish such ideals are going to save her.

If we're ever going to get our fellow Americans educated about the bigger picture and solutions, we have to get involved at the local level.

Think of it as a golden opportunity to get the truth to hundreds, if not thousands in the county where you reside. Let me give you an example. Our Republican County Convention was in late March, only seven weeks out from my surgery. A Saturday. The Convention was to elect delegates to the state convention held a few months later.

Those delegates are the ones who go to the Republican National Convention and nominate a candidate for the next president of these united States of America. One of the most important things a citizen does in determining who will sit in the White House. Guess how many people showed up on a Saturday in a Republican strong hold county like mine? 16 and that included the organizers. Pathetic.

I so much wanted to become a delegate but I couldn't because of my arm. I was still in the 'acute pain' stage and I had no idea how things would be when it came time to head for San Antonio. Our county gets 11 delegates; we ended up with only 4 from the convention. People complain all the time about not having their voice heard, but given the chance, they don't even show up to find out how they can make a difference and not just more belly-aching.

A couple of weeks ago I attended the county Republican monthly meeting. Like the convention above, I was able to give a copy of my Why A Bankrupt America booklet to every person there. (Yeah, I paid for them as the printer has to get paid.) While I am not a registered Republican, I was able to join their club. I don't ask you to do what I won't do myself no matter how much I hurt right now. Hell, I don't even know what a 'fun' time is anymore from being in the trenches full time the past 29 years.

It's critically important to understand what goes on at the local level with your party. How powerful a precinct captain is and how the machine works. Yes, yes, I know. There's not a dime's worth of difference between the Democrat and Republican parties at the top, but the only way we're going to turn things around is (1) get the population educated so they don't keep reelecting the same Band Aid pushers and (2) take back the power from the 'good old boys' at the local level.

You would be shocked at how few people even bother to vote in the primaries which is when the real election begins. If an incumbent rat RINO isn't beaten and replaced with a constitutionalist or at least a 'conservative', what happens in November? You end up with the same rat going back to Congress.

This November the Democratic/Communist Party USA is going all out to take back control of the House and if anyone doesn't think their first order of business will be an impeachment effort to oust President Trump, think again. Rush Limbaugh said it so well last week.

Democrats in my county are gaining ground. Here in West Texas where the Second Amendment is King. It makes me sick. However, going into the high school two weeks ago there is a big new sign right next to the front, main entrance

(BSISD means Big Spring Independent School District):

YES! I haven't heard one complaint from anyone in town about our school staff packing heat. In fact, one lady I chat with while shopping at one of our local stores is a liberal type. I ask her what she thought about it and her response was: It's about time. Our children need to be protected.

If you don't think grassroots activism works, here's a shining and inspiring example from Young Americans for Liberty (YAL).

GO LOOK – "YAL activists stunned the establishment in Missouri and Michigan last night with two slam-dunk wins for YAL endorsed candidates."

"So how'd we pull it off? It's simple: using the door knocking strategy that takes our message directly to the American people.

"Every Operation Win at the Door race that YAL mobilizes door-knockers for is an opportunity to send principled, liberty-minded individuals to state legislatures across the country.

Every candidate we endorse and deploy for is slated to become a champion for our ideals in every chamber they enter. We are building the future bench of liberty candidates for federal office.

“In Dirk Deaton’s race we went all out because Dirk is the next Rand Paul from the state of Missouri. With the help of YAL door knockers... we won the race by 43 percentage points (71% – 28%)! In Steve Johnson’s race our YAL activist went toe-to-toe with the establishment’s handpicked choice. Through our door knocking efforts... Steve won by 51 percentage points (75% – 24%)... absolutely crushing his establishment opponent!

“I want you to look at the YAL students that worked day and night in the heat of summer to knock on 30,387 doors in Missouri and 30,160 in Michigan for Operation Win at the Door”.

Stunning! So where are YOU in helping to save our Republic?

Regular readers of NWVs see outstanding columns by Publius Huldah. She will be speaking here in Texas so spread the word.

Mark Levin, a very popular radio host has made a mint off his book promoting a con-con. Shame on him. Big tech companies are trying to silence us, but they cannot shut down our right to speak at events:

Dear Texas Friends,

“I’ll be speaking at the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas on September 30, 2018. The event is from 5:30 – to 7:00 pm. I’ll be speaking on why an Article V convention is so dangerous and why States [such as Texas] who have already passed applications for Congress to call an Article V convention should rescind their applications at the first possible opportunity. And I’ll have time to answer any questions from the audience.

“We have defeated the “Convention of States Project’s” (COSP) and the “Balanced Budget Amendment Task Force’s” applications in every State so far this year; and it seems to us unlikely that any of the States whose legislatures are still in session will pass any applications.

“In the past, the convention lobby [falsely] assured us that Congress could not call a convention until Congress got 34 applications which were just alike. And they said that Delegates to the convention would be strictly limited to the subject matter of the application.

“Of course all that was a Lie – it was said to lull State legislators into a false belief that an Article V convention is perfectly safe and can’t runaway and impose a new Constitution.

“But now that the convention lobby has failed to get any new States this year, they have changed their tune. They are now urging Congress to “aggregate” the applications and count them together in order to come up with 34 applications.

“Please understand that this push for a convention isn’t about “limiting the power and jurisdiction of the federal government” or reducing federal spending. See, e.g., the attachment on the Nightmare Amendments approved by Texas Legislators.

“It’s about imposing a new Constitution on us. And since the globalists [which includes fake Libertarians & fake Conservatives & the Council on Foreign Relations] want to move us into the North American Union (NAU); they need a new Constitution for us which transforms us from a sovereign nation to a member state in the NAU.

“Of course the smiling & giggling cheerleaders for COSP have no idea of the real agenda – they are the useful idiots who are carrying the water for the globalists.

“Please see this short article and please print it out and

read the CFR's Task Force Report on the NAU.

"It is imperative that you educate your State Legislators on this. Surely they don't want to be dupes of the Koch Brothers and the globalists at the CFR. And remember, the Bush Family and the Cruz Family are in full support of moving us into the NAU.

"These are dangerous times, and we are vulnerable and close to losing our precious Constitution.

"So PLEASE come to the event and bring everyone you can with you. Please do all you can to get State Legislators there. We need them to rescind Texas' outstanding applications for a convention first thing when they reconvene."

One thing I've said so many times over the decades: While all of this is so depressing and makes one rage against the rot and corruption, one of the great things to happen to me is meeting thousands of wonderful Americans across the country. Some have become dear friends. Getting involved and being around other Americans like you who are willing to fight for our country really does lift your spirit.

If you don't know who is head of the Republican Party where you live (I know, the Constitution Party has a wonderful platform and people, but they simply aren't in enough states and quite frankly, you don't hear much from them anymore) so you can get involved, just contact your local election division at your county court house and they can tell you.

One of the items on the agenda at the Republican luncheon I mentioned above two weeks ago was to get people signed up to get citizens registered to vote. AND, motivated to vote.

So, I signed up to man the table at our annual Howard County Fair in Big Spring, Texas on September 22, 2018 at the Howard County Fairgrounds. This is the Permian Basin from Odessa to Midland to Big Spring and all around; BIG oil country.

If you live in Howard County I hope you'll come to the fair and drop by the GOP booth and see me. Even if you don't live in our county! I'll be there from 1:00 – 4: 00 pm hopefully signing up lots of new voters and impressing upon them how critical it is they vote in November which is swiftly approaching.

Don't just assume everyone in your county is registered to vote or will even bother voting. Just look at what those wonderful young people above (YAL) have been doing and accomplishing! If they can find time in their busy schedules, how about you?

If you haven't ordered my book, Taking Politics Out of Solutions, now is a good time to start Christmas shopping! All 17 chapters deal with critical issues and the only constitutional solutions.
