

Destroying Strong Men – Another Step in Taking Control

By Susan Mehiel

September 18, 2024

“Unburdened by what has been...”

As James Lindsay said recently at a Turning Point Conference, Kamala’s mantra is not ‘word salad’; it’s a deliberate statement that we are going to forget the past and not be controlled by our heritage. He likened it to Mao’s destroying the Four Olds, which I talked about back in November in an issue of the Reclaiming Newsletter. “Four Olds” ...Old Ideas, Old Customs, Old Culture, Old Habits of Mind – had to be destroyed if Mao’s plan was to easily prevail.”

Back then I related it to ‘The old sciences, the old words and meanings, the old assumptions, expectations, and the old virtues and religions...’ as we saw it play out in the takeover of our education system. But we cannot ignore our Old Ideas and Customs that include our nation’s heritage, its founding, and our reverence for our Declaration of Independence and Constitution.

All of these and more are being attacked by this administration including the Separation of Powers; it’s their only hope of maintaining power. They are also trying to destroy the power behind our strong founders who pledged their “lives, fortunes and sacred honor” knowing they could be killed for signing the Declaration, and some were. Behind that statement is... independent Masculine Strength...a part of the Olds that must be destroyed.

It was Strong Men who decided to give their authority to elected representatives to craft a bottom-up Republic. It took Strong Men to declare our local communities would run our schools and they would teach the necessary English, History, Math and Science and those Strong Men said schools would teach our Judeo-Christian values because they were not threatened by an informed public; rather, they knew we needed an educated, Judeo-Christian voting electorate to keep our Republic.

Strong Men have been the backbone of our founding and our society, and they are the enemy of the Left. As World War II looked eminent for the US, many young men enlisted and continued to enlist as we entered the war...it was their duty and their honor to fight for our country. Now 80 years later, how many 16-18 yr-old boys would feel the need to defend their families, their communities and their nation by enlisting in the military? And that military we already have...how many Strong Men have left because of what Rush called "the Chickification" of our institutions? It doesn't stop...SEE THIS:

The Sixties found the Johnson Administration passing the Great Society Programs to supposedly cure the ills of the black community. Instead, the programs set the black family structure and black businesses and advancements back for the foreseeable future and we're seeing the harm today in our schools. Black out-of-wedlock births went from 24% in the 60's before the legislation to 70% in 2020.

Providing a plethora of programs to unwed mothers and their children gave free reign to the fathers to shirk all responsibility. Now we see generations of poor women of all races who struggle to raise children alone and, sadly, the struggle is perpetuated by their daughters and their daughters. Back in Maryland in the 80's, I heard about the "Freedom Card" from a 15 yr old. She wanted to drop out of school, live with her boyfriend and get all of her Social Services benefits loaded onto a "Freedom Card". No Strong Men needed; the government is the head of the household.

The "Murphy Brown Show" was a seminal moment in my mind, when Murphy, a TV show exec, showed the world women don't need husbands to have or raise babies. Too bad she didn't explain that she had this luxury because she had an executive salary. The entertainment business reinforced the notion portraying husbands and fathers as stupid, useless members of a family. The future would see this idea pushed even further by Education Inc.

Yes, I came of age on the cusp of Feminism graduating from college in 1975, and I appreciated the ability to move up the corporate ladder as a woman, but I never accepted that women were equal to men in every way. I was raised by two parents, including a strong yet intellectual dad, who was the head of our household. Just as we need strong fathers to protect our families, we need Strong Men to protect our cities, our schools and our borders...or we will pay the ultimate price and lose our nation

Gay Marriage combined with free abortions put an end to Strong Men in our society and propelled the complete annihilation of the foundations of our Judeo-Christian beliefs. But the slippery slope hadn't bottomed out...the LGBTQ+ movement did that. Now all those young boys can become girls with the 'new science', while Big Pharma and the healthcare industry make out like bandits. Strong parents are relegated to Right-Wing Kooks who don't know what's best for their confused children.

This administration is also threatening the last remaining Strong Men with their lives. J6 made an example out of Strong Men who wanted to defend their Constitution and were manipulated into running afoul of the law, and lawfare sealed their fate. The message is clear – “don’t mess with the Government or we’ll destroy you.” The Transformation is complete, and the Communists can come and take everything we have left, and future generations will own nothing and be happy.

The only hinderance to their plan were Strong Men and they’ve nearly erased that problem. Now there is only One Strong Man standing in their way.

Isaiah 45:1

This is what the LORD says to Cyrus, his anointed one, whose right hand he will empower. Before him, mighty kings will be paralyzed with fear. Their fortress gates will be opened, never to shut again.

(Although Cyrus was a Pagan (or heathen), God chose him to save the Jews and return His people to Israel. He empowered Cyrus by taking his right hand...Cyrus raised his right hand to God...sound familiar?)

© 2024 Susan Mehiel – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Susan Mehiel: Mehiell130@gmail.com