

Donald J. Trump, born in the USA

“For honest merit to succeed amid the tricks and intrigues which are now so lamentably common, I know is difficult; but the honor of success is increased by the obstacles which are to be surmounted. Let me triumph as a man or not at all.” –President Rutherford B. Hayes

Some of the most brilliant Americans write to me every time another of my articles is published. I’m always thrilled to hear from them, but never more so than the several I heard from today after my latest article, was published by Newswithviews.com. I’ve received permission from three people to use their letters to me. I think you’ll enjoy them.

Natural Born Citizen

Dennis Kelly wrote to me with a suggestion I thought was terrific. I don’t know if The Donald would ever use it, but I thought it was a great idea. It would be a real hoot to see this at the next debate, especially since the Circuit Court of Cook County, in Chicago, has agreed to hear a lawsuit on Senator Ted Cruz’s eligibility for president. This virtually ensures that the issue will dominate the news in the run-up in the South Carolina primary.

✘ The best thing that could happen, is that the court would receive copies of Emer de Vattel’s The Law of Nations. I wish someone would get a copy to Mr. Trump as well. Retired attorney, and Constitutional expert, Publius Huldah, has given us a superb explanation of “Natural Born Citizen.” It is only 12 minutes long and describes the law perfectly. Watch it here.

Again, I wish Mr. Trump could listen to this. Remember, the bottom line for eligibility to run for President or Vice President is that you must be born of two American citizen parents.

Here is Dennis Kelly's terrific idea!

"It seems you may have Mr. Trump's ear. If so, I've had this idea stuck in my mind that Mr. Trump might carry his original birth certificate with him at all times in his suit coat pocket. If the citizenship issue arises for Ted Cruz, Mr. Trump could casually pull out his own birth certificate from inside his pocket and say something like, 'Well, let's take a look, I just happen to have my birth certificate right here and let's see what it says. I ask Mr. Cruz to do the same thing.'

I think it's brilliant. It could be his trademark 'Born in the USA'. I was compelled to send this to you."

Trump Loves Veterans, and Veterans Love Trump

From the Honorable Allen B. Clark, Lay Minister to Veterans, came a lovely compliment and a heart wrenching note.

I spoke with him to get his permission to reprint his note. We had a lovely conversation, and he talked about Mr. Trump. He said that The Donald actually reminds him of General George Patton. The General was a little rough around the edges, but he always spoke the truth. Allen Clark is right about that! Isn't it refreshing to hear the truth and see a man who actually becomes angry at lies!?

I lived through Viet Nam and always thanked these men for their service. Two of my high school sweethearts are on the Viet Nam Memorial Wall. Mr. Clark's letter really touched me. Here's what he said:

"Kelleigh, this is a compliment for you. I believe this is a very perceptive analysis. My wife and I are supporting Trump down here in Texas for our primary. We are two thirds through the DVD of The Captains and The Kings. When one watches that mini-series and witnesses Taylor Caldwell's fictional story, it leaves me sick to be reminded of the devilish reflections in the actions of people to satisfy greed and the baser instincts in our humanity. I am a double leg amputee from Vietnam, so I am well aware of the reflections of war. I believe Trump is our best hope of righting our ship of state. May our Lord bless and keep you."

Allen Clark has written two books, Valor in Vietnam, and Wounded Soldier, Healing Warrior. He also has two websites, www.combatfaith.com and www.combatfaith.blogspot.com. Check them out, they look terrific!

The War We Fight

Another letter came from Helene Holt, an amazing author in her own right. She has sent me four of her books which are on my nightstand. They are, Pocket Resource for Christians, Rattlesnake Road, Exiled: The Story of John Lathrop 1584-1653, and Namesake: Seeking the Living Christ.

✘ I've found Helene's letters to always be uplifting and informative, and she stands in battle with the rest of us for our country. Here is what Helene wrote:

"I appreciate you and others so very much who take the time to defend Donald Trump AND the fundamental principles of freedom, and the importance of Christianity in our nation. I do believe Donald is America's second chance. I love the Lord. I get so frustrated at the onslaughts against liberty that seem to be increasing at an incomprehensible rate! I cannot believe that Justice Scalia's death was of natural causes. Evil and gross wickedness are increasing at an horrendous rate. Are we prepared?"

Here's a quote from one of my favorite books (The Great and Abominable Church of the Devil by H. Verlan Andersen), ‘God may judge all men by their political beliefs.’ The author goes on to say that ‘our political philosophy is a reliable measure of [our] moral character.’ The book does not have to do with any organized religion, but everything to do with freedom vs. slavery and how good people get duped into buying into the lies. The author is dead now, but he would be firmly against the NWO which is anti-Christian, anti-freedom, anti-family, anti-Constitution, and pro-communism, pro-world rule, and pro-controlling the people and denying them liberty.”

Conclusion

When folks like Dennis Kelly, Allen Clark, and Helene Holt write to me, it keeps me doing what I do. It fills me with hope to know that so many, besides these three, support and love Donald Trump, and that he is filling a void, and he resonates with so very many Americans.

It also makes me weep to know there are so many wonderful Americans just like me. I received many letters in response to the article, SC GOP Leader Says Trump Has Supernatural Power Behind Him, and all but one were very positive about Donald Trump.
