

Donald J. Trump: fearless courage, for God, for family and for country

Bias has always been a factor in journalism. It's nearly impossible to remove. Humans have their thoughts, and keeping them out of your work is difficult. But 2016 saw the remaining veneer of credibility, thin as it was, stripped away and set on fire. –Derek Hunter, Former NeverTrumper Talk Show Host

The Spine of Steel

In the face of the most horrific attacks on his person, his family, and his policies, Trump has withstood the avalanche of media bias and hatred and never wavered. He has shown he definitely has what it takes to be the 45th President of the United States of America.

Remember the one man in China's Tiananmen Square who stood defiantly against the tanks? He was mowed down for wanting freedom. The Clinton Machine including main stream media, the Justice Department, the republican 5th column, and every globalist in America, has excoriated Trump with lies, hatred, and half-truths. They too wanted Trump mowed down. But he stood defiantly in the face of all the hatred. And he stood because he knows that America is on the precipice of destruction and only he can save her. He has shown a spine of steel, true chutzpah!

He gave up a life of leisure, a life filled with wonderful accomplishments, with family, with business, with his children, and he did it for America, and for all of us, and he continually tells us that he loves us.

I'm so proud to have been a supporter of this amazing man from the very beginning of his campaign.

FBI Reopens Investigation into Hillary Email Use

Trump, speaking to cheering supporters Friday afternoon in Manchester, N.H., praised the FBI for having the “courage” to “right the horrible mistake that they made” – saying he hopes that is “corrected.”

“Hillary Clinton’s corruption is on a scale we have never seen before,” Trump said. “We must not let her take her criminal scheme into the Oval Office.”

In a nod to the significance of the FBI’s announcement, Trump quipped: “The rest of my speech is going to be so boring.”

WikiLeaks Has Finally Burst the Hillary Clinton Bubble

If Bill Clinton can pardon the Riches, then Donald Trump can pardon and bring home, Julian Assange.

When the mainstream media, including the New York Times, Wall Street Journal, MSNBC, Bloomberg, and Washington Post, have lifted their coordinated blackout on all things negative about Hillary Clinton, you know it's bad. Next week, Julian Assange is set to release Hillary's actual emails which could be the smoking gun that finally brings her down."

Be sure to watch the Fox segment below:

Indictment Coming for Hillary?

Of course, the question remains, will the powers-that-be protect Hillary Rodham Clinton. Julian Assange assures us that the next batch of emails he releases will be enough to indict Hillary. Assange also made it clear that there is no evidence of Russian involvement, despite the Clinton campaign's claims.

Julian Assange is still holed up in the Ecuadorian Embassy in London, but he's sure been busy! Not only has he released 20,000 emails from the Democratic National Committee, now he says he'll be releasing more, enough to see Hillary Clinton indicted and arrested. All I can say is, "It's about danged time."

Assange has given a number of interviews where he states there is no evidence that any of these emails came from Russian sources. He has said that the DNC servers were ripe for hacking and were riddled with holes. He says that when the Clinton Campaign talks about having proof the emails were hacked by Russians, he says he doesn't know what they're talking about, but they're not talking about my leak. He said that maybe someday his sources will step forward and some will have egg on their faces.

Of course, it's not important where the emails come from, but what is in them! What they have now is the Clinton Campaign using diversion to escape the truth of these emails...what she does is blame the Russians, blame the Russians, over and over again, and say that these were private emails that were hacked. Well, Hill, your private emails have exposed you and your entire rotten corrupt campaign.

No kidding Hillary, they were emails that were not on a secured server. You got people killed because of your ineptness and laziness as the Secretary of State under the Obama administration, who absolutely detests you and your husband. I wouldn't be surprised if Valerie Jarrett and Michelle Obama are gleeful about this.

We know that Obama supports you only because he wants you to continue his policies. We know and Obama knows that Donald J. Trump will dismantle everything that this Marxist Muslim loving president has done to our beloved country.

Anthony Weiner, Huma Abedin and Chelsea Clinton

The possibility of Hillary occupying the White House again is frightening...we know too much about this woman. She has consistently covered up the controversy regarding her unauthorized emails, she was on trial for how she responded to the Benghazi attack which left four Americans dead because of her failure to react in time to save them. Bill really hasn't helped her out as he has grabbed headlines for his sex scandals, and his ill-gotten statements while campaigning. Hillary continually blames innocent Trump for the things that she herself has done. She's guilty...we all know it.

Clinton emails that prompted a review were actually found on Anthony Weiner's device...so just how much did Huma Abedin tell her husband, Anthony Weiner? The guy is a total pervert. So, where does this leave us? Trump's statements about Weiner were spot on when he called him a security risk reflective of Hillary's bad judgment.

The "pay to play" Clinton Foundation has been exposed with emails from the former president's daughter, whose name is on the foundation, accusing his aides of "hustling" business to win clients at foundation events. We have Chelsea insisting that these aides were taking "significant sums of money from my parents personally."

And we have longtime Hillary loyalist Huma Abedin concerned about the former secretary of State promising to attend a foundation event in Morocco at the request of its king, who had just promised a $12-million donation to the foundation. "She created this mess and she knows it," Abedin wrote.

Conclusion

Just remember, a lot can happen in 10 days, and I really don't trust the entire Justice Department or anyone in this present administration. So, we have to keep working and praying. Hillary will not go down without a fight, and God only knows what she'll do next.

This is not a rightwing conspiracy Hillary, you did this to yourself, and blessed be, Julian Assange is exposing all of it.

It's time to elect a man who is not a politician. It's time to elect an outsider. It's time to elect a businessman. It's time to elect someone who wants to make America great again. It's time to elect a man who will DRAIN THE SWAMP! Vote to save America! Vote for Donald J. Trump.
