

Don't Expect The Lord To Do For You What He Has Commanded You To Do

"Faith and works should travel side-by-side, step answering to step, like the legs of men walking. First faith, and then works; and then faith again, and then works again – until they can scarcely distinguish which is the one and which is the other." -William Booth

As most of you know, "the left", as they call it, is the fruit of what they call "the right", today. As I have stated in times past, today's conservatives are yesterday's liberals AND THE LEFT IS THEIR FRUIT (Matthew 5:13).

Now, I want you to understand that "the left" is actually "the lawless", and "the right" is supposed to be those who uphold the law, and the enforcers of the law against the lawless. That is what makes them good (Psalm 94:16).

If you call it the way that we all see it today, "the left" does what "the left" does because "the right" does not enforce the Law against their crimes unto judgment (Isaiah 51:4). So, let me ask you, what is the difference between "the left" and "the right"? There isn't one, except for those that claim to be what it is that they are not. Shameful.

In Isaiah 59:8, Scripture tells us, "The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace." Also, read Jeremiah 5:28 and Luke 11:42.

What would you think of a person who claimed to be a man of God who sought office to represent the people in upholding the Law against the lawless? Once he gets elected, his constituents are then invited to his prayer meeting at the Capitol only to ask the Lord to do for them what this man has been put in office to do.

Then, online, he shamelessly posts pictures of himself praising the God that he fails to obey (Matthew 15:8).

This man skittishly calls out the treasonous crimes of the said Governor, the abominable immoralities (transgenderism), the kidnapping of children, and unconstitutional policies being rammed through where the corrupt assume authority that has never been granted to them by the people. To those who live in this country, we know it all too well.

The Lord condemns all of this and simultaneously, so do our American laws. Yet, this "man of God" leads a prayer meeting to ask the Lord to do what he is unwilling to do for himself and the people he represents.

Although there is nothing wrong with prayer, the problem here is that the Lord has already given him constitutional authority to deal with these crimes and yet, he does nothing.

"The people of these United States are the rightful masters of both congresses and courts, not to over-throw the Constitution, but to over-throw the men who pervert that Constitution"- Abraham Lincoln

Just ask him about the articles of impeachment and prosecution.

Our representatives are not above the Law; they are not incumbent to tear down the Law or to war against our Laws.

They are there to uphold the Law!

Read Article II, Section 4, and Article I, Section 3, Clause 7 of the United States.

I'm seriously embarrassed for these fearful cowards, for cowards they are (Revelation 21:8).

Can you imagine the little stripling David going to see where the armies of the Living God were being defied (Saul and his armies did nothing to face Goliath) and instead of him going lawfully after the offender, he calls for a prayer meeting in asking the Lord to deal with the Goliath with which he fails to deal (Proverbs 7:2)? Obviously, David was already all prayed up and ready for the battle.

No, it was David's opportunity to prove the God of Israel, and so he did. Because of his obedience (love for the Lord; John 14:21), the Lord was glorified.

Again, David did pray. Yet, he still went to the battlefield to face off with Goliath. His prayer and his faith in action were not independent of each other (James 2:14-26).

In Proverbs 28:4-5, Scripture tells us, "they that forsake the law praise the wicked (allow the wicked to reign- rule): but such as keep the Law (the Lord's government) contend with them."

Why don't these people respond to the Lord's commands and live? It is because "Evil men understand not judgment." Furthermore, when it comes to their prayers, Scripture tells us, "He that turneth away his ear from hearing the Law, even his prayer shall be an abomination" (Proverbs 28:9).

The American people say that they want the answers to what is happening to their country. The good news is that I just gave them to you. However, it is going to take more than hiding behind the prayers of cowardly men who are not doing what they swore that they would do (Psalm 78:9).
