

Dumbed-Down Kids for Leftist Folly

Lee Duigon

Well, well, well! Tomorrow we'll be treated to another "Youth Climate Strike," supposedly from sea to shining sea. New York City school authorities have announced that 1.1 million students will be allowed to skip class without penalty so they can take part in the protests. They want a big turnout because Monday the United Nations Climate Action Summit will be held, and it'll be just so impressive to have a million New York kids yelling their heads off for world government.

Do you think crucial public policies ought to be decided by a million high school kids parroting a lot of pap pumped into their heads by Far Left "teachers"?

"Organizers expect millions of people to leave work, home and school," we are told. We don't need no stinkin' prosperity! We don't need no free republic! Holy cow, the world's gonna end in just twelve years—unless all the governments get together and do something!

Same old hundred-percent-pure crapola.

Despite the climate cult having been caught lying and cheating, fudging figures, suppressing some data while overstating others, times without number, they refuse to leave the stage, clinging to the biggest scam in history for all they're worth. You can see why. If they convince us that Doomsday's coming and only they can save us, they can do anything they want. Either we submit to them, or kiss it all goodbye.

Public school students hear this every day. Higher taxes, bigger and bigger government—well, we just have to do it or we're all gonna die!

The Far Left Crazy seeks to conquer us: to do to us what Hitler and Tojo couldn't do with all their fleets and armies. And in their megalomaniacal scheme of things, what the schools do is to recruit our own children against us. And if the schools can't quite close the deal, there's still "higher education" to finish the job on what's left of their brains.

They've also got our local public libraries.

Get a load of some of these titles that have begun to appear in the children's books section of your public library.

"The ABCs of AOC: Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez from A to Z."

"She Persisted: 13 American Woman Who Changed the World." By Chelsea Clinton, the noted historian and author.

"Nevertheless, She Persisted," by Democrat wacko Elizabeth Warren.

"I Dissent: Ruth Bader Ginsburg Makes Her Mark."

"Sonia Sotomayor: A Judge Grows in the Bronx."

"Muslim Girls Rise" (but not in Muslim countries!), featuring Ilhan Omar.

And let us not forget the 2016 forerunner of them all, "Hillary Rodham Clinton: Some Girls Are Born to Lead." Lead us to what? Heaven forbid we find out.

Hey, wait a minute! All these women in all these books are... Democrats. Far Left Crazy Democrats. Left-wing loons canonized before our very eyes, and held up to our children as role models.

This goes beyond putrid. Even beyond shameful. Inflicting books like this on children has got to be a form of child abuse. Do you see any books about Phyllis Schlafly here? Star Parker? Judge Jeanine Pirro? Or any other conservative woman? Of course you don't. "Educators" don't want kids reading about them. Pretend they don't exist.

You don't get a million kids marching for "action" on OMG Climate Change (!) without first baking their minds in a socialist oven, which is what most of our schools are. That they'll be marching against their own liberties will not occur to them—besides which, with the survival of The Planet on the line, who has time for liberty?

The only upside to this is at least they'll miss a day of school.
