

Establishment want a North American Union

Merging USA, Canada and Mexico

I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. -John 8:12 KJV

This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that GOD is light, and in him is NO darkness at all. -1 John 1:5 KJV

Folks if you aren't a regular reader of articles published at www.NewsWithViews.com you are missing a great deal of information which will help you to absorb God's LIGHT which is in part information. Thank you Coach Daubenmire for his new online bible study which is a discussion event regarding the light of the Lord and the darkness of the world.

I love one of the phrases by one of the listeners – Is your church draining your batteries? Those batteries that keep you in God's light and not the darkness of the evil one. How many of you were deceived by the darkness of the Cruz campaign? A man who is not even a citizen of the United States of America yet is sitting in the U.S. Senate.

We know that Satan is lodged inside many of our churches – what better place to work your evil than sitting among those you are trying to convert. At the same time, we have Satan marching along the halls of Congress, the Supreme Court – not to forget our local and state governments whose actions cause us to scratch our heads and ask “what planet are they from”?

The scam being carried out through the United Nations and our governments named the North American Union (NAU) is a much larger stepping stone to a New World Order (NWO) than the EU was and the EU is a failure. Those supporting the NAU and NWO I believe had, so to speak “placed all their marbles in one basket”.

Donald J. Trump, whether you support him or not, he has thrown a very large stick into their grinder and the elitists, cabals – whatever you want to call it – are very angry. Rep. Flake (R-AZ) recently said that if the Republican base had not come up with a plan to derail Trump in Cleveland they had better get to work. You even had Ted Cruz’s campaign manager along with Glenn Beck and Brad Thor calling for someone to murder Trump.

Flake is an elected official who was supporting Gov. Kasich of Ohio even over Cruz. Does this man not research anyone either? Kasich at the base is a left leaning and acting neocon and a thinking Democrat. Where have the leaders of this country come from??? People like Sheldon Adelson and George Soros waving their billions around is where!

This week we once again have the Bilderburg evil cronies meeting to work “their evil magic” in their goal of controlling the world. Most certainly they will be discussing the EU and Britain’s referendum to leave the EU since it was within the Bilderburg members that the EU was born.

To be certain and also to be discussed is the North American Union and how they are going to proceed. “We the unimportant people” were never supposed to find out about this back door deceit and “we” certainly were supposed to elect Ted Cruz so that he and Heidi could put the final touches on and get things going. (No I cannot prove this, but actions most certainly speak louder than words – see below). Most of the names on that list attending Bilderburg from the USA you will also find on the CFR and Bohemian Grove lists of the past.

Most do not understand the North American Union (NAU) plays a very large role in the New World Order and was the reason for the TPP. Free travel of all goods from China be it food, people, cloths, drugs – whatever and the total loss of the American people having a say about anything. All you have to do is research the EU – “they” think they have a better plan for the NAU but it is still about the elites having power and everyone else works and does without – their “distribution” of wealth.

There is to be a North American Court of Justice (with the authority to overrule a decision of the U.S. Supreme Court), a North American Trade Tribunal, and a Charter of Fundamental Human Rights for North America, also dubbed the North American Social Charter (already written) with the flag having been designed and also the coinage “Amero” with another Constitution in the wind – not that anyone abides by any Constitution these days.

This blog writer I would guess supports the EU listing the supposed “visionary leaders” who inspired the creation of the EU claiming these men created a “sphere of peace and stability” referring to them as the “founding fathers” of the EU. The EU is a failure because:

- lack of control by the “people” over the governmental issues
- the economy is failing within the EU due to bad leadership – personal egos
- the people’s reliance on the government for their well being
- no manufacturing base of their own – dependence on foreign trade
- loss of self-worth of the people themselves because of the above
- poor leadership
- different countries have different ideologies and the egos get in the way

Why would Americans think things would work any better for us? Canada for the most part still thinks and operates like

England and we fought a couple of wars to get out from under them and Mexico is a brutal country who has always put their people last under the leadership and have been draining our system for years illegally. Don't misunderstand me as I know many in this country are also here legally and I am not referring to them.

I used to question why after all these years England still gives all those taxes and elects those "bird brains" to lead them while at the same time they do without. The castles, glided robes, pomp and circumstance – all a glamorous show just like with the Pope.

The United States might not have all the pomp and circumstance of England or the Vatican, but we still elect "bird brains" repeatedly to Congress even when we know they are liars and cheats which is what it has come to today. Perfect example is those following Bernie Sanders who have been under the greatest sham on the American people to date – the government's backdoor takeover of our education system with the deliberate goal to "brainwash" our kids into idiots.

They can't think reasonably, believe everything should be free, have no respect for themselves or anyone else, can't add or subtract without a computer giving them the answer and want to live in Mommy and Daddy's house for life telling them what to do.

✘ In 2009, a leaked 1955 Bildergberg document outlined the plan for a single European Union and a EU currency. The NAU idea emerged during the Reagan administration in the 80's. David Rockefeller, George Schultz and Paul Volker told the president that Canada and America could be politically and economically merged over the next 15 years except for one problem – French-speaking Quebec. Their solution – elect a Bildergberg-friendly prime minister, separate Quebec from the other provinces, then make Canada America's 51st state. It almost worked, but not quite when a 1995 secession referendum was defeated – 50.56% to 49.44%, but not the idea of merger.

At a March 23, 2005 Waco, Texas meeting, attended by George Bush, Mexico's Vicente Fox, and Canada's Paul Martin, the Security and Prosperity Partnership (SPP) was launched, also to be known as the North American Union (NAU). It was a secretive Independent Task Force of North America agreement – a group organized by the Canadian Council of Chief Executives (CCCE), the Mexican Council on Foreign Relations, and the CFR with the following aims:

- circumventing the legislatures of three countries and their constitutions
- suppressing public knowledge or consideration
- *proposing greater US, Canadian and Mexican economic, political, social, and security integration with secretive working groups formed to devise non-debatable, not voted on agreements to be binding and unchangeable.

In short – a corporate coup d'état against the sovereignty of three nations enforced by hard line militarization to suppress opposition.

So did you wonder where all the ideas for the presentation of Agenda 21 came from?

Secretly, over 300 SPP initiatives were crafted to harmonize the continent's policies on gun control, energy, food, drugs, security, immigration, manufacturing, the environment, education and public health along with militarizing three nations for enforcement. The recent announcement by Christiana Figueres, the Executive Secretary of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) announcing the sought-after transformation of the world economy will not be decided at one conference or in one agreement.

The center of their goal to Agenda 21/Global Warming was to transform the world's economy.

All the reasons for the failure of the EU listed above has cost EU members ultimately their sovereignty as some 70 to 80 per cent of the laws passed in Europe involve just rubber stamping of regulations already written by nameless bureaucrats in 'working groups' in Brussels or Luxembourg."

So we have the David Rockefeller who founded the Trilateral Commission, and in 1954 the men who thought they were the "most powerful in the world" got together to form the Bilderberg Group with their grand design is for a "One World Government (World Company) with a single, global marketplace, policed by one world army, and financially regulated by one 'World (Central) Bank' using one global currency."

So, do I have proof in my belief that Ted and Heidi Cruz are to be seen as the leaders and overseers of the NAU – NO – not on paper and certainly not in the news. What I have is the bio of a woman working for one of the richest financial institutions in the world, but her fast advancement there and within the Federal government have told me a great deal:

- Both Ted/Heidi Cruz are Bush what I call "babies or operatives" as with Rubio
- Heidi began her career as an energy investment banker with Merrill Lynch in Houston, Texas
- She also worked for a time for J.P. Morgan as an investment banker in New York
- Heidi's first connection with George W. was in working in D.C. for his campaign
- Heidi turned down a job offer from Goldman Sachs after graduating from Harvard in favor of working the Bush campaign on his economic policy.
- Heidi was the U.S. trade representative under Dr. Condoleezza Rice
- She also served as the Economic Director for the Western Hemisphere at the National Security Council
- Director of the Latin America Office at the U.S. Treasury Department
- Special Assistant to former CFR President Ambassador Robert

B. Zoellick, as a U.S. Trade Representative – Zoellick brokered every free trade deal since serving as the U.S. negotiator during the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) negotiations that led to the formation of the World Trade Organization. He also carries the credentials as president of the World Bank, Vice-Chairman of Goldman Sachs from 2006-07.

- Zoellick got Heidi her job at Goldman Sachs Houston as a partner even before really beginning her career with Goldman Sachs. Her clients have all been high net worth clients in her position as a managing director for investing money. All of her clients have an average net worth of $40 million+. Heidi states, she ran “the private wealth business in the Southwest from Houston. “The job that I have at that firm is, in many ways, in my view, the heart of helping people who have achieved the American dream. “She was promoted to this position after being vice president for 7 years.*

- The last statement is in direct conflict with Ted’s statement regarding Heidi and her work: “she has a real heart for economic development” which is what he remarks regarding her NAU statement. He continued with “Heidi has a real heart here in America for helping lift people out of poverty”. That all sounds great however there is nothing in her background to support that and in fact just the opposite is apparent as her job at Goldman Sachs was to make the “already wealthy – more wealthy”.*

I find the background on the Cruz’s in total alignment with the plans for the NAU and adding to the mix, Ted Cruz would never answer any questions regarding the NAU and basically lied when asked about his wife’s role.

With the not really departure from the 2016 Presidential campaign by Cruz, but just having suspended his campaign, it is going to delay this part of the elitist long laid out plans as the NAU being the second phase for the ultimate goal of the New World Order of one government.

They now are going to have to rethink and regroup and will most certainly be laying out new plans at their meeting in Germany. Remember, they are ever patient, but that patience is going to the wayside as we have seen with the Obama Executive Orders for the past 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ years.

Americans must be ever vigilant to seek out and thwart their moves and motives as to what is happening around us.

As we listen to the Republicans deciding if they will endorse Trump or not, it brings to my mind the Republicans as a whole have helped and in some cases instituted the mess in this country. Not only that, what makes them think they have the "right" to go to Cleveland with an alternative plan to get rid of Trump? Those are the votes of the American people you are messing with – you have no right.

Personally, I am tired of the word PARTY be it Republican or Democrat. It is always PARTY over the PEOPLE. We to them, are nothing but the ones they want to go to work every day so they can get paid. They are supposed to be "protecting and defending the country and the people within her.

Yet they continually turn their backs on the PEOPLE until they want their support. Trump may not be polished and he may come off have baked sometimes, but Americans who voted for him understand he has been his own man for years and he is also smart enough to tame it down.

I just pray he doesn't choose one of his opponents in the primaries. If we wanted them near the White House and having the opportunity to be the next president in the next 4-8 years, we would have voted for one of them to be where Trump is now.

Every one of his opponents has considerable baggage and it was that baggage we were voting against when we voted for Trump.
