

False flag stories not always ridiculous

As people on my private e-mail list have noticed, I've been sending out some False Flag (hoaxes) that scoffers would call ridiculous but if we want to talk "ridiculous," all we have to do is remember the two political conventions when the GOP delegates were yelling "Lock Her Up" which carried over to Bernie Sanders' supporters at the Democrat convention yelling "Lock Her Up" and then Sanders nominated Hillary to become the first woman President of the U.S. and she stood at the podium that night in a white jacket with arms outstretched giving the appearance of "god." Now that's ridiculous!!!

I've received my share of criticism but thanks to my newly discovered Texas Truth Seeker who is a whiz on the Internet finding any number of articles that backs up what we initially published. And, of course, I've had subtle warnings reminding me of the fate of President Nixon and V.P. Spiro Agnew when they attempted to expose the liberal Jewish media as MAKING THE NEWS. Therefore, others that follow will simply report, as infamous Bill O'Reilly on FOX claims. We've had a president in the White House who was not eligible with his phony birth certificate, social security card and there are others who have checked every hospital in Hawaii where Obama claims to have been born and found no proof of his birth. Obama's own auntie said he was born in Kenya and the liberal media still has left this unreported.

WHEN SIN IS ITS UGLIEST, GRACE IS ITS PRETTIEST

Of course, back in the 70s when outspoken, Politically Incorrect Spiro Agnew, resembling today's GOP Presidential nominee Donald Trump, was forced to resign most Americans didn't have a clue as to why. At that time in the seventies, we still had kids in school, had a business to run and I'm ashamed to admit, following in the political path of our farming FDR parents, (who died Republicans) we were registered as Democrats and I don't remember anything about the Nixon-Agnew ticket except the fish wrapping news back then was that Nixon was forced to resign because of the Democrat break-in called Watergate in 1972.[1] A recent Internet picture shows scowling Nixon saying, "Dig me up America. You owe me a big apology. I erased 30 seconds of a recording. Hillary erased servers and 30,000 emails."But the Lord moves in mysterious ways. In the 1977 book Rebirth in Washington, many Watergate "felons" became Christians or became repentant Christians. Always remember, when sin is its ugliest, grace is its prettiest. In addition to some converts to Christianity, the Watergate investigation opened up a can of worms for others who used to meet with President Nixon in his White House office unaware that all conversations were recorded.

ESTABLISHMENT NEWSPAPER CREATE THE NEWS

I found an interesting article by Gary Allen in the American Opinion dated September 1970, a precursor to the Review of the News and currently the New American magazine published by the John Birch Society founded in the '50s allegedly as "controlled opposition" to Communism and the United Nations. Allen opened his article entitled, "A Look at Establishment Newspapers" by saying "for years Americans have grumbled about the radicalism of their newspapers, all too painfully aware that the 'Liberal' Establishment dominates the nations' mass media, slanting the news to the Left with an ease bordering on license. Until recently, however, this general frustration was ignored by mainstream politicians."

Allen further said, "It seemed not even the bravest paladin dared challenge the terrible power of the media. Then along came Spiro T. Agnew, charging madly on a white steed to do public battle with the dark powers of the Establishment's alley journalists. Here was a man saying, even shouting, in public what Americans had been saying to each other in private for two decades. The people loved it!”

Allen then said, “ V.P. Agnew became an instant hero. Here at last was a public official who dared to protest the nasty little games regularly played in the Establishment Press. Most conservatives nearly exploded in glee. Even the hard-core Right, though dubious of Greeks bearing gifts, was cautiously pleased.” And then Allen, a graduate of Stanford University and one of the nation’s top authorities on civil turmoil and the New Left in the 70s went on to name the newspapers but added, “Most of the Leftward slant of our mass media is created neither by members of the Communist Party nor of their conscious sympathizers.”

BLAME THE JOURNALIST COLLEGES

“Rather,” Allen said “it is a product of that ‘Liberalism’ grafted into budding journalists while studying under Fabian Socialist professors in America’s colleges. Reporters received –on-the-job training where they were taught to present the facts and leave the opinions to the boys who wrote the editorial page. And soon all this morphed into up-to-date progressive version of reporting and the traditional five Ws—the who, what, when, where and why were abandoned for a new approach called ‘interpretive reporting’, in which every cub reporter was to be converted into a philosopher king to stencil the reaction of his own glands onto the developments of the day.” When the Lord walked the earth he had the Scribes, Pharisees and Sadducees but today the Scribes run the newspapers and that is Sad U See!

Now having given you some understanding of journalism in the 70s, Donald Trump, the GOP presidential candidate today, is like Vice President Spiro Agnew who was at the peak of his popularity when he resigned. And just like today with Trump’s admiring throng of supporters Agnew was constantly making front-page news and conservative organizations were thrilled at their newfound “champion” who ignored old Teddy Roosevelt’s stratagem, "Speak softly but carry a big stick." No, Agnew was just the opposite and his office was flooded with invitations and he was the #1 fundraiser for the Republican Party.

AGNEW SPOKE LOUDLY

He spoke loudly and often but in the summer of 1973 he delivered a speech that many more feel was his undoing. He warned Americans the Jews owned the U.S. media, lock, stock and barrel and America's Middle Eastern foreign policy was a disaster because of it. While Nixon didn't speak out the way Agnew did, he, too had similar feelings about the liberal media so it is SAD U SEE that both Nixon and Agnew were paid a visit from the powers that be (PTB) and Agnew was given the first choice – resign quickly and quietly, without a whimper, or else he would suffer the shame and humiliation of publicly being outed and highlighted and then carted off to prison to serve a lengthy sentence. Although there were a number of alleged charges that would cart him off to prison, he was allowed to plead to only one – failing to report $29,500 of income he had received back in 1967 and failed to report. With such a bleak future awaiting him, a rejected V.P. Agnew folded his tent, resigned and went back home in disgrace and President Nixon resigned on 8/8/1974 about nine months later.[1] So today America needs some Divine Intervention on behalf of Trump if he is truly God's man, that is. We can ignore the pollsters – all rigged again. Trump is packing stadiums while Hillary is having trouble filling a school auditorium.

But what I find most troubling about the Watergate era investigation is what Reverend Billy Graham said to President Nixon on a White House tape February 21, 1973, "This stranglehold the Jews have on the media had to be broken or the country's going down the drain." Graham said the Bible talks about two kinds of Jews. One is called the Synagogue of Satan. They're the ones putting out the pornographic literature. They're the ones putting out these obscene films."

After Graham admitted the things he said about the Jews while in a conversation with President Nixon, he apologized.[1]

Later, fearing that his "legacy" was at stake, he reached out in desperation to Jewish leaders again and literally begged their forgiveness. In an interview with Jewish run NEWSWEEK ON August 14, 2006, Graham confided: " I went to a meeting with the Jews again" but instead the Jewish Press roasted the aging evangelist, saying his reputation was permanently tarnished but the most damning condemnation came from Abraham Foxman, the National Director of the Anti-Defamation League who said, "Here we have an American icon, the closest we have to a spiritual leader of America, who has been playing a charade all these years and who knows what else he has been saying privately?"[1]

That being said, it should be noted that Graham instructed his Altar call team at rallies to always send Jews who came forward to accept Jesus as their Savior to go back to their synagogues. Now, that's Sad U See.

SOME REFUSE TO BELIEVE NEWSPAPER STORIES CAN BE DISTORTIONS AND FALSE FLAGS

But now let us return to the false flags that many refuse to believe. After one of the most recent incidents occurred in Nice, France, I had to laugh as I watched that big 18 wheeler allegedly mow down all those people running from it. I was reminded about the Running of the Bulls in Spain. I could understand many deaths if it happened in a tunnel but on a city street?

A police man for many years, Scott L. Alexander decided rather than write a lengthy article chronicling the alleged attacks that occurred in Nice, France during the Bastille Day celebration on July 14, 2016, decided to let the many photographs do most of the talking on Jamesfetzner.blogspot.com— nothing more than theater with special effects. Just like Sandy Hook, the Boston Bombing, San Bernadino and Orlando – staggering absence of blood.

But then I read in the 8/22/2016 New American that Prosecutor Francois Molins, the leader of the investigatory team looking into terrorist crimes in France, said Lahouaiej Bouhel, who killed 84 in Nice, received help from at least five others.

And then I learn former Democrat representative Cynthia McKinney appears to link Israel to terror attacks because photographer Richard Gutjhar, who took the video of the attacks in Nice, France took pictures in Munich Germany a week earlier. His wife is a member of the Israeli Knesset (parliament) and also a Mossad agent.

Listen to first few minutes about Canadian Monica Schafer on “Free speech.”

In 2009 the Idaho Observer told how former Georgia Representative Cynthia McKinney spent six days in an Israel jail when she and 20 other members of the Free Gaza movement attempted to deliver humanitarian aid to Palestine.

On October 4, 2015 the Six Million dead Jews was a documentary first broadcast and rebroadcast on August 14, 2016. It seems a Catholic priest by the name of Father Patrick Desbois is trying to identify all the bodies. The Sixty Minute camera crew followed him around seeing what appears to be mounds of buried dead bodies and no doubt there could be bodies but Six Million??? Why Not?

IT TOOK A MIRACLE

The Jewish World Almanac showed the Israel population in 1933 and then again in 1948 only to find the population had increased. [Link]

It was noted in 2015 that schools are dropping the Holocaust from history lessons to avoid offending Muslims. [Link]

So the Jewish World Almanac exonerated Ernst Zundel who spent seven years and two weeks in several different prisons on two continents without due process for exposing this myth. [Link]

And then there is the March 24, 1933 DAILY EXPRESS newspaper with headlines: Judea Declares War on Germany and Jews all over the world united to boycott German Goods along with mass demonstrations. The atrocities against the Germans under the Morgenthau Plan, devised by Henry Morgenthau, the Jew who was President Truman's Secretary of the Treasury and resulted in over two million innocent German men, women and children being intentionally starved or frozen to death but that's a story for another time and President Harry Truman approved this vindictive revenge.[1]

It was later discovered in Truman's Diaries that he hated the way the Jews in his administration had control over him but he nevertheless obliged them and then he lied to the American people. However, Truman cleverly made two key changes to the document the Jews brought him recognizing the Jewish State of Israel. First, he penned in the word "provisional" in front of the first paragraph, signifying that the "government" of the declared nation as not fully such. Then in the second and last paragraph he lined through the meaningful phrase, "new Jewish state" and penned in the words, State of Israel. Thus old Harry who said the buck stops at his desk, his notations on the document made Israel a secular – a true democracy- like other countries rather than exclusively a theocratic "Jewish" state as they desired.[1]

Post War Germany suffered tremendously and only the intervention of former President Herbert Hoover saved Germans from complete annihilation. In 1947, after visiting Germany and being shocked and repulsed at what he saw, Hoover delivered to President Truman an exhaustive, written report called the Marshall Plan demanding more humanitarian approach to the Germans.[1] Yes, there are often two sides to every story and with the Internet now, he who has a desire to learn the truth can find it.
