

FBI Must Arrest, and Convict Traitors Funding the Insurrection or be Disbanded

Our country barely exists because the FBI was never an honest law enforcement organization. It has been corrupt since its inception more than 100 years ago (part of the Coup of 1913). I first came in contact with the FBI about 70 years ago as a State Trooper, when they took credit for many of our arrests. The FBI was great at public relations, but they were only lawyers and accountants wanting to take over police powers of the states. Congress passes unconstitutional laws to give the FBI the ability to usurp lawful state police powers (see Enumerated Powers). During their entire existence, they have ignored their sworn duties and participated in the lawlessness and treason in the Federal establishment.

Our Federal Establishment is corrupt to the core, and the corrupt FBI is responsible for not prosecuting those in Congress and the Bureaucrats in the Administrative State for all manner of crimes and treason. But the FBI was complicit, incompetent, and worthless, allowing and promoting all manner of crimes within the Federal Establishment and against the people. They are also accomplished professionals at framing innocent people. It is impossible to have a Constitutional Republic with a corrupt FBI and Federal Income taxes that reverses the roles of the states and Federal Establishment (which is not a lawful government of the People...the states are).

The founders knew what they were doing when they specified in the Constitution that the laws of the union would be enforced by the Militia of the Several States. But Congress passed the unconstitutional Dick Act, transferring the Militia into the National Guard. The officers of the Militia are appointed by the states, making corruption more difficult. With these words in the Constitution, I fail to see any lawful support for the FBI's creation or existence. Contrary to ACTUAL practice, Congress CANNOT pass laws not authorized by the Enumerated Powers in the Constitution. Period.

So far as I can determine, the FBI was never serious about keeping government officials or others honest, because they were so deeply involved in the corruption themselves, big time.

I reiterate my well-founded opinion that the FBI is directly or indirectly responsible for the destruction of the Constitutional Republic.

Presidents can appoint only a few members of government, while the majority in government (the Federal Establishment) do as they please.

Somehow the Elected Officials and Bureaucrats must understand and believe that if they steal, take kickbacks or bribes, they are going to prison.

Elected officials who vote for unconstitutional laws or fund wars without a Declaration of War are guilty of treason and should be hanged.

Public examples of such necessary punishment are required to instill confidence and hope in the public. Nothing motivates better than public hanging of Traitors. There should be a mandatory 20-year prison term for violating your oath by stealing from the government.

Thank you for reading. If you agree, please pass this on to your politicians. They should know that you think officials violating their oaths should be hanged for Treason, as declared in the Constitution.

God Bless You and the Republic
