

FBI Protects Gays but Not Conservatives

When Satan replied to Jesus, “My name is Legion, for we are many,” who would have guessed that the demons would become modern-day “comedians” who laugh about murder and death. But I do not blame these despicable people for what happened to Charlie Kirk. The blame lies with the gay assassin and those around him who knew about the death threats and failed to act to protect him, led by the FBI.

I understand Kash Patel has been FBI director for only a few months but he undoubtedly must have been known that his friend Charlie Kirk was receiving death threats on a regular basis and that his security personnel were concerned about the open-air atmosphere surrounding his appearance at Utah Valley University.

Why didn’t Kash Patel deploy FBI resources to protect him and at least monitor the situation beforehand?

Patel’s recent congressional appearance was marked by Democrats who hated Charlie Kirk and were blaming the assassination on the firing of many bureaucrats. Patel made several mistakes, such as announcing a subject in custody who was then released. But the Democrats don’t care about Kirk’s death, only the bureaucrats who were on their side when Biden was president and staging raids on Mar-a-Lago and searching through Melania’s under garments.

But Republican Congressman Scott Fitzgerald of Wisconsin questioned FBI Director Patel about how the shooter got up on the roof in the first place.

He said, “According to public reports, the alleged shooter arrives on the Utah Valley University campus nearly four hours before the shooting. The suspect is then captured on security footage jumping off the roof of the alleged shooting location. I think for members of Congress, especially after Butler, Pennsylvania, it’s just unimaginable that there could be some type of security breakdown prior to an event of that size where somebody could access a rooftop.”

Patel said the roof was “readily accessible” through a stairwell and that “anyone could have gotten on it.”

Excuse me, but that is not an acceptable response. That is a statement we would expect from a bureaucrat or Democratic Party operative.

A video has surfaced from earlier this year in which Charlie Kirk says to Utah Senator Mike Lee, “My fear, Senator [Lee] and I hope I’m wrong. Let’s stay in prayer that I’m wrong. That someone is going to get shot the same way that [House Majority Leader] Steve Scalise (R-LA) got shot and God forbid killed.”

Tyler Bowyer of the Kirk organization Turning Point USA said, “We’ve received thousands & thousands of death threats. Charlie never complained about them or lived in fear. Our security detail working with authorities has thwarted dozens of serious threats, but he would never give up. He stared evil in the eye & tried to win them over.”

Bowyer says they were working with “authorities” but what does that mean? The FBI?

I admire Charlie Kirk’s courage but he should still be alive, if the FBI had done its job.

After the fact, the FBI's resources were deployed to collect security camera footage of the gay assassin on the roof and leaving the scene of the crime. But just like in Butler, people on the ground saw the gay assassin on the roof. He was left alone, to shoot and kill Charlie Kirk, and then escape.

Let us think back to Rep. Fitzgerald's point about the shooter arriving on the Utah Valley University campus nearly four hours before the shooting.

If the FBI had been monitoring the gay/transgender "community" and its interactions on social media, the assassination could have been prevented.

Years ago, the FBI investigated the Stonewall Inn, the place where gays and transgenders rioted against the police who were arresting chicken hawks or older males looking for boys for sex. The bar was owned by Matthew Ianniello, a member of the Genovese crime family.

The National Museum of Organized Crime and Law Enforcement reports that Matthew "Matty the Horse" Ianniello was a high-level captain in the Genovese crime family "who held hidden interests in a series of gay bars and porn stores in the Greenwich Village and Times Square neighborhoods."

The Gay City News admits, "FBI informants asserted that Ianniello owned the Stonewall Inn. Various informants also had him owning at least 12 other bars or after-hours clubs that served the LGBTQ community in the late '60s and early '70s." The "criminal groups" also sponsored lesbian bars, one known as "Kook's" and the " Bohemia."

Anna Genovese, the second wife of mobster Vito Genovese of the Genovese crime sponsored "well-produced drag shows," according to the "Gay Liberation and the Mafia" section on a website about Mafia activities. Other sources describe her as a bisexual mob queen who "protected" the LGBTQ community in New York City.

In summary, we have the Mafia to thank for the genesis of the “gay rights” movement and the riots which have now been recognized in a national monument sponsored by the National Park Service and designated as such by President Barack Hussein Obama.

In honor of Charlie Kirk, a Christian who opposed homosexual marriage and special rights for those who practiced the “lifestyle,” President Trump can eliminate funding for Barack Hussein Obama’s Stonewall monument.

It is too late for FBI Director Kash Patel to save Charlie Kirk’s life but not too late to purge the perverts and deviants under his management.

Belatedly, the FBI is investigating social media accounts allegedly indicating foreknowledge of Charlie Kirk’s assassination.

I submit this was not done in advance because of the FBI’s lingering love for the “homosexual community.” These bureaucrats think that those of the LGBTQ variety are protected in their “free speech” and must be left alone, even if they are planning death and destruction and their movement was spawned under the watchful supervision of the Mafia.

Some progress has been made. The FBI, which celebrated Gay Pride Month under Joe Biden, has discontinued the practice. Agents participated in the San Francisco Pride event in June 2023.

A group called DOJ Pride, an LGBTQ employee “resource group” at the Department of Justice, went out of business this year. But its members apparently remain, operating incognito.

It is time for Director Kash Patel to act before more conservative Christians are targeted and killed.
