

Fearless Courage

By Kelleigh Nelson

October 3, 2023

Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee. –Deuteronomy 31:6

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. –Isaiah 41:10

This nation will remain the land of the free only so long as it is the home of the brave. –Elmer Davis, reporter

The true soldier fights not because he hates what is in front of him, but because he loves what is behind him. –G.K. Chesterton

No man is entitled to the blessings of freedom unless he be vigilant in its preservation. –Gen. Douglas MacArthur

Those who give up essential liberties for temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety. –Benjamin Franklin

This is the season of high Holy Days for both Christians and our Jewish brethren. As such, I often think of family, the holiday gatherings of the past and what a joy they were for all of us. This time of year, I head to the bakery to start Christmas cookies and if I don't have an audio book, I flip on Turner Classic Movies to keep me entertained.

I love the Golden Age of Hollywood and the actors and actresses of that era. Those were the days where the entire family could enjoy the film. Yet, this year I found myself weeping as I watched films representing America and her people. I longed for the past to replace the malevolence of today, and my heart breaks for what we've allowed our nation to become.

Courage and fearlessness were evident in so many of those films, along with love and compassion. Good always won out over evil.

Today, a spiritual war is being waged in America.

The Enemy

Every day more overwhelming evil confronts us. It has permeated our society and affected each of us in different ways. The decay has been exposed again and again in past articles. Those of us paying attention know exactly what it is, who is responsible, and how long ago it all started.

We are living in a giant web of deceit and betrayal, a web so malevolent that every living creature on earth and in the sea is targeted for extinction.

World Economic Forum leader, Klaus Schwab tells us, "The world will no longer be run by superpowers like America... it will be run by the World Economic Forum (WEF) stakeholders, such as BlackRock and Bill Gates."

Run by those never elected.

America's leaders are in lockstep with these goals as evidenced by the actions taken against American citizens assembled at the Capitol on January 6th, 2021 to address their grievances with the 2020 election. But this is only one heartbreaking example of the vengeful measures taken by the enemies of freedom. Yet almost three years after the fact, innocent Americans are locked away and some have been sentenced to long terms in prison.

Investigative reporter Lara Logan traveled across America to bring you the truth about the events of January 6, 2021. She interviewed the family of a strong, kind, and decent young man who is dead because of the actions of Biden's Department of Justice. His name was Matthew Pena, and the government caused his untimely and early death.

He was called a "terrorist" by federal Judge Emmet Sullivan when he was innocent.

Find out how a man who'd never been in trouble in his life ended up on the FBI wanted list after January 6th.

Watch this short video by Logan, and weep for our nation. Then stand and fight.

A deputy from the State of Tennessee still languishes in the DC jail. Despite video evidence that clears his name, former Tennessee deputy Colton McAbee sits in a D.C. jail for his alleged role in January 6th.

There are hundreds more.

Meanwhile, Ray Epps, who urged people to enter the Capitol building was only charged with one misdemeanor in connection to the January 6th Capitol breach.

The Power Brokers

It is the unelected power brokers who have chosen the so-called "leaders" for a long time, and not just in America. Nixon was forced to choose Ford, who was on the Warren commission and who agreed with the lies about who murdered JFK. And then Ford chose Nelson Rockefeller as VP...who couldn't even read. He was functionally illiterate as his father had sent his four sons to the progressive John Dewey schools. (Not the Dewey of the decimal system.) Most of the Rockefeller children were also dyslexic. Nelson hired globalist WEF member, Henry Kissinger, to read to him. Rockefeller never gave a speech from notes, because he couldn't read them. He'd always tell the audience he had a speech prepared but decided to speak from his heart.

The same establishment power brokers, both elected and unelected, including Karl Rove, gave Trump an ultimatum to choose insider Pence to gain the evangelical vote. His other choices were Newt Gingrich or Chris Christie, all establishment.

Phyllis Schlafly said many years ago that every vice president is chosen by the Bilderbergers. But there was a deeper purpose for the Pence choice. Remember, Mike Pence's best friends in congress had been Paul Ryan and Jeff Flake, both of whom masqueraded as conservatives. House Speaker Ryan and Senator Flake both left Congress in January 2019.

"Tucker" by Chadwick Moore is a wonderful inside look at the life of Tucker Carlson. It's a quick and delightful read with some very insightful exposes by Mr. Carlson. One of them was about Mike Pence.

When Tucker was under contract to CNN, he said one of the most frequent guests on Crossfire was Mike Pence even as a young obscure congressman.

Tucker said, "He's creepy as hell. There's something strange about Pence. I've been around him a lot, and always felt that he was a totally sinister figure, craven and dishonest.

"I don't think the Pence you see is the real Pence. I just get a very, very strange vibe off that guy – he makes me extremely uncomfortable. Everything about Pence is false. I don't know why nobody says that. If you are talking to someone who seems false on every level, then the obvious question is, 'What is he hiding?'"

Carlson commented that his feeling about Trump tapping Pence for the Covid Task Force and putting everything in his hands was that, from day one, Pence was there to undermine Trump and to keep an eye on him. Tucker said that he felt Pence was getting his instructions from Fauci and pushing Trump in the wrong direction.

I concur with that thought because I also feel that it was Pence, who was responsible for the Trump transition team in 2017, and who was instrumental in helping to eliminate General Flynn as National Security Advisor.

General Michael T. Flynn

Mark Twain said, "It is curious that physical courage should be so common in the world and moral courage so rare."

Yet, there are two shining examples of Americans who love the Lord God, love their country and are fearless and courageous.

The very first person the FBI went after in the Trump administration was General Michael Thomas Flynn. General Flynn was an army intelligence officer who in 2012 became the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency. Mike knows exactly how the system works and who the real enemies of freedom have always been. I'm talking about those inside our country and again, the unelected lifers in the alphabet soup agencies. In 2014, former President Obama fired General Flynn for speaking the truth about the dangers of Islamic extremism. Mike had incurred his wrath.

As Tucker Carlson tells it, and it's absolutely true, "Four days after Donald Trump's inauguration, the FBI lured Mike Flynn into a meeting without his lawyer, concocted a series of fake crimes, and forced him to resign."

The interesting thing few people even know to this day, is that VP Pence's Chief of Staff was Josh Pitcock and he is married to FBI Agent, Katherine Seaman. Seaman had been working with the two disgraced FBI agents, Peter Strzok and Lisa Page on the FBI's counter-intelligence investigation of Hillary Clinton's email server. There was a real kerfuffle over the possibility of a backdoor into the White House via Pitcock. Why? Because an email between clandestine lovers, Strzok and Page stated, "If Katie's husband is there, he can see if there are people we can develop for potential relationships."

When the DOJ destroyed General Flynn, Obama and Biden were thrilled.

In May of 2020, Fox News legal analyst, Gregg Jarrett wrote, "Obama-era officials involved in the unmasking of former national security adviser Gen. Michael Flynn went after him "with a vengeance" because they knew he would expose the "Russia hoax."

When Jeanine Pirro interviewed General Flynn in December of 2020, he told her, "When he chose me to be the national security adviser, they knew that their little plan of spying on Donald Trump would fall apart and many other foreign policy-blunders they got our country into, whether it was the Iran deal, issues going on in the Asian-Pacific theater, trade, all sorts of issues that were in play that the last administration did to frankly run this country right into the ground."

The Department of Justice through the FBI put General Flynn and his entire family through four years of living hell, and they muzzled him with a gag order so he couldn't defend himself. Finally, the planned takedown of Flynn by the FBI was proven, but Federal Judge Emmett Sullivan, who had called the General a traitor, after Mike had given 33 years of his life defending America, overstepped his legal authority and despite documented evidence of innocence, would not release the General. Ultimately, President Trump pardoned the innocent General to free him from the over-zealous federal judge.

Tucker Carlson tells us, "Unelected lifers in the federal agencies make the biggest decisions in the federal government." He is right, didn't we just see that over a three-year period of pure unadulterated destruction of our God given rights? They crushed anyone who tried to rein them in or override their Big Pharma goals.

General Flynn is working to save our country. He tells us, "The border, the economy, the debt, foreign affairs, the 'rule of law' are just a few signs of our eminent collapse."

Mike's faith in God gave him that fearless courage. He knew he was innocent and the Lord would see him through. There was a gift in that trial; millions prayed for him and donated to his legal defense fund and he has a lot of new friends.

Jim Caviezel

When Jim was asked by Mel Gibson to play Jesus in the movie, The Passion, he was told by Gibson that this would most likely curtail Jim's career. He wanted him to be aware of what he would go through, but Jim knew the movie was what he believed and he went forward with it. He relied on his faith in the one true God.

The reputational attacks on Jim were slanderous, but the film itself nearly killed him. He was struck by lightning while portraying Christ delivering his Sermon on the Mount. He endured bone-chilling cold while hanging nearly naked on the cross. He ended up with pneumonia, dislocated a shoulder and even lost feeling in his arms.

One of the blows he endured during the scourging scene opened a 14-inch gash on his back. After filming, he required two heart surgeries, one of which was open-heart surgery.

Despite the attacks against Jim, he was signed to do Person of Interest with Michael Emerson and the television series lasted for five years.

In 2018, he was again cast by Mel Gibson in Sound of Freedom. Nevertheless, the movie about child and slave trafficking took five years to get into theatres. Despite the slanderous and libelous attacks against it and Tim Ballard, the movie grossed a worldwide total of $217.3 million. It is the ninth highest-grossing film of 2023 in the United States and Canada.

From Trending Politics, "Eduardo Verástegui, the producer of the acclaimed film Sound Of Freedom, has declared his intention to run for the presidency in Mexico. The announcement came via a heartfelt post on his official Instagram account, where he expressed his commitment to bringing about change in the nation."

Mel Gibson has again hired Jim Caviezel to play The Passion of the Christ: Resurrection. This film should be out sometime in 2024.

Jim followed his faith and his heart. He prayed every day during the Passion and he witnessed to the cast. The Lord gave Jim that same fearless courage and the movies he's made have been huge hits.

Conclusion

As a nation, we have turned our backs on our first love, our Creator. Therein lies our number one problem.

Both Mike Flynn and Jim Caviezel are devoted family men and faithful and devout believers in the Lord. They're certainly not perfect, none of us are, but their love of God, family and country shines through both of them. They have hearts for truth, liberty and freedom. They are men of fearless courage.

Join them!

Take up the Lord's mantel of fearless courage and fight for our country against the most malevolent evil she has ever seen.
