

Fifth Grader Plots Murder In Surprise Arizona

In October, 2024, a group of 5th grade girls from the Legacy Traditional School in Surprise, AZ, plotted to murder a boy and make it look like a suicide.

This information just came from a newly released police report. One of the girls said she was “in a relationship” (at age 10??) with the boy, and that he had “cheated on her.,” so she wanted him dead. Four of her female classmates joined her in plotting to trap him in the boys restroom and stab him to death. The plot was foiled by a student who overheard the plans, and told their parents, who reported it to police.

ONLY THREE OF THE FAMILIES SHOWED REMORSE! The fourth student allegedly laughed during the interview with authorities, and her parent appeared unfazed over the murder plot. See the tie-in?

THAT, may be the most horrible thing of all, and is definitely the attitude that is causing our society to crumble.

You may already have heard of this incident, and tossed it in the “old news” bin, but not so fast.

Parents have babies and essentially, turn them over the the state. That is how our society began to fall apart.

Starting with Gloria Steinem, in the 1970's, and still today, women are told they shouldn't stay home and raise families. It is somehow beneath them. Far better to leave your children to be raised by strangers, and buy a bigger house, drive a fancier car, or own a bunch of designer clothes.

Gloria Steinem was a Marxist ploy.

So was Barrack Obama's message. Remember Obama's infomercial in 2012, about "The Life of Julia"? The little child was shown to have a better life when not in her family's care.

Listen up, America, whispered the Communists in your ear...THE STATE RAISES THE CHILD. Move along to your lives of material greed. Children? Abort or ignore them. Day care and preschools sprung up, and millions of little Julias were born then tossed.

Family is our most important societal bedrock.

Those who don't remember this are caught living it. Those who don't care to pay attention to "politics" may have no clue, but, all over the country, women were taught to procreate and then ignore, Keep them if you want, but never forget who comes first. SELF!

This is what causes situations like in the Legacy Traditional School.

Parental guidance is a sine qua non of a sane world. Those who have children must raise them, love them hug and listen to them, help them to navigate an increasingly complex world.

If they act antsy in class because they needed to ask mom or dad something important, but were hustled to the school bus instead, give them drugs. Today's cure for everything. Right?

Thank God for a few of the parents in Surprise, AZ, who acted when they learned of the impending horror. Without them, a young boy might have been another casualty of the times.

The End of Times? Many think it is that, where Lucifer walks the halls of our government, and many, completely clueless citizens repeatedly elect him and his gang to make our laws.

I won't go on...Those who don't care won't have made it this far in the article. This is a message to those who DO care and want to help.

Yes, we elected a different kind of President; many of you are happy about that, many would have preferred to go on with gay story hours in schools, illegal invaders murdering and spreading drugs and crime. Trump believes in family.

If I know America well enough, I believe that the strength of the family, and its place in our future freedom is something around which we can all come together.

Get off your couch and out the door, to help good things happen in your town. You don't even have to get involved in those scary politics. Help at the library. Read to a children's story hour – displacing a gender dysphoric with pink balloons stuffed under his sweater. Work with an after-school care group at your church OR set one up! There are so many things we all can do to help

Bless you for being one who tried.
