

Find Your True Self and Evil Looses It's Power

Rumors Of War

Some of us are ready for the Truth, and we represent a threat to those who profit from keeping us in misery. As long as they can accomplish this end with their evil rhetoric, they will do so.

“Alcohol is a medical problem!” they cry. “You are physically sick. The fault does not lie within you.” This is the panderer’s frantic attempt at self-justification.

And while they pretend to search for the “cure,” we who are most in need of it die!

The hope of any cure is really the sickness. But the cure also grants one license to live an even more lawless, unreasonable and uncorrected life, thus granting more power to those in authority, justifying their position and inspiring them to “help” you with further research, “cures” and ultimately, by this process, society is led into a condition vulnerable to war.

These authorities make you much worse and—before you can discover what they are doing to you—they will prevent civil war by giving you a bigger external threat to fight than they are seen to represent.

The urge to fight an outside enemy instead of fighting the “security” and life’s-blood of your corruption is virtually irresistible.

The blind leaders of the blinded could not stand it if you were to get better because they are still glorying in their own follies, such as smoking and drinking, and are corrupting you for a profit.

“Let Truth ring out and Righteousness ring! And let Satan gnash his teeth.”

If you found your True Self, they would be faced with their own wretchedness and would lose their power. They do not seek life; instead they seek glory and riches at your expense. Hence, they all discourage you from any meaningful discourse and knowledge that will expose them.

Do you know what gives men the right to speak truly? It is the Inner Law that we have come to need, that now stands outside. The time of Satan here on earth is grinding to a halt, tangled up in the “wily web of legality” of his “own” making.

(This is part of God’s plan to force evil to do His work—what a frustration it will be to them when they find out!) Now the Truth can begin to shine!

Man has made his laws in order to survive, but if they are to work they must be those Godly rules Satan really despises. Satan’s laws become repression and evil, he preaches sterilized religions that do not save, his followers are healed and are never truly well.

A million martyrs have died to expose the institutions we need, “freedom,” medicine and the law. But the Day of the Lord is on us! Now that Satan (in man) is all “tangled-up” and almost powerless in the face of your new knowledge—live it “up!”

Let Truth ring out and Righteousness ring! And let Satan gnash his teeth.

Now live so perfectly, so right and honest ... By virtue of love you will supersede the authority of the law. You only fall under authority of the law and medicine through falling from grace.

Living by the grace of the Lord you may be hated by the authorities for leading the people out of their hands, and as they hate you, so will they, like the apostle Paul, see the false righteousness of their own zeal.
