

Gowdy, Sessions, McCain – 1 Down, 2 To Go

The unfolding of one of the most flagrant and illegal abuses of power in my lifetime these past weeks has been a real blessing. Release of the FISA related memo last week, I believe, is just the tip of the iceberg.

The shadow government (some prefer Deep State) has controlled politics in this country longer than I've been alive. (The House That Evil Built) Their evil machinations have all but destroyed a true constitutional republic. However, they would not have succeeded without the help of either compromised elected officials, cabinet heads, agency top dogs and members of the Outlaw Congress. Without foot soldiers the generals can't win.

For a full understanding of the FISA related memo released last week, below are just a few of what I consider the best analysis of corruption in an effort to keep President Trump from legitimately winning the White House. Yes, it's a fair amount of reading but separating yellow journalism from credible reporters and journalists is very important.

There was a massive feeding frenzy to stop release of that 4-pg memo: Intelligence Agencies Join FBI in Push Against Plans to Release FISA Abuse Memo: “Whistleblowers, Republican congressional members, and some former intelligence officials cite mounting concern that the White House may not release the House Intelligence Committee’s FISA abuse memo as the FBI pushed against plans to make it public based on false allegations that the memo contains information that would harm U.S. national security, sources tell this reporter.”

Of course, the memo contained nothing about U.S. National Security. Just more political tap dancing to protect corrupt scum in the FBI and DOJ. What’s so surprising, but I suppose shouldn’t be based on AG Jeff Sessions’ actions since he took over the Department of Justice, is his unreal comment about the Nunes Memo:

“Congress has made inquiries concerning an issue of great importance for the country and concerns have been raised about the department’s performance. I have great confidence in the men and women of this Department. But no department is perfect,” Mr. Sessions, a former senator, said.” WHAT?

Sessions hasn’t been able to find his own backside since becoming Attorney General. His comment isn’t just more milk toast, it’s as if he’s deaf, dumb and blind at the same time. At least as soon as FBI Director, Christopher Wray, found out about Andrew McCabe’s part in this cover-up, he fired McCabe the next morning. Sessions has yet to fire key players:

“Mr. Sessions’ top lieutenant, Deputy Attorney General Rod Rosenstein, was one of those implicated in questionable behavior in the new memo. House intelligence committee Chairman Devin Nunes, author of the memo, concluded that Mr. Rosenstein was one of those who signed off on an application for a warrant justifying the surveillance of Trump advisor

I sure would like to know what the FISA judge who signed off on those warrants is thinking about all this – including being lied to through omission.

As I and so many others have said and written: Jeff Sessions MUST go. He has the spine of a jelly-fish and is so damn squishy about doing his job he’s worthless.

Jeff Sessions, resign! But do this first: “The reason for this: Sessions is a target or at least a subject of Mueller’s criminal probe into alleged Trump collusion with Russia as well as the attorney general’s role in the firing of disgraced former FBI Director James Comey.”

Does this explain Sessions’ cowardice?

The question now is: What is FBI Director, Christopher Wray, going to do about all this besides can McCabe?

FBI and DOJ: Cesspools of corruption: “In short, Wray, Sessions and Rosenstein are sitting atop a department riddled with Deep State Obama-Clinton political hacks who are hellbent on denying We the People our vote, and instead on a mission to destroy the Trump presidency and everyone associated with him and his family. And, all the while that this legal jihad continues – spearheaded by Special Counsel Robert Mueller and his conflicted ultra-leftist and ethically challenged prosecutors – the Three Stooges simply sit around and watch this political massacre march on.”

What more can one say about douche-bag, John Juan McCain? He is a corrupt, mega millionaire who should have been thrown out of office decades ago. McCain is one of the top crooks ever to serve in the Senate and shame on any veterans group that has continued to support him just because he is a vet.

No doubt in my mind he won his last primary because of vote fraud, just like I'm 100% convinced Paul RAT Ryan lost his primary two years ago. Vote fraud saved him. McCain's comments about the FISA memo, like Sessions, are, well, I'm at a loss for words: John McCain: FISA Memo Serves no American Interests, Only Putin's.

"In 2016, the Russian government engaged in an elaborate plot to interfere in an American election and undermine our democracy. Russia employed the same tactics it has used to influence elections around the world, from France and Germany to Ukraine, Montenegro, and beyond. Putin's regime launched cyberattacks and spread disinformation with the goal of sowing chaos and weakening faith in our institutions. And while we have no evidence that these efforts affected the outcome of our election, I fear they succeeded in fueling political discord and dividing us from one another.

"The latest attacks on the FBI and Department of Justice serve no American interests – no party's, no president's, only Putin's. The American people deserve to know all of the facts surrounding Russia's ongoing efforts to subvert our democracy, which is why Special Counsel Mueller's investigation must proceed unimpeded."

Hey, Juan – We've known for over a YEAR the so-called Russia collusion and Trump is a lie. A big, fat manufactured lie. In more than a year there hasn't been a scintilla, not a shred of evidence of any collusion. Mueller has run through millions and millions of dollars so far – all of it borrowed with the debt slapped on our backs – to investigate something that doesn't exist.

With the release of the Nunes Memo we know the only collusion was between Hildebeast Clinton, the DNC and key players in the FBI. Hey, Juan – America is not a democracy. For someone so intelligent you don't even know our legal form of government. Unfortunately, due to the Seventeenth Amendment fraud, likely McCain will remain in office a few more years unless God blesses us with him deciding to leave before the next election.

That brings me to Trey Gowdy who shocked the political world by announcing last week he will not file for reelection. I damn near fell off this chair. 34 Republicans have announced they are leaving CON-gress. Good-bye, don't let the door hit you on the ass on your way out. (Full list here)

But, Trey Gowdy? Former darling of the right who lost a huge number of supporters across this country because of his Benghazi investigations that produced nothing. Not one of the guilty responsible for four dead Americans has been indicted.

I was a big supporter of Gowdy since his election in 2010 but after a year or so of his endless committee hearings and excuses on Benghazi, to me he became just another bull-shier in Washington. Like so many other investigations where the gutless from both party's huff and puff, Benghazi is now just another footnote in history. No more committee hearings. Just four dead Americans, a life time of grief for the families and no justice for the victims. Just like Extortion 17

Over the years, Gowdy seems to be running hot and cold. His latest comments are, like Sessions and McCain, simply beyond any rational thinking. Gowdy Disagrees With Trump: FISA Memo Does Not 'In Any Way' Discredit Mueller Investigation

WHAT? For the love of truth, where is your brain, Congressman Gowdy? The Mueller investigation was a set up from the get-go based on proven lies. Mueller's conflicts of interest and his hiring of Hillary Clinton supporters is well documented. The allegations against Trump and the phony Russia collusion narrative were a lie. Mueller is dirty going back to 9/11.

Devin Nunes, targeting Mueller and the FBI, alarms Democrats and some Republicans with his tactics. “More recently, Gowdy said that his “heart would be broken” if Nunes follows through on reported plans to issue a corruption exposé about the FBI, citing concerns that issuing such a report outside the context of a comprehensive investigation of the Justice Department could prove damaging to law enforcement.” Well, gee. Someone get Gowdy a cardiologist.

Trey Gowdy who is known as squeaky clean and at the top of his game – suddenly when the crap is hitting the fan over the Nunes Memo – decides to retire. Gowdy says he wants out of politics to return to practicing and teaching law. He turned down an appointment to the highly-respected 4th Circuit Court of Appeals where he could really have made a difference. An appointment Gowdy thought as a dream job:

“According to sources, White House Counsel Don McGahn called Gowdy twice to see if he would accept a nomination to serve as a judge on the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals, but Gowdy declined. McGahn was about to submit a list of names for the 4th Circuit openings, and thought Gowdy wanted to be considered. It was thought to be Gowdy’s dream job, but the lawmaker has signaled he is more interested in practicing law and teaching.”

Something is very wrong with this one, trust me. Dozens of congressional incumbents jumping ship. Big shot committee chairs like Issa and Gowdy all bailing this year. I say good riddance and I also say sumpin’s up. 1 down and 2 to go but I won’t hold my breath Sessions will resign and McCain will retire.

I have no doubt the flood gates have been opened and the next few months will see more of what we’ve seen the last couple of weeks. What we really need to see are indictments of Loretta Lynch, Hildebeast Clinton, that pig she married to and her daughter, Andrew McCabe, James Comey and the rest of the gang.

NOTE: I want to take a moment to express my sorrow over the passing of NWVs writer, Greg Evensen, on January 26, 2018. Greg gave his professional life to law enforcement and his personal moral foundation and beliefs to God. His columns were always well researched and written like the true pro he was. These few words don't do him justice as a husband, father and tireless warrior for justice and freedom for all. His columns are archived here. God rest your soul, Greg. You are missed but you won't be forgotten.
