

Guerrilla Warfare in the United States

By Cliff Kincaid

March 29, 2023

Train derailments, attacks on power substations, lasers directed at aircraft, firebombing pro-life pregnancy centers, a communist-inspired Antifa attack on a police facility in Atlanta, and now a transgender killer at a Christian school.

Some of the above might be accidents or the work of deranged individuals. But you would have to be naïve to rule out the involvement of subversives determined to undermine public safety and security.

You do not have to be a “conspiracy theorist” to consider that there might be something sinister happening behind the scenes.

On the other hand, stories about the “search for a motive” in the mass murder at the Christian school demonstrate the clueless nature of our media on these shocking events.

The conclusion is inescapable: America is under attack by foreign ideologies based in Russia and China and anti-American cultural tendencies encouraged by the national Democratic Party.

To obscure these facts, the media focus on guns, not mental problems, educational malpractice, and parental irresponsibility.

Consider the transgender movement, which spawned 28-year-old

Nashville killer “Audrey Hale.” She/he went to the Christian school and was obviously opposed to its Christian values.

Leslie Feinberg, founder of the modern transgender movement, was described by his supporters as “an anti-racist white, working-class, secular Jewish, transgender, lesbian, female, revolutionary communist.” A member of the communist Workers World Party, his/her books included Rainbow Solidarity in Defense of Cuba.

He/she represents the “Cultural Marxism” that has infected the lives of many young people and has now struck down three students and three staff members at that Christian school.

What’s happening is not a mystery. It is much more than an “emotional disorder” and is based on rejection of the United States and its Christian heritage.

Another prominent advocate of “transgender liberation” is Bradley/Chelsea Manning, the former U.S. Army analyst sentenced to prison for espionage for his/her collaboration in the release by WikiLeaks of thousands of top-secret intelligence reports. Former President Barack Hussein Obama commuted Manning’s sentence, which was originally 35 years in prison for espionage, after only seven years in prison. Manning was an open homosexual in the Army before deciding to become a woman and has attempted suicide on two occasions.

In order to understand this form of Cultural Marxism, also note the case of the Harvard-educated Unabomber, Ted Kaczynski, about whom a psychiatric report said his mental state had deteriorated to the point where he had “fantasies of being a female” and “became convinced that he should undergo sex change surgery.” This modern-day environmentalist and Luddite staged an 18-year bombing campaign that killed three people and injured many more before his capture by the FBI in 1996.

In the on-going Atlanta case, we have concrete evidence of what constitutes a small communist-inspired army hiding in a forest and then attacking the facility known as Cop City, under the cover of protecting trees and the legacy of indigenous people. This reflects a mental disease as well.

The Atlanta Police Department reported, “On March 5, 2023, a group of violent agitators used the cover of a peaceful protest of the proposed Atlanta Public Safety Training Center to conduct a coordinated attack on construction equipment and police officers. They changed into black clothing and entered the construction area and began to throw large rocks, bricks, Molotov cocktails, and fireworks at police officers.”

The National Lawyers Guild (NLG), once identified by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a Communist Party front, is defending the accused terrorists who were apprehended, saying they were “environmental justice protesters” trying “to defend their communities from the harms of militarized policing and environmental degradation on stolen Muscogee land.”

The NLG is still an affiliate of the International Association of Democratic Lawyers (IADL), an old Soviet front.

Meanwhile, the so-called ANSWER coalition has issued a call to arms, declaring “A New Phase of the Fight Against War & Empire.”

“Protesters marched through the streets of Washington to demand money for people’s needs, not the war machine and to denounce the constant U.S./NATO escalation that has brought the world to the brink of catastrophe over conflicts in Ukraine, Taiwan, and so many other parts of the world,” the group said of its March 18 rally in Lafayette Park across from the White House.

This group, which includes leading members of the Party for Socialism and Liberation and the Workers World Party, openly favor military victories by our enemies in Moscow and Beijing.

At the same time, thousands of Communist Chinese are pouring into the United States through the open borders, some of them undoubtedly involved in illegal drug smuggling operations. The publication Politico documented a Chinese Communist connection to illegal marijuana markets.

Before the George Floyd riots of May 2020, dubbed a “black rebellion” by communists, we faced the Harlem riots of 1964 and the Watts riots of 1965.

What we desperately need is an update to the 1968 congressional report, “Guerrilla Advocates in the United States,” which quoted Jesse Gray, the former Harlem organizer for the Communist Party USA, as calling for guerrilla warfare against the United States. Foreign connections through various communist groups were well-documented throughout the report, which also noted evidence of Americans being trained in guerrilla warfare in communist countries.

The report examined how this strategy worked in other countries, sometimes successfully. In South Africa, for example, the communists started a Soviet-backed terrorist group, the Spear of the Nation, which carried out attacks on government facilities and personnel and eventually resulted in Nelson Mandela taking power, under Western pressure and the pretense of bringing blacks and whites together. Mandela was later exposed as a member of the South African Communist Party.

Today, the communist-dominated South African regime conducts military exercises with Russia and China.

Mao Zedong used the 1968 riots in America over the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. to issue a statement “in Support of the Afro-American Struggle Against Violent Repression” and had earlier issued a statement “supporting the American Negroes In Their Just Struggle Against Racial Discrimination by U.S. Imperialism.”

The Communist Party of China newspaper, China Daily, noted that, "In May, 1959, Mao met with visiting "African-American civil rights leader" W.E.B. Du Bois. On China's National Day celebration on Oct 1, 1966, Robert Williams, another civil rights leader and a revolutionary, was invited to speak at Tiananmen Rostrum, with Mao standing at his side. In 1971, then Chinese Premier Zhou Enlai met in Beijing with Huey Newton, leader of the Black Panther Party."

W.E.B Du Bois praised Stalin, won the Lenin Peace Prize, and renounced his American citizenship. Williams had lived in Cuba, China and North Vietnam, and the Black Panthers were notorious for depicting police as pigs.

In the United States, one group that was visible in the March 18 communist rally in Washington, D.C, was the African People's Socialist Party (APSP) and its newspaper, "The Burning Spear," based in St. Petersburg, Florida. Also operating under the name of the Uhuru Movement, it says its members' homes and offices were raided by the FBI on July 29, 2022, because of an alleged connection to a Russian national, Aleksandr Viktorovich Ionov.

Since at least the summer of 2020, the federal government says, Ionov cooperated and coordinated with the Russian Federal Security Service (FSB), the successor to the Soviet KGB , "to identify socio-political points of contention within the United States." That means the Russians were attempting to exacerbate racial and other divisions.

In this case, it appears the FBI had to act, since the APSP advertised a trip its officials made to Russia back in 2015.

Ionov is identified at the founder and president of the Anti-Globalization Movement of Russia (AGMR), an organization headquartered in Moscow and funded by Russia's National Charity Fund, a trust created by Russian Federation President Vladimir Putin.

Back in 2015, according to the Uhuru Movement, the Anti-Globalization Movement of Russia “invited our Party to visit Moscow” and “Our Party members were met at the airport by the president of the Anti-Globalization Movement, Alexander V. Ionov, and his assistant, Slava.”

At a conference, APSP Chairman Omali Yeshitela called on the participants “to understand that the U.S. is itself a State that was created on the stolen land of the Indigenous people called Indians and became wealthy in part because of the theft of half of Mexico and the forced free labor of Africans who were captured and forced into slavery.”

In a “From Russia With Love” dispatch, the group reports that “three Soviet- era generals, two in uniform, were prominent in the conference.”

That old report, “Guerrilla Warfare Advocates in the United States,” helps us understand what the communists have in store for America. They have been working at internal subversion for decades. Unfortunately, it was published by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, which was terminated by congressional liberals years ago, on the grounds that anti-communism constituted “red-baiting.”

The Chinese and the Russians must be laughing themselves silly at the carnage in the U.S. they have encouraged by exploiting divisions and grievances inside the United States. But America weeps for the victims and liberals persist in defunding the police and abolishing the Second Amendment right of law-abiding citizens to defend themselves.
