

Hollywood and the Bolshevik Revolution

Antony Sutton's 1974 book, Wall Street and the Bolshevik Revolution, documented a link between banking interests and the Bolshevik cause. The update is being written now, as it has been disclosed that billionaire Steven Spielberg, the well-known Democratic party donor, met privately with New York City Mayor Zohran Mamdani, the Marxist-Muslim lover of Iran's Shia ideology and hater of ICE.

It turns out that a "Jewish action" group called Bend the Arc that is supported by Spielberg backed Mamdani for mayor and opposes MAGA. An affiliate, Bend the Arc Action, is headed by Alex Soros of his father's Open Society Foundations.

Although New York City is the city with the world's largest Jewish population, Mamdani is a Twelver Shia Muslim tied by ideology to the religious fanatics running Iran.

Spielberg is a Jewish filmmaker with a net worth pegged at $7.1 billion and known for his film, "Schindler's List," about saving Jews from the Holocaust.

His latest film project is about outer space aliens, Disclosure Day, which is appropriate since in this context since we need more disclosure about Spielberg's relationship with Mamdani.

"They are starved for the truth," says one character in the film about UFOs.

The same can be said for those wondering what is going on with the Spielberg-Mamdani meeting.

Meanwhile, in New York City, a Jew-Hating pro-terrorist mob just descended on a local synagogue and Jewish school in a mostly Jewish neighborhood as they shouted "Say it loud, say it clear, we support HAMAS here!"

One can only conclude that the "friendly" meeting with Mamdani means Spielberg may be considering a film project about Mamdani's rise to power and/or may be preparing to convince Hollywood and Wall Street that his brand of Bolshevik revolution in New York City is not a threat to Jewish New Yorkers.

Spielberg received the Medal of Freedom from Barack Hussein Obama in 2015 while Barack and Michelle Obama were photographed vacationing on Steven Spielberg's luxurious $250 million "superyacht" in Italy in September.

At least Barack Hussein Obama made an effort to conceal his Muslim and Marxist background. Mamdani wears his dangerous ideologies on his sleeve and behind his smile, making his meeting with Spielberg seem more extraordinary.

In the past, the much-maligned House Committee on Un-American Activities, known as HCUA, had uncovered dramatic communist infiltration of Hollywood and forced the studios to clean house. It looks like another investigation and house-cleaning is in order, with probes into Steven Spielberg, Alex Soros, and their support for "progressive" causes.

But the house-cleaning had only gone so far. Actor Warren Beatty starred in the 1981 film, Reds, about the American communist journalist John Reed and the Russian Revolution. The Communist Party USA hailed it as "extraordinary" and a "must-see," noting that it won three Academy Awards.

Ynetglobal, an Israeli news agency, is commenting on the Spielberg/Mamdani meeting, noting its significance in terms of “Jewish power and progressive politics.”

“On his first full day in office,” writes Daniel Edelson, ‘between a dawn visit to a Bronx fire scene and a press conference on new consumer regulations, New York Mayor Zohran Mamdani briefly vanished from the public schedule.”

The reporter added that, “The meeting, held at Spielberg’s luxury apartment in the San Remo building overlooking Central Park, offers a glimpse into the complex relationship between an openly anti-Zionist mayor and Hollywood’s Jewish elite.”

In addition to being “anti-Zionist,” Mamdani’s movement has been called the “Red Jihad,” a combination of Marxism and radical Islam that threatens to ignite another 9/11 on American soil.

Ominously, the writer raised the issue of “the possible ideological and financial connection between the two men,” with the news outlet noting that Spielberg’s project known as the Righteous Persons Foundation has recently “become a prominent funder of progressive left-wing organizations.”

It claims to have made more than $160 million in grants to date.

The website Influence Watch reports that the organization has contributed to Jewish organizations that “resist the Trump agenda.” One of them, Bend the Arc, a network of left-of-center Jewish organizations, features people dressed in “New York Jews for Mamdani” T-shirts.

It declares, “In September [2025], Bend the Arc made its first ever mayoral endorsement for Zohran Mamdani. It was covered in CBS, NBC, Politico, JTA, Democracy Now and more.”

Regarding the terrorist attack using a vehicle in Minneapolis on the ICE agent, Bend the Arc proclaims that anti-ICE activist Renee Nicole Good was “murdered in cold blood for supporting her neighbors amidst ICE’s reign of terror.”

These are lies designed to obscure the fact that Good, a queer woman, drove a car into an ICE agent who shot in self-defense. She was set-up by the organized anti-ICE movement to be a martyr, sparking more anti-ICE protests.

Now we find out billionaire Hollywood money is going into the coffers of the anti-ICE movement, and that Steven Spielberg is entertaining the mortal enemy, Zohran Mamadani, of all Jews worldwide.

But he won’t talk about the meeting because it is more secretive than UFOs.

While Spielberg doesn’t represent Wall Street, a source of funds for the Bolshevik revolution, he does represent Hollywood and is considered the world’s wealthiest filmmaker.

As an American and a Jewish American, one would think he has a duty to tell the truth about Mamdani’s Bolshevik revolution, not meet secretly with the architect of the “fundamental transformation” that Obama began on a national basis. But his close relationship with Obama suggests a major cover-up or whitewash of Mamdani’s agenda is underway.

Mamdani’s meeting with the billionaire Spielberg is significant for another reason, since Mamdani says billionaires should not exist. Except, it seems, when they support him.
