

Hordes Of Third World Migrants Storm Southern Border

Mexico is moving north. Ethnically, linguistically and culturally, the verdict of 1848 (The Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo ended the U.S.-Mexican War) is being over-turned. Will this Mexican nation within a nation advance the goals of the Constitution – to “insure domestic tranquility” and ‘make us a more perfect union’? Or have we imperiled our union? –Pat Buchanan

Historians will look back in stupor at 20th and 21st century Americans who believed the magnificent republic they inherited would be enriched by bringing in scores of millions from the failed states of the Third World. –Pat Buchanan

The horde of invaders is on there way, and they can't be stopped from stampeding into our country. The majority of them are men aged 18 to 40, all of whom look well-fed and well dressed. This is another Soros funded and supported invasion of our country.

Our Sovereign Nation

As a sovereign nation, we are allowed to say who comes and goes in our country, but the socialist left says we don't even have a sovereign right to determine who comes into this country. The President has been campaigning on a merit-based immigration system and yet the Democrats and some of the Republicans refuse to follow the President's lead.

Guatemala's President Jimmy Morales announced this week the Central American country apprehended almost 100 ISIS terrorists in addition to capturing more than 1,000 gangbangers, including members of the vicious MS-13 gang, just as the horde of migrants is pushing its way to the US border. The illegal procession is full of military-aged males, despite the media constantly showing pictures and video clips of female migrants with crying babies. Judicial Watch has also reported on ISIS, yet media ignores the truth.

It is therefore important to note that Article IV, Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution provides:

The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a Republican Form of Government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on Application of the Legislature, or of the Executive (when the Legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.

A migrant horde full of thousands of mostly Hondurans tore down the border gate in Guatemala and stormed the Mexico border Friday. They were mainly military-aged virile males; and yes, this is an invasion.

Less than six months ago, a similar migrant horde was allowed to cross into the U.S. with weak asylum claims despite threats from President Trump of closing down the border. Many migrants from that group are now illegal aliens living in the U.S. as they await their asylum hearings, and most of them will never show up in court.

The Central American countries receive more than $500 million in federal aid from the U.S. every year, which I remind readers is totally unconstitutional. Trump has not yet indicated how much of that federal aid will be cut, but I doubt cutting their funds will change anything.

The Democrats are talking about abolishing ICE, they never want to secure the border, and their nominee just two-years ago said she wanted a borderless hemisphere.

We need a border security wall, and one as big and as strong as the one surrounding the Vatican in Rome, and we need it now. Where the hell are the Republicans?

Mexican Trucks Drive Migrants

Frequent twitter user, actor James Woods asks this question, "So consider this: it is over 2,000 miles from Tegucigalpa, Honduras to Phoenix, Arizona. Hard to believe a bunch of people just randomly decided to pack a lunch and walk two thousand miles to anywhere. Where is this mob sleeping, using bathrooms, procuring food and water?"

On January, 11, 2015 the Department of Transportation (DOT) under the Obama administration changed a rule that was under a dispute since the signing of NAFTA and opened the door to cross border trucking. This was an Obama scam on both our American trucking industry and our safety. This is how these hordes are traveling so quickly.

Since we don't have NAFTA and Congress has yet to ratify what may be another bad treaty, Trump needs to go back to prior rules and stop this.

And guess what, to make it even worse a deep-water port is being built in Mexico so that freighters can go unload their goods bypassing California and its high taxes and labor costs and go through roads leading from Mexico into Arizona and then throughout the U.S. virtually undetected.

Chris Farrell Reports

Judicial Watch's Director of Investigations and Research, Chris Farrell, spent four days in Guatemala, just north of the Honduran border. He reported that this horde is overwhelmingly male from mid-teens to mid-forties, and the women and children are a super minority. There are criminal elements rolled into this third world horde including children who were recovered from a human smuggling operation. The Guatemalans are trying to hold them back, but it's a very grave situation.

Farrell told Lou Dobbs that there is criminal involvement via leftist groups, and according to the highest levels of the Guatemalan government, they have an organized, elaborate and sophisticated operation. Guatemalans are investigating them criminally, and Chris Farrell urges President Trump and AG Sessions to do the same thing here. A lot of these criminal affiliates are receiving money from the Soros occupied U.S. State Department. That's our tax dollars in our U.S. State Department funding this invasion!

Trump needs to immediately start cutting money from the Deep State U.S. State Department.

Sara Carter, a Fox News reporter was also in Guatemala. She spoke to Guatemalan intelligence and interviewed people in the caravan and has confirmed there are MS-13 affiliated gang members among the hordes of illegals.

Homeland Security officials said Tuesday that among the thousands of migrants heading for the United States border are some “gang members” and people with “significant criminal histories.” Department spokesperson Tyler

Houlton said on Twitter that the hordes of illegals include citizens not only of Central American countries, but also of the Middle East, Africa, South Asia and “elsewhere.”

During a visit to the Guatemalan town of Chiquimula, about 35 miles from the Honduran border, Judicial Watch encountered a rowdy group of about 600 men, ages 17 to about 40, marching north on a narrow two-lane highway. Among them was a 40-year-old Honduran man who previously lived in the United States for decades and got deported. His English was quite good, and he said his kids and girlfriend live in the U.S. Another man in his 30s contradicted media reports that illegal alien participants are fleeing violence and fear for their life. “We’re not scared,” he said waving his index finger as others around him nodded in agreement. “We’re going to the United States to get jobs.” Others chanted “vamos para allá Trump!” (We’re coming Trump) as they clenched their fists in the air (the same communist salute I recently wrote about). “We need money and food,” said a 29-year-old man who made the trek with his 21-year-old brother. Link

They all repeated the same rehearsed line when asked about who organized the migrants. Honduran President Juan Orlando Hernández, a conservative, said in a local newspaper report that leftist interests seeking to destabilize the country are manipulating migrants. “The irregular mobilization was organized for political reasons to negatively affect the governance and image of Honduras and to destabilize the peace of neighboring countries,” the president said, adding that many have returned to the country after realizing they’ve been fooled.

If they get to our border and make an asylum claim, 98% of them get through. Something fundamental has to change!

Taxpayer Dollars Funding Illegals

The United States Agency for International Development (USAID) is an independent agency of the U.S. federal government that is primarily responsible for administering civilian foreign aid and development assistance. Apparently, there are many taxpayer-funded groups who are helping this horde of invaders, including USAID, as many of these migrants were seen carrying USAID bags.

Another horde is assembling from Honduras, an intermittent river of 3rd world humanity who plan to invade America. Chris Farrell says he believes there will be even more coming out of El Salvador in another week.

The migrants have received help from local groups and US-based nonprofits like Pueblo Sin Fronteras. I wrote about them last May. This organization has been following the migrants for practically their entire journey, since the first few hundred members departed the Honduran city of San Pedro Sula on Oct. 13, supplying them with water, food and even handing out cash to the crowd.

Pueblo Sin Fronteras (“People Without Borders”) is a project of La Familia Latina Unida, a Chicago, Illinois based 501(c)(4) illegal immigration advocacy organization formed in 2001 by Elvira Arellano, an activist for immigrants living illegally in the United States. The organization is affiliated with the Chicago-based 501(c)(3) pro-illegal immigration groups Centro Sin Fronteras and Pueblo Sin Fronteras. Together, the organizations have been involved in organizing migrants from Central America to attempt to cross the U.S. and Mexican borders illegally since 2010.

These three groups use the Lincoln United Methodist Church in Chicago as a rallying point for illegal immigration activism, using a tax-exempt church as cover to advocate for foreign violation of our country's border laws.

The Invasion

The president of the National Border Patrol Council, Brandon Judd is calling the migrant hordes making their way to the U.S.-Mexico border an "invasion."

"They're carrying their flag, a symbol of the oppression they supposedly want to escape, but they're carrying their flag, and they're very proud."

Another photo from the Associated Press shows protesters burning an American flag with a swastika painted on it in support of the migrant hordes heading through Central America for the United States.

This was done by two people during a protest in favor of the illegals when they were stuck on the Guatemala-Mexico border in front of the American embassy, in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Friday, Oct. 19, 2018." Those burning the flag were not part of the hordes headed for America.

Our Open Border

Lou Dobbs got into a heated debate last Thursday night with

National Border Patrol Council President Brandon Judd over border patrol's ability to stop the migrant aliens headed to the southern border.

Judd argued that border patrol cannot physically stop the illegals at the border, and must wait until they cross illegally and then apprehend them. Current "catch and release" policies will allow the immigrants to be released into the country, Judd explained, and the only real way to stop the hordes of migrants is to allow border patrol to hold its members pending their asylum status.

Dobbs insisted that the only solution, then, is to send the U.S. military to the border and allow them to stop the invaders before they cross the border. But the military has no authority to do anything to stop these invaders nor are they armed.

"If they put one step into the United States we have to take them into custody if the military is there or not," commented Mr. Judd.

The remainder of the interview consisted of a heated debate over whether or not the border patrol and the U.S. military are legally allowed to physically prevent immigrants from illegally crossing the U.S. border. They are not.

"Then that's a fiction and a farce and the American people need to understand that," Dobbs said. "We have a bunch of people in green uniforms at the border who can't do a thing about it."

Dobbs is right, the border is porous and all of these illegal immigrants marching north are supported and funded by leftist organizations to destroy America and make her into a third world country who will continually vote for socialist and communist democrats.

And guess what, Brandon Judd says U.S. Customs and Border Protection Commissioner Kevin McAleenan is not a supporter of President Trump. How wonderful for the American citizens who have lost loved ones at the hands of illegal aliens allowed into our country through our porous borders knowing that those in charge don't give a damn about American citizens.

Loopholes in Immigration Laws

The Trump administration has attributed the surge to loopholes in immigration law that prevent the government from holding adults and their children in detention together while their cases are heard in immigration court. Administration officials say the restrictions encourage parents to bring children across the border because they know they will be released for the duration of their immigration proceedings, which can take years, and meanwhile they disappear into America.

When interviewed by reporters, some of these people have claimed that they were living in poverty and wanted better opportunities in the United States, while others talked about their fear of violence in their home countries. The Democrat Party encourages them and treats them with reverence while castigating ICE agents who routinely go in harm's way to investigate and arrest aliens engaged in criminal activities. These hordes rush to sanctuary cities where criminals, gang members, fugitives and terrorists have free rein.

Conclusion

Rush Limbaugh explained that the president of the United States has full authority and full power to shut down the border of the United States to protect the nation and the people in the United States. It's actually enshrined in the United States federal code. It is Title VIII U.S. Code 1181(f). It gives the president the power to suspend the entry of all aliens whenever he finds their entry would be detrimental to the interests of the United States. He can shut it down whenever he wants to, based on those criteria. It is statutory. He can do it.

Instead, General Mattis is sending 800 more troops to the border. About 2,100 National Guard troops are already at the Mexican border assisting border patrol under an order authorized by Mattis in April. Most of those troops were sent by Texas, California, New Mexico, and Arizona.

If we really wanted to keep these military age hordes out of our country, why hasn't an entire division of 10,000 to 18,000 soldiers been sent to cover the southern border, and why aren't they armed, at least with rubber bullets and tear gas...

If they break the law to enter America, they'll break the law after they're here.
