

How the Deep State Arranged the Hit on Trump

By Cliff Kincaid

July 21, 2024

We know Joe Biden is a cognitive mess. But what about the media? No matter where you turn, we are being treated to endless claims of “security failures” and “oversights” by the Secret Service. We need “transparency,” they constantly say, as the head of the Secret Service runs away from Senate Republicans on the floor of the Republican National Convention.

How many lies must be told before they conclude there was a conspiracy to kill Trump?

At this point, we must conclude either there was federal participation in the plot or the cover-up. Or both. In any case, the corruption goes far beyond even “catastrophic incompetence.”

Federal Assassins

We remember Ruby Ridge, where an FBI sniper killed the wife of Randy Weaver. We remember Waco, where the FBI and ATF used tanks to crush a religious community, igniting a fire that consumed the lives of 80 people, including women and children.

More recently, in the case of Hunter Biden’s ex-girlfriend, Lunden Roberts, the mother of his 5-year-old daughter, we know she has been begging the Bidens for security protection, describing break-ins to her home in Arkansas and threats to their lives.

Nothing was done to protect her, so she is now armed with a shotgun and handguns and guard dogs.

If the Bidens won't protect the mother of Hunter's child and their own granddaughter, why would they want to keep Trump alive, just so he can beat them in November?

The Trump campaign should have taken our advice about getting a private security firm. We saw that what was happening to Lunden Roberts was the template for Trump rallies.

"Conspiracy Theories"

On Fox News, Bill Hemmer talked about the "wild theories running all over the Internet" about the murder plot against Trump, as if those of us discussing the evidence for an "inside job" were somehow way off base.

However, later, on the same channel, Senator Tom Cotton talked about the "conspiracy of silence" that kept the American people from learning the basic facts regarding Biden's medical condition. Nobody doubts this was indeed a real "conspiracy." There is no other explanation. Indeed, Fox is now running a program called "The Cognitive Cover-Up."

If there has indeed been a conspiracy of silence to protect Biden, why can't there be a conspiracy to kill Trump, Biden's main opponent, and cover it up?

Let's use some common sense.

Think about it this way: If keeping Biden in the White House was such a top priority, why isn't killing his Republican opponent a top priority as well?

Former Obama fundraiser Don Peebles was just on Fox, discussing the cognitive cover-up while noting that the Democrats had been trying to vilify and bankrupt Trump and put him in jail. He seems disillusioned with those around Biden.

The logical follow-up to the campaign against Trump, if all else fails, is assassination.

But thanks to an act of God, in turning Trump's head around at the last second, the plan failed.

So now we have nowhere else to turn but to uncover all the personalities involved in the plot and the cover-up.

The Deep State

Welcome to the world of the Deep State, those nameless and faceless operatives who are behind several notorious "suicides" and deaths over the years. We don't know exactly who they are, but we do know they serve the interests of agencies like the FBI, CIA, and NSA.

You might say, or assume, that federal officials wouldn't go that far. But why make that assumption? This cover-up is about maintaining the power of the Democratic Party. What better way to assure Biden's election, now that his cover as a crippled incumbent is broken, than to kill Trump? They tried everything else.

Murdering Trump solves all the Democrats' problems. It would make replacing Biden unnecessary.

The Vincent Foster Case

The Democrats have tried murder before, such as in the case of the Clinton White House lawyer, Vincent Foster, whose body was dumped in a public park. He was discovered to have gained access to secret binders of the NSA and was quickly dispatched. Members of the Deep State were utilized to harass and intimidate a witness into silence.

AIM founder Reed Irvine and I worked on the case together and I recommend his excellent analysis, "Evidence Proving Vincent Foster Was Murdered.”

Lunden Roberts, in the Clinton’s home state of Arkansas, understands this, saying when you challenge the Clintons “you go missing, or something happens to you...That’s what I’ve always heard.”

Trump had questioned the “suicide” of Foster in remarks that convinced the Deep State that Trump would dig up too many scandals. Hence, they tied him up legally with Russian disinformation in the Russia-gate hoax and then the communist Chinese released COVID, a dangerous virus but also a cover for Democratic governors in swing states to engage in election shenanigans and ballot box stuffing in 2020.

Desperation and the Secret State

Those engaged in the cover-up of Biden’s health are clearly desperate people. Is it such a stretch to believe the cover-up has been extended to another and more sinister plot?

Just as the Biden medical cover-up fell apart, the conspiracy to cover-up the details about federal involvement in the attempted murder of Trump is coming into public view. If there were no direct federal involvement in the murder plot, why hasn’t the feminist director of the Secret Service been holding open briefings, disclosing what she knew and what her agency did or did not do?

In terms of the conspiracy of silence, we usually think of the White House staff and top Democrats, who have a political reason to protect Biden. But surely, if the FBI were really doing its job, it would have known these facts as well. The health of the American president is a national security issue.

Director Christopher Wray had to know, as many did who witnessed Biden’s crack-up before the debate, that there was something seriously wrong with the president that presented a national security threat to the nation. Yet, he was silent. He was part of the cover-up.

The Trump-hating Assassin

Apparently, in the Trump case, the Trump-hating progressive activist and would-be assassin was not employed by any federal agency. We can't assume anything.

Still, we are hearing the FBI say it can't determine his motive, when his former classmate says he hated Trump and that he contributed financially to a "progressive" political action committee.

The FBI lie about his supposed lack of a motive means there is something deeper here.

At some point, the cognitively challenged media must exercise some elementary news judgment about what is going on here. How many "lapses" in security must be contemplated before they figure out that the federal agencies in charge of protecting Trump are lying about their own involvement in the plot?

I understand people do not want to come to this conclusion, no matter how obvious it is. But the working assumption must be at this point that that federal agencies are implicated in the attempted assassination of the president. All that we must figure out now is how exactly they did it and how big the conspiracy really was.

The hearing on Monday in Washington must name the names of the conspirators. The hearing is titled "Oversight of the U.S. Secret Service and the Attempted Assassination of President Donald J. Trump."

However, Secret Service director Kimberly Cheatle is the only witness. What about Christopher Wray?

Perhaps the 20-year-old Thomas Matthew Crooks did pull the trigger and he was shot by the Secret Service to shut him up for good. Perhaps some of the Secret Service agents on the ground who protected Trump did not know anything about the plot. But there was a plot of some kind, and that seems clear beyond question.

Biden Gave the Order

When Biden called for Trump to be in the bullseye, that sent the signal. Whether he knew what he was saying or not, the use of the term “bullseye” was clear and unmistakable. He was told to say this, perhaps by his handlers.

The “legal terrorism” wasn’t working They had to destroy Trump in some other way. He had to be killed.

From that point on, the anti-Trump activist known as Thomas Matthew Crooks was selected to carry out the murder. There are many of them in America today, programmed to kill by incessant propaganda that Trump is another Hitler and a threat to democracy. Before Crooks was picked, there was Pascale Ferrier, who sent a letter packed with the poison Ricin to Trump. She was picked up before doing any damage, a signal that future assassins must be smarter.

It looks like Crooks fit the bill, as he surveilled the Trump rally site in full view of law enforcement, climbed the roof of the nearby building, and then opened fire.

The Whistleblowers

Unfortunately for the cover-up artists, some Republican members of Congress are getting leaks from inside the federal bureaucracy indicating that the Trump-hating killer had contacts with foreign interests through encrypted accounts. That means the NSA and CIA had to be aware of the possible international dimensions of this conspiracy.

Perhaps the Iranians were working with the would-be assassin.

Even so, that would mean their interests coincided. In other words, the Iranians, and the U.S. federal agencies, want the same thing – a dead Trump.

To understand how this could have happened and is now being covered-up, consider the case of a State Department official by the name of Robert Malley. He was the State Department's Iran envoy.

I am not suggesting he was part of any plot against Trump. But there is something fishy about his "leave" from the State Department, in the context of how the Biden Administration has been conducting relations with Iran.

Malley was "a fierce critic of Trump's Iran policy," notes the Marxist anti-Israel group Code Pink. His job under Biden was to restart Obama's 2015 Iranian nuclear deal.

Trump's Iran policy included killing a top Iranian terrorist leader and cutting off funds to the terrorist regime.

The late anti-communist author and analyst Herbert Romerstein noted that Robert Malley's father, Simon Malley, was an important figure in the Egyptian Communist Party, was pro-Soviet, passionately anti-Israel, and anti-West. He was booted out of Egypt and later out of France for a while, to be welcomed back later when the more left-wing government of the socialist Francois Mitterrand took over in Paris.

Robert Malley had been CEO of the Soros-funded International Crisis Group.

Josh Rogin, an excellent foreign policy reporter, noted back on September 6, 2023, that the State Department had suspended Malley's security clearance "because of an investigation into a possible mishandling of classified information." He added that the FBI was also "investigating this matter."

The Biden Administration lied, claiming Malley was on leave because he was dealing with a family medical issue. Just another cover-up, standard with this administration.

The FBI Stays Silent

"Congress and the American people deserve to know more about what's going on with the State Department's Iran envoy Robert Malley," Rogin said. Of course, nothing has been forthcoming and Malley became a Senior Fellow at the Yale University Jackson School. That means the FBI moved on, gave Malley a clean bill of health, and decided to ignore the security questions about this top Biden/Obama official.

This is another reason why Christopher Wray must be held responsible for "security failures" in the Trump murder conspiracy plot.

I cite the Malley case as another indication that investigations by the FBI cannot be trusted. So why should we trust them in the Trump case when the Democratic Party has been working with Iran against Trump's policy?

If there is an Iranian connection to the attempt on Trump's life, it will be covered-up, too. Or, perhaps, the Iranians will be blamed, so that the FBI and the Secret Service can escape more scrutiny.

If you think this is a stretch, consider the Jeffrey Epstein cover-up.

Another Federal Cover-Up

Noting that Epstein, the leader of an international child sex trafficking ring, had "escaped justice" from the Justice Department, then-Senator Ben Sasse drew attention to the fact that the guards on duty during Jeffrey Epstein's "suicide" reached a plea deal of 100 hours of community service. They got no jail time under the deal with the feds.

We may never find out how he died and whether the tapes he made of sexual encounters involving the rich and famous are in the possession of the Russians and the Chinese. But we must assume it was murder.

In the final analysis, one doesn't have to be a genius to figure out that treason and blackmail are rampant in the U.S. Government, and that our major federal agencies are covering up the extent of the problem and in fact involved in it.

That includes the attempted murder of President Trump. Think about the FBI agent and Russian spy Robert Hanssen, inside the bureau for 21 years.

The trail of culpability in the Trump assassination attempt leads to the Biden White House and the agencies and people propping him up.

Questioning Kimberly Cheatle of the Secret Service is not enough. Bring in Christopher Wray.

In this case, as we saw in the Hunter Biden laptop coverup, there are honest people in the bureaucracy, such as those IRS whistleblowers. We must hear from the insiders, not the paid stooges running the Secret Service and the FBI.

As for the Trump campaign, bring in a private security service as soon as possible to protect him. Before they try something else.
