

Illuminati, tin foil hats, and vast alt-right conspiracy theories

According to the mainstream media that is controlled by just six corporations there exists a vast “alt-right” conspiracy attempting to take down Hillary Clinton and the nation. During this election cycle paranoia runs deep as major political candidates on the right and on the left, along with television networks and news personalities put on tin foil hats to uncover this conspiracy consisting of far right fringe groups, white supremacists, and neo-Nazis. On the opposite side, the growing alternative media is suggesting that the Illuminati or a global elite is attempting to control the U.S. presidential election. In the book, The Babylon Code I document with my co-author, Troy Anderson, a Pulitzer Prize nominated journalist, the secret groups who are covertly controlling our nation.

On the Fox News Network, Newt Gingrich, former Speaker of the House, explained to the American public why the GOP Establishment has such a problem with Donald Trump. Gingrich commented that the Establishment sees Donald Trump as a threat because “He’s an outsider. He’s not part of the club. He’s uncontrollable. He hasn’t been through the initiation rites. He didn’t belong to the secret society.” Gingrich was implying that Trump was not a member of secret societies like the Illuminati, although there are some conspiracy theorists who believe that Donald Trump is working for the Illuminati. If Donald Trump were working for the Illuminati, then why would he be attacked by every globalist elite organization?

There is one thing that should be fairly obvious and that is no other presidential candidate has been under the constant assault that Trump has been under by the media and members of his own political party. America has never witnessed such an all-out 24/7 media attack on any politician, if you add to the unprecedented media attack against Trump the equally unprecedented betrayal by high-ranking members of the Republican Party.

There is no question that during the primaries, Donald Trump engaged in a guerilla warfare style of personal attacks and mockery of the other candidates. But what the Orwellian media has not reported is that many of these other candidates like Jeb Bush and Ted Cruz who like to appear squeaky clean were, according to many political insiders, engaging in highly personal and vicious attacks against Donald Trump through front groups in the form of political action committees who were buying millions of dollars in television commercial attack ads against him. Jeb Bush apparently spent over $130 million in television ads.

Whatever the real story is, Republicans like Jeb Bush, Ted Cruz, John Kasich, Marco Rubio, Mitt Romney, Glenn Beck, and others who have refused to endorse Donald Trump for President emerge as among the most selfish and dishonest men in the history of American politics. If they truly believed in the principles they campaigned for, they would support Trump because the next President will appoint numerous Supreme Court justices who literally have the power to destroy America as we know it, or preserve our precious Constitutional freedoms. Then these Republican leaders, which would include radio talk show host Glen Beck, despite his claim that he is an independent, have a moral and spiritual obligation to forget whatever personal insults they have received and support the presidential candidate who will appoint Supreme Court justices who will rule on the basis of our Constitution. The fact that these leaders are willing to allow our nation and the future of our children to be destroyed is an immoral selfishness rivalling that of Hillary Clinton. Whatever the outcome of the email scandals, they dwarf in comparison to the destruction that will come to our nation from Republican leaders who are so selfish that they would willfully choose to put their own egos and self-centered agendas above the good of our nation.

Whatever you think of Hillary Clinton and the Democrat Party, they at least have the common sense to rally as one behind their candidate, Hillary Clinton. Hillary Clinton and the "Clinton machine" are formidable adversaries. She is a highly flawed candidate with far more allegations against her than Donald Trump has. But the Democrat Party unifies around their candidate despite all those allegations, and all of their key leaders endorse her. In contrast, the elite in the Republican Party do not endorse their candidate and are willing to throw the election to the Democrats, which reveals exactly who they are. The elite of the Republican Party are bought and paid for by the globalist elite and their real allegiance is not to the American people and ordinary Republicans, but to elite and whatever secret societies they may belong to.

This is where the Corporate controlled media and Hillary Clinton point in the wrong direction when they say there is an "alt right" conspiracy. There is a conspiracy, but it is not an "alt right" conspiracy; that is simply a diversion. The conspiracy is the elite who control the media and both political parties at the top. The proof of this conspiracy is that the Republican presidential candidates who lost and the GOP Establishment are willing to allow all the trade treaties and other globalist agendas to continue.

Do you think it was just by chance that during a Trump rally, right after Ted Cruz betrayed Trump by promising to endorse him during Cruz's speech, that the crowd started booing? That it is just a coincidence that Ted's wife, Heidi Cruz, ran out of the rally with the crowd shouting over and over again, "Goldman Sachs...Goldman Sachs"?

Heidi Cruz has held a high ranking position with Goldman Sachs, one of the most powerful banks in the world, and Goldman Sachs and the other major banks, Wall Street firms, and multi-national corporations are also supporting Hillary Clinton. They control both our main political parties and have been behind much of the evil that has been infecting our Republic. It is time for us to understand who is truly controlling both political parties and to put an end to the control of powerful special interest groups.

In my new book, A Prophecy of the Future of America 2016 – 2017, I expose the global economic system and the future of America in light of Bible prophecy.
