

In the new white house, even the bear rug fears to move

During Obama's eight years in the White House, notice half the country that didn't vote for him, did not riot, burn cars, march with obscene signs, break windows or burn buildings. No one threatened to "blow up the White House" as Madonna promised. No one said, "Someone needs to take that dude out" as TV newscaster Rachel Maddox said. No Muslim-American threatened Obama's life like one did this week at the Council for Islamic-American Council.

Such threats equate to: sedition and punishable by imprisonment.

In the past week, David Muir made a mockery of journalism by being extremely rude to President Trump. Some responses:

Melissa Earl said, "David, you used to show such compassion and thoughtfulness in your reporting. Last night, all you showed was contempt. It backfired. It was not a good interview for you and trump owned you. Get back to your grass roots journalism of telling the truth instead of spreading propaganda."

In the first week in the White House, President Trump moved with lightning speed. He destroyed the TPP. He locked out immigration from eight violent Islamic countries. He proceeded to build a wall on the Mexican border. He called for meetings with the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom and Canada. He addressed the Mexican president. He set a course to add 5,000 new Border Patrol agents. He's renegotiating NAFTA in favor of American workers. He's about to change unfair trade agreements with China to benefit Americans. He met with top auto manufacturers about keeping plants in the USA or face tariffs.

One reader said, "If that bear rug in the Oval Office was alive, the bear would be afraid to move in fear of Trump.”

Admittedly George W. Bush created a bogus war against Iraq and drove our country into financial chaos. Barack Obama created Benghazi, Chicago, Ferguson, Fast and Furious, free money to Iran and slipped $221,000,000.00 (million) into Palestine to help Muslims war against Israel. Obama created the worse racial divide in this country since the 1960s. He took $85 million in vacations from taxpayer money. He watched 3 out of 4 African-American children arrive out of wedlock and into welfare poverty—but did nothing. He never changed a thing to bring jobs. He watched Chicago become a killing zone.

Today, Trump harkens back to President Teddy Roosevelt. Love him or hate him, threaten him or praise him—this man takes action. He lives an action life. He won't give up and he won't give in. He won't quit. He only knows how to work until he succeeds. That alone makes him the best president of this century, thus far.

As to the Mexican border wall: we suffer paying $50,000,000,000.00 (billion) in hard cash to Mexican drug dealers annually. Their drugs destroy our children. We suffer $120,000,000,000.00 (billion) in cash transfers out of our country annually—effectively bleeding us to death. We're $19.5 trillion in debt. Obama put us another $10 trillion in debt within eight years. He added over 13,000,000 (million) to our food stamp rolls instead of adding 13 million to jobs.

Bush and Obama along with the Democrats and Republican created Donald J. Trump. They did little to boost the average American family and certainly did nothing to help America's minorities as to jobs and living standards. They watched our country degrade down the tubes.

And yet, when the country voted for law and order, financial prosperity through jobs—you've got nut cases like Ashley Judd, Madonna and the sacred Meryl Streep along with George Clooney—degrading Trump. They foment violence against our president.

The press guns for him at every meeting.

At some point, everyone in this country needs to support President Trump because he sits in the White House ready to serve our country and all our citizens. After watching him for decades, he takes action rather than makes excuses. He boasts, he tweets, he brags and he creates colorful phrases. So what! Obama mastered one word better than anyone: I. But, he failed with two words: action and results!

For the past 30 years, Congress and its career corrupt politicians screwed the American people as to jobs, unsecured borders, destructive free trade bills, illegal immigration, anchor babies that our tax dollars support, and failed to maintain the middle class. They caused Donald J. Trump.

Personally, I think he will prove the most effective president since Theodore Roosevelt. Let's find out by giving him a chance and supporting him on his journey. Why? Because we're all in the same boat: the United States of America.
