

Independence Day & the Second Amendment

By: Devvy Kidd

July 3, 2023

June 5, 2023, "During a Monday conversation with Elon Musk, Democrat presidential hopeful Robert F. Kennedy Jr. said the Second Amendment is settled and that a Kennedy administration will not be trying to take away guns."

RFK Jr. Says He Would Sign 'Assault Weapons' Ban if it Reached His Desk, June 29, 2023 – "Democratic presidential hopeful Robert F. Kennedy Jr. told a NewsNation town hall on Wednesday night he would sign an "assault weapons" ban if it reached his desk."

I assume Kennedy means his pipe dream administration would include frying pans, baseball bats and anything else used to assault and kill someone. Rifle models like AR-15, AK-47 and handguns like a Glock are inanimate objects that cannot shoot by themselves. A person has to pull the trigger. Just like frying pans, baseball bats or a 2 x 4 requires a person take a swing.

Of course, that doesn't matter to Illinois' governor, a truly repulsive pile of dung who reeks of totalitarian control over the people of Illinois: Illinois Gov. JB Pritzker signs assault weapons ban as lawmakers shore up abortion rights, Jan. 11, 2023. AR-15 at the top of the list in the ban. Then again, allegedly the people of Illinois reelected him for a second term. Useful fools.

But, perhaps Kennedy is word-parsing. Not going to take away guns but would sign an “assault” weapon ban of which the AR-15 and AK-47 rifles have been targeted for decades. No doubt in my mind that’s what Kennedy is referring to. There is a big difference between a gun and a rifle.

Tomorrow is Independence Day commonly referred to as 4th of July. Below is a ten-year old column of mine and as you’ll see, nothing has changed because tens of millions of gun owners refuse to demand the solution, but instead seem content with lawsuits.

Blame for gun grab? Gun owners look in the mirror, January 13, 2013:

Once again, following yet another school massacre, the rabid dogs in the controlled media, NYC Mayor Fascist Michael Bloomberg and the usual vermin in the Outlaw Congress are pushing for something the global elite have wanted since this republic was founded: disarm everyone except police, military.

Those calling for their own destruction are so mentally unstable they can’t even comprehend their own stupidity:

We’ll ‘pry guns from cold, dead fingers’

“For 50 years, the left-leaning columnist Donald Kaul has raged against guns, but after the Sandy Hook Elementary School massacre, he says, it’s time for “anger,” killing gun owners and dragging legislators who disagree with gun control behind pickup trucks until they get the message. The Pulitzer Prize-nominated columnist penned an alarming screed published in the Des Moines Register in which he further suggested the Second Amendment be repealed and the National Rifle Association be declared a terrorist organization.”

Had I penned such a piece, jackbooted thugs at the Department of Fatherland Security who have sold their soul for a paycheck would have kicked down my door, probably shot my dogs and thrown me in some federal jail.

Unfortunately, even individuals who supported the Second Amendment in the past, once again demonstrate complete and total ignorance regarding the Second Amendment. Former Congressional Band Aid pusher, Joe Scarborough, on another obscure cable network (MSNBC) with dismal ratings and dominated by sexual deviants, socialists and Marxists, ranted against gun manufacturers and the NRA after Sandy Hook: "I say, good luck to the gun lobbyist. Good luck to the Hollywood lawyer who tries to blunt the righteous anger of millions of parents, by hiding behind twisted readings of our Bill of Rights."

Twisted readings of our Bill of Rights? We should not waste our time over useful fools like Joe Scarborough or any of the other idiots out there who have zero understanding of the Second Amendment. Old Joe has had too much coffee or he would stand up like a real man and tell his cronies and listening audience what Bob Greenslade wrote in his excellent piece: Repeal of the 2nd Amendment would not Abolish any Right

Illegitimate VP, Joe Biden, has taken the spotlight to demonstrate "leadership" with his usual and profound ignorance about the Second Amendment. Egged on by the impostor squatting in the White House, Biden is basking in the glow of stupidity. He's not the one to be concerned with despite all the rhetoric. As for the usurper, Barry Soetoro, using an Executive Order to ban any gun, well, I can only say go for it because before the ink is dry, the lawsuits will fly. And, yes, EOs have been over turned by the courts.

There is a lot of dangerous talk out there about this latest effort to ban AR-15's as setting off the next American Revolution. Americans armed to the teeth and lines in the sand while everyone continues to ignore the only solution. Not a good idea and unnecessary.

Crank up those petitions

The First Amendment gives all Americans the right to petition and folks are busy doing it by the dozens every day with zero results. A rash of them have grown since the media frenzy about banning guns – primarily the AR-15. Here is one example:

“SIGN our petition, and we will add your voice to thousands of others when we deliver our petition directly to Congress, saying we demand Congress Protect the 2nd Amendment to the Constitution.”

Demand the Outlaw Congress protect the Second Amendment? Please. Can anyone still be so naive?

While I don't doubt the sincerity of the folks behind it, nothing will come of it and it is the wrong message. As I wrote in a recent column, no one likes to be called stupid. There is ignorance because you don't have the facts and then there is willful ignorance – you refuse to get educated about the issue because you know all the answers or the solution might be harmful for drumming up donations.

Those who think the Dick Act is the “Trump Card” making the Second Amendment untouchable simply have no understanding of the Second Amendment or the constitutional militia. And, I say this as I always do because no one except God is perfect: I have always supported the Second Amendment my entire life, but I never really understood the actual meaning of that amendment until I began studying what Dr. Edwin Vieira has written about it since 2005.

I can't tell you how many rude emails I've received from men who belong to militia groups who get mad when I tell them they are not the constitutional militia and they have no legal authority to do anything. While I applaud them for the work they do, they simply have no legal teeth. I have respectfully urged them to read Dr. Vieira's columns on the Second Amendment.

The only solution which scares the shadow government

The National Guard is not the constitutional militia. Local militia are not the constitutional militia. Do take the time to read: True Vs. False Militia & Why the Difference Matters.

Piece meal efforts are NOT going to stop the assault on the Second Amendment.

Gun-rights groups: Our 'backs are against the wall' – “Our backs are against the wall,” said Scott Wilson, president of the Connecticut Citizens Defense League, a pro-gun rights group. “We are in for the fight of our lives. I have never seen anything like it.”

Your back is against the wall because you have allowed this to fester over the decades instead of pursuing the only solution.

Let me put it this way: Gun owners (who by the way, voted in droves for the impostor president, Barry Soetoro and are now squealing like pigs) possess roughly 100 MILLION guns and rifles. The gun grabbers in the U.S. Congress and even state capitols know they are out gunned. This really is a stupid fight for them to pick, but it's necessary to appease the ignorant. To make matters worse, gun owners are being egged on by irresponsible, splashy headlines on the Internet about “martial law to be declared in weeks” making the climate even more volatile. How many even know the legal basis for declaring martial law? Few, including me until I read this column: A Primer on Martial Law several years ago.

The only solution is for states to pass a bill to reconstitute the constitutional militia and demand their governor sign it into law. THAT will stop the tyrants in Washington, DC., once and for all. Yet, the NRA and too many gun groups all across this country ignore the only solution. Why? What is their problem? Yeah, the word militia has been demonized by hate groups like the Southern Poverty Law Center, but that's not an excuse to ignore the real solution. I understand groups need donations to stay afloat, but what good is a pro-Second Amendment organization if they chase more Band Aids instead of going after the cure?

I covered the militia bill Arizona passed last year that was correctly vetoed by Gov. Jan Brewer in another column. It wasn't a good bill; hopefully, a new one will be forthcoming in that state. I wrote a column about what we are doing here in Texas. The working paper I wrote and all exhibits were given to certain members of our state legislature to reconstitute the constitutional militia.

Once committee assignments have been finished, we intend to go after the members on the Homeland Security Committee to push to get a bill written so we can put the heat on Gov. Perry to sign it into law. (Of course, all of it was a waste of my time back then. Those GOP reps and senators were cowards. Militia? Run for the hills because the media will chew you up with all kinds of BS labels.)

Forget petitions to the Red House (formerly known as the White House) and to the gutless cowards in the U.S. Congress who have been selling you down the road on the Second Amendment for decades. Knowledge is no good if not followed by action. If you do nothing, nothing gets done.

Have you had enough of this fight that should never even be an issue? Are you ready for a sensible, cold revolution by getting boots on the ground at your state capitols? Haven't you sent enough money to gun groups to fight for the Second Amendment and look where we are?

Sad to say, since Dr. Vieira has been relentless on this issue going on eight years, seeing is believing. All I see is more of the same. Oh, and don't forget to send your donation for someone else to fight for your Second Amendment rights! Send it today!

Dr. Vieira has put out his latest scholarly work on a CD for those who want to learn what I have about the real meaning of the Second Amendment and the solution:

The Sword and Sovereignty – The Constitutional Principles of “The Militia of the Several States”. You cannot solve a problem until you know how it started and where things went wrong:

“The Sword and Sovereignty: The Constitutional Principles of “the Militia of the several States” is a comprehensive study – 2,304 pages in length, with 6,544 footnotes and endnotes-of the constitutional and statutory history of America’s Militia, which gives special emphasis to the unique and indispensable role of the Militia as the institutions through which WE THE PEOPLE themselves ultimately provide, or withhold, “the consent of the governed” upon which this country’s form of government depends for its legitimacy.

“The Sword and Sovereignty derives the basic legal and practical principles of the Militia from a detailed study of the pre-constitutional Militia statutes of Rhode Island and Virginia (selected, for reasons the book makes clear, as exemplars of what happened throughout America in that era). It explains how these principles are embodied in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, and how they should be applied in the operation of America’s true “federal” system of government – indeed, why it is Congress’s and every State’s duty to see to the organization of, and every American’s personal duty to participate in, the Militia, more imperatively now than ever before. It exposes the dangerous fallacy in the contemporary “individual-rights” misinterpretation of the Second Amendment, and explains how the Supreme Court’s Heller decision reduced Americans’ “right * * * to keep and bear Arms” to a level far below what their forebears enjoyed when the Constitution and Bill of Rights were ratified.

“And it examines ways in which revitalized “Militia of the several States” could, should, and if they were properly revitalized would deal with many of the most pressing contemporary problems this country faces-such as the correction of rogue public officials; the supervision of the “the military-industrial complex”; the conduct of honest elections; the provision of an alternative currency, etc.”

The other big problem I see are gun owners themselves. Edwin wrote a column about homeland security and our individual responsibility. That doesn't sit well with too many men. I get emails: “I don't have time, Devvy.” I guess that's why gun owners send their money to the NRA, but they haven't stopped more and more gun “laws” over the years. If you're too busy to protect your homeland from foreign and domestic enemies, how do you call yourself a patriot? Fair question, I think. Let me repeat: The ONLY thing the power elite in Washington, District of Criminals fear is a bunch of states reconstituting the constitutional militia.

Am I just wasting my time again or are you ready to take the lead in your state? Honestly, I'm sick and tired of all the whining about “taking our guns”, yet few are working towards the only solution that will get rid of the gun grabbers once and for all. (End of my column.)

2023: I am adding this one published on Gun Owners of America's web site as it is a very, important read: The Constitutional Militia, Slavery, And Contemporary “Gun Control” by Dr. Edwin Vieira Jr., Ph.D., J.D., June 6, 2005.

Gun owners focus must be on electing reps and senators to your state legislature, as well as governors who will reconstitute the constitutional militia – the ONLY way to stop this relentless assault on the Second Amendment. Or, keep making donations for endless lawsuits that do not SOLVE the problem. BTW: How's that worked out over the decades?
