

Instead Of Running From The Corruption, We Should ...

“The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.” -Psalm 78:9

I must tell you, friends, that I am utterly amazed, and that to no end, when it comes to the cowardice that I see in this country, today (Psalm 78:9), enjoying the fruits and seasons of living in the greatest country under Heaven.

Apparently, the posterity of our forefathers, which would be you and me, do not realize that they pledged to each other their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honors in giving us what it is that we have (Hebrews 11:32-38)!

Look to the Preamble of the U.S. Constitution.

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

They also fought, bled and died fighting against what it is that many today are tolerating in America that they sacrificed themselves to give us (John 15:13).

Look to the Declaration of Independence.

How can Americans today justify what has happened to this country?

I write this in the face of how many are leaving their perspective states because things are getting more corrupt. Really? You love your country so much that when you have an opportunity to run from the fight in disobedience to God, you take it? If that is the case, I am then here to tell you that you do not deserve the freedoms that you have.

What about your posterity (Children)?

What are you leaving them as an example?

What kind of a future will they have if you fail them now?

Friends, instead of capitulating, turn around and look to your God and face off with the enemies of righteousness (Zechariah 4:6). Don't give future generations an opportunity to look at your generation as a reproach. No, turn and search the Scriptures, find your duty and execute it (Proverbs 7:2). He is not a God that fails to keep His Word, not a one (Joshua 21:45).

Instead of submitting to the wishes of a handful of corrupt politicians that mean to destroy, obey Heaven's commands in dealing with them (Psalm 94:16). You have constitutional provisions in doing so (Article II, Section 4; Article III, Section 1, Clause 7 U.S. Constitution).

These are issues from which Americans cannot run. For if you do, sooner or later it will come to your front door (Amos 6:3) and all the while they will continue to illegally enslave your posterity.

Your forefathers did not run from the fight. They made an appeal to HEAVEN AND THE LORD ANSWERED (Jeremiah 33:3). Instead of running from the corruption, doesn't it make more sense to face off with them for your children's sake? Your forefathers did. It would do us all good to look and to emulate their examples (Hebrews 13:7).
