

Invitations To Liberals' Stupidity, Arrogance and Vacant Mindedness

Let's invite democrats to examine their own stupidities along with vacant mindedness--and began the long, hard road back to reality--in order to serve the American people.

Wasn't it sheer stupidity or just plain arrogance to watch Alzheimer's victim Joe Biden for four years--stagger around, lost on stage, fell on his face, wandered into the woods, fell asleep at an international ecological conference, tripped on the steps going up Air Force One, read from a teleprompter because he couldn't write or speak spontaneously, and visually showed everyone he was incapable of being the president of the United States.

And yet, his press secretary said Biden ran circles around her and the rest of the staff in the Oval Office. Along with Jill Biden, KJP carried on the biggest cover-up scandal in American history. All for the sake of "power" or personal importance.

This past week, you've seen Governor Gavin Newsom and LA Mayor Karen Bass condemning Trump for sending in the guard to quell anti-ICE demonstrations that boiled over into violence, looting, burning cars and Molotov cocktails being thrown at police. You gotta' wonder what planet those two started their lives upon? They've promoted their Sanctuary State and City to the tune of 3,000,000 illegal aliens breaking every law in the books—yet they protect those illegal aliens over American citizens.

Writer Dan Gainor said, “Outlet after outlet has slipped the word “peaceful” into their coverage of the violent riots. There’s The New York Times with “largely peaceful” twice in the same story and one more “peaceful” for good measure.” Reuters said, “largely peaceful,” too. “The View,” scarily an actual ABC News program, had host Whoopi Goldberg claim, “it’s been peaceful for days.” Over at CNN, they said people were there to protest, “initially peacefully.” Even wars are initially peaceful. Till they aren’t. The Washington Post called the protests “muted,” and, honestly, we’d all love to see rioters muted or even gagged. Sometime comedian Jon Stewart went with, “peaceful protesters, mixed with anarchists and vandals.”

With our free press, the truth ultimately arrives on a platter to undermine liars, liars’ wives and politicians.

Those “brilliant minded” women on the TV Show, “The View” said, “An army turned inside to police its citizens can cause chaos and fascism.” Goldberg added, “Civil war.” Gainor said, “The idea that enforcing the law could lead to civil war is the kind of threat Marxists make. If you try to make me obey the law, I will break more laws.”

What astounds this journalist stems from the fact that the directors, producers and stars of “The View” simply hate America. They make a living out of it. Ironically, more than a dozen people watch their insipid program. Thankfully, MSNBC fired Joy Reid and Rachel Maddox because they got sick of their ignorant programs.

As to the cars burning in the streets, what’s the big deal? What’s the problem about all the businesses looted? Is that what a Sanctuary City is all about?

Spokesman Jory Rand said, "It could turn very volatile if you move law enforcement in there in the wrong way, and turn what is just a bunch of people having fun watching cars burn into a massive confrontation and altercation between officers and demonstrators."

At times, it's difficult to understand the "mindset" of liberals. They live on this planet, and in this country, but their minds rotate around the moon.

Let's look at journalist like CNN's Dana Bash and Jake Tapper. They pretend to be journalist when, in fact, they turn every truth inside out and upside down.

Bash does what the left always does. She blamed Trump.

On her show, "Inside Politics With Dana Bash," she ranted, "I know this is a promise that he gave on the campaign trail to do whatever he could to deport illegal immigrants. But what you just posted is basically an arsonist saying, 'I better call the fire department because they got to come in fast to get the flames out.'"

Yeah, right Dana. Maybe you could become a reporter for the "Daily News" in Podunk, Oregon.

Then you see Jake Tapper deny Biden's vacant mind for four years, but denied his decline. But when the facts became undeniable, he wrote a book about how he and the rest of the media were fooled. No Jake, it's called, "How I B.S.'d myself and the American public."

While California burned, Newsom and Bass gave "excuse" speeches. While Border Patrol Head Tom Homan is doing his job to rid the country of criminal illegal aliens, Newsom and Bass do everything in their power to undermine America's laws, border and society. Except, even Californian citizens are sick of paying out billions in welfare, medicaid, prison housing, schools going into the gutter, homelessness, drugs and crime.

When you look at the whole mess of “liberal” California, Washington State, Oregon, Illinois, New York, Massachusetts, and places like Maine—you cannot help but wonder what’s in their drinking water? How do you feed and/or sustain the mindlessness of a “liberal mind?”

How do you support biological men smashing the hopes and dreams of biological women? Well, that “vacant” liberal mind does just that. It supports that which cannot be supported—not biologically, morally, ethically or rationally.

How do you support U.S. AID cheating, lying, scandalizing and screwing the American taxpayer out of trillions of dollars over the past 50 years? Guess what? It’s all about “mindset.” A liberal can rationalize the lying, cheating and stealing—as long as it’s going into their NGO’s pockets.

At some point, we need to introduce an academic class in our high schools that our teens must pass in order to be released into our country: “Logic, reasoning and critical thinking.”

That class is desperately need by Whoopi Goldberg, Sunny Hostin, Joe Scarborough, Brian Stelter, Jonathan Karl, Jake Tapper, Dana Bash, Rachel Maddox, and everyone at CNN, MSNBC and NPR. That’s my invitation to liberals. I will teach the class!

Oh, and by the way, I LOVED the 250th Anniversary of the United States Army Parade. Every man and woman who has served our country in the Navy, Army, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard gave their lives that we might enjoy our lives. God bless America!
